DEMOCRATS: PUTTING PEOPLE FIRST FOR ARLINGTON ★ AND AMERICA

FROM THE SCHOOL HOUSE TO THE WHITE HOUSE

PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON AND VICE PRESIDENT AL GORE MEETING AMERICA'S CHALLENGES ★★★★★

Four years ago, President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore came to Washington with the pledge to put people first. They have done just that, producing greater prosperity, safer communities, stronger families. Let's look at the record.

Public Safety

- Put 100,000 more police on the streets—including 720 officers in Virginia.
- Stood up to the gun lobby by pushing for enactment of the Brady Bill and banning 19 of the deadliest assault weapons.

Education

- Increased funding for Head Start.
- Supported grassroots improvements in education through Goals 2000.
- Gave young people a chance to serve their country and finance their college education through AmeriCorps.

Economic Security

- Championed an increase in the minimum wage.
- Fostered policies that have resulted in the lowest interest rates and unemployment since the 1960s.
- Created an economic climate that produced 10 million new jobs in the last 4 years and reduced the federal budget deficit 4 years in a row.

Environment

- Pressed for tough new regulations to reduce toxic emissions from industrial plants by 90%.
- Fought attempts to close our national parks and expand offshore oil drilling.

Families

- Enabled workers to care for ill family members without fear of losing their job through the Family Medical Leave Act.
- Offered targeted measures to reduce children's access to cigarettes.

President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore have put people first in their legislative agenda and their stands on budget choices, public safety, education, the environment and economic security.

Arlington's Democratic candidates join them in a commitment to put people first. These Democrats will fight for principles and programs that make our community and nation a better place to live and work.

MARK WARNER THE RIGHT WARNER FOR VIRGINIA'S FUTURE

Mark Warner brings energy and vision to his race for the Senate. Raised in a middle class family, he worked his way through college and has become a very successful businessman and community leader.

Mark Warner has an extraordinary record of achievement. He is recognized as one of the leading entrepreneurs in the telecommunications industry. He paired his business skill with a zeal for public service—conceiving a program that brings affordable health care service to thousands of Virginia's citizens. Traveling to every corner of the state to share his message with all Virginians, Mark Warner pledges that, as U.S. Senator, he will:

Education

- Support funding for Head Start.
- Promote placement of computers in America's classrooms.
- Protect student loans.

"Democrats put the 'big tent' idea into practice all year long, not just one week at a convention. We welcome all kinds of people, and we welcome them to speak their minds."

—Walter Tejada
Community activist

Economic Security

- Support creation of well-paid, high tech jobs.
- Honor the contract between government and our seniors through social security, Medicare and federal pensions.

Individual Rights

- Protect a woman's right to choose.

Mark Warner is best prepared to lead Virginia to a brighter future in the 21st century.

CONGRESSMAN JIM MORAN FIGHTING FOR NORTHERN VIRGINIA

Congressman Jim Moran, seeking his fourth term in Congress, speaks out for the individual and against the excesses of the Republicans. Working for the people of the 8th District, Jim:

Public Safety

- Was an original cosponsor and pushed for passage of the Brady Bill requiring a background check for handgun purchases.
- Fought for the assault weapons ban.

Education

- Opposed efforts to cut student loans.
- Introduced legislation to allow localities to override Gov. Allen's shortsighted refusal to accept federal Goals 2000 program funds.

Health Care

- Supports Medicare reforms that protect senior citizens while keeping the program solvent.
- Led efforts to cover pre-existing conditions, transfer health care benefits, and allow full deductibility of premiums in any reform measure.

Federal Workers

- Said no immediately when the federal government was shut down.
- Worked to protect the salaries and pensions of our federal workers and retirees.
- Led efforts to extend federal employee health insurance to military retirees.

Let's keep Jim Moran fighting for Northern Virginia in the Congress.

"I'm voting Democratic because I think Arlington and America work better with open-minded, farsighted people who focus on making the future work better for everyone, not just a privileged few."

—Jay Fiset
Community activist

ARLINGTON COUNTY BOARD CHAIRMAN JIM HUNTER PROTECTING ARLINGTON'S QUALITY OF LIFE

A member of the Arlington County Board since 1990 and its current chair, Jim Hunter has worked to preserve neighborhoods; improve our public facilities, parks and streets; and enhance our overall quality of life. Providing sound leadership for a changing community, Jim has:

Citizen Participation

- Found new ways for all citizens to participate in decisions, a hallmark of Arlington.

