NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 89-048. RC 306.71 authorizes voters to initiate an election with respect to a continuing sales tax under RC 5739.023 to decrease the rate approved by the voters.

OAG 89-048. The sales tax rate fixed pursuant to RC 5739.023 may not exceed the rate approved by the voters, whether pursuant to the initial authorization of a levy under RC 5739.023 or pursuant to a decrease adopted in accordance with RC 306.71.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—GENERAL POWERS

307.696 Sports facility; corporation to operate; revenue bonds; use of county taxes

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "County taxes" means taxes levied by the county pursuant to sections 307.697, 4301.421, 5743.024, and 5743.323 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Corporation" means a nonprofit corporation that is organized under the laws of this state for the purposes of operating or constructing and operating a sports facility in the county and that may also be organized under the laws of this state for the additional purposes of conducting redevelopment and economic development activities within the host municipal corporation.

(3) "Sports facility" means a sports facility that is intended to house major league professional athletic teams, including a stadium, together with all parking facilities, walkways, and other auxiliary facilities, real and personal property, property rights, easements, and interests that may be appropriate for, or used in connection with, the operation of the facility.

(4) "Construction" includes, but is not limited to, providing fixtures, furnishings, and equipment.

(5) "Debt service charges" means the interest, principal, premium, if any, carrying and redemption charges, and expenses on bonds issued by either the county or the corporation to:

(a) Construct a sports facility or provide for related redevelopment or economic development as provided in this section;

(b) Acquire real and personal property, property rights, easements, or interests that may be appropriate for, or used in connection with, the operation of the facility; and

(c) Make site improvements to real property, including, but not limited to, demolition, excavation, and installation of footers, pilings, and foundations.

(6) "Host municipal corporation" means the municipal corporation within the boundaries of which the sports facility is located, and with which a national football league, major league baseball, or national basketball association sports franchise is associated on the effective date of this amendment.

(B) A board of county commissioners of a county that levies a tax under section 307.697, 4301.421, or 5743.024 of the Revised Code may enter into an agreement with a corporation operating in the county, and, if there is a host municipal corporation all or a part of which is located in the county, shall enter into an agreement with a corporation operating in the county and the host municipal corporation, under which:

(1)(a) The corporation agrees to construct and operate a sports facility in the county and to pledge and contribute all or any part of the revenues derived from its operation, as specified in the agreement, for the purposes described in division (C)(1) of this section; and

(b) The board agrees to levy county taxes and pledge and contribute any part or all of the revenues therefrom, as specified in the agreement, for the purposes described in division (C)(1) of this section; or

(2)(a) The corporation agrees to operate a sports facility constructed by the county and to pledge and contribute all or any part of the revenues derived from its operation, as specified in the agreement, for the purposes described in division (C)(2) of this section; and

(b) The board agrees to issue revenue bonds of the county, use the proceeds from the sale of the bonds to construct a sports facility in the county, and to levy county taxes and pledge and contribute all or any part of the revenues therefrom, as specified in the agreement, for the purposes described in division (C)(2) of this section; and, if applicable

(3) The host municipal corporation agrees to expend the unused pledges and contributions and surplus revenues as described in divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section for redevelopment and economic development purposes related to the sports facility.

(C)(1) The primary purpose of the pledges and contributions described in division (B)(1) of this section is payment of debt service charges. To the extent the pledges and contributions are not used by the county or corporation for payment of debt service charges, the county or corporation, pursuant to the agreement provided for in division (B) of this section, shall provide the unused pledges and contributions, together with surplus revenues of the sports facility not needed for debt service charges or the operation and maintenance of the sports facility, to the host municipal corporation, or a nonprofit corporation, which may be the corporation acting on behalf of the host municipal corporation, for redevelopment and economic development purposes related to the sports facility. If the county taxes are also levied for the purpose of making permanent improvements, the agreement shall include a schedule of annual pledges and contributions by the county for the payment of debt service charges. The county's pledge and contribution provided for in the agreement shall be for the period stated in the agreement but not to exceed twenty years. The agreement shall provide that any such bonds and notes shall be secured by a trust agreement between the corporation or other bond issuer and a corporate trustee that is a trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state, and the trust agreement shall pledge or assign to the retirement of the bonds or notes, all moneys paid by the county for that purpose under this section. A county tax, all or any part of the revenues from which are pledged under an agreement entered into by a board of county commissioners under this section shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum, or diminution by statute, unless provision is made therein for an adequate substitute therefor reasonably satisfactory to the trustee under the trust agreement that secures the bonds and notes.

(2) The primary purpose of the pledges and contributions described in division (B)(2) of this section is payment of debt service charges. To the extent the pledges and contributions are not used by the county for payment of debt service charges, the county or corporation, pursuant to the agreement provided for in division (B) of this section, shall provide the unused pledges and contributions, together with surplus revenues of the sports facility not needed for debt service charges or the operation and maintenance of the sports facility, to the host municipal corporation, or a nonprofit corporation, which may be the corporation, acting on behalf of the host municipal corporation, for redevelopment and economic development purposes related to the sports facility. The corporation's pledge and contribution provided for in the agreement shall be until all of the bonds issued for the construction of the facility have been retired.

(D) A pledge of money by a county under this section shall not be indebtedness of the county for purposes of Chapter 133. of the Revised Code.

(E) If the terms of the agreement so provide, the board of county commissioners may acquire, make site improvements to, including, but not limited to, demolition, excavation, and installation of footers, pilings, and foundations, and lease real property for the sports facility to a corporation that constructs a sports facility under division (B)(1) of this section. The agreement shall specify the term, which shall not exceed thirty years and shall be on such terms as are set forth in the agreement. The purchase, improvement, and lease may be the subject of an agreement between the county and a municipal corporation located within the county pursuant to section 153.61 or 307.15 of the Revised Code, and are not subject to the limitations of sections 307.02 and 307.09 of the Revised Code.

(F) The corporation shall not enter into any construction contract or contract for the purchase of services for use in connection with the construction of a sports facility prior to the corporation's adoption and implementation of a policy on the set aside of contracts for bidding by or award to minority business enterprises, as defined in division (E)(1) of section 122.71 of the Revised Code. Sections 4115.03 to 4115.16 of the Revised Code apply to a sports facility constructed under this section.

(G) Not more than one-half of the total costs, including debt service charges and cost of operation, of a project undertaken pursuant to an agreement entered into under division (B) of this section shall be paid from county taxes. Nothing in this section authorizes the use of revenues from county taxes or proceeds from the sale of bonds issued by the board of county commissioners for payment of costs of operation of a sports facility.

OAG 91-007. In the case of a nonprofit corporation established pursuant to RC 307.696, and provided that there is no violation of a statutory provision subject to interpretation by the Ohio ethics commission pursuant to RC 102.08, the county administrator and/or any other county official or employee other than a county commissioner may legally serve as a trustee, officer, or director of the corporation if (1) the county has created or participated in the nonprofit corporation, (2) the board of county commissioners formally designates the office or position in question to represent the county, (3) the county administrator or other county official or employee is formally instructed to represent the county and its interests, and (4) there is no other conflict of interest on the part of the particular county administrator or other county official or employee.

307.697 Tax on spirituous liquor; election; ballot form

(A) For the purpose of section 307.696 of the Revised Code and to pay any or all of the charge the board of elections makes against the county to hold the election on the question of levying the tax, or for such purposes and to provide revenues to the county for permanent improvements, the board of county commissioners of a county may levy a tax not to exceed three dollars on each gallon of spirituous liquor sold to or purchased by liquor permit holders for resale, and sold at retail by the department of liquor control, in the county. The tax shall be levied on the number of gallons so sold. The tax may be levied for any number of years not exceeding twenty.

The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution of the county commissioners approved by a majority of the electors in the county voting on the question of levying the tax, which resolution shall specify the rate of the tax, the number of years the tax will be levied, and the purposes for which the tax is levied. Such election may be held on the date of a general or special election held not sooner than seventy-five days after the date the board certifies its resolution to the board of elections. If approved by the electors, the tax takes effect on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not sooner than the first day of the month that is at least sixty days after the certification of the election results by the board of elections. A copy of the resolution levying the tax shall be certified to the department of liquor control at least sixty days prior to the date on which the tax is to become effective.

(B) A resolution under this section may be joined on the ballot as a single question with a resolution adopted under section 4301.421 or 5743.024 of the Revised Code to levy a tax for the same purposes, and for the purpose of paying the expenses of administering that tax.

(C) The form of the ballot in an election held pursuant to this section or section 4301.421 or 5743.024 of the Revised Code shall be as follows or in any other form acceptable to the secretary of state:

"For the purpose of paying not more than one-half of the costs of providing a public sports facility together with related redevelopment and economic development projects, shall (an) excise tax(es) be levied by _____ county at the rate of _____ (dollars on each gallon of spirituous liquor sold in the county by the Ohio Department of liquor control, cents per gallon on the sale of beer at wholesale in the county, cents per gallon on the sale of wine and mixed beverages at wholesale in the county, or mills per cigarette on the sale of cigarettes at wholesale in the county), for _____ years?

	Yes
	No

For an election in which questions under this section or section 4301.421 or 5743.024 of the Revised Code are joined as a single question, the form of the ballot shall be as above, except each of the proposed taxes shall be listed.

307.70 County charter commissions; funds; distribution of charts; limit on public officers as members

In any county electing a county charter commission, the board of county commissioners shall appropriate money for the expenses of such commission in the preparation of a county charter, or charter amendment, and the study of problems involved. No appropriation shall be made for the compensation of members of the commission for their services. The board shall appropriate money for the printing and mailing or otherwise distributing to each elector in the county, as far as may be reasonably possible, a copy of a charter submitted to the electors of the county by a charter commission or by the board pursuant to petition as provided by Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. The copy of the charter shall be mailed or otherwise distributed at least thirty days prior to the election. The board shall appropriate money for the printing and distribution or publication of proposed amendments to a charter submitted by a charter commission pursuant to Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. Notice of amendments to a county charter shall be given by mailing or otherwise distributing a copy of each proposed amendment to each elector in the county, as far as may be reasonably possible, at least thirty days prior to the election or, if the board so determines, by publishing the full text of the proposed amendments once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the county. If no newspaper is published in the county or the board is unable to obtain publication in a newspaper published in the county, the proposed amendments may be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county. No public officer is precluded, because of being a public officer, from also holding office as a member of a county charter commission, except that not more than four officeholders may be elected to a county charter commission at the same time. No member of a county charter commission, because of charter commission membership, is precluded from seeking or holding other public office.

AUTOMATIC DATA PROCESSING

307.84 County automatic data processing board; members; county office defined

The board of county commissioners of any county may, by resolution, establish a county automatic data processing board. The board shall consist of the county treasurer or his representative, the county recorder or his representative, the clerk of the court of common pleas or his representative, a member or representative of the board of county commissioners chosen by the board, two members or representatives of the board of elections chosen by the board of elections one of whom shall be a member of the political party receiving the greatest number of votes at the next preceding general election for the office of governor and one of whom shall be a member of the political party receiving the second greatest number of votes at such an election, if the board of elections desires to participate, and the county auditor or his representative who shall serve as secretary. The members of the county automatic data processing board may by majority vote add to the board any additional members whose officers use the facilities of the board.

After the initial meeting of the county automatic data processing board, no county office shall purchase, lease, operate, or contract for the use of any automatic data processing equipment without prior approval of the board.

As used in sections 307.84 to 307.846 of the Revised Code, "county office" means any officer, department, board, commission, agency, court, or other office of the county, other than a board of county hospital trustees.

data processing board, as created by RC 307.84, or they are without authority to provide such services at all.

57 Misc 20, 387 NE(2d) 254 (CP, Cuyahoga 1977), Campanella v Cuyahoga County; affirmed by No. 38439 (8th Dist Ct App, Cuyahoga, 7-5-78). When a board of county commissioners terminates an automatic data processing board, a county office may then establish its own non-centralized data processing system or obtain such services elsewhere.

OAG 84-042. Word processors are a type of data processing equipment and, thus, fall within the jurisdiction of a county automatic data processing board.

OAG 83-027. As provided in RC 9.35, and subject to any limitations imposed under RC 307.84, the county engineer may, pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the board of county commissioners, contract with a person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business or capable of rendering electronic data processing or computer services for the performance of mechanical, clerical, or record-keeping services necessary in the performance of his duties.

OAG 77-030. The board of county commissioners has authority to terminate an automatic data processing board, established pursuant to RC 307.84, by adopting a resolution to that effect.

OAG 77-030. Upon termination of the county automatic data processing board, the board of county commissioners may continue to purchase data processing equipment as it is authorized to do under RC 307.843; RC 307.846 does not authorize the board of county commissioners to contract to provide data processing services to other public agencies and officials.

OAG 77-030. In the absence of a county automatic data processing board, county offices may establish their own data processing operations.

OAG 71-086. County automatic data processing board does have authority, under RC 307.846, to enter into contract to provide automatic data processing service to areawide coordinating agency formed under provisions of Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966, 42 USC 3331 et seq.

OAG 71-085. Court of appeals and court of common pleas are state courts and do not need to obtain prior approval of Cuyahoga county automatic data processing board to purchase, lease, operate, or contract for use and services of Ohio bar automated research system.

OAG 70-091. County auditor is official authorized to contract for computer services for performance of his ministerial functions in preparation of county tax lists and duplicates.

OAG 68-105. The county board of education is not a "county office" within the meaning of RC 307.84, and is, therefore, free to make contracts for data processing service notwithstanding the establishment of a county data processing board which governs "county office" data processing contracts.

OAG 68-029. A separate appropriation account may be established for the automatic data processing board which could be credited for services rendered other offices and departments while at the same time the appropriation accounts of such offices and departments serviced by the data processing center would be debited.

OAG 68-029. It is not mandatory or necessary for members of the automatic data processing board to elect a president or chairman.

COMPETITIVE BIDDING ON COUNTY PURCHASES

307.86 Competitive bidding required; exceptions

Anything to be purchased, leased, leased with an option or agreement to purchase, or constructed, including, but not limited to, any product, structure, construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance, repair, or service, except the services of an accountant, architect, attorney at law, physician, professional engineer, construction project manager, consultant, surveyor, or appraiser by or on behalf of the county or contracting authority, as defined in section 307.92 of the Revised Code, at a cost in excess of ten thousand dollars, except as otherwise provided in division (D) of section 713.23 and in sections 125.04, 307.022, 307.861, 339.05, 340.03, 340.033, 4115.31 to 4115.35, 5119.16, 5513.01, 5543.19, 5713.01, and 6137.05 of the Revised Code, shall be obtained through competitive bidding. However, competitive bidding is not required when:

(A) The board of county commissioners, by a unanimous vote of its members, makes a determination that a real and present emergency exists and such determination and the reasons therefor are entered in the minutes of the proceedings of the board, when:

(1) The estimated cost is less than twenty thousand dollars; or

(2) There is actual physical disaster to structures.

Whenever a contract of purchase, lease, or construction is exempted from competitive bidding under division (A)(1) of this section because the estimated cost is less than twenty thousand dollars, but the estimated cost is ten thousand dollars or more, the county or contracting authority shall solicit informal estimates from no fewer than three persons who could perform the contract, before awarding the contract. With regard to each such contract, the county or contracting authority shall maintain a record of such estimates, including the name of each person from whom an estimate is solicited, for no less than one year after the contract is awarded.

(B) The purchase consists of supplies or a replacement or supplemental part or parts for a product or equipment owned or leased by the county and the only source of supply for such supplies, part, or parts is limited to a single supplier.

(C) The purchase is from the federal government, state, another county or contracting authority thereof, a board of education, township, or municipal corporation.

(D) Public social services are purchased for provision by the county department of human services under section 329.04 of the Revised Code or program services, such as direct and ancillary client services, child day-care, case management services, residential services, and family resource services, are purchased for provision by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities under section 5126.05 of the Revised Code.

(E) The purchase consists of human and social services by the board of county commissioners from nonprofit corporations or associations under programs which are funded entirely by the federal government.

(F) The purchase consists of any form of an insurance policy or contract authorized to be issued under Title XXXIX of the Revised Code or any form of health care contract or plan authorized to be issued under Chapter

1736., 1737., 1740., or 1742. of the Revised Code, or any combination of such policies, contracts, or plans that the contracting authority is authorized to purchase, and the contracting authority does all of the following:

(1) Determines that compliance with the requirements of this section would increase, rather than decrease, the cost of such purchase;

(2) Employs a competent consultant to assist the contracting authority in procuring appropriate coverages at the best and lowest prices;

(3) Requests issuers of such policies, contracts, or plans to submit proposals to the contracting authority, in a form prescribed by the contracting authority, setting forth the coverage and cost of such policies, contracts, or plans as the contracting authority desires to purchase;

(4) Negotiates with such issuers for the purpose of purchasing such policies, contracts, or plans at the best and lowest price reasonably possible.

(G) The purchase consists of computer hardware, software, or consulting services that are necessary to implement a computerized case management automation project administered by the Ohio prosecuting attorneys association and funded by a grant from the federal government.

Any issuer of policies, contracts, or plans listed in division (F) of this section may have his name and address, or the name and address of an agent, placed on a special notification list to be kept by the contracting authority, by sending the contracting authority such name and address. The contracting authority shall send notice to all persons listed on the special notification list. Notices shall state the deadline and place for submitting proposals. The contracting authority shall mail the notices at least six weeks prior to the deadline set by the contracting authority for submitting such proposals. Every five years the contracting authority may review this list and remove any person from the list after mailing the person notification of such action.

Any contracting authority that negotiates a contract under division (F) of this section shall request proposals and renegotiate with issuers in accordance with that division at least every three years from the date of the signing of such a contract.

Any consultant employed pursuant to division (F) of this section shall disclose any fees or compensation received from any source in connection with that employment.

H.B. 111 of the 118th G.A. purports to repeal the existing version of this section, it is nevertheless presented here as unaffected by H.B. 111. The repeal of 'existing sections' is intended only to be stated when conditional to their amendment and is a long-recognized means of complying with § 15(D) of Art. II, Ohio Constitution (which requires the existing version of sections amended to be repealed). See Cox v. Dept. of Transportation (1981), 67 OS(2d) 501, 508. NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

36 App(3d) 86, 521 NE(2d) 7 (Summit 1987), Sentinel Security Systems v Medkeff. There is no conflict between RC 307.86 and 339.05 which would give rise to the need to have the specific provisions of RC 339.05 prevail over the more general provisions of RC 307.86, since 339.05 merely expands the class of county contracts that must be competitively bid to include county hospital contracts for structures or improvements that are less than two thousand and more than one thousand dollars; therefore, the plain meaning and effect of neither statute is disturbed by holding that a security service contract in excess of two thousand dollars is required to be competitively bid pursuant to RC 307.86.

36 App(3d) 86, 521 NE(2d) 7 (Summit 1987), Sentinel Security Systems v Medkeff. The requirement of competitive bidding on hospital improvement contracts in excess of one thousand dollars under RC 339.05 is not exclusive, but is in addition to general competitive bidding requirements under RC 307.86.

60 App(2d) 195, 396 NE(2d) 1059 (1978), Boger Contracting Corp v Stark County Bd of Commrs. Where a board of county commissioners, after publication of the required statutory notice, modifies the plans and specifications for a sanitary sewer construction project for which competitive bidding is required, and where the giving of notice of the addendum to prospective bidders is attempted by a procedure in violation of that set forth in the plans and specifications, the board of county commissioners has the burden of establishing that a bidder, who submits a bid not in conformance with the addendum, had actual knowledge of such addendum.

48 App(2d) 36, 354 NE(2d) 923 (1976), Yoder v Williams County. Before a board of county commissioners may lease premises to be occupied by the county welfare department, it must enter into competitive bidding, pursuant to RC 307.86.

No. 57884 (8th Dist Ct App, Cuyahoga, 2-7-91), Yellow Cab of Cleveland, Inc v Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Auth. A contract for the transportation of handicapped and elderly persons let by a regional transit authority is not a personal services contract; such a contract is subject to statutory competitive bidding requirements.

No. 10724 (9th Dist Ct App, Summit, 9-1-82), Akron-Canton Chapter American Subcontractors Assn v Morgan. Where a county charter grants not only all the powers of a county, but also all of the powers of a municipality, a conflict between concurrent county and municipality grants of power should be resolved to allow rather than restrict such grants of power. Therefore, the more liberal statute governing non-competitive bidding for municipalities, rather than the statute governing counties, should be applied.

60 Misc 71, 397 NE(2d) 781 (CP, Butler 1979), CB Transportation, Inc v Butler County Bd of Mental Retardation. The board of mental retardation is a contracting authority as described in RC 307.92, and therefore is bound by the competitive bidding provisions of RC 307.86.

60 Misc 71, 397 NE(2d) 781 (CP, Butler 1979), CB Transportation, Inc v Butler County Bd of Mental Retardation. The board of mental retardation is responsible for contracting for the transportation of mentally retarded persons and cannot delegate such duty to the board of county commissioners.

31 Misc 75, 286 NE(2d) 483 (CP, Montgomery 1972), Dalton v Kunde. An ordinance requiring that an affirmative action assurance plan be submitted with bids for municipal contracts and requiring that such plan be given consideration in selecting the lowest and best bid is valid.

OAG 91-051. A county dispatch center which arranges for towing services at the request of the county sheriff or sheriff's deputies is required to dispatch a towing service which has entered into a competitively bid contract with the sheriff pursuant to RC 307.86 only where the towing service is actually being purchased by the sheriff (as opposed to the vehicle owner) and where the cost of the service purchased exceeds $10,000. The determination of what constitutes a purchase pursuant to RC 307.86 is a question of fact.

OAG 91-051. A county dispatch center may use a rotational list for the dispatch of towing services at the request of the county sheriff or sheriff's deputies, provided that the requirements of RC 307.86 do not apply and further provided that the use of such a rotational list does not involve an agreement in the nature of a contract, combination, or conspiracy which restrains trade or commerce.

OAG 91-048. Where the board of county commissioners has employed a consultant in accordance with RC 307.86(F) to assist the board in selecting the insurance coverage to be procured for county personnel under RC 305.171, the board may, in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, reject the consultant's recommendation as to the best and lowest bidder.

OAG 91-044. The board of county commissioners may contract with an entity other than those enumerated in RC 9.833(C)(3) for the administration of a self-insured health care benefit plan for county personnel, so long as it complies with the competitive bidding requirements of RC 307.86.

OAG 91-012. Pursuant to RC 307.15, a municipal legislative authority that enters into a contract with a board of county commissioners to manage and operate a county sewer district established under RC Ch 6117 must exercise the specific powers and duties that pertain thereto in accordance with the terms of such statutory provisions as apply to the exercise of those powers and duties by the board of county commissioners. In such circumstance the award of contracts by the municipal legislative authority for capital improvement, assessment, and maintenance and repair projects of the county sewer district must comply with the pertinent competitive bidding procedures and requirements set forth in RC Ch 153, 307.86 to 307.92, and 6117.27 as would apply to the award of such contracts by the board of county commissioners.

OAG 90-076. A county which provides the service of dispatching towing companies for municipal corporations is not required to enter into competitively bid contracts with the towing companies pursuant to RC 307.86, and the county may use a rotation system for such dispatching if the municipal corporation has the authority to use a rotation system for dispatching towing companies on its own behalf.

OAG 90-034. Pursuant to approval by the county automatic data processing board, the county auditor, as chief administrator of the board, may enter into a contract with an independent contractor/consultant whereby the independent contractor/consultant agrees to provide the county such automatic data processing services as are authorized by RC 9.35(B) through the facilities of an automatic data processing center. Pursuant to RC 307.86, such a contract at a cost in excess of $10,000 shall be obtained through competitive bidding.

OAG 90-018. Neither RC 307.86 nor any other provision of the Revised Code requires a board of hospital governors of a joint township district hospital to competitively bid purchases of equipment for a joint township district hospital that are made pursuant to RC 513.17.

OAG 89-061. Under RC 3313.90, a joint vocational school district board of education may enter into an agreement with a board of county commissioners whereby vocational school students will construct a juvenile treatment facility for the county, provided that such agreement is reasonably necessary to fulfill the requirements of the vocational education program. Under RC 307.86(C), the board of county commissioners is not required to use competitive bidding when entering into such agreement.

OAG 84-064. A contract entered into by a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for the purchase of the services of occupational therapists and physical therapists must be competitively bid pursuant to RC 307.86 if the cost of such contract exceeds five thousand dollars, unless such purchase falls within one of the exceptions set forth in RC 307.86.

OAG 82-038. A board of county commissioners may not renew a contract for group medical insurance, without competitive bidding in accordance with RC 307.86, either when that contract lacks an express term for renewal at a predetermined cost, or when significant changes in proposed premium rates, coverage, and benefits have occurred.

OAG 81-050. A county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is bound by the competitive bidding requirements of RC 307.86 when entering into contracts pursuant to RC 5126.05 where the dollar amount exceeds $5,000.

OAG 80-038. The $5,000 provision of RC 307.86 applies to purchases or leases of material or equipment for force account projects undertaken by the county engineer pursuant to RC 5543.19. The equipment and materials to be purchased or leased for each separate force account project must be obtained in compliance with RC 307.86, and within each project, the $5,000 threshold requirement applies separately to each purchase or lease which reasonably and in good faith constitutes a separate and distinct contract or order.

OAG 79-034. The requirements of RC 307.02 regarding filing of information, publication of notice, submission of bids, and certification do not apply to construction or lease of buildings, structures or other improvements by county commissioners other than lease-purchase plans; however the competitive bidding requirements of RC 307.86 do apply.

OAG 79-034. The competitive bidding requirements of RC 307.86 are not applicable to the purchase of real estate, or interests therein, by the board of county commissioners; rather, such acquisitions are governed by RC 307.08.

OAG 76-023. A county, acting through its board of county commissioners or its hospital commission, when constructing hospital facilities is not required to use competitive bidding or other contracting procedures found in RC 307.86 et seq. where (1) such construction is financed by issuance of revenue bonds pursuant to RC 140.06, which bonds are not repaid with tax monies but through lease payments made by a nonprofit hospital agency; and (2) the lease between the county and the hospital agency pursuant to RC 140.05 provides the method and procedures by which such construction shall take place.

OAG 74-065. While a board of county commissioners has no general statutory authority to contract for the services of a management consultant in every area in which the board is directed by statute to act, it may, however, do so to enable it to cooperate in a federally funded program, and, when it is operating under an alternative form of government pursuant to RC Ch 302, RC 302.13 permits the board to authorize the county executive to employ experts and consultants in connection with the administration of the affairs of the county.

OAG 73-076. A county hospital commission constructing a hospital with public bond money is not required by RC 339.14(H) to use competitive bidding for contract modifications costing in excess of $1,000, when such modifications do not exceed the scope of the original contract.

OAG 70-076. Provisions of RC 307.86 to RC 307.92 and RC 5555.71 do not permit board of county commissioners to let by competitive bidding labor and equipment items for road construction separately, while specifying that materials to be purchased by county are to be used.

OAG 69-048. If a county proposes to purchase insurance, competitive bidding is required if the cost is in excess of $2,000.

OAG 69-045. It is necessary to have competitive bidding, pursuant to RC 307.86, before entering into a group health insurance contract authorized by RC 305.171 if the premium cost for such insurance is in excess of $2,000.

OAG 69-016. Any motor vehicle purchased pursuant to RC 307.41 at a cost in excess of $2,000 must be obtained through bidding pursuant to RC 307.86.

307.861 Procedure for renewal of lease of electronic equipment

The county or contracting authority, as defined in section 307.92 of the Revised Code, may renew a lease which has been entered into for electronic data processing equipment, services, or systems, or a radio communications system at a cost in excess of ten thousand dollars as follows:

(A) The lessor shall submit a written bid to the county or contracting authority which is the lessee under the lease, stating the terms under which the lease would be renewed, including the length of the renewal lease, and the cost of the renewal lease to the county or contracting authority. The county or contracting authority may require the lessor to submit a bond with the bid.

(B) The county or contracting authority shall advertise for and receive competitive bids, as provided in sections 307.87 to 307.90 of the Revised Code, for a lease under the same terms and for the same period as provided in the bid of the lessor submitted under division (A) of this section.

(C) The county or contracting authority may renew the lease with the lessor only if the bid submitted by the lessor under division (A) of this section is an amount less than the lowest and best bid submitted pursuant to competitive bidding under division (B) of this section.

307.87 Notice

Where competitive bidding is required by section 307.86 of the Revised Code, notice thereof shall be given in the following manner:

(A) Notice shall be published once a week for not less than two consecutive weeks preceding the day of the opening of bids in a newspaper of general circulation within the county for any purchase, lease, lease with option or agreement to purchase, or construction contract in excess of ten thousand dollars. The contracting authority may also cause notice to be inserted in trade papers or other publications designated by it.

Notices shall state:

(1) A general description of the subject of the proposed contract and the time and place where the plans and specifications or itemized list of supplies, facilities, or equipment and estimated quantities can be obtained or examined;

(2) The time and place where bids will be opened;

(3) The time and place for filing bids;

(4) The terms of the proposed purchase;

(5) Conditions under which bids will be received;

(6) The existence of a system of preference, if any, for products mined and produced in Ohio and the United States adopted pursuant to section 307.90 of the Revised Code.

(B) The contracting authority shall also maintain in a public place in its office or other suitable public place a bulletin board upon which it shall post and maintain a copy of such notice for at least two weeks preceding the day of the opening of the bids.

Where a board of county commissioners, after publication of the required statutory notice, modifies the plans and specifications for a sanitary sewer construction project for which competitive bidding is required, and where the giving of notice of the addendum to prospective bidders is attempted by a procedure in violation of that set forth in the plans and specifications, the board of county commissioners has the burden of establishing that a bidder, who submits a bid not in conformance with the addendum, had actual knowledge of such addendum.

OAG 89-064. Where a board of county commissioners enters into a lease agreement as lessee through competitive bidding, it may not subsequently agree to an increased lease term in exchange for renovations to the leasehold premises as part of the original lease agreement where such additional term was not included in the notice and specifications on which the bids were based.

307.88 Bid; bond or deposit; exemption

(A) Bids submitted pursuant to sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code shall be in a form prescribed by the contracting authority and filed in a sealed envelope at the time and place mentioned in the advertisement. The bids received shall be opened and tabulated at the time stated in the notice. Each bid shall contain the full name of each person submitting the bid. Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, if the bid is in excess of ten thousand dollars and for a contract for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement, it shall meet the requirements of section 153.54 of the Revised Code. If the bid is in excess of ten thousand dollars and for any other contract authorized by sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code, it shall be accompanied by a bond or certified check, cashier's check, or money order on a solvent bank or savings and loan association in a reasonable amount stated in the advertisement but not to exceed five per cent of the bid, conditioned that he shall, if his bid is accepted, execute a contract in conformity to the invitation and his bid.

(B) The board of county commissioners may, by a unanimous vote of the entire board, permit a contracting authority to exempt a bid from any or all of the requirements of section 153.54 of the Revised Code if the estimated cost is less than twenty-five thousand dollars. If the board exempts a bid from any but not all of these requirements, the bid notice published in the newspaper pursuant to section 307.87 of the Revised Code shall state the specific bid guaranty requirements that apply. If the board exempts a bid from all requirements of section 153.54 of the Revised Code, the notice shall state that none of the requirements of that section apply.

48 Cin L Rev 43 (1979). The Law of Mistaken Bids, Ernest M. Jones.

OAG 90-051. Pursuant to RC 307.88(B), a board of county commissioners may, by unanimous vote, permit a contracting authority to exempt a bid on a contract for a portion of the work in the construction of a public improvement from the requirement of a performance bond if the estimated cost of the contract is in excess of $10,000 but less than $25,000.

OAG 90-051. Pursuant to RC 307.88, a performance bond is not required on a contract pursuant to RC 307.86 to 307.92 for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement where the amount of the bid is less than $10,000.

OAG 84-064. Pursuant to RC 307.88, when a bid in excess of six thousand dollars is submitted for a contract for the purchase of the services of occupational therapists and physical therapists, it must be accompanied by a bond or certified check conditioned that the bidder shall, if his bid is accepted, execute a contract in conformity to the invitation and the bid.

307.89 Performance bond

When a bid is accepted for a contract other than for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement, the contracting authority shall, as a condition to entering a contract with the successful bidder, require faithful performance of all things to be done under the contract and may require, as a condition to entering a purchase contract, lease, or lease with option or agreement to purchase, the bond provided for by section 153.57 of the Revised Code, with good and sufficient surety in an amount not to exceed the amount of the bid.

OAG 90-051. Pursuant to RC 307.88, a performance bond is not required on a contract pursuant to RC 307.86 to 307.92 for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement where the amount of the bid is less than $10,000.

307.90 Awarding of contracts; preference system for Ohio and American products and contractors

(A) The award of all contracts subject to sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code shall be made to the lowest and best bidder. The bond or bid guaranty of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them by the contracting authority immediately upon awarding the contract or rejection of all bids. The contracting authority may reject all bids.

(B) With respect to any contract for the purchase of equipment, materials, supplies, insurance, services, or a public improvement into which a county or its officers may enter, a board of county commissioners, by resolution, may adopt the model system of preferences for products mined or produced in Ohio and the United States and for Ohio-based contractors promulgated pursuant to division (E) of section 125.11 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall specify the class or classes of contracts to which the system of preferences apply, and once adopted, operates to modify the awarding of such contracts accordingly. While the system of preferences is in effect, no county officer or employee with the responsibility for doing so shall award a contract to which the system applies in violation of the preference system.

Ethics Op 89-004. A member of a board of county commissioners is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) from having an interest in a public contract entered into by or for the use of a regional transit authority where the board of county commissioners participated in the creation of the authority and the county is included within the transit authority's jurisdiction.

Ethics Op 89-004. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of county commissioners from authorizing or using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of a public contract in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest, where the public contract is entered into by a regional transit authority which the board of county commissioners participated in creating and which includes the county.

307.91 Rejection of bids

When the contracting authority rejects all bids it may either readvertise, using the original estimate, or amend the estimate and proceed to advertise in the manner provided for advertisement in section 307.86 of the Revised Code.

307.92 Definition of contracting authority

As used in sections 307.86 to 307.91, inclusive, of the Revised Code, "contracting authority" means any board, department, commission, authority, trustee, official, administrator, agent, or individual which has authority to contract for or on behalf of the county or any agency, department, authority, commission, office, or board thereof.

PETITION FOR COUNTY CHARTER

307.94 County charter; petition; alternative methods; verifying signatures

Electors of a county, equal in number to ten per cent of the number who voted for governor in the county at the last preceding gubernatorial election, may file, not later than one hundred days before the date of a general election, a petition with the board of county commissioners asking that the question of the adoption of a county charter in the form attached to the petition be submitted to the electors of the county. The petition shall be available for public inspection at the offices of the county commissioners during regular business hours until four p.m. of the ninety-sixth day before the election, at which time the board shall, by resolution, certify the petition to the board of elections of the county for submission to the electors of the county, unless the signatures are insufficient or the petitions otherwise invalid, at the next general election.

Such electors may, in the alternative not later than the one hundred fifteenth day before the date of a general election, file such a petition with the board of elections of the county. In such case the board of elections shall immediately proceed to determine whether the petition and the signatures on the petition meet the requirements of law and to count the number of valid signatures and to note opposite each invalid signature the reason for the invalidity. The board of elections shall complete its examination of the petition and the signatures and shall submit a report to the board of county commissioners not later than the one hundred fifth day before the date of the general election certifying whether the petition is valid or invalid and, if invalid, the reasons for invalidity, whether there are sufficient valid signatures, and the number of valid and invalid signatures. The petition and a copy of the report to the board of county commissioners shall be available for public inspection at the board of elections. If the petition is certified by the board of elections to be valid and to have sufficient valid signatures, the board of county commissioners shall forthwith and not later than four p.m. on the ninety-sixth day before the general election, by resolution, certify the petition to the board of elections for submission to the electors of the county at the next general election. If the petition is certified by the board of elections to be invalid or to have insufficient valid signatures, or both, the petitioners' committee may protest such findings or solicit additional signatures as provided in section 307.95 of the Revised Code, or both, or request that the board of elections proceed to establish the validity or invalidity of the petition and the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures in an action before the court of common pleas in the county. Such action must be brought within three days after the request has been made, and the case shall be heard forthwith by a judge or such court whose decision shall be certified to the board of elections and to the board of county commissioners in sufficient time to permit the board of county commissioners to perform its duty to certify the petition, if it is determined by the court to be valid and contain sufficient valid signatures, to the board of elections not later than four p.m. on the ninety-sixth day prior to the general election for submission to the electors at such general election.

A county charter to be submitted to the voters by petition shall be considered to be attached to the petition if it is printed as a part of the petition. A county charter petition may consist of any number of separate petition papers. Each part shall have attached a copy of the charter to be submitted to the electors, and each part shall otherwise meet all the requirements of law for a county charter petition. Section 3501.38 of the Revised Code applies to county charter petitions.

The petitioners shall designate in the petition the names and addresses of a committee of not fewer than three nor more than five persons who will represent them in all matters relating to the petition. Notice of all matters or proceedings pertaining to such petitions may be served on the committee, or any of them, either personally or by certified mail, or by leaving it at the usual place of residence of each of them.

307.95 Determining validity of petition; protests; secretary of state determines

(A) When a county charter petition has been certified to the board of elections pursuant to section 307.94 of the Revised Code, the board shall immediately proceed to determine whether the petition and the signatures on the petition meet the requirements of law, including section 3501.38 of the Revised Code, and to count the number of valid signatures. The board shall note opposite each invalid signature the reason for the invalidity. The board shall complete its examination of the petition and the signatures not later than ten days after receipt of the petition certified by the board of county commissioners and shall submit a report to the board of county commissioners not less than eighty-five days before the election certifying whether the petition is valid or invalid and, if invalid, the reasons for the invalidity, whether there are sufficient valid signatures, and the number of valid and invalid signatures. The petition and a copy of the report to the board of county commissioners shall be available for public inspection at the board of elections. If the petition is determined by the board of elections to be valid but the number of valid signatures is insufficient, the board of county commissioners shall immediately notify the committee for the petitioners, who may solicit and file additional signatures to the petition pursuant to division (E) of this section or protest the board of election's findings pursuant to division (B) of this section, or both.

(B) Protests against the board of election's findings concerning the validity or invalidity of a county charter petition or any signature on such petition may be filed by any elector eligible to vote at the next general election with the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the eighty-second day before the election. Each protest shall identify the part of, or omission from, the petition or the signature or signatures to which the protest is directed, and shall set forth specifically the reason for the protest. A protest must be in writing, signed by the elector making the protest, and shall include the protestor's address. Each protest shall be filed in duplicate.

(C) The board of elections shall deliver or mail by certified mail one copy of each protest filed with it to the secretary of state. The secretary of state, within ten days after receipt of the protests, shall determine the validity or invalidity of the petition and the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures. The secretary of state may determine whether to permit matters not raised by protest to be considered in determining such validity or invalidity or sufficiency or insufficiency, and may conduct hearings, either in Columbus or in the county where the county charter petition is filed. The determination by the secretary of state is final.

(D) The secretary of state shall notify the board of elections of the determination of the validity or invalidity of the petition and sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures not later than four p.m. of the seventy-first day before the election. If the petition is determined to be valid and to contain sufficient valid signatures, the charter shall be placed on the ballot at the next general election. If the petition is determined to be invalid, the secretary of state shall so notify the board of county commissioners and the board of county commissioners shall notify the committee. If the petition is determined by the secretary of state to be valid but the number of valid signatures is insufficient, the board of elections shall immediately notify the committee for the petitioners and the committee shall be allowed ten additional days after such notification to solicit and file additional signatures to the petition subject to division (E) of this section.

(E) All additional signatures solicited pursuant to division (A) or (D) of this section shall be filed with the board of elections not less than sixty days before the election. The board of elections shall examine and determine the validity or invalidity of the additional separate petition papers and of the signatures thereon, and its determination is final. No valid signature on an additional separate petition paper that is the same as a valid signature on an original separate petition paper shall be counted. The number of valid signatures on the original separate petition papers and the additional separate petition papers shall be added together to determine whether there are sufficient valid signatures. If the number of valid signatures is sufficient and the additional separate petition papers otherwise valid, the charter shall be placed on the ballot at the next general election. If not, the board of elections shall notify the county commissioners, and the commissioners shall notify the committee.

307.96 Effective date; insufficiency of petition barred; notice

Except as provided by Section 3 of Article X, Ohio Constitution, a county charter or amendment shall become effective if it has been approved by the majority of the electors voting thereon. The charter or amendment shall take effect on the thirtieth day after approval unless another date is fixed in the charter or amendment.

No charter or amendment adopted by the electors of any county shall be held ineffective or void on account of the insufficiency of the petitions by which such submission of the resolution was procured, nor shall the rejection of any charter or amendment submitted to the electors of such county, be held invalid for such insufficiency.

Any charter or charter amendment proposal that is submitted to the electors of the county shall be posted in each polling place in some location that is easily accessible to the electors.

475 US 469, 106 SCt 1292, 89 LEd(2d) 452 (1986), Pembaur v Cincinnati. Recovery from a municipality for civil rights violations under 42 USC § 1983 must be for tortious conduct pursuant to a municipality's "official policy", acts which the municipality has officially sanctioned or ordered, and municipal liability may be imposed for a single decision by municipal policy makers under appropriate circumstances; therefore, the county may be held liable where the county prosecutor orders deputy sheriffs to "go and get" witnesses subpoenaed by a grand jury, and they chop down a clinic door to enter and detain such persons.

746 F(2d) 337 (6th Cir Ohio 1984), Pembaur v Cincinnati; reversed by 475 US 469, 106 SCt 1292, 89 LEd(2d) 452 (1986). One decision by a county prosecutor and sheriff to break down the door to a resisting physician's office to serve a capias on an employee is insufficient proof of the existence of a government policy on which county liability under 42 USC 1983 may be premised.

OAG 88-086. Under RC 1901.34(D), apart from those prosecutors specifically excepted, a county prosecutor may enter into an agreement with a city whereby he agrees to prosecute in municipal court those criminal cases within that court's jurisdiction which arise out of offenses occurring within the city.

OAG 88-086. Under RC 1901.34(D), a county prosecutor is not authorized to enter into an agreement with a city in which a municipal court is located whereby he agrees to prosecute in that court those criminal cases with that court's jurisdiction arising in unincorporated areas within that court's territory.

OAG 68-072. The determination of who shall appoint a person to hold the office of prosecuting attorney pursuant to RC 305.02 is contingent upon whether or not the last occupant of the office was elected as an independent.

1944 OAG 7214. A person elected to office of prosecuting attorney while serving in armed forces of United States in a foreign country may take his oath of office while stationed in such foreign country. The oath may be administered by any commissioned officer of armed forces of United States pursuant to provisions of GC 14862 (RC 147.38).

1936 OAG 5420. An amendment of the law changing the term of an elective office, which amendment becomes effective after candidates for such office have been nominated but before the date of election, is controlling as to the term of any candidate elected at such election.

1930 OAG 2534. A newly elected prosecuting attorney has no legal responsibility in connection with preparation of criminal cases now pending, until he assumes the duties of office.

Ethics Op 76-011. RC 102.02(A)(3) requires a candidate for county office to disclose the name of every corporation, incorporated in Ohio or holding a certificate of compliance authorizing it to do business in Ohio, and the name of every trust, which transacts business in Ohio, in which the candidate holds an office or has a fiduciary relationship, along with a brief description of the nature of the office or the relationship.

309.02 Qualifications of candidate for prosecuting attorney

No person shall be eligible as a candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney, or shall be elected to such office, who is not an attorney at law licensed to practice law in this state. No prosecuting attorney shall be a member of the general assembly of this state or mayor of a municipal corporation.

OAG 84-087. An assistant county prosecutor may not hold the position of treasurer of the county law library association.

OAG 71-037. Assistant prosecuting attorney may not be employed as administrative assistant to board of county commissioners in same county, where duties of such administrative assistant include general supervision of office of commissioners.

OAG 71-025. Offices of assistant prosecuting attorney and secretary-treasurer of county law library association, established pursuant to RC 1713.28, within same county, are incompatible and may not be held concurrently by same person.

OAG 70-053. Position of assistant prosecuting attorney, even though he serves in a limited capacity as special assistant prosecutor, is incompatible with position of mayor of municipality.

OAG 70-022. Positions of assistant prosecuting attorney and mayor of municipality are incompatible.

OAG 69-021. RC 309.08 requires that one elected to the office of prosecuting attorney remain a licensed attorney in order to continue in office.

OAG 66-047. A prosecuting attorney may not legally be appointed as chief probation officer so long as he is serving in the capacity of prosecutor.

1964 OAG 879. A member of the general assembly is ineligible to serve as an assistant county prosecutor.

1961 OAG 2064. The office of member of a county soldiers relief commission is not incompatible with the office of prosecuting attorney of the county.

1930 OAG 1973. A person is not eligible as a candidate who has not been admitted to practice law in Ohio, at the time of executing his declaration of candidacy prior to circulating his petition as required in GC 4785-70, 4785-71, 4785-72 (RC 3513.05, RC 3513.07, RC 3513.09).

309.09 Legal adviser; additional counsel

(A) The prosecuting attorney shall be the legal adviser of the board of county commissioners, board of elections, and all other county officers and boards, including all tax-supported public libraries, and any of them may require written opinions or instructions from him in matters connected with their official duties. He shall prosecute and defend all suits and actions which any such officer or board directs or to which it is a party, and no county officer may employ any other counsel or attorney at the expense of the county, except as provided in section 305.14 of the Revised Code.

(B) Such prosecuting attorney shall be the legal adviser for all township officers, unless the township has adopted the limited self-government form of township government pursuant to Chapter 504. of the Revised Code, in which case the township law director, whether serving full-time or part-time, shall be the legal adviser for all township officers. When the board of township trustees finds it advisable or necessary to have additional legal counsel it may employ an attorney other than the township law director or the prosecuting attorney of the county, either for a particular matter or on an annual basis, to represent the township and its officers in their official capacities and to advise them on legal matters. No such counsel or attorney may be employed, except on the order of the board of township trustees, duly entered upon its journal, in which the compensation to be paid for such legal services shall be fixed. Such compensation shall be paid from the township fund.

Nothing in this division confers any of the powers or duties of a prosecuting attorney under section 309.08 of the Revised Code upon a township law director.

(C) Whenever the board of county commissioners employs an attorney other than the prosecuting attorney of the county, without the authorization of the court of common pleas as provided in section 305.14 of the Revised Code, either for a particular matter or on an annual basis, to represent the board of county commissioners in its official capacity and to advise it on legal matters, the board of county commissioners shall enter upon its journal an order of the board in which the compensation to be paid for such legal services shall be fixed. The compensation shall be paid from the county general fund. The total compensation paid, in any year, by the board of county commissioners for legal services under this division shall not exceed the total annual compensation of the prosecuting attorney for that county.

475 US 469, 106 SCt 1292, 89 LEd(2d) 452 (1986), Pembaur v Cincinnati. A forcible entry by deputy sheriffs on direction of the county prosecutor into an office to serve capiases on employees who ignored grand jury subpoenas concerning an investigation of the employer, is an act sanctioned by official policy; the warrantless entry in violation of the employer's rights under US Const Am 4 is, therefore, grounds for a suit under 42 USC 1983 against the county.

111 SCt 1934, 114 LEd(2d) 547 (1991), Burns v Reed. A state prosecuting attorney is absolutely immune from liability for damages under 42 USC 1983 for participating in a probable cause hearing but not for giving legal advice to the police.

OAG 89-001. Prior to the adoption of RC Ch 3750, a local emergency planning committee appointed by the emergency response committee was not a county board and the members of such a committee were not county officers for purposes of RC 309.09, and the county prosecutor had no duty to serve as legal adviser to the committee members or the corresponding local emergency planning district.

OAG 84-099. A prosecuting attorney has no statutory duty or authority to serve as legal adviser of a private industry council established for a service delivery area under the Federal Job Training Partnership Act, 29 USC 1501-1781.

OAG 81-059. A prosecuting attorney does not have the statutory duty to be the legal advisor of a joint recreation district established under RC 755.14(C) or of a joint recreation board established under RC 755.14(B).

OAG 80-076; overruled on other grounds by OAG 88-055. No statute or rule in Ohio provides for the recovery of attorney's fees from a person who initiated a criminal action.

OAG 69-036. A coroner in his investigation of death coming within his jurisdiction does not have the authority to apply law to the facts and determine what, if any, statute has been violated, and the legal responsibility of the persons involved.

2. Legal adviser, county officers and boards

a. Eligible to receive legal services of prosecutor

OAG 89-015. With respect to child support enforcement actions, a county prosecutor must perform those duties expressly imposed by statute upon his office and, where the county human services department has been designated under RC 2301.35 as the county's child support enforcement agency, such duties as may be required of his office by RC 309.09(A).

OAG 88-055. A common pleas court judge is a county officer for purposes of RC 305.14 and RC 309.09. Said sections do not authorize a board of county commissioners to reimburse a county officer for expenses incurred in a legal action which is no longer pending.

OAG 87-090. Pursuant to RC 309.09(A), the county prosecuting attorney must prosecute an action in the small claims division of a municipal or county court on behalf of a county human services department.

OAG 85-014. Pursuant to RC 309.09, a prosecuting attorney has the duty, upon request, to advise and represent a judge of the court of common pleas of his county as may be appropriate in connection with a situation in which an affidavit of bias and prejudice has been filed against the judge, and also has the duty to represent the bailiff of that judge, as may be appropriate, if the bailiff is deposed in connection with the affidavit of bias and prejudice.

OAG 80-076; overruled on other grounds by OAG 88-055. A deputy sheriff is an officer for purposes of RC 309.09. Thus, a county prosecutor has a duty to represent a deputy sheriff who has been charged with criminal assault if the facts and circumstances show that the suit arose out of a well-intended attempt on the deputy's part to perform his official duties.

OAG 77-039. The county prosecuting attorney is, pursuant to RC 309.09, the legal advisor of the board of trustees of a county tuberculosis hospital created pursuant to RC 339.33 and such board is without authority to employ other legal counsel.

OAG 73-055. If a lawsuit is filed against a volunteer deputy sheriff, operating an ambulance service pursuant to RC 307.051, for injuries sustained as a result of his acts in administering emergency care or treatment to an individual at the scene of an emergency, the county prosecutor is required to supply a defense, if he concludes, after examination of the facts, that the deputy sheriff was acting in good faith.

OAG 69-148. Municipal and county building departments should be represented at adjudication hearings and in court proceedings by the city attorney and county prosecuting attorney, respectively.

OAG 66-017. If creation of a university branch district is initiated by the board of county commissioners, or by the board of county commissioners in conjunction with the board of county commissioners of one or more contiguous counties, or by petition and referendum of the electors in the county, the prosecuting attorney has the duty to legally advise the board of county commissioners or the board of elections in matters relating to said creation, which duty continues until such time as the board or boards of county commissioners appoint either a district administrator or a university branch district board of trustees.

1964 OAG 1606; overruled in part by OAG 80-064. The legal adviser to a vocational school district formed by a local school district and an exempted village school district of the same county or by two or more local and city school districts of the same county is the county prosecutor of the county in which such district is located.

1963 OAG 18. Where a board of education fails to pay the amount due under RC 5127.04 to a child welfare board, the child welfare board may proceed in mandamus, or other proper legal remedy, to enforce the payment; and in such action, the child welfare board should be represented by the county prosecuting attorney.

1962 OAG 2919. The county prosecuting attorney is authorized to bring a civil action for the recovery of costs owing to county officers, including the county engineer or probate judge; and has a duty to so proceed when directed by such a county officer.

1962 OAG 2919. Where a report of the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices sets forth that public moneys due a county officer have not been collected, the report is certified to the prosecuting attorney of the county, who then has a duty to institute action for the recovery of such moneys within ninety days after receipt of the report.

1962 OAG 2919. The county prosecuting attorney is authorized to bring a civil action for the recovery of costs owing to county officers, including the county engineer or probate judge; and has a duty to so proceed when directed by such a county officer.

1962 OAG 2840. A county director of civil defense is a county officer, and the county prosecuting attorney is his legal advisor.

1959 OAG 963. A board of county commissioners is not legally bound to pay a part of the cost of rent and lighting of the private office of the prosecuting attorney, which office is also being used as the office of the prosecutor, unless such board has agreed to make such payments in providing an office pursuant to RC 307.01 and such prosecuting attorney may not expend from the fund created in RC 325.12 any amount for such purpose.

1955 OAG 5666. The probate court judge is a county officer within the meaning of RC 309.09.

1954 OAG 4567. The prosecuting attorney may be authorized to defend the coroner in an action for damages for an illegal autopsy.

1940 OAG 3133. Prosecuting attorney is legal adviser to members of soldiers' relief commission for county in which he holds office and for which such members have been appointed.

1933 OAG 1750. It is the duty of a prosecuting attorney to defend a county sheriff and deputy sheriff in actions brought against them for damages for false arrest if the facts show that the suits arise out of a well intended attempt to perform duties attending their official positions.

1933 OAG 208. The county prosecuting attorney is required to advise justices of the peace upon matters pertaining to their ministerial functions. However, prosecuting attorney is not required to advise justices of the peace upon questions of procedure and substantive law involved in cases before such justices, these matters being among the judicial functions of magistrates.

1927 OAG 1125. By virtue of GC 3003 (RC 325.11), the prosecuting attorney may not be employed by a county officer and receive extra compensation for services required to be performed by him as such prosecuting attorney.

1927 OAG 627, 1125. It is the duty of the prosecuting attorney to represent the county treasurer and to prosecute all suits and actions, which the county treasurer may direct or to which he is a party, including suits and actions for the collection of personal taxes.

b. Not eligible to receive legal services of prosecutor

34 App(3d) 161, 517 NE(2d) 1001 (Butler 1986), Holcomb v Schlichter. RC 309.09 does not authorize a prosecuting attorney to seek enforcement of a prior permanent injunction absent an official request by a county board or officer.

OAG 90-073. A county prosecuting attorney has no duty to provide legal advice to a regional water and sewer district created under RC Ch 6119.

OAG 89-102. A county prosecutor is not required by the terms of RC 309.09(A) to serve as legal adviser to a joint solid waste management district board of directors.

OAG 85-071. A county prosecuting attorney is not, under RC 309.09, legal adviser to a joint fire district organized pursuant to RC 505.37 and RC 505.371.

OAG 80-076; overruled on other grounds by OAG 88-055. A deputy sheriff who has been charged with a criminal offense and found innocent of such offense is not entitled to representation at the county's expense if the prosecutor determines that he is not entitled.

OAG 66-017. If the board or boards of county commissioners appoint a district administrator pursuant to RC 3355.04, the prosecuting attorney has the duty to legally advise the board of county commissioners of his county in matters pertaining to the management of the university branch district, but he has no duty to so advise the district administrator or to legally advise the university branch district board of trustees.

1963 OAG 95. A bi-county airport agency created by agreement of two counties is not a "county board" within the meaning of RC 309.09, and is not entitled to legal advice from the prosecuting attorney of either county.

1963 OAG 95. A bi-county airport agency created by agreement of two counties is not a "county board" within the meaning of RC 309.09, and is not entitled to legal advice from the prosecuting attorney of either county.

1961 OAG 2383. A regional planning commission is not a "county board" within the meaning of RC 309.09, and is not eligible to receive the services of the prosecuting attorney as its legal advisor.

1959 OAG 172. Although the prosecuting attorney is required to act as legal counsel for the county child welfare board, he is not and cannot be required to defend one who has a contract with the board for the custody of children in an action brought against such custodian for an alleged tort against such child or against its parent.

1958 OAG 2736. A regional planning commission having more than one participating county is not a "county board," nor its members "county officers" within the meaning of RC 309.09, and such commission is not eligible to receive the services of the prosecuting attorney of a member county as its legal advisor.

1932 OAG 4671. A county prosecuting attorney owes no duty to appear on behalf of a county dog warden in an action which involves only the personal liability of such dog warden.

3. Legal adviser, township officers

475 US 469, 106 SCt 1292, 89 LEd(2d) 452 (1986), Pembaur v Cincinnati. OAG 89-083. A county prosecutor has a duty, pursuant to RC 309.09(A), to represent a board of township trustees in a removal proceeding against its township fire chief, pursuant to RC 505.38(A), notwithstanding that such fire chief is also a township trustee, but no duty to represent the fire chief.

OAG 88-088. A county prosecutor acting pursuant to RC 309.09 may represent a board of township trustees, and additional legal counsel permitted by RC 309.09 may be employed to represent such board, only when the board is interested in a controversy that is within the scope of the board's authority as expressly set forth in a statute or necessarily implied therefrom.

OAG 85-071. A county prosecuting attorney has a duty to act as legal adviser to a township trustee who serves as a representative to a board of fire district trustees on matters relating to the activities of the joint fire district which arise from such individual's position as township trustee.

OAG 80-098. An attorney who is an employee of a township is entitled to discretionary fringe benefits granted by the township to its employees, provided that he qualifies for such benefits. These benefits may include sick leave, vacation and hospitalization and life insurance coverage. An attorney who is an independent contractor serving a township is not entitled to discretionary fringe benefits.

OAG 80-098. An attorney who is an employee of a township is entitled to the statutory fringe benefits for which he qualifies. These may include holiday pay, membership in a retirement system, workers' compensation coverage and unemployment compensation benefits. An attorney who is an independent contractor serving a township is not eligible for holiday pay under RC 511.10.

OAG 80-098. The compensation of an attorney employed by a township need not be set at a specific dollar amount so long as there is a clear standard by which to calculate the compensation. The compensation includes fringe benefits.

OAG 80-098. In order to determine whether an attorney employed by a township pursuant to RC 309.09(A) is an independent contractor or an employee of the township, it is necessary to consider all the circumstances surrounding the arrangement between the township and the attorney. Factors include the degree of independence which the attorney possesses, whether the attorney performs legal services solely for the township, whether the attorney is paid for particular services or is paid a yearly salary, whether the township or the attorney has the right to hire assistants and the obligation to pay those assistants, and whether the township or the attorney provides office space and supplies.

OAG 74-024. A board of township trustees may employ counsel in addition to the prosecuting attorney, pursuant to RC 309.09, but such counsel may not act as the sole legal representative of the township and its officers.

OAG 69-095. Either a city solicitor or law director has the duty, pursuant to RC 1901.34 to prepare affidavits for and prosecute township misdemeanor zoning violation cases to be heard in a municipal court with jurisdiction outside its municipal boundaries.

OAG 66-061. A board of township trustees are not, in their official capacity, interested parties in annexation or incorporation.

OAG 66-061. A board of township trustees may not employ special counsel and expend public funds to pay for his services to oppose a proposed annexation of territory from the township.

1962 OAG 2850. Reports of the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices concerning townships, boards of education, and park districts are filed with the county prosecuting attorney; and if such a report sets forth that funds of the agency concerned have been misapplied, said prosecutor has a duty to, within ninety days, institute civil action in the name of the agency to recover such money.

1960 OAG 1234. The prosecuting attorney of a county is the legal adviser of a joint township hospital board but is not the legal adviser of a board of hospital governors, and such board of hospital governors is authorized to employ counsel to assist it.

1929 OAG 297. The trustees of a township may not pay additional compensation to the prosecuting attorney of the county to prepare legislation for the construction of a township road.

4. Employment of additional legal counsel

No. L-84-181 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 6-1-84), State ex rel Pease v Monclova Twp Bd of Trustees. Pursuant to RC 309.09, the appointment of additional legal counsel lies within the sound discretion of the township trustees and, therefore, a writ of mandamus will not lie to compel such appointment.

OAG 90-096. Neither a board of county commissioners nor a county children services board may pay, directly or by way of reimbursement, legal fees incurred by the county children services board's executive secretary in retaining the services of private legal counsel when such counsel has been hired other than in accordance with the specific terms and procedures set forth in RC 305.14(A) and 309.09(A).

OAG 88-066. A county prosecuting attorney has no duty to represent a board of township trustees before a board of county commissioners, nor may additional legal counsel be employed to represent the board of township trustees pursuant to RC 309.09(A) in a hearing on a petition to annex territory to a municipal corporation pursuant to RC Ch 709.

OAG 85-012. A regional organization for civil defense is not entitled to the general legal counsel of a prosecuting attorney or of the attorney general, but may hire legal counsel as needed for the performance of its duties.

OAG 80-064. Pursuant to RC 309.10, the school board of a joint vocational school district may employ counsel of its choice, rather than relying on the county prosecutor of the most populous county in the joint vocational school district, provided that such counsel is paid from school funds.

OAG 79-039. A county prosecuting attorney has no statutory duty to advise the board of trustees of a joint ambulance district which is comprised of townships and municipalities in a single county, but the board of trustees has authority to employ legal counsel to assist the board in performing its legal functions.

OAG 77-039. The board of county commissioners, when joined by the prosecuting attorney, may apply pursuant to the procedure set forth in RC 305.14 to the court of common pleas for authorization to employ legal counsel to represent the current and former members of the board of trustees of a county tuberculosis hospital in a third party complaint brought against them by the employees of the hospital and in a civil action filed against them by the prosecuting attorney.

OAG 75-014. There is no authority under RC 309.09 for the prosecuting attorney of a participating county to provide general legal counsel to a joint county community mental health and retardation board, but such board may employ legal counsel pursuant to RC 340.04.

OAG 74-024. A board of township trustees has authority under RC 309.09 to employ additional legal counsel to represent and advise other township officers when they deem such action advisable or necessary.

OAG 68-036. RC 309.09 requires the prosecuting attorney of Lucas county to represent the executive secretary of the Lucas county child welfare board except when said executive secretary is authorized under RC 305.14 to retain private counsel at county expense.

OAG 66-061. A board of township trustees may not employ special counsel and expend public funds to pay for such services in doing the legal work in connection with a proposed incorporation.

1964 OAG 1606; overruled in part by OAG 80-064. The legal adviser to a vocational school district formed by two or more local and city school districts of more than one county is not the county prosecutor of any of the participating counties; counsel therefor may be employed by said board of education pursuant to RC 309.10.

1964 OAG 1523; overruled in part by OAG 80-064. A board of education of a joint vocational school district which includes school districts from five counties is not a county board and the members of the board are not county officers within the meaning of RC 309.09, and such board is not entitled to the services of the prosecuting attorney of any county; such board, pursuant to RC 309.10, may employ legal counsel and pay therefor from the school fund of the joint vocational school district.

1964 OAG 1297. The members of a board of park commissioners of a township park district are not township officers within the meaning of RC 309.09, and the prosecuting attorney does not have a statutory duty to provide legal counsel for such board, but such board may lawfully employ the legal counsel necessary to assist it in carrying out its statutory duties.

1963 OAG 285. The county treasurer may employ collectors and attorneys to enforce collection of delinquent personal property tax accounts from taxpayers who are now located and reside outside the state of Ohio, their compensation to be fixed by the county commissioners and paid out of the county treasury.

1958 OAG 2685. Authority of board of education and of clerk thereof to employ legal counsel where an action is brought against the board and the clerk, and liability of transferee district where the entire territory of such district is transferred, discussed.

1955 OAG 5666. Where a probate court judge files an action against the county commissioners with the aid of private counsel, the common pleas court may in its discretion authorize the commissioners to employ counsel to assist the probate court judge upon the application of the prosecuting attorney and the county commissioners.

1950 OAG 1981. By virtue of this section, boards of county hospital trustees are without authority to employ legal counsel.

1932 OAG 4231. The compensation of legal counsel employed by a township to assist the prosecuting attorney in defending a suit involving the cutting and burning of brush on one of the township roads, should be paid from the township general fund and not from the township road fund.

1928 OAG 1626. The township trustees of a township are not authorized to employ an attorney permanently to act as the legal adviser of such trustees and other township officers.

1928 OAG 1626. The township trustees may employ an attorney other than the prosecuting attorney of the county to represent them in a particular case in which they are parties in their official capacity. In such case the resolution providing for the employment of such attorney should fix the compensation to be paid to him for his services in the case.

5. Incompatible offices; ethics

OAG 91-010. An individual elected under RC 1907.13 as a judge of a county court may be employed, pursuant to RC 309.09(A), as a township solicitor in an area of jurisdiction not under his control as county court judge, provided the individual, as township solicitor, does not engage in the practice of law in matters pending or originating in that county court during his term of office, and further provided that he is not in violation of any local departmental regulations, charter provisions or ordinances, or statutory provisions, rules, or canons subject to interpretation by the Ohio ethics commission pursuant to RC 102.08 or the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court pursuant to Gov Bar R V(2)(b).

OAG 88-049. An assistant prosecuting attorney may not serve upon a board of township trustees for which the prosecuting attorney acts as legal adviser and counsel pursuant to the terms of RC 309.09(A).

OAG 83-030. An assistant county prosecutor may not serve as a member of a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

OAG 79-019. A multi-county felony bureau is not a county board nor is the bureau director a county officer as those terms are used in RC 309.09; therefore, the prosecuting attorney has no duty to represent the bureau, its director or its board of control. The bureau may hire private legal counsel and pay for such representation out of its own funds. The prosecuting attorney may provide such representation providing it does not conflict with the statutory duties of his office.

1963 OAG 25. The offices of an assistant prosecuting attorney and legal counsel for a township within the same county are incompatible and may not be held concurrently by the same person.

311.01 Election of sheriff; qualifications; basic training; continuing education

(A) A sheriff shall be elected quadrennially in each county. He shall hold his office for a term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after his election.

(B) On and after January 1, 1988, except as otherwise provided in this section, no person is eligible to be a candidate for sheriff and no person shall be elected or appointed to the office of sheriff unless that person meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Is a citizen of the United States;

(2) Has been a resident of the county in which he is a candidate for or is appointed to the office of sheriff for at least one year prior to the qualification date;

(3) Has the qualifications of an elector as specified in section 3503.01 of the Revised Code and has complied with all applicable election laws;

(4) Has been awarded a high school diploma or a recognized equivalent of a high school diploma;

(5) Has not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude under the laws of this or any other state or the United States, and has not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense that is a misdemeanor of the first degree under the laws of this state or an offense under the laws of any other state or the United States that carries a penalty that is substantially equivalent to the penalty for a misdemeanor of the first degree under the laws of this state;

(6) Has been fingerprinted and has been the subject of a search of local, state, and national fingerprint files to disclose any criminal record. Such fingerprints shall be taken under the direction of the administrative judge of the court of common pleas who, prior to the applicable qualification date, shall notify the board of elections, board of county commissioners, or county central committee of the proper political party, as applicable, of his findings.

(7) Has prepared a complete history of his places of residence for a period of six years immediately preceding the qualification date and a complete history of his places of employment for a period of six years immediately preceding the qualification date, indicating the name and address of each employer and the period of time employed by that employer. The residence and employment histories shall be filed with the administrative judge of the court of common pleas of the county, who shall forward them with the findings under division (B)(6) of this section to the appropriate board of elections, board of county commissioners, or county central committee of the proper political party prior to the applicable qualification date.

(8) Has held, within three years prior to the qualification date, a valid certificate of training as a law enforcement officer compensated with governmental funds;

(9) Has at least five years of full-time law enforcement experience in which the duties were related to the enforcement of statutes, ordinances, or codes and has at least two years of supervisory experience or its equivalent, or, in place of two years of supervisory experience, has completed satisfactorily at least two years of post-secondary education or the equivalent in semester or quarter hours in a college or university authorized to confer degrees by the Ohio board of regents or the comparable agency of another state in which the college or university is located.

(C) Persons who meet the requirements of division (B) of this section, except the requirement of division (B)(2), may take all actions otherwise necessary to comply with division (B) of this section. If, on the applicable qualification date, no person has met all the requirements of division (B) of this section, then persons who have complied with and meet the requirements of division (B) of this section, except the requirement of division (B)(2), shall be considered qualified candidates under division (B) of this section.

(D) Appointed and newly elected sheriffs shall attend the first basic training course conducted by the Ohio peace officer training council pursuant to division (A) of section 109.80 of the Revised Code within six months following the date of their appointment or election to the office of sheriff. Any appointed or newly elected sheriff whose required attendance at the basic training course is waived by the council under division (C) of section 109.80 of the Revised Code because of medical disability or for other good cause shall attend the course when it is next offered by the council after the date on which the disability or other cause terminates. Sheriffs other than appointed and newly elected sheriffs also may attend the course. While attending the basic training course, sheriffs shall receive their regular compensation in the same manner and amounts as if they were carrying out their regular powers and duties. Five days of instruction at the course shall be considered equal to one week of work. The costs of conducting the basic training course and the costs of meals, lodging, and travel of those appointed and newly elected sheriffs attending the course shall be paid from state funds appropriated to the council for this purpose.

(E) Beginning in the second calendar year of the term of appointed and newly elected sheriffs appointed or elected on or after January 1, 1988, and beginning in calendar year 1988 for other sheriffs, and in each calendar year thereafter, each sheriff shall attend and successfully complete at least sixteen hours of continuing education approved under division (B) of section 109.80 of the Revised Code. A sheriff who receives a waiver of the continuing education requirement from the council under division (C) of section 109.80 of the Revised Code because of medical disability or for other good cause shall complete the requirement at the earliest time after the disability or cause terminates.

(F) Each person who is a candidate for election to or who is under consideration for appointment to the office of sheriff shall swear before the administrative judge of the court of common pleas as to the truth of any information the person provides to verify the person's qualifications for the office. No person shall falsely swear as to the truth of any such information.

(G) The office of a sheriff who is required to comply with division (D) or (E) of this section and who fails to successfully complete the courses pursuant to those divisions is hereby deemed to be vacant.

(H) As used in this section:

(1) "Qualification date" means the last day on which a candidate for the office of sheriff can file a declaration of candidacy, a statement of candidacy, or a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, as applicable, in the case of a primary election for the office of sheriff; the last day on which a person may be appointed to fill a vacancy in a party nomination for the office of sheriff under Chapter 3513. of the Revised Code, in the case of a vacancy in the office of sheriff; or a date thirty days after the day on which a vacancy in the office of sheriff occurs, in the case of an appointment to such a vacancy under section 305.02 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Newly elected sheriff" means a person who did not hold the office of sheriff of a county on the date he was elected sheriff of that county.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

64 OS(3d) 12 (1992), State ex rel Shumate v Portage County Bd of Elections. An incumbent sheriff who does not have five years of full-time law enforcement experience, but for whom the requirement was expressly waived by statute for the last election, is ineligible to be a candidate for the office of sheriff as the statute specifically states that it shall be of no effect after December 31, 1988.

64 OS(3d) 12 (1992), State ex rel Shumate v Portage County Bd of Elections. A county board of elections may not rely on a common pleas administrative judge's certification that a candidate for sheriff meets the qualifications of RC 311.01(B).

OAG 92-001. Experience as a member of the legislative authority of a village, public school teacher, or trustee of a nonprofit corporation does not qualify as law enforcement experience for purposes of RC 311.01(B)(9).

OAG 92-001. College or other postsecondary education does not qualify as law enforcement experience for purposes of RC 311.01(B)(9).

OAG 90-112. If an individual who lacked the certification and experience requirements of RC 311.01(B)(8) and 311.01(B)(9) for qualification as sheriff in 1988 was elected or appointed to the office of sheriff in 1988 pursuant to 1986 H 683, § 3, eff. 3-11-87 and successfully completed the required basic training course in a timely manner, the requirements of RC 311.01(B)(8) and 311.01(B)(9) have been waived for that individual. There are no time limitations on the waiver; it applies to the 1992 election and all subsequent elections.

OAG 90-023. When a county sheriff's term of office pursuant to RC 311.01(A) includes only part of a particular calendar year, the sheriff is entitled to a prorated portion of the annual compensation fixed for that year pursuant to RC 325.06 and 325.18, which portion should be calculated to reflect the number of days in that calendar year which are included in the sheriff's term of office.

OAG 89-034. RC 311.01(D) does not entitle a newly elected sheriff who attends a training course before taking office to be compensated for performing the duties of sheriff; however, the costs of such person's tuition, meals, lodging, and travel shall be paid from state funds appropriated for this purpose.

OAG 88-048. As used in RC 311.01(B)(8), the phrase "valid certificate of training as a law enforcement officer" is not limited to a peace officer certificate earned pursuant to RC 109.77.

OAG 88-048. Experience as a county probation officer qualifies as law enforcement experience for purposes of RC 311.01(B)(9).

OAG 88-048. A person who has held, within the three years prior to the qualification date, a valid certificate of training for a position as a law enforcement officer compensated with governmental funds meets the requirements for the position of county sheriff set forth in RC 311.01(B)(8) whether or not he actually has been compensated with governmental funds either for training or for performance of his duties as a law enforcement officer.

OAG 77-090. Revenue from the collection of parking fees by a state agency may be deposited in a particular rotary fund or special account if the office of budget and management determines that the deposit of such revenue is one of the intended uses of the fund or account; in the absence of such a determination, revenue from the collection of parking fees by a state agency must, pursuant to RC 131.08, revert to the state treasurer to the credit of the general revenue fund.

1961 OAG 2066. A person who is serving as sheriff or deputy sheriff of a county may not serve at the same time as clerk or deputy clerk of a county court.

1952 OAG 2178. An individual cannot serve as deputy sheriff and also as coroner.

1936 OAG 5420. An amendment of the law changing the term of an elective office, which amendment becomes effective after candidates for such office have been nominated but before the date of election, is controlling as to the term of any candidate elected at such election.

1927 OAG 802. The sheriff of a county cannot legally be appointed to the position of dog warden.

Ethics Op 76-011. RC 102.02(A)(3) requires a candidate for county office to disclose the name of every corporation, incorporated in Ohio or holding a certificate of compliance authorizing it to do business in Ohio, and the name of every trust, which transacts business in Ohio, in which the candidate holds an office or has a fiduciary relationship, along with a brief description of the nature of the office or the relationship.

313.01 Election of coroner; coroner defined

A coroner shall be elected quadrennially in each county, who shall hold his office for a term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after his election.

As used in the Revised Code, unless the context otherwise requires, "coroner" means the coroner of the county in which death occurs or the dead human body is found.

136 OS 523, 26 NE(2d) 1020 (1940), State ex rel Kester v North. Osteopathic physician and surgeon, licensed by state medical board of Ohio to practice in Ohio, is within purview of GC 2856-3 (RC 313.02).

OAG 90-070. Pursuant to RC 3.15, a person serving as county coroner, whether elected or appointed, must be a resident of the county in which he serves at all times during his term of office.

OAG 90-070. Pursuant to RC 305.02(F), where the office of coroner is vacant, the board of county commissioners may appoint a person to serve as acting coroner and to perform the duties of the coroner between the occurrence of the vacancy and the time when the officer appointed by the central committee qualifies and takes office; such acting coroner need not be a resident of the county he serves, but must be properly certified to practice medicine in accordance with RC Ch 4731.

OAG 69-104. The offices of a county coroner and superintendent of a state hospital in the same county are incompatible, and the appointment of an assistant coroner would not alleviate the problem.

1954 OAG 3747. There is no incompatibility between the office of coroner and employment as health commissioner. Whether a health commissioner employed "full time" is violating his duties by serving as coroner is a matter for the determination of the board of health. Where he is permitted by the board to continue to perform his duties as coroner, he is entitled, in addition to his compensation as health commissioner, to receive compensation as coroner.

1952 OAG 2178. An individual cannot serve as deputy sheriff and also as coroner.

1941 OAG 4662. Person who previously served as coroner is eligible to that office regardless of time of such previous service, notwithstanding he is not licensed physician.

313.04 Disability or absence

When the coroner is absent temporarily from the county, or when on duty with the armed services of the United States, the state militia, or the American red cross, or when unable to discharge the duties of his office, such coroner may appoint a person with the necessary qualifications to act as coroner during such absence, service, or disability.

Successor of appointee appointed to fill vacancy in office of county engineer, which vacancy occurred more than thirty days before next general election at which county officers can be voted for, must be elected at next general election for county officers.

OAG 87-092. The position of a member of a regional airport authority board is incompatible with the office of county engineer for a county included within the territory of the regional airport authority.

OAG 85-100. A county engineer may be employed as a teacher at a technical college, provided that the teaching obligations do not conflict with the time required to carry out the duties of the county engineer.

OAG 73-127. The positions of county treasurer and member of a township board of zoning appeals are incompatible.

1957 OAG 200. Where an incumbent of the office of county engineer has been elected at the general election in November of 1956 for a four year term, commencing on the first Monday in January 1957, and where such incumbent resigns effective January 31, 1957, the individual thereafter appointed by the board of county commissioners to fill such vacancy will hold such office until the election and qualification of his successor; and such successor should be elected for the unexpired term at the general election in November 1958.

1927 OAG 70. The offices of county commissioner and county surveyor are incompatible, and the two offices cannot be held simultaneously by the same person.

Ethics Op 76-011. RC 102.02(A)(3) requires a candidate for county office to disclose the name of every corporation, incorporated in Ohio or holding a certificate of compliance authorizing it to do business in Ohio, and the name of every trust, which transacts business in Ohio, in which the candidate holds an office or has a fiduciary relationship, along with a brief description of the nature of the office or the relationship.

