Not yet civilly registered?

If you have not civilly registered, you should visit a UN Registration Centre in your municipality. Then you will need to visit an OSCE Voter Service Centre to be assigned a Polling Centre and to find out where to vote on 17 November 2001.

Who should come to an OSCE Voter Service Centre?

If you belong to one or more categories mentioned below you need to come to an OSCE Voter Service Centre in order to find out where to vote on 17 November 2001:

- You civilly registered with the UN after the 2000 Municipal Elections.
- You had problems finding your name on the Voters' List during the 2000 Municipal Elections or you used a conditional ballot.
- You have moved since you civilly registered with the UN.
- You have turned 18 since the 2000 Municipal Elections and you have civilly registered with the UN.

Otherwise, there is no need to come to one of the OSCE Voter Service Centres. Watch the local media in the months before Election Day to find out where to vote.
