D.C. RESIDENTS REMINDED OF VOTER REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

The D.C. Board of Elections reminds District residents who are not yet registered to vote that they may call 727-2525 twenty four hours a day to have a voter registration application mailed to their home. Although the registration deadline for the September Primary has already passed, D.C. residents still have until October 11th to register for the November 8th Presidential Election.

The elections board issued the reminder in honor of National Voter Registration Week, which was established by the National League of Women Voters to encourage voter registration by citizens throughout the country. Voter Registration Week--which runs from September 9th through September 16th--will involve more than 1,200 state and local Leagues across the country.

The Board also encourages District residents who are unsure of their registration status--particularly those who have not voted since 1984 or who have recently moved--to call 727-2525 for a registration check during regular business hours, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:45 p.m.

DOES ANYONE YOU KNOW NEED TO REGISTER TO VOTE?

District of Columbia Residents!
