(AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE 1997

(Ordinance 6 of 1997)

I assent.

John Philip Kelly, L.V.O., M.B.E.
Governor

Dated August, 1997.

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Voters Registration and Election Regulations Ordinance 1994; to make new provisions for the registration of electors; and for connected purposes.

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Turks and Caicos Islands.

Citation and commencement

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Voters Registration and Election Regulations (Amendment) Ordinance 1997 and shall come into operation on such day as the Governor may appoint by notice published in the Gazette, and the Governor may appoint different days for different provisions.

Interpretation
Ord. 14 of 1994

2. In this Ordinance, "the principal Ordinance" means the Voters Registration and Election Regulations Ordinance 1994.

Section 1 amended

3. Section 1 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting the following for subsection (1) –

“(1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Elections Ordinance 1994.”, and by substituting the words “the Elections Ordinance” for “the Voters Registration and Election Regulations Ordinance” and “elector” for “voter” wherever they appear in the principal Ordinance.

Section 2 amended

4. (1) Section 2 of the principal Ordinance is amended –

(a) in subsection (1) -

(i) by deleting the words “registering officer” in the definition of “election officer”;

(ii) by inserting the following definition in the proper alphabetical order-

““elector” means a person who votes or is entitled to vote at an election of members of the Legislative Council;”;

(iii) by substituting the words “under section 9A” for the words “by the Governor under subsection (3)” in the definition of “qualifying date”;

(iv) by deleting the definition of “revising officer”;

(v) by deleting the definition of “specified day”;

(vi) by inserting the following new definition in the proper alphabetical order -

““Supervisor” means the Supervisor of Elections appointed under section 3 and any public officer authorized by the Supervisor to act on his behalf in the performance of his duties under this Ordinance;”;

(b) by substituting the following subsection for subsection (3)-

“(3) In this Ordinance-

(a) a person is presumed to reside in the district where he lives while performing the duties of his office, service or employment:

Provided that this presumption shall not prevent a person establishing that he resides in another district;

(b) a person who is detained at any place in legal custody shall not by reason thereof be resident there.”.

Section 4 amended

5. Section 4 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding the words “or any modification or re-enactment thereof” at the end of subsection (1).

Section 6 repealed

6. Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is repealed.

Section 9 amended

7. Section 9 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting “elections adjudicator” for the words “registering officer, assistant registering officer”.

Section 9A added

8. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 9-

“Qualifying date

9A. For the purposes of this Ordinance, 30 November in every year is appointed as the qualifying date for the election of members of the Legislative Council at which the date fixed for the poll falls within the period of twelve months beginning with 1st March in the next following year.”.

Section 10 substituted

9. Section 10 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted -

“Preparation of Register of Electors

10. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this section, the Supervisor shall, in accordance with this Part, prepare the Register of Electors containing the names of persons who are qualified to be registered as electors under Schedule II.

(2) The Register of Electors shall be framed in separate parts for each electoral district.

(3) With a view to the preparation of the Register of Electors, the Supervisor shall -

(a) receive and consider applications from persons entitled to be registered as electors;

(b) have prepared and published electors lists showing the persons appearing to him to be entitled to be registered together with their qualifying addresses;

- (c) determine all claims for registration duly made by any person, and all objections to any person's registration duly made by another person appearing from the electors list to be himself entitled to be registered including claims and objections asking for omission, insertion or alteration of a date on which a person will become 18 years and entitled to be treated as an elector.”.

Section 11 substituted

10. Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted-

“Registration of electors

11. (1) A person who on the qualifying date is qualified to be registered as an elector for the purpose of the election of members of the Legislative Council may apply to the Supervisor for registration in the form set out as Form 1 in Schedule I.

(2) The Supervisor on being satisfied that a person is so qualified shall register such person in the electors list for the electoral district in which he normally resides.

(3) Where a person normally resides in more than one district, he shall elect in which district he would wish to be registered.

(4) The Supervisor shall not register an elector in more than one electoral district.

(5) Before registering any person as an elector, the Supervisor may, if he thinks necessary, require that person to produce documentary evidence relating to his entitlement to be registered.

(6) Any person who knowingly makes a statement in an application form which is false in a material particular, or submits any document in support of the application which is false in a material particular or which has been altered without lawful authority, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of $1000 and to imprisonment for three months.”.