Ethics Op 76-006. A county engineer or an employee of the county engineer's office is not prohibited by RC 102.04(B) from receiving compensation for conducting a land survey within that county unless the survey constitutes, or is an element of, a case, proceeding, application, or other matter which is before any agency, department, board, bureau, commission, or other instrumentality, excluding the courts, of the county of which he is an officer or employee.

Ethics Op 76-006. A county engineer or employee of a county engineer's office is not prohibited by RC 102.04(B) from receiving compensation for conducting a land survey in any other county or any municipal corporation, including those municipal corporations within the county of which he is an officer or employee.

315.02 Eligibility for office of county engineer

No person holding the office of clerk of the court of common pleas, sheriff, county treasurer, or county recorder is eligible to hold the office of county engineer. No person is eligible in any county as a candidate for such office or shall be elected or appointed thereto unless he is a registered professional engineer and a registered surveyor, licensed to practice in this state.

171 OS 295, 170 NE(2d) 428 (1960), State ex rel Jeffers v Sowers. Vacancy on the ballot caused by death of a duly nominated candidate for the office of county engineer may be filled by the selection of a person who is a registered professional engineer and a registered surveyor licensed to practice in this state, and who is a resident and elector of this state, but it is not necessary for him to be a resident and elector of the county in which he is selected.

165 OS 498, 137 NE(2d) 674 (1956), State ex rel Barklow v Appel. Where a candidate for the office of county engineer was not a registered surveyor at the time he filed his expense account and paid his filing fee, he was not eligible as such candidate, and a decision of a board of elections that was reached as a result of a tie breaking vote by the secretary of state will be reversed.

133 OS 164, 12 NE(2d) 491 (1938), State ex rel Kirk v Wheatley. Where candidate for county engineer receiving highest number of votes is ineligible to election, incumbent in that office will hold over under GC 8 (RC 3.01), until his successor is elected and qualified.

133 OS 164, 12 NE(2d) 491 (1938), State ex rel Kirk v Wheatley. Provisions of this section are mandatory, and one who is not a registered professional engineer and registered surveyor licensed to practice in state is not eligible as candidate for office of county engineer or to be elected or appointed thereto unless he shall have previously served as county engineer immediately prior to his election.

132 OS 546, 9 NE(2d) 497 (1937), State ex rel Cox v Riffle. Where a candidate for county engineer, ineligible to election, receives the highest number of votes, receives a commission, qualifies, takes possession, enters upon and performs the duties of the office, such facts alone will not invest him with the title to the office where the right thereto does not exist.

55 App 243, 9 NE(2d) 699 (1936), State ex rel Hehr v Beery. When, in an action in mandamus to compel a county board of elections to omit the name of a candidate for county engineer from the ballot on the ground that such candidate is not qualified, a court of competent jurisdiction finds such candidate is not qualified, the act of omitting the candidate's name from the ballot is an act enjoined by law under GC 12283 (RC 2731.01), and a writ of mandamus will issue to compel performance thereof.

37 Abs 442, 47 NE(2d) 799 (App, Summit 1940), State ex rel Ranney v Corey. This section precludes one from being candidate for county engineer at primary election who, at expiration of time for filing his declaration of candidacy, does not possess qualifications provided for in said section.

OAG 73-127. The positions of county treasurer and member of a township board of zoning appeals are incompatible.

1959 OAG 855. When there is a vacancy in the office of county engineer, the county commissioners must appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy, and the appointee need not be an elector of the county but must be a qualified elector of the state of Ohio.

1959 OAG 855. In the filling of a vacancy in the office of county engineer, an elected county engineer of one county may not be appointed as county engineer of a neighboring county and hold the two offices at the same time.

1959 OAG 855. An elected county engineer of one county may not be employed by the county commissioners of an adjoining county as deputy county engineer when there is a vacancy in the office of county engineer in such adjoining county.

1956 OAG 6623. The eligibility of an individual, under the provisions of RC 315.02 for nomination as a party candidate for the office of county engineer is a matter for judicial rather than administrative determination and a board of elections is without authority to make such determination by omitting from the ballot in the general election the name of an individual receiving the highest number of votes for such office in a party primary.

1935 OAG 4885. In order to be eligible as a candidate or to be elected to the office of county engineer, it is necessary for a person to be both a registered professional engineer and a registered surveyor.

1935 OAG 4885. It is not contemplated under the provisions of this section, that two persons, one being only a registered professional engineer and the other being only a registered surveyor, may be candidates for or elected to or appointed to the office of county engineer.

1. Constitutional issues

128 OS 273, 191 NE 115 (1934), Board of Elections v State. GC 2750 (RC 317.01) wherein it is provided that there shall be elected in each county at the regular election in 1936, and quadrennially thereafter, a county recorder who shall assume office on the first Monday in January next after his election and who shall hold such office for a period of four years, is so inseparably connected with GC 2750-1 (Repealed) that it must fall with it, the 1934 election will be governed by this section as amended in 111 v 483.

2. In general

128 OS 273, 191 NE 115 (1934), Board of Elections v State. County recorders will be elected at the general election in 1934, as provided in GC 2750 (RC 317.01) prior to its attempted repeal and amendment.

OAG 69-115. The office of county recorder and the position of county veterans' service officer are incompatible.

OAG 65-8. The positions of county recorder and member of a village board of trustees of public affairs, are not incompatible as long as it is physically possible for one person to discharge the duties of both.

1959 OAG 447. The office of county recorder is incompatible with that of supervisor of a soil conservation district.

1936 OAG 6442. Where an incumbent of the office of county recorder dies shortly after the general November election of 1936, at which he was reelected county recorder, under the provisions of this section for a term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January 1937, and the county commissioners, acting under authority of GC 2755 (RC 317.06), appoint a suitable person to fill the vacancy in such office, such person holds the office until a successor, who shall be elected at the general November election of 1938, has qualified after such election for the remainder of the unexpired portion of the four year term to which such deceased recorder had been elected.

1936 OAG 5420. An amendment of the law changing the term of an elective office, which amendment becomes effective after candidates for such office have been nominated but before the date of election, is controlling as to the term of any candidate elected at such election.

1933 OAG 149. A county recorder is not prohibited by the statutes of Ohio from obtaining or disseminating among business men information concerning the filing of chattel mortgages and liens, when no part of the business hours of the county recorder are used either in the collection or dissemination of such information, and any remuneration received by the county recorder is not required to be paid into the county treasury.

Ethics Op 76-011. RC 102.02(A)(3) requires a candidate for county office to disclose the name of every corporation, incorporated in Ohio or holding a certificate of compliance authorizing it to do business in Ohio, and the name of every trust, which transacts business in Ohio, in which the candidate holds an office or has a fiduciary relationship, along with a brief description of the nature of the office or the relationship.

Ethics Op 74-005. It is not a violation per se of RC 102.04 for a person to serve simultaneously as county recorder and, through his membership in a law firm, as legal counsel to a township.

319.01 County auditor; term of office

A county auditor shall be chosen quadrennially in each county, who shall hold his office for four years, commencing on the second Monday in March next after his election.

COUNTY REAL PROPERTY TRANSFER TAX

322.02 Real property transfer tax; permissive levy by commissioners

For the purpose of paying the costs of enforcing and administering the tax and providing additional general revenue for the county, any county may levy and collect a tax to be known as the real property transfer tax on each deed conveying real property or any interest in real property located wholly or partially within the boundaries of such county at a rate not to exceed thirty cents per hundred dollars for each one hundred dollars or fraction thereof of the value of the real property or interest in real property located within the boundaries of the county granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed by such deed. Such tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners of such county and shall be levied at a uniform rate upon all deeds as defined in division (B) of section 322.01 of the Revised Code. Prior to the adoption of any such resolution, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. Such tax shall be levied upon the grantor named in the deed and shall be paid by the grantor for the use of the county to the county auditor at the time of the delivery of the deed as provided in section 319.202 of the Revised Code and prior to the presentation of the deed to the recorder of the county for recording.

No resolution levying a real property transfer tax pursuant to this section of the Revised Code shall be effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and shall state the reasons for such necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after such resolution is certified to the board. No such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it.

No real property transfer tax levied pursuant to this section shall be applicable with respect to the conveyance of real property unless such conveyance takes place on or after January 1, 1968.

36 App(2d) 87, 302 NE(2d) 895 (1973), Okey v Walton. RC 322.01 and 322.02, with the exception of the words "at least twelve months" in RC 322.01(A), are constitutionally valid.

2. In general

OAG 83-027. Where a resolution adopted by a board of county commissioners under RC 322.02 directs the county auditor to collect a real property transfer tax, the county auditor must collect such tax, absent direction to the contrary by resolution of the county commissioners or order of a court, even if the resolution provides for annual review of the tax and such review has not been undertaken.

OAG 68-165. The county auditor has the inherent authority, in receiving statements of value and administering RC 319.202 and in collecting the permissive real property transfer tax authorized to be levied pursuant to RC Ch 322, to inquire into the facts and circumstances surrounding any and all transfers or conveyances claimed to be exempt under division (F)(3) of RC 319.54 in order to determine if the one claiming the exemption has affirmatively established his right to the exemption.

322.021 Election to repeal emergency permissive tax

The question of a repeal of a county permissive tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 322.02 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election.

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the county at the next general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the county commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy the tax.

COUNTY UTILITIES SERVICES TAX

324.02 Permissive levy; procedure

For the purpose of providing additional general revenues for the county and paying the expense of administering such levy, any county may levy a county excise tax to be known as the utilities service tax on the charge for every utility service to customers within the county at a rate not to exceed two per cent of such charge. On utility service to customers engaged in business, the tax shall be imposed at a rate of one hundred fifty per cent of the rate imposed upon all other consumers within the county. The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners of the county and shall be levied at uniform rates required by this section upon all charges for utility service except as provided in section 324.03 of the Revised Code. The tax shall be levied upon the customer and shall be paid by the customer to the utility supplying the service at the time the customer pays the utility for the service. If the charge for utility service is billed to a person other than the customer at the request of such person, the tax commissioner of the state may, in accordance with section 324.04 of the Revised Code, provide for the levy of the tax against and the payment of the tax by such other person. Each utility furnishing a utility service the charge for which is subject to the tax shall set forth the tax as a separate item on each bill or statement rendered to the customer.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a utilities service tax the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. No resolution levying a utilities service tax pursuant to this section of the Revised Code shall be effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after such resolution is certified to the board. No such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it. The tax levied by such resolution shall apply to all bills rendered subsequent to the sixtieth day after the effective date of the resolution. No bills shall be rendered out of the ordinary course of business to avoid payment of the tax.

Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the time, and the place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the county commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy the tax.

If a majority of the electors voting on the tax levy provided for in section 345.01 of the Revised Code, vote in favor thereof, the taxing authority of a political subdivision, as provided by such section, may levy a tax within such subdivision, at the additional rate outside of the ten-mill limitation, during the period and for the purpose stated in the resolution, or at any lesser rate, or for any of such years or purposes.

503.07 Conformity of boundaries

When the limits of a municipal corporation do not comprise the whole of the township in which it is situated, or if by change of the limits of such corporation include territory lying in more than one township, the legislative authority of such municipal corporation, by a vote of the majority of the members of such legislative authority, may petition the board of county commissioners for a change of township lines in order to make them identical, in whole or in part, with the limits of the municipal corporation, or to erect a new township out of the portion of such township included within the limits of such municipal corporation. The board, on presentation of such petition, with the proceedings of the legislative authority authenticated, at a regular or adjourned session, shall upon the petition of a city change the boundaries of the township or erect such new township, and may upon the petition of a village change the boundaries of the township or erect such new township.

62 OS(3d) 55 (1991), State ex rel Dublin v Delaware County Bd of Commrs. Pursuant to RC 503.07, a board of county commissioners must comply with a municipal petition for a change of township boundaries in order to make those boundaries conform in whole or in part to the limits of the municipality.

62 OS(3d) 55 (1991), State ex rel Dublin v Delaware County Bd of Commrs. A township may exist in two or more counties; upon presentation of a petition by a municipality existing in two or more counties to annex municipal territory located in one county to a township comprising the largest portion of the municipality, the board of county commissioners must approve the annexation to the township comprising the greatest amount of municipal territory notwithstanding the fact that this township exists in another county and annexation will cause this township to extend into two or more counties.

160 OS 165, 114 NE(2d) 821 (1953), State ex rel Gilmore v Lorain County Bd of Elections. After the corporate limits of a village become identical with those of a township, the township may not be considered an "adjoining township" within the meaning of those words as set forth in the first sentence of GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39).

4 App(3d) 213, 4 OBR 318, 447 NE(2d) 765 (Franklin 1982), Franklin Twp v Marble Cliff. RC 503.07 and RC 703.22 are not irreconcilable, and RC 703.22 does not limit the authority of the board of county commissioners to detach a municipal corporation from the rest of a township but, instead, only deals with the result of a detachment.

OAG 90-071. It is not necessary for a municipality to seek a change in township boundaries pursuant to RC 503.02, rather than RC 503.07, when the proposed change will not result in the municipality's being wholly within one township or in the formation of a "paper township" in accordance with RC 703.22.

OAG 90-071. Pursuant to RC 503.07, a municipal corporation may petition for a change of township lines so that the lines become identical in part with the limits of the municipal corporation. Any parts of a township brought within a municipal corporation pursuant to such a change of township lines shall, in accordance with RC 503.14, be annexed to the township in which the municipal corporation or the greater part of it was previously situated. This procedure may be followed even though it will not result in the municipality's being wholly within one township or in the formation of a "paper township" in accordance with RC 703.22.

OAG 90-071. If a change in township boundaries proposed under RC 503.07 would result in the detachment of lands from a township in one county and their attachment to a township in an adjoining county, the petition for such change of boundaries must be submitted to the boards of commissioners of both counties.

OAG 90-071. RC 503.07 and 503.15 do not preclude a municipal corporation that seeks to form a "paper township" or to place all its residents within the boundaries of a single township from taking several actions over a period of years to achieve that objective, rather than filing a single petition.

OAG 90-048. When a portion of the territory of a township is included within a municipal corporation, steps may be taken under RC 503.07 or 503.09 to modify the township boundaries so that such portion of territory is no longer part of the township and electors residing in such portion of territory are no longer electors of the township. In the absence of such steps, such electors are residents of both the township and the municipal corporation, and they are entitled to vote on both municipal and township officers, issues, and tax levies, and are subject to taxation by both the municipal corporation and the township.

OAG 84-051. RC 503.14 does not provide an alternate, automatic method to that found in RC 503.07 for changing township boundaries to conform to municipal boundaries; if a municipality does not, after annexing township territory, initiate the procedure set forth in RC 503.07, such annexed township territory continues to be a component part of the township in which it was situated prior to municipal annexation.

OAG 77-097. Where township voters pass a levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(J) for the stated purpose of "providing and maintaining motor vehicles, communications, and other equipment used directly in the operation" of the township police department, and there is located entirely within that township a chartered village which already has its own police force, the township trustees may not appropriate proceeds of that levy to the village for its police force, nor use such proceeds to fund its obligation under a contract for additional police protection for the township under RC 505.50 or RC 505.441.

OAG 77-031. If a municipal corporation fails to initiate proceedings pursuant to RC 503.07 to adjust township boundaries, the inhabitants of township territory that has been annexed to such a municipal corporation are still subject to, and eligible to vote on township tax levies and issues.

OAG 72-016. A municipality which has created its own township pursuant to RC 503.07 is not within territorial limits of original township from which it was removed, and banks within new township no longer retain priority under RC Ch 135 to be depositories of public deposits of original township.

OAG 69-032. When a new township is created which conforms to the limits of a municipality and is created from part of the area of three different existing townships, the city ordinance which sets out the boundaries for the new township should describe the new boundaries of each of the three townships from which area was annexed and how it relates to the new township.

OAG 67-013. When a municipality, whose boundaries are coterminous with those of a township, annexes territory in an adjoining county, and then petitions for a change in township lines in that adjoining county to conform to the municipal boundaries, the residents of the annexed portion of the adjoining county who otherwise qualify, remain electors of that county and become electors of the municipality who vote at municipal precinct polling places, but cease to be electors of the township from which the territory which included their residence was annexed, and are not electors for any township offices or issues.

1963 OAG 748. Where the electors of a township which included a municipal corporation have authorized a special tax levy outside the ten-mill limitation for specific township purposes, and after such favorable vote by the electors a new township has been created to include only the limits of the municipal corporation, the board of trustees of the township which has retained its original name may levy such special tax on all of the property formerly within the township, including the municipal corporation, for the payment of contracts, engagements, or liabilities contracted prior to the change in the township boundaries, but not to pay for contracts, engagements, or liabilities contracted or to be contracted after the effective date of the creation of the new township.

1962 OAG 3310. In a proceeding under RC 503.07 where the boundaries of a township are changed, or a new township is created by the board of county commissioners in such a manner so that any township officer no longer resides within the township, such township office should be deemed vacant and the board of township trustees should declare a vacancy to exist.

1962 OAG 3310. A board of county commissioners proceeding with a change of township boundaries under RC 503.07 is not required to give public notice in the manner set forth in RC 503.04.

1962 OAG 3170. (1) When a new township is established out of the portion of a township comprising a city, the city takes title to cemetery property owned by the original township but lying entirely within the borders of the city; and the cemetery is operated by the director of public service of the city; personal property of the original township which was not divided at the time the municipal corporation was incorporated, and remained the property of the township, remains the property of said original township when the new township is established, and (2) where a special levy for the purpose of the township cemetery exists in the original township, the proceeds of such levy should be apportioned between the two townships, the amount due the new township being allocated to the city, and the city and the original township may unite in the management of the cemetery.

1959 OAG 91. The provision in RC 503.07 that the county commissioners "may" change township boundaries in the circumstances therein stated is not mandatory, and such board may act in its discretion in such matters.

1958 OAG 2686. Duties of county commissioners regarding establishment of or changes in townships and apportionment of funds and liabilities of previously existing township discussed.

1958 OAG 1743. RC 503.03 does not prevent the creation of a new township of a reduced area where such reduction is an incident of changes made in township boundaries under RC 503.07.

1955 OAG 5422. Where a township not containing a municipal corporation is reduced to less than twenty-two square miles by a change of boundaries under RC 503.07, the county commissioners may, upon a petition of a majority of freeholders in such area, create a new township without any addition of territory.

1954 OAG 4642. Existence and operation of township government where township is within limits of a municipal corporation, in whole or in part, discussed at length.

1952 OAG 1459. A township zoning ordinance adopted under GC 3180-35 (RC 519.11) is not affected by the erection of a new township out of that portion of such township within the limits of a municipal corporation.

503.08 Disposition of remainder of township

In making a change of boundaries as provided by section 503.07 of the Revised Code, if any township not having a municipal corporation within its limits is reduced in territory to less than twenty-two square miles, it may thereupon be annexed by the board of county commissioners to any contiguous township, or the board may annex thereto territory from any contiguous township and erect a new township. If a majority of the householders of such reduced township, outside the limits of a municipal corporation, petition for such annexation, the board may erect such reduced township into a new township.

Where a township not containing a municipal corporation is reduced to less than twenty-two square miles by a change of boundaries under RC 503.07, the county commissioners may, upon a petition of a majority of freeholders in such area, create a new township without any addition of territory.

1949 OAG 687. Where a village by resolution requests the county commissioners to reduce the township lines of the township in which it is situated so that they will be coextensive and coterminous with those of the village, such commissioners may not grant such request without at the same time either annexing the remaining territory of the original township to a contiguous township or townships or creating such remaining territory into a new township which may or may not include territory annexed thereto from a contiguous township or townships.

503.09 Petition to erect new township excluding territory of municipal corporation

Where a township contains a municipal corporation, either in whole or in part, if a majority of the freehold electors owning land in the portion of such a township outside the municipal corporation's corporate limits, petitions, with a map accurately setting forth such territory, praying to have such territory erected into a new township, and excluding the territory within the municipal corporation, the board of county commissioners shall enter an order erecting such territory into a new township, the boundaries of which need not include twenty-two square miles of territory. Upon the erection of such new township, the territory lying within the limits of the municipal corporation in the original township shall be considered as not being located in any township.

160 OS 165, 114 NE(2d) 821 (1953), State ex rel Gilmore v Lorain County Bd of Elections. After the corporate limits of a village become identical with those of a township, the township may not be considered an "adjoining township" within the meaning of those words as set forth in the first sentence of GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39).

89 Abs 390, 172 NE(2d) 339 (CP, Trumbull 1958), Berlin v Kilpatrick. An elector signing a petition for creation of a new township under RC 503.09 may withdraw his name at any time before the county commissioners have acted thereon.

89 Abs 390, 172 NE(2d) 339 (CP, Trumbull 1958), Berlin v Kilpatrick. In order for a township to be organized out of that portion of the territory of an existing township outside the limits of a city under RC 503.09, said city must be entirely contained within the township.

83 Abs 97, 168 NE(2d) 163 (App, Trumbull 1959), State ex rel Waldron v Trumbull County Bd of County Commrs. RC 503.09 does not apply where a city is located partly but not wholly in the township.

OAG 90-048. When a portion of the territory of a township is included within a municipal corporation, steps may be taken under RC 503.07 or 503.09 to modify the township boundaries so that such portion of territory is no longer part of the township and electors residing in such portion of territory are no longer electors of the township. In the absence of such steps, such electors are residents of both the township and the municipal corporation, and they are entitled to vote on both municipal and township officers, issues, and tax levies, and are subject to taxation by both the municipal corporation and the township.

1954 OAG 4642. Existence and operation of township government where township is within limits of a municipal corporation, in whole or in part, discussed at length.

1937 OAG 849. This section is a mandatory statute and when a majority of the freehold electors, owning land in such township outside the city or cities therein located, petition the commissioners of the county in which such township is located for a new township, the county commissioners have but one duty and that is to enter an order erecting such territory into a new township.

1937 OAG 849. It is not enough that a person be a freeholder in the affected territory to qualify him to sign the petition for a new township. He must be a freehold elector; an elector under this section is one who is authorized and qualified to vote for township officers in the township in question.

1937 OAG 849. If man and wife own land jointly in the territory in question, the estate of each amounts to a freehold and they are electors in the township; they each have full right to sign the petition for a new township.

1937 OAG 849. If the title to the real estate is in one spouse only, no right is thereby conferred upon the other spouse to sign a petition for a new township because of the fact that while he or she as the case may be, may be an elector, he or she is not a freehold elector.

503.24 Vacancy in elective office; trustees to appoint; committee members or probate judge may appoint; term for which appointee serves

If there is a vacancy by reason of the nonacceptance, death, or removal of a person chosen to an office in any township at the regular election, or if there is a vacancy from any other cause, the board of township trustees shall appoint a person having the qualifications of an elector to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term or until a successor is elected.

If a township is without a board or if no appointment is made within thirty days after the occurrence of a vacancy, a majority of the persons designated as the committee of five on the last-filed nominating petition of the township officer whose vacancy is to be filled who are residents of the township shall appoint a person having the qualifications of an elector to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term or until a successor is elected. If at least three of the committee members who are residents of the township cannot be found, or if that number of such members fails to make an appointment within ten days after the thirty-day period in which the board of township trustees is authorized to make an appointment, then the presiding probate judge of the county shall appoint a suitable person having the qualifications of an elector in the township to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term or until a successor is elected.

If a vacancy occurs in a township elective office more than forty days before the next general election for municipal and township officers a successor shall be chosen at that election to fill the unexpired term, provided the term does not expire within one year from the day of the election. If the term expires within one year from the day of the next general election for municipal and township officers, a successor appointed pursuant to this section shall serve out the unexpired term.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. In general
2. Vacancy
3. Appointment by trustees
4. Other appointments

1. In general

OAG 78-022. RC 124.57 does not prohibit a classified civil servant from being appointed to the office of township trustee pursuant to RC 503.24, or from seeking that office in a nonpartisan election.

OAG 72-026. Where member of a board of township trustees resigns while his term has almost three years remaining, board is prohibited by public policy from appointing to the vacancy one of its present members whose term has less than one year to run, and where such invalid appointment has been made, the appointed trustee is a de facto officer and the acts of board as thus constituted are valid in so far as they affect the rights of the public and innocent third parties; but they are invalid as to a third party who is guilty of fraud, connivance or collusion with respect to the invalid appointment.

OAG 66-044. A person who has ceased to reside in the township, and is thereby disqualified from serving as township clerk, cannot be appointed to serve as deputy township clerk.

1950 OAG 1364. A special election is permitted to be held only when authorized by statute; there are no provisions for the holding of a special election for the offices of member of a board of education and township trustee; such elections under the provisions of GC 4785-4 (RC 3501.02) are to be held in odd-numbered years.

1934 OAG 3352. The phrase "oldest commission" appearing in this section means the existing live commission of earliest date.

1934 OAG 3321. A justice of the peace having the oldest commission in a township may legally appoint his father as township trustee to fill the vacancy in such office created by the resignation of a township trustee, providing his father is a person capable of transacting the duties of township trustee and possesses the qualifications of an elector in the township.

2. Vacancy

OAG 66-155. When a vacancy in the office of township trustee occurred on November 19, 1965, by reason of the death of an incumbent who had been re-elected at the November 2, 1965 election, and where such vacancy for the term ending December 31, 1965, was filled by appointment under RC 503.24, there would be no vacancy in the office for the full term commencing January 1, 1966, and no new appointment is necessary, since the person appointed to the unexpired term would continue in office in accordance with RC 3.01 for the entire unexpired term ending December 31, 1967.

OAG 66-044. When a township clerk has ceased to reside in the township, it is mandatory for the township trustees to declare the office vacant, and the vacancy exists from the time the officer ceases to reside in the township, and not from the time the board of township trustees declares the office vacant.

1963 OAG 3519. Failure of a member of a board of township trustees to regularly attend the meetings of such board does not result in a vacancy in such office, but may be ground for removal of such township officer.

1957 OAG 243. Township trustees may appoint a deputy township clerk only if the township clerk's inability to perform the duties of the office is based on one or more of the reasons set forth in RC 507.02.

1946 OAG 764. Vacancy in office of township trustee is created when holder of that office removes himself from township in which he is an office holder with intention of remaining away from said township and of making some other township his legal residence but not when he moves to an adjoining township for temporary purposes only with intention of returning to township of which he is legal resident and an office holder.

1940 OAG 2419. Resignation of a township trustee when filed with the justice of peace of his township holding the oldest commission becomes effective when so filed and creates a vacancy which may be filled by such justice of the peace.

1939 OAG 820. In case of removal from township of person holding office of trustee in said township, question of whether or not such office shall be declared vacant depends entirely upon whether such removal was temporary or permanent; this is a question of fact which may be determined by a consideration of all circumstances surrounding removal of such trustee, and of true intention of trustee which may be ascertained from such circumstances.

1939 OAG 581. Permanent removal from township of a township clerk creates a vacancy in office of township clerk, which office must be filled by township trustees.

1931 OAG 3601. Temporary physical or mental incapacity of a township clerk, preventing him from performing his duties, does not vacate his office; however, absence from the office for more than a reasonable time, due to physical or mental incapacity, creates a vacancy to be filled by the township trustees.

3. Appointment by trustees

48 OS(2d) 239, 358 NE(2d) 537 (1976), State ex rel Purola v Cable. Where the de jure office of township trustee is held by a person who is at least a de facto member of the board of township trustees, and such de facto trustee combines his vote with the vote of a duly-elected de jure trustee to appoint a qualified person as a member of the board of trustees in order to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of a member of the board in accordance with RC 503.24, such appointee to the board is a de jure township trustee.

OAG 72-026. Where member of a board of township trustees resigns while his term has almost three years remaining, board is prohibited by public policy from appointing to the vacancy one of its present members whose term has less than one year to run, and where such invalid appointment has been made, the appointed trustee is a de facto officer and the acts of board as thus constituted are valid in so far as they affect the rights of the public and innocent third parties; but they are invalid as to a third party who is guilty of fraud, connivance or collusion with respect to the invalid appointment.

1962 OAG 3310. When a vacancy is found to exist under RC 503.241, the board of township trustees, if such board exists, must appoint a person having the qualifications of an elector to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term within thirty days from time such vacancy actually occurs.

1960 OAG 1285. Where a vacancy occurs on a board of township trustees, the authority of the remaining members of the board to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term is limited to a period of thirty days after the occurrence of the vacancy.

1958 OAG 1651. Where a vacancy in the office of township trustee occurred in December, 1957, by reason of the death of an incumbent who had been re-elected at the November 5, 1957, election and where such vacancy for the term ending December 31, 1957, was not filled by appointment under the provisions of then existing RC 503.24, the vacancy in the office for the full term may be filled by the surviving members of the board of township trustees by appointment made within thirty days after January 1, 1958, as provided in RC 503.24 as amended effective January 1, 1958.

1931 OAG 3601. When a vacancy occurs in the office of township clerk, the township trustees are required to appoint a qualified elector to fill such vacancy.

4. Other appointments

4 OS(2d) 47, 212 NE(2d) 604 (1965), State ex rel Saxon v Kienzle. The sole remaining member of a board of township trustees may not act as the board or fill vacancies thereon, but a trustee appointed by the judge of the municipal court at the request of such member holds office validly.

1961 OAG 2063. When a vacancy occurs on a board of township trustees of a township located in a county court district, and the board does not fill the vacancy within thirty days after it occurs, the vacancy should be filled by the county court of the county, and in a county court district having more than one county court judge such a vacancy must be filled by a majority of all of the judges of the court, and may not be filled by the judge having territorial jurisdiction in the township in which the vacancy occurred.

1957 OAG 607. If no justice of the peace in a township has received a commission and thus none is eligible to make an appointment to fill an unexpired term of a township trustee, there is no justice of the peace in such township for the purposes of RC 503.24, and the power to make such an appointment devolves upon the presiding municipal judge or probate judge.

1956 OAG 7411. A justice of the peace having appointive power under RC 503.24 may not appoint himself as township trustee.

1956 OAG 6449. A justice of the peace may fill a vacancy on the board of township trustees only in the township in which he is elected and where he resides, and if the township is subject to the civil jurisdiction of a justice elected in and resident in another township, the vacancy should be filled by the probate judge.

1945 OAG 156. After a vacancy occurs in office of justice of the peace by absence of the incumbent for six months, any legal authority that such incumbent may have had to fill a vacancy in board of township trustees ceases, and the remaining justice of the peace holding the oldest commission may fill the vacancy existing in the township board.

1939 OAG 581. In absence of statutory authority, township clerk may not appoint an assistant or deputy clerk to perform official duties imposed by law upon such office.

1936 OAG 5171. Where two justices of the peace were elected at the same time for terms to commence on the first day of January of the next year, but the commissions from the governor of Ohio bear different dates, the justice of the peace holding the commission bearing the earlier date is authorized to appoint a suitable person to fill a vacancy on the board of trustees of such township.

1933 OAG 846. Where two justices of the peace were appointed by the township trustees of a township under authority of this section, on the same day, but received their commissions from the governor of Ohio at different times, and consequently qualified on different dates, the justice of the peace holding the commission bearing the earlier date is authorized to appoint a suitable person to fill a vacancy on the board of trustees of such township in accordance with the terms of GC 3262 (RC 503.24).

1932 OAG 4080. Where a member of a board of trustees of a township dies shortly before the beginning of a new term to which he had been elected, and a qualified elector in the township is appointed to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term in the manner provided by law, neither such appointee, nor a member of said board of trustees, who was defeated for re-election, is entitled to hold over after the expiration of the old term of said deceased member until a successor to him is elected and qualified; in such a situation, the justice of the peace holding the oldest commission in the township, should appoint a qualified elector in the township to fill the vacancy for the new term of the deceased member.

1931 OAG 3601. There is no provision in the statutes permitting the temporary appointment of a person to transact the duties of a township clerk, while said clerk is absent from his office, due to physical or mental incapacity.

505.01 Board of township trustees; election and term

In each township there shall be a board of township trustees consisting of three members. Two of such trustees shall be elected at the general election in nineteen forty-nine and quadrennially thereafter, in each township, who shall hold office for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of January next after their election. The third trustee shall be elected at the general election in nineteen fifty-one and quadrennially thereafter, in each township, who shall hold office for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of January next after his election.

478 US 30, 106 SCt 2752, 92 LEd(2d) 25 (1986), Thornburg v Gingles. As amended in 1982, 42 USC 1973 outlaws state voting standards, practices, or procedures that are not "equally open to participation by members of a [protected class] . . . in that its members have less opportunity . . . to elect representatives of their choice," even where no intent to discriminate is shown; where a legislative body is elected in multimember districts a minority group will prove its votes were illegally diluted by showing, (1) the minority is of such size and location that it would be a majority in one single-member district, (2) a significant portion of the minority supports the same candidates, and (3) the white majority votes so as to defeat the minority's choice absent special circumstances. (Ed. note: North Carolina law construed in light of federal statute.)

OAG 90-083. The positions of city school district board of education member and trustee of a township located within such district are incompatible; a member of such board of education impliedly resigns from that position when he subsequently is elected and qualified as a trustee of a township located within such district.

OAG 89-101. The positions of superintendent of a county school district with more than one local school district and trustee of a township located within such county school district are incompatible.

OAG 88-049. An assistant prosecuting attorney may not serve upon a board of township trustees for which the prosecuting attorney acts as legal adviser and counsel pursuant to the terms of RC 309.09(A).

OAG 88-033. The positions of township trustee and county park district commissioner are incompatible.

OAG 88-020. A township trustee who is not elected to that office in a partisan election may also be employed as a truck driver in the classified service of the county highway department.

OAG 86-059. The positions of township trustee and maintenance man for a village are compatible, but the township trustee may not participate in negotiating or voting upon contracts between the board of township trustees and the village.

OAG 85-080. The office of township trustee is compatible with the position of equipment operator in the Ohio department of transportation, provided that the township in question has neither railroad grade crossings nor municipal corporations within its boundaries, and further provided that the township trustee is elected in a nonpartisan election.

OAG 85-074. An individual may not serve as both township trustee and county zoning inspector within the same county if the county zoning plan includes territory within the unincorporated area of the township.

OAG 85-006. The offices of member of the board of education of a local school district and trustee of a township which is located within the school district are incompatible.

OAG 84-059. The positions of township trustee and trustee of a regional water and sewer district established pursuant to RC Ch 6119 are incompatible.

OAG 83-051. The bailiff of a municipal court which has county-wide jurisdiction may also serve as a township trustee within the same county.

OAG 83-016. If it is physically possible for one person to hold both positions and if the holding of both positions is not prohibited by local law, the positions of township trustee and member of a county board of education are compatible.

OAG 80-035. An individual may simultaneously hold the office of township trustee and that of trustee of a technical college district.

OAG 77-082. O Const Art II, § 20, prohibits any increase in per diem payments to a township trustee that results from legislative action taken during such trustee's existing term in office.

OAG 73-102. A board of township trustees has no authority to use public funds to support the program of a federally funded private, nonprofit corporation which provides social services for senior citizens, styled a council on aging.

OAG 69-084. One may be a member of a private, nonprofit corporate board and also a member of a board of township trustees that deals infrequently with such private nonprofit corporation, if that member does not participate in the resolution of problems concerning that corporation.

OAG 66-169. The offices of township trustee and finance director of a municipality within the same county are incompatible.

OAG 66-060. The position of member of the board of education of a local school district and the position of township trustee of a township within that local school district are incompatible.

OAG 65-70. All three township trustees must be present actually or must be notified and given opportunity to be present to constitute a quorum, but a majority of the board of township trustees must be physically present to transact business.

1963 OAG 39. The position of member of a municipal civil service commission is not incompatible with the office of member of a board of township trustees.

1962 OAG 2879. The elective position of township trustee is incompatible with the positions of county dog warden and deputy county dog warden, said positions of county dog warden and deputy county dog warden being in the classified civil service of the county.

1961 OAG 2311. The positions of township trustee and deputy sheriff are incompatible.

1961 OAG 2310. The positions of township trustee and janitor in a state highway patrol system are incompatible.

1960 OAG 1209. One person may simultaneously hold the positions of county attendance officer of a county board of education and township trustee within the same county, provided it is physically possible to perform the duties of both positions.

1959 OAG 602; modified by OAG 85-080. The office of township trustee is incompatible with the position of state highway department employee whether the latter position be in the classified or unclassified service of the state highway department.

1959 OAG 386. The office of township trustee is incompatible with that of county civil defense director.

1959 OAG 223; overruled by OAG 88-020. The elective position of township trustee is incompatible with the position of county highway department employee whether the latter position be in the classified or unclassified service of the county.

1959 OAG 223; overruled by OAG 88-020. The elective position of township trustee and the position of county probation officer are not compatible.

1958 OAG 2202. The positions of township trustee and clerk of a local school board are incompatible.

1955 OAG 5565. The offices of township trustee and director of public safety in a city located in the township are compatible.

1941 OAG 4664. Offices of township trustee and village marshal are compatible and can be lawfully held simultaneously by one and the same person, unless it is physically impossible for one person to discharge the duties of both offices.

1939 OAG 1575. Offices of township trustee and a member of the board of park commissioners of a township created under the provisions of GC 3415 (RC 511.18) et seq., are incompatible.

1935 OAG 4284. The offices of township trustee and member of the board of a general health district are incompatible.

505.37 Fire regulations; purchase of fire-fighting equipment; establishment of fire districts; additional territory added to district; tax levied; withdrawal of municipal corporation from district; removal of territory from district; issuance of four-year notes; appropriation of land for fire station; licensing of emergency medical service

(A) The board of township trustees may establish all necessary rules to guard against the occurrence of fires and to protect the property and lives of the citizens against damage and accidents, and may, with the approval of the specifications by the prosecuting attorney, purchase or otherwise provide any fire apparatus, mechanical resuscitators, or other equipment, appliances, materials, fire hydrants, and water supply for fire-fighting purposes that seems advisable to the board. The board shall provide for the care and maintenance of fire equipment, and, for such purposes, may purchase, lease, or construct and maintain necessary buildings, and it may establish and maintain lines of fire-alarm communications within the limits of the township. The board may employ one or more persons to maintain and operate fire-fighting equipment, or it may enter into an agreement with a volunteer fire company for the use and operation of fire-fighting equipment. The board may compensate the members of a volunteer fire company on any basis and in any amount that it considers equitable.

(B) The boards of township trustees of any two or more townships, or the legislative authorities of any two or more political subdivisions, or any combination thereof, may, through joint action, unite in the joint purchase, maintenance, use, and operation of fire-fighting equipment, or for any other purpose designated in sections 505.37 to 505.42 of the Revised Code, and may prorate the expense of the joint action on any terms that are mutually agreed upon.

(C) The board of township trustees of any township may, by resolution, whenever it is expedient and necessary to guard against the occurrence of fires or to protect the property and lives of the citizens against damages resulting from their occurrence, create a fire district of any portions of the township that it considers necessary. The board may purchase or otherwise provide any fire apparatus, appliances, materials, fire hydrants, and water supply for fire-fighting purposes, or may contract for the fire protection for the fire district as provided in section 9.60 of the Revised Code. The fire district so created shall be given a separate name by which it shall be known.

Additional unincorporated territory of the township may be added to a fire district upon the board's adoption of a resolution authorizing the addition. A municipal corporation that is within or adjoining the township may be added to a fire district upon the board's adoption of a resolution authorizing the addition and the municipal legislative authority's adoption of a resolution or ordinance requesting the addition of the municipal corporation to the fire district.

If the township fire district imposes a tax, additional unincorporated territory of the township or a municipal corporation that is within or adjoining the township shall become part of the fire district only after all of the following have occurred:

(1) Adoption by the board of township trustees of a resolution approving the expansion of the territorial limits of the district and, if the resolution proposes to add a municipal corporation, adoption by the municipal legislative authority of a resolution or ordinance requesting the addition of the municipal corporation to the district;

(2) Adoption by the board of township trustees of a resolution recommending the extension of the tax to the additional territory;

Each resolution of the board adopted under division (C)(2) of this section shall state the name of the fire district, a description of the territory to be added, and the rate and termination date of the tax, which shall be the rate and termination date of the tax currently in effect in the fire district.

The board of trustees shall certify each resolution adopted under division (C)(2) of this section to the board of elections in accordance with section 5705.19 of the Revised Code. The election required under division (C)(3) of this section shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the manner provided for the submission of tax levies under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that the question appearing on the ballot shall read:

"Shall the territory within _____
be added to _____ fire district,
and a property tax at a rate of taxation not exceeding _____ (here insert tax rate) be in effect for ____ (here insert the number of years the tax is to be in effect or "a continuing period of time," as applicable)?"

If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on it, the joinder shall be effective as of the first day of July of the year following approval, and on that date, the township fire district tax shall be extended to the taxable property within the territory that has been added. If the territory that has been added is a municipal corporation and if it had adopted a tax levy for fire purposes, the levy is terminated on the effective date of the joinder.

Any municipal corporation may withdraw from a township fire district created under division (C) of this section by the adoption by the municipal legislative authority of a resolution or ordinance ordering withdrawal. On the first day of July of the year following the adoption of the resolution or ordinance of withdrawal, the municipal corporation withdrawing ceases to be a part of such district and the power of the fire district to levy a tax upon taxable property in the withdrawing municipal corporation terminates, except that the fire district shall continue to levy and collect taxes for the payment of indebtedness within the territory of the fire district as it was composed at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

Upon the withdrawal of any municipal corporation from a township fire district created under division (C) of this section, the county auditor shall ascertain, apportion, and order a division of the funds on hand, moneys and taxes in the process of collection except for taxes levied for the payment of indebtedness, credits, and real and personal property, either in money or in kind, on the basis of the valuation of the respective tax duplicates of the withdrawing municipal corporation and the remaining territory of the fire district.

A board of township trustees may remove unincorporated territory of the township from the fire district upon the adoption of a resolution authorizing the removal. On the first day of July of the year following the adoption of such a resolution, the unincorporated township territory described in the resolution ceases to be a part of such district and the power of the fire district to levy a tax upon taxable property in that territory terminates, except that the fire district shall continue to levy and collect taxes for the payment of indebtedness within the territory of the fire district as it was composed at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

(D) The board of township trustees of any township, the board of fire district trustees of a fire district created under section 505.371 of the Revised Code, or the legislative authority of any municipal corporation may purchase the necessary fire-fighting equipment, buildings, and sites for the township, fire district, or municipal corporation and pay for it over a period of nine years. The board of township trustees, board of fire district trustees, or legislative authority may also construct any buildings necessary to house fire-fighting equipment and pay for the buildings over a period of nine years. The board of township trustees, board of fire district trustees, or legislative authority may issue the notes of the township, fire district, or municipal corporation, signed by the board or designated officer of the municipal corporation and attested by the signature of the township, fire district, or municipal clerk, covering such deferred payments and payable at the times provided, which notes shall bear interest not to exceed the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code, and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. The legislation authorizing the issuance of the notes shall provide for levying and collecting annually by taxation, amounts sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the notes. At least one-ninth of the purchase price or construction cost shall be paid in cash at the time of purchase as provided in the contract and the remainder of the purchase price or construction cost shall be paid in not more than eight equal annual installments. Each installment shall be not less than one-eighth of the deferred portion of the purchase price or construction cost and shall be secured by a note which may contain a clause permitting prepayment at the option of the board or legislative authority. The notes shall be offered for sale on the open market or given to the vendor or contractor if no sale is made.

(E) A board of township trustees of any township or a board of fire district trustees of a fire district created under section 505.371 of the Revised Code may purchase a policy or policies of liability insurance for the officers, employees, and appointees of the fire department, fire district, or joint fire district governed by the board that includes personal injury liability coverage as to the civil liability of such officers, employees, and appointees for false arrest, detention, or imprisonment, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, defamation or other violation of the right of privacy, wrongful entry or eviction, or other invasion of the right of private occupancy, arising out of the performance of their duties.

When a board of township trustees cannot, by deed of gift or by purchase and upon terms it considers reasonable, procure land for a township fire station that is needed in order to respond in reasonable time to a fire or medical emergency, the board may appropriate such land for that purpose under sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code. If it is necessary to acquire additional adjacent land for enlarging or improving the fire station, the board may purchase, appropriate, or accept a deed of gift for the land for these purposes.

(F) A board of township trustees, by adoption of an appropriate resolution, may choose to have the Ohio ambulance licensing board license any emergency medical service it operates. If the board adopts such a resolution, sections 3303.51 to 3303.55 and 3303.57 to 3303.62 of the Revised Code and all rules adopted under those sections are applicable to the township medical service. A board of township trustees, by adoption of an appropriate resolution, may remove its emergency medical service from the jurisdiction of the Ohio ambulance licensing board.

1. In general

OAG 90-048. A fire district or joint fire district may be created under RC 505.37 or 505.371. Only residents of the district are entitled to vote on, and benefit from, a district tax for fire protection, which is to be levied throughout the district.

OAG 89-028. A township which provides an emergency rescue service throughout its territory is required to furnish such rescue services to an institution of the rehabilitation and correction department located within the township territory.

OAG 88-074. When a village becomes part of a township fire district pursuant to RC 505.37(C), the township fire district is governed by the board of township trustees, the township clerk is responsible for keeping the records for the district, and legal questions may be addressed to the county prosecutor or other legal counsel for the township.

OAG 88-074. When a board of township trustees and the legislative authority of a village agree pursuant to RC 505.37(B) to undertake joint action to provide fire protection services or facilities, or contract pursuant to RC 9.60 to provide or obtain fire protection services, apparatus, or equipment, each participant must perform the tasks that relate to its duties under the agreement, and each may call upon its own legal counsel for advice; the participants may allocate duties of recordkeeping relating to the joint activity or contractual relationship in such manner as they see fit.

OAG 87-040. A township that chooses to provide fire protection without the creation of one or more fire districts cannot exclude portions of the township from the area to which fire protection is provided. Such a township must provide fire protection to persons traveling on portions of the Ohio turnpike that are included within the township.

OAG 85-071. A county prosecuting attorney is not, under RC 309.09, legal adviser to a joint fire district organized pursuant to RC 505.37 and RC 505.371.

OAG 85-071. A county prosecuting attorney has a duty to act as legal adviser to a township trustee who serves as a representative to a board of fire district trustees on matters relating to the activities of the joint fire district which arise from such individual's position as township trustee.

OAG 85-071. The board of fire district trustees of a joint fire district may employ such legal counsel as is necessary for the performance of its functions.

OAG 84-050. A board of township trustees may not use a bank credit card to defer all or part of the purchase price or create an installment payment plan for the purchase of supplies, materials, machinery, tools, parts, or equipment purchased pursuant to RC 505.37, RC 5549.04, or RC 5549.21.

OAG 84-050. A board of township trustees may use a bank credit card to purchase supplies, materials, machinery, tools, parts, or equipment pursuant to RC 505.37, RC 5549.04, or RC 5549.21 so long as the board duly authorizes such expenditure pursuant to RC 507.11, the township clerk certifies the existence of sufficient unencumbered funds to pay for such expenditure where such certificate is required under RC 5705.41(D), and the expenditure otherwise conforms with law.

1963 OAG 167. RC 505.37, RC 5705.29, RC 5705.31, RC 5705.41 and RC 5705.411 are in pari materia.

1957 OAG 1238. RC Ch 3310 does not apply to political subdivisions which maintain no fire departments of their own but which merely contract with a voluntary fire company or another political subdivision having a fire department for fire protection services.

1957 OAG 515. Township trustees may create two separate fire districts in a single township and may enter into a contract with one fire department for the protection of one fire district and a second for the other, and may levy taxes at different rates in the two districts.

1957 OAG 515. The revision of RC 505.37 in the 1953 recodification to delete the words "or districts" did not change the law.

1951 OAG 2692. Township trustees are not authorized to create a fire district in a township in which no municipality or part thereof is located.

2. Regulations

OAG 86-058. Pursuant to RC 505.37, a board of township trustees may establish regulations authorizing the use of water procured under authority of that statute to protect the property and lives of citizens against damages and accidents in emergency situations. Whether a particular situation constitutes an emergency is a determination to be made by the board of township trustees.

1963 OAG 408. A board of township trustees may establish a regulation requiring members of the township fire department to be resident within the township.

1963 OAG 408. There is no provision under which a referendum vote may be compelled on the subject of a fire regulation adopted by a board of township trustees under authority of RC 505.37.

3. Equipment

OAG 82-024. A board of county commissioners may not purchase firefighting equipment for the use of other political subdivisions, except as authorized under RC 505.37.

1962 OAG 3066. Township trustees may furnish and deliver water of the township fire department to private citizens to protect the property and lives of such citizens where drought or other causes have resulted in an emergency situation, but may not charge a fee for its services.

1958 OAG 2341. Township trustees have authority to sell a water line constructed for fire protection upon a resolution that such water line is not needed; but such sale must be by auction, and pursuant to publication of notice; in the absence of any bond issue for such improvement, the proceeds of such sale should be paid into a special fund of such fire district for the construction or acquisition of permanent improvements.

1957 OAG 153. Where a board of township trustees creates a fire district from part of a township, and purchases a fire truck to serve such fire district, the subsequent annexation of territory, including all of the fire district, to a municipal corporation does not give such municipal corporation any right of ownership in such fire truck.

1956 OAG 6909. A board of township trustees may expend public funds upon the construction of a fire house when the land on which the building is to be erected is held under a long term lease extending or renewable for the expected life of the building.

1956 OAG 6541. Funds derived from a township tax levy for fire protection purposes may be used to obtain fire hydrants and water supply for fire-fighting purposes although such hydrants and water supply will benefit only a portion of the township.

1956 OAG 6541. The authority of a board of township trustees to establish or procure water lines and to provide a water supply within the township concerned extends only to the provision of such water supply as is necessary for fire-fighting purposes.

1953 OAG 2839. Where it is anticipated that the cost of constructing a township firehouse will be many times in excess of $1,000, the trustees may not split such project into a number of smaller contracts so as to avoid the necessity of complying with the statutory requirements of competitive bidding.

1952 OAG 1665. A township has authority to receive federal grants for the purpose of providing fire-fighting equipment for civil defense, and may use such grants in connection with its own funds for such purpose, and may use its equipment in cooperation with civil defense organizations in case of enemy attack.

1951 OAG 276. Township trustees do not have the power to appropriate land for the purpose of erecting a building thereon to store fire equipment.

1946 OAG 1423. Authority given to township trustees to establish and maintain lines of fire alarm telegraph within limits of a township would include establishment of short wave radio equipment, by which fire calls could be transmitted to homes of volunteer firemen.

1934 OAG 3527. A board of township trustees has no authority to expend township funds to lay water lines and construct dams to impound water for fire protection purposes.

1931 OAG 3854. The statutes do not authorize the installation, by a board of township trustees, of a reservoir and water lines for providing a supply of water for fire protection.

4. Personnel

OAG 86-059. Pursuant to RC 505.011, a member of a board of township trustees may be a member of a private fire company that has entered into an agreement to furnish fire protection for the township, provided that he receives no compensation as a volunteer fireman.

OAG 86-059. A township trustee who serves, without compensation, as a member of a private fire company may, under RC 505.011, participate, in his capacity as trustee, in negotiating and voting upon contracts between the township and the private fire company; the fact that the trustee's adult son is also a member of the private fire company does not affect this conclusion.

OAG 86-014. A board of township trustees has the authority to appoint a "fire safety inspector" as defined in RC 3737.01(C).

1962 OAG 2785. Members of a private fire company which has contracted to provide fire services to a township, have implied authority to enter onto private property in performing their duties at the scene of a fire, but when in performing such duties damage is caused to private property, the liability of such members in not limited by RC 701.02.

1960 OAG 1166. A member of a board of township trustees may not be employed by the township to maintain and operate firefighting equipment and may not serve on a volunteer fire department which has entered into an agreement with the township to furnish fire protection, as such employment is incompatible with the office of member of a board of township trustees.

1956 OAG 7112. The township trustees may appoint a fire chief in each township or fire district in which a fire department has been established, but may not appoint an over-all fire chief for two or more districts or a chief or a volunteer private fire company with which it has contracted for fire protection.

1949 OAG 1188. Members of a volunteer fire department, who are employed under contract by a township are deemed township employees under GC 3298-57 (RC 505.41).

1934 OAG 2319. Township trustees of a township may legally provide for a reasonable fee to be paid volunteer firemen of the township who attend practice meetings of a volunteer fire company, for their time consumed at such meetings.

1931 OAG 3859. Board of township trustees may not legally spend money for the purpose of purchasing group insurance for the members of the volunteer fire department.

5. Joint action

52 Misc 101, 369 NE(2d) 819 (CP, Franklin 1977), In re Termeer. RC 505.371 is constitutional, and two or more individual townships, as well as one or more municipal corporations, may unite to create a joint fire district, having the power to conduct quasi-judicial proceedings on disciplinary matters.

OAG 88-074. When a board of township trustees and the legislative authority of a village agree pursuant to RC 505.37(B) to jointly provide fire protection services or facilities or contract pursuant to RC 9.60 to provide or obtain fire protection services, apparatus, or equipment, each party must perform the tasks that relate to its duties under the agreement, each may call upon its own legal counsel for advice, and the parties may allocate duties of record keeping in such manner as they see fit.

OAG 69-014. Township trustees may create a fire district covering the entire township, including a municipal corporation within the limits of such township, and the trustees and the council of the village may combine to buy necessary fire equipment, with the township trustees passing a levy for the purpose of purchasing such equipment.

OAG 66-114. A township fire department has the primary responsibility to fight fires within the township or in any subdivision which the township trustees have agreed to protect, notwithstanding that such fire may be in connection with a vehicle traveling on a limited access highway to which no convenient entrance may be made within said township or protected subdivision, but agreements or contracts may be made, by the township or the protected subdivision, with other subdivisions whose fire-fighting facilities could more easily enter the limited access highway and reach the fire in the said township or protected subdivision; while a subdivision with convenient access to the highway may extend its fire-fighting services via the highway to the site of a fire in a neighboring township, there does not seem to be any duty to do so.

1963 OAG 16. A board of county commissioners may establish and operate a base radio station to receive and transmit official fire activity messages from and to the fire departments of political subdivisions in the county which operate fire departments and which may care to join in such network, provided that agreements are entered into between the county and the political subdivisions involved.

1958 OAG 3150. Where a township has joined with a city to purchase real property and thereafter the township and city shared the expense of constructing a fire station on such property, the township may sell its interest in such property either by public auction or by conveyance to the city in which the property is located.

1958 OAG 1696. Application of RC Ch 3310 to township and village which have entered into an agreement for joint action in the maintenance and operation of a fire department discussed.

1953 OAG 3054. Where neither township "A" nor township "B" houses a fire department, but participates with township "C" and village "X" (located within township "C"), in the joint purchase and maintenance of fire-fighting equipment housed within village "X" and operated by volunteer firemen from village "X" and township "C," for the protection of townships "A," "B," and "C" and village "X," neither township "A" nor township "B" is a township "having and maintaining therein a fire department," and the township trustees of townships "A" and "B" may, by contract, provide for reimbursement of township "C" for any pension or indemnity award assessed against township "C" for injuries or death of a fire department member.

1953 OAG 2459. Township trustees are not authorized to contract with a fire district comprising only a part of the township for fire protection for areas within the township but not within the district.

1951 OAG 2692. The only authority of township trustees to provide fire protection services to a township whereby separate portions thereof will be serviced by the facilities of different municipalities is that contained in this section.

1949 OAG 763. Township trustees, after creating fire district, may enter into contract with volunteer fire department which owns its own apparatus for fire protection for entire township exclusive of municipal corporation.

1948 OAG 3957. The trustees of a township who have established a fire district in a portion of their township are without authority to contract on behalf of such fire district for the services of the fire department of said township, but may make such contract with a municipality located in such township or with another political subdivision.

1945 OAG 231. Board of trustees of a township in which a fire district has been created may on behalf of such fire district enter into an agreement with another township or a municipality for the joint purchase, maintenance, use and operation of fire-fighting facilities, the portion of the expense thereof belonging to such district to be provided by a tax levied on the property in such district.

1945 OAG 231. Board of trustees of a township in which there is a municipal corporation may create one or more fire districts out of township not included within the corporate limits of such municipality, but there is no authority for creation of fire district comprising parts of two or more townships or including a municipality.

1944 OAG 6682. Trustees of township are without authority to contract with municipality for furnishing by such municipality of fire protection exclusively to public school buildings located within such township.

1940 OAG 2520. Township and a village cooperating in purchase of fire fighting equipment may not vote jointly as a unit upon the question of issuing bonds to finance the purchase of such equipment.

1930 OAG 2129. Several townships may not legally jointly own fire equipment for the mutual protection of the residents of such townships.

1928 OAG 2955. Township trustees may pay for the use of a fire department maintained by a neighboring political subdivision at an agreed price per year or per month, or for each fire as it occurs.

6. Financing

OAG 76-057; overruled in part by OAG 88-042. A metropolitan park district, organized and existing under RC Ch 1545, may pay for fire protection provided by a township within which one of its parks is located.

OAG 69-014. Township trustees may create a fire district covering the entire township, including a municipal corporation within the limits of such township, and the trustees and the council of the village may combine to buy necessary fire equipment, with the township trustees passing a levy for the purpose of purchasing such equipment.

1963 OAG 3533. Notes of a township issued by a board of township trustees under RC 505.37 may be offered for sale by the board to a bank by private negotiations with the bank, as such an offer would constitute an offer for sale on the open market within the purview of that section of law.

1963 OAG 166. Legislation adopted by a board of township trustees for the issuance of notes pursuant to RC 505.37 must also provide for levying and collecting annually by taxation amounts sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of such notes; but the amount necessary to be levied for such purpose is to be determined by the taxing officials at the time the levy is made, after taking into consideration other funds lawfully available to retire such notes.

1962 OAG 3385. A board of township trustees may not borrow money and issue a note therefor under RC 505.37 where the money is to be used to construct a building to house fire equipment, as the issuance of such notes is limited to cases where there is a "purchase" made from a "vendor"; and the construction of a building would necessarily entail some costs not involving purchases, and purchases involving more than one vendor.

1962 OAG 3385. Notes issued under RC 505.37 by a board of township trustees in the purchase of fire-fighting equipment, buildings, and sites for buildings must be offered for sale on the open market or given to the vendor if no sale is made, and the board may not deal directly with a bank, to the exclusion of others, in the issuance of such notes.

1962 OAG 3145. A board of township trustees may issue notes to cover deferred payments for the cost of remodeling the township firehouse, but the legislation authorizing the issuance of such notes must provide for a tax levy sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of such notes, and the proceeds of a tax levy previously adopted pursuant to RC 5705.19 may not be used for this purpose. (Modified by 1963 OAG 166.)

1962 OAG 3145. Where a board of township trustees elects to issue notes under RC 505.37, a certificate of the fiscal officer as required by RC 5705.41 must be obtained.

1961 OAG 2595. RC 505.37 authorizes a board of township trustees to purchase or construct the necessary buildings and sites for the maintenance and protection of fire-fighting equipment and to finance such purchase over a four year period by the issuance of notes.

1956 OAG 6609. Moneys in the general fund of a township may lawfully be expended in meeting a portion of the contract cost of constructing lines of fire alarm telegraph even though a special levy outside the ten-mill limitation has been approved by the township electors to raise funds for such purpose.

1954 OAG 4093. Township trustees and a village council may jointly construct a fire station out of a voted township bond issue and general funds of the village without submitting such issue to an election.

1953 OAG 2839. A board of township trustees is without authority to let a contract for the construction of a firehouse unless a certificate as to the present availability of funds therefor can be supplied.

1952 OAG 1665. A township has authority to receive federal grants for the purpose of providing fire-fighting equipment for civil defense, and may use such grants in connection with its own funds for such purpose, and may use its equipment in cooperation with civil defense organizations in case of enemy attack.

1952 OAG 1415. Four year notes for the purchase of fire-fighting equipment cannot be issued to purchase land and buildings to maintain the equipment.

1952 OAG 1101. Township trustees may create one or more fire districts within the township, provide fire-fighting equipment, levy a tax therefor, and issue bonds up to $20,000 upon approval by the voters.

1952 OAG 1101. A fire district is a subdivision within the scope of the uniform tax levy law and the township trustees may submit to the voters a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation.

1949 OAG 468. Notes of a township issued by township trustees for purchase of fire-fighting equipment are not required to be advertised or offered for public sale.

1947 OAG 2059. Cost of fire-fighting equipment purchased on deferred payment plan may not exceed $10,000.

1945 OAG 231. There is no authority in law for submitting to the voters of a fire district proposition to levy a tax upon the property of such district for the purpose of affording it fire protection.

1939 OAG 1350. Board of township trustees of a township may provide water main for fire protection purposes from moneys in the general fund of the township not otherwise appropriated, even though the township has not made a specific levy for such purpose.

1932 OAG 4354. Where bonds are issued by the trustees of a township, in which an incorporated village is located, for the purposes of providing fire apparatus or appliances, or buildings or sites therefor, the levy annually of a tax on all the taxable property of such township for the purpose of paying the interest and providing a sinking fund for the redemption at maturity of such bonds includes the taxable property within such village.

7. Ambulance service

OAG 90-078. An individual employed by a township as a paramedic, pursuant to RC 505.37, may operate, in his private capacity, a paramedic service, but such individual, pursuant to RC 511.13, may not enter into a contract to provide ambulance services or emergency medical services to the township employing him as a paramedic.

OAG 69-123. A board of township trustees may utilize funds acquired under RC 505.39 and RC 5705.19(I) for the purpose of furnishing ambulance service to its citizens, and such funds may be used when the service is furnished directly through the township fire department under RC 505.37 or indirectly by contract under RC 505.443.

OAG 69-038. A fire department, volunteer or hired, maintained by a township may operate an ambulance purchased under authority of RC 505.37 to protect property and lives against damages and accidents, and such use is not limited to emergency situations in conjunction with fire protection.

1963 OAG 560. Township trustees may only acquire and operate or contract for the operation of "life squads" or rescue vehicles when they are used by fire departments, volunteer or hired, in conjunction with fire protection.

1962 OAG 3332. A board of township trustees may acquire and operate an ambulance for the purpose of protecting property and lives against damages and accidents.

1953 OAG 2416. Township trustees are authorized to protect property and lives against damages and accidents and to acquire and operate emergency vehicles or rescue cars for such purposes, and may enter into an agreement with a voluntary fire company for the operation of any such equipment.

ANNOTATIONS FROM FORMER ANALOGOUS SECTION

505.42 OPERATION OF FIRE-FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

OAG 67-007. A township may purchase liability insurance to cover volunteer firemen in the operation of their personal automobiles, while such operation is in behalf of the township, and in the course of its business.

1962 OAG 2785. Members of a private fire company which has contracted to provide fire services to a township, have implied authority to enter onto private property in performing their duties at the scene of a fire, but when in performing such duties damage is caused to private property, the liability of such members is not limited by RC 701.02.

505.48 Township police district; composition; territorial limits; additions to district imposing tax

(A) The board of township trustees of any township may, by resolution adopted by two-thirds of the members of the board, create a township police district comprised of all or a portion of the unincorporated territory of the township as the resolution may specify. If the township police district does not include all of the unincorporated territory of the township, the resolution creating the township police district shall contain a complete and accurate description of the territory of the district. The territorial limits of the township police district may be altered by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of the board of township trustees at any time one hundred twenty days or more after the district has been created and is operative. If the township police district imposes a tax, any territory proposed for addition to the district shall become part of the district only after all of the following have occurred:

(1) Adoption by two-thirds vote of the board of township trustees of a resolution approving the expansion of the territorial limits of the district;

(2) Adoption by a two-thirds vote of the board of township trustees of a resolution recommending the extension of the tax to the additional territory;

Each resolution of the board adopted under division (A)(2) of this section shall state the name of the police district, a description of the territory to be added, and the rate and termination date of the tax, which shall be the rate and termination date of the tax currently in effect in the police district.

(B) The board of trustees shall certify each resolution adopted under division (A)(2) of this section to the board of elections in accordance with section 5705.19 of the Revised Code. The election required under division (A)(3) of this section shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the manner provided for the submission of tax levies under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that the question appearing on the ballot shall read:

"Shall the territory within _____

(Description of the proposed territory to be added) be added to _____ (name) township police district, and a property tax at a rate of taxation not exceeding _____ (here insert tax rate) be in effect for _____ (here insert the number of years the tax is to be in effect or "a continuing period of time," as applicable)?" If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on it, the joinder shall be effective as of the first day of January of the year following approval, and on that date, the township police district tax shall be extended to the taxable property within the territory that has been added.

A township police district comprising only a part of the unincorporated territory of the township shall be given a separate and distinct name in the resolution authorizing its creation.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 88-036. If a township road district is created pursuant to RC 5573.21, the district is a subdivision for purposes of RC 5705.01, and the township trustees, as taxing authority of the district, may levy taxes only upon the taxable property of the township road district, and not upon property within the limits of a municipal corporation located in the township.

OAG 77-097. Where township voters pass a levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(J) for the stated purpose of "providing and maintaining motor vehicles, communications, and other equipment used directly in the operation" of the township police department, and there is located entirely within that township a chartered village which already has its own police force, the township trustees may not appropriate proceeds of that levy to the village for its police force, nor use such proceeds to fund its obligation under a contract for additional police protection for the township under RC 505.50 or RC 505.441.

OAG 77-054. The restrictions of RC 509.01 do not apply to officers of township police districts who are not constables.

OAG 71-076. Territorial jurisdiction of township police constable extends throughout county in which his township is located and can be extended by contract to township located in another county.

OAG 71-076. Territorial jurisdiction of township police officer is limited to unincorporated areas of township as specified by board of township trustees in resolution creating township police district, but may be extended to include another township police district by contract.

OAG 71-045. Cost of police protection and additional police protection provided by action of township under either RC 505.441 or RC 505.48 et seq. may not be met by contributions by residents, whether contractual or voluntary, but must be borne from public tax derived revenues.

OAG 71-045. Township police district may not obtain all police protection by contract with a municipality but may obtain additional police protection under such contract, after providing directly for basic police protection through employment of a chief of police, necessary patrolmen and acquisition of police equipment.

OAG 71-045. Township may contract with municipality under RC 505.441 for police protection or additional protection or under RC 505.50 for additional police protection for a police district, notwithstanding that township and municipality may be situated in different counties.

OAG 69-055; overruled in part by OAG 88-036. Tax levies made under authority of RC 509.01, RC 5705.06(F), RC 5573.13 and RC 5573.21 are to be made upon all the taxable property within the township, including the taxable property within any municipal corporations within such township, and are subject to the ten-mill limitation prescribed by RC 5705.02.

OAG 65-26. Members of a township district police force, created pursuant to RC 505.48 et seq., have no power to make arrests for violations enumerated in RC 4513.39 on state highways within the township.

1964 OAG 1255. When a township does not have located within it any municipality or portion thereof, the entire township may be created into a township police district, and the authority to use the general funds of the township would be no different from that which exists when the police district consists of less than the entire unincorporated territory of the township.

1964 OAG 1255. When there is located within a township a municipality or part thereof, the portion of the township in which the municipality is located may not be included in the township police district.

1964 OAG 1255. When a township police district is created by a board of trustees and such district does not include all of the township territory, no portion of the expenses of the district in providing police protection may be paid out of general funds of the township, but those current expenses which the township trustees are authorized to incur by RC 505.49, RC 505.50 and RC 505.54 may be incurred on behalf of the township as distinguished from on behalf of the police district alone, and if so incurred then may properly be considered expenses of the township rather than expenses of the police district.

507.01 Township clerk

A township clerk shall be elected at the general election in 1951, and quadrennially thereafter in each township, and he shall hold his office for a term of four years commencing on the first day of April next after his election.

39 Misc(2d) 10, 531 NE(2d) 785 (CP, Trumbull 1988), Chronister v Trumbull County Prosecuting Attorney. The office of township clerk and employment as a deputy county auditor are incompatible.

OAG 87-085. A person may at the same time hold the positions of township clerk and clerk of a board of county commissioners in different counties, provided that it is physically possible for such person to perform the duties of both positions, and provided further that there is no contract between the county and township entered into under the authority of RC 307.15 which obligates the township to pay the county for services rendered or which otherwise directly involves either position.

OAG 86-057. To the extent that a township clerk's statutory duties consist of functions that need not, by their nature, be performed at a particular time or place or in a particular manner, the board of township trustees does not have authority to regulate the time, place, or manner in which such duties are performed.

OAG 86-057. A person may at the same time occupy the office of township clerk and serve as secretary of a city board of education, provided that it is physically possible for such person to perform the duties of both positions.

OAG 83-033. A timekeeper for the Ohio department of transportation, who is in the classified service of the state, may not serve as a township clerk if the clerk is elected in a partisan election; he may, however, serve as a township clerk if the election for clerk is nonpartisan in nature.

OAG 81-087. If it is physically possible for one person to hold both positions and if the holding of both positions is not prohibited by local law, the positions of township clerk and treasurer's assistant for a local board of education are compatible.

OAG 77-037. The position of township administrator is incompatible with that of township clerk.

OAG 71-065. Assuming there is no village ordinance to the contrary, member of village police department may also serve as clerk of township in which village is located, unless it is physically impossible for same person to perform duties of both offices.

OAG 66-093. The position of "inspector" under RC 319.59 is not incompatible with that of township clerk provided it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of both offices.

1963 OAG 559. The position of township clerk is incompatible with the position of member of board of health of a general health district.

1962 OAG 2872. The positions of clerk of a township and fire prevention officer of the township are not incompatible, provided it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of both positions.

1961 OAG 2480. The office of township clerk is not incompatible with the office of member of the board of education for the local school district in which the township is located.

1960 OAG 1663. The elective position of township clerk is incompatible with the position of state department of highways employee when the latter position is in the classified civil service, but is not incompatible if the latter position is not in the classified civil service and if it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of both positions.

1960 OAG 1650. A clerk of a township elected pursuant to RC 507.01 may not at the same time hold the position of deputy county auditor of the county in which such township is located.

1960 OAG 1151. RC Ch 505 and RC Ch 507 do not authorize a board of township trustees to regulate the time the township clerk should devote to the duties of his office, and therefore such a board cannot require the clerk to be present in his office certain daytime hours each week.

1960 OAG 1151. A person may at the same time occupy the office of township clerk and be a full time employee of the county treasurer, provided it is physically possible for such person to perform the duties of both such positions.

1957 OAG 844. A township clerk cannot at the same time be a city street employee unless the city under its home rule powers relieves such employees from RC 143.41 (RC 124.57).

1952 OAG 1290. Employment as a laborer for a township is not incompatible with the position of township clerk of the same township.

1952 OAG 1116. The positions of township clerk and member of the board of directors of a county agricultural society are not incompatible.

1934 OAG 2365. Blindness does not disqualify a person from holding the office of township clerk.

1934 OAG 2365. A blind township clerk may retain his blind pension allowed him by the county commissioners if such commissioners determine that the amount of his fees and allowances for his services as township clerk are not sufficient to provide him with the necessities of life, that he has no other sufficient means of his own to maintain himself, and that, unless extended the relief authorized by law, he would become a charge upon the public or upon those not required by law to support him.

1931 OAG 2897. The offices of county recorder and township clerk are compatible and may be held by one and the same person, if it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of both offices.

507.051 Duties; notification to board of elections

The clerk of a township shall notify the board of elections of all vacancies caused by death, resignation or otherwise in the elective offices of the township. Such notification shall be made in writing and filed not later than ten days after the vacancy occurs with the board of elections of the county in which the township is located.

The clerk of a township shall notify the board of elections of all changes in boundaries of that township. Such notification shall be made in writing and contain a plat clearly showing all boundary changes and shall be filed not later than ten days after the change of boundaries becomes effective with the board of election of the county in which the township is located.

OAG 73-100. The question of construction or improvement of a town hall, at a cost greater than $10,000, may be, and the question of issuance of bonds to meet the cost of construction or improvement of a town hall must be submitted to the electorate by the board of township trustees at any election or at the same election.

OAG 69-132. If a township building is to be constructed or enlarged and the major portion of the cost is allocated to the meeting hall therein, it would be considered a town hall and subject to RC 511.01, but if the major portion of the cost is allocated to the office space designed therein, it would be considered an office building and subject to RC 505.26.

1961 OAG 2408. A board of township trustees may not improve a township hall at a cost in excess of $2,000 without submitting the question to the electors of the township.

1949 OAG 1103. A vote of the electors of a township is necessary before a town hall, the cost of which will exceed $2,000, can be built; this vote is necessary even though the funds to be used come from a permanent improvement fund and not the general fund of a township.

1934 OAG 3701. A township and village located in such township cannot unite in the erection of a new public building without submitting the same to a vote of the electors of both subdivisions as required by GC 3399 (RC 511.05) et seq., even though most of the material for said building is to be supplied from an old building which it is proposed to raze and which had been constructed jointly by such township and village.

1934 OAG 2404. A township hall cannot be built, removed, improved or enlarged but may be repaired at a cost to the township greater than $2,000 without submitting the question to the electors of the township, even though there are sufficient unencumbered funds in the general fund of the township to pay such entire cost.

ANNOTATIONS FROM FORMER ANALOGOUS SECTION

503.23 PLACE OF HOLDING ELECTIONS; ERECTION OF TOWN HALL

1958 OAG 2018. When a township and a village located in said township desire to jointly construct a public building, an application must be made by the freeholders of the township and of the village, a vote must be held and a two-thirds majority must be obtained in such election in order to authorize such joint action, whether or not a tax is to be levied to cover the cost of such project.

1955 OAG 5693. Township trustees may lease so much of the town hall as is not needed for township purposes for a period of one year or less.

1939 OAG 1036. Amount of rental to be paid for polling places, established in private buildings, is to be determined by local board of elections.

1939 OAG 1036. It is the duty of county board of elections to fix and provide places for registration, when required, and for holding primaries and elections, in all precincts in such county, including those located in townships.

1939 OAG 1036. Provisions of GC 4785-13 (RC 3501.11), subdivision b, and GC 3260 (RC 503.23) are irreconcilable and GC 3260, to extent that it requires local boards of township trustees to fix polling places, was repealed by implication by enactment of GC 4785-13, subdivision b.

1939 OAG 1036. Expenses of county board of elections for rental of polling places should be paid in all instances from county treasury in pursuance of appropriations by county commissioners upon vouchers of board of elections certified by its chairman or acting chairman and its clerk or deputy clerk, upon warrants of county auditor; and moneys so expended for a political subdivision within a county should be charged back to such subdivision for (a) primaries and elections in odd-numbered years, (b) special elections, and (c) conducting of registration within such subdivision, when required, and amount so charged should be withheld by county auditor from moneys payable thereto at next tax settlement.

1927 OAG 26. The trustees of a township may erect on a site which they have acquired by permanent lease or otherwise, in any election precinct within the township, a building or house to be used as a voting place, without submitting the question to a vote of the electors of said election precinct.

511.02 Election for tax levy; bonds may be issued

At the election provided for by section 511.01 of the Revised Code, if a majority of all the ballots cast are in the affirmative, the board of township trustees shall levy the necessary tax, which, in any year, shall not exceed four mills on the dollar valuation. Such tax shall not be levied for more than seven years. In anticipation of the collection of taxes, the board may borrow money and issue bonds for the whole or any part of such work, which bonds shall not bear interest to exceed the rate provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code[3] payable annually.

OAG 73-100. The question of construction or improvement of a town hall, at a cost greater than $10,000, may be, and the question of issuance of bonds to meet the cost of construction or improvement of a town hall must be submitted to the electorate by the board of township trustees at any election or at the same election.

1933 OAG 1829. A township and village located in such township cannot unite in the erection of a public building without submitting the same to a vote of the electors of both subdivisions.

1925 OAG 2309. Where an election was held to vote upon a town hall, in counting the ballots all the votes must be considered in determining a majority of the votes cast, in order to ascertain the result of the election.

511.27 Tax levy to defray expenses

(A) To defray the expenses of the township park district and for the purchasing, appropriating, operating, maintaining, and improving lands for parks or recreational purposes, the township board of park commissioners may levy a sufficient tax within the ten-mill limitation, not to exceed one mill on each dollar of valuation on all real and personal property within the township, and on all real and personal property within any municipal corporation which is within the township, or which was within the township at the time that the park district was established, or the boundaries of which are coterminous with or include the township. Such levy shall be over and above all other taxes and limitations on such property authorized by law.

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (C) of this section, the township board of park commissioners may, not less than seventy-five days before a general or primary election in any year, declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the necessary requirements of the district and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for the use of the district. The resolution shall specify the purpose for which the taxes shall be used, the annual rate proposed, and the number of consecutive years the levy will be in effect. Upon the adoption of the resolution, the question of levying the taxes shall be submitted to the electors of the township and the electors of any municipal corporation which is within the township, or which was within the township at the time that the park district was established, or the boundaries of which are coterminous with or include the township. The rate submitted to the electors at any one time shall not exceed two mills annually upon each dollar of valuation. If a majority of the electors voting upon the question of the levy vote in favor thereof, the tax shall be levied on all real and personal property within the township and on all real and personal property within any municipal corporation which is within the township, or which was within the township at the time that the park district was established, or the boundaries of which are coterminous with or include the township, and such levy shall be over and above all other taxes and limitations on such property authorized by law.