"The wonderful people of Arlington are an extended family for all of us. Democrats care about the human and natural quality of life for people of all ages because that defines Arlington's character and community spirit."

—Peggy Fisher
Longtime community leader

Economic Growth

- Helped create Arlington's strong economic base and is committed to retaining, expanding and creating businesses in Arlington.
- Successfully kept Arlington's overall tax burden the lowest in the Washington area, while at the same time maintaining one of the nation's best credit ratings.

Safe Neighborhoods

- Supported technological improvements and innovative approaches necessary to enhance the effectiveness of local law enforcement.
- Strongly advocated community policing, expanded bicycle patrols, and improvement of our already excellent emergency services.

Jim Hunter has worked to protect Arlington's quality of life while preparing for our county's dynamic future. Re-elect Jim Hunter to the Arlington County Board.

ARLINGTON SCHOOL BOARD

FRANK WILSON—PUTTING THE CHILDREN FIRST

Three-term School Board member and twice its chair, Frank Wilson believes that a quality education for all students must continue to be Arlington's priority. Frank brings an essential diversity of viewpoint to School Board deliberations and is known for his forthright and honest approach. Frank's accomplishments include:

Frank Wilson, left, at Arlington County Fair

Early Childhood Education

- Creation of Arlington's first all-day kindergarten and the Claremont Early Childhood Center.

Minority Achievement

- Leadership in establishing achievement-oriented programs

Alternative Schools

- Creation of the Science Focus School, increasing the diversity of teaching approaches.

In his next term, Frank will:

- Push for more full-day kindergarten countywide.
- Encourage technology, including teacher training and keyboarding

A longtime resident of Arlington, retired federal engineer and computer professional, Frank and his wife, Bessie, have three children, all graduates of Arlington schools.

Frank Wilson will continue to build on his outstanding record of putting Arlington's children first.

LIBBY GARVEY PUTTING PEOPLE AND ACCOUNTABILITY FIRST

Pace Corps volunteer, teacher, mother, civic activist, and PTA leader, Libby Garvey has a rich background of experience preparing her for service on the Arlington School Board. Libby will put people first by:

Libby Garvey, center

Educational Excellence

- Giving children access to courses that challenge them to excel.
- Meeting the needs of students with a variety of learning styles.

Community Participation

- Supporting a School Board policy that increases citizen access to information about our schools and relies on timely, frequent consultation with parents, teachers, students, and other citizens.

Fiscal Responsibility

- Giving each school the space, programs and teachers to meet high standards.
- Insisting on responsible management, including strong School Board oversight of the Capital Improvement Program.

An Arlington resident since 1977, Libby is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College. She and her husband, Kennan, have two daughters who are products of Arlington public schools.

Libby Garvey will be a new voice for Arlington on the School Board.

The Arlington County Democratic Committee unanimously voted its support for a $72.9 million capital improvement bond package.

Schools	$29.1 million
Street improvement, community conservation	$21.3 million
Parks and recreation	$12.9 million
Metrorail	$ 9.6 million

VOTE YES ON BONDS on Nov. 5. You'll be helping all Arlingtonians—from seniors to schoolkids—get the parks, schools, streets and neighborhood improvements they need and deserve.

VOTE YES BECAUSE:

- Strong schools are the cornerstone of a strong community. Arlington's schools are used day and night, all year long. Our schools focus on academics, but they also provide a place for art classes for seniors, aerobics for young adults, summer programs and more. Using a building so intensively creates enormous wear and tear.
- The $29.1 million school bond package would pay for major renovation at Oakridge, Key and Tuckahoe; technology cabling for high schools and middle schools; roofs at Yorktown and Jamestown; and design work for Drew and Science Focus. Also, the bond would pay for design work and classroom space for several hundred students who are now in crowded buildings in south Arlington.
- Arlington needs its green space. The park bond would acquire and develop park land and make improvements at playgrounds, athletic fields, and tennis and basketball courts such as Barcroft's.
- The street bond would pay for paving streets, sidewalks, hiking/biking trails, beautification, streetscape and neighborhood improvements.
- The Metro bond would pay for construction and rehabilitation.
- Putting off needed repairs and improvements costs Arlington citizens more money down the road. Arlington has a AAA/aaa bond rating—the best there is. Authorizing the renovations now is efficient and wise.

"My son is just starting kindergarten, but I want him to have the same opportunities I had and more. He'll have a better chance with Democrats in office—all kids will."