Section 12 substituted

11. Section 12 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted -

“Registration of electors resident overseas

12. A person who is qualified to be registered as an elector for the purpose of the election of members of the Legislative Council who on the qualifying date is resident outside the Islands may apply before a Notary Public in the territory or country where he is residing for registration as an elector in the following manner -

- (a) such a person may make application in the form set out as Form 2 in Schedule II and shall sign the declaration at the foot thereof before a Notary Public;
- (b) such a person shall attach to the application form such documents as may be required by the Supervisor of Elections to establish his entitlement to be registered as an elector.”.

Section 13 substituted

12. Section 13 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted -

“Annual publication of lists

13. The Supervisor shall publish not later than 31 January in every year the electors lists by making a copy available for inspection at his office and by making copies of the electors lists relating to each electoral district available for inspection in those districts.”.

Section 14 substituted

13. Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted -

“Notice of claims and objections

14. (1) The Supervisor shall at the time of publishing the electors lists publish a notice in the form set out as Form 3 in Schedule I specifying the manner in which and the time within which claims and objections in respect of the electors lists may be made.

(2) The notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be published in the way the Supervisor thinks best calculated to bring it to the attention of the electors.

(3) A claim or objection shall be delivered to the Supervisor not later than fourteen days from the date of publication of the lists.”.

Section 15 substituted

14. Section 15 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted –

“Form of claims and objections

15. (1) A claim shall be in the form set out as Form 4 in Schedule I and may be made by a person either on his own behalf, or on behalf of another person.

(2) An objection shall be in the form set out as Form 5 in Schedule I.

(3) Where an elector is likely to be temporarily absent from the Islands he may appoint in writing in the form set out as Form 6 in Schedule I and in the prescribed manner another person to act as agent on his behalf for the purpose of making a claim.

(4) The Supervisor shall make claims and objections available for inspection in his office until the completion of the hearing of claims and objections.”.

Section 16 substituted

15. Section 16 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted –

“Preliminary disposal of claims and objections

16. (1) If the Supervisor is of the opinion –

(a) that the particulars given in a claim or objection are insufficient, he may ask for further information or take no further action until such information is supplied;

(b) that a claim may be allowed without a hearing, he may allow the claim, provided that no objection is made to it, and shall so inform the person making the claim;

(c) that the objector is not entitled to object, he may disallow the objection and shall so inform the objector;

(d) that a claim or objection cannot be allowed because the particulars given in a claim or objection do not entitle the claimant or objector to succeed, he may send to the person making the claim or objection a notice stating his opinion, the grounds for it and that he intends to disallow the claim or objection unless the person gives the Supervisor notice within three days from the date of the Supervisor's notice that he requires the claim or objection to be heard, and, if he receives no such notice within that time, he may disallow the claim or objection.

(2) The Supervisor shall, unless he allows or disallows the claim or objection under subsection (1), send a notice in the case of a claim, to the person making the claim and, in the case of an objection, to the objector and the person objected to, stating the time and place at which he proposes to hear the claim or objection; and the notice sent to a person objected to shall also state the name and address of the objector and the grounds of the objection.

(3) The time fixed for the hearing of a claim or objection shall not be earlier than five days after the date of the notice referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The Supervisor shall make available for inspection at his office until completion of the hearing of claims and objections, the lists of claims and objections together with the time and place at which he proposes to hear any claim or objection.”.

Section
16A
added

16. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16-

“Hearing of claims and objections

16A. (1) On the hearing of a claim, the person making the claim and any person who has duly made an objection to it and, on the hearing of an objection, the objector and the person objected to and, on the hearing of either, any other person who appears to the Supervisor to be interested shall be entitled to appear and be heard.

(2) The right to appear and be heard includes the right to make written representations.

(3) Any person entitled to appear and be heard may do so either in person or by any other person on his behalf.

(4) The Supervisor may, at the request of any person entitled to appear and be heard, or if he thinks fit, without such a request, require that the evidence tendered by any person shall be given on oath and may administer an oath for the purpose.

(5) Subject to this section, the Supervisor may regulate the proceedings at the hearings.”.

Section
16B
added

17. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16A -

“Appeals 16B. (1) An appeal lies to an elections adjudicator appointed by the Governor acting in his discretion, from any decision under the Ordinance of the Supervisor on any claim for registration or objection to a person’s registration made to and considered by him.

(2) An appeal does not lie where the person desiring to appeal has not availed himself of the right to be heard by or make representations to the Supervisor on the matter which is the subject of the appeal or has not given the notice of appeal within the prescribed time.