(C) In any township park district that contains only unincorporated territory and where the township board of park commissioners is appointed by the board of township trustees, before a tax can be levied and certified to the county auditor pursuant to section 5705.34 of the Revised Code or before a resolution for a tax levy can be certified to the board of elections pursuant to section 511.28 of the Revised Code, the township board of park commissioners shall receive approval for its levy request from the board of township trustees. The township board of park commissioners shall adopt a resolution requesting the board of township trustees to approve the levy request, stating the annual rate of the proposed levy and the reason for the levy request. On receiving this request, the board of township trustees shall vote on whether to approve the request, and if a majority votes to approve it, shall issue a resolution approving such a levy at the requested rate.

OAG 66-160. If the constitutional ten-mill limitation has not been exceeded, only the township board of park commissioners, and not the township trustees, may levy a tax of up to one mill pursuant to RC 511.27 for park purposes within the township park district.

OAG 65-231. It would be an unlawful exercise of discretion for a township board of park commissioners to levy a tax under RC 511.27 where the property so taxed already is taxed in excess of one per cent of its true value, without submitting such levy to a vote of the people of the taxing district, and any such levy ordered without a vote would be unconstitutional and void.

OAG 65-39. Funds raised by a township recreation levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(H) may not be used to operate a free public park under the control of park commissioners of a township park district.

1964 OAG 1187. Funds for maintaining a public park under the control of the park commissioners of a township park district established under RC 511.18 may be secured by tax levies made by the park commissioners under RC 511.27.

1945 OAG 271. Funds for maintaining a public park under the control of the park commissioners of a township park district, established under GC 3415 (RC 511.18) et seq., may be secured by tax levies made by the park commissioners under the authority of this section; township trustees have no authority to appropriate or transfer township funds for the purpose of maintaining public parks under the control of park commissioners.

1944 OAG 7038. Where township park has been established by vote of electors of township, including those residing in municipality lying within such township, subsequent incorporation into village of remaining portion of such township will have no effect on board of park commissioners appointed for establishment and management of such park, or on power of such board to levy taxes as provided in GC 3423 (RC 511.27) on all property in such township.

1932 OAG 4881. A township park district is a "taxing unit" as such term is used in GC 5625-1 to 5625-39 (RC 5705.01 to RC 5705.47), and as such, has authority to levy taxes on the property within the township for the maintenance of township parks.

1932 OAG 4881. There is no legal duty on the township trustees to levy a tax for the maintenance of township parks in townships in which township park districts have been created.

511.28 Procedures for submitting levy

A copy of any resolution for a tax levy adopted by the township board of park commissioners as provided in section 511.27 of the Revised Code shall be certified by the clerk of the board of park commissioners to the board of elections of the proper county, together with a certified copy of the resolution approving the levy, passed by the board of township trustees if such a resolution is required by division (C) of section 511.27 of the Revised Code, not less than seventy-five days before a general or primary election in any year. The board of elections shall submit the proposal to the electors as provided in section 511.27 of the Revised Code at the succeeding general or primary election. A resolution to renew or replace an existing levy may not be placed on the ballot unless the question is submitted at the general election held during the last year the tax to be renewed or replaced may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held in the ensuing year. The board of park commissioners shall cause notice that the vote will be taken to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election in a newspaper of general circulation in the county within which the park district is located. The notice shall state the purpose of the proposed levy, the annual rate proposed expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation, the number of consecutive years during which the levy shall be in effect, and the time and place of the election.

The form of the ballots cast at the election shall be: "An additional tax for the benefit of (name of township park district) _____ for the purpose of (purpose stated in the order of the board) _____ at a rate not exceeding _____ mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in dollars and cents) _____ for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for (number of years the levy is to run) _____.

	FOR THE TAX LEVY

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew, replace, increase, or decrease an existing levy, the form of the ballot specified in this section may be changed by substituting for the words "An additional" at the beginning of the form, the words "A renewal of a" in the case of a proposal to renew an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A replacement of a" in the case of a proposal to replace an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A renewal of _____ mills and an increase of _____ mills to constitute a" or the words "A replacement of _____ mills and an increase of _____ mills to constitute a" in the case of an increase; or the words "A renewal of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of _____ mills, to constitute a" or the words "A replacement of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of _____ mills, to constitute a" in the case of a decrease in the proposed levy.

The question covered by the order shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers. More than one such question may be submitted at the same election.

OAG 71-039. A township, in acting to join an existing joint township hospital district, may be required, as a condition for joining, to levy a tax to pay such township's share of the bonded indebtedness of the district, which tax must be approved by sixty-five per cent of the township electors voting on such issue in a primary or general election.

1963 OAG 565. The position of member of board of governors of a joint township hospital district is incompatible with the office of county auditor of the county in which such hospital district is situated.

1957 OAG 1439. The proceeds of an operating tax levied in a joint township hospital district are subject to the control of the joint township district hospital board and are public moneys, and if erroneously placed under the control of a board of hospital governors must be recovered by the joint township district hospital board.

1957 OAG 772. Proceeds of a tax levy for operating expenses of a joint township hospital district may not be expended to pay the cost of construction of permanent improvements thereto.

513.14 Advertisement of proposed question

The board of elections shall advertise the proposed tax levy question mentioned in section 513.13 of the Revised Code, in two newspapers of opposite political faith, if two such newspapers are published in the joint township hospital district, otherwise, in one newspaper, published or of general circulation in the proposed township hospital district, once a week for three weeks immediately preceding such election.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 76-050. A board of township trustees may use general revenue funds to purchase additional land for an existing township cemetery without levying the special tax provided in RC 517.13.

OAG 73-049. Application should be made to the court of common pleas for an order appointing the board of township trustees as a successor trustee of cemetery funds.

OAG 71-062. Moneys from the general fund of a township may not be expended to acquire land to establish a cemetery unless a vote is taken with respect thereto.

OAG 71-038. In acquiring a parcel of land for the establishment of a new township cemetery to relocate one that must be vacated, the township trustees may act (a) under RC 517.04 and RC 517.08 without submission of the question of establishment to the voters, if otherwise unobligated funds are available from the sale of cemetery lots or from the sale of the vacated cemetery or from both sources together, or (b) under RC 517.01 and RC 517.04, by submission of the question of the establishment to the voters if tax monies are required to effect the acquisition.

OAG 71-038. In establishing a township cemetery, a board of township trustees is not required to comply with a provision of the township zoning resolution that limits new cemeteries to a minimum of twenty acres.

OAG 66-163. The board of township trustees is required to accept a transfer of a public cemetery from a private cemetery association, and RC 517.04 does not require the board of township trustees to submit the question of acceptance to the electors.

OAG 66-163. RC 517.04 applies only to the establishment of a new cemetery and not to the transfer of an established cemetery, open to use by the public generally, by a private cemetery association to the board of township trustees.

1943 OAG 6359. Monies from general fund of township may not be expended to acquire land to establish cemetery, as provided for by GC 3441 (RC 517.01), unless vote is taken with respect thereto as provided for by this section.

517.05 Notice of election; ballots

On the making of an order or the filing of an application as provided by section 517.04 of the Revised Code, the clerk shall certify such order or application to the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election, and at least twenty days before an election, the township clerk shall post written notices in at least three public places in the township, that a vote will be taken on the question of the establishment of a cemetery. If a majority of the votes cast at such election on the proposition is in favor thereof, the board of township trustees shall procure the lands for that purpose and levy taxes as provided by section 517.03 of the Revised Code.

TOWNSHIP ZONING

519.11 Zoning plan to be submitted to electors; majority vote required for approval; filing requirements

If the zoning resolution is adopted by the board of township trustees, such board shall cause the question of whether or not the proposed plan of zoning shall be put into effect to be submitted to the electors residing in the unincorporated area of the township included in the proposed plan of zoning for their approval or rejection at the next primary or general election, or a special election may be called for this purpose. Such resolution shall be filed with the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election. No zoning regulations shall be put into effect unless a majority of the vote cast on the issue is in favor of the proposed plan of zoning. Upon certification by the board of elections the resolution shall take immediate effect, if the plan was so approved.

Within five working days after the resolution's effective date, the board of township trustees shall file it, including text and maps, in the office of the county recorder. The board shall also file duplicates of the same documents with the regional or county planning commission, if one exists, within the same period.

The board shall file all resolutions, including text and maps, that are in effect on January 1, 1992, in the office of the county recorder within thirty working days after that date. The board shall also file duplicates of the same documents with the regional or county planning commission, if one exists, within the same period.

The failure to file a resolution, or any text and maps, or duplicates of any of these documents, with the office of the county recorder or the county or regional planning commission as required by this section does not invalidate the resolution and is not grounds for an appeal of any decision of the board of zoning appeals.

1952 OAG 1459. A township zoning ordinance adopted under this section is not affected by the erection of a new township out of that portion of such township within the limits of a municipal corporation.

519.12 Amendments to zoning resolution; procedure; referendum; form of petition; filing requirements

(A) Amendments to the zoning resolution may be initiated by motion of the township zoning commission, by the passage of a resolution therefor by the board of township trustees, or by the filing of an application therefor by one or more of the owners or lessees of property within the area proposed to be changed or affected by the proposed amendment with the township zoning commission. The board of township trustees may require that the owner or lessee of property filing an application to amend the zoning resolution pay a fee therefor to defray the cost of advertising, mailing, filing with the county recorder, and other expenses. If the township trustees require such a fee, it shall be required generally, for each application. The board of township trustees shall upon the passage of such resolution certify it to the township zoning commission.

Upon the adoption of such motion, or the certification of such resolution or the filing of such application, the township zoning commission shall set a date for a public hearing thereon, which date shall not be less than twenty nor more than forty days from the date of the certification of such resolution or the date of adoption of such motion or the date of the filing of such application. Notice of such hearing shall be given by the township zoning commission by one publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the township at least ten days before the date of such hearing.

(B) If the proposed amendment intends to rezone or redistrict ten or fewer parcels of land, as listed on the county auditor's current tax list, written notice of the hearing shall be mailed by the zoning commission, by first class mail, at least ten days before the date of the public hearing to all owners of property within and contiguous to and directly across the street from such area proposed to be rezoned or redistricted to the addresses of such owners appearing on the county auditor's current tax list. The failure of delivery of such notice shall not invalidate any such amendment.

(C) If the proposed amendment intends to rezone or redistrict ten or fewer parcels of land as listed on the county auditor's current tax list, the published and mailed notices shall set forth the time, date, and place of the public hearing, and shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the zoning commission that will be conducting the public hearing;

(2) A statement indicating that the motion, resolution, or application is an amendment to the zoning resolution;

(3) A list of the addresses of all properties to be rezoned or redistricted by the proposed amendment and of the names of owners of these properties, as they appear on the county auditor's current tax list;

(4) The present zoning classification of property named in the proposed amendment and the proposed zoning classification of such property;

(5) The time and place where the motion, resolution, or application proposing to amend the zoning resolution will be available for examination for a period of at least ten days prior to the public hearing;

(6) The name of the person responsible for giving notice of the public hearing by publication or by mail, or by both publication and mail;

(7) Any other information requested by the zoning commission;

(8) A statement that after the conclusion of such hearing the matter will be submitted to the board of township trustees for its action.

(D) If the proposed amendment alters the text of the zoning resolution, or rezones or redistricts more than ten parcels of land, as listed on the county auditor's current tax list, the published notice shall set forth the time, date, and place of the public hearing, and shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the zoning commission that will be conducting the public hearing on the proposed amendment;

(2) A statement indicating that the motion, application, or resolution is an amendment to the zoning resolution;

(3) The time and place where the text and maps of the proposed amendment will be available for examination for a period of at least ten days prior to the public hearing;

(4) The name of the person responsible for giving notice of the public hearing by publication;

(5) A statement that after the conclusion of such hearing the matter will be submitted to the board of township trustees for its action;

(E) Within five days after the adoption of such motion or the certification of such resolution or the filing of such application the township zoning commission shall transmit a copy thereof together with text and map pertaining thereto to the county or regional planning commission, if there is such a commission.

The county or regional planning commission shall recommend the approval or denial of the proposed amendment or the approval of some modification thereof and shall submit such recommendation to the township zoning commission. Such recommendation shall be considered at the public hearing held by the township zoning commission on such proposed amendment.

The township zoning commission shall, within thirty days after such hearing, recommend the approval or denial of the proposed amendment, or the approval of some modification thereof and submit such recommendation together with such application or resolution, the text and map pertaining thereto and the recommendation of the county or regional planning commission thereon to the board of township trustees.

The board of township trustees shall, upon receipt of such recommendation, set a time for a public hearing on such proposed amendment, which date shall not be more than thirty days from the date of the receipt of such recommendation from the township zoning commission. Notice of such public hearing shall be given by the board by one publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the township, at least ten days before the date of such hearing.

(F) If the proposed amendment intends to rezone or redistrict ten or fewer parcels of land as listed on the county auditor's current tax list, the published notice shall set forth the time, date, and place of the public hearing and shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the board that will be conducting the public hearing;

(2) A statement indicating that the motion, application, or resolution is an amendment to the zoning resolution;

(3) A list of the addresses of all properties to be rezoned or redistricted by the proposed amendment and of the names of owners of these properties, as they appear on the county auditor's current tax list;

(4) The present zoning classification of property named in the proposed amendment and the proposed zoning classification of such property;

(5) The time and place where the motion, application, or resolution proposing to amend the zoning resolution will be available for examination for a period of at least ten days prior to the public hearing;

(6) The name of the person responsible for giving notice of the public hearing by publication or by mail, or by both publication and mail;

(7) Any other information requested by the board.

(G) If the proposed amendment alters the text of the zoning resolution, or rezones or redistricts more than ten parcels of land as listed on the county auditor's current tax list, the published notice shall set forth the time, date, and place of the public hearing, and shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of the board that will be conducting the public hearing on the proposed amendment;

(2) A statement indicating that the motion, application, or resolution is an amendment to the zoning resolution;

(3) The time and place where the text and maps of the proposed amendment will be available for examination for a period of at least ten days prior to the public hearing;

(4) The name of the person responsible for giving notice of the public hearing by publication;

(5) Any other information requested by the board.

(H) Within twenty days after such public hearing the board shall either adopt or deny the recommendations of the zoning commission or adopt some modification thereof. In the event the board denies or modifies the recommendation of the township zoning commission the unanimous vote of the board shall be required.

Such amendment adopted by the board shall become effective in thirty days after the date of such adoption unless within thirty days after the adoption of the amendment there is presented to the board of township trustees a petition, signed by a number of registered electors residing in the unincorporated area of the township or part thereof included in the zoning plan equal to not less than eight per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor in such area at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, requesting the board of township trustees to submit the amendment to the electors of such area for approval or rejection at a special election to be held on the day of the next primary or general election. Each part of this petition shall contain the number and the full and correct title, if any, of the zoning amendment resolution, motion, or application, furnishing the name by which the amendment is known and a brief summary of its contents. In addition to meeting the requirements of this section, each petition shall be governed by the rules specified in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code.

The form of a petition calling for a zoning referendum and the statement of the circulator shall be substantially as follows:

"PETITION FOR ZONING REFERENDUM

(if the proposal is identified by a particular name or number, or both, these should be inserted here) _____

A proposal to amend the zoning map of the unincorporated area of _____ Township, _____ County, Ohio, adopted _____(date)_____ (followed by brief summary of the proposal).

To the Board of Township Trustees of _____ Township, _____ County, Ohio:

_____ County, Ohio:

We, the undersigned, being electors residing in the unincorporated area of _____ Township, included within the _____ Township Zoning Plan, equal to not less than eight per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor in the area at the preceding general election at which a governor was elected, request the Board of Township Trustees to submit this amendment of the zoning resolution to the electors of _____ Township residing within the unincorporated area of the township included in the _____ Township Zoning Resolution, for approval or rejection at a special election to be held on the day of the next primary or general election to be held on _____(date)_____, pursuant to section 519.12 of the Revised Code.

(Address)

(City, village or township, and zip code)

THE PENALTY FOR ELECTION FALSIFICATION IS IMPRISONMENT FOR NOT MORE THAN SIX MONTHS, OR A FINE OF NOT MORE THAN ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, OR BOTH."

The petition shall be filed, accompanied by an appropriate map of the area affected by the zoning proposal, with the board of township trustees, which shall then transmit the petition within two weeks of its receipt to the board of elections, which shall determine the sufficiency and validity of the petition. The petition shall be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days prior to the election at which the question is to be voted upon.

No amendment for which such referendum vote has been requested shall be put into effect unless a majority of the vote cast on the issue is in favor of the amendment. Upon certification by the board of elections that the amendment has been approved by the voters it shall take immediate effect.

Within five working days after an amendment's effective date, the board of township trustees shall file the text and maps of the amendment in the office of the county recorder and with the regional or county planning commission, if one exists.

The board shall file all amendments, including text and maps, that are in effect on January 1, 1992, in the office of the county recorder within thirty working days after that date. The board shall also file duplicates of the same documents with the regional or county planning commission, if one exists, within the same period.

The failure to file any amendment, or any text and maps, or duplicates of any of these documents, with the office of the county recorder or the county or regional planning commission as required by this section does not invalidate the amendment and is not grounds for an appeal of any decision of the board of zoning appeals.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. Constitutionality
2. In general
3. Application
4. Notice
5. Hearing and recommendation
6. Action by trustees
7. Referendum

1. Constitutionality

15 OS(2d) 195, 239 NE(2d) 80 (1968), Cook-Johnson Realty Co v Bertolini. Provision for a referendum on township zoning may be made by the general assembly, and RC 519.12, insofar as it grants a power of referendum to that portion of a township electorate to be most affected by a zoning amendment passed by the board of township trustees, is constitutional.

2. In general

39 OS(3d) 292, 530 NE(2d) 869 (1988), State ex rel Williams v Iannucci. RC Ch 519 does not provide for initiated amendments to township zoning resolutions and RC 731.28, which applies to municipal corporations, will not be construed to apply to townships.

42 OS(2d) 263, 328 NE(2d) 395 (1975), Driscoll v Austintown Associates. The surrounding property owners are not necessary parties to a declaratory judgment action challenging the constitutionality of a township zoning ordinance as it applies to a specific parcel of property.

39 App(2d) 11, 314 NE(2d) 186 (1973), Crist v True. A "special session" of a board of township trustees held at the private residence of a township official does not qualify as a "public meeting" within the meaning of RC 519.12 and RC 121.22.

15 App(2d) 55, 238 NE(2d) 818 (1968), In re Appropriation for Highway Purposes; affirmed by 18 OS(2d) 214, 249 NE(2d) 48 (1969). A special written instruction before argument submitted to the jury, which states as a matter of law that real property of the condemnee bordering a strip of land of condemnee appropriated for highway use loses its status as commercial property and may not be used for commercial purposes under zoning regulations by reason of the highway project and improvement alone for which the appropriation was made, where the zoning regulations provide that zoning changes can be accomplished only by following RC 519.02 to RC 519.11, is erroneous and prejudicial to the state, requiring reversal.

113 App 523, 179 NE(2d) 360 (1960), State ex rel Bugden Development Co v Kiefaber. Where, after preliminary approval of a subdivision plat of undeveloped land, a zoning resolution materially increasing the lot size requirements is adopted, and thereafter the subdivider proceeds to install a sewer system in the subdivision, the fact that, in revising the plat to conform to present zoning requirements the number of lots will necessarily be reduced, with a possible substantial loss of profit, and the fact that considerable expense was incurred in constructing sewers—an expense knowingly and voluntarily assumed—will not support a claim of unreasonable hardship warranting the granting of a variance from the requirements of the zoning resolution.

104 App 260, 148 NE(2d) 523 (1957), State ex rel Cubbon v Winterfeld. RC 519.12 and RC 519.15 do not afford a plain and adequate remedy where there is a clear legal right to a certificate of occupancy under a nonconforming use.

98 App 283, 129 NE(2d) 209 (1954), State ex rel Euverard v Miller. Where property is situated at the intersection of two heavily traveled thoroughfares, in the midst of commercial establishments, and has little suitability for residential use, but rather is a prime business site, the zoning thereof for residential uses only has no tendency to promote the public health, safety, morals, convenience or general welfare, and bears no reasonable relation thereto and, as applied to such property, is arbitrary, unreasonable, and beyond the zoning power.

No. L-88-353 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 3-17-89), Warner v Jerusalem Twp Bd of Zoning Appeals. Where a township in its zoning resolutions cites state statutes, any subsequent change in a statute does not automatically amend the zoning resolution, legislative action in compliance with RC 519.12 is required.

55 Abs 216, 89 NE(2d) 172 (App, Lake 1949), Burnett v Wooster. Any person adversely affected by board of township trustees' failure to comply with statutes relative to township zoning should pursue right of appeal under this section, and having an adequate remedy should not seek injunction.

OAG 81-065. Pursuant to RC Ch 519, a township may enact resolutions to regulate surface mining, so long as its resolutions do not come into direct conflict with RC Ch 1514, by which the general assembly regulates the method of surface mining, or other laws of the state.

OAG 81-065. Pursuant to RC 519.12, township trustees may amend their zoning resolution to prevent the mining for shale (surface mining) in the unincorporated area of the township if they find that such use of land would create a real or substantial risk to the public health, safety, morals or general welfare of the township's citizens.

OAG 72-118. After township zoning regulations have been enacted, any attempt to amend or supplement them should comply with the requirements of RC 519.12.

OAG 68-096. In the event of a conflict between RC 519.12 and RC 5511.01 any action by the board of township trustees to approve a request for a change in zoning may only be taken after RC 5511.01 has been complied with.

1956 OAG 7111. Township trustees may not require a board of education to secure a building permit for constructing a school building.

3. Application

108 App 299, 161 NE(2d) 498 (1958), Schlagheck v Winterfeld. An application seeking to amend a township zoning ordinance filed with the township zoning commission on June 7, 1957, and after further proceedings adopted by the board of township trustees on October 1, 1957, was a pending proceeding upon the effective date of RC Ch 2506, September 16, 1957, and an appeal taken from the action of such board proceeds under RC 519.12 and not under RC Ch 2506.

OAG 85-010. Where a three-member board of township trustees considers an application for a zoning change pursuant to RC 519.12 and one of the members withdraws from consideration of the matter due to a conflict of interest, the unanimity requirement of RC 519.12 is satisfied if the two remaining trustees concur in their vote either to deny or to modify the recommendation of the township zoning commission.

1959 OAG 895. A board of township trustees may not charge a fee as a condition precedent to the filing or submission of an application to amend a township zoning resolution.

4. Notice

23 App(2d) 163, 261 NE(2d) 351 (1970), Brown v Sperry. Requirement of RC 519.12 that notice of public hearing by board of township trustees on proposed zoning amendment "shall be given by the board by one publication ... at least fifteen days before the date of such hearing," is mandatory and resolution purporting to adopt proposed zoning amendment when such requirement has not been fulfilled is unauthorized and ineffective.

No. CA-3391 (5th Dist Ct App, Licking, 1-19-89), Moss v Leifheit. Notice of proposed zoning amendments by way of a newspaper advertisement that fails to specify where the proposed amendments can be inspected for at least fifteen days prior to a hearing thereon is insufficient under RC 519.12(D)(3).

OAG 72-118. A mere listing of the proposed amendments would not satisfy the requirement of RC 519.12 that a summary of the amendments be included in the notice of hearing before the board of township trustees, since a "summary" is required by the statute, and the listing of all sections of the proposed resolution would not constitute a summary of the same, "reduced to a narrow compass," and a "short, concise, succinct summing up" of the proposed zoning resolutions.

OAG 72-118. Publication of the revised map of the zoning districts before the hearing by the board of trustees is not required under RC 519.12, but the use of such a map may well facilitate the preparation of a readily understandable summary of the proposed amendments.

OAG 72-118. The inclusion of the entire resolution with all amendments in the notice of hearing before the township trustees would not satisfy the requirement of RC 519.12 that there be a summary of the amendments, but a brief disclosure of the contents of each of the 162 major sections, if that will apprise the various owners of all further limitations on the use of their land, will satisfy the statutory requirements.

OAG 72-118. Publication of notice at least fifteen days before a hearing by the zoning commission is required under RC 519.12; such notice should set forth the time and place of the hearing and should also contain a statement that, after the hearing, the matter will be referred to the regional planning commission, if one exists, or to the board of township trustees, as the case may be.

1963 OAG 77. The statements in paragraph 3, RC 519.12 relating to the contents of the written notice do not refer as such to the procedure to be followed under RC 519.12, but merely provide that the notices, in addition to other requirements, state the procedure applicable to the county or regional planning commission and township trustees as the case may be pursuant to paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of said section.

5. Hearing and recommendation

108 App 299, 161 NE(2d) 498 (1958), Schlagheck v Winterfeld. In adopting or amending a township zoning ordinance, the board of township trustees exercises a legislative function and is not required to take testimony at its public hearing held pursuant to the provision of RC 519.12.

94 Abs 251, 200 NE(2d) 813 (App, Mahoning 1963), In re Request by Yeany. The provision in RC 519.12 that "after the conclusion of such hearing the matter will be referred for further determination to the county or regional planning commission and to the board of township trustees as the case may be" is neither accurate nor mandatory and jurisdictional.

OAG 85-010. Pursuant to RC 519.12, a board of township trustees shall adopt, deny, or modify the recommendation of the township zoning commission with regard to a proposed amendment or supplement to a township zoning resolution within twenty days after a public hearing on the proposed amendment or supplement. If the board fails to take action within the twenty-day statutory period, it may be compelled to act by a writ of mandamus; however, failure of the board of township trustees to act within twenty days does not constitute approval of the zoning commission's recommendation.

6. Action by trustees

38 OS(2d) 310, 313 NE(2d) 366 (1974), Gray v Monclova Twp Trustees. Action by a board of township trustees adopting an amendment to a previously approved planned unit development plat is legislative action, and such action is entitled to a presumption of validity; the burden of rebutting that presumption is on the party challenging such amendment.

10 OS(2d) 227, 227 NE(2d) 210 (1967), Mac Realty, Inc v Commercial Industrial Enterprises, Inc. The effect of RC 519.12 is that the failure of the board of township trustees to vote unanimously to deny a recommendation of the township zoning commission results in an adoption of such recommendation.

45 App(2d) 288, 344 NE(2d) 156 (1975), Board of Township Trustees v Spring Creek Gravel Co. Where there is no record of the adoption of an amended zoning regulation by the township trustees, it is conclusively presumed that the trustees took no action and and that such amended zoning regulation did not become law, since statutes requiring a record of action by township trustees are mandatory where such action is legislative in nature.

OAG 85-010. Pursuant to RC 519.12, a board of township trustees shall adopt, deny, or modify the recommendation of the township zoning commission with regard to a proposed amendment or supplement to a township zoning resolution within twenty days after a public hearing on the proposed amendment or supplement. If the board fails to take action within the twenty-day statutory period, it may be compelled to act by a writ of mandamus; however, failure of the board of township trustees to act within twenty days does not constitute approval of the zoning commission's recommendation.

OAG 85-010. Where a three-member board of township trustees considers an application for a zoning change pursuant to RC 519.12 and one of the members withdraws from consideration of the matter due to a conflict of interest, the unanimity requirement of RC 519.12 is satisfied if the two remaining trustees concur in their vote either to deny or to modify the recommendation of the township zoning commission.

OAG 74-024. Only a township rural zoning commission, and not a board of township trustees, has authority to enter into a contract for the services of a planning consultant, within the limits of the money appropriated by the board for the purpose, under RC 519.05.

OAG 71-052. Board of township trustees has duty to determine whether petitions requesting referendum on zoning amendment filed with board are valid on their face for presentation to board of elections, but does not have power to inquire into other matters respecting said petitions.

OAG 71-038. In establishing a township cemetery, a board of township trustees is not required to comply with a provision of the township zoning resolution that limits new cemeteries to a minimum of twenty acres.

7. Referendum

53 Cin L Rev 381 (1984). Referendum Zoning: Legal Doctrine and Practice, Ronald H. Rosenberg.

12 OS(3d) 140, 12 OBR 180, 465 NE(2d) 883 (1984), Shelly & Sands, Inc v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A petition for a change in zoning to permit production of concrete at a site already used for a sand and gravel quarry is ambiguous and invalid where it refers to the continuation of the quarry operation, when such continuation is not in issue.

70 OS(2d) 125, 435 NE(2d) 1110 (1982), State ex rel Griffin v Krumholtz. A referendum petition will be rejected where it does not contain the prescribed election falsification statement.

52 OS(2d) 49, 369 NE(2d) 11 (1977), State ex rel English v Geauga County Bd of Elections. The sixty-day certification requirement in RC 3501.02(F) is applicable to the referendum procedure in RC 519.12.

48 OS(2d) 173, 357 NE(2d) 1079 (1976), State ex rel Schultz v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Where a referendum petition did not indicate that one of the paragraphs included in the title of the resolution to be voted on was not adopted by the township board of trustees, it did not fairly and accurately present the issues sought to be submitted to the electorate.

41 OS(2d) 187, 324 NE(2d) 740 (1975), Forest City Enterprises, Inc v Eastlake; reversed by 426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976). Under O Const Art II, § 1f, municipal referendum powers are limited to questions which municipalities are "authorized by law to control by legislative action."

41 OS(2d) 187, 324 NE(2d) 740 (1975), Forest City Enterprises, Inc v Eastlake; reversed by 426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976). A municipal charter provision which requires that any ordinance changing land use be ratified by the voters in a city-wide election constitutes an unlawful delegation of legislative power.

22 OS(2d) 197, 259 NE(2d) 501 (1970), Markus v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. Text of ballot statement resulting from referendum petition must fairly and accurately present question or issue to be decided in order to assure free, intelligent and informed vote by average citizen affected.

22 OS(2d) 197, 259 NE(2d) 501 (1970), Markus v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. Requirements of O Const Art II, § 1g do not apply to referendum zoning petition filed under RC 519.12.

8 App(3d) 424, 8 OBR 548, 457 NE(2d) 883 (Trumbull 1982), Howland Realty Co v Wolcott. A complainant who seeks declaratory relief in the court of common pleas from an action of a township board of trustees modifying or amending a zoning ordinance need not seek a referendum prior to filing his complaint.

50 App(2d) 1, 361 NE(2d) 477 (1976), State ex rel Schultz v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 48 OS(2d) 173, 357 NE(2d) 1079 (1976). The requirements for referendum petitions under RC 519.12 are: (a) the petition must contain the number and a full and correct title of the zoning resolution; (b) the petition must contain the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures for the petition certifying that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief each of the signatures is that of the person whose name it purports to be, that he believes such persons are electors of the township, and that such persons signed the petition with knowledge of its contents; and (c) if the petition contains any additional information it must be of such a character as to promote the attempt to fairly and accurately present the question or issue and must not in any way detract from a free, intelligent and informed choice by the average citizen who is requested to make a decision as to whether he should or should not sign such a petition.

50 App(2d) 1, 361 NE(2d) 477 (1976), State ex rel Schultz v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 48 OS(2d) 173, 357 NE(2d) 1079 (1976). Where failure to comply with any one of the requirements mandated by RC 519.12 is demonstrated on the face of the referendum petition, the relator fails to meet his burden of establishing a clear right to the relief sought and consequently, a writ of mandamus will not lie.

42 App(2d) 56, 327 NE(2d) 789 (1974), State ex rel Diversified Realty, Inc v Perry Twp Bd of Trustees. RC 3501.38 is applicable to all referendum petitions filed pursuant to RC 519.12.

42 App(2d) 56, 327 NE(2d) 789 (1974), State ex rel Diversified Realty, Inc v Perry Twp Bd of Trustees. A board of elections has the duty, pursuant to RC 3501.11(K), to review, examine and certify the sufficiency and validity of referendum petitions filed pursuant to RC 519.12.

No. 1298 (9th Dist Ct App, Medina, 1-25-84), State ex rel McNulty v Liverpool Twp Bd of Trustees. A board of township trustees exceeds its authority under RC 519.12 when it withdraws its previously granted certification of a referendum petition; once a board has certified a referendum petition, it is up to the board of elections to determine its validity.

25 Misc 104, 266 NE(2d) 275 (CP, Clermont 1970), Sidwell v Clepper. Original petitions for referendum on township zoning act do not require appointment of a committee to serve on behalf of signers of petitions.

19 Misc 67, 250 NE(2d) 106 (CP, Trumbull 1968), Markus v Trumbull County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 22 OS(2d) 197, 254 NE(2d) 501 (1970). A board of elections will be permanently enjoined from placing on the ballot a referendum to a township zoning amendment where the petitions contained neither a copy nor summary of the proposed change, the circulator of the petitions did not state in his affidavit that each signer had knowledge of the proposed amendment, and the ballot contained no statement that only a portion of the landowners' property was to be rezoned or that a buffer strip would be constructed between the adjacent zones.

426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976), Eastlake v Forest City Enterprises, Inc. City charter provision requiring voter approval in referendum for any changes in land use agreed to by city council is valid.

OAG 88-005. When a proposed amendment to a township zoning resolution has been denied by the board of township trustees, the provisions of RC 519.12(H) for a referendum election do not apply.

1957 OAG 255. RC 519.12 does not permit the referendum petition to be directed to only one or more of the several sections of the amendment, but requires that it be directed to the entire amendment.

1956 OAG 6685. A petition demanding an election on a proposed amendment to a township zoning resolution, must contain the names of electors residing in the area then included in the existing zoning plan, equal to not less than eight per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor by electors residing in the area at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, all of whom are entitled to vote on the issue presented.

519.25 Township zoning plan repeal; procedure; referendum

In any township in which there is in force a plan of township zoning, the plan may be repealed by the board of township trustees in the following manner:

(A) The board may adopt a resolution upon its own initiative.

(B) The board shall adopt a resolution if there is presented to it a petition, similar in all relevant aspects to that prescribed in section 519.12 of the Revised Code, signed by a number of qualified electors residing in the unincorporated area of such township included in the zoning plan equal to not less than eight per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor in such area at the last preceding general election at which a governor was elected, requesting that the question of whether or not the plan of zoning in effect in such township shall be repealed be submitted to the electors residing in the unincorporated area of the township included in the zoning plan at a special election to be held on the day of the next primary or general election. The resolution adopted by the board of township trustees to cause such question to be submitted to the electors shall be certified to the board of elections not later than seventy-five days prior to the day of election at which said question is to be voted upon. In the event a majority of the vote cast on such question in the township is in favor of repeal of zoning, then such regulations shall no longer be of any effect. Not more than one such election shall be held in any two calendar years.

OAG 72-003. A board of county commissioners is not authorized by RC 6103.02 to assent to a provision in the contract under which the municipal zoning ordinances take precedence over the zoning resolutions of the townships affected by the contract.

1964 OAG 1500. A comprehensive zoning plan adopted pursuant to RC Ch 519 may not be repealed for a part only of the territory included within the zoning plan, but must be repealed vel non as a whole.

1964 OAG 1500. The electors residing within the unincorporated area of the township included within the zoning plan shall vote upon the repeal of that zoning plan.

1964 OAG 1500. A referendum seeking repeal of a township zoning plan may be held in the same year the plan was approved by the electorate.

1962 OAG 2963. Repeal of township zoning pursuant to RC 519.25 is not a prerequisite to, nor the same as, a consideration of the question raised by RC 303.11 and RC 303.22.

1960 OAG 1990. A "primary election" is held only when one or more of the purposes stated in division (E) of RC 3501.01 are present, and the question of repeal of a township zoning plan, which must be submitted to the electors at the next primary or general election, may not be submitted for vote on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of May in a year if it would be the sole issue before the electors.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS

703.01 Classification

Municipal corporations, which, at the last federal census, had a population of five thousand or more, or five thousand registered resident electors or resident voters as provided in section 703.011 of the Revised Code, are cities. All other municipal corporations are villages. Cities, which, at any federal census, have a population of less than five thousand, shall become villages. Villages, which, at any federal census, have a population of five thousand or more, shall become cities. No municipal corporation shall have its classification as a village changed to that of a city by virtue of there being counted, in determining the population of such municipal corporation, college or university students in attendance at an educational institution within the municipal corporation where the residential addresses of such students when not in attendance at the educational institution, or the residential addresses of the guardians of such students, as determined by the records of the institution kept by its registrar, are at a place other than the municipal corporation wherein such institution is located. After each decennial census the secretary of state shall issue a proclamation certifying the number of permanent residents in such municipal corporation and the number of students attending a college or university therein.

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

91 OS 220, 110 NE 471 (1915), Murray v State. O Const Art XVIII, § 1, classifying municipal corporations, is not self-executing, and GC 3497 (RC 703.01) et seq., regulating transition from one class to another, is not so obviously inconsistent with the construction as to be impliedly repealed thereby, and hence are in force; consequently, a village is not advanced to a city on an official census, other than federal, that it had the required population.

368 FSupp 999 (SD Ohio 1973), Headlee v Franklin County Bd of Elections. Statutory requirement that candidates in village elections be residents of the village for one year prior to the date of the election is invalid.

1928 OAG 1750. Under O Const Art XVIII, § 1 and this section, all municipal corporations having a population of less than five thousand are villages; where the term "village" is used in a statute, resort should be had to the last federal census for the purpose of determining whether a municipality is a city or a village.

1963 OAG 389. When the classification of a municipal corporation changes from that of a village to a city, the village ceases to exist and the officers of the village continue in office only until succeeded by the proper officers of the new municipal corporation at the regular municipal election.

1963 OAG 389. Members of the legislative authority of the former village who were elected to serve terms of four years in accordance with 731.09 do not continue as members of the legislative authority of the city until the expiration of such four-year period.

1962 OAG 3201. A board of county commissioners may enter into an agreement with the legislative authority of a village providing for the use of county equipment and labor to construct, improve, and repair the streets within such village, necessary materials to be furnished by the village; and the contract may provide that the county will be reimbursed on an actual hourly cost basis for the use of said equipment and labor.

1954 OAG 3608. A municipal corporation may not advance from the status of a village to that of a city on the basis of population increases disclosed by an interim census conducted prior to the regular decennial census, notwithstanding such interim census is or may be conducted by or under the authority of the federal bureau of the census and at the expense and request of the municipality.

1954 OAG 3606. An area upon incorporation may only acquire a status of a village regardless of its population, and may advance to the status of a city only by a proclamation of the secretary of state based upon a federal census conducted subsequent in point of time to its original incorporation.

703.011 Electors as basis for classification

In addition to the method of determining classifications of municipal corporations set out in section 703.01 of the Revised Code, villages, which at the last preceding general election had more than five thousand resident electors registered with the board of elections of the county in which the village is situated or, when more than five thousand resident electors have voted at the last preceding general election, in such village, shall become cities. In such case, the board of elections of the said county shall immediately certify to the secretary of state the number of resident electors registered or voting within said village, and the secretary of state, upon receiving said certification from the board of elections, certifying that there are five thousand or more resident electors registered or voting within said village, shall issue a proclamation to that effect. A copy of the proclamation shall forthwith be sent to the mayor of the village, which copy shall forthwith be transmitted to the legislative authority of the village, read therein, and made a part of the records thereof. Thirty days after the issuance of the proclamation the village shall be a city.

125 OS 87, 180 NE 650 (1932), State ex rel Heffernan v Serp. It is the intent and meaning of 703.07 that village officers shall continue in office, with the powers and duties only of village officers until the first regular election after the proclamation of the secretary of state has been filed with the mayor of the municipality as provided by statute.

12 App(2d) 178, 231 NE(2d) 495 (1967), State ex rel Mrozik v Brunswick. A mayor of a noncharter city, whose status as mayor is created by 703.07 after the village of which he had been mayor was advanced to a city, is without authority to appoint a police officer to the office of chief of police of the newly created city.

12 App(2d) 59, 231 NE(2d) 85 (1967), State ex rel Prentice v Middleburg Heights. Where a municipality, following its transition from the status of a village to that of a city, adopts a charter for its government and such charter provides that the chief of police is placed in the unclassified service, the charter is controlling, so that a chief of police, appointed as such by the mayor of such village, continues to serve in such capacity after the adoption of the new charter and acquires no civil service status and has no appeal from the civil service commission to the court of common pleas.

OAG 74-007; modified by OAG 81-007. Where, pursuant to 5521.01, a village has requested and thereby obligated the director of transportation to make repairs on a section of highway, the obligation does not continue in effect after the village becomes a city.

1963 OAG 389. When the classification of a municipal corporation changes from that of a village to a city, the village ceases to exist and the officers of the village continue in office only until succeeded by the proper officers of the new municipal corporation at the regular municipal election.

1962 OAG 2929. Where a village becomes a city, the village officers continue in office until the city officers are elected and qualified, but have only the powers and duties of village officers during that period.

1955 OAG 5852. The officers of a village serving at the time of its transition to the status of a city continue to serve as such officers until the election and qualification of city officers, but may exercise only the powers given by the law to village officers.

1952 OAG 1402. Where as a result of a federal census a municipality has been changed from a village to a city, village employees other than policemen and firemen may be continued in office until a civil service commission has been appointed, and the council cannot place employees in a classified service unless a charter provision so providing has been enacted; police and firemen have tenure under GC 4384, 4384-1, and 4389 (RC 737.15, 737.16 and 737.22), and their status is subject to GC 486-15a and 486-17 (RC 143.34 and 143.26) et seq.

1943 OAG 6101. Unless provisions contained in charter provide otherwise, city which became such in 1941 by reason of proclamation of secretary of state based on 1940 federal census and issued prior to regular municipal election held in 1941, was required to elect city auditor at such election to serve for term of four years from first day of January, 1942.

703.20 Surrender of corporate power by villages

Villages may surrender their corporate powers upon the petition to the legislative authority of the village of at least forty per cent of the electors thereof, to be determined by the number voting at the last regular municipal elecion [sic], and by an affirmative vote of a majority of such electors at a special election, which shall be provided for by the legislative authority, and conducted, canvassed, and the result certified and made known as at regular municipal elections. If the result of the election is in favor of such surrender, the village clerk shall certify the result to the secretary of state and the county recorder, who shall record it in their respective offices, and thereupon the corporate powers of such village shall cease.

No. 46-CA-83 (5th Dist Ct App, Fairfield, 4-9-84), State ex rel Karr v Riffle. A writ of mandamus to compel a special election for disincorporation of a village is improperly denied on the ground that the petitioners have an adequate remedy at law because an election is being held on the governmental issue which the trial court believes is the original source of the petitioners' discontent.

52 Abs 575, 83 NE(2d) 824 (App Greene 1948), State ex rel Morgan v Hodge. Where requisite number of petitioners signed a petition for special election on question of surrender of corporate powers under authority of this section, it was duty of mayor and council to fix a date and canvass the petition to determine whether it bore enough valid signatures to require an election. In no view could they refuse to act, and mandamus will lie to require them to act.

703.22 Identical municipal and township boundaries

When the limits of a municipal corporation become identical with those of a township, all township offices shall be abolished, and the duties thereof shall be performed by the corresponding officers of the municipal corporation. All property, moneys, credits, books, records, and documents of such township shall be delivered to the legislative authority of such municipal corporation. 160 OS 165, 114 NE(2d) 821 (1953), State ex rel Gilmore v Lorain County Bd of Elections. After the corporate limits of a village become identical with those of a township, the township may not be considered an "adjoining township" within the meaning of those words as set forth in the first sentence of GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39).

122 OS 311, 171 NE 404 (1930), State ex rel Vocke v Brooklyn Heights. Ordinance fixing salary of justice of peace, when township and village boundaries were identical, became inoperative after territory was annexed to city.

107 OS 154, 140 NE 650 (1923), Barth v State. Where the boundaries of a city have been enlarged to include an entire township, any claim which the township would have had to fines and forfeitures under the state prohibition law but for such merger now inures to the city.

4 App(3d) 213, 4 OBR 318, 447 NE(2d) 765 (Franklin 1982), Franklin Twp v Marble Cliff. RC 503.07 and 703.22 are not irreconcilable, and RC 703.22 does not limit the authority of the board of county commissioners to detach a municipal corporation from the rest of a township but, instead, only deals with the result of a detachment.

25 LR 367 (1927). As to validity and effect of this section, see letter of Gilbert Morgan.

OAG 90-071. It is not necessary for a municipality to seek a change in township boundaries pursuant to RC 503.02, rather than RC 503.07, when the proposed change will not result in the municipality's being wholly within one township or in the formation of a "paper township" in accordance with RC 703.22.

OAG 90-071. Pursuant to RC 503.07, a municipal corporation may petition for a change of township lines so that the lines become identical in part with the limits of the municipal corporation. Any parts of a township brought within a municipal corporation pursuant to such a change of township lines shall, in accordance with RC 503.14, be annexed to the township in which the municipal corporation or the greater part of it was previously situated. This procedure may be followed even though it will not result in the municipality's being wholly within one township or in the formation of a "paper township" in accordance with RC 703.22.

OAG 69-032. When a new township is created which conforms to the limits of a municipality and is created from part of the area of three different existing townships, the city ordinance which sets out the boundaries for the new township should describe the new boundaries of each of the three townships from which area was annexed and how it relates to the new township.

OAG 67-013. When a municipality, whose boundaries are coterminous with those of a township, annexes territory in an adjoining county, and then petitions for a change in township lines in that adjoining county to conform to the municipal boundaries, the residents of the annexed portion of the adjoining county who otherwise qualify, remain electors of that county and become electors of the municipality who vote at municipal precinct polling places, but cease to be electors of the township from which the territory which included their residence was annexed, and are not electors for any township offices or issues.

1963 OAG 606. The annexation of an area comprising a township park by a municipal corporation has no effect on the millage which may be claimed by the township board of park commissioners.

1962 OAG 3170. (1) When a new township is established out of the portion of a township comprising a city, the city takes title to cemetery property owned by the original township but lying entirely within the borders of the city; and the cemetery is operated by the director of public service of the city; personal property of the original township which was not divided at the time the municipal corporation was incorporated, and remained the property of the township, remains the property of said original township when the new township is established, and (2) where a special levy for the purpose of the township cemetery exists in the original township, the proceeds of such levy should be apportioned between the two townships, the amount due the new township being allocated to the city, and the city and the original township may unite in the management of the cemetery.

1957 OAG 153. Where a board of township trustees creates a fire district from part of a township, and purchases a fire truck to serve such fire district, the subsequent annexation of territory, including all of the fire district, to a municipal corporation does not give such municipal corporation any right of ownership in such fire truck.

1954 OAG 4642. Existence and operation of township government where township is within limits of a municipal corporation, in whole or in part, discussed at length.

1949 OAG 687. In granting a request of a village to reduce the boundaries of a township so that they will be co-extensive with those of the village, the village becomes the successor to the original township and all property, moneys, credits, records, etc., except such proportion of the moneys and credits as are apportioned to the township or townships into which the remaining territory of the township is merged and such property of the original township as may be situated in the remaining territory.

1944 OAG 6942. The statute does not require the council of a village which has become co-extensive with the township either to establish the office of justice of the peace and the office of constable or to regulate the disposition of their fees, their compensation, clerks or other officers and employees.

1944 OAG 6942. A justice of the peace and constable who have been duly elected and qualified in a municipality which is co-extensive with a township, are duly constituted as such officers notwithstanding failure of council to enact an ordinance providing offices, regulating disposition of their fees, their compensation, clerks and other officers and employees.

1944 OAG 6942. Where constable in township which is co-extensive with a village is in active military service and absent from the township, council of village is without power to declare his office vacant because of such absence.

1940 OAG 3134. When the corporate limits of a city have become identical with those of a township and the city council has, by ordinance, fixed the salary of the justice of the peace and the constable of said township, the council may at any time change, by ordinance, this mode of compensation to a fee basis, but the change may not be made to apply to incumbents of those offices during their existing terms.

1934 OAG 3197. A village council has power to repeal an ordinance enacted prior to the commencement of the term of office of the justice of the peace in the township having identical boundaries with the village, which ordinance places the office on a salary basis, after the term of office has commenced, when the justice refuses to serve, providing such repeal is effective before the justice is appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the failure of such justice to qualify.

1927 OAG 548. When the corporate limits of a city or village have become identical with those of a township and the council of the city or village has fixed the compensation to be paid to a justice of the peace as the amount of fees taxed and collected by said justice in the hearing of state cases, the council may later change the amount of compensation to be paid to said justice by the enactment of an ordinance providing for the payment of a definitely fixed salary.

705.92 Removal by recall; procedure

Any elective officer of a municipal corporation may be removed from office by the qualified voters of such municipal corporation. The procedure to effect such removal shall be:

(A) A petition signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least fifteen per cent of the total votes cast at the last preceding regular municipal election, and demanding the election of a successor to the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the board of elections. Such petition shall contain a general statement in not more than two hundred words of the grounds upon which the removal of such person is sought. The form, sufficiency, and regularity of any such petition shall be determined as provided in the general election laws.

(B) If the petition is sufficient, and if the person whose removal is sought does not resign within five days after the sufficiency of the petition has been determined, the legislative authority shall thereupon order and fix a day for holding an election to determine the question of his removal, and for the selection of a successor to each officer named in said petition. Such election shall be held not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the time of the finding of the sufficiency of such petition. The election authorities shall publish notice and make all arrangements for holding such election, which shall be conducted and the result thereof returned and declared in all respects as are the results of regular municipal elections.

(C) The nomination of candidates to succeed each officer sought to be removed shall be made, without the intervention of a primary election, by filing with the election authorities, at least twenty days prior to such special election, a petition proposing a person for each such office, signed by electors equal in number to ten per cent of the total votes cast at the last preceding regular municipal election for the head of the ticket.

(D) The ballots at such recall election shall, with respect to each person whose removal is sought, submit the question: "Shall (name of person) be removed from the office of (name of office) by recall?"

Immediately following each such question, there shall be printed on the ballots, the two propositions in the order set forth:

"For the recall of (name of person)."

"Against the recall of (name of person)."

Immediately to the left of the proposition shall be placed a square in which the electors, by making a cross (X) mark, may vote for either of such propositions.

Under each of such questions shall be placed the names of candidates to fill the vacancy. The name of the officer whose removal is sought shall not appear on the ballot as a candidate to succeed himself.

In any such election, if a majority of the votes cast on the question of removal are affirmative, the person whose removal is sought shall be removed from office upon the announcement of the official canvass of that election, and the candidate receiving the plurality of the votes cast for candidates for that office shall be declared elected. The successor of any person so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. The question of the removal of any officer shall not be submitted to the electors until such officer has served for at least one year of the term during which he is sought to be recalled. The method of removal provided in this section, is in addition to such other methods as are provided by law. If, at any such recall election, the incumbent whose removal is sought is not recalled, he shall be repaid his actual and legitimate expenses for such election from the treasury of the municipal corporation, but such sum shall not exceed fifty per cent of the sum which he is by law permitted to expend as a candidate at any regular municipal election.

45 OS(2d) 292, 345 NE(2d) 71 (1976), State ex rel Lockhart v Boberek. The provisions of 705.92, permitting recall of the elective officers of a municipal corporation, go into effect only to the extent that they have been adopted by the voters as part of a home rule charter.

No. 83-06-051 (12th Dist Ct App, Clermont, 7-21-83), State ex rel McVey v Banks. The statutory procedures and standards for municipal recall elections in cities governed by home rule charters are provided for in RC 705.92, where such city's charter provides that such recall procedures "shall be that provided by law."

OAG 89-050. When an amendment to a municipal charter adopted pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7 and 9 provides for the recall of elected municipal officers and further directs that "the procedure for such recall shall be that provided by the laws of the State of Ohio," the amendment incorporates only the provisions of RC 705.92.

OAG 89-050. The procedure set forth in RC 705.91 for the adoption of the recall procedures of RC 705.92 applies only to cities exercising one of the optional statutory plans of government set forth in RC 705.41 to 705.86 and has no application to a charter municipality which chooses to incorporate statutory recall procedures into its charter pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7, 8, and 9.

OAG 83-007. A member of a metropolitan housing authority, appointed by the mayor of a village without a charter provision purporting to provide for the recall of housing authority members, may not be removed from office by recall election.

OAG 77-101. A county officer may not be removed from office by recall election.

707.04 Portion of territory within three miles of existing municipal corporation

Prior to fixing the time and place of the public hearing pursuant to section 707.05 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners shall determine whether any of the area proposed to be incorporated includes territory within three miles of any portion of the boundary of an existing municipal corporation. If the board so finds, it shall make an order in its journal of such finding and forward a copy of such entry to the clerk of the legislative authority of such municipal corporation. The board shall thereafter take no action on the incorporation petition so long as any of the area proposed to be incorporated includes territory within three miles of the boundary limits of any existing municipal corporation. However, the board may proceed with the incorporation petition even though some or all of the territory proposed to be incorporated would be within the three-mile area if there is furnished the board of county commissioners a copy of a resolution, passed by the legislative authority of each existing municipal corporation within the three-mile area approving the petition for incorporation.

10 App(2d) 143, 226 NE(2d) 771 (1967), Watson v Doolittle. In 707.04, 709.02, 709.13, 709.14, 709.22, 709.23, 709.24 and 709.35, by the use of the synonymous words "adjacent," "contiguous" and "adjoining," the legislature intended to restrict annexations to territory that is adjacent, contiguous and adjoining to a village or city.

OAG 69-118. The municipal corporation which wishes to annex territory which is situated within three miles of two or more municipal corporations must follow 707.01 through 707.14 so far as practicable in order to insure that the annexation procedure is not negated by a strict reading of the procedural requirements.

ANNOTATIONS FROM FORMER ANALOGOUS SECTION

707.02 QUALIFICATIONS FOR INCORPORATION

149 OS 231, 78 NE(2d) 370 (1948), Wachendorf v Shaver; 81 App 209, 78 NE(2d) 761 (1947), State ex rel Youngs v Bd of Elections of Lucas County. The words "any territory" used in GC 3526 (RC 707.15), comprehend and include platted as well as unplatted lands, and application for incorporation of platted lands may be properly made to either the county commissioners, under this section, or to the township trustees under GC 3526 (RC 707.15).

4 App 45, 21 CC(NS) 52 (1914), Bring v Hollis. The jurisdiction of the county commissioners in refusing to incorporate a village is political and not judicial, and therefore not reviewable on error.

1931 OAG 3593. When a petition is filed with county commissioners praying for the incorporation of a village from platted and unplatted lands, and subsequently another petition is filed by the residents of only the platted territory included in the first petition, requesting annexation to an adjacent municipal corporation, the county commissioners may not, after hearing the first petition, incorporate a village from the unplatted lands alone.

707.21 Election of officers; special election; term of office

The first election of officers for a municipal corporation organized under Chapter 707. of the Revised Code shall be held at the time of the next regular municipal election if one occurs not less than one hundred five nor more than one hundred eighty days after the creation of the municipal corporation. Otherwise a special election shall be held. Such special election may be held on the day of a primary or general election or on a date set by the board of elections. Nominations of candidates for election to municipal office at a special election shall be made by nominating petition and shall be signed by not less than twenty-five qualified electors nor more than fifty qualified electors of the township or of the portion thereof which has been incorporated into such municipal corporation, and be filed with the board of elections not less than sixty days before the day of the election.

Municipal officers elected at such special election shall hold office until the first day of January next after the first regular municipal election occurring not less than one hundred five days after the creation of such municipal corporation.

65 Abs 547, 115 NE(2d) 858 (App Montgomery 1953), State ex rel McKay v Bd of Elections of Montgomery County. There is nothing in the incorporation statutes or the detachment statutes which requires the conclusion that it was intended that there must be a deferment of the detachment proceedings until the officers of the village are elected and qualified.

1952 OAG 2103. Zoning regulations adopted by county commissioners covering a township which is afterwards incorporated as a village will remain in full force until the proceedings for the incorporation of such village are completed by the election of village officers.

1940 OAG 1696. Upon incorporation of a village, its officers may be elected at any time not exceeding six months after its incorporation, and there should be elected a mayor, treasurer, clerk, six members of council and a marshal.

1928 OAG 2717. Members of boards of education for newly created village school districts may be appointed by county commissioners or may be selected at a special election held pursuant to this section, in which case their respective terms will date from the first Monday in January after the last preceding regular election for such offices in November of odd numbered years, as provided by GC 4838 (RC 3313.62).

709.011 Duties of clerk; notification to board of elections

The clerk or clerk of council of a municipal corporation shall notify the board of elections of all vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise in the elective offices of the municipal corporation. Such notification shall be made in writing and filed not later than ten days after the vacancy occurs with the board of elections of the county or counties in which the municipal corporation is located.

The clerk or clerk of council of a municipal corporation shall notify the board of elections of all changes in the boundaries of the municipal corporation. Such notification shall be made in writing and contain a plat clearly showing all boundary changes and shall be filed with the board of elections of the county or counties in which the municipal corporation is located within thirty days after such change occurs.

709.17 Election on question of annexation; tax rate

A vote by the electors of the unincorporated area of the township shall be taken under the election laws of this state at the next general or primary election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the legislative authority of a municipal corporation certifies the ordinance mentioned in section 709.14 of the Revised Code to the board of elections. Thereupon all annexation proceedings shall be stayed until the result of the election is known. If a majority of the electors of such area voting in the election favor annexation, proceedings shall begin within ninety days to complete annexation, and if a majority of the electors voting in the election is against annexation, no further proceedings shall be had for at least five years.

If such territory is annexed subsequent to the day upon which taxes become a lien, the new municipal corporation tax rate shall not apply until the first day of January next following when the lien of the state for taxes levied attaches. In the meantime the old township tax rate shall apply.

62 OS(2d) 241, 405 NE(2d) 262 (1980), Holcomb v Bd of Summit County Commrs. Where village passed an ordinance proposing annexation of township and an election was scheduled thereon and thereafter a group of landowners in the area petitioned for annexation of a portion of the area to a different city, county commissioners acted improperly in delaying action on section petition until after election.

167 OS 156, 146 NE(2d) 721 (1957), State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County. The election provided for in 709.17 operates as a veto upon such annexation proceedings if it is adverse to such annexation, but, if it is favorable to annexation, such election does not constitute a mandate to the county commissioners to act in a ministerial capacity to effectuate such annexation; the commissioners are still required to exercise their discretion to either allow or deny the petition for annexation, and their denial thereof in good faith, for the reasons that the territory proposed to be annexed is unreasonably large and that it is not right or equitable that the petition for annexation be allowed, is determinative of the issue. (See also State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County, 99 App 169, 132 NE(2d) 259 (1955).)

104 App 541, 150 NE(2d) 498 (1957), State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County; affirmed by 167 OS 156, 146 NE(2d) 721 (1957). A board of county commissioners has discretion to hear and determine whether a petition for annexation of unincorporated territory to a municipal corporation be granted or denied after a majority voted in favor of annexation. (See also State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County, 99 App 169, 132 NE(2d) 259 (1955).)

99 App 169, 132 NE(2d) 259 (1955), State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County. Where a petition for annexation filed under 709.15 is filed prior to the election called for by 709.17, such proceeding should be stayed under 709.17 until after the election. (See also State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County, 167 OS 156, 146 NE(2d) 721 (1957).)

99 App 169, 132 NE(2d) 259 (1955), State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County. 709.17 contemplates that the proceedings for annexation authorized by 709.14 et seq. be begun before the board of county commissioners prior to the election. (See also State ex rel Loofbourrow v Bd of Commrs of Franklin County, 167 OS 156, 146 NE(2d) 721 (1957).)

74 Abs 554, 142 NE(2d) 296 (CP Franklin 1956), McClintock v Cain. 709.17 has no application to annexation proceedings in which no election is required.

OAG 90-027. When a municipal corporation is an owner as defined in RC 709.02 and proceeds with an annexation on application of citizens, no election under RC 709.17 is required. When such municipal corporation proceeds with an annexation on its own application, the election under RC 709.17 is required to be held unless the only land to be annexed is owned by the municipality and such territory is located entirely within the same county as the municipal corporation seeking annexation.

1964 OAG 1184. The question of annexing contiguous territory to a municipal corporation must be submitted to a vote of the electors of the entire unincorporated area of the township and not merely to the electors of the territory to be annexed.

1960 OAG 1901. Where proceedings for the annexation of territory to a municipal corporation under Ch 709 have been completed by the adoption of an ordinance accepting such territory prior to the first day of October, property in such territory should be listed on the tax duplicate of such municipal corporation.

1957 OAG 1452. The effect of the transfer after tax lien date of school district territory on the authority of the receiving school district to levy a tax on the real property in such territory by action in the current year under 5705.34 discussed.

1956 OAG 7419. Where an application by a municipality to annex contiguous territory has been filed with the county commissioners, the proceedings thereon shall be stayed until the proposition has been submitted to and approved by a majority of the electors of the unincorporated area of the township voting thereon, and the fact that the area sought to be annexed belongs to the state of Ohio would not justify an omission to hold such election.

1951 OAG 567. Where proceedings have been instituted by a municipality to annex contiguous territory under GC 3558 (RC 709.13) et seq., and such proceedings were defeated by an adverse vote at an election held under GC 3651-1 (RC 709.17), the latter section did not bar application at any time for the annexation of said territory filed by the citizens residing therein.

1946 OAG 1399. Inmates of a county home which is situated on territory sought by a municipality to be annexed are, under GC 4785-33 (RC 3503.04), legal residents of territory and if they possess other qualifications of electors, are entitled to vote at an election held pursuant to this section on question of annexation.

1944 OAG 6759. When the council of municipality passes an ordinance looking to annexation to such municipality of territory contiguous thereto, pursuant to GC 3558 (RC 709.13) et seq., and there are no electors residing within the territory sought to be annexed, this section has no application, and county commissioners may upon filing of petition of municipality for such annexation proceed to a hearing and action on such petition.

709.29 Submission of question of annexation to a vote; procedure

Within thirty days after filing the conditions of annexation as provided by section 709.28 of the Revised Code with the legislative authorities of the municipal corporations, the legislative authorities of both such municipal corporations shall order the question of annexation, upon the conditions contained in the report of such commissioners, to be submitted to a vote at the next regular election or primary election, occurring not less than seventy-five days after the filing of such conditions with the board of elections.

Each ordinance shall prescribe the manner in which the submission shall be made and shall be published in its respective municipal corporation by posters or otherwise, for a period of at least twenty days, prior to the time fixed for the election, in such manner as the legislative authority deems most expedient, and a printed copy of such conditions shall be mailed to each voter of such municipal corporations, as shown by the registration books.

709.39 Petition to submit question of detachment of territory; election; payment

The freehold electors owning lands in any portion of a village, such portion being contiguous to an adjoining township, and comprising not less than one thousand five hundred acres of land, may file a petition with the board of elections in such county requesting that an election be held to obtain the opinion of the freehold electors owning lands and residing within such portion of the village upon the question of the detachment of the portion from such village, or, upon the question of the detachment of such portion from the village and the erection of such detached portion into a new township. Such petition shall contain:

(A) An accurate description of the territory sought to be detached;

(B) An accurate map or plat thereof;

(C) If the erection of a new township is also sought, the name proposed for such new township;

(D) The name of a person to act as agent of the petitioners;

(E) Signatures equal in number to fifteen per cent of the total number of votes cast at the last general election in such territory.

Within ten days after the filing of such petition with the board the board shall determine whether the petition conforms to this section. If it does not conform, no further action shall be taken thereon. If it does conform, the board shall order an election, as prayed for in the petition, which election shall be held at a convenient place within the territory sought to be detached, on a day named by the board, which day shall be not less than seventy-five days thereafter. The board shall thereupon give ten days' notice of such election by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in such territory, and shall cause written or printed notices thereof to be posted in three or more public places in such territory. The election shall be conducted in the manner provided in Title XXXV of the Revised Code, and the judges and clerks thereof shall be designated by such board.

If no freehold electors own lands in the portion of the village seeking to be detached, the owners of lands within that portion may file a petition with the board of county commissioners requesting that the board proceed with the[4] detachment procedures, or with procedures for the detachment and erection of the portion of the village into a new township, pursuant to section 709.38 of the Revised Code. The petition shall contain the items required in divisions (A), (B), and (D) of this section, and signatures equal in number to at least a majority of the owners of land within the portion of the village seeking to be detached.

The ballots shall contain the words "for detachment," and "against detachment." If a majority of the ballots cast at such election are cast against detachment, no further proceedings shall be had in relation thereto for a period of two years. If a majority of the votes cast at such election are cast for detachment, the result of such election, together with the original petition and plat and a transcript of all the proceedings of such board in reference thereto shall be certified by the board and delivered to the county recorder, who shall forthwith make a record of the petition and plat and transcript of all the proceedings of the board and the result of the election, in the public book of records, and preserve in his office the original papers delivered to him by such board. The recorder shall certify thereon that the transcribed petition and map are properly recorded. When the recorder has made such record, he shall certify and forward to the secretary of state, a transcript thereof.

The detachment of such territory from the village shall thereupon be complete, and, if the petition included a request that such territory be erected into a new township, the territory shall thereupon constitute a new township, under the name and style specified in such petition. All expense involved in holding such election, and in the filing, recording, and transcribing of the records, provided for in this section, shall be defrayed by the petitioners, and the board and the recorder may require the payment thereof in

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

28 CC(NS) 586, 30 CD 445 (1918), Newburgh Heights v French. This section is constitutional, although the city or village is thereby crippled financially.

167 OS 369, 148 NE(2d) 921 (1958), Beachwood v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. The detachment of territory from a municipality does not fall within the sphere of local self-government but is a subject which requires the establishment of a uniform procedure throughout the state and is exclusively within the control of the general assembly.

160 OS 165, 114 NE(2d) 821 (1953), State ex rel Gilmore v Lorain County. Where a petition seeking detachment of an area from a village and its erection into a new township has been filed with a board of elections pursuant to GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39), it is the duty of that board, in determining whether the petition "conforms to the requirements" of that statute, to determine whether the area seeking detachment is in fact contiguous to an adjoining township.

160 OS 165, 114 NE(2d) 821 (1953), State ex rel Gilmore v Lorain County. After the corporate limits of a village become identical with those of a township, the township may not be considered an "adjoining township" within the meaning of those words as set forth in the first sentence of GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39).

123 OS 530, 176 NE 77 (1931), Leach v Collins. This section providing for a special election upon the question of the detachment of territory from a village and prescribing the form of ballot therefor, is controlling and exclusive.

108 App 37, 160 NE(2d) 366 (1957), Stevens v Bd of Elections of Henry County. Where a referendum petition signer, an admittedly qualified elector, in a nonregistration area gives after his signature the name of his street but fails to give the number of his residence, such failure does not invalidate his signature.

85 Abs 321, 174 NE(2d) 287 (App Portage 1960), Durning v Bd of Elections of Portage County. Strict compliance with the requirements of 709.39 is a necessity.

85 Abs 232, 170 NE(2d) 520 (CP Allen 1960), Lima M & M Inc v Davis. The process of detachment from a village or annexation of a part of a village to a city can go on until there is finally a federal census taken, whether decennial or special, as requested by the village after it is properly formed, to determine whether it is entitled to the status of a city; the fact that some parties do or do not get to vote upon the question of detachment or annexation from a village is not of itself inequitable as this is purely a political matter.

72 Abs 386, 135 NE(2d) 882 (App Montgomery 1955), State ex rel Hunt v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Where a detachment proposal is defeated at an election with regard to an area embracing 3090 acres, no election may be ordered within two years with respect to an 1882 acre tract, 1368 acres of which are a part of the 3090 acres.

71 Abs 385, 128 NE(2d) 460 (App Montgomery 1955), State ex rel Graef, Jr. v Bd of Elections, Montgomery County. If a petition for detachment conforms to the statute, the board of elections is required to order an election, regardless of the pendency of another suit by the village against the secretary of state to be declared a city.

71 Abs 164, 128 NE(2d) 276 (CP Montgomery 1955), State ex rel Coatney v Horstman. The court will not reverse the action of a board of elections in refusing to order an election on a detachment provision in the absence of a violation of a statute or abuse of discretion.

GC 3577-1 (RC 709.39) expressly provides when the detachment from the village shall be complete, which is when the recorder has made a record of the proceedings incident to the election and certified and forwarded a transcript of such record to the secretary of state.

65 Abs 547, 115 NE(2d) 858 (App Montgomery 1953), State ex rel McKay v Bd of Elections of Montgomery County. There is nothing in the incorporation statutes or the detachment statutes which requires the conclusion that it was intended that there must be a deferment of the detachment proceedings until the officers of the village are elected and qualified.

65 Abs 547, 115 NE(2d) 858 (App Montgomery 1953), State ex rel McKay v Bd of Elections of Montgomery County. The requisite conditions to the submission of the question of detachment of territory are that the portion of the village to be detached shall be contiguous to an adjoining township, and comprise not less than one thousand five hundred acres of land, and these seem to be the extent of the physical limitations in such proceeding.

28 CC(NS) 586, 30 CD 445 (1918), Newburgh Heights v French. That signatures of petitioners for detachment of territory were procured by statements that the expenses, which this section says shall be defrayed by the petitioners, would be borne by parties interested, does not invalidate the election.

1929 OAG 519. Under this section, the petition may be filed with the board of elections, irrespective of whether such board is designated by statute as "board of deputy state supervisors and inspectors of elections" or "board of deputy state supervisors of elections."

709.44 Merger of municipalities; of municipality and unincorporated area of township

The territory of one or more municipal corporations, whether or not adjacent to one another, may be merged with that of an adjacent municipal corporation, and the unincorporated area of a township may be merged with a municipal corporation located adjacent to or wholly or partly within the township, in the manner provided in sections 709.43 to 709.48 of the Revised Code.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 90-042. Pursuant to RC 709.44, where a township consists of parcels of territory that are disconnected, the entire unincorporated territory of the township may be merged with a municipal corporation that is located wholly or partially within any portion of the township, or adjacent to the township, even if not all the parcels of the township are adjacent to the municipal corporation.

709.45 Petition; submission to electors; commission to set conditions

A petition may be filed with the board of elections proposing that one or more municipal corporations be merged with another municipal corporation, or that the unincorporated area of a township be merged with a municipal corporation located adjacent to or wholly or partly within the township, as provided by section 709.44 of the Revised Code. Such petition may be presented in separate petition papers. Each such petition paper shall contain, in concise language, the purpose of the petition and the names of not less than five electors of each such municipal corporation, or the names of not less than five electors of the unincorporated area of such township and the names of not less than five electors of the municipal corporation located adjacent to or wholly or partly within the township, to be nominated to serve as commissioners. The petition shall be governed by the rules of section 3501.38 of the Revised Code. Such petition shall contain signatures of electors of each municipal corporation or of the unincorporated area of the township proposed to be merged and signatures of electors of the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed, numbering not less than ten per cent of the number of electors residing in each such political subdivision who voted for the office of governor at the next preceding general election for such office. Such petition shall be filed with the board of elections of the county in which the largest portion of the population of the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed resides. Such board of elections shall cause the validity of all signatures to be ascertained and in doing so may require the assistance of boards of elections of other counties as the case requires. If the petition is sufficient, the board of elections of the county in which the petition is required to be filed shall submit the question: "Shall a commission be chosen to draw up a statement of conditions for merger of the political subdivisions of _____, _____, and _____?" for the approval or rejection of the electors of each political subdivision proposed to be merged and the electors of the municipal corporation to which merger is proposed at the next general election, in any year, occurring subsequent to the period ending seventy-five days after the filing of such petitions with the board. Provision shall be made on the ballot for the election, from each of the component political subdivisions, of five electors who shall constitute the commission to draw up the statement of conditions for merger of the political subdivisions. If any of the political subdivisions for which merger is proposed are located wholly or partially in a county other than the one in which the petition is required to be filed, the board of elections of the county in which such petition is filed shall, if the petition is found to be sufficient, certify the sufficiency of such petition and the statement of the issue to be voted on to the boards of elections of such other counties, the boards of elections of such other counties shall submit the question of merging and the names of candidates to be elected to the commission to draw up the statement of conditions for the approval or rejection of the electors in the portions of such political subdivisions within their respective counties, and upon the holding of such election, shall certify the result thereof to the board of elections of the county in which the petition is required to be filed.

32 OS(3d) 352, 513 NE(2d) 769 (1987), State ex rel Toledo v Lucas County Bd of Commrs. After a petition is filed with a board of elections for the election of a merger commission for the merger of a municipal corporation and the unincorporated territory of a township, there is a clear legal duty upon a board of commissioners to refuse to accept for filing any petitions for annexation of land located within the township until the merger procedure has been exhausted by one of the conditions set forth in RC 709.48.

13 App(3d) 355, 13 OBR 436, 469 NE(2d) 906 (Summit 1983), Ambrose v Cole. Where a petition for the election of a merger commission for the merger of the unincorporated territory of a township and a municipal corporation is filed with the board of elections, such board of elections has a clear legal duty to refuse to accept any annexation petitions for filing until exhaustion of the merger procedure pursuant to one of the conditions set out in RC 709.48.

709.46 Effect of disapproval; procedures after approval; commission to formulate conditions of merger; submission to electors

If the question of merging a municipal corporation and the unincorporated territory of a township, as provided in section 709.45 of the Revised Code, is disapproved by a majority of those voting on it in the township proposed to be merged or in the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed, no further petitions shall be filed under that section proposing the same merger for at least three years after the date of such disapproval. If the question of merging as provided in section 709.45 of the Revised Code is approved by a majority of those voting on it in each political subdivision proposed to be merged and in the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed, the five candidates from each such political subdivision shall be elected to the commission to formulate the conditions of merging the political subdivisions. The first meeting of such commission shall be held in the chamber of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation which has the smallest population, or in the case of a merger of the unincorporated area of a township and a municipal corporation located adjacent to or wholly or partly within the township in the office of the board of township trustees, at nine a.m. on the tenth day after the certification of the election by the last of the respective boards of elections to make such certification, unless such day is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, in which case such first meeting shall be held on the next day thereafter which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday. The clerk of the municipal legislative authority or of the board of township trustees in whose chamber or office the first meeting of the commission is held shall serve as temporary chairman until permanent officers are elected. The commission shall elect its own permanent officers and shall proceed to meet as often as necessary to formulate conditions for merger that are satisfactory to a majority of the members of such commission from each political subdivision. All meetings of a merger commission shall be subject to the requirements of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. The conditions of merger may provide for the election, prior to the merger, of new officers to govern the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed after the merger is complete, provided that such a provision does not conflict with the charter of the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed. In the case of a merger of a township and a municipal corporation, the merger conditions may also provide for the annexation of a school district located wholly within the township to the school district of the municipal corporation. As soon as the conditions have been agreed upon by a majority of the members of the commission from each political subdivision, this fact shall be reported to the board of elections of each of the counties in which the political subdivisions proposed for merger are located and the question shall be submitted to the voters at the next general election occurring after the commission is elected. Regardless of whether a merger commission of a township and a municipal corporation succeeds in reaching agreement, the commission shall cease to exist on the seventy-fifth day prior to the next general election after the commission is elected. The boards of elections shall submit the conditions of proposed merger for the approval or rejection of the electors in the portions of such political subdivisions within their respective counties and, upon the holding of such election, shall certify the results thereof to the board of elections of the county in which the petition is required to be filed.

709.47 Effective date; form of government; succession to interests

If the conditions of merger agreed upon by a merger commission of a township and a municipal corporation are disapproved by a majority of those voting on them in the township proposed to be merged or in the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed, no further petitions shall be filed under section 709.45 of the Revised Code proposing the same merger for at least three years after the date of such disapproval. If the conditions of merger are approved by a majority of those voting on them in each political subdivision proposed to be merged and in the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed, the merger is effective on the first day of January of the year following the certification of the results of the election by the board of elections with which the petition is required to be filed, unless the conditions specify a different date, in which case the date specified is the effective date of merger. On and after such effective date the territory of each political subdivision proposed to be merged is annexed to and included in the territory and corporate boundaries of the municipal corporation with which the merger is proposed. The form of government, ordinances, resolutions, and other rules of the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed apply throughout such newly included territories to the extent they are not in conflict with the conditions approved by the electors. The charter, if any, of the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed applies throughout the newly included territories. The corporate existence and the offices of the municipal corporations or of the township proposed to be merged terminate on such date. The municipal corporation with which merger is proposed succeeds to the interests of the political subdivision proposed to be merged in:

(A) All moneys, taxes, and special assessments, whether such moneys, taxes, or special assessments are in the treasury, or in the process of collection;

(B) All property and interests in property, whether real or personal;

(C) All rights and interests in contracts or in securities, bonds, notes, or other instruments;

(D) All accounts receivable and rights of action;

(E) All other matters not included in division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of this section.

On and after such date the municipal corporation with which merger is proposed is liable for all outstanding franchises, contracts, debts, and other legal claims, actions, and obligations of the political subdivision proposed to be merged.

