

OFFICIAL PRESIDENTIAL BALLOT

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTER

- A. To vote for the candidates for president and vice president whose names are printed below, mark "X" in the rectangular space at the left of the names of such candidates. Such "X" mark will be counted as a vote for each of the candidates for presidential elector whose names have been certified to the Secretary of State and who are members of the same political party as the nominees for president and vice president. An "X" mark for independent candidates for president and vice president shall be counted as a vote for the presidential electors filed by such candidates with the Secretary of State.
- B. To vote for candidates for president and vice president in the blank space below, mark "X" in the left rectangular space and write the name of your choice for president and/or vice president under the respective headings provided for those offices. Such write-in will be counted as a vote for the candidate's presidential electors whose names have been properly certified to the Secretary of State.
- C. If you tear, soil, deface, or erroneously mark this ballot, return it to the precinct election officers and obtain another ballot.

(Vote not more than ONCE)