(3) Notice of appeal shall be given to the adjudicator within seven days of the making of the decision complained of, and the adjudicator shall set down the appeal for hearing within seven days of receiving the notice of appeal.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of section 16A shall apply mutatis mutandis to the hearing of appeals as they apply to hearings of claims and objections.

(5) The decision of the adjudicator shall be final and no appeal shall lie therefrom.”.

Section
16C added

18. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16B -

“Corrections to the electors list 16C. The Supervisor shall make any alteration to the electors lists which is required –

(a) to carry out his decision with respect to any claim or objection;

- (b) to carry out the decision of the elections adjudicator with respect to an appeal;
- (c) to correct any clerical error;
- (d) to correct any misnomer or inaccurate description; or
- (e) to delete the name of any person who he is satisfied to be dead.”.

Section 16D
added

19. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16C –

“Other corrections
to electors lists

16D. (1) Where it appears to the Supervisor that it is necessary to make any alteration (other than an alteration under section 16 C) to the electors lists in order to ensure that no person shall be incorrectly registered, or registered when not entitled, he shall send to the person affected by the alteration a notice stating the proposed alteration and shall give him an opportunity within seven days from the date of such notice of objecting to the alteration and, if necessary, of appearing and being heard in accordance with the provisions of section 16A.

(2) After those seven days, the Supervisor shall make such alterations (if any) as seem to him to be necessary.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), the Supervisor shall remove from the electors lists the name of every person registered therein who –

- (a) is certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind;
- (b) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court of law in any country or territory or is serving a sentence of imprisonment exceeding twelve months; or
- (c) is disqualified from being registered as an elector by reason of having been convicted of an offence relating to elections.”.

Section
16F added

21. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16E -

“Publication of the Register

16F. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Governor shall as soon as possible after the conclusion of the hearings of claims and objections, publish the Register of Electors once a year not later than 28th February by making a copy available for inspection at his office and by making copies of the part of the Register relating to each electoral district available for inspection as soon as practicable at the place at which copies of the part of the electoral lists relating to that electors area have been made available for inspection.

(2) Where an appeal against the decision of the Supervisor is pending before the elections adjudicator, the Governor shall not publish that part of the Register affected by the appeal, and -

- (a) until the day following that on which it is published, the corresponding part of the previous Register shall continue in use;
- (b) where any part of the Register used at an election is a part continued in force by paragraph (a), this Ordinance shall have effect in relation to the election and the district to which that part relates as if the qualifying date by reference to which that part was prepared were the qualifying date for the election.

(3) The Register of Electors shall be kept published until the publication of the next Register.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Register of Electors published in any year shall be used for elections at which the date fixed for the poll falls within the period of twelve months beginning with 1 March in that year.”.

Section 16G
added

22. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16F -

“Correction of Register

16G. (1) Where the Register of Electors as published does not carry out the Supervisor’s intentions -

- (a) to include the name of any person shown in the electors lists as a person entitled to be registered; or
- (b) to give or not to give in a person's entry a date as that on which he will attain the age of 18 years, or as to the date to be given; or
- (c) to give effect to a decision on a claim or objection made with respect to the electors lists, then the Supervisor on becoming aware of the fact shall make the necessary correction in the Register of Electors and shall so inform the Governor.

(2) Where –

- (a) paragraph (a) of subsection (1) does not apply, but
- (b) the Supervisor is satisfied by such evidence as he may require that any person whose name is not included in the Register of Electors as published is entitled to be registered in the Register, the Supervisor shall make the necessary correction in the Register and shall so inform the Governor.”.

Section
16H added

23. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16G –

“Adaptation of electors lists and registers in consequence of altered electoral districts

16H. Where, consequent upon a review of the electoral district boundaries an alteration is made to the electoral district boundaries, the Governor may direct that –

- (a) the Register of Electors be adapted to the alterations;
- (b) if the alteration takes place between the publication of the electors lists and the publication of the Register of Electors prepared from those lists, the form of the Register of Electors shall be framed in accordance with the alterations.

Section
16I added

24. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16H -

“Duty of officials to furnish lists of deceased persons, persons certified to be insane, and persons serving sentence of imprisonment

16I. (1) The Registrar of Birth, Deaths and Marriages shall furnish to the Supervisor every month a list containing the name, address, date of birth and sex of each deceased person aged 18 years or older.