On and after the date on which a petition is filed with the board of elections under section 709.45 of the Revised Code for the election of a merger commission for the merger of a municipal corporation and the unincorporated territory of a township, no petition for the annexation of any part of the unincorporated territory of the township shall be filed with a board of county commissioners under section 709.03 or 709.15 of the Revised Code, until one of the following occurs:

(A) The question of forming a merger commission is defeated at the election provided for under section 709.45 of the Revised Code by a majority of the electors of either the municipal corporation or the unincorporated territory of the township in which the election is held.

(B) The merger commission elected pursuant to section 709.45 of the Revised Code fails to reach agreement on conditions of merger no later than the seventy-fifth day prior to the next general election after the commission was elected.

(C) The conditions of merger agreed upon by the merger commission are defeated by a majority of the electors of either the municipal corporation or the unincorporated territory of the township in which the election on the conditions is held.

718.01 Uniform rates; limitation on rate without vote; prohibitions

(A) As used in this chapter:

(1) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended.

(2) "Schedule C" means internal revenue service schedule C filed by a taxpayer pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "Form 2106" means internal revenue service form 2106 filed by a taxpayer pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) "Intangible income" means income of any of the following types: income yield, interest, dividends, or other income arising from the ownership, sale, exchange, or other disposition of intangible property including, but not limited to, investments, deposits, money, or credits as those terms are defined in Chapter 5701. of the Revised Code.

(B) No municipal corporation with respect to that income which it may tax shall tax such income at other than a uniform rate.

(C) No municipal corporation shall levy a tax on income at a rate in excess of one per cent without having obtained the approval of the excess by a majority of the electors of the municipality voting on the question at a general, primary, or special election. The legislative authority of the municipal corporation shall file with the board of elections at least seventy-five days before the day of the election a copy of the ordinance together with a resolution specifying the date the election is to be held and directing the board of elections to conduct the election. The ballot shall be in the following form: "Shall the Ordinance providing for a ... per cent levy on income for (Brief description of the purpose of the proposed levy) be passed?

FOR THE INCOME TAX

AGAINST THE INCOME TAX"

In the event of an affirmative vote, the proceeds of the levy may be used only for the specified purpose.

(D) No municipal corporation shall exempt from such tax, compensation for personal services of individuals over eighteen years of age or the net profit from a business or profession.

(E) Nothing in this section shall prevent a municipal corporation from permitting lawful deductions as prescribed by ordinance. If a taxpayer's taxable income includes income against which the taxpayer has taken a deduction for federal income tax purposes as reportable on the taxpayer's form 2106, and against which a like deduction has not been allowed by the municipal corporation, the municipal corporation shall deduct from the taxpayer's taxable income an amount equal to the deduction shown on such form allowable against such income, to the extent not otherwise so allowed as a deduction by the municipal corporation. In the case of a taxpayer who has a net profit from a business or profession that is operated as a sole proprietorship, no municipal corporation may tax or use as the base for determining the amount of the net profit that shall be considered as having a taxable situs in the municipal corporation, a greater amount than the net profit reported by the taxpayer on schedule C filed in reference to the year in question as taxable income from such sole proprietorship, except as otherwise specifically provided by ordinance or regulation.

(F) No municipal corporation shall tax any of the following:

(1) The military pay or allowances of members of the armed forces of the United States;

(2) The income of religious, fraternal, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational institutions to the extent that such income is derived from tax exempt real estate, tax exempt tangible or intangible property or tax exempt activities;

(3) Except as otherwise provided in division (G) of this section, intangible income.

(G) Any municipal corporation that taxes any type of intangible income on the effective date of this amendment pursuant to Section 3 of Amended Substitute Senate Bill 238 of the 116th General Assembly, may continue to tax that type of income after 1988 if a majority of the electors of the municipal corporation voting on the question of whether to permit the taxation of that type of intangible income after 1988 vote in favor thereof at an election held on November 8, 1988.

(H) Nothing in this section or section 718.02 of the Revised Code, shall authorize the levy of any tax on income which a municipal corporation is not authorized to levy under existing laws or shall require a municipal corporation to allow a deduction from taxable income for losses incurred from a sole proprietorship or partnership.

87 Abs 586, 179 NE(2d) 392 (CP Clark 1962), Springfield v Saunders; affirmed by 118 App 59, 179 NE(2d) 370(1963). That portion of the income or pay received by civilian air technicians for strictly military duty, if any, such as drill pay, etc., is not subject to municipal income tax, but all other income received by them in their employment as air technicians is not military pay, and is accordingly subject to municipal income taxation.

810 F(2d) 550 (6th Cir Ohio 1987), Firestone Tire & Rubber Co v Neusser. A general municipal income tax encompassing all earnings including amounts the worker directs his employer to divert to benefit plans is not precluded by the Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 USC 1001 et seq., insofar as it taxes the retirement contributions.

OAG 79-020. Ohio national guard technicians are not exempt from municipal income taxation unless they are on active duty, as defined in 10 USC § 101(22) and 37 USC § 101(18), or are performing under the special circumstances outlined in 37 USC § 204 and 206.

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY—CITY

731.01 Members of legislative authority; newly incorporated city

(A) Except as provided in divisions (B) and (D) of this section, the legislative power of each city shall be vested in, and exercised by, a legislative authority, composed of not fewer than seven members, four of whom shall be elected by wards and three of whom shall be elected by electors of the city at large. For the first twenty thousand inhabitants in any city, in addition to the original five thousand, there shall be two additional members of such legislative authority, elected by wards, and for every fifteen thousand inhabitants thereafter there shall be one additional member similarly elected. The total number of members of such legislative authority shall not exceed seventeen.

(B) The legislative power of a city may be vested in, and exercised by, a legislative authority composed of not fewer than five nor more than seventeen members, to be determined in the manner provided in this division, and in lieu of the number required in division (A) of this section. Under the alternative plan for the composition of the legislative authority, the number of members shall be fixed in a resolution which may be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection by a two-thirds vote of the members of the legislative authority, or by the people through an initiative petition in accordance with section 731.28 of the Revised Code. Such a resolution passed by the legislative authority shall not be subject to veto by the mayor, need not be published, and shall be immediately effective for purposes of placing such issue on the ballot. The resolution shall be submitted to the electors at the next general or primary election occurring not less than seventy-five days after its passage by the legislative authority, or the certification of the text of a resolution proposed by initiative petition to the board of elections. The resolution shall specify the total number of members, the number to be elected from the city at large, and the number to be elected from wards. Members may all be elected from the city at large or all elected from wards, or some may be elected from the city at large and the remainder elected from wards, as determined by the resolution. A resolution that changes the total number of members shall specify the method by which the change in number is to take effect, but no reduction in the number of members shall terminate the term of an incumbent. When the number of members elected from wards is changed, new ward boundaries shall be determined as provided in section 731.06 of the Revised Code.

(C) The number of members of the legislative authority determined under an alternative plan for the composition of the legislative authority under division (B) of this section may be changed or abandoned by a resolution submitted to the electors in the same manner as provided in division (B) of this section for a resolution to institute such an alternative plan. When the alternative plan for determining the number of members of the legislative authority under division (B) of this section is abandoned, the number of members of the legislative authority shall be determined by division (A) of this section.

(D) When a city has just been incorporated from township territory pursuant to Chapter 707. of the Revised Code, the legislative authority of the city initially shall be vested in and exercised by a legislative authority composed of not fewer than seven members elected by electors of the city at large. In all subsequent elections for the city legislative authority, the members shall be elected as provided in division (A) of this section.

1963 OAG 389. When the classification of a municipal corporation changes from that of a village to a city, the village ceases to exist and the officers of the village continue in office only until succeeded by the proper officers of the new municipal corporation at the regular municipal election.

1961 OAG 2393. Where the council of a city has, by ordinance, prescribed the salary of the clerk of the municipal court, the mayor of the city is without authority to veto the ordinance.

1955 OAG 5852. When a village becomes a city, the legislative body then in office must provide for the election of a new legislative body by dividing the city into wards.

1951 OAG 409. In a municipality having a population of less than 5,000 as ascertained by the 1940 federal census and an indicated population of more than 5,000 as ascertained by the unofficial preliminary figures of the 1950 federal census, the number of councilmen to be elected in September, 1951 will be determined by 1950 census figures.

1922 OAG p 72. The additional councilmen provided by this section to meet the requirements of the increase in population in municipalities, must, in accordance with the provisions of GC 4212 (RC 731.06) be elected at a regular municipal election, by the electors of the redistricted wards, created previously by council or the director of public service for that purpose.

Ethics Op 77-007. 102.02(A)(5) and (6) do not require that a city council candidate disclose the source of a personal loan against his standard life insurance policy on the financial disclosure statement filed with the Ohio ethics commission, but do require such candidate to disclose the names of all persons (including parent or child) residing or transacting business in the state, to whom he owes more than $1,000, or who owe him more than $1,000, either in his own name or in the name of another person, on the financial disclosure statement filed with the Ohio ethics commission.

Ethics Op 76-012. A city councilman is required by section 102.02(A)(3) to disclose the name of the partnership in which he has an investment of more than one thousand dollars and give a description of the nature of his investment.

Ethics Op 76-012. A city councilman who is a general partner in a partnership, which owns real property, is required by section 102.02(A)(4) to disclose, on his financial disclosure statement, partnership property.

Ethics Op 76-005. A city councilman is a "public official or employee" as that term is defined in section 102.01(B).

Ethics Op 76-005. A city councilman may not vote affirmatively for the city's acquisition of a specific parcel of property if the councilman is aware at the time he votes that the seller of the property intends to invest a portion of the purchase price in the councilman's business enterprise.

Ethics Op 75-036. Section 102.02(A) does not require a councilwoman, who must file a financial disclosure statement, to disclose sources of income of her spouse which exceed $500, unless the income as initially received by her spouse is specifically designated for the use and benefit of the councilwoman.

Ethics Op 75-032. A person who is appointed to the office of city councilman on December 30, 1974 and resigns from that office on January 2, 1975, is required to file a financial disclosure statement based on calendar year 1974, within fifteen days after he qualifies for office, but if he complies with this requirement, he is not required to file an additional financial disclosure statement based on calendar year 1974 on or before April 15, 1975. He will, however, be required to file a financial disclosure statement based on calendar year 1975, on or before April 15, 1976.

Ethics Op 75-031. A person seeking election to city council who voluntarily withdraws from an election within twenty days after filing his petition of candidacy is no longer a candidate within the purview of section 102.02(A) of the Revised Code, and therefore is not required to file a financial disclosure statement.

Ethics Op 75-030. A person may serve as a city councilman and as a volunteer fireman of the same city and receive compensation for rendering services in both positions without violating the prohibitions of section 102.04(B).

731.02 Qualifications of members of legislative authority

Members of the legislative authority at large shall have resided in their respective cities, and members from wards shall have resided in their respective wards, for at least one year next preceding their election. Each member of the legislative authority shall be an elector of the city, shall not hold any other public office, except that of notary public or member of the state militia, and shall not be interested in any contract with the city, and no such member may hold employment with said city. A member who ceases to possess any of such qualifications, or removes from his ward, if elected from a ward, or from the city, if elected from the city at large, shall forthwith forfeit his office.

The purpose of establishing a one-year residency requirement in this section is to recognize that the state has a substantial and compelling interest in encouraging qualified candidacies for election to the office of member of the legislative authority of a city by ensuring that a candidate for such office has every opportunity to become knowledgeable with and concerned about the problems and needs of the area he seeks to represent. In enacting this requirement, the general assembly finds that the one-year period is reasonably related to this purpose, while leaving unimpaired a person's right to travel, to vote, and to be a candidate for public office.

10 OS(2d) 60, 225 NE(2d) 238 (1967), State ex rel Platz v Mucci. A provision in a municipal charter that no city councilman may hold other public office or employment is valid.

140 OS 377, 44 NE(2d) 456 (1942), State ex rel Cooper v Roth. Service in military forces of United States is public employment, and by force of this section one who enters such military service forfeits his office as city councilman.

59 App(2d) 257, 394 NE(2d) 321 (1978), State ex rel Wolfe v Lorain County Bd of Elections. Title 35 and 705.12 impose no duty upon a county board of elections to recall the certificate of election of a municipal councilman-at-large who, prior to his election, was employed by the United States post office.

70 App 417, 46 NE(2d) 435 (1940), State ex rel Tilden v Harbourt; overruled by 103 App 214, 145 NE(2d) 200 (1956), Scarl v Small. Persons holding public office may not be members of city council and forfeit right to elective office when retaining such public office after date of assumption of office in council; forfeiture occurs immediately upon assumption of office, and thirty-day period provided by GC 4236 (RC 731.43) within which council may fill vacancies, runs from such time, and after such period only the mayor can name persons to fill the vacant offices.

70 App 417, 46 NE(2d) 435 (1940), State ex rel Tilden v Harbourt; overruled by 103 App 214, 145 NE(2d) 200 (1956), State ex rel Scarl v Small. Positions of registrar and professor in state university are public offices within meaning of this section and are disqualified and forfeit right to their elective offices when they retain their university positions after date of assumption of office, in council.

OAG 83-091. RC 731.02 prohibits a member of city council from holding the position of member of a board of education of a city school district.

OAG 79-111. The common law test of incompatibility is applicable to the simultaneous holding of a public office and a public employment by the same person. An individual is not precluded from holding office as municipal council member and employment as a special deputy sheriff at the same time, assuming that the special deputy holds a fiduciary relationship to the sheriff and, thus, is in the unclassified civil service. Where possible conflicts are remote and speculative, common law incompatibility or conflict of interest rules are not violated.

OAG 75-040. The position of service officer of the county soldiers and sailors relief commission is compatible with that of a councilman of a city located in the same county.

OAG 73-043. An employee of an insurance company which has contracts with a city cannot at the same time become a member of the city council.

OAG 73-016. A member of the board of trustees of a regional transit authority may not, at the same time, be an officer of a municipal corporation which is a member of that authority.

OAG 72-014. Assuming there is no city ordinance to the contrary, city councilman may also serve as law clerk for county prosecutor's office so long as it is understood that he will not participate in the rare case in which county prosecutor is required to prosecute a member of city council.

OAG 71-040. The office of councilman or the office of president of council of a city, each being elective offices, may not be held by one employed in the position of safety inspector II in the department of highways.

OAG 71-017. Member of city council governed by 731.02 may not serve as member of municipal charter commission created under O Const Art XVIII, § 8.

OAG 70-096. Person employed as statutory development specialist in department of urban affairs does not hold public office within meaning of 731.02, and therefore position of city councilman and statutory development specialist in department of urban affairs are not incompatible.

OAG 69-102. 731.02 forbids a member of city council from holding the position of a member of the board of trustees of a school district public library.

OAG 67-033. The supervisory position of crew chief and superintendent of roads in the county engineering department is not incompatible with the position of councilman.

OAG 65-60. The position of a member of city council can be held simultaneously with that of principal and teacher of a local elementary school.

1964 OAG 882. A member of a governing board of a community improvement corporation, designated as the agent of one or more political subdivisions, holds a public office as that term is used in 731.02 and 731.12, and therefore a councilman may not become a member of the governing board.

1958 OAG 1661. The office of city councilman and that of county civil defense director cannot be held simultaneously by the same person.

1956 OAG 6675. Employment by the turnpike commission is "public employment" within the meaning of 731.02.

1956 OAG 6674. 731.12 does not prohibit a member of village council from holding other public employment so long as such employment is not with said village, so that a member may simultaneously be employed by a board of township trustees as sexton of a township cemetery.

1953 OAG 2367. The president of a city council elected pursuant to GC 4272 (RC 733.09) is not a member of the council within the meaning of this section.

1952 OAG 2198. Members of the council of a noncharter city may not hold any other public office and may not exercise any appointing power or perform administrative duties.

1952 OAG 1116. A city councilman may not serve as township constable.

1951 OAG 803. Member of a municipal council is prohibited from serving as a member of recreation board.

1946 OAG 744. President of a city council elected pursuant to GC 4272 (RC 733.09), is not under any circumstances a member of city council and hence provision of section forbidding a member of council holding any other public office or employment does not apply to such president of council; however, office of president of council of a city is incompatible with position of relief director of relief area constituting such city, appointed pursuant to GC 3391-7 (Repealed).

1938 OAG 2772. Language "any other public office or employment" as contained in this section, and likewise in the charter of a charter city that has similar provisions, is not limited to other office or employment by the municipality but extends to all public office and employment and therefore prohibits the employment of an acting councilman as investigator of the division of aid for the aged of the county.

1934 OAG 3261. A member of city council may at the same time be a central committeeman.

1933 OAG 1999. A councilman of a city operating under the city manager plan of government may not hold the public employment of trustee of a county children's home at the same time. But if he resigns prior to the beginning of his term as such councilman, he becomes eligible to take his seat in the council of such city.

1932 OAG 4325. Where a councilman of a city which has no charter, is a member of the board of trustees of the firemen's pension or police relief fund, and has been elected secretary of such board, he may receive such compensation therefor as may be fixed by said board, in addition to his salary as councilman.

1929 OAG 1329. The inhibition against a councilman holding other public office or employment, relates to his term as councilman and not to some office or employment he held at the time of his election which was relinquished before he took office as councilman.

1929 OAG 626. A deputy state fire marshal may not hold the office of member of a city council.

1929 OAG 552. A teacher in the public schools is ineligible to membership in the council of a municipality.

1927 OAG 720. Membership in a municipal fire department does not disqualify such a fireman from being elected to the office of councilman of the municipality; and if after being elected councilman such person should continue to perform the duties of a fireman, that fact would not cause a forfeiture of his office as councilman but would disqualify him from receiving the privileges or emoluments of the position of fireman.

Ethics Op 78-005. 2921.42(A)(1) does not prohibit a county commissioner from voting to approve the issuance of an industrial revenue bond to a company which is a client of an accounting firm in which her husband is a partner, if the husband's sole interest is a distributive share of the fees earned by his firm for accounting services rendered to the company seeking the bond.

Ethics Op 78-003. A county commissioner may not knowingly have an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract for commercial development financed through industrial revenue bonds.

Ethics Op 78-001. A member of city council is prohibited from knowingly having an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract for legal services between the city and the law firm with which he is associated.

Ethics Op 78-001. Ch 102 does not per se prohibit the appointment of a former member of city council, who is a law partner of a present member of city council, to the position of city solicitor.

2. Wards

173 OS 402, 183 NE(2d) 376 (1962), State ex rel Scott v Masterson. Where the charter of a city provides that councilmen of the city shall be elected by wards which shall be nearly equal in population and further provides that the city council shall redivide the city after each decennial federal census for that purpose, there is a mandatory duty upon city council to comply with the charter.

660 F(2d) 166 (6th Cir Ohio 1981), Akron v Bell. Requirement of city charter that candidate for election to city council representing a ward be a resident of ward for one year is valid.

3. Qualifications and duties of office

165 OS 441, 136 NE(2d) 43 (1956), State ex rel Bindas v Andrish. A charter municipality can determine upon qualifications for its councilmen which may be different from those provided by statute, and where the charter specifies certain qualifications for a councilman, the requirements of 731.02 will not apply in the absence of their adoption by other provisions of the charter.

17 Abs 341, 40 LR 285 (App Butler 1934), State ex rel Baden v Gibbons. This section has two distinct purposes: it first recites qualifications to be eligible to office of councilman and second provides that if one duly elected shall cease to possess these qualifications he shall forfeit his office.

22 CC(NS) 314, 28 CD 481 (1908), State ex rel Weber v Hathaway. The residence required by this section, to qualify one to be a councilman is the same as that of an elector; hence, removal of a councilman to another state, without any fixed intent either to stay or return, does not forfeit his office.

16 CC(NS) 339, 31 CD 534 (1909), State ex rel Billington v Merril. GC 4207, 4218 (RC 731.02, 731.12), that removal from the municipality forfeits a councilman's office is not violated by his marrying a wife in another county who continues to reside there (GC 4866 (RC 3347.03), paragraph 4 is not applicable).

1952 OAG 2198. The council of a noncharter city is without power to transfer the powers and duties of officers provided by the general laws of the state to other officers or boards of its own creation.

731.03 Election and term of members of legislative authority; election to change length of terms

(A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, one member of the legislative authority of a city from each ward and such number of members thereof at large as is provided by section 731.01 of the Revised Code shall be chosen in each odd-numbered year. Members shall serve for a term of two years commencing on the first day of January next after their election.

(B) A city legislative authority may, by majority vote, adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the city electors the question of whether the terms of office of the members of the legislative authority should be changed from two to four years. The question may also ask whether the legislative authority should be authorized to establish staggered four-year terms of office among members of the legislative authority by fixing certain terms of office at two years for one term of office but then at four years thereafter. If the resolution calls for submission of the question about staggered terms, the resolution shall specify the number of members to be elected for four-year terms and the number to be elected for two-year terms at the next election for such members. The resolution shall also specify how many of those members elected to four-year terms and how many of those members elected to two-year terms shall be elected from the city at large, and how many from wards. If staggered terms of office are established, the legislative authority shall fix the length of the terms of office prior to the last day fixed by law for filing as a candidate for such office. The question shall be voted upon at the next general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the certification of the resolution to the board of elections. If a majority of the votes cast on the question is in the affirmative, the terms of office of the members of the legislative authority shall be four years effective on the first day of January following the next regular municipal election, except as may otherwise be provided by the legislative authority to establish staggered terms of office among members of the legislative authority.

A city legislative authority whose members' terms of office are four years may, by a majority vote, adopt a resolution establishing staggered four-year terms of office among members of the legislative authority by fixing certain terms of office at two years for one term of office but then at four years thereafter. The resolution shall specify the number of members to be elected for four-year terms and the number to be elected for two-year terms, and shall specify how many of those members elected to four-year terms and how many of those members elected to two-year terms shall be elected from the city at large, and how many from wards. If staggered terms of office are established, the legislative authority shall fix the length of the terms of office prior to the last day fixed by law for filing as a candidate for such office.

A city legislative authority whose members' terms of office are four years may, by majority vote, adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the city electors the question of whether the members' terms should be changed back from four to two years. The question shall be voted upon at the next general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the certification of the resolution to the board of elections. If a majority of the votes cast on the question is in the affirmative, the terms of office of the members of the legislative authority shall be two years effective on the first day of January following the next regular municipal election.

Under provisions of this section and GC 4272 (RC 733.09), a duly elected president of a city council is empowered to vote in case of any tie; such authority includes right to vote in event of a tie in election of a clerk of the council.

33 Abs 26, 35 NE(2d) 987 (App Franklin 1940), State ex rel Holloway v Rhodes. Ten day provision of this section is directory only, and would not prevent the exercise of such power at a later date if and when a situation arises demanding it.

1962 OAG 3203. A member of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation appointed under 731.04 as president pro tempore of the legislative authority, may preside over such authority in the absence of the president thereof, and when so presiding is entitled to vote once where there is a roll-call on a question, and in other cases where his vote would change the result, but may not vote to create a tie vote and then vote to decide the tie.

1962 OAG 2746. A member of a board of education of a city school district may at the same time serve as clerk of a city council to which he is elected, provided the charter of the city does not contain a contrary provision in regard to such clerk, and provided it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of such offices.

1952 OAG 1116. A school teacher may legally serve as clerk of the city council.

1927 OAG 326. The position of clerk of a city council is within the unclassified civil service. The position of assistant clerk of a city council is or is not within the unclassified civil service depending upon whether said council has fixed the duties of such assistant clerk as legislative in character or otherwise. legislative such position is within the unclassified civil service under subsection 5 of GC 486-8(a) (RC 143.08).

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY—VILLAGE

731.09 Members of village legislative authority; terms of office

The legislative power of each village shall be vested in, and exercised by, a legislative authority, composed of six members, who shall be elected by the electors of the village at large, for terms of four years. At the municipal election held in the year 1961 two members shall be elected for terms of two years and four members shall be elected for terms of four years. Except in villages where a primary election was held in 1961 for the nomination of candidates for member of the legislative authority, the four candidates who receive the greatest number of votes[5] cast shall be elected for terms of four years, and the two candidates who receive the next greatest number of the votes cast shall be elected for terms of two years.

All candidates nominated prior to June 8, 1961, except by primary election, shall have their names grouped together on the election ballot regardless of whether their nominating petition or declaration of candidacy designated that they were candidates for a two-year or a four-year term.

At the municipal election in 1963 and quadrennially thereafter, two members shall be elected for terms of four years.

At the municipal election in 1965 and quadrennially thereafter, four members shall be elected for terms of four years.

Beginning with the year 1964, all members of village council shall hold office for a term of four years.

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

368 FSupp 999 (SD Ohio 1973), Headlee v Franklin County Bd of Elections. Statutory requirement that candidates in village elections be residents of the village for one year prior to the date of the election is invalid.

170 OS 375, 165 NE(2d) 644 (1960), State ex rel DeMatteo v Allen. The mayor of a village may cast a tie-breaking vote in a village council on a motion relative to appointment of a police chief.

OAG 92-001. Experience as a member of the legislative authority of a village, public school teacher, or trustee of a nonprofit corporation does not qualify as law enforcement experience for purposes of RC 311.01(B)(9).

OAG 82-085. A deputy sheriff in the classified service may not be a candidate for the position of village council member if such members are elected in a partisan election. He may, however, be a candidate for, and serve as a village council member if the election for such position is nonpartisan in nature.

OAG 70-038. Postal employee in federal classified service does not hold public office within the meaning of 731.12, and is therefore not barred from serving as village councilman, although he may be subject to applicable provisions of federal law governing political activity within federal service.

OAG 66-046; overruled in part by OAG 82-085. A person holding a position in the classified service of a state university could not at the same time become a candidate for, be elected to, or hold the office of member of village council.

1963 OAG 389. Members of the legislative authority of the former village who were elected to serve terms of four years in accordance with 731.09 do not continue as members of the legislative authority of the city until the expiration of such four-year period.

Ethics Op 76-002. Persons who are elected or appointed to or are candidates for village office are not required to file financial disclosure statements under section 102.02(A).

731.11 Vacancy when president pro tempore becomes mayor

When the president pro tempore of the legislative authority of a village becomes the mayor, the vacancy thus created shall be filled as provided in section 731.43 of the Revised Code, and the legislative authority shall elect another president pro tempore from its own number, who shall have the same rights, powers, and duties as his predecessor.

1948 OAG 3943. Under the provision of GC 4256 (RC 733.25), upon the resignation or death of the mayor of a village, the president pro tem of the council becomes the mayor, and his seat in the council is thereby vacated; thereupon it becomes the duty of the council under provisions of this section to fill such vacancy and to elect another member of council as president pro tem.

1948 OAG 3943. When the president pro tem of a village council who has succeeded to the office of mayor by reason of the death or resignation of the mayor, fails or refuses to take the oath of office or to give the required bond as such mayor for ten days, the council of said village may declare such office of mayor vacant, whereupon the newly elected president pro tem shall become the mayor.

731.12 Qualifications of members of village legislative authority

Each member of the legislative authority of a village shall have resided in the village one year next preceding his election, and shall be an elector of the village. No member of the legislative authority shall hold any other public office, be interested in any contract with the village, or hold employment with said village, except that such member may be a notary public, a member of the state militia, or a volunteer fireman of said village, provided that such member shall not receive any compensation for his services as a volunteer fireman of the village in addition to his regular compensation as a member of the legislative authority. Any member who ceases to possess any of such qualifications or who removes from the village shall forfeit his office.

The purpose of establishing a one-year residency requirement in this section is to recognize that the state has a substantial and compelling interest in encouraging qualified candidacies for election to the office of member of the legislative authority of a village by ensuring that a candidate for such office has every opportunity to become knowledgeable with and concerned about the problems and needs of the area he seeks to represent. In enacting this requirement, the general assembly finds that the one-year period is reasonably related to this purpose, while leaving unimpaired a person's right to travel, to vote, and to be a candidate for public office.

14 App(3d) 124, 14 OBR 139, 470 NE(2d) 224 (Summit 1984), Roseman v Reminderville. Where village officers have lived outside the village for over six months and made no attempt to resume residence within the village, they must forfeit their village offices pursuant to RC 731.12, despite their claims that the move is temporary, due to marital difficulties.

103 App 214, 145 NE(2d) 200 (1956), State ex rel Scarl v Small. A public school teacher is not holding public office within the meaning of 731.12.

30 Abs 61 (App Lorain 1938), State ex rel Vian v Bryan. Election and incumbency of a village councilman is a nullity, where such councilman was not a resident of village for one year prior to election day; and council committee has the power to fill incumbent's office by electing another councilman without bringing proceedings of ouster against present incumbent.

OAG 91-036. The position of president pro tempore of the legislative authority of a village is compatible with the position of bituminous plant inspector in the Ohio department of transportation, provided that the election to the legislative authority is nonpartisan.

OAG 90-059. The positions of clerk-treasurer of a local school district free public library and member of the legislative authority of a village within the jurisdiction of such library are statutorily incompatible under RC 731.12, which prohibits a member of the legislative authority of a village from holding any other public office.

OAG 89-069. The position of president of a board of education of a local school district is incompatible with the position of village council member.

OAG 89-069. The position of public school teacher in a local school district is compatible with the position of village council member.

OAG 82-085. A deputy sheriff in the unclassified service may serve as a member of a village legislative authority. However, a deputy sheriff in the classified service may not be a candidate for the position of village council member if such members are elected in a partisan election. He may be a candidate for, and serve as a village council member if the election for such position is nonpartisan in nature.

OAG 74-071; overruled in part by OAG 82-085. An employee in a county highway department, in the classified civil service, may not also serve as village councilman, because of the prohibition of political activity by classified employees in 124.57.

OAG 74-071; overruled in part by OAG 82-085. The position of employee in a county highway department, in the unclassified civil service, may be held simultaneously with that of village councilman.

OAG 71-048. Where only newspaper published in village is owned by husband of a village councilwoman, such newspaper is not prevented from publishing legal notices of the village, and such councilwoman may take reportorial notes during council sessions as a basis for articles to be published in said newspaper concerning such sessions.

OAG 70-038. Postal employee in federal classified service does not hold public office within the meaning of 731.12, and is therefore not barred from serving as village councilman, although he may be subject to applicable provisions of federal law governing political activity within federal service.

OAG 70-035. Positions of member of village council and special deputy sheriff are not incompatible.

OAG 70-002. The position of a village council member and the position of clerk of courts for the county court are incompatible offices and one individual may not hold both positions at the same time.

OAG 65-60. The position of a member of city council can be held simultaneously with that of principal and teacher of a local elementary school.

1964 OAG 882. A member of a governing board of a community improvement corporation, designated as the agent of one or more political subdivisions, holds a public office as that term is used in 731.02 and 731.12, and therefore a councilman may not become a member of the governing board.

1962 OAG 3494. A candidate who fails to file a statement of expenditures within the time prescribed by 3517.10 is barred from becoming a candidate in any future election for a period of five (or seven) years, but is not, by reason of such failure, barred from being appointed to a public office such as a member of the legislative authority of a village, and from serving in such capacity.

1956 OAG 6675. Employment by the turnpike commission is "public employment" within the meaning of 731.02.

1956 OAG 6674. 731.12 does not prohibit a member of village council from holding other public employment so long as such employment is not with said village, so that a member may simultaneously be employed by a board of township trustees as sexton of a township cemetery.

1955 OAG 5148. The date of election to be used in determining prior residence in a village of a candidate for member of the village legislative authority is the date of the general election, rather than the date when the results thereof are certified.

1950 OAG 1606; overruled by OAG 89-069. A teacher employed in the public schools of Ohio is ineligible to serve as a member of the village council.

1943 OAG 6568. A person who was elected to office of councilman of a village is not disqualified from holding office by reason of fact that he served as a precinct election officer in the election at which he was elected.

1933 OAG 833. A member of the city council who accepts the public employment of trustee of a county children's home, ipso facto forfeits his office of city councilman. He may not hold both offices at the same time.

1932 OAG 4847. When a justice of the peace is appointed to fill a vacancy in a village council, and does not resign from his office of justice of the peace, he becomes a de facto village councilman and his vote in council has legal effect. The village council, however, may declare the office to which the justice of the peace was appointed vacant or ouster proceedings may be instituted in court.

1930 OAG 2672. A member of a village council may hold the office of secretary of the county agricultural society.

1930 OAG 2165. A member of council of a village may not be employed as the driver of a school bus by the board of education.

1929 OAG 891. A principal in the public schools is ineligible to membership in the council of a municipality.

1928 OAG 2060. No member of the council of a village may legally hold any other public office or employment, except that of notary public or member of the state militia. The inhibition contained in the provisions of this section is not limited to holding another office in, or employment by, such village, but such inhibition extends to all other public offices and employments.

1927 OAG 1396; overruled by OAG 89-069. Under this section a janitor of a public school or an assistant in the county surveyor's office is ineligible to membership in a village council.

731.211 Advertising notice of proposed amendments to municipal charter

In accordance with Section 9 of Article XVIII, Ohio Constitution, notice of proposed amendments to municipal charters shall be given in one of the following ways:

(A) Not less than thirty days prior to the election at which the amendment is to be submitted to the electors, the clerk of the municipality shall mail a copy of the proposed charter amendment to each elector whose name appears upon the poll or registration books of the last regular or general election held therein.

(B) The full text of the proposed charter amendment shall be published once a week for not less than two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the municipal corporation, with the first publication being at least fifteen days prior to the election at which the amendment is to be submitted to the electors. If no newspaper is published in the municipal corporation, then such publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation within the municipal corporation.

MUNICIPAL INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

731.28 Ordinances and measures proposed by initiative petition

Ordinances and other measures providing for the exercise of any powers of government granted by the constitution or delegated to any municipal corporation by the general assembly may be proposed by initiative petition. Such initiative petition must contain the signatures of not less than ten per cent of the number of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding general election for the office of governor in the municipal corporation.

When a petition is filed with the city auditor or village clerk, signed by the required number of electors proposing an ordinance or other measure, such auditor or clerk shall, after ten days, transmit a certified copy of the text of the proposed ordinance or measure to the board of elections. The auditor or clerk shall transmit the petition to the board together with the certified copy of the proposed ordinance or other measure. The board shall examine all signatures on the petition to determine the number of electors of the municipal corporation who signed the petition. The board shall return the petition to the auditor or clerk within ten days after receiving it, together with a statement attesting to the number of such electors who signed the petition.

The board shall submit such proposed ordinance or measure for the approval or rejection of the electors of the municipal corporation at the next succeeding general election, occurring subsequent to seventy-five days after the auditor or clerk certifies the sufficiency and validity of the initiative petition to the board of elections. No ordinance or other measure proposed by initiative petition and approved by a majority of the electors voting upon the measure in such municipal corporation shall be subject to the veto of the mayor.

As used in this section, "certified copy" means a copy containing a written statement attesting it is a true and exact reproduction of the original proposed ordinance or other measure.

1 Ohio St L J 292 (1935). Legal authority to propose construction or acquisition of municipal utilities by initiative petition, James R. Tritschler.

39 OS(3d) 292, 530 NE(2d) 869 (1988), State ex rel Williams v Iannucci. RC Ch 519 does not provide for initiated amendments to township zoning resolutions and RC 731.28, which applies to municipal corporations, will not be construed to apply to townships.

39 OS(3d) 292, 530 NE(2d) 869 (1988), State ex rel Williams v Iannucci. A city auditor lacks authority to refuse to certify the text of a proposed ordinance to the board of elections if it is signed by the required number of electors, and a writ of mandamus compelling the auditor to certify the text of the proposed ordinance to the board of elections will be granted.

25 OS(3d) 71, 25 OBR 125, 495 NE(2d) 380 (1986), Middletown v Ferguson; cert denied sub nom Stricklen v Middletown, 479 US 1034, 107 SCt 883, 93 LEd(2d) 837 (1987). An initiative ordinance which repeals all existing and future legislation concerning a half-completed improvement project constitutes a substantial impairment of contractual obligations and therefore it is unconstitutional.

13 OS(3d) 1, 13 OBR 377, 469 NE(2d) 842 (1984), State ex rel Walter v Edgar. RC 731.28 requires a city auditor to certify a proposal to the board of elections where the filing and signature requirements of that statute have been met; a claim by the auditor that a proposal is unconstitutional is premature.

68 OS(2d) 9, 426 NE(2d) 1389 (1981), State ex rel Stern v Quattrone. Where an initial attempted certification of an initiative petition was made eighty-two days before the election and until the filing of a protest fifty-six days before the election the board of elections had accepted it, the seventy-five day requirement of 731.28 is met and mandamus will lie to compel the board of elections to place the measure on the ballot.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. The provisions of 731.28 and 731.32 relative to the filing of an initiative petition with the city auditor or village clerk and to the certification of the ordinance or measure by such auditor or clerk to the board of elections do not apply to an initiative petition to amend a city charter, filed pursuant to O Const Art XVIII, § 9.

164 OS 247, 129 NE(2d) 809 (1955), Dubyak v Kovach. 731.29 provides the sole method by which a referendum petition may be filed in a municipality without its own initiative and referendum provisions, and requires that a referendum petition be filed upon any ordinance or any measure passed by a city council within thirty days from the presentation of such ordinance or other measure to the mayor of the city and makes no provision for a later filing, even though the measure is vetoed by the mayor and passed over his veto.

155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951), State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt. Where an ordinance relating to parking spaces and the installation and use of parking meters in connection therewith is passed by a municipal council, even though enacted as an emergency measure effective immediately and thereby not subject to the referendum, the electors of the municipality may initiate an ordinance for the repeal of such legislation, and where the initiative petition prepared and formulated for such purpose conforms with this section and is duly filed, city auditor is under the mandatory duty to certify such petition to the board of elections.

138 OS 497, 37 NE(2d) 41 (1941), State ex rel Kittel v Bigelow. Determination by the legislative authority of a municipality that there are sufficient signatures on a petition to require submission of a proposed charter amendment to the electorate is conclusive in the absence of fraud or gross abuse of discretion.

138 OS 497, 37 NE(2d) 41 (1941), State ex rel Kittel v Bigelow. Where a petition has been filed with the legislative authority of a municipality requesting passage of ordinance submitting proposed charter amendment to electorate, and the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by a vote of two-thirds or more of its members, any defects in the filing or signing of the petition become immaterial, even though the preamble of the ordinance recites that the legislative authority is acting in response to the petition.

127 OS 195, 187 NE 715 (1933), Youngstown v Craver. A charter city may adopt the provisions of the General Code relative to initiative and referendum and under these provisions may abolish its charter.

125 OS 165, 180 NE 704 (1932), James v Ketterer. A city charter did not provide for the submission of a resolution by initiative petition, nor for its submission to a referendum. In the absence of such provisions in the city charter, the city had a right to proceed under the general laws of the state to improve its streets.

122 OS 591, 173 NE 193 (1930), State ex rel Lowry v Weiss. Petition as to initiated ordinance filed with city auditor forty days before election, sufficient under this section although not certified to board of elections within forty days.

119 OS 210, 162 NE 807 (1928), State ex rel Diehl v Abele; overruled by 131 OS 356, 2 NE(2d) 862 (1936), State ex rel Didelius v City Comm of Sandusky. The general initiative and referendum provision of O Const Art II, § 1f, and the statute enacted in pursuance thereof cannot avail except upon the initial ordinance.

103 OS 286, 133 NE 556 (1921), Cincinnati v Hillenbrand. Under O Const Art II, § 1f, that initiative and referendum powers shall be exercised in the manner hereafter provided by law, GC 4227-1 to 4227-13 (RC 731.28 to 731.41) prescribes the manner.

66 App(3d) 286 (Erie 1990), State ex rel Citizens for a Responsive Government Committee v Widman. A writ of mandamus will not be issued to compel a city commission or its members to place an initiative petition which seeks a change in the form of municipal government on the next election ballot since as the petition alters only one out of eighty-five sections of the charter, it seeks to "amend" the charter and not to "abolish" it; therefore, RC 731.28 does not control and it has to be submitted to legislative authority for a determination of its validity pursuant to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9; the submission of a petition is not rendered unnecessary regardless of the number of voter's signatures on it, nor are amendments to charters seeking a change in the form of government guaranteed placement on the ballot by O Const Art I §2 and Art II §1f.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. A charter city's own initiative and referendum provisions prevail over RC 731.28 which deals with ordinances and measures proposed by initiative petition, as expressly provided in RC 731.41.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. Where a city argues that an initiative ordinance violates the prohibition against the state passing any law which impairs the obligation of contract under US Const Art I §10, an impermissible impairment of existing city contract obligations is present when it prevents a party from fulfilling its obligations under the contract, and there is an accompanying decrease in the contract's value; to constitute an impermissible impairment, either the legislation or the initiative ordinance must alter the obligations between the parties to the contract.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. A court, in determining whether an initiative ordinance to repeal the provisions of a city's income tax credit ordinance operates as an unconstitutional impairment of the obligation of the city's contractual rights, should consider whether the initiative ordinance operates as substantial impairment of a contract right, and if the impairment is substantial, whether the prohibition of US Const Art I §10 can be harmonized with the initiative power reserved to the electorate and the reasonable necessity to serve an important public purpose; in determining if an impairment is substantial, the court should consider the extent that reasonable expectations in the contract have been disrupted and the extent of the party's reliance on the obligation impaired.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. An initiative ordinance to repeal the provisions of a city's income tax credit ordinance does not operate as a substantial impairment of the city's contractual relationship with third parties where the rights of the city's contracts for capital improvements will remain unchanged if the electorate approves the initiative since the initiative ordinance will not abrogate or repudiate the city's capital improvement contracts with third parties or repeal the city's power to perform them.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. Unless authorized by its charter, a city council has no power to limit the right of initiative reserved to the electorate on grounds of unconstitutionality, and if the petition is in proper form and contains sufficient signatures, the city's duty is to certify the initiative ordinance to the board of elections so that it can be placed on the ballot.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. The constitutionality of an initiative ordinance can be judicially determined only after its enactment and therefore, a court will not interfere with the legislative process by mandamus to block enactment of an ordinance because of claims that it is unconstitutional.

22 App(2d) 190, 259 NE(2d) 754 (1970), Edward Rose of Ohio, Inc v McLaughlin. 731.28, 731.29 and 731.32 requiring that proposed ordinances and initiative or referendum petitions be filed with city auditor or village clerk are mandatory, and where city has no official named auditor, these filings must be made with auditor in fact, who performs duties of auditor.

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. The word "certify," in 731.28 requires more than an intention or a verbal expression of an intention; it requires something, however informal, in writing, which is a communication of record to be construed and accepted by the board as a request to place an issue before the electors, and a letter from the city auditor requesting the board of elections to check the signatures on a petition is not such a certification.

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. A so-called "initiative petition" which does not propose any text of any ordinance or other measure and proposes no enactment, but merely seeks to have a municipal council embark on a course of conduct and contains no detail or direction as to how the proposed conduct should be undertaken or form which could be construed as legislation, is ineffective and does not constitute any "question" proposed by such "petition."

49 App 184, 195 NE 871 (1934), Ohio Power Co v Davidson. The ten-day period provided for in this section, after which the city auditor of a city or the village clerk of a village shall certify an initiative petition, is governed by the provisions of GC 10216 (RC 1.14), and when the tenth day falls on Sunday said ten-day period shall include all day Monday and such petition shall not be certified until after 12:00 midnight of that day.

21 App 465, 153 NE 217 (1926), Goodman v Hamilton. Municipal ordinance initiated by petition authorizing and directing city officer to enter into contract with company to supply gas to city is a legislative act, and hence valid under O Const Art II, § 1f, GC 4206 (RC 731.01) et seq., and this section, notwithstanding O Const Art XVIII, § 5, which is a mere limitation upon city council.

22 Misc 5, 255 NE(2d) 880 (CP Cuyahoga 1969), Storegard v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. The requirement of 731.34 that an initiative petition be kept open for public inspection for ten days does not indicate that this period of inspection must be completed before the certification of the petition to the board of elections pursuant to 731.28.

22 Misc 5, 255 NE(2d) 880 (CP Cuyahoga 1969), Storegard v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. When the city clerk, with whom an initiative petition should be filed, is on vacation and no other person has been designated to perform such duty, the filing of such a petition is complete when accepted for that purpose by the president of the city council.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. In the computation of the ninety-day period required by 731.28, the first day to be counted is the day following the filing of the initiative petition in the city auditor's office.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. Under 731.28 an initiated ordinance must be submitted at an election subsequent to ninety days from its certification to the board of elections, and so the election may not be utilized when it occurs on the ninetieth day after its certification.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. 731.34, requiring that an initiative petition be kept open for public inspection for ten days, and 731.28, which states that its certification to the board of elections shall be made "after ten days," must be read in pari materia, which results in the intention of the latter section being clearly that the certification may not lawfully occur earlier than the eleventh day after the filing of the petition in the auditor's office.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. Under 731.28 the city auditor is required to certify to the board of elections only the text of an ordinance proposed by initiative petition, and is required to retain the petition.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. The requirement of 713.12 that the legislative authority of a municipal corporation hold a public hearing on the passage of any ordinance does not apply to ordinances proposed by initiative petition.

60 Abs 555, 102 NE(2d) 481 (App Cuyahoga 1951), Geiger v Kobie. The question of a municipal corporation determining to dispose of its light plant being a legislative matter, the right to initiate an ordinance authorizing the city to enter into a contract for such purpose is authorized by O Const Art II, § 1f and this section.

23 Abs 403 (App Mahoning 1936), State ex rel Kalver v Lemon. There is no authority in law for a court to order a certified copy of the verified copy of the initiative petitions or ordinances filed with city clerk.

9 Abs 646, 34 LR 257 (App Cuyahoga 1931), Ferguson v Wiegand. The law of Ohio governing the application of O Const Art II, § 1f with reference to the initiative and referendum is found in this and following sections. (See also Wiegand v Ferguson, 124 OS 73, 177 NE 35 (1931).)

1955 OAG 5983. Initiative and referendum may not be utilized by a municipality to abandon a previously adopted form of municipal government.

1949 OAG 4252 (Printed in 1948). When a municipal ordinance has been duly passed and the period allowed by law for filing a referendum petition has elapsed without any such petition being filed, such ordinance cannot be repealed by an ordinance thereafter approved by the electors pursuant to an initiative petition filed pursuant to this section, and such initiated ordinance is of no effect.

1933 OAG 19. Ordinances proposed and enacted by the people of a city or village by virtue of the power of the initiative are subject to the same limitations as are other ordinances of a municipality and may be amended or repealed at the will of the municipal council, unless the power to do so is qualified or limited by charter provisions.

1930 OAG 1547. GC 4227-1 to 4227-13 (RC 731.28 to 731.41), inclusive, are not in their entirety repealed by the election laws of the state of Ohio, GC 4785-1 (Repealed) et seq., but such provisions as contained in these sections of the old law relating to the initiative and referendum as to municipalities as are inconsistent with the new law are repealed by implication.

1925 OAG 2797. There is no provision of the constitution or statutes which prevents the council of a municipality from passing legislation within the scope of its powers inconsistent with a law that has been proposed by an initiative petition, pending the decision thereon at the election.

731.29 Ordinances and measures subject to referendum

Any ordinance or other measure passed by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation shall be subject to the referendum except as provided by section 731.30 of the Revised Code. No ordinance or other measure shall go into effect until thirty days after it is filed with the mayor of a city or passed by the legislative authority in a village, except as provided by such section.

When a petition, signed by ten per cent of the number of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding general election for the office of governor in the municipal corporation, is filed with the city auditor or village clerk within thirty days after any ordinance or other measure is filed with the mayor or passed by the legislative authority of a village, or in case the mayor has vetoed the ordinance or any measure and returned it to council, such petition may be filed within thirty days after the council has passed the ordinance or measure over his veto, ordering that such ordinance or measure be submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation for their approval or rejection, such auditor or clerk shall, after ten days, and not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of election, transmit a certified copy of the text of the ordinance or measure to the board of elections. The auditor or clerk shall transmit the petition to the board together with the certified copy of the ordinance or measure. The board shall examine all signatures on the petition to determine the number of electors of the municipal corporation who signed the petition. The board shall return the petition to the auditor or clerk within ten days after receiving it, together with a statement attesting to the number of such electors who signed the petition. The board shall submit the ordinance or measure to the electors of the municipal corporation, for their approval or rejection, at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to seventy-five days after the auditor or clerk certifies the sufficiency and validity of the petition to the board of elections.

No such ordinance or measure shall go into effect until approved by the majority of those voting upon it. Sections 731.28 to 731.41 of the Revised Code do not prevent a municipal corporation, after the passage of any ordinance or other measure, from proceeding at once to give any notice or make any publication required by such ordinance or other measure.

As used in this section, "certified copy" means a copy containing a written statement attesting that it is a true and exact reproduction of the original ordinance or other measure.

46 OS(2d) 207, 346 NE(2d) 764 (1976), State ex rel Srovnal v Linton. Where the city council, under favor of the city's planning and zoning code, by resolution confirms the action of the city planning and zoning commission granting a zoning use exception as to height regulations for a hotel and office building, which exception will not, in the judgment of the commission, substantially and permanently injure the appropriate use of neighboring property, and the applicant for such use exception files notarized consents of the owners of 89.47 percent of the area of the land deemed by the commission to be immediately affected by the proposed zoning use exception, such resolution is not legislative but is an administrative act and is not subject to the referendum provisions of 731.29.

27 OS(2d) 11, 271 NE(2d) 864 (1971), Myers v Schiering. Under O Const Art II, § 1f, municipal referendum powers are limited to questions which municipalities are "authorized by law to control by legislative action," so that the passage by a city council of a resolution granting a permit for the operation of a sanitary landfill, pursuant to an existing zoning regulation, is not subject to referendum proceedings because it constitutes administrative action.

87 Abs 1, 176 NE(2d) 360 (CP Fayette 1961), Ohio Water Service Co v Washington. The legislative branch has exclusive authority to determine the existence of an emergency, whether an emergency really existed at the time when an ordinance was enacted is not subject for judicial inquiry.

55 OS(3d) 101, 564 NE(2d) 425 (1990), Rispo Realty & Development Co v Parma. A noncharter municipality may not pass a zoning ordinance that contains automatic referendum and ward veto provisions, since those provisions are in direct conflict with RC 713.12 and 731.29.

54 OS(2d) 416, 377 NE(2d) 507 (1978), State ex rel Ohio National Bank v Lancione. Referendum petitions in charter cities need not comply with 731.29 to 731.40.

46 OS(2d) 37, 346 NE(2d) 283 (1976), State ex rel Kennedy v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Municipal requirement that clerk of council determine sufficiency of referendum petition did not negate duties imposed on board of elections by 3501.11.

16 OS(2d) 63, 242 NE(2d) 576 (1968), State ex rel Janik v Bd of Elections of Lorain County. 133 OS 499, 14 NE(2d) 772 (1938), State ex rel Mitchell v Council of Milan. Referendum provisions of O Const Art XVIII, § 5 are self-executing and, as applicable to subject matter therein comprehended, govern to exclusion of those contained in this and following sections.

117 OS 258, 158 NE 606 (1927), Dillon v Cleveland. GC 4227-1 to 4227-13 (RC 731.28 to 731.41) prescribe the procedure for initiative and referendum in cities having no charter and in cities having a charter which contains no initiative and referendum provision for its own ordinances and other legislative measures.

112 OS 688, 148 NE 232 (1925), Vansuch v State ex rel Fetch. Where no action is taken, within thirty days after its passage, to challenge by referendum or otherwise, and ordinance passed as an emergency ordinance in the manner prescribed by GC 4227-3 (RC 731.30) the question of its emergency character may not afterwards be inquired into.

99 OS 17, 122 NE 39 (1918), State ex rel Kahle v Rupert. A city auditor's conclusion that a petition does not conform to this section is not final. This is to be decided by the court in a suit either to restrain the auditor from certifying or to compel him to do so.

54 App(2d) 107, 375 NE(2d) 811 (1977), Walsh v Cincinnati City Council. A city council has no authority to declare an ordinance to be an emergency measure for reasons which are obviously illusory or tautological, and where an ordinance is passed as an emergency measure and, considering all the facts and circumstances, it is not to be effective within a reasonable time, it is invalid.

49 App(2d) 28, 358 NE(2d) 1375 (1974), Stradtman v Brunswick. Under 731.29, the filing of an ordinance with the mayor is effective when such is delivered and received at the mayor's office.

13 App(2d) 46, 233 NE(2d) 600 (1967), Korn v Dunahue. No referendum is necessary to the validity of an ordinance for the sale of a municipally owned utility; any referendum that is held thereon is governed by the general provisions of O Const Art II, § 1f, and by 731.29; it is not subject to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII, § 4, 5, and 8, which pertain to the purchase of a utility.

113 App 455, 178 NE(2d) 600 (1961), State ex rel Walters v Bellevue. A petition in a mandamus or mandatory injunction action states a cause of action upon issues joined to adduce evidence in support of the allegations as to whether an ordinance sought to be subject to referendum is an emergency ordinance and subject to referendum upon showing that ten petitions filed with the city auditor constituted ten per cent of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding election in the city of Bellevue, as provided by law.

99 App 314, 133 NE(2d) 139 (1955), State ex rel Johns v Bruss. An ordinance which recites that it is an emergency measure to take effect in two weeks takes effect in thirty days because emergency ordinances must take effect immediately.

65 App 84, 29 NE(2d) 236 (1940), W.B. Gibson Co v Warren Metropolitan Housing Authority. By virtue of this section, an ordinance for rezoning land is subject to a referendum, and such an ordinance is not within the exceptions of GC 4227-3 (RC 731.30).

60 App 54, 19 NE(2d) 531 (1938), Portmann v Bd of Elections of Stark County. When a referendum has been duly called under provisions of this section, upon a municipal ordinance or other measure, a mandatory injunction will lie to require the board of deputy supervisors of elections of the county to submit the same in a form that is intelligible and not misleading, and an elector of the municipality affected may maintain such an action.

54 App 510, 8 NE(2d) 254 (1936), State ex rel Schell v Abbott. Proceedings for a referendum on legislation enacted by a village council providing for the construction, acquisition or leasing of a new utility must be taken under O Const Art XVIII, § 4, 5 and 8, but proceedings for a referendum on legislation providing for the repair or extension of an existing utility must be taken under this and following sections.

No. 3617 (9th Dist Ct App, Lorain, 10-3-84), Mlakar v Koziura. Where taxpayers seek a writ of mandamus to compel a city auditor to certify referendum proceedings under RC 731.29 on an ordinance reclassifying land from residential to business use, and where an action at law for declaratory judgment cannot provide the right to a referendum sought, mandamus lies when the ordinance is found not to be of the emergency nature claimed.

84 Abs 464, 169 NE(2d) 640 (CP Clinton 1960), State ex rel Groghan v Rulon. Emergency clause of a municipal ordinance must contain the reason for enactment of such emergency clause.

64 Abs 371, 108 NE(2d) 387 (CP Hamilton 1952), Bd of Ed of Indian Hill Exempted School District v Bd of Ed of Hamilton County; affirmed by 62 Abs 545, 108 NE(2d) 225 (App Hamilton 1952). Where annexation petitions are initiated by the freeholders of the territory, the ordinance of acceptance is the final step in the proceedings.

27 NP(NS) 497 (1929), Burns v Marietta. The question whether an emergency exists in connection with a proposed municipal improvement is one for determination by the legislative branch of the government and such an ordinance is open to review by the courts in a proper proceeding within the ninety day limit, either as to the constitutionality of the vote or the emergency character of the act.

26 NP(NS) 151 (1925), State ex rel v Lemon. The duties of a city clerk in connection with a municipal referendum petition are purely ministerial, and any action of a judicial character by him is invalid, even though subsequently confirmed by an authorized judicial inquiry.

24 NP(NS) 177 (1921), Wagner v Leipsic; affirmed by 105 OS 466, 138 NE 863 (1922), Leipsic v Wagner. A village council may pass its preliminary ordinances and serve the required notices without waiting thirty days for a referendum petition to be filed, and if such petition is not filed within thirty days, the ordinances are valid.

13 NP(NS) 281, 22 D 458 (1912), Drum v Cleveland. The Crosser Referendum Act (GC 4227-2 (RC 731.29)), that no resolution, ordinance, etc., involving expenditures, etc., shall become effective in less than sixty days after its passage, forbids advertising a sale of bonds which had received a popular vote until sixty days had elapsed after the ordinance for the issue of the bonds.

12 NP(NS) 513, 22 D 419 (1912), Postna v Lakewood. Where a village has been advanced to the grade of a city, ordinances thereupon passed creating police and fire department involve the expenditure of money, and hence are subject to the referendum of this section, and do not become effective for sixty days after passage.

OAG 71-052. Board of township trustees has duty to determine whether petitions requesting referendum on zoning amendment filed with board are valid on their face for presentation to board of elections, but does not have power to inquire into other matters respecting said petitions.

1955 OAG 6014. A municipality with less than 16,000 population which has become a registration municipal corporation by ordinance may repeal such ordinance, and such action will be effective upon publication and a lapse of thirty days.

3. Filing and signature requirements

44 OS(2d) 36, 336 NE(2d) 635 (1975), State ex rel Donahue v Bellbrook. Where a municipality is a city, 731.29 requires a referendum petition to be filed with the city auditor, or, in the absence of an official so designated, with the official who in fact performs the duties of city auditor.

42 OS(2d) 454, 329 NE(2d) 678 (1975), State ex rel Bry v Kirk. A Xerox copy was not a verified copy within the meaning of 731.32.

33 OS(2d) 13, 293 NE(2d) 290 (1973), State ex rel Perk v Cotner. Clerk of Cleveland city council may not continue to invalidate signatures on original part-petitions after expiration of ten-day period.

170 OS 1, 161 NE(2d) 488 (1959), State ex rel Mika v Lemon. Where a city does not have charter provisions fixing its own methods of initiative and referendum, a referendum petition may be filed as to an ordinance of measure, passed by the council of such city, within thirty days from the presentation of such ordinance to the mayor of the city.

166 OS 166, 140 NE(2d) 563 (1957), State ex rel Endress v Wellington. There is no legislative provision for filing supplemental petitions or adding additional signatures to a referendum petition after expiration of the time specified in 731.29.

166 OS 154, 140 NE(2d) 555 (1957), Lynn v Supple. Where the withdrawal of a signature from a municipal referendum petition is in writing and is clear and unequivocal and where the identity of the party seeking to withdraw his signature from the petition as the one who wrote that signature is established, no other formalities with respect to such withdrawal are necessary in the absence of legislation requiring them.

166 OS 154, 140 NE(2d) 555 (1957), Lynn v Supple. In the absence of statutory provisions to the contrary, an elector signing a referendum petition authorized by law has a right to withdraw his name from such petition at any time before official action has been taken thereon and before an action in mandamus has been properly commenced to compel the taking of such action, although after the time within which such petition is required by law to be filed and after it actually has been filed.

164 OS 247, 129 NE(2d) 809 (1955), Dubyak v Kovach. 731.29 provides the sole method by which a referendum petition may be filed in a municipality without its own initiative and referendum provisions, and requires that a referendum petition be filed upon any ordinance or any measure passed by a city council within thirty days from the presentation of such ordinance or other measure to the mayor of the city and makes no provision for a later filing, even though the measure is vetoed by the mayor and passed over his veto.

99 OS 17, 122 NE 39 (1918), State ex rel Kahle v Rupert. Any signer of a petition may withdraw his name at any time before official action is taken. This right is recognized in this section, by ordering filing withheld until after ten days. Though the statute is silent as to the time of filing after ten days, it must be within a reasonable time or mandamus lies. He cannot arbitrarily hold back in order to permit withdrawals of names.

22 App(2d) 190, 259 NE(2d) 754 (1970), Edward Rose of Ohio, Inc v McLaughlin. 731.28, 731.29 and 731.32 requiring that proposed ordinances and initiative or referendum petitions be filed with city auditor or village clerk are mandatory, and where city has no official named auditor, these filings must be made with auditor in fact, who performs duties of auditor.

100 App 323, 136 NE(2d) 671 (1953), Zeiher v Egger. The basis upon which the number of signatures upon a municipal initiative or referendum petition in the city of Sandusky is to be determined is the total number of votes cast for governor within such municipality at the last preceding election therefor. (GC 4227-4 and 4785-182 (RC 731.21 and 3519.22) reconciled.)

54 App 510, 8 NE(2d) 254 (1936), State ex rel Schell v Abbott. Where referendum proceedings should properly have been taken under this statute, the referendum petition must be filed with the village clerk in order to constitute a compliance with the statute, and if filed otherwise it is not a legal petition.

9 App 221 (1917), Hamilton v Greevey. The thirty days within which by this section a referendum petition shall be filed is complied with by counting from the original passage of a resolution and from a passage over the mayor's veto and not from a second filing with the mayor after passage over this veto; such second filing not being necessary.

27 NP(NS) 221 (1927), Kuertz v Union Gas & Electric Co. The time for filing a referendum petition with the city auditor under this section is computed from the date of the filing of the ordinance with the mayor and not from the date of council's re-passage or approval of the ordinance notwithstanding its disapproval by the mayor.

26 NP(NS) 151 (1925), State ex rel v Lemon. Discussion as to the right of signers of municipal referendum petitions to withdraw their signatures and to revoke such withdrawals.

OAG 79-114. An ordinance passed by a noncharter city increasing the compensation of the mayor, auditor, and director of law, which has not been enacted as emergency legislation, will not become effective until the expiration of both the ten-day period required by 731.20 and the thirty-day period required by 731.29. In a noncharter city, the date of commencement of the terms of office of the municipal officer is set by statute and may not be altered by the officers' delaying the date of taking the oath of office or the giving of bond.

1932 OAG 4351. Names may be withdrawn from a village referendum petition at any time until it has been certified by the clerk to the board of elections, even though such certification is made after the expiration of the ten day period during which the clerk must keep the petition open for public inspection.

1932 OAG 4351. Names of subscribers to a village referendum petition may be withdrawn upon the request of such subscribers, and it is not necessary that the paper bearing such requests contain any affidavit either of the signers thereof or of the circulator thereof.

4. Election

13 App(2d) 46, 233 NE(2d) 600 (1967), Korn v Dunahue. Where a referendum election has not been challenged directly by an election contest, its validity may not be collaterally attacked.

16 Misc 127, 241 NE(2d) 177 (CP Erie 1968), Sartor v Huron. There is no limitation on the number of times that ordinances may be proposed by initiative petition for the repeal of the same existing ordinance, so that a demurrer must be sustained to a petition seeking an injunction to prevent the submission of the identical issue to the voters for the second time.

93 Abs 277, 197 NE(2d) 831 (App Columbiana 1963), State ex rel Winters v Applegate. A valid set of petitions does not lose its effectiveness during the course of litigation, but remains in abeyance, for years if necessary, until the litigation is disposed of, whereupon the question presented by it must be placed on the ballot at the first opportunity, notwithstanding that the wishes of the signers may have changed in the meantime.

1963 OAG 107. The village council of Sebring cannot, by passage of resolution, place the issue of fluoridation of drinking water on the ballot.

1924 OAG 1597. The "regular election" referred to in this section and GC 4840 (RC 3375.14), means the general election held in November of any year.

731.30 Application of sections

Whenever the legislative authority of a municipal corporation is required to pass more than one ordinance or other measure to complete the legislation necessary to make and pay for any public improvement, sections 731.28 to 731.41, inclusive, of the Revised Code shall apply only to the first ordinance or other measure required to be passed and not to any subsequent ordinances and other measures relating thereto. Ordinances or other measures providing for appropriations for the current expenses of any municipal corporation, or for street improvements petitioned for by the owners of a majority of the feet front of the property benefited and to be especially assessed for the cost thereof, and emergency ordinances or measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety in such municipal corporation, shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency ordinances or measures must, upon a yea and nay vote, receive a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to the legislative authority, and the reasons for such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the ordinance or other measure.

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

27 OS(2d) 11, 271 NE(2d) 864 (1971), Myers v Schiering. Under O Const Art II, § 1f, municipal referendum powers are limited to questions which municipalities are "authorized by law to control by legislative action," so that the passage by a city council of a resolution granting a permit for the operation of a sanitary landfill, pursuant to an existing zoning regulation, is not subject to referendum proceedings because it constitutes administrative action.

24 OS(2d) 147, 265 NE(2d) 273 (1970), State ex rel Bramblette v Yordy. Provision of charter of municipal corporation that ordinances providing "for raising revenue ... shall not be subject to referendum" is constitutional as applied to ordinance levying municipal income tax, and where such charter provision exists, there is no duty on part of municipal officers to certify such income tax ordinance to board of elections for referendum vote.

18 OS(2d) 59, 247 NE(2d) 310 (1969), State ex rel Brunthaver v Bauman. 731.30 is constitutional.

92 OS 375, 110 NE 937 (1915), Shryock v Zanesville. This section, for the exemption of emergency measures of a city, from the referendum is valid and not repugnant to O Const Art II.

62 OS(3d) 130 (1991), State ex rel Moore v Abrams. The preamble of an emergency municipal ordinance which declares the city council's determination to proceed with a downtown improvement program and authorizes the mayor to advertise for bids to construct the improvement sufficiently sets forth and defines the emergency in compliance with the city's charter where it declares that immediate action is necessary because the construction season is well underway; the preamble although inarticulate is not illusory or tautological since the linkage of improvement and lateness of the construction season with the concept of emergency is not so vague as to fail to apprise the voters that their representatives do have valid reasons for the necessity of declaring that the ordinance is an emergency and therefore, a writ of mandamus to compel a city council to submit the emergency ordinance on referendum to the electors of the city at the next general election is properly denied when the city charter exempts emergency ordinances from being subject to referendum.

54 OS(2d) 416, 377 NE(2d) 507 (1978), State ex rel Ohio National Bank v Lancione. Referendum petitions in charter cities need not comply with 731.29 to 731.40.

154 OS 213, 94 NE(2d) 697 (1950), State ex rel Fostoria v King. An ordinance enacted as an emergency pursuant to the provisions of this section is not subject to referendum under the provisions of GC 4227-2 (RC 731.29) et seq.

125 OS 165, 180 NE 704 (1932), James v Ketterer. Under this section a resolution of necessity is the first measure taken by the city in the process of legislation to improve a street.

13 App(3d) 405, 13 OBR 491, 469 NE(2d) 533 (Cuyahoga 1983), State ex rel Kleem v Kafer. Where several ordinances are required to make and pay for a public improvement, RC 731.30 provides that the referendum procedure may be used only to challenge the first ordinance dealing with the improvement and not subsequent ones.

54 App(2d) 107, 375 NE(2d) 811 (1977), Walsh v Cincinnati City Council. A city council has no authority to declare an ordinance to be an emergency measure for reasons which are obviously illusory or tautological, and where an ordinance is passed as an emergency measure and, considering all the facts and circumstances, it is not to be effective within a reasonable time, it is invalid.

113 App 455, 178 NE(2d) 600 (1961), State ex rel Walters v Bellevue. A petition in a mandamus or mandatory injunction action states a cause of action upon issues joined to adduce evidence in support of the allegations as to whether an ordinance sought to be subject to referendum is an emergency ordinance and subject to referendum upon showing that ten petitions filed with the city auditor constituted ten per cent of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding election in the city of Bellevue, as provided by law.

101 App 279, 133 NE(2d) 616 (1956), Partain v Brooklyn. Even though an amendment to a zoning ordinance is adopted as an emergency measure and thereby defeats taxpayers' rights of referendum, such taxpayers cannot complain that the ordinance is invalid because of the loss of such rights, in view of the fact that such ordinance was adopted by vote of six to one.

65 App 84, 29 NE(2d) 236 (1940), W.B. Gibson Co v Warren Metropolitan Housing Authority. Where a resolution is passed by city council, authorizing and agreeing "among other things, to plan or replan, zone or rezone, any area in the city to an appropriate neighborhood classification for the construction of a housing project" and a rezoning ordinance is subsequently enacted, the resolution is not "the first ordinance or other measure" subject to referendum under this section.

19 NP(NS) 145, 26 D 344 (1916), McFarlan v Norwood; reversed by 26 CC(NS) 33, 28 CD 323 (1916). A resolution of intent is necessary before appropriating property for the extension of a street, and such extension is a public improvement under this section, subject to a referendum.

1924 OAG p 33. All actions of municipal councils are subject to the referendum excepting actions specifically exempted from such procedure by this section.

2. Effective date; emergency provision

62 OS(3d) 130 (1991), State ex rel Moore v Abrams. A municipal ordinance passed as an emergency measure is not invalid on the ground that the preamble of the ordinance omits reference to the public peace, property, health or safety where the municipal charter states that an emergency measure is an ordinance for such purposes since repeating the language in the ordinance would be redundant; stating that an emergency exists and why it was declared, which the preamble does, is sufficient.

62 OS(3d) 130 (1991), State ex rel Moore v Abrams. Where a court is faced with the issue of whether the preamble of a municipal ordinance passed as an emergency measure sufficiently sets forth and defines the emergency, the affidavits of city council members and a copy of the official minutes of the meeting at which the ordinance is passed are irrelevant to the issue of what the preamble stated since that issue is proved by examination of the preamble alone and what council members understood, believed, or even stated goes to the issue of whether an emergency really existed, which issue is unreviewable by the court.

156 OS 32, 100 NE(2d) 62 (1951), Youngstown v Aiello. Where a purported emergency ordinance enacted by the council of a municipality does not comply with this section, and therefore does not go into immediate effect and no proceeding to institute a referendum or other challenge is made until after the expiration of the time limited for such attack, such ordinance takes effect in the same manner as other regular ordinances.

156 OS 32, 100 NE(2d) 62 (1951), Youngstown v Aiello. A separate provision of an ordinance, "that this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure . . . " is ineffective to constitute the ordinance an emergency measure, where the reasons for the necessity are not announced and set forth in the emergency section.

156 OS 32, 100 NE(2d) 62 (1951), Youngstown v Aiello. The procedure of this section is mandatory, and the failure to comply with such requirements in the enactment of an ordinance, purported to be an emergency measure, prevents such ordinance from taking immediate effect.

156 OS 32, 100 NE(2d) 62 (1951), Youngstown v Aiello. "Emergency ordinances or measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety in such municipal corporation" go into immediate effect when enacted in accordance with this section.

154 OS 213, 94 NE(2d) 697 (1950), State ex rel Fostoria v King. The duty and responsibility of determining the emergency and the necessity that a measure go into immediate effect and of giving reasons for such necessity are placed by this section in the council or other body corresponding to the council of a municipality; such a determination by a municipal council and the soundness of the reasons stated by such council for such necessity are not subject to review by the courts.

126 OS 496, 186 NE 99 (1933), Holcomb v State ex rel Coney. The duty and responsibility of determining the emergency and the necessity that a measure go into immediate effect are confided to the legislative branch of government. If the prescribed procedure for enactment thereof is followed, such measure goes into effect immediately upon its passage.

112 OS 688, 148 NE 232 (1925), Vansuch v State ex rel Fetch. For the purpose of adjusting the finances of a municipality so as to enable it to live within its income, the council may by an emergency ordinance provide for the discharge of employees under civil service without violation of the civil service law.

62 App(3d) 498, 576 NE(2d) 814 (Montgomery 1990), State ex rel Emrick v Wasson. A provision of a municipal ordinance that "this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Germantown, and for the reason that immediate action is required . . . and shall take effect immediately upon its passage . . ." is ineffective to constitute an emergency measure when the city council in passing the ordinance has not followed the provisions of its city charter and announced in clear and specific terms the nature of the emergency and the necessity of the action taken.

99 App 314, 133 NE(2d) 139 (1955), State ex rel Johns v Bruss. An ordinance which recites that it is an emergency measure to take effect in two weeks takes effect in thirty days because emergency ordinances must take effect immediately. (Disapproved in State ex rel Lipovsky v Kizak, 15 OS(2d) 27, 238 NE(2d) 777 (1968), as stated in Walsh v Cincinnati City Council, 54 App(2d) 107, 375 NE(2d) 811 (1977).)

95 App 259, 119 NE(2d) 105 (1953), Brunner v Rhodes. An emergency regulation prescribed by a city board of health, which is expressly declared to be an emergency regulation and which recites the reasons for the emergency and requires the conclusion that conditions endangering public health exist and receives the vote of all but one of the board members, is not rendered invalid by reason of the fixing of its effective date more than one month after its enactment, but regulation which does not meet the requirements of an emergency measure and is not published is invalid.

95 App 259, 119 NE(2d) 105 (1953), Brunner v Rhodes. Orders and regulations prescribed by a city board of health and intended for the general public must be adopted, advertised, recorded and certified as are municipal ordinances, and in adopting emergency regulations intended for the general public a city board of health is relieved of the necessity of advertising, recording and certifying such regulations, but such board is not relieved from the requirement that such regulations otherwise shall be adopted as are ordinances.

36 App 434, 173 NE 309 (1930), Newcomerstown v State ex rel Blatt. Ordinance diminishing salary of village marshal, though termed emergency ordinance, could not be emergency ordinance contemplated by this section.

No. C-830674 (1st Dist Ct App, Hamilton, 1-11-84), Cincinnati ex rel Newberry v Brush. An emergency ordinance which declares that a bond issue is needed to provide orderly financing of certain improvements states valid legislative reasons for passage of the ordinance as an emergency measure.

29 Misc(2d) 15, 29 OBR 284, 504 NE(2d) 1227 (CP, Clermont 1984), Moscow v Moscow Village Council. A statement within an ordinance that it is "deemed an emergency for the preservation of the public health and welfare of said village because outstanding public funds must be properly placed in the immediate future" is insufficient to create an emergency ordinance because the reasons given are conclusory statements without factual support since the ordinance was enacted prior to the adoption of annual appropriation measures pursuant to county certification.

30 Misc 49, 284 NE(2d) 210 (CP Medina 1972), Tamele v Brinkman. 709.10 insofar as it provides for an effective date of an annexation ordinance, is in irreconcilable conflict with 731.30, and, to the extent of conflict, 709.10, having been enacted by general assembly at a more recent date than 731.30, prevails.

87 Abs 1, 176 NE(2d) 360 (CP Fayette 1961), Ohio Water Service Co v Washington. The legislative branch has exclusive authority to determine the existence of an emergency; whether an emergency really existed at the time when an ordinance was enacted is not subject for judicial inquiry.

84 Abs 464, 169 NE(2d) 640 (CP Clinton 1960), State ex rel Groghan v Rulon. Emergency clause of a municipal ordinance must contain the reason for enactment of such emergency clause.

77 Abs 52, 146 NE(2d) 178 (CP Cuyahoga 1957), Miller v Cleveland. Under the Cleveland charter where an attempt to adopt an ordinance as an emergency measure fails, the ordinance is not invalid but becomes effective in the same manner as other regular ordinances.

73 Abs 481, 138 NE(2d) 180 (CP Cuyahoga 1955), Partain v Brooklyn; affirmed by 101 App 279, 133 NE(2d) 616 (1956). Where an ordinance is passed as an emergency measure by the required vote, and the emergency is recited in the ordinance, the validity of the emergency is not subject to attack, and where the period within which a referendum petition might have been filed has expired, the ordinance is immune from attack.

66 Abs 300, 113 NE(2d) 601 (App Mahoning 1952), State ex rel Geletka v Campbell. Where a zoning ordinance of a city was declared invalid by a court and the same day the city council published a thirty day notice of a public hearing on a new zoning ordinance, which ordinance was subsequently adopted with a purported emergency clause which did not set forth the reason for the emergency, an applicant for a building permit in the interim was entitled to a writ of mandamus ordering the issuance of such permit denied solely on a basis of non-compliance with the zoning ordinances.

24 Abs 696 (App Mahoning 1937), Goodman v Youngstown. Language of this section as well as constitutional provision specifically requires that reasons for necessity shall be set forth in one section of ordinance and mere statement that ordinance is necessary for preservation of public peace, health and safety is but a conclusion of council, without statement of any reason therefor and where ordinance has not been adopted pursuant to requirements of this section it is for that reason invalid, and operation thereof must be enjoined.

1946 OAG 691. Ordinances providing for appropriations for current expenses of a municipal corporation, or for street improvements petitioned for by owners of majority of feet front of property benefited and to be especially assessed for cost thereof, and emergency ordinances or measures necessary for immediate preservation of public peace, health or safety, go into immediate effect as provided in section, notwithstanding provisions of GC 4230 (RC 731.23) requiring their publication.

1930 OAG 1547. This section repealed by implication insofar as it is inconsistent with GC 4785-175 (RC 3519.01) et seq.

1927 OAG 1009. Ordinances and measures enacted in the course of the legislation for a municipal improvement subsequent to the resolution of necessity therefor may be passed as emergency measures under authority of this section when in the sound judgment of council such emergency exists, and such ordinances or measures so passed do not require publication.

3. Petition; voting procedure

15 OS(2d) 27, 238 NE(2d) 777 (1968), State ex rel Lipovsky v Kizak. A mandamus action to require the clerk of a village council to certify a referendum petition directed against a village ordinance to a county board of elections will not lie, where the ordinance was duly passed as an emergency measure by the required number of votes of the members of the village council, and the provisions of 731.30 were substantially complied with, and the fact that the actual operation of the ordinance in the collection of an income tax was delayed for a short period of time (twenty days) is immaterial.

