3.8. Selection and Notification

Applicants determined by IFES that possess the capacity to compete for this project will be selected to move into the negotiation phase of this process. Written notification will be sent to these applicants via e-mail. Those applicants not selected for the negotiation phase will also be notified.

4. Scope of Work

To counteract Russia's hybrid tactics to destabilize Ukraine during the wartime period, including disinformation and hate speech campaigns, IFES will support local media to build coalitions, enhance their capacity to develop high-quality analytical materials on the country's political and legal developments, equal and tolerant coverage of all population groups in public dialogue for better inclusion.

IFES will issue a Subaward to civil society organization to consolidate local media and enhance their capacity to develop equal and tolerant journalistic materials and high-quality analytical materials on the country's political and legal developments in times of war and recovery process

The objective of the anticipated subaward is to increase the knowledge of the regional mass media regarding the development of quality analytical materials on political and legal topics and fact-checking technics; raise the awareness of regional media on tolerant journalism for equal coverage of all population groups (IDPs, veterans, women, youth, people with disabilities, national and ethnic minorities, LGBTQ+ and other vulnerable groups) in public dialogue; train regional media to create gender-sensitive texts and materials; create an opportunity to exchange experience, networking, and joint activities through the creation of a coalition of journalists.

This includes:

- Conduct a series of trainings, webinars, and sessions (other information/education programs to meet the objectives of the RFA) on the following topics:
- basics of preparing high-quality analytical materials on political and legal topics; media literacy and fact-checking technics in combating disinformation;
- what is tolerant journalism; the features of equal coverage of all population groups in public dialogue;
- how to create gender-sensitive texts, and materials about people with disabilities, internally displaced people, ethnic and national minorities, veterans, veterans with disabilities, LGBTQ+ people; what are sexism, gender inequality, and gender stereotypes;
- Develop information and educational outreach materials on the tolerant, gender-balanced coverage of vulnerable population groups in the media;
- Create a coalition of regional journalists to exchange experience, networking, and joint activities.
- Organize the initial meetings for coalition building.

5. Functional Requirements

5.1. Timeline:

Applicants must submit a detailed timeline in their application showing the time required to implement the services requested. IFES requires all deliverables to be completed not later than March 22, 2024.

5.2. Monitoring & Evaluation

- As part of its due diligence, IFES conducts pre-award surveys on all potential grantees to assess capacity and inform the appropriate grant mechanism. In addition, applicants expected to expend $750,000 or more in U.S. funded awards during their fiscal year must have an audit conducted in accordance with 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F—Audit Requirements. If Applicable, applicants must ensure that funds are included in the grant budget for an audit.
- IFES will issue the appropriate grant mechanism depending on the nature of the work, the capacity of the grantee, the duration of the grant, and the overall value of the grant.
- IFES will provide continuous mentorship, training and oversight to ensure grant management practices are in line with anti-corruption principles as well as to build capacity of local grantees to fully manage and implement their programs in adherence to donor regulations and with a view towards sustainability.

5.3. Deliverables:

Specific deliverables and reporting will be determined based on the grant activities proposed and negotiated during the negotiation phase.

6. Additional Terms & Conditions

6.1. Non-Disclosure Agreement

IFES reserves the right to require any applicant to enter into a non-disclosure agreement.

6.2. Zero Tolerance for Fraud

IFES has zero tolerance for fraud. Fraud is any act or omission that intentionally misleads, or attempts to mislead, to obtain a benefit or to avoid an obligation.