(2) The Chief Medical Officer shall within thirty days of the event furnish to the Supervisor the name, address, date of birth and sex of every person who has been certified to be insane or who has otherwise been judged to be of unsound mind under any law in force in the Islands.

(3) The Clerk of the Magistrates Court and the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall at least once a month furnish to the Supervisor the name of every person -

(a) who is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term exceeding twelve months imposed on him by a court of law in any country or substituted by a competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court;

(b) who is disqualified by or under any law in force in the Islands from being registered as an elector by reason of having been convicted of an offence relating to elections.

(4) The Governor upon receipt of information that a person is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court of law in any country or territory shall forward such information to the Supervisor.”.

Section
16J added

25. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 16I -

“Electoral registration cards

16J. (1) The Supervisor shall prepare in respect of each elector registered in the Register of Electors an electoral registration card which shall contain a photograph of the elector and the following particulars -

- (a) the elector's registration number;
- (b) date of registration;
- (c) full name;
- (d) place and date of birth;
- (e) sex;
- (f) home address;
- (g) signature of elector; and
- (h) signature of Supervisor.

(2) Where the Supervisor is notified by an elector of a change of name or address, he shall issue a new registration card containing the amended particulars.”.

Section 27
amended

26. Section 27 (1) of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (d)- “(da) electoral registration cards in respect of electors registered in that electoral district;”.

Section 33
amended

27. Section 33(4) of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting the words “ and shall sign his name in the poll book” at the end of the first sentence.

Section 42A
added

28. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following section after section 42 –

“Interrupted elections

42A. (1) Where the proceedings at any polling station are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence, flood, fire, outbreak of pestilence or other calamity, the presiding officer shall adjourn the proceedings until the following day and shall forthwith give notice to the returning officer.

(2) Where the poll is adjourned at any polling station the hours of polling on the day to which it is adjourned shall be the same as for the original day.”.

Schedule I
amended

29. The principal Ordinance is amended –

- (a) by substituting Forms 1, 2, 3, 4 ,5 and 6 in the Schedule to this Ordinance for Forms 1, 2, 3, 4,5 and 6 in Schedule II to the principal Ordinance;
- (b) by deleting Form 12 in Schedule I ;

- (c) in Schedule I, by adding a new column headed “signature of elector” in Form 17 (Poll Book).

Schedule II
added

30. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following Schedule after Schedule II -

“SCHEDULE III

(Section 10)

QUALIFICATION OF ELECTORS AND ENTITLEMENT TO VOTE

1. Subject to paragraph 2 of this Schedule, a person shall be qualified to be registered as an elector for the purpose of the election of members of the Legislative Council if, and shall not be so qualified unless, on the qualifying date-

- (a) he has attained the age of eighteen years; and
- (b) he is resident in the Islands and has been so resident for not less than twelve months, in the aggregate, out of the two years immediately preceding the qualifying date; and
- (c) he falls into one of the following categories, that is to say-
  - (i) he was born in the Islands; or
  - (ii) he was born outside the Islands of a father or mother either of whom was born in the Islands; or
  - (iii) he has, under the law in force in the Islands regulating immigration, the status of “Belonger”.

2. No person shall be qualified to be registered as an elector under this Schedule who on the qualifying date-

- (a) is a person certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any law in force in the Islands;
- (b) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court of law in any country or is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term exceeding twelve months imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court; or
- (c) is disqualified by or under any law in force in the Islands from being registered as an elector by reason of having been convicted of an offence relating to elections.

3. For the purpose of paragraph 2 (b) of this Schedule-

- (a) where a person is serving two or more sentences of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively he shall, throughout the whole time during which he so serves, be regarded as serving a sentence exceeding twelve months if (but not unless) any one of those sentences exceeds that term; and

(b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

4. A person registered as an elector shall be entitled to vote at an election unless he is prohibited from so doing by reason of his conviction, prior to the election, of an election offence which disqualifies him from voting:

Provided that no person shall be entitled to vote in an electoral district if-

- (a) he is not registered as an elector in that district;
- (b) he has voted in another electoral district; or
- (c) he is in lawful custody.”.

Saving and transitional

31. Notwithstanding the repeal and substitution of section 16 of the principal Ordinance, the Register of Voters prepared under the repealed provisions and in force immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, shall remain in force until the publication of the Register of Electors prepared under section 16F, and shall be used for elections at which the date fixed for the poll falls before the publication of the Register of Electors.