125 OS 165, 180 NE 704 (1932), James v Ketterer. When, in connection with the proposed improvement of a city street under the general laws of the state, the resolution of necessity is proposed by an initiative petition containing the requisite number of signers, is submitted to the voters of the city for approval and is approved by such voters, the law relative to initiative and referendum shall have no application to subsequent ordinances or other measures relating thereto. A referendum petition addressed to the ordinance to proceed with such improvement, passed immediately after the approval of the resolution of necessity, cannot be entertained.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. Unless authorized by its charter, a city council has no power to limit the right of initiative reserved to the electorate on grounds of unconstitutionality, and if the petition is in proper form and contains sufficient signatures, the city's duty is to certify the initiative ordinance to the board of elections so that it can be placed on the ballot.

84 Abs 464, 169 NE(2d) 640 (CP Clinton 1960), State ex rel Groghan v Rulon. Strict compliance with 731.17, 731.19, and 731.30 is mandatory, and "carried by full yea vote" in the clerk's record does not comply therewith.

731.31 Presentation of petition; effective date of ordinances

Any initiative or referendum petition may be presented in separate parts, but each part of any initiative petition shall contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the proposed ordinance or other measure, and each part of any referendum petition shall contain the number and a full and correct copy of the title of the ordinance or other measure sought to be referred. Each signer of any such petition must be an elector of the municipal corporation in which the election, upon the ordinance or measure proposed by such initiative petition, or the ordinance or measure referred to by such referendum petition, is to be held. Petitions shall be governed in all other respects by the rules set forth in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code. In determining the validity of any such petition, all signatures which are found to be irregular shall be rejected, but no petition shall be declared invalid in its entirety when one or more signatures are found to be invalid except when the number of valid signatures is found to be less than the total number required by this section.

The petitions and signatures upon such petitions shall be prima facie presumed to be in all respects sufficient. No ordinance or other measure submitted to the electors of any municipal corporation, and receiving an affirmative majority of the votes cast thereon, shall be held ineffective or void on account of the insufficiency of the petitions by which such submission of the ordinance or measure was procured, nor shall the rejection, by a majority of the votes cast thereon, of any ordinance or other measure submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation, be held invalid for such insufficiency.

Ordinances proposed by initiative petition and referendums receiving an affirmative majority of the votes cast thereon, shall become effective on the fifth day after the day on which the board of elections certifies the official vote on such question.

61 OS(3d) 595, 575 NE(2d) 835 (1991), State ex rel Esch v Lake County Bd of Elections. Strict compliance with the provisions of RC 731.31 is required; therefore, an initiative petition failing to include a title for the ordinance proposed by the petition must be rejected by the board of elections as noncomplying.

48 OS(2d) 29, 356 NE(2d) 716 (1976), State ex rel Evergreen Co v Bd of Elections of Franklin County. Referendum petitions were invalid where the statement of the notary public thereon recited only that the petition was acknowledged, even though the circulator's affidavit asserted he was duly sworn.

44 OS(2d) 33, 336 NE(2d) 849 (1975), State ex rel Barton v Butler County Bd of Elections. An initiative question may not be placed on the ballot where the petition therefor failed to include a statement of the circulator, made under penalty of election falsification, that he witnessed the affixing of every signature thereto.

12 OS(2d) 13, 231 NE(2d) 61 (1967), State ex rel Buchanon v Stillman. Where a board of elections has checked the signatures on petitions and determined that there are a sufficient number thereof that are valid, it may determine that such petitions are valid if the only protest against the petitions is based solely upon the failure of the circulator's affidavit to state "that all signers were to the best of his knowledge and belief qualified to sign."

175 OS 257, 193 NE(2d) 517 (1963), State ex rel Abrams v Bachrach. Omission from the affidavit of the circulator of an initiative petition of the statement that the signers signed with knowledge of the contents thereof invalidates the petition.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. Where an initiative petition is captioned "Petition of Electors of the City of Cincinnati," a part petition containing an affidavit which recites that such part petition contains the signatures of a specified number of "electors" is not rendered defective by the fact alone that the affidavit does not also recite that such electors are electors of the city of Cincinnati.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. In ascertaining the number of valid signatures on an initiative petition, the number of signatures actually found to be invalid, after a complete and final examination, is deducted from the total number of signatures on the entire petition, and any signatures which, for any reason, have not been examined are presumed to be valid.

166 OS 154, 140 NE(2d) 555 (1957), Lynn v Supple. Under 731.31 it is essential to the validity of a signature on a petition of an elector of a municipality where registrations are by precincts that such signature be followed by the correct precinct of the signer.

132 OS 477, 9 NE(2d) 148 (1937), State ex rel Poor v Addison. In a registration city, on an initiative petition, a signature not followed by the ward and precinct of the signer does not comply with this section, and cannot be held to be a valid and sufficient signature.

103 OS 286, 133 NE 556 (1921), Cincinnati v Hillenbrand. An initiative petition which includes a correct copy of the title and text of a proposed ordinance is sufficient to authorize the submission thereof to the people if the requirements of the statute in other respects are complied with.

65 App(2d) 160, 416 NE(2d) 626 (1979), State ex rel Hirsch v Lorain County Bd of Elections. 731.31 and 3501.38 require that each part of an initiative petition circulated separately shall contain an affidavit of the person soliciting the signatures stating (1) the number who signed each part, (2) his belief that the signatures are the genuine signatures of the persons whose names they purport to be, and (3) his belief that the signers are qualified to sign. The required affidavit cannot be supplied after filing.

65 App(2d) 160, 416 NE(2d) 626 (1979), State ex rel Hirsch v Lorain County Bd of Elections. An initiative petition to repeal and amend a section of the North Ridgeville zoning code must comply with 731.31, 3501.38 and § 13.4 of the charter of the city of North Ridgeville.

65 App(2d) 160, 416 NE(2d) 626 (1979), State ex rel Hirsch v Lorain County Bd of Elections. 731.31 and § 13.4 of the charter of the city of North Ridgeville require that any part of an initiative petition which is circulated separately must contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the proposed ordinance.

59 App(2d) 175, 392 NE(2d) 1302 (1978), State ex rel Watkins v Quirk. The power of a municipal clerk of council to ascertain the sufficiency of a referendum petition is not co-extensive with that of a board of elections under 3501.11(K), and he possesses no judicial or quasi-judicial power in this regard, but is limited to an examination of the face of the petition.

50 App(2d) 1, 361 NE(2d) 477 (1976), State ex rel Schultz v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 48 OS(2d) 173, 357 NE(2d) 1079 (1976). The requirements for referendum petitions under 519.12 are: (a) the petition must contain the number and a full and correct title of the zoning resolution; (b) the petition must contain the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures for the petition certifying that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief each of the signatures is that of the person whose name it purports to be, that he believes such persons are electors of the township, and that such persons signed the petition with knowledge of its contents; and (c) if the petition contains any additional information it must be of such a character as to promote the attempt to fairly and accurately present the question or issue and must not in any way detract from a free, intelligent and informed choice by the average citizen who is requested to make a decision as to whether he should or should not sign such a petition.

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. A so-called "initiative petition" which does not propose any text of any ordinance or other measure and proposes no enactment, but merely seeks to have a municipal council embark on a course of conduct and contains no detail or direction as to how the proposed conduct should be undertaken or from which could be construed as legislation, is ineffective and does not constitute any "question" proposed by such "petition."

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. The word "certify," in 731.28 requires more than an intention or a verbal expression of an intention; it requires something, however informal, in writing, which is a communication of record to be construed and accepted by the board as a request to place an issue before the electors, and a letter from the city auditor requesting the board of elections to check the signatures on a petition is not such a certification.

100 App 323, 136 NE(2d) 671 (1953), Zeiher v Egger. The basis upon which the number of signatures upon a municipal initiative or referendum petition in the city of Sandusky is to be determined is the total number of votes cast for governor within such municipality at the last preceding election therefor. (GC 4227-4 and 4785-182 (RC 731.31 and 3519.22) reconciled.)

20 App 135, 153 NE 155 (1925), Hocking Power Co v Harrison. A municipal referendum petition is not rendered invalid by the failure of the signers to write after their names the name of the city, where the petition shows on its face that those signing it are residents of such city.

14 App 398, 32 CC(NS) 145 (1921), Ohio Valley Electric Railway Co v Hagerty. The petition for a referendum must comply strictly with the requirements of this section. The requirement that the solicitor of signatures in his affidavit shall state that the electors signed with knowledge of the contents thereof is mandatory, and, if omitted, the referendum election will be enjoined.

14 App 398, 32 CC(NS) 145 (1921), Ohio Valley Electric Railway Co v Hagerty. Statute requiring each part of a petition for a municipal referendum to contain an affidavit that the petitioning electors signed such petition with knowledge of the contents thereof is mandatory.

9 App 221 (1917), Hamilton v Greevey. Signatures to a referendum petition to a resolution of council before the mayor's veto and before passage over the veto are not too early. This section, requiring the signer to state the date of signing, does not require any particular date.

No. 90-L-15-128 (11th Dist Ct App, Lake, 10-31-90), State ex rel Esch v Lake County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 61 OS(3d) 595 (1991). The requirement of a full and correct copy of the title for the petition is mandatory and must be strictly complied with.

No. 87-C-54 (7th Dist Ct App, Columbiana, 11-1-88), Waste Technologies Industries v Columbiana County Bd of Elections. An initiative petition presented pursuant to RC 731.31 will not be declared invalid absent flagrant or fraudulent noncompliance with the requirements of the statute.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. An initiative petition of a zoning ordinance does not fail to comply with the requirement of 731.31 that it contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the ordinance, by its failure to include a copy of the map or any more reference to it than the letter designation of the several areas thereon.

93 Abs 277, 197 NE(2d) 831 (App Columbiana 1963), State ex rel Winters v Applegate. That on initiative petitions certain signatures of husband and wife appeared in the same handwriting was not a ground for invalidating the entire petition.

75 Abs 444, 134 NE(2d) 93 (App Cuyahoga 1956), Lynn v Supple. Failure to include the signer's precinct or inclusion of the wrong precinct on a referendum petition invalidates the signature.

75 Abs 444, 134 NE(2d) 93 (App Cuyahoga 1956), Lynn v Supple. The signature of the signer of a referendum petition who has moved and inserts his new address and precinct but has not made such change with the board of elections is invalid.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). No signature to an initiative petition can be rejected without a finding of its invalidity, and a finding means that there must be some final determination, after examination, that the signature is infected with some plausible legal defect.

26 NP(NS) 151 (1925), State ex rel v Lemon. A part of a municipal referendum petition is invalid and must be rejected if the affidavit thereto is not sworn to by the person who circulated it, or where there was a wholesale procuring of names in the confusion and distraction of a holiday crowd where it was impossible for the solicitor truthfully to make oath that to the best of his knowledge and belief the persons who signed did so with knowledge of the contents; or where the signers were known to the solicitor not to be electors of the city; or where the names were signed by others than the persons whose names were so written, unless signing was in the presence of and with the knowledge of and at the direction of the persons whose names were so written, though the solicitor may properly fill in other data, such as street addresses, etc.

26 NP(NS) 151 (1925), State ex rel v Lemon. Validity of a municipal referendum petition, or part of it, depends upon the existence and sufficiency of the accompanying affidavit, and this affidavit must show that each of the signatures attached to such part was made in the presence of the affiant.

1932 OAG 4351. A board of elections has the right to canvass signatures on a village referendum petition, and it is not required to submit the ordinance or other measure to the electors of the municipality for their approval or rejection if signatures on such petition are insufficient.

1932 OAG 4351. While there is no express authority for the village clerk to certify withdrawals from such a petition to the board of elections, where such certification has been made, such board would have the right to consider them along with petition and if signatures to the petition are insufficient by reason of such withdrawals, or for any other valid reason, it would not be required to submit the ordinance or other measure to the electors of the municipality.

731.32 Certified copy of proposed ordinance or measure filed with auditor or clerk

Whoever seeks to propose an ordinance or measure in a municipal corporation by initiative petition or files a referendum petition against any ordinance or measure shall, before circulating such petition, file a certified copy of the proposed ordinance or measure with the city auditor or the village clerk.

As used in this section, "certified copy" means a copy containing a written statement attesting that it is a true and exact reproduction of the original proposed ordinance or measure or of the original ordinance or measure.

62 OS(3d) 174 (1991), State ex rel Shaw v Lynch. A city's clerk of council is relieved of any duty to certify and deliver referendum petitions on two proposed zoning ordinances to the county board of elections before the next general election where only substantial compliance with former RC 731.32 is achieved through the filing of "full and accurate" copies of the ordinances with the clerk and the city finance director rather than certified or verified copies of the ordinances; therefore, a writ of mandamus to compel the certification of the petitions by the clerk of council will be denied.

62 OS(3d) 174 (1991), State ex rel Shaw v Lynch. A city clerk of council is not estopped from asserting a party's noncompliance with former RC 731.32, which requires the filing of certified or verified copies of an ordinance, on the grounds that she led them to believe that "full and accurate" copies would be sufficient.

62 OS(3d) 174 (1991), State ex rel Shaw v Lynch. A city's clerk of council's rejection of referendum petitions on two proposed zoning ordinances for lack of verification required by former RC 731.32 is not improper on the ground that compliance with RC 731.32 is a quasi-judicial determination that is exclusively within the province of the board of elections, since the absence of verification or certification constitutes a procedural inadequacy and a city council has the authority to review petitions for procedural inadequacies, and the city charter gives the responsibility to review the sufficiency of referendum petitions to the city clerk of council.

62 OS(3d) 167 (1991), State ex rel Citizens for a Better Beachwood v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. A board of elections properly applies RC 731.32 in invalidating a referendum petition challenging a zoning ordinance and refusing to hold a referendum election where a verified copy of the ordinance has not been filed with the city auditor before circulation of the referendum petition, and although the city charter is silent on the requirement of RC 731.32 that copies of ordinances be filed with the city auditor, it expressly requires application of any state statute except where a contrary intent appears in the city's local law which makes RC 731.32 applicable and RC 731.41 inapplicable; thus, a request for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to refer the zoning ordinance to voters at the next general election will be denied.

63 OS(2d) 333, 410 NE(2d) 1253 (1980), State ex rel Hirshler v Frazier. A copy of an ordinance that is certified rather than verified meets the requirements of 731.32.

46 OS(2d) 37, 346 NE(2d) 283 (1976), State ex rel Kennedy v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Municipal requirement that clerk of council determine sufficiency of referendum petition did not negate duties imposed on board of elections by 3501.11.

42 OS(2d) 454, 329 NE(2d) 678 (1975), State ex rel Bry v Kirk. A Xerox copy was not a verified copy within the meaning of 731.32.

6 OS(2d) 1, 215 NE(2d) 592 (1966), State ex rel Nimon v Springdale. Where the charter of a municipal corporation provides for certain features of the initiative and referendum differing from the statutory provisions with relation thereto, and provides further that "all other matters relating to the question of the exercise of the power of referendum shall be regulated by the provisions of the Revised Code of Ohio relating to referendum petitions," but is silent with respect to language to be contained on a referendum petition or with respect to filing such petition with a village official prior to its circulation, such matters are controlled by 731.32 and 731.33, and 731.41 is inapplicable.

170 OS 1, 161 NE(2d) 488 (1959), State ex rel Mika v Lemon. The requirement of 731.32 that whoever seeks to propose an ordinance in a municipal corporation by initiative petition or files a referendum petition against any ordinance shall before circulating such petition file a verified copy of the proposed ordinance or measure with the city auditor or village clerk, is mandatory, and in the absence of compliance therewith no duty falls upon the city clerk to receive and file with the board of elections a referendum petition otherwise valid.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. The provisions of 731.28 and 731.32 relative to the filing of an initiative petition with the city auditor or village clerk and to the certification of the ordinance or measure by such auditor or clerk to the board of elections do not apply to an initiative petition to amend a city charter, filed pursuant to O Const Art XVIII, § 9.

59 App(2d) 175, 392 NE(2d) 1302 (1978), State ex rel Watkins v Quirk. A municipal clerk of council does have authority to invalidate all signatures affixed to referendum part-petitions circulated in violation of 731.32.

22 App(2d) 190, 259 NE(2d) 754 (1970), Edward Rose of Ohio, Inc v McLaughlin. 731.28, 731.29 and 731.32 requiring that proposed ordinances and initiative or referendum petitions be filed with city auditor or village clerk are mandatory, and where city has no official named auditor, these filings must be made with auditor in fact, who performs duties of auditor.

20 App 135, 153 NE 155 (1925), Hocking Power Co v Harrison. The filing of a copy of an ordinance certified as true by the clerk of the council is a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this section as to filing a copy of the ordinance against which the referendum is invoked.

No. 90CA004798 (9th Dist Ct App, Lorain, 11-21-90), State ex rel Shaw v Lynch. A writ of mandamus to compel certification and delivery of initiative petitions to a board of elections for submission to a vote by electors will be denied where verified copies of the proposed ordinances, as required by RC 731.32, are not included with the notice of intent to circulate petitions.

93 Abs 277, 197 NE(2d) 831 (App Columbiana 1963), State ex rel Winters v Applegate. The filing of a verified copy of a proposed ordinance complies with 731.32.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). A failure to comply with the requirements of 731.32 that a copy of a petition be filed with the city auditor (or finance director) before the petition is circulated for signatures does not invalidate the petition.

31 NP(NS) 171 (1933), Hopkins v Marburger. This statute is mandatory and before an ordinance may be initiated, the following steps are essential: a. the ordinance to be submitted must be filed with the auditor; b. it must upon its face bear the statement of someone that it is the very ordinance which is to be submitted to the electors; c. the right to initiate an ordinance is personal and the copy filed must bear the name of some person who sponsors it.

31 NP(NS) 171 (1933), Hopkins v Marburger. Depositing a copy of an ordinance in the city auditor's office without formally filing the same, which does not bear the verification of any person upon its face nor the certificate of anyone thereon, is not a substantial compliance with the statute even though it be deposited there before the petitions are circulated and it be a true copy of the ordinance with regard to which initiative vote is desired.

731.33 Words which shall be printed in red

At the top of each part of the petition mentioned in section 731.32 of the Revised Code, the following words shall be printed in red:

NOTICE.

Whoever knowingly signs this petition more than once, signs a name other than his own, or signs when not a legal voter is liable to prosecution.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

6 OS(2d) 1, 215 NE(2d) 592 (1966), State ex rel Nimon v Springdale. Where the charter of a municipal corporation provides for certain features of the initiative and referendum differing from the statutory provisions with relation thereto, and provides further that "all other matters relating to the question of the exercise of the power of referendum shall be regulated by the provisions of the Revised Code of Ohio relating to referendum petitions," but is silent with respect to language to be contained on a referendum petition or with respect to filing such petition with a village official prior to its circulation, such matters are controlled by 731.32 and 731.33, and 731.41 is inapplicable.

15 App(2d) 222, 240 NE(2d) 871 (1968), Cloud v Bd of Elections of Clark County. Where a petition has been filed with the legislative authority of a municipality requesting the passage of an ordinance submitting a proposed charter amendment to the electorate, and the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by unanimous vote of its members, no inquiry may thereafter be made into the form, substance or sufficiency of such petition.

731.34 Designation of committee filing petition; procedures

The petitioners may designate in any initiative or referendum petition a committee of not less than three of their number, who shall be regarded as filing the petition. After a petition has been filed with the city auditor or village clerk it shall be kept open for public inspection for ten days. If, after a petition proposing an ordinance or other measure has been filed with such auditor or clerk, the proposed ordinance or other measure, or a substitute for the proposed ordinance or measure approved by such committee, is passed by the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, the majority of the committee shall notify the board of elections in writing and such proposed ordinance or measure shall not be submitted to a vote of the electors.

If, after a verified referendum petition has been filed against any ordinance or measure, the legislative authority of the municipal corporation repeals such ordinance or measure, or it is held to be invalid, the board of elections shall not submit such ordinance or measure to a vote of the electors.

6 OS(3d) 344, 6 OBR 399, 453 NE(2d) 644 (1983), State ex rel Lemaitre v Clyde. An ordinance granting power to city manager to adjust water and sewage rates could not be passed as an emergency measure.

174 OS 15, 185 NE(2d) 762 (1962), State ex rel Tester v Bd of Elections of Ottawa County. The council of a noncharter village can prevent the village electorate from voting to approve or reject an ordinance, which was not passed as an emergency ordinance and on which a valid referendum petition has been duly filed, by passing at one session after the filing of the referendum petition two consecutive emergency ordinances, one to repeal the ordinance under referendum and the other to reenact substantially the same ordinance as repealed; and it can do that although the sole purpose of council in passing the two new ordinances is to prevent a vote by the electorate on the legislation contained in the ordinance with respect to which the referendum petition was filed.

99 App 415, 119 NE(2d) 644 (1954), Heidtman v Shaker Heights; affirmed by 163 OS 109, 126 NE(2d) 138 (1955). Where the circulators of an initiative petition seeking enactment of an ordinance to establish the three-platoon system in the fire department had complied with all applicable provisions of the city charter and the laws of the state of Ohio, the city council had the clear duty to declare such petition sufficient and at once have the proposed ordinance read and referred to the applicable committee, and the rejection of the petition as insufficient by the council was an abuse of discretion.

22 Misc 5, 255 NE(2d) 880 (CP Cuyahoga 1969), Storegard v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. 731.34 requires that the initiative petition be kept open for public inspection only at such times as the office of the city clerk is open by law during ten consecutive days.

22 Misc 5, 255 NE(2d) 880 (CP Cuyahoga 1969), Storegard v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. The requirement of 731.34 that an initiative petition be kept open for public inspection for ten days does not indicate that this period of inspection must be completed before the certification of the petition to the board of elections pursuant to 731.28.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. Where an initiative petition is removed from the city auditor's office for the purpose of comparing names with those on registration lists at the board of elections, and so were not open for public inspection during such time, the auditor may not certify the ordinance to the board of elections until after the petition has been actually open for inspection for the required period.

16 Misc 211, 240 NE(2d) 896 (CP Cuyahoga 1968), Drockton v Bd of Elections of Cuyahoga County. 731.34, requiring that an initiative petition be kept open for public inspection for ten days, and 731.28, which states that its certification to the board of elections shall be made "after ten days," must be read in pari materia, which results in the intention of the latter section being clearly that the certification may not lawfully occur earlier than the eleventh day after the filing of the petition in the auditor's office.

67 Abs 132, 115 NE(2d) 429 (CP Cuyahoga 1953), Russell v Linton. Where a petition for an initiative election is filed and an action is thereafter filed seeking to enjoin the certification by the clerk to the board of elections, the initiating committee may properly become a new party defendant.

27 NP(NS) 221 (1927), Kuertz v Union Gas & Electric Co. The enactment of a contractual rate ordinance and the acceptance of same by the company constitutes a contract which cannot be impaired by council enacting an ordinance repealing the same after the referendum period has expired.

26 NP(NS) 151 (1925), State ex rel v Lemon. Discussion as to the right of signers of municipal referendum petitions to withdraw their signatures and to revoke such withdrawals.

731.35 Sworn itemized statement by circulator of petition

(A) The circulator of an initiative or referendum petition, or his agent, shall, within five days after such petition is filed with the city auditor or village clerk, file an itemized statement, made under penalty of election falsification, showing in detail:

(1) All moneys or things of value paid, given, or promised for circulating such petition;

(2) Full names and addresses of all persons to whom such payments or promises were made;

(3) Full names and addresses of all persons who contributed anything of value to be used in circulating such petitions;

(4) Time spent and salaries earned while circulating or soliciting signatures to petitions by persons who were regular salaried employees of some person who authorized them to solicit signatures for or circulate the petition as a part of their regular duties.

(B) The statement provided for in division (A) of this section shall not be required from persons who take no other part in circulating a petition than signing declarations to parts of the petition and soliciting signatures to them.

(C) Such statement shall be open to public inspection for a period of one year.

56 App(3d) 139, 565 NE(2d) 839 (Summit 1988), State ex rel Quist v Spraggins. Compliance with RC 731.35 is not a condition precedent to the validity of the referendum petition.

120 App 189, 201 NE(2d) 721 (1963), Gem Development Co v Clymer. A referendum petition directed to a city ordinance passed as an emergency measure providing for annexation of territory is not nullified because a sworn itemized statement was not filed within five days after the petition was filed by circulators who took no part in circulating petitions other than making affidavits to parts of the petition and soliciting signatures.

731.36 Prohibited practices relative to petitions

No person shall, directly or indirectly:

(A) Willfully misrepresent the contents of any initiative or referendum petition;

(B) Pay or offer to pay any elector anything of value for signing an initiative or referendum petition;

(C) Promise to help another person to obtain appointment to any office provided for by the constitution or laws of this state or by the ordinances of any municipal corporation, or to any position or employment in the service of the state or any political subdivision thereof as a consideration for obtaining signatures to an initiative or referendum petition;

(D) Obtain signatures to any initiative or referendum petition as a consideration for the assistance or promise of assistance of another person in securing an appointment to any office or position provided for by the constitution or laws of this state or by the ordinance of any municipal corporation therein, or employment in the service of the state or any subdivision thereof;

(E) Alter, add to, or erase any signatures or names on the parts of a petition after such parts have been filed with the city auditor or village clerk;

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

24 OS(2d) 147, 265 NE(2d) 273 (1970), State ex rel Bramblette v Yordy. Provision of charter of municipal corporation that ordinances providing "for raising revenue ... shall not be subject to referendum" is constitutional as applied to ordinance levying municipal income tax, and where such charter provision exists, there is no duty on part of municipal officers to certify such income tax ordinance to board of elections for referendum vote.

117 OS 258, 158 NE 606 (1927), Dillon v Cleveland. GC 4227-12 (RC 731.41) is not unconstitutional by reason of its recognition of the two classes of charter and noncharter municipalities.

No. CA 9368 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 7-28-86), State ex rel Lucas v Stivers. A provision of a charter of a municipal corporation that ordinances "relating to the appropriation of money" shall not be subject to initiative is constitutional.

62 OS(3d) 167 (1991), State ex rel Citizens for a Better Beachwood v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. A board of elections properly applies RC 731.32 in invalidating a referendum petition challenging a zoning ordinance and refusing to hold a referendum election where a verified copy of the ordinance has not been filed with the city auditor before circulation of the referendum petition, and although the city charter is silent on the requirement of RC 731.32 that copies of ordinances be filed with the city auditor, it expressly requires application of any state statute except where a contrary intent appears in the city's local law which makes RC 731.32 applicable and RC 731.41 inapplicable; thus, a request for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to refer the zoning ordinance to voters at the next general election will be denied.

66 OS(2d) 448, 423 NE(2d) 72 (1981), State ex rel Madison v Cotner. 731.41 excludes municipalities which have adopted charter provisions for referenda and initiatives from compliance with 731.28 through 731.41.

66 OS(2d) 448, 423 NE(2d) 72 (1981), State ex rel Madison v Cotner. 3501.38 has no applicability to petitions which are subject to compliance with the requirements of city charters.

54 OS(2d) 416, 377 NE(2d) 507 (1978), State ex rel Ohio National Bank v Lancione. Referendum petitions in charter cities need not comply with 731.29 to 731.40.

6 OS(2d) 1, 215 NE(2d) 592 (1966), State ex rel Nimon v Springdale. Where the charter of a municipal corporation provides for certain features of the initiative and referendum differing from the statutory provisions with relation thereto, and provides further that "all other matters relating to the question of the exercise of the power of referendum shall be regulated by the provisions of the Revised Code of Ohio relating to referendum petitions," but is silent with respect to language to be contained on a referendum petition or with respect to filing such petition with a village official prior to its circulation, such matters are controlled by 731.32 and 731.33, and 731.41 is inapplicable.

164 OS 247, 129 NE(2d) 809 (1955), Dubyak v Kovach. 731.29 provides the sole method by which a referendum petition may be filed in a municipality without its own initiative and referendum provisions, and requires that a referendum petition be filed upon any ordinance or any measure passed by a city council within thirty days from the presentation of such ordinance or other measure to the mayor of the city and makes no provision for a later filing, even though the measure is vetoed by the mayor and passed over his veto.

125 OS 165, 180 NE 704 (1932), James v Ketterer. If a city charter contains initiative and referendum provisions for ordinances, the city could not proceed either way it chose in the matter of street improvements, that is to say, under the charter or the general law. It would have to follow the charter.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. A charter city's own initiative and referendum provisions prevail over RC 731.28 which deals with ordinances and measures proposed by initiative petition, as expressly provided in RC 731.41.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. Unless authorized by its charter, a city council has no power to limit the right of initiative reserved to the electorate on grounds of unconstitutionality, and if the petition is in proper form and contains sufficient signatures, the city's duty is to certify the initiative ordinance to the board of elections so that it can be placed on the ballot.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. A city charter's initiative provisions must be liberally construed in favor of the power reserved to the electorate so as to permit rather than to obstruct its exercise and to promote the object sought.

63 App(3d) 728 (Hamilton 1989), State ex rel Bond v Montgomery. The constitutionality of an initiative ordinance can be judicially determined only after its enactment and therefore, a court will not interfere with the legislative process by mandamus to block enactment of an ordinance because of claims that it is unconstitutional.

59 App(2d) 175, 392 NE(2d) 1302 (1978), State ex rel Watkins v Quirk. The power of a municipal clerk of council to ascertain the sufficiency of a referendum petition is not co-extensive with that of a board of elections under 3501.11(K), and he possesses no judicial or quasi-judicial power in this regard, but is limited to an examination of the face of the petition.

15 App(2d) 222, 240 NE(2d) 871 (1968), Cloud v Bd of Elections of Clark County. Where a petition has been filed with the legislative authority of a municipality requesting the passage of an ordinance submitting a proposed charter amendment to the electorate, and the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by unanimous vote of its members, no inquiry may thereafter be made into the form, substance or sufficiency of such petition.

9 Abs 646, 34 LR 257 (App Cuyahoga 1931), Ferguson v Wiegand. Where the charter of a charter city provides that ordinances may be initiated for the purpose of repealing, in whole or in part, existing ordinances, and ordinances initiated for such purpose are signed, filed and certified as sufficient, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, the ordinances thereby sought to be repealed must remain in abeyance until an election is held upon such initiated ordinances. (See also Wiegand v Ferguson, 124 OS 73, 177 NE 35 (1931).)

1955 OAG 5983. Initiative and referendum may not be utilized by a municipality to abandon a previously adopted form of municipal government.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS

731.43 Vacancy in office of legislative authority

(A) When the office of a member of the legislative authority of a village becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled by election by the legislative authority for the unexpired term. If the legislative authority fails within thirty days to fill such vacancy, the mayor shall fill it by appointment except that, when the vacancy occurs because of operation of section 733.25 of the Revised Code, the successor shall hold office only for the period the president pro tempore of the legislative authority holds the office of mayor.

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this division, when the office of a member of the legislative authority of a city becomes vacant either because a member ceases to hold the office before the end of his term or because a member-elect fails to take office, the vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a person chosen by the residents of that city who are members of the county central committee of the political party by which the last occupant of that office or the member-elect was nominated. If the vacancy occurs in the office of a ward representative in a city where the political party which nominated the last occupant of that office is organized into a city controlling committee with more than one member from the ward where the vacancy exists, the members of the city controlling committee representing that ward shall choose the person to fill the vacancy.

(C) Not less than five nor more than forty-five days after a vacancy occurs, the specified members of the city or county committee shall meet to make an appointment to fill the vacancy. At least four days before the date of such meeting the chairman or secretary of the city or county committee shall notify each committee member eligible to vote on filling the vacancy by first class mail of the date, time, and place of the meeting and its purpose. A majority of all eligible committee members constitutes a quorum, and a majority of the quorum is required to make the appointment. If election to the office so vacated took place at a nonpartisan election, or if the office was occupied by, or was to be occupied by a person not nominated at a primary election, or if the appointment was not made by the committee members in accordance with this section, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as a vacancy in the legislative authority of a village, as provided in this section.

170 OS 323, 164 NE(2d) 417 (1960), State ex rel Allison v Jones. The attempt and failure to fill a vacancy in council within thirty days after the vacancy occurred does not authorize the mayor to fill such vacancy by appointment.

168 OS 461, 156 NE(2d) 131 (1959), State ex rel Devine v Hoermle. The portion of 731.43 authorizing the mayor of a municipal corporation to fill by appointment a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative authority of such municipal corporation, conflicts with Sect 5 of the Columbus city charter providing that "vacancies in council shall be filled by the council for the remainder of the unexpired term." (See also State ex rel Allison v Jones, 170 OS 323, 164 NE(2d) 417 (1960).)

148 OS 45, 73 NE(2d) 195 (1947), State ex rel Flask v Collins. Where charter of city provides no method by which vacancy in its council may be filled and has provision that "in absence of such provisions as to any power, such power shall be exercised in manner now or hereafter prescribed by general laws of state, applicable to municipalities," vacancy in city council shall be filled in accordance with this section which requires mayor to fill vacancy, if council fails to do so within thirty days.

148 OS 45, 73 NE(2d) 195 (1947), State ex rel Flask v Collins. In case of vacancy in city council, to which this section applies, not filled by council within thirty days from time it occurs, mayor has mandatory duty to fill vacancy by appointment; if he in discharge of duty without any collusion with legislative branch of city, makes appointment to vacancy and his appointee qualifies for office under terms of charter, appointee is legally entitled to office and has right under GC 12307 (RC 2733.06) to have another person ousted therefrom who is unlawfully holding office and exercising its functions.

110 OS 413, 144 NE 264 (1924), State ex rel Christensen v Larsen. Where a village council, having ascertained and declared that a vacancy existed in that body by reason of the death of a member elect without qualifying as required by GC 4242 (RC 731.49), filled the vacancy pursuant to the provisions of this section, such appointment is valid.

70 App 417, 46 NE(2d) 435 (1940), State ex rel Tilden v Harbourt; overruled by 103 App 214, 145 NE(2d) 200 (1956), State ex rel Scarl v Small. Persons holding public office may not be members of city council (GC 4207 (RC 731.02)) and forfeit right to elective office when retaining such public office after date of assumption of office in council; forfeiture occurs immediately upon assumption of office, and thirty-day period provided by this section within which council may fill vacancies, runs from such time, and after such period only the mayor can name persons to fill the vacant offices.

OAG 70-157. Resignation which has become effective may not be withdrawn and position must be filled according to appropriate provisions for filling vacancy.

OAG 70-157. Immediate resignation of village councilman becomes effective when it is submitted to mayor and other council members.

1964 OAG 850. There is no authority for a special election to be held in a municipal corporation for the election of officers of a village where such village has abandoned one of the optional plans of municipal government authorized by Ch 705 and has returned to the form of municipal government authorized by the general provisions of municipal corporation law.

1963 OAG 389. 731.43 provides the sole statutory methods by which a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation may be filled, and such section was not repealed by implication by the amendment of 3.02.

1962 OAG 3494. A candidate who fails to file a statement of expenditures within the time prescribed by 3517.10 is barred from becoming a candidate in any future election for a period of five (or seven) years, but is not, by reason of such failure, barred from being appointed to a public office such as a member of the legislative authority of a village, and from serving in such capacity.

1960 OAG 1681. Where in an election to fill a vacancy in the legislative authority of a city, a tie results, the president of the legislative authority is authorized to vote to decide the issue; and such right to vote is not precluded by a legislative rule which requires the filling of a vacancy by a majority vote of council, nor by a legislative rule which defines a majority to mean a simple majority of the members elected to council.

1960 OAG 1681. While under 731.43 no particular mode of election for filling a vacancy is specified, the legislative authority of a municipal corporation is authorized by 731.45 to adopt its own rules, and may require that a majority vote of the membership is necessary for election.

1960 OAG 1681. In an election under 731.43 where one member receives two votes, another receives two votes, a third receives one vote, and one member does not vote, four votes being required to elect under the rules, there is no existing tie within the purview of 733.09 authorizing the president of the legislative authority to vote, since there is not an equal division of the votes and a vote by the president could not, of itself, decide the issue; and the president in such an instance is not entitled to vote.

1940 OAG 3105. Where a vacancy exists in the membership of council of a village, which vacancy has existed for more than thirty days, the mayor may appoint a person having the legal qualifications, to fill such vacancy.

1940 OAG 3105. Where a vacancy in membership of village council is discovered to exist, the members of council may elect a qualified member to fill such office at any time during its existence, even though the election is held more than thirty days after the vacancy occurred; any appointment thereafter made by the mayor of the village to fill such vacancies is of no effect.

1934 OAG 2905. When a vacancy in a village council is discovered to have been in existence for a period of more than thirty days, such vacancy may be filled by council or by the mayor, whichever authority acts first. Under such circumstances, when a motion is made and seconded by council to appoint a person to fill such vacancy and a vote thereon deferred by the mayor, in refusing to entertain the motion, until after the mayor has made an appointment, the appointment made by the mayor is of no legal effect and the person thereafter appointed by council is the legally appointed incumbent to fill such vacancy.

1930 OAG 1465. Two newly elected members of a village council, not constituting a majority, have no power to fill four vacancies in such council, caused by the failure of four old members to hold over. Such vacancies should be filled by appointments of the village mayor after the expiration of the thirty-day period, as provided in this section.

731.49 Failure to take oath or give bond

The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may declare vacant the office of any person elected or appointed to such office who, within ten days after he has been notified of his appointment or election, or obligation to give a new or additional bond, fails to take the required official oath or to give any bond required of him.

146 OS 467, 66 NE(2d) 531 (1946), State ex rel Jones v Farrar. Generally, statute providing time for performance of an official duty will be construed as directory so far as time for performance is concerned, especially where statute fixes time simply for convenience or orderly procedure; and, unless object or purpose of a statutory provision requiring some act to be performed within a specified period of time is discernible from language employed, statute is directory and not mandatory. This is true where a statute fixes time within which an official oath must be taken or given, although statute declares that office is forfeited by default; unless statute expressly declares that failure to take oath or to give bond by time prescribed ipso facto vacates office, oath may be taken and bond given at any time before term begins.

110 OS 413, 144 NE 264 (1924), State ex rel Christensen v Larsen. Where a village councilman was elected for another term but died before the end of his first term, an appointee to fill the vacancy can hold only to the beginning of the new term, for no vacancy in the new term existed until it began. Council having declared a vacancy by reason of death before qualifying under this section, filled the vacancy by appointment under GC 4236 (RC 731.43), and the appointment is valid.

1961 OAG 1989. The office of member of a county soldiers' relief commission is not incompatible with the office of mayor of a municipal corporation.

1956 OAG 6127. The office of mayor of a city is not per se incompatible with the position of deputy clerk of the court of common pleas, but may become so if the duties of each are so numerous or arduous as to render unlikely a proper execution of both.

733.08 Vacancy in office of mayor of cities

In case of the death, resignation, or removal of the mayor, the president of the legislative authority of the city shall become the mayor, and shall hold the office for the unexpired term. Thereupon the president pro tempore of such legislative authority shall become president thereof for the unexpired term, and shall have the same rights, duties, and powers as his predecessor. The vacancy thus created in the legislative authority shall be filled for the unexpired term as provided in section 731.43 of the Revised Code, and such legislative authority shall elect another president pro tempore to hold such office for the unexpired term.

Where the secretary of state's office erroneously schedules an election to fill an unexpired mayoral term for a noncharter municipality, and where individuals relying upon the error file petitions for the mayoral election instead of for council elections, man-

OAG 80-046. Pursuant to 733.01 and 733.08, the legislative authority of a city that operates under a general statutory plan of municipal government may provide by ordinance or resolution for the appointment, by the city treasurer, of an individual to be known as the tax administrator to assist the treasurer in matters relating to income taxes. The individual so appointed must be an employee of the treasurer's office and be responsible to, and under the control of the city treasurer.

1962 OAG 3203. A member of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation appointed under 731.04 as president pro tempore of the legislative authority, may preside over such authority in the absence of the president thereof, and when so presiding is entitled to vote once where there is a roll call on a question, and in other cases where his vote would change the result, but may not vote to create a tie vote and then vote to decide the tie.

1935 OAG 4387. Abandonment of the office of mayor of a city constitutes implied resignation of the office, and is a ground for vacancy under this section.

733.09 President of legislative authority in cities; election to change length of term

(A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, the president of the legislative authority of a city shall be elected for a term of two years, commencing on the first day of January next after his election. He shall be an elector of the city, and shall preside at all regular and special meetings of such legislative authority, but he shall have no vote therein except in case of a tie.

(B) A city legislative authority may, by majority vote, adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the city electors the question of whether the term of office of the president of the legislative authority should be changed from two to four years. The question shall be voted upon at the next general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the certification of the resolution to the board of elections. If a majority of the votes cast on the question is in the affirmative, the term of office of the president of the legislative authority shall be four years effective on the first day of January following the next regular municipal election.

A city legislative authority whose president's term of office is four years may, by majority vote, adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the city electors the question of whether the president's term should be changed from four to two years. 41 OS(2d) 57, 322 NE(2d) 675 (1975), State ex rel Corrigan v Tudhope. As used in 733.09, "tie" means that in a two candidate race each candidate has received the same number of votes.

149 OS 333, 78 NE(2d) 716 (1948), State ex rel Roberts v Snyder. Under provisions of GC 4210 (RC 731.04) and this section a duly elected president of a city council is empowered to vote in case of any tie; such authority includes right to vote in event of a tie in election of a clerk of the council.

OAG 90-063. A city council president elected pursuant to RC 733.09 is not prohibited by RC 3357.05 from holding the position of technical college district trustee.

OAG 71-040. The office of councilman or the office of president of council of a city, each being elective offices, may not be held by one employed in the position of safety inspector II in the department of highways.

1962 OAG 3203. A member of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation appointed under 731.04 as president pro tempore of the legislative authority, may preside over such authority in the absence of the president thereof, and when so presiding is entitled to vote once where there is a roll call on a question, and in other cases where his vote would change the result, but may not vote to create a tie vote and then vote to decide the tie.

1960 OAG 1681. In an election under 731.43 where one member receives two votes, another receives two votes, a third receives one vote, and one member does not vote, four votes being required to elect under the rules, there is no existing tie within the purview of 733.09 authorizing the president of the legislative authority to vote, since there is not an equal division of the votes and a vote by the president could not, of itself, decide the issue; and the president in such an instance is not entitled to vote.

1953 OAG 2367. The president of a city council elected pursuant to this section is not a member of the council within the meaning of GC 4207 (RC 731.02).

1946 OAG 744. President of a city council elected pursuant to section, is not under any circumstances a member of city council and hence provision of GC 4207 (RC 731.02) forbidding a member of council holding any other public office or employment does not apply to such president of council; however, office of president of council of a city is incompatible with position of relief director of relief area constituting such city, appointed pursuant to GC 3391-7 (Repealed).

1937 OAG 1330. The president of council may not be compelled by mandamus or otherwise to cast the deciding vote in case of a tie should he desire not to do so.

1937 OAG 1330. The president of a city council has authority under this section to cast the deciding vote in the case of a tie upon a measure designated as an ordinance to increase the salaries of the regular policemen and regular firemen of such city.

1964 OAG 769. The office of member of a county soldier's relief commission is not incompatible with the office of auditor of a municipal corporation.

1962 OAG 2878. The positions of municipal auditor and member of a board of library trustees are not incompatible.

1943 OAG 6101. Unless provisions contained in its charter provide otherwise, city which became such in year 1941 by reason of proclamation of secretary of state based on 1940 federal census and issued prior to regular municipal election held in year 1941, was required to elect city auditor at such election to serve for term of four years from first day of January, 1942.

733.24 Mayor of village; election; term; qualifications; powers; duties

The mayor of a village shall be elected for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of January next after his election. He shall be an elector of the village and shall have resided in the village for at least one year immediately preceding his election. Such mayor shall be the chief conservator of the peace therein and shall have the powers and duties provided by law. He shall be the president of the legislative authority and shall preside at all regular and special meetings thereof, but shall have no vote except in case of a tie.

170 OS 375, 165 NE(2d) 644 (1960), State ex rel De Matteo v Allen. The mayor of a village may cast a tie-breaking vote in a village council on a motion relative to appointment of a police chief.

101 OS 275, 128 NE 140 (1920), State ex rel Keyser v Babst. An incumbent mayor who has been defeated on the face of the returns by an opponent to whom a certificate has been issued by the election officials is not justified in holding over after the expiration of his term, pending the decision of a contest filed by him.

25 App(2d) 58, 266 NE(2d) 248 (1970), In re Removal of Pickering. Village mayor, as the chief conservator of peace within his village, has positive duty to suppress any riot within the village and to disperse and apprehend rioters and, subject to the qualified requirements of 2923.51 to order rioters to desist and disperse to their several homes or lawful employments, may use such force as is necessary and proper to suppress the riot or disperse or apprehend rioters.

106 App 191, 154 NE(2d) 14 (1958), Babyak v Alten. The mayor of a village, as president of the legislative authority, is given the power to vote, in case of a tie, on either a resolution or an ordinance.

29 App 386, 163 NE 566 (1928), Wuebker v Hopkins. Council has no power by calling resolution an ordinance to divest mayor of authority to break tie by casting determining vote under this section that he would have had if measure had been properly denominated.

29 App 386, 163 NE 566 (1928), Wuebker v Hopkins. Where council is required to act by passage of ordinance, majority of council must concur therein, and mayor, in case of tie, cannot cast deciding vote.

No. 3494 (11th Dist Ct App, Trumbull, 9-13-85), Kibler v Muth. Where charges of insubordination, nonfeasance, and malfeasance made against a village marshal by the mayor are dismissed by vote of the village council, and where the marshal's later request that the village reimburse his legal expenses is defeated by the council with the mayor casting a tie-breaking vote, mandamus does not lie to compel reimbursement or to compel the mayor to pay the village's expenses in prosecuting the dismissed charges.

93 Abs 463, 199 NE(2d) 131 (CP Pickaway 1962), Shade v Bowers. Statements made by the mayor and the chief of police of a municipal corporation in the discharge of their official duties to the board of liquor control as to a renewal license relative to the manner that the plaintiff allegedly had conducted his business which resulted in a denial of a permit to the plaintiff are absolutely privileged.

OAG 87-013. The position of assignment commissioner and secretary for a municipal court judge exercising countywide jurisdiction and the position of mayor of a village within that county are compatible, provided it is physically possible for one person to discharge the duties of both positions.

OAG 82-042. The position of deputy county treasurer is incompatible with that of mayor of a municipality within the same county.

OAG 80-100. The president pro tempore of a village legislative authority retains his right to vote on all matters as a member of the council while acting as the presiding officer of a council meeting when the mayor is absent from the meeting.

OAG 72-029. When a vacancy exists on a board of trustees of public affairs and the person who is nominated by the mayor to fill the vacancy fails to receive the confirmation by the village council, the mayor may not appoint a person to serve as an "acting trustee"; the vacancy can be filled only through an appointment by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the village council.

1962 OAG 2797. One person may at the same time serve as an unclassified employee of the county auditor, not a deputy county auditor, and as mayor of a village in the county if it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of both positions.

1961 OAG 1989. The office of member of a county soldiers relief commission is not incompatible with the office of mayor of a municipal corporation.

1954 OAG 3347. Amendment of 1905.21 renders the offices of village mayor and justice of the peace of the township in which such village is located incompatible.

1953 OAG 2999. The office of chief deputy in the office of auditor of a county is incompatible with the office of mayor of a village in the same county.

1939 OAG 993. Offices of mayor of a village and member of board of trustees of a school district public library located in the village are incompatible, and cannot lawfully be held by the same person at the same time.

1934 OAG 2311. A village mayor cannot legally refuse to qualify for a second term to which he has been elected, and thereby hold office under a continuation of his first term of office.

1930 OAG 1465. When a newly elected mayor has not qualified, the old mayor holds over by the express terms of this section, and is the proper person to fill vacancies in the village council.

733.25 Vacancy in office of mayor of village

When the mayor is absent from the village, or is unable for any cause to perform his duties, the president pro tempore of the legislative authority shall be acting mayor. In case of the death, resignation, or removal of the mayor, such president pro tempore shall become the mayor and shall hold the office until his successor is elected and qualified. Such successor shall be elected to the office for the unexpired term, at the first regular municipal election that occurs more than forty days after the vacancy has occurred; except that when the unexpired term ends within one year immediately following the date of such election, an election to fill such unexpired term shall not be held and the president of the legislative authority of the city shall hold the office for such unexpired term.

CONSTITUTIONALITY:

111 OS 23, 144 NE 734 (1924), State v Lanser. GC 4216 and 4256 (RC 731.10 and 733.25), in conferring judicial power on a member of the council as acting mayor, are not unconstitutional or in violation of O Const Art IV, § 10, which provides that all judicial officers shall be elected.

111 OS 23, 144 NE 734 (1924), State v Lanser. When the mayor of a village is absent from the village or is unable for any cause to perform his duties, the president pro tem of the council becomes acting mayor and is invested with all the powers of the mayor, including his judicial powers.

111 OS 23, 144 NE 734 (1924), State v Lanser. An affidavit sworn to before the president pro tem of the council in the absence of the mayor from the village or his inability to perform his duties is not void because the jurat is signed by the president pro tem as "vice mayor" instead of as "acting mayor."

40 App 346, 178 NE 320 (1931), Ambos v Campbell. In mayor's absence, president of council was acting mayor, with all mayor's powers.

OAG 80-100. The president pro tempore of a village legislative authority retains his right to vote on all matters as a member of the council while acting as the presiding officer of a council meeting when the mayor is absent from the meeting.

1964 OAG 850. There is no authority for a special election to be held in a municipal corporation for the election of officers of a village where such village has abandoned one of the optional plans of municipal government authorized by Ch 705 and has returned to the form of municipal government authorized by the general provisions of municipal corporation law.

1948 OAG 3943. When the president pro tem of a village council who has succeeded to the office of mayor by reason of the death or resignation of the mayor, with knowledge of such death or resignation fails or refuses to take the oath of office or to give the required bond as such mayor, and such failure or refusal continues for ten days, the council of said village may declare such office of mayor vacant, whereupon the newly elected president pro tem shall become the mayor.

1948 OAG 3943. Under the provision of this section, upon the resignation or death of the mayor of a village, the president pro tem of the council becomes the mayor, and his seat in the council is thereby vacated; thereupon it becomes the duty of the council under provisions of GC 4217 (RC 731.11) to fill such vacancy and to elect another member of council as president pro tem.

733.26 Election, term, and qualifications of village clerk

The village clerk shall be elected for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of April next after his election. He shall be an elector of the village.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1958 OAG 2098. There is no impropriety in one person being employed as bookkeeper by the county auditor while serving at the same time as a village clerk.

1941 OAG 4560. Person appointed three days prior to general election in November, 1941, to fill vacancy in office of village clerk, to which office no candidate was elected at said election, may retain said office until his successor is elected at general election in November, 1943, and qualifies therefor.

1928 OAG 3135. The clerk of a noncharter village cannot legally perform the duties of clerk of the board of public affairs and clerk of the planning commission, in addition to his duties as clerk of the village, but may perform the duties of secretary of the board of sinking fund trustees, and is required to do so, unless the village council provides by ordinance for the appointment of a secretary to such board of trustees and fixes the duties, bond and compensation of such secretary, in which case the clerk of the village is ineligible to be appointed to the position.

Ethics Op 76-002. Persons who are elected or appointed to or are candidates for village office are not required to file financial disclosure statements under section 102.02(A).

733.261 Combined office of clerk and treasurer

(A) The legislative authority of a village may, by ordinance or resolution passed by at least a majority vote, combine the duties of the clerk and the treasurer into one office, to be known as the clerk-treasurer. The combination shall be effective on the first day of January following the next regular municipal election at which the village clerk is to be elected, provided that a clerk-treasurer shall be elected at such election pursuant to this section and shall be elected for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of April next after his election. Between the first day of January and the first day of April following such an election, the clerk shall perform the duties of clerk-treasurer. The legislative authority of the village shall file certification of such action with the board of elections not less than one hundred five days before the day of the next succeeding municipal primary election at which the village clerk is to be elected; provided that in villages under two thousand population in which no petition for a primary election was filed pursuant to section 3513.01 of the Revised Code, or in villages in which no primary is held pursuant to section 3513.02 of the Revised Code, such action shall be certified to the board of elections not less than one hundred five days before the next succeeding general election at which the village clerk is to be elected.

At such succeeding regular municipal election and thereafter, the clerk-treasurer shall be elected for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of April next after his election. He shall be an elector of the corporation.

(B) In addition to the circumstances described in division (A) of this section, when a vacancy exists in the office of village treasurer or village clerk the legislative authority of a village may, by ordinance or resolution passed by at least a majority vote, combine the duties of the clerk and the treasurer into one office, to be known as the clerk-treasurer. The combination shall be effective on the effective date of the ordinance or resolution combining the duties of the offices of clerk and treasurer. At the next regular municipal election at which the village clerk would have been elected and each four years thereafter, the clerk-treasurer shall be elected for a term of four years, commencing on the first day of April next after his election. He shall be an elector of the municipal corporation.

(C) The clerk-treasurer shall perform the duties provided by law for the clerk and the treasurer. All laws pertaining to the clerk and to the treasurer shall be construed to apply to the clerk-treasurer, provided that the initial compensation for the office of clerk-treasurer shall be established by the legislative authority and that action shall not be subject to section 731.13 of the Revised Code relating to the time when the compensation of village elected officials shall be fixed and pertaining to changes in compensation of officials during the term of office.

(D) The legislative authority of a village having a clerk-treasurer may separate the offices by ordinance or resolution passed by at least a majority vote. The action to separate the offices may be taken in either of the following circumstances:

(1) When a vacancy exists in the office of clerk-treasurer, in which case the separation shall be effective upon the effective date of the ordinance or resolution;

(2) When the action of the legislative authority is certified to and filed with the board of elections not less than one hundred five days before the day of the next succeeding primary election at which the village clerk and treasurer are to be elected; provided that in villages under two thousand population in which no petition for a primary election was filed pursuant to section 3513.01 of the Revised Code, or in villages in which no primary is held pursuant to section 3513.02 of the Revised Code, such action shall be certified to the board of elections not less than one hundred five days before the next succeeding general election at which the village clerk and treasurer are to be elected.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1957 OAG 616. Where the legislative authority of a village of a population of less than two thousand persons, holding no primary election, determines, by a majority vote, to combine the duties of clerk and treasurer into one office to be known as clerk-treasurer, under 733.261, such legislative authority shall file certification of such action with the board of elections of the county in which such municipal corporation is located not less than 105 days before the second Tuesday of May preceding the regular municipal election at which such clerk-treasurer shall be elected.

Ethics Op 76-002. Persons who are elected or appointed to or are candidates for village office are not required to file financial disclosure statements under section 102.02(A).

733.31 Filling of vacancies in offices

(A) Unless otherwise provided by law, vacancies arising in appointive and elective offices of villages shall be filled by appointment by the mayor for the remainder of the unexpired term, provided that:

(1) Vacancies in the office of mayor shall be filled in the manner provided by section 733.25 of the Revised Code;

(2) Vacancies in the membership of the legislative authority shall be filled in the manner provided by section 731.43 of the Revised Code;

(3) Vacancies in the office of president pro tempore of a village legislative authority shall be filled in the manner provided by section 731.11 of the Revised Code.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of village clerk or treasurer, the mayor may appoint a person to serve as an acting officer to perform the duties of the office until a permanent officer is appointed to fill the vacancy.

(B) Unless otherwise provided by law, vacancies arising in appointive offices of cities shall be filled by appointment by the mayor for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(C) Except under the circumstances described in section 733.08 of the Revised Code, where the president pro tempore becomes president of the legislative authority of a city, a vacancy in the office of president of the legislative authority of a city shall be filled in the same manner as provided in division (D) of this section. Vacancies in the office of mayor of a city shall be filled in the manner provided in section 733.08 of the Revised Code. Vacancies in the membership of the legislative authority of a city shall be filled in the manner provided in section 731.43 of the Revised Code.

(D) In case of the death, resignation, removal, or disability of the director of law, auditor, or treasurer of a city and such vacancy occurs more than forty days before the next general election for such office, a successor shall be elected at such election for the unexpired term unless such term expires within one year immediately following the date of such general election. In either event, the vacancy shall be filled as provided in this section and the appointee shall hold his office until a successor is elected and qualified.

(1) The county central committee of the political party with which the last occupant of the office was affiliated, acting through its members who reside in the city where the vacancy occurs, shall appoint a person to hold the office and to perform the duties thereof until a successor is elected and has qualified, except that if such vacancy occurs because of the death, resignation, or inability to take the office of an officer-elect whose term has not yet begun, an appointment to take such office at the beginning of the term shall be made by the members of the central committee who reside in the city where the vacancy occurs.

(2) Not less than five nor more than forty-five days after a vacancy occurs, the county central committee, acting through its members who reside in the city where the vacancy occurs, shall meet for the purpose of making an appointment. Not less than four days before the date of the meeting the chairman or secretary of the central committee shall send by first class mail to every member of such central committee who resides in the city where the vacancy occurs a written notice which shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. A majority of the members of the central committee present at such meeting may make the appointment.

(E) If the last occupant of the office or the officer-elect, as provided in division (D) of this section, was elected as an independent candidate, the mayor of the city shall make the appointment at the time the vacancy occurs.

(F) Appointments made under this section shall be certified by the appointing county central committee or by the mayor of the municipal corporation to the county board of elections and to the secretary of state. The persons so appointed and certified shall be entitled to all remuneration provided by law for the offices to which they are appointed.

(G) The mayor of the city may appoint a person to hold the city office of director of law, auditor, or treasurer as an acting officer and to perform the duties thereof between the occurrence of the vacancy and the time when the person appointed by the central committee qualifies and takes the office.

OAG 76-013. 733.31 sets out the proper procedure to be followed for appointment to a vacancy resulting from death of an incumbent elected official, and 733.31, as it existed at the time the appointment was made, controls over 733.31 as it was thereafter amended; 3.02 is a general statute providing for the length of an appointee's term, and controls over the more specific terms of 733.31, where 733.31 contained no such specific terms at the time of appointment.

OAG 72-029. When a vacancy exists on a board of trustees of public affairs and the person who is nominated by the mayor to fill the vacancy fails to receive the confirmation by the village council, the mayor may not appoint a person to serve as an "acting trustee"; the vacancy can be filled only through an appointment by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the village council.

OAG 71-089. Mayor has authority to appoint city solicitor when office is vacant.

1937 OAG 572. An appointee appointed to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of auditor of a municipal corporation, pursuant to the provisions of this section, serves for the unexpired portion of the four year term; and the successor to the appointee is not elected until the regular municipal election in November, 1939.

1929 OAG 138. A vacancy caused by the death of a village clerk may be filled by the mayor of the village under this section.

1928 OAG 2357. A city patrolman or policeman is an officer within the meaning of this section, and as such is required to be an elector of the city in and for which he is appointed.

733.72 Charges against municipal officers filed with probate judge; proceedings

When a complaint under oath is filed with the probate judge of the county in which a municipal corporation or the larger part thereof is situated, by any elector of the municipal corporation, signed and approved by four other electors thereof, the judge shall forthwith issue a citation to any person charged in the complaint for his appearance before the judge within ten days from the filing thereof, and shall also furnish the accused and the village solicitor or city director of law with a copy thereof. The complaint shall charge any of the following:

(A) That a member of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation has received, directly or indirectly, compensation for his services as a member thereof, as a committeeman, or otherwise, contrary to law;

(B) That a member of the legislative authority or an officer of the municipal corporation is or has been interested, directly or indirectly, in the profits of a contract, job, work, or service, or is or has been acting as a commissioner, architect, superintendent, or engineer in work undertaken or prosecuted by the municipal corporation, contrary to law;

(C) That a member of the legislative authority or an officer of the municipal corporation has been guilty of misfeasance or malfeasance in office.

Before acting upon such complaint, the judge shall require the party complaining to furnish sufficient security for costs.

735.28 Village board of trustees of public affairs; appointment; election; organization

In each village in which a water works, electric light plant, artificial or natural gas plant, or other similar public utility is situated, or when the legislative authority thereof orders a water works, electric light plant, natural or artificial gas plant, or other similar public utility, to be constructed, or to be leased or purchased from any individual, company, or corporation, or when such legislative authority determines to establish a schedule of rates or charges of rents for use of the sewerage system and sewage pumping, treatment, and disposal works of the village, such legislative authority shall establish a board of trustees of public affairs, which shall consist of three members who are residents of the village.

In the year 1967 one member shall be elected for a term of two years. In the year 1967 and quadrennially thereafter, two members of the board of trustees of public affairs shall be elected for a term of four years; in the year 1969 and quadrennially thereafter, one member of the board of trustees of public affairs shall be elected for a term of four years; and thereafter all members shall have four year terms, except that members of boards of trustees of public affairs established after July 26, 1967 shall be elected as follows: at the next regular election of municipal officials occurring more than one hundred days after the appointment of the first members of such board as provided in this section, one member shall be elected for a term of two years and two members shall be elected for terms of four years each; and thereafter all such members shall be elected for terms of four years.

When the legislative authority establishes such board, the mayor shall appoint the members thereof, subject to the confirmation of the legislative authority. The successors of such appointed members shall be elected at the next regular election of municipal officers held in the village which occurs more than one hundred days after the appointment.

In case of a vacancy in such board from death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the legislative authority.

The board shall organize by electing one of its members president. Unless the office of clerk of the board has been consolidated with the office of clerk of the village, as authorized by section 733.28 of the Revised Code, it may elect a clerk, who shall be known as the clerk of the board of trustees of public affairs.

When a vacancy exists on a board of trustees of public affairs and the person who is nominated by the mayor to fill the vacancy fails to receive the confirmation by the village council, the mayor may not appoint a person to serve as an "acting trustee"; the vacancy can be filled only through an appointment by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the village council.

OAG 70-113. Treasurer of village may not at same time be employed as clerk for board of trustees of public affairs and receive compensation for both positions.

OAG 70-070. Member of village board of trustees of public affairs forfeits his membership on such board when he ceases to be a resident of village.

OAG 69-150. A classified position in a county engineer's office is incompatible with an elected membership in a village board of trustees of public affairs, and such positions may not be held concurrently by the same person.

OAG 65-143. A village board of trustees cannot contribute funds to finance a community planning program.

1962 OAG 2856. A person who is nineteen years of age may hold the position of clerk of the board of trustees of public affairs of a village.

1958 OAG 1705. The office of county commissioner and member of the board of trustees of public affairs of a village are incompatible.

1951 OAG 788. In a village which has not created a board of trustees of public affairs, council may contract for the services of an engineer to make a survey and prepare plans for a utility, under GC 3982-2 (RC 743.29); where such board has been created, it is the duty of such board, when authorized by the council, to employ such engineer.

1935 OAG 3947. This section and GC 4361 (RC 735.29), do not require that a municipally owned bus line be managed, controlled and conducted by a board of trustees of public affairs.

1927 OAG 139. When the council of a village, by appropriate legislation sells and disposes of all the public utilities owned or operated by the village and thus terminates all the duties and powers of the board of public affairs for the village they thereby abolish the office of the board of public affairs and the board thereupon ceases to function.

743.24 Municipal corporations may contract for a water supply; contract to be submitted to a vote

A municipal corporation may contract with any individual or an incorporated company for supplying water for fire purposes, or for cisterns, reservoirs, streets, squares, and other public places within its limits, or for the purpose of supplying the citizens of such municipal corporation with water for such time, and upon such terms as is agreed upon. Such contract shall not be executed or binding upon the municipal corporation until it has been ratified by a vote of the electors thereof, at a special or general election. The municipal corporation shall have the same power to protect such water supply and prevent the pollution thereof as though the water works were owned by such municipal corporation.

1515.24 Assessment procedures; maintenance fund; bonds and notes

Upon receipt of a certification made by the supervisors of a soil and water conservation district pursuant to section 1515.20 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners may levy upon the property within the project area an assessment at a uniform or varied rate based upon the benefit to the area certified by the supervisors, as necessary to pay the cost of construction of the improvement not otherwise funded and to repay advances made for purposes of the improvement from the fund created by section 1515.15 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners shall direct the person or authority preparing assessments to give primary consideration, in determining a parcel's estimated assessments relating to the disposal of water, to the potential increase in productivity that the parcel may experience as a result of the improvement and also to give consideration to the amount of water disposed of, the location of the property relative to the project, the value of the project to the watershed, and benefits as defined in division (F) of section 6131.01 of the Revised Code. Such part of the assessment as is found to benefit state, county, or township roads or highways or municipal streets shall be assessed against the state, county, township, or municipal corporation, respectively, payable from motor vehicle revenues. Such part of the assessment as is found to benefit property owned by any public corporation, any political subdivision of the state, or the state shall be assessed against the public corporation, the political subdivision, or the state and shall be paid out of the general funds or motor vehicle revenues of the public corporation, the political subdivision of the state, or the state, except as otherwise provided by law. The assessment shall be certified to the county auditor, and by him to the county treasurer. The collection of such assessment shall conform in all matters to Chapter 323. of the Revised Code. Any land owned and managed by the department of natural resources for wildlife, recreation, nature preserve, or forestry purposes is exempt from assessments if the director of natural resources determines that the land derives no benefit from the improvement. In making such a determination, the director shall consider the purposes for which the land is owned and managed and any relevant articles of dedication or existing management plans for the land. If the director determines that the land derives no benefit from the improvement, he shall notify the board of county commissioners, within thirty days after receiving the assessment notification required by this section, indicating that he has determined that the land is to be exempt and explaining his specific reason for making this determination. The board of county commissioners may, within thirty days after receiving the director's exemption notification, appeal this determination to the court of common pleas. If the court of common pleas finds in favor of the board of county commissioners, the department of natural resources shall pay all court costs and legal fees.

If the assessment is to be made at a varied rate, the board shall give notice by first class mail to every public and private property owner whose property is subject to assessment, at the tax mailing or other known address of the owner. Such notice shall contain a statement of the amount to be assessed against the property of the addressee and a statement that he may file an objection in writing at the office of the board of county commissioners within thirty days after the mailing of notice. If the residence of any owner cannot be ascertained, or if any mailed notice is returned undelivered, the board shall publish such notice to all such owners in a newspaper of general circulation within the project area, at least once each week for three weeks, which notice shall include the information contained in the mailed notice, but it shall state that the owner may file an objection in writing at the office of the board of county commissioners within thirty days after the last publication of such notice.

Upon receipt of objections as provided in this section, the board shall proceed within thirty days to hold a final hearing upon the objections by fixing a date and giving notice by first class mail to the objectors at such address as provided in filing his objection. If any mailed notice is returned undelivered, the board shall give due notice to such objectors in a newspaper of general circulation in the project area, stating the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. Upon hearing the objectors the board may amend and shall approve the final schedule of assessments by journal entry.

Any owner whose objection is not allowed may appeal within thirty days to the court of common pleas of the county in which the property is located.

Any moneys collected in excess of the amount needed for construction of the improvement and the subsequent first year's maintenance may be maintained in a fund to be used for maintenance of the improvement. In any year subsequent to a year in which an assessment for construction of an improvement levied under this section has been collected, and upon determination by the board of county commissioners that funds are not otherwise available for maintenance or repair of the improvement, the board shall levy upon the property within the project area an assessment for maintenance at a uniform percentage of all construction costs based upon the assessment schedule used in determining the construction assessment. Such assessment is not subject to the provisions concerning notice and petition contained in section 1515.25 of the Revised Code. An assessment for maintenance shall not be levied in any year in which the unencumbered balance of funds available for maintenance of the improvements exceeds twenty per cent of the cost of construction of the improvement, except that the board may adjust the level of assessment within the twenty per cent limitation, or suspend temporarily the levying of an assessment, for maintenance purposes as maintenance funds are needed.

The board of county commissioners may issue bonds and notes as authorized by section 131.23 or 133.17 of the Revised Code.

OAG 84-101. When an improvement has been constructed and paid for in the manner set forth in RC 1515.20, 1515.21, and 1515.24, and it becomes necessary to undertake maintenance or repair work as provided in RC 1515.08 and 1515.29, the costs of such work may be paid from the proceeds of assessments levied under RC 1515.24.

OAG 84-101. The provisions of RC 6137.08, which permit an owner who performs maintenance or repair work on a portion of an improvement to petition for a reduced maintenance assessment, do not apply to improvements constructed under RC Ch 1515.

OAG 84-101. A decision by a board of county commissioners to levy an assessment pursuant to RC 1515.24 for the costs of maintenance or repair of an improvement may be appealed in accordance with the provisions of RC Ch 2505 and Ch 2506.

OAG 84-101. When the board of supervisors of a soil and water conservation district determines that it is necessary to construct an improvement for purposes of flood control or water disposal, determines a benefited project area, and certifies these factors together with a plan for the proposed improvement to the board of county commissioners, pursuant to RC 1515.20, and the construction is approved by the commissioners, pursuant to RC 1515.21, the costs of construction of the improvement may be paid through assessments levied in accordance with RC 1515.24.

OAG 84-045. To the extent such costs are not otherwise funded, the costs of acquiring real property or interests therein in order to construct an improvement under RC Ch 1515 may be calculated as part of the costs of construction for which an assessment may be levied pursuant to RC 1515.24.

1515.26 Referendum

A petition for referendum filed under section 1515.25 of the Revised Code shall be signed by a number of owners of land within the project area representing at least twenty per cent of the parcels which are subject to the assessment, and filed with the clerk of the court of common pleas of the county containing the most land subject to assessment. When such a petition, ordering that an assessment be submitted to the electors of the project area for their approval or rejection, is filed with the clerk within the time prescribed by section 1515.25 of the Revised Code, the clerk shall, after ten days, and not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of election, certify the assessment to the county boards of elections in the counties in which any part of the project area is located. The clerk shall retain the petition. The board of elections shall submit the assessment to the electors within that part of the project area, which is within its county for their approval or rejection, at the next succeeding primary or general election occurring subsequent to seventy-five days after the certifying of such petition to the board of elections, except that the board of county commissioners may conduct a special referendum, at a special election on a day selected in accordance with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, where the size and nature of the work of improvement are such that the conduct of the referendum at the next primary or general election would cause unnecessary delay. The board shall give due notice of the special referendum in a newspaper of general circulation within the project area, stating the purpose, time, and place. The ballot shall properly identify the question and provide for the marking of the ballot by the elector inserting an "X" mark favoring or opposing the assessment.

1515.28 Tax levy outside ten-mill limitation; election

A board of county commissioners may declare by resolution that it is necessary to levy a tax upon the property within the project area in order to pay the costs of the improvement not otherwise funded.

Such resolution shall specify the rate which it is necessary to levy, the purpose thereof, and the number of years during which such increase shall be in effect, which levy may include a levy upon the duplicate of the current year.

A copy of the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections for the county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year and said board shall submit the proposal to the electors within the project area at the succeeding November election in accordance with section 5705.25 of the Revised Code. For purposes of that section, the subdivision is the project area.

If the per cent required for approval of a levy as set forth in section 5705.26 of the Revised Code vote in favor thereof, the board of county commissioners may levy a tax within the project area, outside the ten-mill limitation, during the period and for the purpose stated in the resolution, or at any less rate or for any less number of years.

The board may issue bonds and notes in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied under this section, and notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds.

1545.041 Conversion of township park district; resolution; election; ballot language; tax levies; board of park commissioners

(A) Any township park district created pursuant to section 511.18 of the Revised Code that includes park land located outside the township in which the park district was established may be converted under the procedures provided in this section into a park district to be operated and maintained as provided for in this chapter, provided that there is no existing park district created under section 1545.04 of the Revised Code in the county in which the township park district is located. The proposed park district shall include within its boundary all townships and municipal corporations in which lands owned by the township park district seeking conversion are located, and may include any other townships and municipal corporations in the county in which the township park district is located.

(B) Conversion of a township park district into a park district operated and maintained under this chapter shall be initiated by a resolution adopted by the board of park commissioners of the park district. Any resolution initiating a conversion shall include the following:

(1) The name of the township park district seeking conversion;

(2) The name of the proposed park district;

(3) An accurate description of the territory to be included in the proposed district;

(4) An accurate map or plat of the proposed park district. The resolution may also include a proposed tax levy for the operation and maintenance of the proposed park district. If such a tax levy is proposed, the resolution shall specify the annual rate of the tax, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation and in mills for each dollar of valuation, and shall specify the number of consecutive years the levy will be in effect. The annual rate of such a tax may not be higher than the total combined millage of all levies then in effect for the benefit of the township park district named in the resolution.

(C) Upon adoption of the resolution provided for in division (B) of this section, the board of park commissioners of the township park district seeking conversion under this section shall certify the resolution to the board of elections of the county in which the park district is located no later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election at which the question will be voted upon. Upon certification of the resolution to the board, the board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements to submit the question of conversion of the township park into a park district operated and maintained under Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code, to the electors qualified to vote at the next primary or general election who reside in the territory of the proposed park district. The question shall provide for a tax levy if such a levy is specified in the resolution.

(D) The ballot submitted to the electors as provided in division (C) of this section shall contain the following language:

"Shall the _____ (name of the township park district seeking conversion) be converted into a park district to be operated and maintained under Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code under the name of _____ (name of proposed park district), which park district shall include the following townships and municipal corporations:

(Name townships and municipal corporations)

Approval of the proposed conversion will result in the termination of all existing tax levies voted for the benefit of _____ (name of the township park district sought to be converted) and in the levy of a new tax for the operation and maintenance of _____ (name of proposed park district) at a rate not exceeding ___ (number of mills) mills for each one dollar of valuation, which is ___ (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for ___ (number of years the millage is to be imposed) years, commencing on the ___ (year) tax duplicate.

For the proposed conversion

Against the proposed conversion

(E) If the proposed conversion is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the township park district that seeks conversion shall become a park district subject to Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code effective the first day of January following approval by the voters. The park district shall have the name specified in the resolution, and effective the first day of January following approval by the voters, the following shall occur:

(1) The indebtedness of the former township park district shall be assumed by the new park district;

(2) All rights, assets, properties, and other interests of the former township park district shall become vested in the new park district, including the rights to any tax revenues previously vested in the former township park district; provided, that all tax levies in excess of the ten mill limitation approved for the benefit of the former township park district shall be removed from the tax lists after the February settlement next succeeding the conversion. Any tax levy approved in connection with the conversion shall be certified as provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

(3) The members of the board of park commissioners of the former township park district shall be the members of the members [sic] of the board of park commissioners of the new park district, with all the same powers and duties as if appointed under section 1545.05 of the Revised Code. The term of each such commissioner shall expire on the first day of January of the year following the year in which his term would have expired under section 511.19 of the Revised Code. Thereafter, commissioners shall be appointed pursuant to section 1545.05 of the Revised Code.

No. 90-CA-00163 (7th Dist Ct App, Mahoning, 8-19-91), Tablack v McMahon. The enactment of a statute providing for the conversion of township park districts into county-wide park districts as part of a bill concerning funding and appropriations for government operations does not violate the "single subject requirement" of O Const Art II §15(D).

No. 90-CA-00163 (7th Dist Ct App, Mahoning, 8-19-91), Tablack v McMahon. The conversion of a lawfully created township park district into a county-wide park district pursuant to RC 1545.041 is not unconstitutional where the tax levy applies equally to all property owners within the new district, even though the result is an increase for some owners and a decrease for other owners from the tax rates prior to the conversion.

1545.21 Voted tax levy; anticipation bonds

The board of park commissioners, by resolution, may submit to the electors of the park district the question of levying taxes for the use of the district. Such resolution shall declare the necessity of levying such taxes, shall specify the purpose for which such taxes shall be used, the annual rate proposed, and the number of consecutive years such rate shall be levied. Such resolution shall be forthwith certified to the board of elections in each county in which any part of such district is located, not later than the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election, and the question of the levy of taxes as provided in such resolution shall be submitted to the electors of the district at a special election to be held on the day of the next ensuing primary or general election. The ballot shall set forth the purpose for which the taxes shall be levied, the annual rate of levy, and the number of years of such levy. If a majority of the electors voting upon the question of such levy vote in favor thereof, such taxes shall be levied and shall be in addition to the taxes authorized by section 1545.20 of the Revised Code, and all other taxes authorized by law. The rate submitted to the electors at any one time shall not exceed two mills annually upon each dollar of valuation. When a tax levy has been authorized as provided in this section or in section 1545.041 of the Revised Code, the board of park commissioners may issue bonds pursuant to section 133.22 of the Revised Code in anticipation of the collection of such levy, provided that such bonds shall be issued only for the purpose of acquiring and improving lands. Such levy, when collected, shall be applied in payment of the bonds so issued and the interest thereon. The amount of bonds so issued and outstanding at any time shall not exceed one per cent of the total tax valuation in such district. Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code.

147 OS 66, 68 NE(2d) 317 (1946), Kinsey v Bower. Under this section board of park commissioners created pursuant to GC 2976-1 (RC 1545.01) et seq., may levy additional taxes only for specific purpose set forth in its resolution.

147 OS 66, 68 NE(2d) 317 (1946), Kinsey v Bower. Where tax levy is voted pursuant to statute in year of reassessment or any year prior thereto and such additional taxes are effective in year of reassessment or thereafter and are to be calculated on total valuation of property higher than that of year before reassessment, rate of such additional levies shall be reduced by county budget commission in same proportion in which total valuation of property in such taxing subdivision is increased by reassessment over total valuation of year preceding reassessment.

OAG 79-063. Nothing in OAG 79-063 should in any way be construed to limit the right of voters under RC 1545.21 to approve a park district levy in excess of the ten-mill aggregate limitation.

1545.36 Dissolution by petition of voters for election

(A) When the board of elections of the county in which a park district is located has had filed with it a petition calling for the dissolution of the district, and determines that the petition meets the requirements of this section and section 3501.38 of the Revised Code, the board shall place the issue of the dissolution on the ballot at the next special election to be held on the day of a general or primary election. Written notice of the filing of the petition shall be sent immediately to the board of park commissioners and the probate court that created the district.

(B) The petition shall:

(1) Be filed with the board no less than seventy-five days before the next election;

(2) Be supported by the signatures of at least twenty-five per cent of the number of voters in the district who voted in the preceding gubernatorial election.

(C) If the petition as filed does not have the required number of signatures and the time for filing has elapsed, the board shall declare it invalid. No further petition for dissolution shall be received until after the next election is completed. On determination of these findings, the board shall send written notice of them to the principal circulator.

(D) (1) If a majority of the votes cast support the dissolution, the board shall immediately send written notice of the vote, citing the number of votes for and against the issue, to the probate court, to the board of park commissioners, and to the principal circulator. No park district shall be applied for within the dissolved district for a period of four years following the election in which the issue was supported.

(2) If the issue fails to obtain a majority of the votes cast, the board shall receive no further petition for dissolution until the fourth year following that in which the election failed, and shall send written notice of these results to the principal circulator and the board of park commissioners.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

1711.15 Tax levy for county agricultural society

In any county in which there is a duly organized county agricultural society, the board of county commissioners may purchase or lease, for a term of not less than twenty years, real estate on which to hold fairs under the management and control of the county agricultural society, and may erect thereon suitable buildings and otherwise improve it.

In counties in which there is a county agricultural society which has purchased, or leased, for a term of not less than twenty years, real estate as a site on which to hold fairs or in which the title to such site is vested in fee in the county, the board may erect or repair buildings or otherwise improve such site and pay the rental thereof, or contribute to or pay any other form of indebtedness of the society, if the director of agriculture has certified to the board that the county agricultural society is complying with all laws and rules governing the operation of county agricultural societies. The board may appropriate from the general fund such an amount as it deems necessary for any of those purposes. If the amount appropriated to be expended in the purchase of such real estate or in the erection of buildings or other improvements or payments of rent or other forms of indebtedness of the society exceeds fifty thousand dollars in any one year, such expenditure shall not be made unless the question of a levy of the tax therefor is submitted to the qualified electors of the county at a general election, a notice of which, specifying the amount to be levied, has been given at least thirty days previous to such election. This notice shall be given either by publishing it in one or more newspapers published and of general circulation in the county, or by mailing or otherwise distributing it to each elector in the county as far as is reasonably possible. The board shall pass a resolution authorizing the submission of the question to the electors and certify their action to the board of elections of the county which shall prepare and furnish the necessary ballots and other supplies. Such certification shall be made to the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of election. The form of the ballots cast at such election shall be:

"Agricultural tax—Yes."

"Agricultural tax—No."

If the majority of the vote cast is in favor of such tax, it may be levied and collected as other taxes.

The requirement that the question of a tax levy be submitted to the electors shall not apply where the funds to be expended have been received as reparation for damage to the fairground caused by use thereof for military purposes, or as insurance proceeds received in payment for property damaged or destroyed by fire or any other cause.

1. In general

OAG 88-026. Pursuant to RC 1702.58(B), special provisions of RC Ch 1711 relating to the organization, conduct, or government of county agricultural societies or independent agricultural societies govern to the exclusion of provisions of RC Ch 1702 on the same subject; however, when there is no special provision governing a certain aspect of the operation of county agricultural societies or independent agricultural societies, then the appropriate provisions of RC Ch 1702 govern that aspect of the operation of nonprofit county agricultural societies or nonprofit independent agricultural societies.

1957 OAG 516; overruled in part by OAG 88-026. Where a board of county commissioners erects a building on county-owned land with title to such building in the county, and where such land and building is occupied by the county agricultural society, control and management of such land and building is vested in the society so long as such premises are occupied by the society and used by it for holding agricultural fairs. The holding of one agricultural fair each year agreeably to the requirements of the director of agriculture satisfies such condition.

1957 OAG 516; overruled in part by OAG 88-026. A county agricultural society can lawfully participate in the promotion of a hockey team, and the rentals received by the society from a hockey team or similar sporting or entertainment enterprises which use the real property owned by or under the control and management of the society are not public funds.

1957 OAG 516; overruled in part by OAG 88-026. When a board of county commissioners erects or improves a building for a county agricultural society and title to such building and the land on which it is erected is in the society, exclusive control and management of such land and building is in the society.

1950 OAG 2528. The provisions of statute which authorizes the commissioners in any county in which there is a duly organized county agricultural society, to acquire and hold title to real estate upon which to hold fairs and to erect suitable buildings thereon does not provide an exclusive method of financing the purchase of such real estate or the erections of such buildings and bonds for such purposes may be issued by such county commissioners pursuant to GC 2293-1 (RC 133.01) et seq.

1944 OAG 7186. A board of county commissioners cannot grant funds to independent agricultural societies, under and by virtue of this section, to erect, repair or improve buildings situated on a tract of land where such society holds its fair.

1940 OAG 1871. In counties wherein there is a county agricultural society which has purchased, or leased, real estate for a term of not less than twenty years, a site whereon to hold fairs or where the title to such site is vested in fee in the county, the county commissioners, if they think it is for the best interest of the county, and society, may contribute to or pay indebtedness of the society incurred in the operation of fairs, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of statute.

1939 OAG 1247. Funds appropriated by county commissioners under authority of statute may be used only for purpose of paying preexisting indebtedness of a county agricultural society and may not be used by society as a general operating fund.

1935 OAG 4138. The county commissioners have the authority to purchase the fair grounds from the county agricultural society, and such society has the authority to sell its fair grounds to the county, whereon to hold fairs under the management and control of the society, for the purpose of using the proceeds of said sale to pay the indebtedness of such society.

1931 OAG 3377. County commissioners may, within the limitations of statute, appropriate money for the purpose of paying the preexisting indebtedness of a county society, where society holds a lease for not less than twenty years upon lands for the purpose of holding fairs. The fact that an annual exhibition is not held is not necessarily determinative of its right to exercise such power.

1931 OAG 3377. Where it is the purpose of a county society to cease holding fairs, the county commissioners are without power to appropriate money under statute.

1922 OAG p 480. The word "improvement" occurring in this section construed to authorize the erection of an exhibit building upon the grounds of a county agricultural society.

1922 OAG p 480. County agricultural societies organized previous to the enactment of GC 9885 to GC 9890 (RC 1711.13 to RC 1711.19) deemed to be such county societies as may receive the benefits afforded by statute.

1921 OAG p 157. Money raised by county commissioners for the benefit of county agricultural societies, in accordance with the provisions of statute, is a fund properly within the control of said agricultural society, and the county commissioners or auditor are warranted in turning over said fund to the proper officer of the county agricultural society.

2. Conflicts of interest

1959 OAG 779. A member of a board of county commissioners which is authorized to appropriate funds to a county agricultural society cannot act as fair manager of the county agricultural society of the same county.

1959 OAG 198. A member of the board of county commissioners may not at the same time hold the position of director or officer of a county or independent agricultural society.

3. Proper expenditures of funds

OAG 81-018. The authority of a county to make appropriations to an independent agricultural society pursuant to RC 1711.17 is not conditioned upon county ownership of the real estate on which the independent agricultural society holds its fairs, nor is it limited to indebtedness related to such real estate.

OAG 65-76. Funds appropriated by a board of county commissioners pursuant to RC 1711.15 for the payment of the indebtedness of an agricultural society cannot be expended for the payment of the accumulated monthly salary of its secretary, which item is a current operating expense rather than a preexisting indebtedness.

1958 OAG 2115. Moneys received by a county agricultural society or independent agricultural society under the provisions of RC 3769.082(A) may not be used to pay debts incurred in operations in years prior to that in which the actual distribution of such moneys is made.

1956 OAG 6546. County commissioners may appropriate funds to a county agricultural society for erecting a grandstand on the fairgrounds and the disbursement may be in a lump sum; and the funds so appropriated may be accumulated from year to year.

1951 OAG 626. A board of county commissioners has authority to expend funds for erection of buildings necessary to house caretaker of fairgrounds.

1945 OAG 647. The commissioners of a county wherein there is a county agricultural society which owns, or has leased for a term of twenty years or more, a site whereon to hold fairs, or where title to such site is vested in fee in county, are empowered by this section to appropriate from general fund not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of $10,000 in any year, for purposes of constructing a race track and making other authorized improvements thereon, in addition to proceeds of a special tax levy approved by electors at November election in the next preceding year, for purpose of erecting thereon a coliseum for fair purposes.

1938 OAG 2887. Provisions of statute empower board of county commissioners to appropriate funds for payment of preexisting indebtedness of a county agricultural society when the suspension of activities of such society is conditioned on the payment of the indebtedness of the society.

1930 OAG 1937. In counties wherein there is a county agricultural society which owns in fee simple the fairgrounds and the appurtenances thereto, the county commissioners may install lighting equipment therein under statute.

1930 OAG 1361. Where a county agricultural society has purchased a site whereon to hold fairs and has incurred an indebtedness, the county commissioners may provide for the payment of such indebtedness out of the proceeds of a special tax levy authorized by the electors of the county under statute or out of the proceeds of bonds issued on the approval of the electors of the county as provided in GC 9888 (RC 1711.18), et seq.

1925 OAG 2141. County commissioners may not legally pay out money for the payment of the rental on a lease held by a county agricultural society unless the county society has expended a like amount for lease or improvement of such site.

1711.17 County joint ownership

In any counties in which there is a duly organized independent agricultural society, the respective boards of county commissioners may purchase or lease jointly, for a term of not less than twenty years, real estate on which to hold fairs under the management and control of the society, and may erect suitable buildings and otherwise improve the property, and pay the rental thereof, or contribute to or pay any other form of indebtedness of the society, if the director of agriculture has certified to the board that the independent agricultural society is complying with all laws and rules governing the operation of county agricultural societies. The boards may appropriate from their respective general funds such an amount as they consider necessary for any of those purposes. If the total amount appropriated from one or more boards of county commissioners for the joint purchase of such real estate, for the erection of buildings or other improvements, or for the payment of rent or other forms of indebtedness of the society exceeds fifty thousand dollars in any one year, such expenditure shall not be made unless the question of a levy of a tax for that purpose is submitted to the qualified electors of the counties at a general election, a notice of which, specifying the amount to be levied, has been given at least thirty days previous to such election, in one or more newspapers published and of general circulation in the counties. The boards shall pass resolutions authorizing the submission of the question to the electors and certify their action to the boards of elections of the counties, which shall prepare and furnish the necessary ballots and other supplies. Such certification shall be made to the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election. The form of the ballots cast at such election shall be as follows: "Shall the board of commissioners of _____ County be authorized to levy a tax for the benefit of the _____ independent agricultural society for the purpose of _____ (here state the purpose of the tax), at a rate not exceeding _____ mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ dollars for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for _____ (here state the number of years the tax will be levied)?

If the majority of the votes cast is in favor of such tax in each county, it may be levied and collected as other taxes.

1711.18 Issuance of county bonds to pay debts of county society

In a county in which there is a county agricultural society indebted fifteen thousand dollars or more, and such society has purchased a fairground or title to such fairground is vested in fee in the county, the board of county commissioners, upon the presentation of a petition signed by not less than five hundred resident electors of the county praying for the submission to the electors of the county of the question whether or not county bonds shall be issued and sold to liquidate such indebtedness, shall, by resolution within ten days thereafter, fix a date, which shall be within thirty days, upon which the question of issuing and selling such bonds, in the necessary amount and denomination, shall be submitted to the electors of the county. The board also shall cause a copy of such resolution to be certified to the county board of elections and such board of elections, within ten days after such certification, shall proceed to make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such question to such electors at the time fixed by such resolution.

Such election shall be held at the regular places of voting in the county and shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified, except as otherwise provided by law, as are elections of county officers. The county board of elections must give fifteen days' notice of such submission by publication in one or more newspapers published in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, stating the amount of bonds to be issued, the purpose for which they are to be issued, and the time and places of holding such election. Those who vote in favor of the proposition shall have written or printed on their ballots "for the issue of bonds" and those who vote against it shall have written or printed on their ballots "against the issue of bonds." If a majority of those voting upon the question of issuing the bonds vote in favor thereof, then and only then shall they be issued and the tax provided for in section 1711.20 of the Revised Code be levied.

1988 H 802, § 3, eff. 12-15-88, reads:

The amendments made by this act to section 1901.02 of the Revised Code that specifically include certain municipal corporations within the jurisdiction of the Bowling Green, Cuyahoga Falls, Elyria, Fairborn, Maumee, Medina, Miamisburg, Niles, Oberlin, Perrysburg, Struthers, Sylvania, Vandalia, and Wadsworth Municipal Courts, and that modify the definition of "within a township" in division (C)(1) of that section are not intended to change the jurisdiction of the specified municipal courts but rather are intended to do all of the following:

(A) Clarify that the listed municipal corporations currently are within the jurisdiction of the specified municipal courts because those municipal corporations each were within the jurisdiction of the specified municipal court prior to the effective date of Am. Sub. H.B. 159 of the 116th General Assembly, because they each are within a township that was specified as being within the jurisdiction of the specified municipal court by that act and that still is within the jurisdiction of the specified municipal court, and because they were not removed from the jurisdiction of the particular court by that act;

(B) Ensure that the intent of the General Assembly, as expressed in Am. Sub. H.B. 159 of the 116th General Assembly, to retain the listed municipal corporations within the jurisdiction of the specified municipal courts is effectuated by an interpretation of section 1901.02 of the Revised Code that is consistent with that intent;

(C) Clarify that the definition of "within a township" that is contained in division (C)(1) of section 1901.02 of the Revised Code and that was enacted in Am. Sub. H.B. 159 of the 116th General Assembly was intended to include and does include all land, including, but not limited to, any part of a municipal corporation that is completely within the territorial boundaries of the specified township, regardless of whether any territory or any territorial boundary of the municipal corporation touches any boundary of the specified township.

472 F(2d) 214 (6th Cir Ohio 1972), Gilday v Hamilton County Bd of Elections. Statutes assigning to municipal court of Hamilton county a substantially fewer number of judges on the basis of population than number accorded to other counties was not a denial of equal protection where there was no contention that hearings failed to comply with the requirement of the due process clause that litigants be accorded a meaningful hearing.

2. In general

51 Misc 61, 366 NE(2d) 304 (Muni, Wadsworth 1977), State v Veal. RC 1901.02 is within the meaning of RC 1.48, a statute having prospective application only.

839 F(2d) 275 (6th Cir Ohio 1988), Mallory v Eyrich. Allegations that the merger more than twenty years ago of the Cincinnati municipal court into the Hamilton County municipal court violated the Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 USC 1973 et seq. as it was amended in 1982, because the percentage of black people in the county is smaller than that in the city alone so that blacks are "disenfranchised" by being less able to elect black judges, are sufficient to state a claim for relief under the federal statute.

1960 OAG 1175. When the territory of a municipal court or courts is expanded to include all of the area of an existing county court, the existing county court is abolished, and the term of the incumbent county court judge and his right to salary are terminated.

3. Jurisdiction

a. In general

163 OS 220, 126 NE(2d) 326 (1955), Gibson v Summers Construction Co. A municipal court established by RC 1901.01 that is not among the courts whose jurisdiction is extended by RC 1901.02 has no jurisdiction beyond the territorial limits of the municipality, notwithstanding language in RC 1901.19 stating municipal courts have jurisdiction within the county they sit in over civil actions for money only in an amount greater than the jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

120 App 249, 198 NE(2d) 674 (1964), Jacubenta v Dunbar. An action may be brought in a municipal court in a county in which there is more than one municipal court against a resident of another county for injuries resulting from the negligent operation of a motor vehicle within the territory of such municipal court, and such municipal court may acquire jurisdiction over the person of a defendant who resides in another county, and may, where it has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, issue summons to the sheriff of another county for service on a defendant as in other civil actions, and through such service acquire jurisdiction over the person of such defendant.

96 App 307, 119 NE(2d) 637 (1954), Gibson v Summers Construction Co; affirmed by 163 OS 220, 126 NE(2d) 326 (1955). So far as RC 1901.02 and RC 1901.19 are in direct conflict, the provisions of RC 1901.02, being special and specific, prevail in defining jurisdictional limits of a municipal court.

51 Misc 61, 366 NE(2d) 304 (Muni, Wadsworth 1977), State v Veal. Municipal courts, being statutory courts, must necessarily be guided in the exercise of their territorial and subject-matter jurisdiction exclusively and entirely by statute.

8 Misc 176, 221 NE(2d) 488 (Muni, Akron 1966), Carbin v Major. An action to recover for alleged negligence occurring within the territorial limits of a municipal court may be brought in such court, and service may be obtained on a defendant residing within the county but outside the jurisdiction of the municipal court.

b. Territorial

28 OS(2d) 207, 277 NE(2d) 227 (1971), Fairborn v Munkus. Municipal police officer may make arrest for a violation of municipal ordinance, upon a properly issued warrant, anywhere within jurisdictional limits of the issuing court.

23 App(3d) 85, 23 OBR 150, 491 NE(2d) 345 (Warren 1985), Brooks v Hurst Buick-Pontiac-Olds-GMC, Inc. Municipal courts' jurisdiction is not territorial; the territorial limits of RC 1901.02 are limits on venue only and may be waived by failure to move for a change of venue, notwithstanding a motion raising the issue but erroneously seeking dismissal for lack of jurisdiction.

No. 89 CA 32 (2d Dist Ct App, Greene, 3-20-90), State v Simons. A municipality which has not detached itself from a township is considered to be "within a township" for jurisdictional purposes of RC 1901.02(C)(1).

55 Misc(2d) 3, 563 NE(2d) 57 (Muni, Hamilton County 1989), State v Currens. The Hamilton County Municipal Court has no jurisdiction over acts occurring upon the waters of the Ohio River.

OAG 73-113. A municipality has authority to provide by ordinance for compensation of counsel assigned to represent indigents accused before the municipal court of violations of municipal ordinances; except that if the jurisdiction of the municipal court extends beyond the territorial limits of the municipality, it has authority to compensate such counsel only in cases involving violations of municipal ordinances.

OAG 66-001. Prosecution for violation of Ohio liquor laws may be instituted by and through the prosecuting attorneys of the respective counties along the south shore of Lake Erie in their respective common pleas courts for such liquor law violations committed on the "Ohio waters" of Lake Erie within their respective county boundaries as such boundaries are defined by statute.

1960 OAG 1619. Where a municipal court has territorial jurisdiction in municipal corporations and townships which extend from the shores of Lake Erie southward, such municipal court, unless specifically authorized by statute, does not have jurisdiction over a case involving a violation set forth in RC 1531.18, where the violation occurred in the waters of Lake Erie off the shores of one of said municipal corporations or townships.

c. Subject matter

12 OS(2d) 26, 231 NE(2d) 70 (1967), State ex rel Foreman v Bellefontaine Municipal Court. A municipal court has the power to grant relief by declaratory judgments within the limits of its jurisdiction of the subject matter, but does not have authority to declare certain tax ordinances of a city invalid and to prohibit the county auditor from making assessments under such ordinance.

75 Abs 430, 144 NE(2d) 255 (App, Columbiana 1955), State v Titak. Action of municipal judge in binding defendant accused of driving while intoxicated over to grand jury rather than trying the case on the merits was proper unless challenged by mandamus.

d. Concurrent

49 OS(2d) 195, 360 NE(2d) 704 (1977), State ex rel Brady v Howell. Both the Franklin county municipal court and the mayor's court in New Albany have jurisdiction to hear a case involving an arrest for exceeding the posted speed limit in the village of New Albany, located in Franklin county.

OAG 66-001. The municipal courts of Vermilion and Oberlin do not have concurrent jurisdiction between the easterly and westerly lines of Vermilion-on-the-Lake northerly beyond the south shore of Lake Erie to the international boundary line between the United States and Canada.

e. Specific courts

163 OS 220, 126 NE(2d) 326 (1955), Gibson v Summers Construction Co. The Euclid municipal court does not have jurisdiction outside the city of Euclid.

161 OS 463, 119 NE(2d) 635 (1954), State ex rel Clair v Beacham. The Willoughby municipal court has jurisdiction within Willoughby and Kirtland townships. Willoughby township is the area prescribed by the county commissioners, and does not include the village of Willowick. A township is that territory duly included therein from time to time by action of the county commissioner under GC 3245 (RC 503.02) et seq.

106 App 481, 151 NE(2d) 672 (1958), State v Zdovc. The Parma municipal court has jurisdiction to try a defendant charged with driving while intoxicated in the village of Brooklyn and arrested in such village by a Parma police officer where such defendant is physically before the court and its jurisdiction has been duly invoked by the filing of a valid affidavit charging the offense.

55 Misc(2d) 3, 563 NE(2d) 57 (Muni, Hamilton County 1989), State v Currens. The Hamilton County Municipal Court has no jurisdiction over acts occurring upon the waters of the Ohio River.

51 Misc 61, 366 NE(2d) 304 (Muni, Wadsworth 1977), State v Veal. The Wadsworth municipal court is without jurisdiction to consider criminal matters arising within the township of Guilford prior to January 1, 1977.

66 Abs 568, 113 NE(2d) 35 (Muni, Euclid 1952), Beacon Mutual Indemnity Co v Ostrovecky. The Euclid municipal court has county-wide jurisdiction in motor vehicle damage cases even though the accident occurs outside Euclid and the defendant is served by mail at his residence in South Euclid.

1964 OAG 1339. RC 1901.023 enlarges the jurisdiction of the Port Clinton municipal court to include generally that territory situated northerly beyond the south shore of Lake Erie to the international boundary line between the United States and Canada and between the easterly and westerly boundary lines of the said court except Put-In-Bay township of Ottawa county, which is expressly excluded from such jurisdiction by reason of the language of RC 1901.02.

1901.051 Judges of housing divisions and environmental division

(A) The housing division of the Cleveland municipal court shall consist of one full-time judge. The judge of the housing division shall be elected specifically as the housing division judge and shall be the judge of the Cleveland municipal court whose term began January 2, 1978, and his successors.

(B) The housing division of the Toledo municipal court shall consist of one full-time judge. The judge of the housing division shall be elected specifically as the housing division judge and shall be the judge of the Toledo municipal court whose term begins January 1, 1988, and his successors.

(C) The environmental division of the Franklin county municipal court shall consist of one full-time judge. The judge of the environmental division shall be elected specifically as the environmental division judge and shall be the judge of the Franklin county municipal court whose term begins January 8, 1992, and his successors.

1901.06 Qualifications and election of judge

A municipal judge during his term of office shall be a qualified elector and a resident of the territory of the court to which he is elected or appointed. A municipal judge shall have been admitted to the practice of law in this state and shall have been, for a total of at least six years preceding his appointment or the commencement of his term, engaged in the practice of law in this state or served as a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the United States, or both.

Except as provided in section 1901.08 of the Revised Code, the first election of any newly created office of a municipal judge shall be held at the next regular municipal election occurring not less than one hundred days after the creation of the office. The institution of a new municipal court shall take place on the first day of January next after the first election for the court.

1. Constitutional issues

175 OS 253, 193 NE(2d) 392 (1963), State ex rel Williams v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. RC 1901.06 is constitutional and a board of elections is authorized to determine whether a candidate for municipal judge is qualified as an attorney.

164 OS 193, 129 NE(2d) 623 (1955), State ex rel Flynn v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; overruled on other grounds by 1 OS(3d) 272, 1 OBR 382, 439 NE(2d) 891 (1982), State ex rel Schenck v Shattuck. RC 1901.06 is constitutional.

OAG 73-082. O Const Art IV, § 6(B), prohibits an assistant county prosecuting attorney from also serving as a part-time municipal court judge.

2. In general

839 F(2d) 275 (6th Cir Ohio 1988), Mallory v Eyrich. The Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 USC 1973 et seq, applies to judicial as well as legislative elections.

1964 OAG 1017. The authority to designate an additional judge under RC 1901.10 is in the chief justice of the supreme court upon written request of the judge or presiding judge of the municipal court, and if the chief justice reports that no municipal judge is available to serve by designation, the judges of the municipal court may appoint a substitute judge.

3. Qualifications of judges

a. In general

66 App(3d) 757 (Montgomery 1990), Leach v Dixon. The judgment of an acting municipal court judge lacking the residency requirements of RC 1901.06, but meeting all other qualifications, is not subject to vacation due to his nonresidency in the jurisdiction of the court.

OAG 86-002. Pursuant to RC 1901.10 and RC 1901.12, when a municipal court has only one judge, that judge may appoint a substitute to serve as acting judge while the municipal court judge is on vacation or otherwise temporarily absent or incapacitated. The acting judge must have the qualifications set forth in RC 1901.06 and is entitled to be paid in the same manner and at the same rate as the incumbent judge.

b. Admission to practice and good standing

168 OS 338, 154 NE(2d) 751 (1958), State ex rel Saxbe v Franko. An indefinite suspension from the practice of law works a forfeiture of the office of municipal judge and is a ground for removal.

OAG 73-007. A disbarred attorney cannot hold the position of attorney examiner or any other position with the board of tax appeals in which he would perform duties similar to the duties of an attorney examiner.

c. Practice of law

63 OS(3d) 136 (1992), State ex rel Carr v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The period during which a candidate for municipal court judge has been admitted to the bar but has not filed a certificate of registration under Gov Bar VI may not be counted toward the six-year legal experience requirement of RC 1901.06.

1 OS(3d) 272, 1 OBR 382, 439 NE(2d) 891 (1982), State ex rel Schenk v Shattuck. A lawyer employed as a referee is engaged in the "practice of law."

165 OS 447, 136 NE(2d) 47 (1956), State ex rel Devine v Schwarzwalder. Service as an attorney examiner and as chief of the permit division in the department of liquor control is "actively engaging in the practice of law" within the meaning of RC 1901.06.

164 OS 193, 129 NE(2d) 623 (1955), State ex rel Flynn v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; overruled on other grounds by 1 OS(3d) 272, 1 OBR 382, 439 NE(2d) 891 (1982), State ex rel Schenck v Shattuck. Service as municipal court referee is not the practice of law within the meaning of RC 1901.06.

1901.07 Term of office of judge; nominations

(A) All municipal court judges shall be elected on the nonpartisan ballot for terms of six years. In a municipal court in which only one judge is to be elected in any one year, his term commences on the first day of January after the election. In a municipal court in which two or more judges are to be elected in any one year, their terms commence on successive days beginning the first day of January, following the election, unless otherwise provided by section 1901.08 of the Revised Code.

(B) All candidates for municipal judge may be nominated either by nominating petition or by primary election, except that if the jurisdiction of a municipal court extends only to the corporate limits of the municipal corporation in which the court is located and that municipal corporation operates under a charter, all candidates shall be nominated in the same manner provided in the charter for the office of municipal judge, or if no specific provisions are made in the charter for the office of municipal judge, in the same manner as the charter prescribes for the nomination and election of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation.

If a municipal corporation that has a municipal court has a charter that specifies a primary date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, and if the jurisdiction of the court extends beyond the corporate limits of the municipal corporation, all candidates for the office of municipal judge of that court shall be nominated only by petition.

If no charter provisions apply, all candidates for party nomination to the office of municipal judge shall file a declaration of candidacy and petition not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, in the form prescribed by section 3513.07 of the Revised Code. The petition shall conform to the requirements provided for such petitions of candidacy contained in section 3513.05 of the Revised Code. If no valid declaration of candidacy is filed for nomination as a candidate of a political party for election to the office of municipal judge, or if the number of persons filing the declarations of candidacy for nominations as candidates of one political party for election to the office does not exceed the number of candidates that that party is entitled to nominate as its candidates for election to the office, no primary election shall be held for the purpose of nominating candidates of that party for election to the office, and the candidates shall be issued certificates of nomination in the manner set forth in section 3513.02 of the Revised Code.

If no charter provisions apply, nonpartisan candidates filing nominating petitions for the office of municipal judge shall file them not later than four p.m. of the day before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, in the form prescribed by section 3513.261 of the Revised Code. The petition shall conform to the requirements provided for such petitions of candidacy contained in section 3513.257 of the Revised Code.

The nominating petition or declaration of candidacy for a municipal judge shall contain a designation of the term for which the candidate seeks election. At the following regular municipal election, the candidacies of the judges nominated shall be submitted to the electors of the territory on a nonpartisan, judicial ballot in the same manner as provided for judges of the court of common pleas, except that, in a municipal corporation operating under a charter, all candidates for municipal judge shall be elected in conformity with the charter if provisions are made in the charter for the election of municipal judges.

(C) Notwithstanding divisions (A) and (B) of this section, in the following municipal courts, the judges shall be nominated and elected as follows:

(1) In the Cleveland municipal court, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petition shall be signed by at least one thousand electors of the territory of the court. It shall be in the statutory form and shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by the charter of the city of Cleveland for filing petitions of candidates for municipal offices. Each elector shall have the right to sign petitions for as many candidates as are to be elected, but no more. The judges shall be elected by the electors of the territory of the court in the manner provided by law for the election of judges of the court of common pleas.

(2) In the Toledo municipal court, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petition shall be signed by at least one thousand electors of the territory of the court. It shall be in the statutory form and shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by the charter of the city of Toledo for filing nominating petitions for city council. Each elector shall have the right to sign petitions for as many candidates as are to be elected, but no more. The judges shall be elected by the electors of the territory of the court in the manner provided by law for the election of judges of the court of common pleas.

(3) In the Akron municipal court, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petition shall be signed by at least two hundred fifty electors of the territory of the court. It shall be in statutory form and shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by the charter of the city of Akron for filing nominating petitions of candidates for municipal offices. Each elector shall have the right to sign petitions for as many candidates as are to be elected, but no more. The judges shall be elected by the electors of the territory of the court in the manner provided by law for the election of judges of the court of common pleas.

(4) In the Hamilton county municipal court, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petition shall be signed by at least one thousand electors of the territory of the court, which petitions shall be signed, verified, and filed in the manner and within the time required by law for nominating petitions for members of council of the city of Cincinnati. The judges shall be elected by the electors of the territory of the court at the regular municipal election and in the manner provided by law for the election of judges of the court of common pleas.

(5) In the Franklin county municipal court, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petition shall be signed by at least one thousand electors of the territory of the court. The petition shall be in the statutory form and shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by the charter of the city of Columbus for filing petitions of candidates for municipal offices. The judges shall be elected by the electors of the territory of the court in the manner provided by law for the election of judges of the court of common pleas.

(6) In the Auglaize, Clermont, Crawford, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Madison, Miami, Portage, and Wayne county municipal courts, the judges shall be nominated only by petition. The petitions shall be signed by at least two hundred fifty electors of the territory of the court and shall conform to the provisions of this section.

(D) As used in this section, as to an election for either a full or an unexpired term, "the territory within the jurisdiction of the court" means such territory as it will be on the first day of January after the election.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

2. Time to file nominating petition
3. Party nomination or endorsement
4. Charter municipalities

1. In general

28 OS(2d) 7, 274 NE(2d) 560 (1971), State ex rel Leis v Hamilton County Bd of Elections. An act of general assembly enlarging territory of municipal court and specifying times for electing two more judges than the court previously had, but three less than the total which would have been warranted by the general provisions of RC 1901.05 relating to additional judges "by acquisition of territory," overrides the general provisions; and those three additional judicial offices are not created by RC 1901.05.

717 FSupp 540 (SD Ohio 1989), Mallory v Eyrich. Where plaintiffs in a federal suit claim that election of municipal judges "at large" violates 42 USC 1973 because it results in the city's black minority having "less opportunity to participate in the political process and to elect representatives of their choice," and where the government defendants consent to have judgment taken against them and to have the federal court devise a remedy, the federal court will decline this invitation to usurp the function of the Ohio legislature by fashioning a remedy to a violation that may not even exist; whether to elect municipal judges at-large or in districts is a legislative problem and, at a time of growing public dismay at the power wielded by judges over every facet of contemporary life, the court is somewhat startled to note that one of the plaintiffs in the suit is the majority leader of the Ohio house of representatives; the court also takes judicial notice that the plaintiffs and the defendants who wish to confess judgment here are all members of the same political party.

2. Time to file nominating petition

28 OS(2d) 12, 274 NE(2d) 458 (1971), State ex rel Fahrig v Brown. Where a candidate for office filed nominating petitions for an office which were declined because the census did not reflect that the office would be subject to election, but such figures did establish that it would be at a date after the deadline for filing, there is no clear duty requiring such petitions to be accepted relating back to the statutory date for filing.

160 OS 184, 115 NE(2d) 1 (1953), State ex rel Easton v Brown. Neither the statutory nor the charter provisions relating to the election of judges of the municipal court of Cleveland establish a method for the formal nomination of candidates by petition for an unexpired term when the vacancy occurs after the final date fixed for filing nominating petitions, so that mandamus will not issue to compel the acceptance of a relator's nominating petition and the placing of his name on the ballot.

3. Party nomination or endorsement

20 OS(2d) 29, 252 NE(2d) 289 (1969), State ex rel Flex v Gwin. Where a declared candidate for public office is found to be ineligible there is, in effect, an involuntary withdrawal, a withdrawal by operation of law, and, under RC 3513.31, another candidate may be appointed by a county district central committee to take his place.

22 Misc 48, 257 NE(2d) 914 (CP, Cuyahoga 1969), Jenkins v Porter. An action by a candidate nominated at a partisan primary for an injunction and damages against the executive committee of the same party for its endorsement of a candidate nominated by a nonpartisan petition fails to show irreparable damages and presents only a political issue, so that relief must be denied.

4. Charter municipalities

65 App(2d) 23, 413 NE(2d) 855 (1979), State ex rel Froelich v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Since the Dayton charter contains provisions and forms for the content of nominating petitions and since the Revised Code incorporates charter provisions for the nomination of clerk of the municipal court, the court must look exclusively to the charter for the law that governs this case. Neither the court nor the parties may pick and choose state statutes at variance with the charter when the charter is responsive to the question.

88 Abs 140, 179 NE(2d) 182 (CP, Montgomery 1961), State ex rel Jackson v Horstman. The candidate for office of municipal judge in the charter city of Dayton is required by paragraph two of RC 1901.07 to file for nomination in 1961 in the same manner as that which the charter provides for nomination and election of the city commissioners according to sections 7, 8 and 9 of that charter.

1991 H 200, § 5 and 6, eff. 7-8-91, read:

Section 5. The Clermont County County Court authorized in the version of section 1907.11 of the Revised Code that was in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act shall remain in effect until the establishment of the Clermont County Municipal Court on January 1, 1992. Upon the establishment of the Clermont County Municipal Court on January 1, 1992, pursuant to section 1901.06 of the Revised Code, the former Clermont County County Court is abolished.

Section 6. The judges of the county courts listed in section 1907.11 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, are the same judges of the county courts authorized in the version of section 1907.11 of the Revised Code that was in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

The number of additional judges which a municipal court shall have "as a result of a new decennial federal census" equals the difference between (a) the number of judges court would have by applying the formula in second paragraph of RC 1901.05 to the population of the territory of the court as revealed by new census, and (b) number of judges court would have by applying the same formula to population of territory according to the prior census.

OAG 75-091. RC 1901.11 requires that the annual compensation to be paid municipal court judges, designated as "full-time" pursuant to RC 1901.08, is computed by adding eighteen cents per capita—for the population of the appropriate territory—to $21,000, but by also restricting that annual compensation to the lesser of (a) the amount of compensation of the judge of the appropriate county common pleas court, reduced by $2,000, or (b) $31,000.

1964 OAG 781. The offices of "part time" municipal court judge and "part time" village solicitor are incompatible where the jurisdiction of the municipal court includes the village which the village solicitor serves.

1901.10 Oath of office; vacancy; appointment or election of substitute; additional judges

(A)(1)(a) The judges of the municipal court and officers of the court shall take an oath of office, as provided in section 3.23 of the Revised Code. The office of judge of the municipal court is subject to forfeiture, and the judge may be removed from office, for the causes and by the procedure provided in sections 3.07 to 3.10 of the Revised Code. A vacancy in the office of judge exists upon the death, resignation, forfeiture, removal from office, or absence from official duties for a period of six consecutive months, as determined under this section, of the judge and also by reason of the expiration of the term of an incumbent when no successor has been elected or qualified. The chief justice of the supreme court may designate a judge of another municipal court to act until that vacancy is filled in accordance with section 107.08 of the Revised Code. A vacancy resulting from the absence of a municipal judge from official duties for a period of six consecutive months shall be determined and declared by the legislative authority.

(b) If a vacancy occurs after the one-hundredth day before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May and prior to the fortieth day before the day of the general election, all candidates for election to such unexpired term for the office of judge or clerk of the municipal court shall file nominating petitions with the board of elections not later than four p.m. on the tenth day following the day on which the vacancy occurs, provided that when the vacancy occurs fewer than six days before the fortieth day before the general election, the deadline for filing shall be four p.m. on the thirty-sixth day before the day of the general election.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(1)(d) of this section, each nominating petition shall be in the form prescribed in section 3513.261 of the Revised Code and shall be signed by qualified electors of the territory of the municipal court not less in number than one per cent of the number of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding regular state election in the territory over which such court has jurisdiction, or twenty-five hundred electors, whichever is the lesser number.

(d) For any such vacancy occurring in the office of judge or clerk of a municipal court named in division (C)(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of section 1901.07 of the Revised Code, each nominating petition shall be signed by qualified electors of the territory of the municipal court not less in number than one per cent of the number of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding regular state election in the territory over which the court has jurisdiction, or the number of qualified electors required to sign a nominating petition in each of those divisions, as applicable to each particular court, whichever is the lesser number.

(e) No nominating petition shall be accepted for filing or filed if it appears on its face to contain signatures aggregating in number more than twice the minimum aggregate number of signatures required by this section.

(2) If a judge of a municipal court that has only one judge is temporarily absent or incapacitated, the judge may appoint a substitute who has the qualifications required by section 1901.06 of the Revised Code, and, if the judge is unable to make the appointment, the chief executive shall appoint a substitute. The appointee shall serve during the absence or incapacity of the incumbent, shall have the jurisdiction and powers conferred upon the judge of the municipal court, and shall be styled "acting judge." He shall sign all process and records during the time he is serving, and shall perform all acts pertaining to the office, except that of removal and appointment of officers of the court. All courts shall take judicial notice of the selection and powers of the acting judge, who shall be paid in the same manner and at the same rate as the incumbent judge, except that, if the acting judge is entitled to compensation under division (A)(5) of section 141.04 of the Revised Code, then section 1901.121 of the Revised Code shall govern its payment.

(B) When the volume of cases pending in any municipal court necessitates an additional judge, the chief justice of the supreme court, upon written request of the judge or presiding judge of that municipal court, may designate a judge of another municipal court to serve for any period of time that he may prescribe. In addition to the annual salary provided for in section 1901.11 of the Revised Code, and, if the judge is entitled to compensation under division (A)(5) of section 141.04 of the Revised Code in connection with his own court, in addition to that compensation, each judge while holding court outside his territory on the designation of the chief justice shall receive thirty dollars or the difference between the per diem compensation of the judge so assigned and the per diem compensation of the judges of the court to which he is assigned calculated on the basis of two hundred fifty working days per year, whichever is the greater, for each day of such assignment, and his actual and necessary expenses, to be paid from the city treasury or, in the case of a county-operated municipal court, from the county treasury.

If a request is made by a judge or the presiding judge of a municipal court to designate a judge of another municipal court because of the volume of cases in the court for which the request is made and the chief justice reports, in writing, that no municipal judge is available to serve by designation, the judges of the court requesting the designation may appoint a substitute as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, who may serve for any period of time that is prescribed by the chief justice. The substitute judge shall be paid in the same manner and at the same rate as the incumbent judges, except that, if he is entitled to compensation under division (A)(5) of section 141.04 of the Revised Code, then section 1901.121 of the Revised Code shall govern its payment.

76 App 228, 62 NE(2d) 589 (1945), Blanton v Littrell. GC 1579-85, providing for appointment of acting judge of municipal court of Dayton by chief justice thereof, when an incumbent judge of such court is temporarily absent or incapacitated from acting, is constitutional.

67 App 248, 36 NE(2d) 422 (1940), State v Partanen. Person arraigned and convicted before judge temporarily appointed under GC 1579-1073 (Repealed) has not been deprived of his right to appear before a magistrate and be informed of the charges placed against him, guaranteed under GC 13433-1 (RC 2937.02), nor has he been deprived of "due process of law."

OAG 86-025. Absent statutory authority therefor, O Const Art IV, § 6(B) prohibits a municipal court judge from participating in an "in lieu of salary increase" pick up plan, whereby the appropriate public employer assumes and pays the employee contributions to the public employees retirement system on behalf of the judge, and does not impose a commensurate reduction in the judge's salary. A municipal court judge may, however, participate in a "salary reduction" pick up plan, under which the appropriate public employer assumes and pays the employee contributions to the public employees retirement system on behalf of the judge, and reduces the judge's salary by the amount of such contributions. Any such plan must be qualified with the internal revenue service prior to implementation to insure favorable tax treatment is received.

OAG 73-082. O Const Art IV, § 6(B), prohibits an assistant county prosecuting attorney from also serving as a part-time municipal court judge.

c. Compensation

OAG 86-002. An acting judge is entitled to be paid in the same manner and at the same rate as the incumbent judge.

OAG 73-083. An acting judge of a municipal court must be paid in the same manner and at the same rate as the incumbent judge.

OAG 73-083. In calculating the per diem compensation rate of an acting municipal court judge, the total salary of the incumbent judge is divided by the annual number of working days of the court.

1964 OAG 1491. The city council of the city in which a municipal court is located is the sole authority to prescribe additional compensation for a judge of that court, notwithstanding the territorial jurisdiction of the court extends beyond the territorial boundaries of the city.

1901.31 Clerks; deputy clerks; powers and duties

The clerk and deputy clerks of a municipal court shall be selected, be compensated, give bond, and have powers and duties as follows:

(A) There shall be a clerk of the court who is appointed or elected as follows:

(1)(a) Except in the Akron, Clermont county, Hamilton county, Portage county, and Wayne county municipal courts, if the population of the territory equals or exceeds one hundred thousand at the regular municipal election next preceding the expiration of the term of the present clerk, the clerk shall be nominated and elected by the qualified electors of the territory in the manner that is provided for the nomination and election of judges in section 1901.07 of the Revised Code.

The clerk so elected shall hold office for a term of six years, which term shall commence on the first day of January next after his election and continue until his successor is elected and qualified.

(b) In the Hamilton county municipal court, the clerk of courts of Hamilton county shall be the clerk of the municipal court and may appoint an assistant clerk who shall receive the compensation, payable out of the treasury of Hamilton county in semimonthly installments, that the board of county commissioners prescribes. The clerk of courts of Hamilton county, acting as the clerk of the Hamilton county municipal court and assuming the duties of that office, shall receive compensation at one-fourth the rate that is prescribed for the clerks of courts of common pleas as determined in accordance with the population of the county and the rates set forth in sections 325.08 and 325.18 of the Revised Code. This compensation shall be paid from the county treasury in semimonthly installments and is in addition to the annual compensation that is received for the performance of the duties of the clerk of courts of Hamilton county, as provided in sections 325.08 and 325.18 of the Revised Code.

(c) In the Portage county and Wayne county municipal courts, the clerks of courts of Portage county and Wayne county shall be the clerks, respectively, of the Portage county and Wayne county municipal courts and may appoint a chief deputy clerk for each branch that is established pursuant to section 1901.311 of the Revised Code, and assistant clerks as the judges of the municipal court determine are necessary, all of whom shall receive the compensation that the legislative authority prescribes. The clerks of courts of Portage county and Wayne county, acting as the clerks of the Portage county and Wayne county municipal courts and assuming the duties of these offices, shall receive compensation at the rate of four thousand eight hundred dollars per year payable from the county treasury in semimonthly installments.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(1)(d) of this section, in the Akron municipal court, candidates for election to the office of clerk of the court shall be nominated by primary election. The primary election shall be held on the day specified in the charter of the city of Akron for the nomination of municipal officers. Notwithstanding section 3513.257 of the Revised Code, the nominating petitions of independent candidates shall be signed by at least two hundred fifty qualified electors of the territory of the court.

The candidates shall file a declaration of candidacy and petition, or a nominating petition, whichever is applicable, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the primary election, in the form prescribed by section 3513.07 or 3513.261 of the Revised Code. The declaration of candidacy and petition, or the nominating petition, shall conform to the applicable requirements of section 3513.05 or 3513.257 of the Revised Code.

If no valid declaration of candidacy and petition is filed by any person for nomination as a candidate of a particular political party for election to the office of clerk of the Akron municipal court, a primary election shall not be held for the purpose of nominating a candidate of that party for election to that office. If only one person files a valid declaration of candidacy and petition for nomination as a candidate of a particular political party for election to that office, a primary election shall not be held for the purpose of nominating a candidate of that party for election to that office, and the candidate shall be issued a certificate of nomination in the manner set forth in section 3513.02 of the Revised Code.

Declarations of candidacy and petitions, nominating petitions, and certificates of nomination for the office of clerk of the Akron municipal court shall contain a designation of the term for which the candidate seeks election. At the following regular municipal election, all candidates for the office shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the territory of the court in the manner that is provided in section 1901.07 of the Revised Code for the election of the judges of the court. The clerk so elected shall hold office for a term of six years, which term shall commence on the first day of January next after his election, and continue until his successor is elected and qualified.

(e) In the Clermont county municipal court, the clerk of courts of Clermont county shall be the clerk of the municipal court. The clerk of courts of Clermont county, acting as the clerk of the Clermont county municipal court and assuming the duties of that office, shall receive compensation at one-fourth the rate that is prescribed for the clerks of courts of common pleas as determined in accordance with the population of the county and the rates set forth in sections 325.08 and 325.18 of the Revised Code. This compensation shall be paid from the county treasury in semimonthly installments and is in addition to the annual compensation that is received for the performance of the duties of the clerk of courts of Clermont county, as provided in sections 325.08 and 325.18 of the Revised Code.

(2)(a) Except in the Alliance, Auglaize county, Lorain, Massillon, and Youngstown municipal courts, if the population of the territory is less than one hundred thousand, the clerk shall be appointed by the court, and the clerk shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified.

(b) In the Alliance, Lorain, Massillon, and Youngstown municipal courts, the clerk shall be elected for a term of office as described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section.

(c) In the Auglaize county municipal court, the clerk of courts of Auglaize county shall be the clerk of the municipal court and may appoint a chief deputy clerk for each branch that is established pursuant to section 1901.311 of the Revised Code, and assistant clerks as the judge of the court determines are necessary, all of whom shall receive the compensation that the legislative authority prescribes. The clerk of courts of Auglaize county, acting as the clerk of the Auglaize county municipal court and assuming the duties of that office, shall receive compensation at the rate of one thousand eight hundred dollars per year payable from the county treasury in semimonthly installments.

(3) During the temporary absence of the clerk due to illness, vacation, or other proper cause, the court may appoint a temporary clerk, who shall be paid the same compensation and have the same authority and perform the same duties, as the clerk.

(B) Except in the Clermont county, Hamilton county, Portage county, and Wayne county municipal courts, if a vacancy occurs in the office of the clerk of the Alliance, Lorain, Massillon, or Youngstown municipal court or occurs in the office of the clerk of a municipal court for which the population of the territory equals or exceeds one hundred thousand because the clerk ceases to hold the office before the end of his term or because a clerk-elect fails to take office, the vacancy shall be filled, until a successor is elected and qualified, by a person chosen by the residents of the territory of the court who are members of the county central committee of the political party by which the last occupant of that office or the clerk-elect was nominated. Not less than five nor more than fifteen days after a vacancy occurs, those members of that county central committee shall meet to make an appointment to fill the vacancy. At least four days before the date of the meeting, the chairman or a secretary of the county central committee shall notify each such committee member by first class mail of the date, time, and place of the meeting and its purpose. A majority of all such committee members constitutes a quorum, and a majority of the quorum is required to make the appointment. If the office so vacated was occupied or was to be occupied by a person not nominated at a primary election, or if the appointment was not made by the committee members in accordance with this division, the court shall make an appointment to fill the vacancy. A successor shall be elected to fill the office for the unexpired term at the first municipal election that is held more than one hundred twenty days after the vacancy occurred.

(C) In a municipal court, other than the Auglaize county municipal court, for which the population of the territory is less than one hundred thousand, the clerk of a municipal court shall receive the annual compensation that the legislative authority prescribes. In a municipal court other than the Clermont county, Hamilton county, Portage county, and Wayne county municipal courts for which the population of the territory is one hundred thousand or more, the clerk of a municipal court shall receive annual compensation in a sum equal to eighty-five per cent of the salary of a judge of the court. The compensation is payable in semimonthly installments from the same sources and in the same manner as provided in section 1901.11 of the Revised Code.

(D) Before entering upon the duties of his office, the clerk of a municipal court shall give bond of not less than six thousand dollars to be determined by the judges of the court, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as clerk.

(E) The clerk of a municipal court may do all of the following: administer oaths, take affidavits, and issue executions upon any judgment rendered in the court, including a judgment for unpaid costs; issue, sign, and attach the seal of the court to all writs, process, subpoenas, and papers issuing out of the court; and approve all bonds, sureties, recognizances, and undertakings fixed by any judge of the court or by law. He shall do all of the following: file and safely keep all journals, records, books, and papers belonging or appertaining to the court; record the proceedings of the court; perform all other duties that the judges of the court may prescribe; and keep a book showing all receipts and disbursements, which book shall be open for public inspection at all times.

The clerk shall prepare and maintain a general index, a docket, and other records that the court, by rule, requires, all of which shall be the public records of the court. In the docket, the clerk shall enter, at the time of the commencement of an action, the names of the parties in full, the names of the counsel, and the nature of the proceedings. Under proper dates, he shall note the filing of the complaint, issuing of summons or other process, returns, and any subsequent pleadings. He shall also enter all reports, verdicts, orders, judgments, and proceedings of the court, clearly specifying the relief granted or orders made in each action. The court may order an extended record of any of the above to be made and entered, under the proper action heading, upon the docket at the request of any party to the case, the expense of which record may be taxed as costs in the case or may be required to be prepaid by the party demanding the record, upon order of the court.

(F) The clerk of a municipal court shall receive, collect, and issue receipts for all costs, fees, fines, bail, and other moneys payable to the office or to any officer of the court. He shall each month disburse to the proper persons or officers, and take receipts for, all costs, fees, fines, bail, and other moneys that he collects. Subject to section 3375.50 of the Revised Code and to any other section of the Revised Code that requires a specific manner of disbursement of any moneys received by a municipal court and except for the Hamilton county and Lawrence county municipal courts, the clerk shall pay all fines received for violation of municipal ordinances into the treasury of the municipal corporation the ordinance of which was violated and shall pay all fines received for violation of township resolutions adopted pursuant to Chapter 504. of the Revised Code into the treasury of the township the resolution of which was violated. Subject to section 1901.024 of the Revised Code, in the Hamilton county and Lawrence county municipal courts, the clerk shall pay fifty per cent of the fines received for violation of municipal ordinances and fifty per cent of the fines received for violation of township resolutions adopted pursuant to Chapter 504. of the Revised Code into the treasury of the county. Subject to sections 3375.50, 3375.53, and 5503.04 of the Revised Code and to any other section of the Revised Code that requires a specific manner of disbursement of any moneys received by a municipal court, the clerk shall pay all fines collected for the violation of state laws into the county treasury. Except in a county-operated municipal court, the clerk shall pay all costs and fees the disbursement of which is not otherwise provided for in the Revised Code into the city treasury. The clerk of a county-operated municipal court shall pay the costs and fees the disbursement of which is not otherwise provided for in the Revised Code into the county treasury. Moneys deposited as security for costs shall be retained pending the litigation. The clerk shall keep a separate account of all receipts and disbursements in civil and criminal cases, which shall be a permanent public record of the office. On the expiration of the term of the clerk, he shall deliver the records to his successor. He shall have other powers and duties as are prescribed by rule or order of the court.

(G) All moneys paid into a municipal court shall be noted on the record of the case in which they are paid and shall be deposited in a state or national bank, or a domestic savings and loan association, as defined in section 1151.01 of the Revised Code, that is selected by the clerk. Any interest received upon the deposits shall be paid into the city treasury, except that in a county-operated municipal court, the interest shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which the court is located.

On the first Monday in January of each year, the clerk shall make a list of the titles of all cases in the court that were finally determined more than one year past in which there remains unclaimed in the possession of the clerk any funds, or any part of a deposit for security of costs not consumed by the costs in the case. The clerk shall give notice of the moneys to the parties who are entitled to the moneys or to their attorneys of record. All the moneys remaining unclaimed on the first day of April of each year shall be paid by the clerk to the city treasurer, except that in a county-operated municipal court, the moneys shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the court is located. Any part of the moneys shall be paid by the treasurer at any time to the person who has the right to the moneys, upon proper certification of the clerk.

(H) Deputy clerks may be appointed by the clerk and shall receive the compensation, payable in semimonthly installments out of the city treasury, that the clerk may prescribe, except that the compensation of any deputy clerk of a county-operated municipal court shall be paid out of the treasury of the county in which the court is located. Each deputy clerk shall take an oath of office before entering upon the duties of his office and, when so qualified, may perform the duties appertaining to the office of the clerk. The clerk may require any of the deputy clerks to give bond of not less than three thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties.

(I) For the purposes of this section, whenever the population of the territory of a municipal court falls below one hundred thousand but not below ninety thousand, and the population of the territory prior to the most recent regular federal census exceeded one hundred thousand, the legislative authority of the municipal corporation may declare, by resolution, that the territory shall be considered to have a population of at least one hundred thousand.

(J) The clerk or a deputy clerk shall be in attendance at all sessions of the municipal court, although not necessarily in the courtroom, and may administer oaths to witnesses and jurors and receive verdicts.

1992 S 105, § 4, eff. 3-24-92, reads:

Except in the second paragraph of its division (F), section 1901.31 of the Revised Code is presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by both Sub. H.B. 77 and Am. Sub. H.B. 200 of the 119th General Assembly, with the new language of neither of the acts shown in capital letters. This is in recognition of the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that such amendments are to be harmonized where not substantively irreconcilable and constitutes a legislative finding that such is the resulting version in effect prior to the effective date of this act.

The second paragraph of division (F) of section 1901.31 of the Revised Code was amended, in inconsistent form, by both Sub. H.B. 77 and Am. Sub. H.B. 200 of the 119th General Assembly. The amendments of the two acts, although inconsistent in form, are not substantively irreconcilable. The second paragraph of division (F) of section 1901.31 and division (E) of section 4513.263 of the Revised Code are therefore amended by this act to reconcile the amendments. The second paragraph of division (F) of section 1901.31 of the Revised Code is presented in this act as it results from its amendment by Sub. H.B. 77; the paragraph is stricken through in confirmation of the amendment by Am. Sub. H.B. 200 (which also struck through the paragraph). The substance of the Sub. H.B. 77 amendment to the paragraph (which provides for forwarding to the treasurer of state, fines collected for violations of political subdivision seat belt laws) is transferred to division (E) of section 4513.263 of the Revised Code. These reconciling amendments, prepared in pursuance of the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be harmonized where not substantively irreconcilable, are corrective in purpose and are not substantive.

48 OS(2d) 379, 358 NE(2d) 615 (1976), State ex rel Lippitt v Edgecomb. Supreme court affirmed an appellate court judgment that evidence was inconclusive to show that the temporary docket of a municipal court regarding drunken driving arrests was a public record.

56 App(2d) 109, 381 NE(2d) 955 (1978), Dalton v Hysell. A clerk of courts who negligently fails to perform a ministerial duty and thereby proximately causes injury to another has no immunity from an action for damages.

73 Abs 214, 137 NE(2d) 163 (App, Montgomery 1955), State ex rel Focke v Price; affirmed by 165 OS 340, 135 NE(2d) 407 (1956). A deputy clerk of the municipal court has authority to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with a misdemeanor.

OAG 80-073. Pursuant to O Const Art II, § 20, a clerk of court who is assigned the duties of administrator may not receive additional compensation for the performance of those duties.

OAG 80-073. A municipal court has no authority to appoint an administrator who serves the entire court, although it may appoint an administrator for the small claims division of the court.

OAG 73-113. A municipality has authority to provide by ordinance for compensation of counsel assigned to represent indigents accused before the municipal court of violations of municipal ordinances; except that if the jurisdiction of the municipal court extends beyond the territorial limits of the municipality, it has authority to compensate such counsel only in cases involving violations of municipal ordinances.

1953 OAG 2442. The compensation of judges and clerks of municipal courts for which provision is made in GC 1591 (RC 1901.11) and this section, should be taken into account in the determination of the amounts payable monthly to a county law library association.

2. Appointment or election

28 OS(2d) 12, 274 NE(2d) 458 (1971), State ex rel Fahrig v Brown. Where a candidate for office filed nominating petitions for an office which were declined because the census did not reflect that the office would be subject to election, but such figures did establish that it would be at a date after the deadline for filing, there is no clear duty requiring such petitions to be accepted relating back to the statutory date for filing.

65 App(2d) 23, 413 NE(2d) 855 (1979), State ex rel Froelich v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Since the Dayton charter contains provisions and forms for the content of nominating petitions and since the Revised Code incorporates charter provisions for the nomination of clerk of the municipal court, the court must look exclusively to the charter for the law that governs this case. Neither the court nor the parties may pick and choose state statutes at variance with the charter when the charter is responsive to the question.

OAG 84-028. A municipal court clerk may not appoint deputy sheriffs of the county in which the municipal court is located as deputy clerks of the court.

OAG 80-073. A municipal court has no authority to appoint an administrator who serves the entire court, although it may appoint an administrator for the small claims division of the court.

3. Compatible offices

OAG 88-093. A municipal court clerk may not appoint a municipal police officer who serves within the court's jurisdiction to the position of deputy municipal court clerk.

OAG 80-073. Pursuant to O Const Art II, § 20, a clerk of court who is assigned the duties of administrator may not receive additional compensation for the performance of those duties.

OAG 80-073. Whether the office of clerk of court and the position of administrator of small claims court are incompatible is a factual determination, depending on the duties assigned.

1963 OAG 132. The office of village marshal is incompatible with the position of deputy clerk of courts of a municipal court.

1957 OAG 1379. A deputy clerk appointed pursuant to RC 1901.31 may serve in such capacity for two municipal courts if physically possible.

4. Compensation

57 OS(3d) 73, 565 NE(2d) 829 (1991), State ex rel O'Farrell v New Philadelphia City Council. A court or clerk need not prepare a journal entry when determining compensation of its employees.

57 OS(3d) 73, 565 NE(2d) 829 (1991), State ex rel O'Farrell v New Philadelphia City Council. The municipal judge and clerk of the court, not the city council, are empowered to determine compensation of municipal court employees, e.g., probation officer/bailiff, deputy bailiff, and deputy clerk. A municipal legislative authority is required to fund these positions at the rates determined by the judge and clerk absent a showing that the request is unreasonable or an abuse of discretion.

18 OS(3d) 157, 18 OBR 214, 480 NE(2d) 443 (1985), State ex rel Cramer v Crawford County Bd of Commrs. In order for county commissioners to prevail on the contention that a municipal court clerk has classified certain employees as deputy clerks solely for the purpose of obtaining the authority to determine their salaries, and without regard to their actual duties, there must be clear evidence of an abuse of discretion, since the court has wide discretion to prescribe duties of deputy clerks pursuant to RC 1901.31(F) and RC 1901.31(H).

18 OS(3d) 157, 18 OBR 214, 480 NE(2d) 443 (1985), State ex rel Cramer v Crawford County Bd of Commrs. Since the legislative authority is empowered to set the salary of a municipal court clerk, it is not required to honor even a reasonable salary request from the court and clerk, provided only that the legislative authority does not act in a manner which impairs the court's administration of justice.

9 OS(3d) 132, 9 OBR 382, 459 NE(2d) 213 (1984), State ex rel Durkin v Youngstown City Council. RC 1901.31(H) imposes a mandatory duty upon the legislative authority to fund the deputy clerk salaries prescribed by the clerk of courts, who is not required to establish the reasonableness of such salaries.

6 OS(3d) 132, 6 OBR 189, 451 NE(2d) 794 (1983), Schultz v Garrett. Where a statute setting forth the formula for the compensation of an officer is effective before the commencement of such officer's term, any salary increase which results from a change in one of the factors used by the statute to calculate the compensation is payable to the officer.

29 OS(2d) 114, 279 NE(2d) 870 (1972), State ex rel Edgecomb v Rosen; overruled by 6 OS(3d) 132, 6 OBR 189, 451 NE(2d) 794 (1983), Schultz v Garrett. Where general assembly by legislative enactment increases salary of a municipal court judge, thus entitling clerk of municipal court to increase in salary under RC 1901.31(C), such increase is not payable to an incumbent clerk during his existing term.

9 App(2d) 30, 222 NE(2d) 798 (1966), State ex rel Huppert v Sparma. Mandamus will issue to compel a city council to appropriate such sum of money as may be necessary to pay deputy clerks of a municipal court such compensation as the clerk has prescribed.

OAG 90-110. A municipal court employee is entitled to receive sick leave benefits as fixed by his compensating authority, subject to the statutory minimum prescribed by RC 124.38(A).

OAG 90-110. The various compensating authorities within a municipal court may prescribe vacation leave and holiday benefits as part of the compensation of the employees whose compensation they fix; such compensating authorities are given discretion to determine, upon examination of the operation of the municipal court served by such employees, whether its employees are county employees for purposes of the minimum vacation and holiday benefits prescribed by RC 325.19.

OAG 88-014. An elected municipal court clerk is entitled to receive any salary increase which results from application of the formula contained in RC 1901.31(C) to increases in the salary of a municipal court judge caused by amendments to RC 141.04 and 1901.11, and such increase in salary for the municipal court clerk does not violate O Const Art II §20 when paid to the clerk while in term.

OAG 86-025. O Const Art II, § 20, prohibits the clerk of the Massillon municipal court from participating in an "in lieu of salary increase" pick up plan, whereby the appropriate public employer assumes and pays the employee contributions to the public employees retirement system on behalf of the clerk, and does not impose a commensurate reduction in the clerk's salary, unless a statute enacted prior to the commencement of his term authorizes him to participate in such a plan. Such clerk may, however, participate in a "salary reduction" pick up plan, under which the appropriate public employer assumes and pays the employee contributions to the public employees retirement system on behalf of the clerk, and reduces the clerk's salary by the amount of such contributions, whether such plan is instituted before or during his term of office. Any such plan must be qualified with the internal revenue service prior to implementation to insure favorable tax treatment is received.

OAG 81-020. A municipal court clerk may not receive additional compensation for the performance of the duties of an assignment commissioner, typist, stenographer, or statistical clerk of the court, because the duties of these court aides fall within the scope of the office of the clerk.

OAG 80-073. A municipal court has no authority to fix the compensation of an administrator of the small claims division of the court.

OAG 80-014. RC 1901.31(H) gives the clerk of a municipal court the sole power to fix the salaries of the deputy clerks of the court. Regardless of RC 1901.36 and any charter provisions or ordinances, neither the legislative authority of a municipal corporation nor the city manager, if any, has the authority to fix the deputy clerks' salaries.

OAG 77-082. Where the general assembly by legislative enactment increases the compensation of a clerk of courts of a county, thus entitling the clerk of a municipal court to an increase in salary under RC 1901.31, such an increase is not payable to an incumbent clerk of a municipal court during his existing term.

OAG 65-056. Lawrence county is required to pay two-fifths of the increase in the salary of the clerk of the municipal court of Ironton, when the increase has been authorized by the Ironton city council, and two-fifths of the increase in the salary of the bailiff of said court when the increase has been authorized by the court, even though the amount of the increase is not included in the appropriations for the year 1965 made by the board of county commissioners.

1961 OAG 2393. Where the council of a city has, by ordinance, prescribed the salary of the clerk of the municipal court, the mayor of the city is without authority to veto the ordinance.

1957 OAG 1379. The salary of a deputy clerk of a municipal court may be based on the volume of work done, or may be a straight salary, or may be a combination of the two.

1953 OAG 2442. The compensation of judges and clerks of municipal courts for which provision is made in GC 1591 (RC 1901.11) and this section, should be taken into account in the determination of the amounts payable monthly to a county law library association.

5. Powers and duties

20 OS(3d) 30, 20 OBR 279, 485 NE(2d) 706 (1985), State ex rel Mothers Against Drunk Drivers v Gosser. A local court rule requiring the court clerk not to accept for filing and not to disclose any documents in traffic and criminal cases other than complaints, motions, memoranda, entries, and verdicts is void, as it conflicts with the clerk's statutory duty under RC 1901.31(E) to keep such records, and conflicts with the duty under RC 149.43(B) to permit public access to such records.

9 App(3d) 218, 9 OBR 368, 459 NE(2d) 618 (Summit 1983), Dugan v Akron Civil Service Comm. The Akron civil service commission has no jurisdiction to determine the validity of the discharge of deputy clerks of the Akron Municipal Court.

73 Abs 214, 137 NE(2d) 163 (App, Montgomery 1955), State ex rel Focke v Price; affirmed by 165 OS 340, 135 NE(2d) 407 (1956). A deputy clerk of the municipal court has authority to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with a misdemeanor.

864 F(2d) 416 (6th Cir Ohio 1988), Foster v Walsh. A court clerk issuing a warrant at the direction of a state judge is absolutely immune to suit for this act because it is "truly judicial" in nature, even if an error is made in carrying out the judge's instructions; as a result, a civil rights suit against the clerk under 42 USC 1983 based upon the warrant must be dismissed.

OAG 84-028. A municipal court clerk may not appoint deputy sheriffs of the county in which the municipal court is located as deputy clerks of the court.

OAG 80-073. Pursuant to O Const Art II, § 20, a clerk of court who is assigned the duties of administrator may not receive additional compensation for the performance of those duties.

OAG 80-073. A municipal court has no authority to appoint an administrator who serves the entire court, although it may appoint an administrator for the small claims division of the court.

OAG 80-073. A municipal court has no authority to fix the compensation of an administrator of the small claims division of the court.

OAG 80-014. RC 1901.31(H) gives the clerk of a municipal court the sole power to fix the salaries of the deputy clerks of the court. Regardless of RC 1901.36 and any charter provisions or ordinances, neither the legislative authority of a municipal corporation nor the city manager, if any, has the authority to fix the deputy clerks' salaries.

1961 OAG 2384. Where a person is convicted of a misdemeanor in a municipal or county court, is committed to the county jail for failure to pay the fine and costs, and wishes to pay the amount of the unpaid fine and costs in order to be released, such payment must be paid to the appropriate clerk of court before the prisoner may be released; and the county sheriff is without authority to collect the amount and release the prisoner without an appropriate authorization from the clerk.

6. Receipts and disbursements

4 App(3d) 254, 4 OBR 471, 448 NE(2d) 458 (Montgomery 1982), Kettering v Berger. A municipal court judge who keeps money gratuitously given him for having performed marriage services is in violation of O Const Art IV, § 6(B), and is accountable for payment of the money to the clerk of the municipal court.

OAG 82-054. A probate court judge may not invest prepaid and unearned costs in United States treasury bills; rather, such costs must be held by the court or deposited as provided in RC 2335.25. Where such funds are deposited or invested any interest earned thereon should be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the general fund.

OAG 77-088. In an unsuccessful criminal prosecution, brought in a municipal court for an alleged violation of state law, fees for witnesses and jurors, and other court costs, are to be paid by the county.

OAG 75-045. Under RC 1901.34 and RC 3375.50, the costs collected by the clerk of a municipal court in a state criminal proceeding are to be paid into the county treasury.

OAG 73-113. A municipality has authority to provide by ordinance for compensation of counsel assigned to represent indigents accused before the municipal court of violations of municipal ordinances; except that if the jurisdiction of the municipal court extends beyond the territorial limits of the municipality, it has authority to compensate such counsel only in cases involving violations of municipal ordinances.

OAG 65-190; overruled in part by OAG 82-054. Where the clerk of municipal court holds money which comes into his custody by virtue of RC 1901.31(F), the clerk may deposit such funds in a state or national bank under RC 1901.31(G) and subject to RC 131.11; any interest earned and paid upon such deposits should accrue to the party to whom the principal of the fund is properly payable under RC 2919.02.

1964 OAG 1410. In cases involving a violation of a state statute, other than traffic laws, and in the absence of any statutory provision for a specific distribution of the fine, bail or other money held by the clerk of municipal courts, such fine or bail should be distributed in accordance with RC 2937.36 and RC 1901.31(F).

1964 OAG 1410. When a bail bond is posted in connection with a charge of burglary under RC 2907.15 which does not prescribe a fine as a part of the sentence, and it is ordered forfeited by the municipal court, such bail bond is subject to RC 1901.31(F) and RC 2937.36.

1964 OAG 1410. When a recognizance bond posted in a municipal court under RC 2947.16 is ordered forfeited by the court, such recognizance bond is subject to RC 1901.31(F) and RC 2937.36, and required to be distributed to the county treasury after deduction of municipal court costs.

1964 OAG 1410. When a bail bond posted in a municipal court in connection with a charge of assault and battery under RC 2901.25 is ordered forfeited by the court, such bail bond is subject to RC 1901.31(F) and RC 2937.36, and required to be distributed to the county treasury after deduction of the municipal court costs.

1962 OAG 3241. Under division (F) of RC 1901.31 and under RC 4513.35, fines collected under RC 4511.01 to RC 4511.78, inclusive, RC 4511.99, and RC 4513.01 to RC 4513.37, inclusive, in other than state highway patrol cases, are paid into the county treasury, subject to payments to the county law library.

1962 OAG 3241. Money collected by a clerk of a municipal court from a bail bond forfeiture under RC 4511.01 to RC 4511.78, RC 4511.99, and RC 4513.01 to RC 4513.37, inclusive, where the arrest was not made by a state highway patrolman, should be distributed as provided in RC 1901.31 and RC 4513.35, as if the amount of the forfeiture were imposed as a fine for the offense charged, except that the clerk may satisfy the amount of the accrued costs in the case out of the amount of the bail before making such distribution.

1961 OAG 2384. Where a person is convicted of a misdemeanor in a municipal or county court, is committed to the county jail for failure to pay the fine and costs, and wishes to pay the amount of the unpaid fine and costs in order to be released, such payment must be paid to the appropriate clerk of court before the prisoner may be released; and the county sheriff is without authority to collect the amount and release the prisoner without an appropriate authorization from the clerk.

1961 OAG 2309. Where a jury trial case involving a violation of a municipal ordinance is certified to the court of common pleas of the county, and said court imposes a fine for the violation, the amount of the fine collected should be paid into the treasury of the county, and the treasurer of the municipal corporation is not authorized to demand and receive such fine.

COUNTY COURT

1991 H 200, § 5 and 6, eff. 7-8-91, read:

Section 5. The Clermont County County Court authorized in the version of section 1907.11 of the Revised Code that was in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act shall remain in effect until the establishment of the Clermont County Municipal Court on January 1, 1992. Upon the establishment of the Clermont County Municipal Court on January 1, 1992, pursuant to section 1901.06 of the Revised Code, the former Clermont County County Court is abolished.

Section 6. The judges of the county courts listed in section 1907.11 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, are the same judges of the county courts authorized in the version of section 1907.11 of the Revised Code that was in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

707 FSupp 947 (SD Ohio 1989), Mallory v Eyrich. Selection of judges for a court having jurisdiction throughout a county does not violate the Voting Rights Act of 1965, 42 USC 1973 et seq., simply because the judges are elected "at large"; a violation is shown, however, by proof (1) a minority group that votes largely for the same party is sufficiently numerous and geographically compact that it would constitute a majority in a single-member district, and (2) the white majority also votes as a group to such a degree that it is usually able to defeat the candidate a federal court finds to be preferred by the minority; the fact a black candidate has received wide support from white voters is held "sufficient to support a finding that whites do not regularly vote as a bloc to defeat blacks' preferred candidates."

OAG 66-029. The court of common pleas should make a determination whether it is necessary to reduce the number of county court judges under the criterion established in RC 1907.041, and if it is determined that the number should not be reduced, the governor may fill any vacancy which exists. (Annotation from former RC 1907.041.)

OAG 66-029. Regardless of reductions in population in a county court district the office of one of several county court judges is not automatically abolished by the derogation of a portion of the county court district's area of jurisdiction. (Annotation from former RC 1907.041.)

OAG 65-007. A nominating petition filed pursuant to RC 1907.051 and 3513.261 is void where it states that the candidate is seeking election at the general election in November to a full term as county court judge and there is no full term for which an election could be held at that time, and a favorable vote cast by the electors for such candidate for a full term as judge of the county court is ineffective. 1907.13 Qualifications of judges; terms; nominations; elections

A county court judge, during his term of office, shall be a qualified elector and a resident of the county court district in which he is elected or appointed. Every county court judge shall have been admitted to the practice of law in this state and shall have been, for a total of at least two years preceding his appointment or the commencement of his term, engaged in the practice of law in this state. The requirements relative to the admission to the bar of this state and the practice of law in this state do not apply to any judge who is holding office on November 1, 1962, and who is subsequently a candidate to succeed himself.

Judges shall be elected by the electors of the county court district at the general election in even-numbered years as set forth in section 1907.11 of the Revised Code for a term of six years commencing on the first day of January next following the election for the county court. Their successors shall be elected in even-numbered years every six years.

All candidates for county court judge shall be nominated by petition. The nominating petition shall be in the general form and signed and verified as prescribed by section 3513.261 of the Revised Code, and shall be signed by qualified electors of the county court district not less in number than one per cent of the number of electors who voted for governor at the next preceding regular state election in the district. No such nominating petition shall be accepted for filing or filed if it appears on its face to contain signatures aggregating in number more than twice the minimum aggregate number of signatures required by this section. A nominating petition shall be filed with the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of the general election.

1957 OAG 812. County court judges must be elected by the electors of the entire county court district in which the office of such judge is created rather than by the area of jurisdiction designated by RC 1907.071. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

2. Qualifications of judge

a. In general

OAG 66-176. A candidate for the office of county judge cannot qualify himself after August 8, 1966, and have his name placed on the ballot at the election to be held in November 1966. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1958 OAG 2295. A candidate for election to the office of county court judge must be an elector of the county court district involved. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1957 OAG 812. A county court judge must be a resident elector of the county court district in which he is elected or appointed. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

b. Compatible and incompatible offices

OAG 91-010. An individual elected under RC 1907.13 as a judge of a county court may be employed, pursuant to RC 309.09(A), as a township solicitor in an area of jurisdiction not under his control as county court judge, provided the individual, as township solicitor, does not engage in the practice of law in matters pending or originating in that county court during his term of office, and further provided that he is not in violation of any local departmental regulations, charter provisions or ordinances, or statutory provisions, rules, or canons subject to interpretation by the Ohio ethics commission pursuant to RC 102.08 or the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court pursuant to Gov Bar R V(2)(b).

OAG 71-005. Offices of county judge of county court and assistant city solicitor of municipality in adjoining county are compatible, provided it is physically possible for one person to discharge duties of both offices. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

OAG 66-138. The offices of a "part time" village solicitor and acting county court judge are incompatible, and if there are no persons possessing the qualifications required by RC 1907.061 who do not hold incompatible positions, then no appointment as acting county court judge can properly be made. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

OAG 65-006. The position of county court judge and the position of county law librarian are incompatible. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1960 OAG 1177. There is no incompatibility between the offices of member of a board of elections and county court judge unless the county court judge is currently a candidate for elective office. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1958 OAG 1807. The offices of county court judge and the position of school teacher are not incompatible. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1958 OAG 1807. The offices of county court judge and member of a school board are compatible. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1958 OAG 1667. The office of county court judge is compatible with that of deputy registrar of motor vehicles, provided it is physically possible to properly attend to the duties of both. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

1958 OAG 1648. The office of judge of the county court is incompatible with the position of county veterans service officer. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

3. Nomination

OAG 66-176. A candidate for the office of county judge cannot qualify himself after August 8, 1966, and have his name placed on the ballot at the election to be held in November 1966. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

OAG 65-007. A nominating petition filed pursuant to RC 1907.051 and RC 3513.261 is void where it states that the candidate is seeking election at the general election in November to a full term as county court judge and there is no full term for which an election could be held at that time, and a favorable vote cast by the electors for such candidate for a full term as judge of the county court is ineffective. (Annotation from former RC 1907.051.)

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

2301.01 Courts of common pleas; election of judges

There shall be a court of common pleas in each county held by one or more judges, each of whom has been admitted to practice as an attorney at law in this state and has, for a total of at least six years preceding his appointment or commencement of his term, engaged in the practice of law in this state or served as a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the United States, or both, resides in said county, and is elected by the electors therein. Each judge shall be elected for six years at the general election next preceding the year in which the term, as provided in sections 2301.02 and 2301.03 of the Revised Code, commences, and his successor shall be elected at the general election next preceding the expiration of such term.

47 App(3d) 15, 546 NE(2d) 1337 (Franklin 1988), Hubner v Sigall. A "court" is an incorporeal, political being, composed of one or more judges who sit at fixed times and places attended by proper officers under lawful authority to administer justice; the word "court" in a statute is not always synonymous with the word "judge" but in a broad sense also includes the jury or may even be taken to mean "jury" alone in a particular instance when the jury is trier of fact.

3 App(2d) 226, 210 NE(2d) 138 (1964), State v Phipps. The official act of a single judge of a court of common pleas composed of two or more judges is the act of the court; concurrence of the other judge or judges in such act is not necessary to its validity.

OAG 73-074. A vacancy was created on the Hamilton county court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, by the indefinite suspension from the practice of law and resultant disqualification of an incumbent judge of that court, which the governor may fill by appointment pursuant to O Const Art IV §13.

In Summit county, eleven judges; four to be elected in 1954, terms to begin January 1, 1955, January 2, 1955, January 3, 1955, and February 9, 1955, respectively; three to be elected in 1958, terms to begin January 1, 1959, January 2, 1959, and May 17, 1959, respectively; one to be elected in 1966, term to begin January 4, 1967; one to be elected in 1968, term to begin January 5, 1969; one to be elected in 1990, term to begin May 1, 1991; and one to be elected in 1992, term to begin January 6, 1993.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, in any county having two or more judges of the court of common pleas, in which more than one-third of such judges plus one were previously elected at the same election, should the office of one such judge so elected become vacant more than forty days prior to the second general election preceding the expiration of such judge's term, the office which such judge had filled shall be abolished as of the date of the next general election and a new office of judge of the court of common pleas shall be created. The judge who is to fill such new office shall be elected for a six-year term at the next general election, and his term shall commence on the first day of the year following such general election, on which day no other judge's term begins so that the number of judges which such county shall elect shall not be reduced.

Judges of the probate division of the court of common pleas are judges of the court of common pleas, but shall be elected pursuant to sections 2101.02 and 2101.021 of the Revised Code, except in Adams, Harrison, Henry, Morgan, Morrow, Noble, and Wyandot counties in which the judge of the court of common pleas elected pursuant to this section shall also serve as judge of the probate division.

1990 H 648, § 4 and 5, eff. 3-21-90, read:

Section 4. Notwithstanding sections 3513.05 and 3513.257 of the Revised Code, each person desiring to become a candidate at the general election to be held on November 6, 1990, for election to the new judgeships of the Athens, Hamilton, and Mahoning County Courts of Common Pleas that are created by this act and that are to be elected in 1990, shall file a nominating petition and statement of candidacy, as provided in section 3513.261 of the Revised Code, not later than four p.m. on August 23, 1990. Notwithstanding section 3513.257 of the Revised Code, the nominating petition of each such candidate shall contain a minimum of seven hundred fifty signatures of qualified electors of the respective counties, except that no nominating petition shall be accepted for filing or filed if the petition appears on its face to contain or is known to contain signatures aggregating in number more than one thousand five hundred. The nominating petitions of such candidates shall be processed as set forth in section 3513.263 of the Revised Code. The names of the candidates, whose petition papers shall be determined by the board with whom the petition papers were filed to be valid, shall be printed on the ballot as set forth in section 3505.04 of the Revised Code.

Section 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3513.04 of the Revised Code, a person who sought a party nomination for an office or position by declaration of candidacy at the primary election held on May 8, 1990, may be a candidate at the general election to be held on November 6, 1990, for election to the new judgeships of the Athens and Hamilton County Courts of Common Pleas that are created by this act and that are to be elected in 1990, by filing a nominating petition and statement of candidacy in accordance with Section 4 of this act. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3513.04 of the Revised Code, a person who sought a party nomination for an office or position, other than the office or position of member of the Ohio House of Representatives, by declaration of candidacy at the primary election held on May 8, 1990, may be a candidate at the general election to be held on November 6, 1990, for election to the new judgeship of the Mahoning County Court of Common Pleas that is created by this act and that is to be elected in 1990, by filing a nominating petition and statement of candidacy in accordance with Section 4 of this act.

2301.03 Judges of the divisions of domestic relations

(A) In Franklin county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1953, January 2, 1953, January 5, 1969, and January 5, 1977, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Franklin county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. They shall have all the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, all parentage proceedings under Chapter 3111. of the Revised Code over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to them. In addition to his regular duties, the judge who is senior in point of service shall serve on the children services board, the county advisory board, and shall be the administrator of the domestic relations court, its subdivisions and departments.

(B)(1) In Hamilton county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins on January 1, 1957, and successors, and the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins on February 14, 1967, and successors, shall be the juvenile judges as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, with the powers and jurisdiction conferred by that chapter.

(2) The judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 5, 1957, January 16, 1981, and July 1, 1991, and successors, shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, and shall have assigned to them all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court. On or after the first day of July and before the first day of August of 1991 and each year thereafter, a majority of the judges of the division of domestic relations shall elect one of the judges of the division as administrative judge of that division. If a majority of the judges of the division of domestic relations are unable in 1991 or any year thereafter for any reason to elect an administrative judge for the division before the first day of August of that year, a majority of the judges of the Hamilton county court of common pleas, as soon as possible after that date, shall elect one of the judges of the division of domestic relations as administrative judge of that division. The term of the administrative judge shall begin on the earlier of the first day of August of the year in which he is elected or the date on which he is elected by a majority of the judges of the Hamilton county court of common pleas and shall terminate on the date on which his successor is elected in the following year.

In addition to his regular duties, the administrative judge of the division of domestic relations shall be the administrator of the domestic relations court, its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, including any referees considered necessary by the judges in the discharge of their various duties.

The administrative judge of the division of domestic relations also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and he shall fix the duties of its personnel. The duties of the personnel, in addition to those provided for in other sections of the Revised Code, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and counseling and conciliation services that may be made available to persons requesting them, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court.

The board of county commissioners shall appropriate the sum of money each year as will meet all the administrative expenses of the court of domestic relations, including reasonable expenses of the domestic relations judges and the court counselors and other employees designated to conduct the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, conciliation and counseling, and all matters relating to such cases and counseling, and the expenses involved in the attendance of court personnel at domestic relations and welfare conferences designated by the court, and the further sum each year as will provide for the adequate operation of the court of domestic relations.

The compensation and expenses of all employees, and the salary and expenses of the judges shall be paid by the county treasurer from the money appropriated for the operation of the court, upon the warrant of the county auditor, certified to by the administrative judge of the division of domestic relations.

The summonses, warrants, citations, subpoenas, and other writs of the court may issue to a bailiff, constable, or staff investigator of the court, or to the sheriff of any county, or any marshal, constable, or police officer, and the provisions of law relating to the subpoenaing of witnesses in other cases shall apply insofar as they are applicable. When a summons, warrant, citation, subpoena, or other writ is issued to an officer, other than a bailiff, constable, or staff investigator of the court, the expense of serving it shall be assessed as a part of the costs in the case involved.

(C) In Lorain county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 3, 1959, and January 4, 1989, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Lorain county, and shall be elected and designated as the judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. They shall have all of the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, all parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to them, except in such cases as should for some special reason be assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas.

(D)(1) In Lucas county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1955, and January 3, 1965, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Lucas county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. All divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to them.

The judge of the division of domestic relations, senior in point of service, shall be considered as the presiding judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, and shall be charged exclusively with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

(2) The judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 5, 1977, and January 2, 1991, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Lucas county, shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, and shall be the juvenile judges as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code with the powers and jurisdictions conferred by that chapter. In addition to his regular duties, the judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, senior in point of service, shall be the administrator of the juvenile division, its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases, including any references considered necessary by the judges of the division in the discharge of their various duties.

The judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, senior in point of service, also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowance, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division, and fix the duties of the personnel of the division. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases and counseling and conciliation services that may be made available to persons requesting them, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court.

(3) If one of the judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, or one of the judges of the juvenile division, is sick, absent, unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in his court necessitates it, the duties shall be performed by the judges of the other of such divisions.

(E)(1) In Mahoning county, the judge of the court of common pleas whose term began on January 1, 1955, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Mahoning county, and shall be elected and designated as judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, and shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court. In addition to his regular duties, the judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, shall be the administrator of the domestic relations court, its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, including any references considered necessary in the discharge of his various duties.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix the duties of the personnel of the division. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and counseling and conciliation services made available to persons requesting them, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court.

(2) The judge of the court of common pleas whose term began on January 2, 1969, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Mahoning county, shall be elected and designated as judge of court of common pleas, juvenile division, and shall be the juvenile judge as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, with the powers and jurisdictions conferred by that chapter. In addition to his regular duties, the judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, shall be the administrator of the juvenile court, its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases, including any references considered necessary by the judge, in the discharge of his various duties.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division, and fix the duties of the personnel of the division. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases and counseling and conciliation services made available to persons requesting them, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court.

(3) If a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations or juvenile division, is sick, absent, unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in his court necessitates it, his duties shall be performed by another judge of the court of common pleas.

(F)(1) In Montgomery county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 2, 1953, and January 4, 1977, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Montgomery county and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. These judges shall have assigned to them all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases.

The judge of the division of domestic relations, senior in point of service, shall be charged exclusively with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and shall have charge of the employment and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, including any necessary referees, except those employees who may be appointed by the judge, junior in point of service, under this section and sections 2301.12, 2301.18, and 2301.19 of the Revised Code. The judge of the division of domestic relations, senior in point of service, also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division and shall fix their duties.

(2) The judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1953, and January 1, 1993, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Montgomery county, shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, and shall be, and have the powers and jurisdiction of, the juvenile judge as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code.

In addition to his regular duties, the judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, senior in point of service, shall be the administrator of the juvenile division and its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the juvenile division, including any necessary referees, who are engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases. The judge, senior in point of service, also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division and shall fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases and of any counseling and conciliation services that are available upon request to persons regardless of whether or not they are parties to an action pending in the division.

If one of the judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, or one of the judges of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, is sick, absent, unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in his division necessitates it, the duties of that judge may be performed by the judge or judges of the other of those divisions.

(G) In Richland county, the judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 1, 1957, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Richland county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. He shall have all of the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, all parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to him, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas.

(H) In Stark county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1953, January 2, 1959, and January 1, 1993, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Stark county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. They shall have all the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, all parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, except cases that are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas for some special reason, shall be assigned to the judges.

The judge of the division of domestic relations, second most senior in point of service, shall have charge of the employment and supervision of the personnel of the division engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and necessary referees required for his respective court.

The judge of the division of domestic relations, senior in point of service, shall be charged exclusively with the administration of sections 2151.13, 2151.16, 2151.17, and 2151.18 of the Revised Code, and with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the division, including but not limited to, his necessary referees, but excepting those employees who may be appointed by the judge second most senior in point of service. The senior judge shall further serve as administrator of the bureau of aid to dependent children, and shall serve in every other position where the statutes permit or require a juvenile judge to serve.

(I) In Summit county:

(1) The judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 4, 1967, and January 6, 1993, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Summit county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judges of the division of domestic relations shall have assigned to them and hear all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases that come before the court.

The judge of the division of domestic relations, senior in point of service, shall be the administrator of the domestic relations division and its subdivisions and departments and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the division, including any necessary referees, who are engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases. That judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division and shall fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases and of any counseling and conciliation services that are available upon request to all persons regardless of whether they are parties to an action pending in the division.

(2) The judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 1, 1955, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Summit county, shall be elected and designated as judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, and shall be, and have the powers and jurisdiction of, the juvenile judge as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code.

The juvenile judge shall be the administrator of the juvenile division and its subdivisions and departments, and shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the juvenile division, including any necessary referees, who are engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases. The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division and shall fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases and of any counseling and conciliation services that are available upon request to persons regardless of whether or not they are parties to an action pending in the division.

(J) In Trumbull county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1953, and January 2, 1977, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Trumbull county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. They shall have all the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, all parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to them, except cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas.

(K) In Butler county:

(1) The judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 1, 1957, and January 4, 1993, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Butler county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judges of the division of domestic relations shall have assigned to them all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas. The judge senior in point of service shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

The judge senior in point of service also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(2) The judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 3, 1987, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Butler county, shall be elected and designated as judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, and, on and after January 3, 1987, shall be the juvenile judge as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code with the powers and jurisdictions conferred by that chapter. The judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, shall be the administrator of the juvenile court and its subdivisions and departments. The judge shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the juvenile division who are engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases, including any referees whom the judge considers necessary for the discharge of his various duties.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(3) If a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations or juvenile division, is sick, absent, or unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in the judge's division necessitates it, the duties of that judge shall be performed by the other judges of the domestic relations and juvenile divisions.

(L)(1) In Cuyahoga county, the judges of the court of common pleas whose terms begin on January 8, 1961, January 9, 1961, January 18, 1975, January 19, 1975, and January 13, 1987, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Cuyahoga county, and shall be elected and designated as judges of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. They shall have all the powers relating to all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, except in cases that are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas for some special reason.

(2) The administrative judge is administrator of the domestic relations division, its subdivisions and departments, and has the following powers concerning division personnel:

(a) Full charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision;

(b) Sole determination of compensation, duties, expenses, allowances, hours, leaves, and vacations.

(3) "Division personnel" include persons employed or referees engaged in hearing, servicing, investigating, counseling, or conciliating divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment matters.

(M) In Lake county:

(1) The judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 2, 1961, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Lake county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(2) The judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 4, 1979, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as other judges of the court of common pleas of Lake county, shall be elected and designated as judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, and shall be the juvenile judge as provided in Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code with the powers and jurisdictions conferred by that chapter. The judge of the court of common pleas, juvenile division, shall be the administrator of the juvenile court and its subdivisions and departments. The judge shall have charge of the employment, assignment, and supervision of the personnel of the juvenile division who are engaged in handling, servicing, or investigating juvenile cases, including any referees whom the judge considers necessary for the discharge of his various duties.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacation of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, include the handling, servicing, and investigation of juvenile cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(3) If a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations or juvenile division, is sick, absent, or unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in the judge's division necessitates it, the duties of that judge shall be performed by the other judges of the domestic relations and juvenile divisions.

(N) In Erie county, the judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 2, 1971, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judge of the court of common pleas of Erie county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. He shall have all the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code, parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases shall be assigned to him, except cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge.

(O) In Greene county, on and after January 1, 1985, the judge of the court of common pleas whose term begins on January 1, 1961, and successors, shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Greene county, and shall be elected and designated as the judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all divorce, dissolution, legal separation, annulment, uniform reciprocal support enforcement, and domestic violence cases, and all other cases related to domestic relations, except cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas.

The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division. He also shall designate the title, compensation, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations for the personnel of the division, and shall fix their duties. The duties of the personnel of the division, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases and the provision of counseling and conciliation services that the court considers necessary and makes available to persons who request the services, whether or not the persons are parties in an action pending in the court. The compensation for the personnel shall be paid from the overall court budget, and shall be included in the appropriations for the existing judges of the general division of the court of common pleas.

If one of the judges of the court of common pleas, general division, is sick, absent, or unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in the general division necessitates it, the duties of that judge of the general division shall be performed by the judge of the division of domestic relations.

(P) In Portage county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins January 2, 1987, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Portage county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(Q) In Clermont county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins January 2, 1987, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Clermont county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(R) In Warren county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins January 1, 1987, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Warren county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases coming before the court, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to some other judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division, and with the employment and supervision of all other personnel of the domestic relations division.

The judge also shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division, and fix their duties. The duties of the personnel, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(S) In Licking county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins January 1, 1991, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Licking county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, all cases arising under Chapter 3111. of the Revised Code, all proceedings involving child support, child custody, and visitation, and all post decree proceedings and matters arising from those cases and proceedings, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to another judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division and with the employment and supervision of the personnel of the division.

The judge shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division and shall fix the duties of the personnel of the division. The duties of the personnel of the division, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, cases arising under Chapter 3111. of the Revised Code, and proceedings involving child support, child custody, and visitation, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(T) In Allen county, the judge of the court of common pleas, whose term begins January 1, 1993, and successors shall have the same qualifications, exercise the same powers and jurisdiction, and receive the same compensation as the other judges of the court of common pleas of Allen county, and shall be elected and designated as a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations. The judge shall have assigned to him all the divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, all cases arising under Chapter 3111. of the Revised Code, all proceedings involving child support, child custody, and visitation, and all post decree proceedings and matters arising from those cases and proceedings, except in cases that for some special reason are assigned to another judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall be charged with the assignment and division of the work of the division and with the employment and supervision of the personnel of the division.

The judge shall designate the title, compensation, expense allowances, hours, leaves of absence, and vacations of the personnel of the division and shall fix the duties of the personnel of the division. The duties of the personnel of the division, in addition to other statutory duties, shall include the handling, servicing, and investigation of divorce, dissolution, legal separation, and annulment cases, cases arising under Chapter 3111. of the Revised Code, and proceedings involving child support, child custody, and visitation, and providing any counseling and conciliation services that the court makes available to persons, whether or not the persons are parties to an action pending in the court, who request the services.

(U) If a judge of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, or juvenile judge, of any of the counties mentioned in this section is sick, absent, unable to perform his duties, or the volume of cases pending in his court necessitates it, his duties shall be performed by another judge of the court of common pleas of that county, assigned for that purpose by the chief justice or presiding judge of the court of common pleas of that county to act in place of or in conjunction with him, as the case may require.

16 App(3d) 93, 16 OBR 98, 474 NE(2d) 662 (Cuyahoga 1984), Price v Price. After a divorce action has reached final judgment in a domestic relations court, exclusive jurisdiction of the court ends, and a common pleas court, general division, shares concurrent jurisdiction to vacate that judgment.

114 App 304, 182 NE(2d) 10 (1961), State ex rel Shonk v Crist. The court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, is without jurisdiction to commit an adult to the Lima state hospital as a psychopathic offender for "the crime of acting in a way tending to cause delinquency in a minor child," where the acts charged do not involve "a sex offense, or in which abnormal sexual tendencies are displayed."

95 App 126, 117 NE(2d) 711 (1953), Ezzo v Ezzo. A cause instituted by a petition to vacate or modify on the ground of fraud a divorce decree rendered by the court of common pleas of Franklin County, division of domestic relations, which petition states causes of action in equity and law not strictly predicated on the divorce decree, may be heard and determined by a judge of such court of common pleas immaterially whether he acts in that capacity or as a judge of such division.

OAG 92-009. In the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas, division of domestic relations, a judge's status as senior in point of service or as administrative judge of the division confers no authority upon the judge to act unilaterally with respect to the employment of personnel for the division.

OAG 76-031. Employees within the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, are unclassified civil service employees.

1960 OAG 1922. The court of common pleas in any county having two judges of the court of common pleas may appoint an assignment commissioner, but such commissioner should be appointed pursuant to RC 2335.04, and his compensation may not exceed $1800 per year.

2303.01 Clerk of the court of common pleas

There shall be elected quadrennially in each county, a clerk of the court of common pleas, who shall assume office on the first Monday of January next after his election and who shall hold said office for a period of four years.

1. Constitutional issues

90 OS 219, 107 NE 517 (1914), State ex rel Young v Cox. GC 2867 ((former RS 1240) RC 2303.01), providing for a biennial election in each county of a clerk of the court of common pleas who shall hold his office two years beginning on the first Monday of August next after his election, is a valid legislative enactment and is not in conflict with the constitution of this state.

2. In general

176 OS 191, 198 NE(2d) 459 (1964), State ex rel Cofall v Cuyahoga County Elections Bd. Nomination petition was not invalid where office sought was described as "clerk of courts."

132 OS 421, 8 NE(2d) 434 (1937), State ex rel Kopp v Blackburn. A person elected to the office of clerk of the court of common pleas continues to hold such office by virtue of GC 8 (RC 3.01), until his successor is elected or appointed and qualified, while a person appointed to fill a vacancy therein continues to hold such office by virtue of GC 10(RC 3.02), until his successor is elected and qualified.

122 OS 621, 174 NE 251 (1930), State ex rel Klein v Bernon. Since this section makes special provision for the election of the clerk of common pleas, GC 10 (RC 3.02), providing for the election of the successor to an elective officer, whose office has become vacant, at the first general election for the office that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy, does not apply, as GC 10 (RC 3.02) specifically exempts cases which have been otherwise provided by law. (See also 1949 OAG 800.)

OAG 81-020. A municipal court clerk may not receive additional compensation for the performance of the duties of an assignment commissioner, typist, stenographer, or statistical clerk for the court, because the duties of these court aides fall within the scope of the office of clerk.

1959 OAG 120. There is no incompatibility between the office of clerk of courts and the position of director of a county agricultural society.

1951 OAG 224; modified by OAG 81-020. The clerk of courts may be appointed to the position of assignment commissioner, provided for by GC 3007-1 (RC 2335.04), provided it is physically possible for him to perform the duties of both offices, and he may receive the salary provided by law for both offices.

1949 OAG 800. The term of the clerk pro tempore of the court of common pleas ends when his successor is elected and qualified; said election of the successor shall be at the first general election for the office which is vacant that occurs more than thirty days after the vacancy shall have occurred; the candidates for said office shall run for the unexpired term of the original clerk of common pleas court and not for the full four-year term.

1936 OAG 5420. An amendment of the law changing the term of an elective office, which amendment becomes effective after candidates for such office have been nominated but before the date of election, is controlling as to the term of any candidate elected at such election.

1930 OAG 2706. The clerk of the common pleas court of Lucas county is the clerk of the court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, in and for Lucas county, and as such clerk, he is required to keep the records and journals, collect and disburse funds in all cases brought in such court, including cases in which this court exercises jurisdiction as a juvenile court in the same manner as those duties are performed for the other branch of the common pleas court of Lucas county.

Ethics Op 77-002. A county clerk of courts is a "public official or employee" as that term is defined in RC 102.01(B), and is under the jurisdiction of the Ohio ethics commission for the purposes of the Ohio ethics law.

COMMISSIONERS OF JURORS

2313.06 Poll lists

On or before the last day of December of each year, unless otherwise ordered by the court of common pleas, the board of elections for each county shall compile and file with the commissioners of jurors of the county a certified, current list containing the names, addresses, dates of birth, and social security numbers, if the numbers are available, of all the electors of the county shown on the registration lists for the next preceding general election. On or before the last day of December of each year, unless otherwise ordered by the court of common pleas of any particular county, the registrar of motor vehicles shall compile and file with the commissioners of jurors of each county a certified, current list containing the names, addresses, dates of birth, duration of residence in this state, citizenship status, and social security numbers, if the numbers are available, of all residents of the particular county who have been issued, on or after January 1, 1984, a commercial driver's license pursuant to Chapter 4506. or a driver's license pursuant to Chapter 4507. of the Revised Code that is valid and current on the date of the compilation of the list, who are or will be eighteen years of age or older as of the day of the general election of the year the list is filed, and who, regardless of whether they actually are registered to vote, would be electors if they were registered to vote.

31 OS(2d) 106, 285 NE(2d) 751 (1972), State v Johnson. A defendant is not denied due process of law where the composition of special venire called for his trial was constituted in such manner that only qualified electors were eligible for jury duty (RC 2945.18, 2945.19, 2313.06 and 2313.08 are constitutional).

15 Misc 215, 237 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Marion 1968), Baker v Keller. As used in O Const Art V §6, "idiot" means a person who has been without understanding since birth and "insane person" means one who has suffered such a deprivation of reason that he is no longer capable of understanding and acting with discretion and judgment in the ordinary affairs of life.

15 Misc 215, 237 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Marion 1968), Baker v Keller. A new trial is not warranted on a showing of a juror's record of hospitalization for mental illness where it appears that such juror had extensive lucid intervals, and there was no evidence of active manifestations of such illness at or near the time of trial, since such evidence does not disclose that the juror at the time of trial lacked any of the qualifications of an elector.

1990 H 648, § 6 and 7, eff. 3-21-90, read:

Section 6. Notwithstanding sections 3513.05 and 3513.257 of the Revised Code, each person desiring to become a candidate at the general election to be held on November 6, 1990, for election to the new judgeship of the Tenth District Court of Appeals that is created by this act and that is to be elected in 1990, shall file a nominating petition and statement of candidacy, as provided in section 3513.261 of the Revised Code, not later than four p.m. on August 23, 1990. Notwithstanding section 3513.257 of the Revised Code, the nominating petition of each such candidate shall contain a minimum of seven hundred fifty signatures of qualified electors of the court of appeals district, except that no nominating petition shall be accepted for filing or filed if the petition appears on its face to contain or is known to contain signatures aggregating in number more than one thousand five hundred. The nominating petitions of such candidates shall be processed as set forth in section 3513.263 of the Revised Code. The names of the candidates, whose petition papers shall be determined by the board with whom the petition papers were filed to be valid, shall be printed on the ballot as set forth in section 3505.04 of the Revised Code.

Section 7. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3513.04 of the Revised Code, a person who sought a party nomination for an office or position by declaration of candidacy at the primary election held on May 8, 1990, may be a candidate at the general election to be held on November 6, 1990, for election to the new judgeship of the Tenth District Court of Appeals that is created by this act and that is to be elected in 1990, by filing a nominating petition and statement of candidacy in accordance with Section 6 of this act.

2501.02 Qualifications and term of judges; jurisdiction; issuance of writs

Each judge of a court of appeals shall have been admitted to practice as an attorney at law in this state and have, for a total of six years preceding his appointment or commencement of his term, engaged in the practice of law in this state or served as a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the United States, or both. One judge shall be chosen in each court of appeals district every two years, and shall hold office for six years, beginning on the ninth day of February next after his election. In addition to the original jurisdiction conferred by Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution, the court shall have jurisdiction upon an appeal upon questions of law to review, affirm, modify, set aside, or reverse judgments or final orders of courts of record inferior to the court of appeals within the district, including the finding, order, or judgment of a juvenile court that a child is delinquent, neglected, abused, or dependent, for prejudicial error committed by such lower court.

The court, on good cause shown, may issue writs of supersedeas in any case, and all other writs, not specially provided for or prohibited by statute, necessary to enforce the administration of justice.

1. Constitutional issues

5 OS(2d) 89, 214 NE(2d) 92 (1966), In re Receivership of Wisser & Gabler. RC 2501.02 is constitutional.

56 App(3d) 173, 565 NE(2d) 882 (Lake 1989), Kondrat v Ralph Ingersoll Publishing Co. A court of appeals has no authority to determine issues on the disqualification of a trial court judge. (See also Beer v Griffith, 54 OS(2d) 440, 377 NE(2d) 775 (1978).)

117 App 393, 191 NE(2d) 552 (1963), Weiss v Kearns. RC 2501.02 and RC 2505.21 are constitutional.

2. In general

37 OS(3d) 246, 525 NE(2d) 756 (1988), State ex rel Ohio State Racing Comm v Walton. Where a trial court denies a proper motion for change of venue based on the theory that the moving party has waived his right to proper venue by seeking intervention and where none of the justifications for venue under Civ R 3 exist in the county where the case is pending, a writ of prohibition prohibiting the trial court from further proceedings in the pending case and a writ of mandamus compelling the change of venue to a proper county shall be granted.

17 App(3d) 111, 17 OBR 173, 477 NE(2d) 662 (Cuyahoga 1984), Kane v Ford Motor Co. When an appeal is perfected, the trial court is divested of jurisdiction over the particular area of the action pertaining to the final order, judgment, or decree for which review is sought.

6 App(2d) 62, 216 NE(2d) 391 (1966), Pfeifle v Schneider; affirmed by 10 OS(2d) 197, 226 NE(2d) 719 (1967). The executors of an estate may appeal on questions of law in their official capacity from an order of the probate court imposing a succession tax on property held in an inter vivos trust when, by provisions of the will of the settlor, such settlor's probate estate is specifically held liable for the payment of the tax on the nonprobate property.

119 App 271, 199 NE(2d) 886 (1963), Jefferson Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Columbus City School Dist Bd of Ed. The requirements of former rule V(A)(3) of the court of appeals, that a party making application to present additional evidence "shall briefly set out the subject matter of such additional evidence and the reason that its admission is in the interest of justice," are controlling in such matter, and are not met by vague implications of bad faith and the mere assertion of certain reservations or commissions in the stipulations at the trial level.

No. 7586 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 4-7-82), Seibel v Seibel. Where a motion for new trial fails to disclose facts in support of the subsections of Civ R 59, and the affidavit in support of said motion is not related to the subsections and does not include new matter, it is not an abuse of discretion for the trial court to deny the motion. Moreover, where there is no jury and trial has been waived by stipulation of the parties, the most that can be granted under Civ R 59(A) is opening of the judgment for new testimony.

3. Jurisdiction

a. In general

2 OS(3d) 154, 2 OBR 699, 443 NE(2d) 516 (1983), In re Hartman. RC 2501.02 grants the courts of appeals jurisdiction over appeals from juvenile court judgments and final orders rendered in juvenile traffic offender proceedings.

63 App(3d) 653 (Greene 1990), Morningstar v Morningstar. An appellate court may issue a declaratory judgment to give effect to its interpretation of a trial court's judgment; therefore, such a declaratory judgment will be entered to make a property division in a divorce proceeding binding upon the parties in a foreclosure action against real estate which is marital property.

28 App(3d) 60, 28 OBR 72, 501 NE(2d) 682 (Franklin 1986), State v Milo. A court of appeals has no jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from an order of a common pleas court in another appellate district.

14 App(3d) 183, 14 OBR 201, 470 NE(2d) 454 (Cuyahoga 1984), State ex rel Gangale v Khal. Where a court of appeals dismisses a complaint in mandamus for failure to state a cause of action, the court loses jurisdiction over any accompanying cross-claims or counterclaims where the court could not have exercised jurisdiction over such claims as original actions.

17 App(2d) 69, 244 NE(2d) 494 (1969), Sellman v Schaaf. The statutory grant of jurisdiction to the courts of appeals in RC 2501.02 does not provide for the appeal of part of a case but only in the appeal of completed cases.

15 App(2d) 233, 240 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Johnston v Miller. Where there is a joinder of legal and equitable causes of action, there is no provision for separate appeals from the judgments entered upon each of such causes of action; the appeal must be directed to the entire case.

b. Extraordinary writs

60 OS(3d) 76, 572 NE(2d) 679 (1991), State ex rel Pollock v Franklin County Common Pleas Court. A petition seeking a writ of prohibition and/or mandamus shall be dismissed where it is unclear what relief is sought and the petition fails to state a claim upon which relief could be granted.

59 OS(3d) 194, 571 NE(2d) 724 (1991), State ex rel Children's Medical Center v Brown. Prohibition will not lie to prevent a court from enforcing a discovery order where the court has jurisdiction to issue an order to compel and an adequate remedy at law, i.e., appeal, is available.

54 OS(3d) 48, 1990 SERB 4-71, 562 NE(2d) 125 (1990), Office of Collective Bargaining v SERB. When a court patently and unambiguously lacks jurisdiction to consider a matter, a writ of prohibition will issue to prevent assumption of jurisdiction regardless of whether the lower court has ruled on the question of its jurisdiction.

50 OS(3d) 180, 553 NE(2d) 655 (1990), State ex rel Cully v Flanagan. A bailiff's enforcement of a writ of restitution in a forcible entry and detainer action is not an exercise of judicial or quasi-judicial power; as a consequence, no action in prohibition lies against the bailiff to prevent him from proceeding with eviction before resolution of the tenant's counterclaim; the tenant may also appeal the eviction and thus has an adequate remedy at law.

50 OS(3d) 180, 553 NE(2d) 655 (1990), State ex rel Cully v Flanagan. An action in prohibition will lie only where (1) the court or officer against whom it is sought is about to exercise judicial or quasi-judicial power, (2) the exercise of such power is unauthorized by law, and (3) it appears that the refusal of the writ would result in injury for which there is no adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law.

50 OS(3d) 71, 552 NE(2d) 906 (1990), Martin v Lucas County Common Pleas Court Judges. A unit of procedendo compels a lower court to proceed to judgment and a writ of mandamus orders a public official to perform a clear legal duty; neither may compel someone to perform a duty already performed.

22 OS(3d) 161, 22 OBR 235, 489 NE(2d) 822 (1986), In re McDowell. In the absence of emergency, a writ of prohibition is void if issued without notice to the court against which it is directed.

No. L-90-197 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 9-6-91), Galloway v Lucas County Children Services Bd. Although RC 2151.35(B)(3) and Juv R 34(C) require that final judgment in the dispositional phase of an institutional child custody action be rendered within seven days of the dispositional hearing, failure to render judgment within seven days does not require reversal of the judgment ultimately rendered; procedendo is the proper remedy to compel a court to comply with the time limits.

No. L-85-316 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 9-17-85), State ex rel Swanson v Grigsby. A writ of procedendo will not issue to control or interfere with ordinary court procedures, such as the grant of a continuance pending the outcome of an appeal from a ruling on a motion.

No. 8-269 (11th Dist Ct App, Lake, 1-25-82), State ex rel Shoop v Mitrovich; affirmed by 4 OS(3d) 220, 4 OBR 575, 448 NE(2d) 800 (1983). A writ of prohibition will not lie against a trial court's order of contempt for violation of the court's ex parte order, since an appeal from a contempt order is an available remedy and prohibition may not be substituted for appeal.

1988 SERB 4-134 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 10-7-88), State ex rel Trotwood Madison City School Dist Bd of Ed v SERB. An alternative writ of prohibition and temporary restraining order will not be granted pending a decision on the merits of an application for a writ of prohibition, where the issue in the case is whether to prevent the state employment relations board from conducting a representation election arising from an election petition filed contrary to the dictates of RC 4117.07 because more than 120 days before the end of the current contract; the only "harm" at present threatening the employer seeking the writ is the necessity of attending a prehearing conference, and this is not "irreparable."

4. Final appealable judgment or order

62 OS(3d) 419 (1992), Rath v Williamson. A writ of prohibition to prevent a trial court from releasing certain of relator's medical records, including results of a blood test is denied on the grounds that a writ of prohibition is not available for determination of the admissibility of evidence in a trial court having jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter and since the trial court's order releasing the records is interlocutory and does not involve a usurpation of judicial power.

52 OS(3d) 155, 556 NE(2d) 1169 (1990), In re Murray. An adjudication by a juvenile court that a child is "neglected" or "dependent" as defined in RC Ch 2151, followed by a disposition awarding temporary custody to a public children services agency pursuant to RC 2151.353(A)(2), constitutes a "final order" within the meaning of RC 2505.02 and is appealable to the court of appeals pursuant to RC 2501.02.

39 OS(2d) 84, 314 NE(2d) 158 (1974), In re Becker. An order by a juvenile court pursuant to RC 2151.26 transferring a child to the court of common pleas for criminal prosecution is not a final appealable order.

61 App(3d) 788, 573 NE(2d) 1170 (Lucas 1989), Smith v Lucas County Children Services Bd. The order of a juvenile court modifying a temporary custody order is a final appealable order.

49 App(3d) 14, 550 NE(2d) 549 (Lucas 1989), Ackerman v Lucas County Children Services Bd. Temporary custody orders entered pursuant to Juv R 34 are final, appealable orders when entered.

55 App(2d) 257, 380 NE(2d) 753 (1977), State v Janney. A finding of not guilty by reason of insanity is not a final judgment or order appealable to a court of appeals.

37 App(2d) 7, 306 NE(2d) 166 (1973), In re Bolden. A finding of delinquency by the juvenile court accompanied only by a commitment to the temporary custody of the Ohio youth commission for the purpose of diagnostic study and report as provided by RC 5139.05(B) is not a final order subject to appeal, and such commitment constitutes merely a procedural incident.

1 App(2d) 349, 204 NE(2d) 699 (1965), Mories v Hendy. A judgment or order setting aside a release of negligence liability for equitable reasons, other than fraud in the factum, entered pursuant to a first stated cause of action therefor joined with a second stated cause of action for the negligence liability so released, is not in itself a final appealable order.

1 App(2d) 57, 203 NE(2d) 501 (1963), In re Rule. An order modifying a previously-entered temporary custody order which was made in disposition of a finding that a child is neglected constitutes a final appealable order.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

2503.01 Number and qualifications of justices

The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and six justices, each of whom has been admitted to practice as an attorney at law in this state and has, for a total of at least six years preceding his appointment or commencement of his term, engaged in the practice of law in this state or served as a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction of the United States, or both.

47 App(3d) 15, 546 NE(2d) 1337 (Franklin 1988), Hubner v Sigall. A "court" is an incorporeal, political being, composed of one or more judges who sit at fixed times and places attended by proper officers under lawful authority to administer justice; the word "court" in a statute is not always synonymous with the word "judge" but in a broad sense also includes the jury or may even be taken to mean "jury" alone in a particular instance when the jury is trier of fact.

2503.02 Chief justice; election; term

A chief justice of the supreme court shall be elected every six years and shall hold office for six years commencing on the first day of January next after his election. OFFENSES AGAINST JUSTICE AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

2921.01 Definitions

As used in sections 2921.01 to 2921.45 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Public official" means any elected or appointed officer, or employee, or agent of the state or any political subdivision, whether in a temporary or permanent capacity, and including without limitation legislators, judges, and law enforcement officers.

(B) "Public servant" means any of the following:

(1) Any public official;

(2) Any person performing ad hoc a governmental function, including without limitation a juror, member of a temporary commission, master, arbitrator, advisor, or consultant;

(3) A candidate for public office, whether or not he is elected or appointed to the office for which he is a candidate. A person is a candidate for purposes of this division if he has been nominated according to law for election or appointment to public office, or if he has filed a petition or petitions as required by law to have his name placed on the ballot in a primary, general, or special election, or if he campaigns as a write-in candidate in any primary, general, or special election.

(C) "Party official" means any person who holds an elective or appointive post in a political party in the United States or this state, by virtue of which he directs, conducts, or participates in directing or conducting party affairs at any level of responsibility.

(D) "Official proceeding" means any proceeding before a legislative, judicial, administrative, or other governmental agency or official authorized to take evidence under oath, and includes any proceeding before a referee, hearing examiner, commissioner, notary, or other person taking testimony or a deposition in connection with an official proceeding.

(E) "Detention" means arrest, confinement in any vehicle subsequent to an arrest, confinement in any facility for custody of persons charged with or convicted of crime or alleged or found to be delinquent or unruly, confinement in any vehicle for transportation to or from any such facility, detention for extradition or deportation, or, except as provided in this division, supervision by any employee of any such facility that is incidental to confinement in the facility but that occurs outside the facility. For a person confined in a county jail who participates in a county jail industry program pursuant to section 5147.30 of the Revised Code, "detention" includes time spent at an assigned work site and going to and from the work site. Detention does not include supervision of probation or parole, or constraint incidental to release on bail.

(F) "Detention facility" means any place used for the confinement of a person charged with or convicted of crime or alleged or found to be delinquent or unruly.

(G) "Valuable thing or valuable benefit" includes, but is not limited to, a contribution. This inclusion does not indicate or imply that a contribution was not included in those terms before September 17, 1986.

(H) "Campaign committee," "contribution," "political action committee," and "political party" have the same meanings as in section 3517.01 of the Revised Code.

(I) "Provider agreement" and "medical assistance program" have the same meanings as in section 2913.40 of the Revised Code.

COMMENTARY

Legislative Service Commission

1973: This section contains a variety of definitions used in Ch 2921.

"Public official" includes any elected or appointed officer, employee, or agent of the state, county, township, city, village, or other political subdivision, whether the position is temporary or permanent. Legislators, judges, and law enforcement officers are expressly designated as public officials.

"Public servant" is more broadly defined than public official, and includes public officials as well as persons performing special, one-time duties, such as jurors, members of temporary commissions, masters, arbitrators, advisors, and consultants. "Public servant" also includes candidates for public office, regardless of whether their candidacy is ultimately successful. A person is said to be a candidate if he is regularly nominated, files nominating petitions, or conducts a write-in campaign.

"Party official" is broadly defined to include officials from precinct committeemen through party chairmen, as well as party employees, assistants, or advisors who participate in directing or conducting the affairs of a political party regardless of their relative position in the organization.

"Official proceeding" is defined as any proceeding before a governmental body or officer empowered to take evidence under oath. It includes legislative committee hearings, court proceedings, administrative hearings, and various peripheral proceedings such as the taking of depositions.

"Detention" includes arrest, which may be with or without confinement. It also includes confinement in a lock-up, jail, workhouse, juvenile detention facility, Ohio Youth Commission facility, or penal or reformatory institution. Detention also includes detention pending extradition or deportation. The definition expressly excludes the supervision and restraint incidental to probation, parole, and release on bail.

"Detention facility" is broadly defined to include any temporary or permanent lock-up, jail, workhouse, or juvenile or adult penal or reformatory facility.

65 OS(2d) 117, 418 NE(2d) 1359 (1981), State v Reed. A person is under "detention," as that term is used in RC 2921.34, when he is arrested and the arresting officer has established control over his person.

29 App(3d) 281, 29 OBR 345, 504 NE(2d) 1204 (Franklin 1986), Columbus v Nickles. A paramedic is a public official for purposes of a municipal ordinance prohibiting the obstruction of official business.

21 App(3d) 297, 21 OBR 443, 488 NE(2d) 495 (Cuyahoga 1985), State v Blagajevic. A janitor employed at a municipal police storage garage, under the auspices of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, who does not participate in the state retirement plan or receive benefits accorded other city workers is not a "public official" subject to the penalties imposed by RC 2921.41.

No. 1459 (11th Dist Ct App, Geauga, 12-15-89), State v Kreischer. A maintenance employee employed under the Job Partnership Training Act, is not a public official as defined by RC 2921.01, thus a conviction under RC 2921.41 is improper.

OAG 92-010. An individual whose pretrial release is conditioned upon his remaining in his residence and being subject to supervision by law enforcement officers through an electronic monitoring device is not in detention, as defined by RC 2921.01(E), for purposes of RC 2921.34(A), and thus the individual does not violate RC 2921.34(A) when he removes his electronic monitoring device or leaves his residence without authority from the court.

OAG 87-019. The executive director of a metropolitan housing authority is a "public servant" as that term is defined in RC 2921.01(B).

2921.02 Bribery

(A) No person, with purpose to corrupt a public servant or party official, or improperly to influence him with respect to the discharge of his duty, whether before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

(B) No person, either before or after he is elected, appointed, qualified, employed, summoned, or sworn as a public servant or party official, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him or another public servant or party official with respect to the discharge of his or the other public servant's or party official's duty.

(C) No person, with purpose to corrupt a witness or improperly to influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn, shall promise, offer, or give him or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit.

(D) No person, either before or after he is subpoenaed or sworn as a witness, shall knowingly solicit or accept for himself or another person any valuable thing or valuable benefit to corrupt or improperly influence him with respect to his testimony in an official proceeding.

(F) A public servant or party official who is convicted of bribery is forever disqualified from holding any public office, employment, or position of trust in this state.

COMMENTARY

Legislative Service Commission

1973: This section broadly restates the former law relating to bribery and soliciting bribes, consolidating several sections which dealt with specific officers or positions of public trust. Bribery of or soliciting bribes by political party officials is included in this section, and the definition of public servant, found in section 2921.01 of the Revised Code, is broad enough to include every category of public servant found in former law. Also, under this section, the bribe given or solicited may include either a valuable thing or a valuable benefit, as under former law.

In addition to penal sanctions against bribery, the section provides that persons convicted of bribery are disqualified forever from holding any public office, employment, or position of trust in the state.

3 App(3d) 108, 3 OBR 123, 444 NE(2d) 92 (1982), State v Bissantz. RC 2921.02 is constitutional.

13 App(2d) 185, 234 NE(2d) 611 (1967), State v McKinley. Inquiries made by a police officer during the commission of a crime, such as bribery, do not constitute custodial interrogation. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

2. In general

19 Am Crim L Rev 409 (1981). Bribery, Robert J. O'Regan.

122 OS 156, 171 NE 27 (1930), Fleming v State; appeal dismissed by 282 US 800, 51 SCt 39, 75 LEd 719 (1930). An indictment for accepting money and proof of receiving a check for that sum is not a fatal variance prejudicial to the defendant. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

39 App(3d) 194, 530 NE(2d) 940 (Cuyahoga 1987), State v Bolar. 7 USC 2011 does not preempt or preclude concurrent enforcement of supplementary state statutes outlawing the misuse of federal food stamps; thus, the state may properly prosecute food stamp violators for various state offenses such as (1) theft, under RC 2913.02; (2) criminal simulation, under RC 2913.32; (3) tampering with records, under RC 2913.42; (4) receiving stolen property, under RC 2913.51; (5) bribery, under RC 2921.02; or (6) theft in office, under RC 2921.41.

38 App(3d) 133, 528 NE(2d) 950 (Cuyahoga 1987), State v Flors. It is not necessary for the state to prove which public official a defendant sought to influence in a prosecution for bribery pursuant to RC 2921.02, because a defendant can commit bribery without knowing which public official will be influenced or whether that official will receive any payment in return; consequently, a conviction for bribery based on dealings with a "friend of a friend" will be upheld where such dealings are evidence of a purpose to obtain special treatment by nonlegal means.

34 App 536, 171 NE 407 (1929), Fleming v State; affirmed by 122 OS 156, 171 NE 27 (1930); appeal dismissed by 282 US 800, 51 SCt 39, 75 LEd 719 (1930). Instruction, in bribery prosecution, to effect that bribery concerns and must apply to act to happen in future, held not proper; severity of sentence for bribery is matter resting in sound discretion of trial court, and not subject to review by court of appeals. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

No. C-820786 (1st Dist Ct App, Hamilton, 7-27-83), State v Folchi. Where a defendant is indicted for the crime of bribery, the court commits prejudicial error in instructing the jury on conspiracy and co-conspirators.

3. Culpable mental state

3 App(3d) 108, 3 OBR 123, 444 NE(2d) 92 (Clermont 1982), State v Bissantz. It is not necessary for the state to prove a defendant acted with purpose or intent to convict him of violating RC 2921.02(B).

712 FSupp 112 (ND Ohio 1989), United States v Anthony. To convict a federal official under 18 USC 201(c)(1)(B), forbidding unlawful gratuities, all that need be proven is that the official accepted a thing of value because of his position "otherwise than as provided by law for the proper discharge of official duty"; no specific intent need be shown, for the gravamen of the offense is not an intent to be corrupted or influenced but simply acceptance of the unauthorized compensation.

4. Valuable thing or benefit

107 OS 475, 141 NE 19 (1923), Scott v State. A substantial favor asked by a public official is a "valuable thing" under this section. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

3 App(3d) 108, 3 OBR 123, 444 NE(2d) 92 (Clermont 1982), State v Bissantz. A job commitment is a "valuable thing" within the meaning of RC 2921.02(B).

5. Bribery of public servant; soliciting bribe

a. In general

40 OS(3d) 112, 532 NE(2d) 126 (1988), State v Bissantz. A conviction of bribery in office under RC 2921.02(B) may be expunged pursuant to RC 2953.31 through 2953.36.

113 OS 187, 148 NE 834 (1925), Curtis v State. If a bribe is received, it is not necessary that the act for which it is given actually be accomplished; the crime is complete when money is received to influence official action. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

38 App(3d) 133, 528 NE(2d) 950 (Cuyahoga 1987), State v Flors. It is not necessary for the state to prove which public official a defendant sought to influence in a prosecution for bribery pursuant to RC 2921.02, because a defendant can commit bribery without knowing which public official will be influenced or whether that official will receive any payment in return; consequently, a conviction for bribery based on dealings with a "friend of a friend" will be upheld where such dealings are evidence of a purpose to obtain special treatment by nonlegal means.

b. Public official

40 OS(3d) 112, 532 NE(2d) 126 (1988), State v Bissantz. A person convicted of bribery in office under RC 2921.02(B) is forever barred from holding public office in this state, even where such conviction is subsequently expunged pursuant to RC 2953.31 through 2953.36.

18 OS(3d) 38, 18 OBR 75, 479 NE(2d) 857 (1985), State v Italiano; cert denied 474 US 904, 106 SCt 234, 88 LEd(2d) 232 (1985). For purposes of a prosecution for bribery of a public official, the official "duty" can be one arising from usage rather than from a written rule or regulation.

18 OS(3d) 38, 18 OBR 75, 479 NE(2d) 857 (1985), State v Italiano; cert denied 474 US 904, 106 SCt 234, 88 LEd(2d) 232 (1985). It is not a defense to a charge of bribery that the official bribed did not have the ultimate authority to do the act sought, provided that the money was paid in exchange for the official's efforts to influence the acts or judgment of others.

140 OS 190, 42 NE(2d) 896 (1942), State v Costanzo. An indictment, which charges accused with bribery by corruptly giving another person money to influence his action, opinion or judgment in a matter pending, is not insufficient merely because the only allegation with respect to the position held by the person alleged to have been bribed is that he "was duly appointed, qualified and acting senior assistant mechanical engineer of the city of Cleveland and in said position was an agent and employee of said city of Cleveland." (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

111 SCt 1807, 114 LEd(2d) 307 (1991), McCormick v United States. Legislators do not commit the federal crime of extortion under 18 USC 1951, the Hobbs Act, by acting for constituents' benefit or supporting legislation furthering constituents' interests shortly before or after they solicit or receive campaign contributions from those constituents; property is extorted within the comprehension of the Hobbs Act only when an official asserts that his official conduct will be controlled by the terms of the promise or undertaking.

c. Juror

87 Abs 475, 167 NE(2d) 897 (App, Columbiana 1960), State v Cunningham. Conviction of attempting to corrupt a juror sustained although defendant attempted to corrupt a "Donald Lockhart" whereas the jury commissioners erroneously summoned a "Donald Lockwood." (Annotation from former RC 2917.05.)

d. Witness

55 App(3d) 70, 562 NE(2d) 941 (Cuyahoga 1989), State v Jurek. The crime of bribery of a witness is committed where an attorney offers a complaining witness $1000 to request that charges against his client be dropped.

114 App 339, 179 NE(2d) 108 (1961), State v Lieberman. An attempt to bribe within the proscription of RC 2917.06 is corrupt action; and an offer of "any valuable thing" to influence the testimony of one who has factual knowledge relevant to grand jury proceedings pending against another is a violation of RC 2917.07. (Annotation from former RC 2917.06.)

114 App 339, 179 NE(2d) 108 (1961), State v Lieberman. Where an offer of "any valuable thing" is made to influence the testimony of a person who has factual knowledge relevant to (but has not been subpoenaed or sworn in) grand jury proceedings pending against another, the ultimate and essential facts of, and the evidence used to prove, the offerer's violation of RC 2917.06 are identical to those which prove a violation of RC 2917.07, and there is but one offense, and the defendant-offerer may be sentenced only once; the failure of the defendant to challenge the sentencing under both statutes in the trial court does not waive the error of imposing two sentences under the two statutes. (Annotation from former RC 2917.06.)

114 App 339, 179 NE(2d) 108 (1961), State v Lieberman. RC 2917.06 makes it a crime to offer or promise "any valuable thing" to one who has knowledge of facts which are pertinent or relevant to grand jury proceedings pending against another but who has not testified or even been sworn or subpoenaed. (Annotation from former RC 2917.06.)

114 App 339, 179 NE(2d) 108 (1961), State v Lieberman. A person who offers "any valuable thing" to another for the purpose of inducing such other person to testify contrary to such other person's beliefs as to the facts violates RC 2917.06, regardless of the offerer's belief as to the facts and regardless of what a jury might ultimately find such facts to be; and it is not necessary that such other person be, in fact, influenced. (Annotation from former RC 2917.06.)

e. Soliciting bribe

70 App(2d) 171, 435 NE(2d) 680 (1980), State v Seneff. A police officer who solicits and receives a reward from the owner of stolen property before returning the property to the owner is guilty of bribery, even though the police officer recovered the property in his off-duty hours, and solicited and received the reward in his off-duty hours.

6. Evidence

113 OS 187, 148 NE 834 (1925), Curtis v State. See as to evidence and instructions on trial for bribery. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

426 F(2d) 1288 (6th Cir Ohio 1970), Birns v Perini; cert denied 402 US 950, 91 SCt 1609, 29 LEd(2d) 120 (1971). Where an individual arrested for involvement in the "numbers racket" is tried for bribery of one of the arresting officers, introduction into evidence at the state bribery trial of testimony about items that had been suppressed at the defendant's separate trial on a numbers charge is not improper where the state cannot prove its case without referring to the arrest and the numbers prosecution.

426 F(2d) 1288 (6th Cir Ohio 1970), Birns v Perini; cert denied 402 US 950, 91 SCt 1609, 29 LEd(2d) 120 (1971). In a state bribery trial where conservations between the defendant and an officer with a transmitter are testified to by the officer who monitored the broadcast outside in his cruiser, any error from nondisclosure of the fact an automobile accident caused the outside officer to leave the cruiser for awhile is harmless where he simply corroborated the testimony of his fellow officer and where the defendant's own testimony was substantially similar.

7. Conviction as ground for disbarment

57 OS(2d) 11, 385 NE(2d) 294 (1979), Medina County Bar Assn v Haddad. Attorney convicted of offering and giving a bribe to a prosecuting attorney should be disbarred rather than indefinitely suspended.

28 OS(2d) 40, 274 NE(2d) 763 (1971), Cleveland Bar Assn v Fatica. Conviction of a violation of RC 2917.01 justified disbarment. (Annotation from former RC 2917.01.)

2921.42 Having an unlawful interest in a public contract

(A) No public official shall knowingly do any of the following:

(1) Authorize, or employ the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of any public contract in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest;

(2) Authorize, or employ the authority or influence of his office to secure the investment of public funds in any share, bond, mortgage, or other security, with respect to which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates either has an interest, is an underwriter, or receives any brokerage, origination, or servicing fees;

(3) During his term of office or within one year thereafter, occupy any position of profit in the prosecution of a public contract authorized by him or by a legislative body, commission, or board of which he was a member at the time of authorization, and not let by competitive bidding, or let by competitive bidding in which his is not the lowest and best bid;

(4) Have an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract entered into by or for the use of the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality with which he is connected;

(5) Have an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract which is not let by competitive bidding when required by law, and which involves more than one hundred fifty dollars.

(B) In the absence of bribery or a purpose to defraud, a public servant, member of his family, or any of his associates shall not be considered as having an interest in a public contract or the investment of public funds, when all of the following apply:

(1) The interest of such person is limited to owning or controlling shares of the corporation, or being a creditor of the corporation or other organization, which is the contractor on the public contract involved, or which is the issuer of the security in which public funds are invested;

(2) The shares owned or controlled by such person do not exceed five per cent of the outstanding shares of the corporation, and the amount due such person as creditor does not exceed five per cent of the total indebtedness of the corporation or other organization;

(3) Such person, prior to the time the public contract is entered into, files with the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality involved, an affidavit giving his exact status in connection with the corporation or other organization.

(C) This section does not apply to a public contract in which a public servant, member of his family, or one of his business associates has an interest, when all of the following apply:

(1) The subject of the public contract is necessary supplies or services for the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality involved;

(2) The supplies or services are unobtainable elsewhere for the same or lower cost, or are being furnished to the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality as part of a continuing course of dealing established prior to the public servant's becoming associated with the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality involved;

(3) The treatment accorded the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality is either preferential to or the same as that accorded other customers or clients in similar transactions;

(4) The entire transaction is conducted at arm's length, with full knowledge by the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality involved, of the interest of the public servant, member of his family, or business associate, and the public servant takes no part in the deliberations or decision of the political subdivision or governmental agency or instrumentality with respect to the public contract.

(D) Whoever violates this section is guilty of having an unlawful interest in a public contract. Violation of division (A)(1) or (2) of this section is a felony of the fourth degree. Violation of division (A)(3), (4), or (5) of this section is a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(E) As used in this section, "public contract" means any of the following:

(1) The purchase or acquisition, or a contract for the purchase or acquisition of property or services by or for the use of the state or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality of either;

(2) A contract for the design, construction, alteration, repair, or maintenance of any public property.

COMMENTARY

Legislative Service Commission

1973: This section consolidates and expands upon former prohibitions in the criminal code relating to public officials having an improper interest in certain contracts. It includes contracts for services by or for the use of public agencies or the state and its subdivisions, and also includes a provision specifically prohibiting public officers from employing their position to broker or facilitate brokering the investment of public funds when they or their family or associates will reap unconscionable benefits thereby.

The purpose of this section is to insure that public agencies stand on at least an equal footing with others with respect to necessary business dealings. Accordingly, the section does not prohibit public servants from all dealings in which they may have some interest, no matter how remote or above-board. It prohibits only those dealings in which there is a risk that private considerations may detract from serving the public interests. Thus, there is no violation of this section where a public servant's connection with a contracting party is as a stockholder or creditor with a strictly limited stake which is fully revealed, provided there is no purpose to defraud. Similarly, there is no violation of the section when obtaining necessary supplies or services from a contractor in which a public servant has an interest, as part of a course of dealing established before the public servant assumed office, provided the transaction is at arm's length, and provided the agency's only alternatives to dealing with the contractor are to pay more or do without the supplies or services involved.

OAG 91-014. Members of the emergency response commission who have been appointed under RC 3750.02 and members of a local emergency planning committee who have been appointed pursuant to RC 3750.03 are entitled to immunity from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, and actions for removal from office or employment for violations of RC Ch 102, 2921.42, or 2921.43 in the circumstances prescribed by RC 102.08.

Bd of Commrs on Grievances & Discipline Op 91-011 (4-12-91). The Code of Judicial Conduct, the Ohio Ethics Law RC Ch 102, and related statutes (RC 2921.42 and 2921.43) prohibit a municipal judge from serving as a member or officer of the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation providing services to the municipal court by contract with the city.

Ethics Op 91-010. RC 2921.42(A)(4) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a state officer or employee from accepting or using, for personal travel, a discounted or free "frequent flyer" airline ticket or other benefit from an airline if she has obtained the ticket or other benefit from the purchase of airline tickets, for use in official travel, by the department, division, agency, institution, or other entity with which she is connected.

Ethics Op 91-001. RC 505.011 does not provide an exemption from the prohibitions of RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03.

Ethics Op 90-005. A board of education will be deemed to "authorize" all school district purchases for purposes of RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 2921.42(A)(3), unless the board has passed a general resolution dispensing with the adoption of resolutions authorizing purchases and approving payments, in accordance with the requirements of RC 3313.18.

Ethics Op 85-005. Members of the technical advisory committee appointed under RC 1551.35 are not "public officials" or "public employees" for purposes of RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 83-008. RC 2921.42 and related statutes do not prohibit a city council member who is affiliated with the mayor in a legal professional corporation from voting on an ordinance increasing the salary of the office of mayor, effective during the next term following an election.

Ethics Op 83-004. Where Ohio ethics law and related statutes conflict with the provisions of a city charter, the state criminal statutes prevail.

Ethics Op 83-002. Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not prohibit a city council member from being affiliated in a legal association with the city law director, provided that: (1) only expenses, and not profits, are shared by the association; and (2) the council member does not participate in discussions, vote, or otherwise use the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a contract between the city and the law director.

Ethics Op 82-003. RC 2921.42 does not prohibit a school board member, whose spouse is a teacher and member of the teachers' union in the school district, from voting on a master contract between the school district and the teachers' union.

Ethics Op 78-004. For purposes of RC 2921.42, the term "public official" comprehends a corporation appointed to serve as city engineer, and a member or employee of the corporation designated to serve in the capacity of city engineer; RC 102.03(D) prohibits the city engineer from using or attempting to use the position to secure anything of value for himself that would not ordinarily accrue to him and of such a nature as to manifest a substantial and improper influence upon the exercise of his duties.

2. Authorization of public contract subject to interest

a. In general

OAG 85-099. An individual may serve as county auditor even though his son is a member of a board of education of a city school district within the same county.

Ethics Op 88-001. RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03(D) prohibit a physician who is employed by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities from authorizing, or using the authority or influence of his employment to secure authorization of a contract under which he would provide on-call medical services to the department.

Ethics Op 79-005. A member of a village council is prohibited from knowingly authorizing, voting, or otherwise using his office to secure approval of a roof repair contract between the village and a corporation in which he, a member of his family or any of his business associates has an interest and is prohibited from knowingly having an interest in such a contract.

b. Public official

36 OS(3d) 190, 522 NE(2d) 555 (1988), State v Pinkney. Knowledge by a public official that certain conduct is unlawful is not an element of the crime of his "knowingly" authorizing a public contract in which he has an interest, as set forth in RC 2921.42(A).

6 OS(3d) 59, 6 OBR 103, 451 NE(2d) 744 (1983), State v Jacobozzi. Where a city agency awards a rehabilitation grant for property of which the agency chairman was formerly co-owner and in which his wife still had a half interest at the time of the award, a conviction of the agency chairman for having an interest in a contract prohibited by RC 2921.42 is defective for failure to preclude all reasonable theories of innocence where (1) the chairman and his wife had quitclaimed the property to a third person; (2) a later title examination revealed that the deed transferred only the dower interest but not the ownership interest of the wife, possibly because of inartful draftsmanship or a scrivener's error; and (3) soon after the discovery of the deed's inadequacy the wife quitclaimed her remaining interest to the third person without further consideration.

No. 50718 (8th Dist Ct App, Cuyahoga, 3-12-87), State v Pinkney; affirmed by 36 OS(3d) 190, 522 NE(2d) 555 (1988). A member of a port authority board of directors violates RC 2921.42(A)(1) where, under the authority of his public office, he signs a check for the purchase of liability insurance for board members from his own insurance company.

Ethics Op 91-007. The clerk of a city council and the city treasurer are not prohibited by RC 102.03 or 2921.42 from accepting an increase in compensation enacted by city council during their current term of office unless a local provision authorizes the clerk or treasurer to exercise discretionary authority with respect to the enactment of legislation, the appropriation of city funds, or the establishment of the compensation for their respective positions.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a board of education who is a store owner from selling merchandise to the school district with which he serves, unless he is able to meet the exception of RC 2921.42(C).

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a board of education from knowingly selling goods to a band parent boosters club when the goods will be purchased for the use of the school district with which he serves, unless he is able to meet the exception of RC 2921.42(C).

Ethics Op 89-015. The Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not prohibit two or more members of the same law firm or other business associates from simultaneously serving as public officials within the same political subdivision; however, the ethics law and related statutes restrict the conduct of public officials with respect to business associates.

Ethics Op 89-004. A member of a board of county commissioners is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) from having an interest in a public contract entered into by or for the use of a regional transit authority where the board of county commissioners participated in the creation of the authority and the county is included within the transit authority's jurisdiction.

Ethics Op 89-004. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of county commissioners from authorizing, or using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of, a public contract in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest, where the public contract is entered into by a regional transit authority which the board of county commissioners participated in creating and which includes the county.

Ethics Op 88-008. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of city council from serving as a director of an insurance company which has entered into a contract with any agency, board, department, or office of the city, unless all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 88-008. RC 2921(A)(3) prohibits a member of city council from serving as a director of an insurance company which has entered into a public contract approved or authorized by city council where the contract was not competitively bid, not the lowest and best bid, and (1) the establishment or operation of the insurance company is dependent upon receipt of the contract, (2) the creation or continuation of the official's position with the insurance company is dependent upon the award of the contract, (3) the proceeds from the contract would be used by the insurance company to compensate the official or as a basis for the official's compensation, or (4) the official would otherwise profit from the contract; the prohibition applies for one year after the city council member leaves office, but does not apply to any contract approved or authorized by city council prior to the member's election or appointment.

Ethics Op 88-008. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of city council from voting, discussing, deliberating, or otherwise using his official authority or influence, formally or informally, to secure a contract between the city and an insurance company he serves as director.

Ethics Op 88-006. A city officer or employee is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) from purchasing real property from the city under a land reutilization program, where he would be required by the city to construct an improvement upon the property or otherwise use such property for a specific purpose, unless all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 88-006. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city officer or employee from voting, discussing, deliberating, or otherwise using his official authority or influence, formally or informally, to secure real property from the city under a land reutilization program.

Ethics Op 88-006. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a city officer or employee whose approval is necessary to the sale of real property by the city under a land reutilization program, or who serves as a member of a legislative body, board, or commission which must approve the sale, from purchasing such property where there is no competitive bidding process.

Ethics Op 88-003. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a county officer, employee, or agent from conveying real property he owns to the board of county commissioners, where the board seeks to acquire such property by direct purchase or through eminent domain proceedings, unless all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met; under RC 2921.42(C)(2) it must be demonstrated that the property of the county official is either the least costly property for the county or is uniquely suited to meet the requirements of the board of county commissioners because of its location, size, or other characteristics.

Ethics Op 88-003. RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03(D) prohibit a county officer or employee from voting, deliberating, participating in discussions, or otherwise authorizing or using the authority or influence of his position to secure the acquisition of his property by the county.

Ethics Op 88-003. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a county commissioner, or other county official who has the authority to acquire property or who serves on a board or commission with such authority, from profiting by an acquisition of real property authorized by him or by his board or commission, where this acquisition is not made pursuant to competitive bidding or is awarded under competitive bidding to a bid other than the lowest and best one.

Ethics Op 87-003 (4-9-87). Members of the Ohio children's trust fund board are forbidden by RC 2921.42(A)(4) to serve as trustees or officers of a nonprofit corporation that has been granted funds by the board or that is awarded funds by an umbrella organization given money by the board.

Ethics Op 87-003 (4-9-87). The standards in RC 2921.42(C) for judging when a public official may have an interest in a public contract are strictly applied against the official.

Ethics Op 87-003 (4-9-87). The "continuing course of dealing" exception in RC 2921.42(C) applies only to services rendered during the term of a contract entered before the interested official was appointed; the awarding of a second contract after appointment does not establish a "continuing course of dealing."

Ethics Op 87-003 (4-9-87). The Ohio children's trust fund board is invested with independent power under RC 3109.16 and 3109.17 to allocate public funds and perform other sovereign duties on behalf of the state; its members are accordingly "public officials" for purposes of RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 87-002. Members of a county board of elections are sufficiently "connected" with the county, for purposes of RC 2921.42, that they are forbidden to sell property or services to the county unless the transaction is exempt under RC 2921.42(C).

Ethics Op 85-010. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a city board of building appeals who is an architect or engineer from authorizing, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a public contract in which he, a family member, or a business associate has an interest.

Ethics Op 85-007. RC 102.03(D) prohibits a county treasurer from participating in a decision or authorizing a transaction involving a bank if he has a personal, financial stake in the decision or transaction.

Ethics Op 85-001. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a park manager employed by the department of natural resources from authorizing, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of, a contract between the department and his private company to provide machine repair and maintenance services in his park and elsewhere in the state park system.

Ethics Op 84-014. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city fire chief from knowingly authorizing, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of, a contract between the city and a fire equipment firm with which he is associated.

Ethics Op 84-013. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city employee from knowingly authorizing or using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a contract between the city and a computer software firm with which he is associated.

Ethics Op 84-009. RC 2921.42(A)(1) forbids a professional staff member of a community developmental center run by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities to authorize, or use the influence of his office to secure approval of placement of department clients in a group home run by a corporation that he serves as an employee or consultant.

c. Family members

32 Ohio School Bds Assn J 2 (November 1988). "Innocent" board member is guilty, Richard J. Dickinson. (Ed. note: For a school board to hire the law firm of a board member's husband is said to create a conflict of interest forbidden by RC 3313.33, even when the act is not unethical under RC 2921.42 because the attorney's wife did not vote to hire her husband.)

63 App(3d) 555, 579 NE(2d) 525 (Lawrence 1990), Scherer v Rock Hill Local School Dist Bd of Ed. An assistant school nurse's employment contract with a board of education is not void merely because her husband is a member of the board at the time her contract is approved where the husband receives only an indirect benefit from his wife's employment, which does not constitute a pecuniary interest and was not violative of either RC 3319.21 or 3313.33, and moreover, since RC 3319.21 is only applicable to voting on positions for teachers or instructors, it is inapplicable to void an assistant school nurse's employment contract.

Ethics Op 90-010. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city director of service and safety from authorizing or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure the employment of his son by the fire department of the city which he serves even if (1) the son has scored the highest on an examination which was administered by a municipal civil service commission to screen potential applicants, (2) the son has been recommended for employment by the city fire chief, and (3) the director has not participated in interviewing the three eligible candidates.

Ethics Op 89-008. Neither RC 2921.42(A)(1) nor 102.03(D) prohibits a city council member from voting, deliberating, participating in discussions, or otherwise authorizing or using the authority or influence of his position with regard to an application for a property tax abatement submitted by a company which employs a member of the official's family, if the family member has no definite and direct pecuniary or fiduciary interest in the award of the abatement and does not receive a definite and direct benefit therefrom.

Ethics Op 89-005. A member of a school district board of education whose spouse is employed by the school district is not prohibited by Ohio ethics law and related statutes from voting to accept or reject a proposed collective bargaining agreement between the school district and the employees' labor organization, unless his spouse is an officer, board member, or member of the negotiating team or committee of the employee organization.

Ethics Op 89-005. A member of a school district board of education who is a teacher in another school district and a member of an employee labor organization by virtue of that employment is not prohibited by Ohio ethics law and related statutes from participating in discussions or voting on a proposed collective bargaining agreement between the employee organization and the school district of which he is a board member.

Ethics Op 89-004. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of county commissioners from authorizing, or using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of, a public contract in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest, where the public contract is entered into by a regional transit authority which the board of county commissioners participated in creating and which includes the county.

Ethics Op 88-007. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of education from authorizing, voting, deliberating, participating in discussions, or otherwise using her authority or influence, formally or informally, to secure authorization, modification, or renewal of a contract between the board of education and her spouse's law firm.

Ethics Op 88-007. RC 2921.42(A)(4) does not prohibit a person from serving as a member of a board of education, where her spouse is a partner in a law firm which has entered into a contract with the board of education, unless the person would derive some direct interest or benefit from the board's employment of her spouse's law firm.

Ethics Op 86-010. A city treasurer is forbidden to appoint her sister as city income tax director by RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 85-015. The discretion conferred on sheriffs by RC 311.04 and RC 341.20 to appoint deputies and other employees does not override the criminal prohibition under RC 2921.42 against an official act securing authorization of a public contract in which a member of the official's family has an interest.

Ethics Op 82-003. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a school board member, whose spouse is a teacher in the school district, from authorizing, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office, to secure approval of an individual contract with his spouse.

Ethics Op 81-004. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a county auditor from authorizing a property reappraisal contract with a company owned by his son.

Ethics Op 80-001. For purposes of RC 2921.42 the term "a member of his family" includes, but is not limited to: grandparents, parents, spouse, children, whether dependent or not, grandchildren, brothers and sisters, or any person related by blood or marriage and residing in the same household.

Ethics Op 80-001. A city council member is prohibited from authorizing, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a public contract in which his brother has an interest.

d. Business associates

Bd of Commrs on Grievances & Discipline Op 91-023 (10-18-91). RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a part-time judge from appointing an attorney in his/her law firm to the position of referee.

Ethics Op 90-007. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a county prosecutor from authorizing or using the authority or influence of his office, formally or informally, to secure authorization of a contract between a township which he is statutorily required to represent and his law partner in private practice.

Ethics Op 89-008. RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03(D) prohibit a city council member from voting, deliberating, participating in discussions, or otherwise authorizing or using the official authority or influence of his position with regard to an application for a property tax abatement submitted by a company with which he is employed.

Ethics Op 89-008. Neither RC 2921.42(A)(1) nor 102.03(D) prohibits a city council member who is a member of a labor organization from voting, deliberating, participating in discussions, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his position with regard to an application for a property tax abatement submitted by a company which employs members of the labor organization to which he belongs if he is not employed by the applicant company, and is not an officer, board member, or member of the negotiating team of the labor organization.

Ethics Op 89-006. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits an Ohio department of mental health official or employee from using the authority or influence of his office, either formally or informally, to secure the award of a grant to a college or university with which he is employed.

Ethics Op 89-004. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of county commissioners from authorizing, or using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of, a public contract in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest, where the public contract is entered into by a regional transit authority which the board of county commissioners participated in creating and which includes the county.

Ethics Op 85-008. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city council member from authorizing or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a public contract between the city and his employer, including any renewal, extension, or material change in the terms or conditions of the existing franchise agreement.

Ethics Op 85-008. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a city councilman employed as a systems manager for a cable television enterprise from participating in discussions, voting, or otherwise using his office to secure approval, renewal, or modification of a franchise agreement between the cable company and the city; where the councilman is a middle level manager with neither an ownership nor fiduciary interest in the firm, he does not possess an "interest" in the firm such as is forbidden by RC 2921.42(A)(4).

Ethics Op 85-004. Partners in general or limited partnerships are "business associates" for purposes of RC 2921.42 regardless of the extent of their interests in the common association.

Ethics Op 84-008. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits an employee of a state commission from serving as a member of or consultant to a commission task force on computerization or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of a public contract for computer services in which he or a business associate has an interest; further, RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits an employee of a state commission from having an interest in a computer service contract between the commission and a manufacturer or its agent with whom he is associated in business.

Ethics Op 81-001. RC 2921.42 prohibits a member of city council from knowingly authorizing, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a public contract in which his employer has an interest.

Ethics Op 80-003. A school board member may not knowingly authorize, vote, or otherwise use the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a public contract for the purchase or servicing of school buses involving the automobile dealership by which he is employed.

Ethics Op 78-006. Pursuant to RC 2921.42(A)(1), a member of a board of education is prohibited from voting to approve or otherwise knowingly use the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of a contract for the purchase of school buses in which his employer has an interest, even though the board member does not have a prohibited interest in the contract.

3. Public investments subject to interest

Ethics Op 91-011. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city officer or employee from lease-purchasing or buying from the city a housing unit constructed on city property and financed by the city as part of a community development and revitalization project unless all of the criteria of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 91-011. If the demand for resources which a city furnishes in its program to purchase or acquire community development and revitalization services exceeds supply, then the "unobtainable elsewhere" exception of RC 2921.42(C)(2) cannot be met by a city officer or employee; however, if the supply of resources which the city furnishes exceeds demand, then a city officer or employee who desires to participate in the city's program may meet the RC 2921.42(C)(2) exception as long as all qualified and interested persons who are not city officers and employees have been served and resources still remain.

Ethics Op 89-011. For purposes of RC 2921.42(A)(4), a creditor has an interest in the contracts of a debtor corporation unless he is able to meet all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(B).

Ethics Op 84-011. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city employee from receiving a federally funded housing rehabilitation grant or loan from the city unless all the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 79-004. A member of the Ohio development financing commission may not knowingly participate in discussions, voting or otherwise use the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of an application or to secure the investment or use of public funds to guarantee any mortgage in which the corporation with which he serves as an officer and employee is a participant.

4. Interest in profits or benefits of public contract

a. In general

Ethics Op 89-011. RC 2921.42(B) provides that, in the absence of bribery or fraud, a public servant shall not be considered to have an "interest" in a public contract with his own political subdivision when (1) the public servant's interest in a corporation doing business with his own political subdivision is limited to being a creditor of the corporation, (2) the amount due the public servant does not exceed five per cent of the total indebtedness of the corporation, and (3) the public servant files with the political subdivision an affidavit giving his exact status in connection with the corporation.

Ethics Op 89-011. As used in RC 2921.42(B), the term "creditor" includes the beneficiary of an irrevocable trust that is created as a method of meeting the debtor's obligation to pay a pre-existing debt.

Ethics Op 89-011. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a corporation from entering into a contract with a metropolitan housing authority, where the corporation is obligated to pay a member of the metropolitan housing authority an amount which is over five per cent of the total indebtedness of the corporation, unless all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 89-004. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a public official from having an interest in the public contracts entered into by all of the political subdivisions, governmental agencies, and instrumentalities with which he is connected.

Ethics Op 87-003. The interests forbidden by RC 2921.42 may be pecuniary or fiduciary in nature, but must be definite and direct.

Ethics Op 78-005. As used in RC 2921.42, "interest" in a public contract must be a definite, direct interest in order to constitute a violation.

b. Municipal officials

155 OS 329, 98 NE(2d) 807 (1951), In re Removal of Member of Council. Under this section and GC 4670 (RC 733.72) a member of the council of a municipal corporation who has been interested, directly or indirectly, in the profits of a contract, job, work or service undertaken or prosecuted by the corporation, contrary to law, is subject to being charged in a complaint authorized by GC 4670 (RC 733.72), whether the acts in violation of such section were performed by the member of council during his present term of office or a previous one. (Annotation from former RC 733.78.)

119 OS 462, 164 NE 512 (1928), Wright v Clark. The engineer of a city or village is an officer within the meaning of this section and therefore inhibited from becoming interested in the expenditure of money of the corporation other than payment of his fixed compensation. (Annotation from former RC 733.78.)

24 App 251, 157 NE 410 (1927), Stone v Osborn. Sale of municipal light plant and grant of franchise to member of municipal board of trustees, who continued as member until two days before he submitted bid for property is not fradulent or in violation of GC 12910 (RC 2919.08) or GC 12911 (RC 2919.09). (Annotation from former RC 2919.08.)

44 Abs 208, 62 NE(2d) 716 (App, Franklin 1945), Halliday v Norfolk & Western RR. See for a good example of a municipal official taking improper interest in a contract for the purchase of land for public use. (Annotation from former RC 2919.08.)

OAG 66-152. Regular policemen or patrolmen employed by a municipal corporation are subject to RC 2919.08. (Annotation from former RC 2919.08.)

Ethics Op 91-011. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a city officer or employee whose approval is necessary for the lease-purchase or sale by the city of a housing unit constructed on city property and financed by the city as part of a community development and revitalization project or who serves as a member of a legislative body, board or commission which must approve the lease-purchase or sale, from lease-purchasing or buying a unit where there is no competitive bidding process.

Ethics Op 91-011. RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03(D) prohibit a city officer or employee from voting, discussing, deliberating, recommending, or otherwise using his official authority or influence, formally or informally, to secure from the city a housing unit constructed on city property and financed by the city as part of a community development and revitalization project for himself or a member of his family.

Ethics Op 89-012. A city law director is not required by any provision of law to provide legal services to a port authority created by the city he serves and therefore he is not prohibited by RC 2921.43(A) from accepting or soliciting compensation from the port authority for legal services provided; RC 102.03(E) and 2921.42(A)(4), however, prohibit a city law director from accepting or soliciting compensation for providing legal services to a port authority created by the city with which he serves.

Ethics Op 89-008. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of city council from having a definite and direct pecuniary or fiduciary interest in a tax abatement granted by the city to a company which employs the council member.

Ethics Op 89-008. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a city council member from profiting from the award of a tax abatement authorized by city council while he is a member thereof.

Ethics Op 85-010. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a city board of building appeals who is an architect or engineer from having an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract with the city with which he is connected.

Ethics Op 84-014. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city fire chief from knowingly having any interest in the profits or benefits of a contract between the city and a fire equipment firm with which he is associated.

Ethics Op 84-013. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city employee from knowingly soliciting or receiving a commission, payment, or fee, or having any other interest in the profits or benefits of a contract between the city and a computer software firm with which he is associated.

Ethics Op 83-005. Ohio ethics law and related statutes prohibit a city employee from receiving a federally funded loan or grant from the city division of community development.

Ethics Op 80-007. RC 2921.42 prohibits a city council member from knowingly participating in discussions or voting to approve a public contract for downtown revitalization project which would benefit his property.

Ethics Op 78-004. A city engineer is forbidden by RC 2921.42(A)(4) to knowingly have an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract for engineering services by or for the use of the city he serves.

Ethics Op 78-001. A member of city council is prohibited from knowingly having an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract for legal services between the city and the law firm with which he is associated.

c. County officials

Ethics Op 90-007. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a county prosecutor from having an interest in a contract entered into by a township within his county for legal services.

Ethics Op 89-004. A member of a board of county commissioners is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) from having an interest in a public contract entered into by or for the use of a regional transit authority where the board of county commissioners participated in the creation of the authority and the county is included within the transit authority's jurisdiction.

Ethics Op 85-003. The wife of a county engineer cannot be employed by the same county where her position would provide the engineer with insurance coverage not otherwise available to him.

Ethics Op 84-002. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a private law firm consisting of two assistant county prosecutors from being retained to represent the county on collective bargaining issues.

Ethics Op 80-006. A county commissioner is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) from knowingly having an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract, including an industrial revenue bond, entered into by or for the use of the county with which he serves.

Ethics Op 79-001. Division (A)(1) of RC 2921.42 prohibits a county prosecuting attorney from knowingly authorizing or using the authority or influence of his office to secure authorization of a public contract, including a contract with the county welfare department to provide child support enforcement, in which he has an interest, directly or indirectly.

Ethics Op 79-001. Division (A)(4) of RC 2921.42 prohibits a county prosecuting attorney from knowingly having a personal interest in the profits or benefits of a contract with the county welfare department to provide child support enforcement.

Ethics Op 78-003. A county commissioner may not knowingly have an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract for commercial development financed through industrial revenue bonds.

d. Township officials

124 OS 465, 179 NE 350 (1931), State v Moon. It is not essential to conviction of township trustee charged with a violation of this section to prove that a profit was realized out of the transaction to which he became an interested party while serving as such officer, where the record discloses that bills for services for the township ostensibly rendered by another, but in fact by the employees of the said trustee, in the use of a truck owned by him, were presented by and the entire contract price paid to him. (Annotation from former RC 2919.10.)

OAG 82-008. The provision of RC 511.13 prohibiting members of a board of township trustees, township officers, and township employees from having an interest in contracts entered by the board applies to every such contract unless the interested individual has an interest permitted by RC 511.13; RC 511.13 appears to contain a broader prohibition than RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 91-001. Due to the exemption provided by RC 505.011, a township trustee is not prohibited from serving as a full-time paid employee of a private fire company which is under contract to provide fire protection services to the township which he serves, despite the prohibitions of RC 2921.42(A)(3) and 2921.42(A)(4).

Ethics Op 91-001. RC 2921.42(A)(1) and 102.03(D) prohibit a township trustee who serves as an employee of a private fire company which is under contract to provide fire protection services to the township from discussing, deliberating, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his position, either formally or informally, to authorize, secure, renew, modify, or renegotiate a contract between his employing fire company and the township, and from signing warrants and checks to the company for services provided under the contract.

e. School district officials

Ethics Op 90-005. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a board of education from having an interest in purchases made by the school district, regardless of whether such purchases are made by school district employees on a casual, "as needed" basis or pursuant to a formal contract.

Ethics Op 90-005. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a member of a board of education from profiting from a purchase authorized by the board of education where the purchase was not competitively bid and the board member's bid was not the lowest and best bid, even though the profit is of a minimal amount; RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of education from authorizing, or using the authority or influence of his position to secure authorization of, purchases in which he, a member of his family, or any of his business associates has an interest.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a member of a board of education who is a store owner from profiting from the sale of merchandise when the sale was approved or authorized by him or by the board of education, and where the merchandise was not sold through competitive bidding, or where his was not the lowest and best bid.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of education from discussing, deliberating, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his position as a school board member, either formally or informally, to secure the purchase from his store of merchandise by or for the use of the school district with which he serves.

Ethics Op 87-008. RC 2921.42(A)(3) forbids a board of education member to accept employment with the board for one year after leaving office where the employment was approved while he was a member of the board.

Ethics Op 78-002. A school district transportation director is person employed by a governmental entity and is therefore subject to RC Ch 102. As such he is subject to restrictions with respect to representations before the district, using his official position to secure anything of value for himself, receiving compensation other than from the school district. In addition, RC 2921.42 prohibits a school district transportation director from knowingly having an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract entered into by or for the use of the school district.

f. Other public officials or employees

OAG 83-037. A legal adviser of a metropolitan housing authority who sells a parcel of his land to a city is not placed in violation of RC 2921.42(A)(4) or RC 3735.29 by the city's later reselling of the property to the housing authority that the adviser serves.

OAG 83-024. A member of a metropolitan housing authority is prohibited by RC 2921.42(A)(4) and RC 3735.29 from serving on the board of trustees of a nonprofit corporation that contracts with the housing authority.

Ethics Op 91-009. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a former chief deputy administrator for a board of county commissioners, for one year after he leaves his public position, from occupying a position of profit in the prosecution of a public contract which he authorized and which was not let by competitive bidding to the lowest and best bidder.

Ethics Op 89-006. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits an official or employee of the Ohio department of mental health from providing teaching or training services to a college or university that receives a grant from the department where the official or employee would have a definite and direct interest in the grant as a result of his position with the college or university.

Ethics Op 89-006. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits an Ohio department of mental health official or employee from profiting from a grant authorized by him or by a board or commission of which he is a member where the grant is not awarded through competitive bidding and is not the lowest and best bid.

Ethics Op 85-013. RC 2921.42(A)(1) forbids a radio technician of the division of wildlife of the department of natural resources to knowingly use his office to secure approval of a contract with the department to provide radio repair services in his private capacity; similarly, RC 2921.42(A)(4) forbids him to knowingly have an interest in the profits of a contract to provide such services to the department.

Ethics Op 85-001. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a park manager employed by the department of natural resources from having an interest in a contract with the department to provide machine repair and maintenance services in his park and elsewhere in the state park system unless RC 2921.42(C) is satisfied.

Ethics Op 85-001. RC 2921.42(A)(5) and RC 102.04(B) prohibit a park manager employed by the department of natural resources from contracting with the department to provide machine repair and maintenance services in his park and elsewhere in the state park system except by competitive bidding.

5. Incompatible offices

OAG 84-097. Pursuant to RC 305.27, 2921.42, and principles of common law regarding conflicts of interest, neither an elected or appointed county officer nor a county employee may serve as a trustee of a nonprofit hospital corporation with which the county contracts for the provision of hospital services and the management and operation of hospital facilities owned by the county; when a county contracts for such services with a nonprofit hospital corporation whose membership is composed of the board of trustees of a parent corporation, RC 305.27, RC 2921.42 and common law principles regarding conflicts of interest prohibit a county officer or employee from serving as a trustee of such parent corporation.

Ethics Op 91-005. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a former county commissioner, for a period of one year after leaving office, from being employed for compensation by a joint solid waste management district if he served on the board of county commissioners when the board of commissioners entered into, and ratified, the agreement creating the solid waste management district.

Ethics Op 85-009. Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not, per se, prohibit an officer and part owner of a private company that sells fund raising services to building principals, parent groups, and school activity sponsors in school districts from serving as a member of a board of education, but RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits that individual, if elected, from authorizing, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his office to secure approval of a contract with a building principal or school activity group in his district, and RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits such a school board member from having an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract with a building principal or school activity group for the use of the schools in his district.

Ethics Op 85-008. Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not, per se, prohibit a systems manager for a firm operating a cable television franchise under an agreement with a city from being a candidate for city council, but would condition his conduct if elected.

Ethics Op 85-006. A realtor is not forbidden to serve on a city planning commission by RC 102.03(D).

Ethics Op 84-001. The Ohio ethics law and RC 2921.42 do not prohibit a city fire chief or other city official or employee from serving on the board of a nonprofit corporation created by the city and other jurisdictions to provide contract paramedic services, provided that he is serving in his official capacity as designated by city council, and that no other conflict of interest exists.

Ethics Op 83-010. RC 2921.42(A)(4) does not prohibit a city council member from serving on the board of a nonprofit research and community development corporation that contracts with the city, provided the council member serves on the board in his official capacity as directed by council.

Ethics Op 83-003. RC 2921.42 prohibits the chief financial officer of a state university from serving on the board of directors of a bank that is a university depository.

Ethics Op 82-006. RC 102.04(A) prohibits a physician who is a member of the state medical board from receiving direct or indirect compensation for services rendered as a consultant to the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and as a provider for the department of public welfare.

Ethics Op 82-004. RC 2921.42(A)(4) does not prohibit a city administrator or council member from serving on the board of a nonprofit corporation that receives funds through the city under a state litter control grant if he serves in his official capacity as required under the terms of the grant.

Ethics Op 82-002. An examiner employed by the state auditor is forbidden by RC 102.03 to seek employment with a city while he is auditing its accounts.

Ethics Op 82-002. RC 102.03(A) prohibits a former examiner of the state auditor's office from representing a city by which he is currently employed in front of the auditor's office on any matter in which he personally participated while employed by the state auditor.

Ethics Op 81-008. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city council member from serving on the board of a non-profit corporation that contracts to sell goods or services to the city.

Ethics Op 81-005. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a public official, including city officials and employees, from knowingly having an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract entered into by or for the use of the city with which he serves; and, therefore, a city official or employee may not serve as an officer or board member of an undesignated community improvement corporation established by the city.

Ethics Op 81-003. The Ohio ethics law and RC 2921.42 prohibit a board member of a private contract agency from serving on a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

6. Permitted transactions

a. In general

OAG 76-019. RC 2921.42 does not prohibit public school administrators and employees involved in driver training programs pursuant to RC 3301.17 from being employed by, involved in the operation of, or holding an interest in a commercial driver training facility.

Ethics Op 91-002. RC 2921.42(A)(4) and 102.03(E) do not prohibit a city council member from serving as an unpaid volunteer paramedic with the fire department of the city, provided he receives no definite and direct personal pecuniary benefit from such service.

Ethics Op 90-003. Ohio ethics law does not prohibit a member of a board of education who is the owner of a store from donating goods or services to the school district with which he serves provided that he receives no pecuniary gain from the donation and he does not use the donation to secure anything of value for himself or his business.

Ethics Op 88-008. The exemption of RC 2921.42(C)(2) for services furnished as part of a "continuing course of dealing" can be established where the contract existing prior to the time a city council member becomes associated with the city is automatically renewed after the council member's election or appointment, if provision for automatic renewal is a term of the existing contract and the contract is renewed without action of any office, department, or agency of the city; but if the existing contract is renewed by action of the city, modified, extended, or otherwise changed after the city council member's election or appointment, he cannot meet the "continuing course of dealing" exception even where the change is negotiated or executed by an agency of the city other than council.

Ethics Op 88-001. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a physician who is employed by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities from contracting with the department to provide on-call medical services, unless all of the criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 87-003 (4-9-87). The standard for the exception under RC 2921.42(C)(2) is that supplies or services be unavailable at a cost either lower than or the same as that set by the interested party; thus, an uninterested party bidding the same price must be preferred.

Ethics Op 85-011. Neither RC 102.03 nor RC 2921.42 prohibits the wife of a city law director from leasing space in a building constructed by a developer on land purchased from the city under a revolving loan program, provided that the law director does not use his official position to secure the lease for his spouse.

Ethics Op 85-011. Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not prohibit the spouse of a city law director from leasing retail space in a building constructed by a developer on land purchased from the city under a revolving loan program, provided that the law director does not use his official position to secure the lease for his spouse.

Ethics Op 85-002. A mayor's brother who is a partner and officer of a firm that contracts with a developer to find tenants for property renovated with a loan from the city does not have an interest in the loan sufficiently definite and direct to be an "interest" in a public contract for purposes of RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 85-002. A mayor's brother who contracts with a bank to negotiate a lease and option to buy concerning land on which a commercial office will be built with a city financing grant does not have an "interest" in the grant sufficiently definite and direct to come within RC 2921.42.

Ethics Op 84-003. The Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not prohibit a township from acquiring, either by direct purchase or eminent domain proceeding, real property owned by the wife of a township trustee, provided that the township trustee does not participate in discussions, deliberations, or votes, or otherwise use the authority or influence of his office, to secure approval of the acquisition or appropriation.

Ethics Op 83-009. The Ohio ethics law and RC 102.03, RC 102.04, and RC 2921.42 do not prohibit a county prosecutor from representing a joint ambulance district in his private capacity, provided that the representation is not before agencies of the county, and not on a matter in which he personally participated as a public official.

Ethics Op 83-006. RC 2921.42 does not prohibit a city employee from purchasing unclaimed items at a public police auction.

Ethics Op 79-009. The ethics law does not per se prohibit an employee of the division of parks and recreation from bidding on a concessions contract with the division provided that (1) he is not involved with the issuance of the contract, (2) he does not use his position to secure approval of the contract, and (3) the contract procedure is in accordance with RC 1501.091. An employee is not prohibited from resigning from the division and then contracting with the division.

Ethics Op 78-005. RC 2921.42(A)(1) does not prohibit a county commissioner from voting to approve the issuance of an industrial revenue bond to a company which is a client of an accounting firm in which her husband is a partner, if the husband's sole interest is a distributive share of the fees earned by his firm for accounting services rendered to the company seeking the bond.

b. Arm's length contract exception

OAG 84-006. The exemption of RC 2921.42(C) does not apply to RC 511.13.

OAG 84-006. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a township trustee from having an interest in a contract between the township and his private business firm to provide equipment and services to the township, unless all the requirements of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 85-007. A county treasurer is not, per se, prohibited from serving on the board of directors of a bank that is a depository of county funds, because RC 135.11 and RC 135.38 provide an exemption from the prohibition of RC 2921.42(A)(4).

Ethics Op 84-011. The criteria for the exemption of RC 2921.42(C) are strictly applied; the requirement of RC 2921.42(C)(2) that the services that are the subject of the contract be "unobtainable elsewhere for the same or lower cost" must be demonstrated by some objective standard, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case.

Ethics Op 84-006. The exemption of RC 2921.42(C) does not apply to RC 511.13.

Ethics Op 84-006. RC 2921.42(A)(4) forbids a township trustee to have an interest in a contract between the township and his private business for the supply of equipment and services to the township unless the requirements of RC 2921.42(C) are satisfied.

Ethics Op 83-004. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a city police officer from contracting to sell trophies and awards to the city department of recreation and parks unless all the requirements of RC 2921.42(C) are met; these requirements are strictly applied; the requirement of RC 2921.42(C)(2) that the goods be "unobtainable elsewhere for the same or lower cost" must be demonstrated by some objective standard, and although competitive bidding helps to demonstrate compliance with the requirement, it is not determinative.

Ethics Op 82-007. The Ohio ethics law and related statutes do not prohibit a partner in a public accounting firm, that has a professional services contract with a regional sewer district, from accepting an appointment to the board of trustees of the sewer district, provided that all elements of RC 2921.42(C) are met.

Ethics Op 82-007. The exemption of RC 2921.42(C)(2), for services being furnished as part of a "continuing course of dealing," applies only to services provided during the term of an existing contract between a public accounting firm and a regional sewer district.

2921.43 Soliciting or receiving improper compensation

(A) No public servant shall knowingly solicit or accept and no person shall knowingly promise or give to a public servant either of the following:

(1) Any compensation, other than as allowed by divisions (G), (H), and (I) of section 102.03 of the Revised Code or other provisions of law, to perform his official duties, to perform any other act or service in the public servant's public capacity, for the general performance of the duties of the public servant's public office or public employment, or as a supplement to the public servant's public compensation;

(2) Additional or greater fees or costs than are allowed by law to perform his official duties.

(B) No public servant for his own personal or business use and no person for his own personal or business use or for the personal or business use of a public servant or party official, shall solicit or accept anything of value in consideration of either of the following:

(1) Appointing or securing, maintaining, or renewing the appointment of any person to any public office, employment, or agency;

(2) Preferring, or maintaining the status of, any public employee with respect to his compensation, duties, placement, location, promotion, or other material aspects of his employment.

(C) No person for the benefit of a political party, campaign committee, or political action committee shall coerce any contribution in consideration of either of the following:

(1) Appointing or securing, maintaining, or renewing the appointment of any person to any public office, employment, or agency;

(2) Preferring, or maintaining the status of, any public employee with respect to his compensation, duties, placement, location, promotion, or other material aspects of his employment.

(D) Whoever violates this section is guilty of soliciting improper compensation, a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(E) A public servant who is convicted of a violation of this section is disqualified from holding any public office, employment, or position of trust in this state for a period of seven years from the date of conviction.

(F) Divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section do not prohibit any person from making voluntary contributions to a political party, campaign committee, or political action committee or prohibit a political party, campaign committee, or political action committee from accepting voluntary contributions.

COMMENTARY

Legislative Service Commission

1973: This section consolidates two former prohibitions against public servants soliciting or receiving excessive fees or extra compensation to perform their duties, or receiving any reward or kickback in consideration of appointing a public employee to his job. Under the former law, the kickback or "flower fund" provision applied only to county officers, whereas under this section it applies to all public servants. A former provision disqualifying offenders from office for a specified period is retained.

OAG 91-014. Members of the emergency response commission who have been appointed under RC 3750.02 and members of a local emergency planning committee who have been appointed pursuant to RC 3750.03 are entitled to immunity from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, and actions for removal from office or employment for violations of RC Ch 102, 2921.42, or 2921.43 in the circumstances prescribed by RC 102.08.

OAG 87-019. A violation of RC 2921.43(C) by an executive director of a metropolitan housing authority constitutes misconduct in office for the purposes of RC 2901.13(C).

OAG 84-019. An employee of a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities may not receive a fee for performing his official duties from a private nonprofit corporation which has contracted with the board.

OAG 81-013. Money received by a deputy sheriff employed and paid by a private industry as part of an undercover operation to collect evidence for a criminal prosecution must be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the general county fund.

OAG 65-150. RC 733.78 and 2919.10 apply only to the public officers specified therein, and preclude any of such officers from receiving any fixed compensation from the municipal corporation or township other than the maximum specifically allocated by law as compensation for such office; however, such statutes do not preclude any of the specified public officers from holding other positions in public service without additional compensation. (Annotation from former RC 733.78.)

Bd of Commrs on Grievances & Discipline Op 91-011 (4-12-91). The Code of Judicial Conduct, the Ohio Ethics Law RC Ch 102, and related statutes (RC 2921.42 and 2921.43) prohibit a municipal judge from serving as a member or officer of the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation providing services to the municipal court by contract with the city.

Ethics Op 91-010. RC 2921.42(A)(4) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a state officer or employee from accepting or using, for personal travel, a discounted or free "frequent flyer" airline ticket or other benefit from an airline if she has obtained the ticket or other benefit from the purchase of airline tickets, for use in official travel, by the department, division, agency, institution, or other entity with which she is connected.

Ethics Op 90-007. RC 102.03(E) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a county prosecutor from receiving a distributive share of client fees received by his law partner for representing township trustees the prosecutor is statutorily required to represent.

Ethics Op 90-001. RC 102.03(F) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a vendor who is doing or seeking to do business with an office, department, or agency of a political subdivision from promising or giving travel, meal, and lodging expenses incurred in inspecting and observing the vendor's product to the officials and employees of the office, department, or agency, even though the expenses are limited to those which are essential to the conduct of official business and are incurred in connection with the official's or employee's duty to inspect and observe the vendor's products in operation at existing facilities.

Ethics Op 90-001. RC 102.03(F) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a vendor who is doing or seeking to do business with an office, department, or agency of a political subdivision from promising or giving travel, meal, and lodging expenses to the officials and employees of the office, department, or agency, even if the vendor's products and services are sold to the political subdivision pursuant to competitive bidding and the vendor has submitted the lowest and best bid.

Ethics Op 89-014. RC 102.03(D), 102.03(E) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a county official or employee from accepting, soliciting, or using his position to secure travel, meal, and lodging expenses from a company that is doing or seeking to do business with his county department, even though the expenses are incurred in connection with the official's or employee's duty to inspect and observe the company's products in operation at facilities located within and outside the county.

Ethics Op 89-014. RC 102.03(D), 102.03(E) and 2921.43(A) prohibit a county official or employee from accepting, soliciting, or using his position to secure travel, meal, and lodging expenses from a company doing or seeking to do business with his county, even if the county and the company enter into a written agreement which states that the county is under no obligation to purchase the company's products and services if county officials or employees accept payment of expenses from the company.

Ethics Op 89-012. A city law director is required by RC 3313.35 to provide legal services to a city school district as part of his official duties, and is accordingly prohibited by RC 2921.43(A) from accepting or soliciting additional compensation from the school district for legal services provided.

Ethics Op 89-012. A city law director is not required by any provision of law to provide legal services to a port authority created by the city he serves and therefore he is not prohibited by RC 2921.43(A) from accepting or soliciting compensation from the port authority for legal services provided; RC 102.03(E) and 2921.42(A)(4), however, prohibit a city law director from accepting or soliciting compensation for providing legal services to a port authority created by the city with which he serves.

2921.431 Soliciting political contributions from public employees

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Campaign committee" and "political party" have the same meaning as in section 3517.01 of the Revised Code;

(2) "Contribution" means a loan, gift, deposit, forgiveness of indebtedness, donation, advance, payment, transfer of funds, or the transfer of anything of value, regardless of the purpose for which the transfer is made.

(B) No county auditor, county treasurer, clerk of the court of common pleas, sheriff, county recorder, county engineer, county commissioner, prosecuting attorney, coroner, or other person at the direction or request of a county officer shall solicit any contribution from any public servant who functions or is employed in or by the same department, division, office, or other governmental unit as the county officer, except that a county officer or other person at the direction or request of a county officer for the benefit of a political party or campaign committee may solicit a contribution, not more than twice in any calendar year, from any public servant who functions or is employed in or by the same department, division, office, or other governmental unit as the county officer, and the political party or campaign committee shall report any such contribution in the same manner as a contribution made to influence the results of an election.

(C) Division (B) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit a county auditor, county treasurer, clerk of the court of common pleas, sheriff, county recorder, county engineer, county commissioner, prosecuting attorney, coroner, or other person at the direction or request of a county officer from soliciting a written authorization under section 3599.031 of the Revised Code from a public servant who is employed in or by the same department, division, office, or other governmental unit as the county officer, except that such a solicitation shall not be made more than twice in any calendar year.

(D) Whoever violates division (B) of this section is guilty of soliciting improper contributions, a misdemeanor of the first degree.

OJur 3d: 29, Criminal Law § 2365

CONVICTED FELONS

2951.09 Procedure against defendant; rights of citizenship restored; journal entry

When a defendant on probation is brought before the judge or magistrate under section 2951.08 of the Revised Code, the judge or magistrate immediately shall inquire into the conduct of the defendant, and may terminate the probation and impose any sentence that originally could have been imposed or continue the probation and remand the defendant to the custody of the probation authority, at any time during the probationary period. When the ends of justice will be served and the good conduct of the person so held warrants it, the judge or magistrate may terminate the period of probation. At the end or termination of the period of probation, the jurisdiction of the judge or magistrate to impose sentence ceases and the defendant shall be discharged. If the defendant was convicted of or pleaded guilty to a felony, the judge of the court of common pleas may restore his rights of citizenship, of which he may or shall have been deprived by reason of his conviction under section 2961.01 of the Revised Code, and, if the court restores his citizenship, an entry to that effect shall be made on the journal of the court in the action in which the conviction or plea of guilty was entered.

A probation officer shall receive necessary expenses in the performance of his duties.

1. Constitutional issues

6 OS(3d) 244, 6 OBR 312, 452 NE(2d) 1292 (1983), State v McMullen. A judge may, pursuant to RC 2951.09, impose a longer sentence after revocation of a defendant's probation without violating the defendant's constitutional right against double jeopardy.

42 OS(2d) 102, 326 NE(2d) 259 (1975), State v Miller. Where at a probation revocation hearing the trial court permits a probation officer who did not prepare the entries in the probation department record to testify as to the contents of that record and the probation officer who prepared the entries does not appear, there is a denial of the probationer's right to confront the witnesses against him, and, where the record does not show that the probation officer who prepared the entries was unavailable or that a specific finding was made of good cause for not allowing confrontation, there is a denial of the minimum requirements of due process of law required for probation revocation proceedings.

70 App(3d) 147 (Huron 1990), State v Alderman. Admission of a probation officer's unsubstantiated hearsay testimony about a probationer's prior convictions in another county during a probation revocation hearing without a ruling by the court showing good cause for the admission of the hearsay violates the probationer's due process rights.

63 App(3d) 721, 580 NE(2d) 34 (Summit 1989), State v Hutchison. Where the judge in a probation violation hearing was the trial judge on the initial charges against the defendant, he is well aware of the defendant's mental condition and additionally, he is presented with numerous records which illustrate the defendant's mental illness so that it is not an abuse of discretion or a denial of due process for the judge to deny the defendant's request for a continuance of the probation violation hearing in order to permit the defendant to obtain the presence of the evaluation psychologist, his treating psychologist and social worker.

62 App(3d) 848, 577 NE(2d) 710 (Hamilton 1989), State v Henderson. Due process does not require that a written statement of the evidence finding probable cause to revoke probation be issued.

56 App(3d) 105, 564 NE(2d) 1070 (Cuyahoga 1988), State v Armstrong. A probationer's right to notice and the opportunity to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at a hearing before a neutral arbiter can be waived.

7 App(3d) 81, 7 OBR 94, 454 NE(2d) 554 (Franklin 1982), State v Woods. A person who claims that because of indigency he cannot make the restitution payments required as a condition of his probation, must demonstrate that he has made a good faith effort within the limits of his ability to comply with the terms of the probation, and it is not a denial of equal protection to revoke the probation of a person who fails to meet this burden.

No. CA86-09-139 (12th Dist Ct App, Butler, 3-2-87), State v Blankenship. Defendant has no right to a trial by jury on issue of revocation of his probation; under RC 2951.09, such determination is exclusively in the province of the trial court.

No. 8256 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 10-19-83), State v Burkholder. The exclusionary rule governing illegally seized evidence applies to a convicted felon in a revocation of probation proceeding.

461 US 660, 103 SCt 2064, 76 LEd(2d) 221 (1983), Bearden v Georgia. An automatic revocation of probation solely because of probationer's failure to meet probation condition that he pay fine or make restitution, absent findings that probationer willfully refused to make bona fide efforts to pay or that alternative forms of punishment, other than imprisonment, are inadequate to meet state's interests in punishment and deterrence, violates US Const Am 14. (Ed. note: Georgia law construed in light of federal constitution.)

2. In general

23 Clev St L Rev 151 (Winter 1974). The Right to Counsel and Due Process in Probation Revocation Proceedings: Gagnon v. Scarpelli, Note.

167 OS 119, 146 NE(2d) 865 (1957), State v Theisen. The inquiry contemplated by RC 2951.09 may be summary and informal so long as it is an inquiry so fitted in its range to the needs of the occasion as to justify the conclusion that the trial court has not abused its discretion in failing to carry the probe deeper, and a court in making such inquiry is not bound by the usual rules of evidence prescribed for a criminal trial, and its consideration of evidence tending to show a violation of the terms of probation is subject only to the exercise of sound judicial discretion.

56 App(3d) 141, 565 NE(2d) 848 (Stark 1988), State v Jackson. The subject matter jurisdiction of a sentencing court terminates at the end of the probation period; at that point, the trial court loses its legal power to act, regardless of the fact that the alleged probation violation occurred during the period of probation and could have resulted, if timely prosecuted, in a revocation and imposition of sentence.

10 App(3d) 312, 10 OBR 517, 462 NE(2d) 441 (Warren 1983), State v McKnight. In cases of probation violation, it is within the trial court's sound discretion to decide whether to appoint counsel for the defendant and whether to revoke the defendant's probation due to the violation.

10 App(3d) 172, 10 OBR 242, 461 NE(2d) 1 (Marion 1982), State ex rel Freeman v Rehabilitation & Correction Dept. The provisions of RC 2929.51(A), RC 2951.02(A), and Crim R 32 provide that probation follows sentencing and the suspension of its execution, instead of sentencing following revocation of probation; by adopting these statutes and rule, the authority of a trial court, pursuant to RC 2951.09, to "impose any sentence which might originally have been imposed" following revocation of probation, was repealed by implication.

42 App(2d) 35, 327 NE(2d) 791 (1974), State v Mingua. A revocation of the probation status of an accused may only be accomplished after two separate hearings are conducted: the first to determine if probable cause exists to force a probationer to answer formal charges against him; and the second, if such cause exists, to examine the total evidence presented.

29 App(2d) 241, 281 NE(2d) 17 (1972), State v Smith. RC 2951.09 contemplates a judicial inquiry into the conduct of a defendant when the revocation of his probation is in issue.

14 App(2d) 59, 237 NE(2d) 147 (1968), State v Poffenbaugh. Under RC 2947.061 a defendant, who has filed a motion to suspend further execution of sentence and requesting probation, is not entitled to a hearing on the motion, as there is no clear statutory expression in that section conferring upon the defendant the right to such a hearing.

3. Probation period

43 App(3d) 124, 539 NE(2d) 634 (Lucas 1987), State v O'Leary. Where no action is taken to institute a probation violation hearing during the original probation period, a sentencing court loses jurisdiction to impose the suspended sentence once the original probation period expires.

35 App(3d) 107, 519 NE(2d) 860 (Cuyahoga 1987), Lakewood v Davies. A trial court lacks jurisdiction to execute a defendant's original sentence after the term of defendant's probation has expired.

7 App(3d) 262, 7 OBR 342, 454 NE(2d) 1356 (Hamilton 1982), State v Wallace. Where a complaint is signed and an official warrant is issued for the arrest of the defendant to answer a probation violation within defendant's one year probationary period, but defendant is not arrested until after the probationary period has passed, trial court erred in dismissing the complaint for want of jurisdiction.

12 Misc 164, 230 NE(2d) 694 (CP, Madison 1967), Miller v Haskins. A court has no authority to impose sentence on an alleged probation violator after the term of the probation has expired where there is no showing that the probation period was suspended.

461 US 660, 103 SCt 2064, 76 LEd(2d) 221 (1983), Bearden v Georgia. An automatic revocation of probation solely because of probationer's failure to meet probation condition that he pay fine or make restitution, absent findings that probationer willfully refused to make bona fide efforts to pay or that alternative forms of punishment, other than imprisonment, are inadequate to meet state's interests in punishment and deterrence, violates US Const Am 14. (Ed. note: Georgia law construed in light of federal constitution.)

4. Revocation of probation

60 OS(3d) 81, 573 NE(2d) 602 (1991), State v Draper. The authority conferred upon a trial court by RC 2951.09 to revoke the probation of an offender and impose a greater sentence of incarceration is limited to probation granted pursuant to RC 2929.51(A) and 2951.02.

60 OS(3d) 81, 573 NE(2d) 602 (1991), State v Draper. While RC 2951.09 authorizes a trial court to revoke shock probation granted an offender pursuant to RC 2929.51(B) and 2947.061 for violation of the terms thereof, the court may not impose a term of incarceration in excess of the original sentence.

58 OS(3d) 78, 567 NE(2d) 1306 (1991), State v Yates. The expiring of a probation period ends the jurisdiction of the trial court to impose a suspended sentence for violation of probation conditions.

68 App(3d) 184 (Franklin 1990), Columbus v Hayes. The revocation of a motorist's probation and the reimposition of 174 days of suspended jail time is improper where it is based solely on the motorist's subsequent conviction for failing to stop at a stop sign.

66 App(3d) 52, 583 NE(2d) 414 (Stark 1990), State v Bell. Due process does not require a court to consider the defense of insanity in parole revocation proceedings; therefore, a trial court does not err when it revokes a defendant's probation for an assault committed while she was allegedly insane; the welfare and safety of society outweigh the interest of the probationer who has violated a condition of probation while sane or insane.

66 App(3d) 52, 583 NE(2d) 414 (Stark 1990), State v Bell. The denial of a competency hearing prior to a trial court conducting probation revocation proceedings does not constitute an abuse of discretion where although a doctor's report concluded that the defendant was incompetent to stand trial, it did not state that the defendant was incompetent to proceed in the probation revocation hearing, and indicated that the defendant understood that she was charged with a probation violation and that she could be returned to a hospital or reformatory.

66 App(3d) 52, 583 NE(2d) 414 (Stark 1990), State v Bell. The revocation of a defendant's probation does not constitute cruel and unusual punishment despite the defendant's contention that she committed her probation violation while insane since a court in refusing to recognize the insanity defense in a revocation proceeding is not imposing criminal punishment on the defendant for her present excusable conduct, but rather the criminal punishment results from the past conduct which was not excused by insanity and for which the defendant has been duly convicted; additionally, the evidence indicates that the defendant was not incompetent to assist her counsel in the probation revocation proceeding.

63 App(3d) 721, 580 NE(2d) 34 (Summit 1989), State v Hutchison. In a probation revocation hearing, a trial court does not err in rejecting a defendant's plea of not guilty by reason of insanity since a revocation decision involves two analytically distinct components: (1) whether the parolee has in fact acted in violation of one or more conditions of his probation, and (2) whether the probationer should be committed to prison or whether other steps should be taken to protect society and improve the chances of rehabilitation, and the defense of insanity is irrelevant to the first component because the concern is whether the law was obeyed, not whether it was culpably broken, and under the second component, although fundamental fairness requires the court to consider evidence of the defendant's mental state, the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether alternatives to incarceration which have been made available to the defendant should remain open to him, not to determine whether the defendant should be held responsible for the acts with which he is charged; the court considered the defendant's mental state when determining what disposition should be made after it was established that the defendant violated his conditions of parole since although the defendant was sentenced to a state institution, the trial court ordered him to receive treatment at a forensic center.

63 App(3d) 721, 580 NE(2d) 34 (Summit 1989), State v Hutchison. The purpose of the revocation process is to protect the public either by further attempted rehabilitation, or by revocation.

63 App(3d) 721, 580 NE(2d) 34 (Summit 1989), State v Hutchison. In a probation violation hearing, a trial court does not abuse its discretion in denying an examination to determine if the defendant was insane at the time of the violation of his condition of probation since the defendant may not present a defense of not guilty by reason of insanity in a probation violation hearing and there was sufficient medical evidence before the court for it to consider the defendant's mental condition.

63 App(3d) 721, 580 NE(2d) 34 (Summit 1989), State v Hutchison. A trial court does not abuse its discretion in finding that a defendant knowingly violated the conditions of his probation where the evidence shows that the defendant left the state and failed to continue with a treatment program that was designed to help him with his mental problems.

62 App(3d) 848, 577 NE(2d) 710 (Hamilton 1989), State v Henderson. Due process does not require that a written statement of the evidence finding probable cause to revoke probation be issued.

62 App(3d) 848, 577 NE(2d) 710 (Hamilton 1989), State v Henderson. A probationer who states to a probation officer that he does not need to work due to income received from a pension and drug sales, who crumples and discards his copy of probation conditions, and who exhibits a surly attitude to the probation officer is properly subject to probation revocation.

57 App(3d) 36, 565 NE(2d) 1286 (Cuyahoga 1989), State v Conti. RC 2929.41(B)(3) does not dictate when probation must be revoked, but merely provides that, in the event of revocation, the sentence for the new offense must run consecutively to any previous sentence ordered into execution; the revocation of probation and imposition of a previous sentence is discretionary with the trial judge.

56 App(3d) 141, 565 NE(2d) 848 (Stark 1988), State v Jackson. The subject matter jurisdiction of a sentencing court terminates at the end of the probation period; at that point, the trial court loses its legal power to act, regardless of the fact that the alleged probation violation occurred during the period of probation and could have resulted, if timely prosecuted, in a revocation and imposition of sentence.

50 App(3d) 56, 552 NE(2d) 957 (Franklin 1988), State v Qualls. The concern of a parole authority is whether a law has been broken, not whether it has been culpably broken; thus, a court considering whether to revoke parole need only consider whether an act was committed and, with fundamental fairness, revoke parole for acts committed while the parolee is insane.

48 App(3d) 106, 548 NE(2d) 319 (Trumbull 1988), In re McClung. A probationer discharged under a valid court order who has served the time called for by the order cannot be imprisoned again for the same offense although he remains under the court's jurisdiction for purposes of probation; a bench warrant stating the probationer was released in error and calling for him to serve the balance of the original sentence seeks to imprison him for the conviction even though he had been discharged under the earlier release motion and is accordingly invalid, not because it violates the right to not be placed in double jeopardy but because the court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter; because the individual is restrained under a void judgment a writ of habeas corpus is appropriate.

48 App(3d) 99, 548 NE(2d) 312 (Washington 1988), State v Collier. Revoking of a felon's probation following convictions of drunk driving and resisting arrest is not unconstitutional punishment of the status of being an alcoholic but instead permissible punishment of conduct.

48 App(3d) 72, 548 NE(2d) 246 (Franklin 1988), Dragon v State. A civil action under RC 2743.48 for an award to compensate for wrongful imprisonment is not available where the cause of imprisonment was an incorrect revoking of probation.

43 App(3d) 184, 540 NE(2d) 300 (Cuyahoga 1988), State v Williams. A defendant must be given written notice of an alleged probation violation and a preliminary hearing must be held prior to the revocation of a defendant's probation.

39 App(3d) 112, 529 NE(2d) 951 (Clark 1987), State v Carreker. Reasonable diligence in the disposition of probation revocation proceedings should be exercised under principals of fundamental fairness since there is no applicable statute or rule establishing a definite time for holding a probation revocation hearing; reasonableness in such matters must be dictated by the particular circumstances in each case.

39 App(3d) 112, 529 NE(2d) 951 (Clark 1987), State v Carreker. A probation revocation hearing held seventeen months after the probation violation occurs is not prejudicial to a defendant who is already incarcerated as a result of a conviction for the offense which constitutes the probation violation, and where the hearing takes place well within the probationary period originally imposed.

35 App(3d) 159, 520 NE(2d) 264 (Sandusky 1987), State v Murr. Absent evidence of undue bias, hostility, or non-neutrality on the part of the judge in making his determination, the trial court which placed a defendant on probation will be considered a "neutral and detached" hearing body for purposes of ordering defendant's probation revoked.

10 App(3d) 172, 10 OBR 242, 461 NE(2d) 1 (Marion 1982), State ex rel Freeman v Dept of Rehabilitation & Correction. Where a trial court has revoked probation, it is not authorized to reduce a previously imposed sentence for the crimes involved in the revocation of probation.

42 App(2d) 35, 327 NE(2d) 791 (1974), State v Mingua. Although the quantum of evidence required to support a probation revocation need not be "beyond a reasonable doubt," it must be "substantial," and such evidence must meet the test of competency.

No. CA90-03-022 (12th Dist Ct App, Clermont, 11-26-90), State v Sharp. A trial court errs in increasing a defendant's sentence following the revocation of shock probation, where the defendant has already served a portion of the initial sentence prior to the grant of shock probation.

No. CA86-09-139 (12th Dist Ct App, Butler, 3-2-87), State v Blankenship. Defendant has no right to a hearing to determine his competency to stand trial under RC 2945.371 prior to a hearing on revocation of his probation.

No. CA86-09-139 (12th Dist Ct App, Butler, 3-2-87), State v Blankenship. Defendant has no right to a trial by jury on issue of revocation of his probation; under RC 2951.09, such determination is exclusively in the province of the trial court.

57 Misc(2d) 1, 565 NE(2d) 894 (Muni, Bowling Green 1989), Portage v Pennington. A referee in a municipal court who is an attorney at law admitted to practice in this state may hear misdemeanor criminal cases referred to him by the judge for report and recommendation; this authority includes the power to dispose of probation violation charges where the probationer waives his rights and admits the violation, and the referee reports his findings and recommendations, including the imposition of any jail sentence.

2961.01 Civil rights of convicted felons

A person convicted of a felony under the laws of this or any other state or the United States, unless his conviction is reversed or annulled, is incompetent to be an elector or juror, or to hold an office of honor, trust, or profit. When any such person is granted probation, parole, or a conditional pardon, he is competent to be an elector during the period of probation or parole or until the conditions of his pardon have been performed or have transpired, and thereafter following his final discharge. The full pardon of a convict restores the rights and privileges so forfeited under this section, but a pardon shall not release a convict from the costs of his conviction in this state, unless so specified.

COMMENTARY

Legislative Service Commission

1973: This section permits a person convicted of felony to vote from and after the time he is granted probation, parole, or a conditional pardon. Under former law, a convicted felon was disabled from voting, sitting as a juror, or holding an office of honor, trust, or profit. The disabilities as to jury service and holding office are continued under this section, regardless of whether the convicted felon is placed on probation, paroled, or granted a conditional pardon. These disabilities may be removed, however, pursuant to section 2951.09 of the Revised Code, although it is not clear under that section whether relief from disability can be granted only to a person placed on probation as opposed to persons granted parole or a conditional pardon.

62 App(3d) 848, 577 NE(2d) 710 (Hamilton 1989), State v Henderson. A probationer's right to free speech is not violated by a condition of probation requiring him to conduct himself "appropriately at all times and answer all questions by probation department personnel truthfully" to the best of his ability.

62 App(3d) 417, 575 NE(2d) 1186 (Franklin 1989), Hughes v Brown. There is no requirement for a hearing pursuant to RC 3.07 prior to forfeiture of a public office where the officeholder has been convicted of a felony; the appeal of a felony conviction does not operate to negate the conviction.

3 App(3d) 40, 3 OBR 43, 443 NE(2d) 1034 (Cuyahoga 1982), State ex rel Corrigan v Barnes. RC 2961.01 does not conflict with the home rule provisions of the Ohio Constitution because such statute does not solely establish the qualifications for the office of city councilman and involves a statewide concern, i.e. the punishment of felony offenders.

3 App(3d) 40, 3 OBR 43, 443 NE(2d) 1034 (Cuyahoga 1982), State ex rel Corrigan v Barnes. An amendment to RC 2961.01 by 1972 H 511, eff. 1-1-74, which makes the statute applicable to persons convicted of felonies under federal law, may not constitutionally be applied with respect to acts committed prior to January 1, 1974.

91 Abs 1, 188 NE(2d) 91 (CP, Tuscarawas 1963), Firestone v Freiling. Where prospective jurors on voir dire examination by the court in a personal injury case remained silent when asked whether any of them had been convicted of a felony, and it is disclosed, or could have been disclosed by the exercise of due diligence during the trial, that one of the jurors had been convicted of a felony, such silence does not constitute cause for a new trial unless it is shown that such juror was partial, biased or prejudiced so as to affect the substantial rights of a party.

A state constitutional provision disenfranchising individuals convicted of misdemeanors involving moral turpitude which are committed by more blacks than whites violates US Const Am 14 only where it is proved that racial reasons were a substantial factor behind its enactment and where the state does not show that the provision would have been enacted if not for this consideration.

899 F(2d) 543 (6th Cir Ohio 1990), United States v Cassidy. No express restriction on firearms privileges need be contained in a statute or certificate restoring civil rights, for purposes of determining whether an individual is a "convicted felon" prohibited from owning firearms.

745 F(2d) 1040 (6th Cir Ohio 1984), Darks v Cincinnati. A municipal code provision limiting eligibility for dance hall licenses to "reputable person[s] of good moral character", when uniformly applied to deny such licenses to individuals with felony records, creates not an irrebuttable presumption but a valid substantive rule of law which may protect the community from illegal activities and a disreputable clientele.

1962 OAG 3242. A person who is convicted of a felony is incompetent to be an elector or juror, or to hold an office of honor, trust, or profit, but does not lose his citizen rights generally, and does not lose his citizenship within the purview of RC 5907.04, which requires that to be admitted to the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, the applicant must have been a citizen of Ohio five consecutive years or more at the date of making application for admission.

2967.16 Final release of paroled prisoners

When a paroled prisoner has faithfully performed the conditions and obligations of his parole and has obeyed the rules and regulations adopted by the adult parole authority that apply to him, the authority upon the recommendation of the superintendent of parole supervision may enter upon its minutes a final release and thereupon shall issue to the paroled prisoner a certificate of final release, but no such release shall be granted earlier than one year after the prisoner is released from the institution on parole unless his maximum sentence has expired prior thereto, and in the case of a prisoner whose minimum sentence is life imprisonment, no such release shall be granted earlier than five years after the prisoner is released from the institution on parole.

A prisoner who has served the maximum term of his sentence or who has been granted his final release by the adult parole authority shall be restored to the rights and privileges forfeited by his conviction.

EDUCATION

3301.06 Vacancies

A vacancy in the state board of education may be caused by death, nonresidence, resignation, removal from office, failure of a person elected to qualify within ten days after the organization of the board or of his election, removal from the district of election, or absence from any two consecutive regular meetings of the board if such absence is caused by reasons declared insufficient by a vote of seven members of the board. When such vacancy occurs, the governor shall, within a period of thirty days and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint a qualified person residing in the district in which the vacancy occurred to fill such vacancy until the next general election at which members of the state board of education are elected, at which time a qualified elector residing in the district in which the vacancy occurred shall be elected for the unexpired term. Such member shall assume office at the next succeeding meeting of the board.

3301.16 Classifying and chartering schools; definitions

Pursuant to standards prescribed by the state board of education as provided in division (D) of section 3301.07 of the Revised Code, such board shall classify and charter school districts and individual schools within each district. Such board shall revoke the charter of any school district or school which fails to meet the standards for elementary and high schools as prescribed by the board. In the issuance and revocation of school district or school charters, the state board of education shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. In case a school district charter is revoked pursuant to this section, the state board of education may dissolve the school district and transfer its territory to one or more adjacent districts. An equitable division of the funds, property, and indebtedness of the school district shall be made by the state board of education among the receiving districts. The board of education of a receiving district shall accept such territory pursuant to the order of the state board of education. Prior to dissolving the school district, the state board of education shall notify the appropriate county board of education and all adjacent school district boards of education of its intention to do so. Boards so notified may make recommendations to the state board of education regarding the proposed dissolution and subsequent transfer of territory. Except as provided in section 3301.161 of the Revised Code, the transfer ordered by the state board of education shall become effective on the date specified by the state board, but the date shall be at least thirty days following the date of issuance of the order.

A high school is one of higher grade than an elementary school, in which instruction and training are given in accordance with sections 3301.07 and 3313.60 of the Revised Code and which also offers other subjects of study more advanced than those taught in the elementary schools and such other subjects as may be approved by the state board of education.

An elementary school is one in which instruction and training are given in accordance with sections 3301.07 and 3313.60 of the Revised Code and which offers such other subjects as may be approved by the state board of education. In districts wherein a junior high school is maintained, the elementary schools in that district may be considered to include only the work of the first six school years inclusive, plus the kindergarten year.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. Constitutional issues
2. In general

1. Constitutional issues

116 App 515, 189 NE(2d) 81 (1962), Aberdeen-Huntington Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. The provisions of RC Ch 3301 giving certain powers to the state board of education, pursuant to which minimum standards are established for elementary and secondary schools, are constitutional.

2. In general

64 OS(2d) 98, 413 NE(2d) 1184 (1980), Stromberg v Bratenahl Bd of Ed. After is has been determined through extensive litigation that a local school district failed to meet the standards established by statute and was regularly dissolved, that determination is res judicata as to every question which might properly have been litigated; therefore, a taxpayer has no private right to relitigate the same public issues determined in the prior litigation.

53 OS(2d) 173, 373 NE(2d) 1238 (1978), State ex rel Bratenahl Local School Dist Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. The refusal of the state board of education to grant a local school district an additional exception to the requirements of RC 3311.29 does not constitute an "adjudication" within the meaning of RC 119.01.

47 OS(2d) 181, 351 NE(2d) 750 (1976), State v Whisner. Where the "minimum standards" promulgated by the state board of education are so comprehensive in scope and effect as to eradicate the distinction between public and non-public education, application of these "minimum standards" to defendants, parents of children attending a non-public religious school, abrogates their fundamental freedom, protected by the Liberty Clause of US Const Am 14, to direct the upbringing and education, secular or religious, of their children.

7 App(3d) 163, 7 OBR 208, 454 NE(2d) 957 (Paulding 1982), Ferris v Paulding Exempted Village School Dist Bd of Ed. There is no restriction or limitation upon the authority of a board of education of an exempted village school district to terminate an entire grade at one chartered school within the system and transfer the grade or assign all the pupils from the grade to another chartered school within the system that meets the minimum standards for schools within that system.

7 App(3d) 163, 7 OBR 208, 454 NE(2d) 957 (Paulding 1982), Ferris v Paulding Exempted Village School Dist Bd of Ed. There is no specific statutory requirement that a school is required to have a charter to operate, that if it did not have one it could not operate, or that if it had one it would have to operate all grades included in its charter.

65 App(2d) 90, 416 NE(2d) 642 (1979), Akron v Lane. The term "school," in the context of RC 3321.03 and 3321.04, refers to a school chartered by the state pursuant to RC 3301.16, and the term "special education program," in the context of RC 3321.03 and 3321.04, refers to a special education program operated pursuant to state board of education standards and authorization.

443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979), Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman. Where it was held in an earlier case that a board of education was intentionally operating a dual school system in 1954, and was thereafter under a continuing duty to eradicate the efforts of that system, the board's failure to fulfill its affirmative duty to eliminate the continuing systemwide effects of its prior discrimination can be traced back to the purposefully dual system of the 1950's in holding the board responsible for the current systemwide segregation, and in justifying a systemwide remedy.

433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977), Milliken v Bradley. As part of a desegregation decree, a court can order compensatory or remedial education programs for school children who have been subjected to past acts of de jure discrimination, and the court does not abuse its discretion by including in its order specific programs such as in-service training for teachers and administrators, counseling, and a comprehensive reading program, which were proposed by local school authorities.

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Before the boundaries of separate and autonomous school districts may be set aside by consolidating the separate units for remedial purposes or by imposing a cross-district remedy, it must be first shown that there has been a constitutional violation within one district that produces a significant segregative effect in another district. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Desegregation, in the sense of dismantling a dual school system, does not require any particular racial balance. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. A federal court may not impose a multi-district, areawide remedy for single-district de jure school segregation violations, where there is no finding that the other included school districts have failed to operate unitary school systems or have committed acts that effected segregation within the other districts, and there is no claim or finding that the school district boundary lines were established with the purpose of fostering racial segregation. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 97 SCt 2749, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 28 LEd(2d) 554 (1971), Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed. Today's objective is to eliminate from the public schools all vestiges of state-imposed segregation that were held violative of equal protection guarantees by Brown v Board of Education, 347 US 483, 74 SCt 686, 98 LEd 873 (1954). (Ed. note: North Carolina law construed in light of federal constitution.)

349 US 294, 75 SCt 753, 99 LEd 1083 (1955), Brown v Topeka Bd of Ed. The burden rests upon the board of education to establish that additional time is necessary to carry out the court's ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional, and that such time is consistent with good faith compliance at the earliest practicable date; to that end the courts may consider problems related to administration, the physical condition of the school, the school transportation system, personnel, and the revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving those problems.

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. By statute enacted in 1887, the state of Ohio abolished the dual system of education. The district court, however, found the Dayton city school district to be in noncompliance with this statutory mandate and with the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Since the adopted "Dayton Plan" fails to eliminate the continuing effects of past segregation, it is constitutionally inadequate. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. The terms of the Equal Educational Opportunity Act of 1974 did not limit the nature or scope of the remedy in this case. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Brinkman v Gilligan was remanded to the district court for proceedings to formulate a desegregation plan for the Dayton school system consistent with the remedial guidelines outlined in Keyes v School District No. 1, Denver, 413 US 189, 93 SCt 2686, 37 LEd(2d) 548 (1973) and Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed (N Car.), 402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 28 LEd(2d) 554 (1971) that all vestiges of state-imposed segregation must be eliminated. In formulating a desegregation plan, the district court will adhere to the guidelines enunciated by the Supreme Court in Milliken v Bradley, 418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974); reversing Bradley v Milliken, 484 F(2d) 215 (6th Cir Michigan 1973). Once the plaintiffs and appellants have shown that state-imposed segregation existed at the time of Brown v Board of Education, 347 US 483, 74 SCt 686, 98 LEd 873 (1954), (or any point thereafter), school authorities "automatically assume an affirmative duty ... to eliminate from the public schools within their school system all vestiges of state-imposed school segregation." When such a showing has been made, "racially neutral plans which fail to counteract the continuing effects of past school segregation are inadequate" (Keyes). (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Governor, attorney general, state board of education and superintendent of public instruction were proper parties in school desegregation case. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

228 F(2d) 853, 73 Abs 23 (6th Cir Ohio 1956), Clemons v Hillsboro Bd of Ed. The Hillsboro board of education abused its discretion and violated state and constitutional law in assigning colored children to segregated schools, and such segregation will be enjoined.

429 FSupp 229 (SD Ohio 1977), Penick v Columbus Bd of Ed; modified by 583 F(2d) 787 (6th Cir Ohio 1978); affirmed by 443 US 449, 99 SCt 2941, 61 LEd(2d) 666 (1979). The law of Ohio requires the state board of education to act to assure that school children enjoy full range of constitutional rights, and failure of state officials to act with full knowledge of the results of such failure provides a basis for an inference that they intended to accept local district acts and shared their intent to segregate.

OAG 77-074. A teacher in a public school must be given credit for years of service, as that term is defined in RC 3317.13(A)(2), for the service rendered in a non-public school while such school had a charter issued by the state board of education.

OAG 77-074. The term "chartered," as used in RC 3317.13(A)(2), as amended by 1976 H 295, eff. 9-1-76, refers to charters issued to non-public schools by the state board of education, pursuant to RC 3301.16.

OAG 71-036. Filing of referendum petition pursuant to RC 3301.161 against transfer of local school district suspends not only transfer order made by department of education, pending outcome of vote thereon, but also companion order of dissolution of such district.

1959 OAG 345. The state board of education in reaching a determination of the qualification of a school for the granting of a high school charter, is governed by the provisions of RC Ch 119.

3311.052 Election of county board of education; term

At the first general election occurring more than seventy-five days after the provisions of section 3311.051 of the Revised Code become applicable in a county school district, a five member county board of education shall be elected from the qualified electors residing in the county school district territory. All qualified electors, regardless of service on any board of education, shall be eligible for office. The candidates for such county board of education shall be nominated in the manner set forth in section 3513.254 of the Revised Code. The term of office of each member so elected shall be determined by lot at the initial organization meeting of the board. If the election occurs in an even numbered year, two members elected shall each serve terms of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified, and three members elected shall each serve terms of three years or until their successors are elected and qualified. If the election occurs in an odd numbered year, two members elected shall each serve terms of two years or until their successors are elected and qualified, and three members elected shall each serve terms of four years or until their successors are elected and qualified. All subsequent terms of office shall be for four year terms. The term of office of each member shall begin on the first day of January immediately following his election, except that the terms of office for members initially elected to a county board of education pursuant to this section shall start on the Monday following the general election, and shall terminate on the last day of December in the appropriate year.

3311.053 Joint county school districts

The boards of education of up to five adjoining county school districts may, by identical resolutions adopted by a majority of the members of each board within any sixty-day period, combine such school districts into one county school district. The resolutions shall state the name of the new district, which may be styled as a "joint county school district." A copy of each resolution shall be filed with the state board of education. Thirty days after the date on which the last resolution has been filed with the state board, the county boards of the participating districts shall be dissolved and a new board of education established. The initial members of such board shall be appointed as follows:

(A) If two county districts combine, each district's board, prior to its dissolution, shall appoint two members to the new board and the four members so selected shall select a fifth member within ten days of the date on which the last of the four members is appointed.

(B) If three county districts combine, each district's board, prior to its dissolution, shall appoint one member to the new board and the three members so selected shall select the remaining two members of the board within ten days of the date on which the last of the three members is appointed.

(C) If four county districts combine, each district's board, prior to its dissolution, shall appoint one member to the new board and the four members so selected shall select the remaining member of the board within ten days of the date on which the last of the four members is appointed.

(D) If five county districts combine, each district's board, prior to its dissolution, shall appoint one member to the new board.

If the members appointed to a new board by the boards of the combining districts are unable to agree on the selection of the remaining members of the new board within ten days, the probate judge of the county in which the greatest number of pupils under the supervision of the new county district reside shall appoint the remaining members.

Electors of the new district shall elect a new board of education at the next general election occurring in an odd-numbered year and more than seventy-five days after the date of the appointment of the last member to the initial board. Members shall serve for the duration of the term to which they are elected or until their successors are elected and qualified. At such election, two members shall be elected to terms of two years and three members shall be elected to terms of four years. Thereafter, their successors shall be elected in the same manner and for the same terms as members of boards of education of all county school districts. Each candidate for election as a member of the county board of education shall file a nominating petition in accordance with section 3513.255 of the Revised Code.

The funds of each former county school district shall be paid over in full to the board of education of the new school district, and the legal title to all property of the former boards of education shall become vested in the new board of education.

The board of a school district created under this section shall honor all contracts made by the former boards of education.

3311.06 Definitions; territory must be contiguous; procedure when part of district is annexed by municipal corporation; annexation of territory by municipal corporation served by urban school district; division of funds

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Annexation" and "annexed" mean annexation for municipal purposes under sections 709.02 to 709.37 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Annexed territory" means territory that has been annexed for municipal purposes to a city served by an urban school district, but on September 24, 1986, has not been transferred to the urban school district.

(3) "Urban school district" means a city school district with an average daily membership for the 1985-1986 school year in excess of twenty thousand that is the school district of a city that contains annexed territory.

(4) "Annexation agreement" means an agreement entered into under division (F) of this section that has been approved by the state board of education or an agreement entered into prior to September 24, 1986, that meets the requirements of division (F) of this section and has been filed with the state board.

(B) The territory included within the boundaries of a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district shall be contiguous except where a natural island forms an integral part of the district, where the state board of education authorizes a noncontiguous school district, as provided in division (E)(1) of this section, or where a local school district is created pursuant to section 3311.26 of the Revised Code from one or more local school districts, one of which has entered into an agreement under section 3313.42 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) When all of the territory of a school district is annexed to a city or village, such territory thereby becomes a part of the city school district or the school district of which the village is a part, and the legal title to school property in such territory for school purposes shall be vested in the board of education of the city school district or the school district of which the village is a part.

(2) When the territory so annexed to a city or village comprises part but not all of the territory of a school district, the said territory becomes part of the city school district or the school district of which the village is a part only upon approval by the state board of education, unless the district in which the territory is located is a party to an annexation agreement with the city school district.

Any urban school district that has not entered into an annexation agreement with any other school district whose territory would be affected by any transfer under this division and that desires to negotiate the terms of transfer with any such district shall conduct any negotiations under division (F) of this section as part of entering into an annexation agreement with such a district.

Any school district, except an urban school district, desiring state board approval of a transfer under this division shall make a good faith effort to negotiate the terms of transfer with any other school district whose territory would be affected by the transfer. Before the state board may approve any transfer of territory to a school district, except an urban school district, under this section, it must receive the following:

(a) A resolution requesting approval of the transfer, passed by at least one of the school districts whose territory would be affected by the transfer;

(b) Evidence determined to be sufficient by the state board to show that good faith negotiations have taken place or that the district requesting the transfer has made a good faith effort to hold such negotiations;

(c) If any negotiations took place, a statement signed by all boards that participated in the negotiations, listing the terms agreed on and the points on which no agreement could be reached.

(D) The state board of education shall adopt rules governing negotiations held by any school district except an urban school district pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section. The rules shall encourage the realization of the following goals:

(1) A discussion by the negotiating districts of the present and future educational needs of the pupils in each district;

(2) The educational, financial, and territorial stability of each district affected by the transfer;

(3) The assurance of appropriate educational programs, services, and opportunities for all the pupils in each participating district, and adequate planning for the facilities needed to provide these programs, services, and opportunities.

Districts involved in negotiations under such rules may agree to share revenues from the property included in the territory to be transferred, establish cooperative programs between the participating districts, and establish mechanisms for the settlement of any future boundary disputes.

(E)(1) If territory annexed after September 24, 1986, is part of a school district that is a party to an annexation agreement with the urban school district serving the annexing city, the transfer of such territory shall be governed by the agreement. If the agreement does not specify how the territory is to be dealt with, the boards of education of the district in which the territory is located and the urban school district shall negotiate with regard to the transfer of the territory which shall be transferred to the urban school district unless, not later than ninety days after the effective date of municipal annexation, the boards of education of both districts, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of each board, agree that the territory will not be transferred and so inform the state board of education.

If territory is transferred under this division the transfer shall take effect on the first day of July occurring not sooner than ninety-one days after the effective date of the municipal annexation. Territory transferred under this division need not be contiguous to the district to which it is transferred.

(2) Territory annexed prior to September 24, 1986, by a city served by an urban school district shall not be subject to transfer under this section if the district in which the territory is located is a party to an annexation agreement or becomes a party to such an agreement not later than ninety days after September 24, 1986. If the district does not become a party to an annexation agreement within the ninety-day period, transfer of territory shall be governed by division (C)(2) of this section. If the district subsequently becomes a party to an agreement, territory annexed prior to September 24, 1986, other than territory annexed under division (C)(2) of this section prior to the effective date of the agreement, shall not be subject to transfer under this section.

(F) An urban school district may enter into a comprehensive agreement with one or more school districts under which transfers of territory annexed by the city served by the urban school district after September 24, 1986, shall be governed by the agreement. Such agreement must provide for the establishment of a cooperative education program under section 3313.842 of the Revised Code in which all the parties to the agreement are participants and must be approved by resolution of the majority of the members of each of the boards of education of the school districts that are parties to it. An agreement may provide for interdistrict payments based on local revenue growth resulting from development in any territory annexed by the city served by the urban school district.

An agreement entered into under this division may be altered, modified, or terminated only by agreement, by resolution approved by the majority of the members of each board of education, of all school districts that are parties to the agreement, except that with regard to any provision that affects only the urban school district and one of the other districts that is a party, that district and the urban district may modify or alter the agreement by resolution approved by the majority of the members of the board of that district and the urban district.

If an agreement provides for interdistrict payments, each party to the agreement, except any school district specifically exempted by the agreement, shall agree to make an annual payment to the urban school district with respect to any of its territory that is annexed territory in an amount not to exceed the amount certified for that year under section 3317.029 of the Revised Code. The agreement may provide that all or any part of the payment shall be waived if the urban school district receives its payment with respect to such annexed territory under section 3317.029 of the Revised Code and that all or any part of such payment may be waived if the urban school district does not receive its payment with respect to such annexed territory under such section.

With respect to territory that is transferred to the urban school district after September 24, 1986, the agreement may provide for annual payments by the urban school district to the school district whose territory is transferred to the urban school district subsequent to annexation by the city served by the urban school district.

(G) In the event territory is transferred from one school district to another under this section, an equitable division of the funds and indebtedness between the districts involved shall be made under the supervision of the state board of education and that board's decision shall be final. Such division shall not include funds payable to or received by a school district under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code or payable to or received by a school district from the United States or any department or agency thereof. In the event such transferred territory includes real property owned by a school district, the state board of education, as part of such division of funds and indebtedness, shall determine the true value in money of such real property and all buildings or other improvements thereon. The board of education of the school district receiving such territory shall forthwith pay to the board of education of the school district losing such territory such true value in money of such real property, buildings, and improvements less such percentage of the true value in money of each school building located on such real property as is represented by the ratio of the total enrollment in day classes of the pupils residing in the territory transferred enrolled at such school building in the school year in which such annexation proceedings were commenced to the total enrollment in day classes of all pupils residing in the school district losing such territory enrolled at such school building in such school year. The school district receiving such payment shall place the proceeds thereof in its sinking fund or bond retirement fund.

(H) The state board of education, before approving such transfer of territory, shall determine that such payment has been made and shall apportion to the acquiring school district such percentage of the indebtedness of the school district losing the territory as is represented by the ratio that the assessed valuation of the territory transferred bears to the total assessed valuation of the entire school district losing the territory as of the effective date of the transfer, provided that in ascertaining the indebtedness of the school district losing the territory the state board of education shall disregard such percentage of the par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of said school district issued for construction or improvement of the school building or buildings for which payment was made by the acquiring district as is equal to the percentage by which the true value in money of such building or buildings was reduced in fixing the amount of said payment.

(I) No transfer of school district territory or division of funds and indebtedness incident thereto, pursuant to the annexation of territory to a city or village shall be completed in any other manner than that prescribed by this section regardless of the date of the commencement of such annexation proceedings, and this section applies to all proceedings for such transfers and divisions of funds and indebtedness pending or commenced on or after October 2, 1959.

45 OS(2d) 117, 341 NE(2d) 594 (1976), Grandview Heights City School District Bd of Ed v State Bd of Ed. O Const Art II §26 expressly sanctions both the delegation of legislative authority by the general assembly in RC 3311.06 and the exercise of that authority by the state board of education, and RC 3311.06 is therefore constitutional.

173 OS 130, 180 NE(2d) 576 (1962), Jefferson Bd of Ed v Columbus Bd of Ed. The form of RC 3311.06 enacted in 1955 is constitutionally valid although some of the provisions therein for transfer of territory are not to take effect without the approval of the state board of education and the general assembly gave that board no guides or standards for such approval.

172 OS 533, 179 NE(2d) 347 (1961), State ex rel Whitehall Bd of Ed v Columbus Bd of Ed. RC 3311.06 is constitutional.

b. In general

172 OS 533, 179 NE(2d) 347 (1961), State ex rel Whitehall Bd of Ed v Columbus Bd of Ed. The state board of education has authority to direct an equitable division of the funds and indebtedness between school districts in the case territory is transferred from one school district to another.

119 OS 475, 164 NE 516 (1928), State ex rel South Zanesville Bd of Ed v Bateman. Any indebtedness on school property in territory annexed means such indebtedness as, in the ordinary course of the administration of school affairs in the original district by which the indebtedness has been incurred, would have been paid by the levy and collection of taxes upon the taxable property in the territory annexed.

110 App 527, 166 NE(2d) 253 (1959), State ex rel Columbus Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. The state board of education in making the determination as required by RC 3311.06 is not subject to the provisions of RC Ch 119, but where the board does not make an equitable division of funds and indebtedness, an original action in mandamus is possible.

65 App 273, 29 NE(2d) 878 (1939), State ex rel Van Buren Twp Bd of Ed v Oakwood Bd of Ed. Fact that an amount claimed by a school district is in dispute and is unascertained does not prevent an action in mandamus to compel an annexing school district to levy and collect taxes necessary to pay its proportionate share of annexed district's indebtedness; such action in mandamus is a cause arising upon a liability created by statute and is subject to statute of limitations provided in GC 11222 (RC 2305.07), but under GC 286-3 (RC 117.13) the statute does not begin to run until the filing of the report called for in GC 286 (RC 117.10) with the officer or legal counsel whose duty it is to institute civil actions for the enforcement thereof.

65 App 273, 29 NE(2d) 878 (1939), State ex rel Van Buren Twp Bd of Ed v Oakwood Bd of Ed. Where part of a rural school district has been annexed by an adjoining city school district, the annexing district must assume its proportionate share of the rural district's indebtedness, and under GC 286 (RC 117.10), the board of education of the rural district may maintain an action in mandamus to compel the annexing school district to levy and collect such taxes necessary to pay this assumed debt where an examiner of the bureau of inspection of public offices has filed a report showing that the annexing district has failed to pay its proportionate share.

65 App 273, 29 NE(2d) 878 (1939), State ex rel Van Buren Twp Bd of Ed v Oakwood Bd of Ed. Annexation of certain territory of a rural school district by one city school district does not affect the obligation originally attaching to another city school district to pay its proportionate share of the indebtedness of the rural district, assumed by a prior annexation of different territory of the rural district.

20 Misc 243, 253 NE(2d) 836 (CP, Erie 1969), In re Margaretta Local School District, Transfer of Funds. RC 3311.06 clearly expresses the legislative intent that no transfer of school district territory or division of funds and indebtedness incident thereto, shall be completed in any other manner than that prescribed thereby, so that funds received by a school district for real property lost to the district by reason of annexation must be deposited in the bond retirement fund of said district.

No. 75 CV-06-2482 (CP, Franklin 1975), In re Transfer of Territory From Van Buren Local School Dist. Service is normally construed to have been completed upon mailing. Mailing of a corrected referee's report five days from the date on which the original report was delivered to the agency complies with the mandate of RC 119.09.

1964 OAG 1300. When territory is transferred from one school district to another under RC 3311.06, the terms for compensating the relinquishing school district for any property concomitantly transferred are set forth in that section.

1957 OAG 1452. The effect of the transfer after tax lien date of school district territory on the authority of the receiving school district to levy a tax on the real property in such territory by action in the current year under RC 5705.34 discussed.

1940 OAG 2453. The law makes no provision for the division of funds between two school districts a portion of one of which automatically becomes a part of a city or village school district by reason of the annexation of a portion of its territory to the city or village.

1940 OAG 2453. Proceeds of tax levies for school purposes made by a school district, a portion of whose territory has later been annexed to an adjoining city or village, should be paid to and retained by the district which made the levy.

1933 OAG 1590. When a portion of the territory of a rural school district is annexed to a contiguous city and the city school district receiving such territory thereby assumes a portion of the bonded indebtedness of the rural school district represented by a certain issue of bonds, refunding, bonds should be issued by the rural school district.

1928 OAG 3108. "Any indebtedness on the school property in the territory annexed" means such indebtedness as, in the ordinary course of the administration of school affairs in the original district by which the indebtedness has been incurred, would have been paid by the levy and collection of taxes upon the taxable property in the territory annexed.

1928 OAG 1946. Where a contract has been let for improvement of school property within territory annexed to a city or village, proceeds from sale of bonds issued for such improvement should be paid to and distributed by board of education of the school district assuming the obligation; and tax should be levied by such board to pay such bonds and the proceeds thereof paid to the board of education of the school district from which such territory was detached. Tax levied by city or village school district to which the territory was annexed must be within fifteen mill limitation.

1928 OAG 1946. When territory is annexed to a city or village school district, the city or village school district thus acquiring territory becomes vested with the legal title to school property lying within the territory annexed and automatically assumes any indebtedness on such property.

2. Approval of transfer

a. Constitutional issues

45 OS(2d) 117, 341 NE(2d) 589 (1976), Grandview Heights City School Dist Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. RC 3311.06 is constitutional.

b. In general

172 OS 237, 175 NE(2d) 91 (1961), State ex rel Worthington Bd of Ed v Columbus Bd of Ed. Statement by state board of education of its intention to approve transfer of territory of a school district did not constitute approval of the transfer and hence such transfer was not completed.

167 OS 543, 150 NE(2d) 407 (1958), Marion Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Marion County Bd of Ed. The provisions of RC Ch 3311, relative to the transfer of territory of school districts and the creation of new school districts by a county board of education, limit the right to protest the action of a county board exclusively to qualified electors, and give to local boards no voice in transfer proceedings and no right to protest the transfer of territory.

107 App 345, 159 NE(2d) 252 (1958), Bohley v Patry. The provisions of RC 3311.06 that when territory is annexed to a city which comprises a part but not all of the territory of a school district, the said territory shall become a part of the city school district "only upon approval by the state board of education," are remedial; and the part thereof which states that "After the effective date of this section, no action with regard to the transfer of school district territory pursuant to annexation to a municipality shall be completed in any other manner than that prescribed by this section," is an "express" provision that it shall affect pending annexation proceedings.

20 Misc 243, 253 NE(2d) 836 (CP, Erie 1969), In re Margaretta Local School Dist, Transfer of Funds. RC 3311.06 clearly expresses the legislative intent that no transfer of school district territory or division of funds and indebtedness incident thereto, shall be completed in any other manner than that prescribed by this section. It is required that funds received by a school district for real property lost to the district by reason of annexation shall be deposited in the bond retirement fund of said district.

20 Misc 243, 253 NE(2d) 836 (CP, Erie 1969), In re Margaretta Local School Dist, Transfer of Funds. RC 3311.06, 5705.14 and 5705.15 must be construed as laws in pari materia, and accordingly, the funds received for the property lost to the school district having been properly deposited in the bond retirement fund, any application for an order to transfer funds therefrom shall be brought pursuant to RC 5705.14.

No. 75 CV-06-2545 (CP, Franklin 1975), Woodridge Local School Dist Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. The apportionment provision in RC 3311.06 is designed to give a remedy to a party in an action in mandamus to compel an apportionment of indebtedness if one is not readily available on the effective date of the transfer for tax purposes.

82 Abs 102, 165 NE(2d) 247 RC (CP, Franklin 1958), State ex rel Columbus Bd of Ed v Dunn; affirmed by 110 App 329, 163 NE(2d) 694 (1959). The discretion granted to the state board of education to approve or reject the annexation of territory to a city or village where such territory comprises part but not all the territory of a school district cannot be exercised so as to create, permit, or allow to continue in existence a mandated tax rate of more than ten mills.

1964 OAG 1300. When a city or village annexes territory comprising only a part of a school district, title to a permanent branch of a school district library located within that annexed territory will vest in the city board of education or the board of education of which the village is a part only upon approval by the state board of education of the inclusion of the annexed territory within the school district of the city, and if the board does not approve the inclusion of the annexed territory within the school district of the annexing city or village, the library may continue to operate as a permanent branch of the school district library system.

1959 OAG 753. Where a city annexes part of the territory of a local school district and the transfer of territory has been approved by the state board of education, title to school buildings, school real estate and school facilities, located in such annexed territory, becomes vested in the board of education of the city school district.

1957 OAG 913. The state board of education does not have the authority to approve the transfer for school purposes of a part but not all of the territory which has been annexed to a municipality.

3. Annexation by municipality; petition

21 Ohio St L J 364 (1960). An analysis of the problems concerning municipal annexation in Ohio, Alba L. Whiteside.

172 OS 185, 174 NE(2d) 259 (1961), Bennett v Diefenbach. An action to enjoin the auditor and clerk of a municipality from taking favorable action on a petition by a resident freeholder for the annexation of territory to the municipality, which petition contains the language, "for municipal purposes," does not properly raise a constitutional question concerning the application of RC 3311.06.

172 OS 185, 174 NE(2d) 259 (1961), Bennett v Diefenbach. A petition by a resident freeholder for the annexation of territory, which contains the language, "for municipal purposes, according to the statutes of Ohio," is neither misleading nor inaccurate.

168 OS 495, 156 NE(2d) 315 (1959), Alexander v Toledo. The appearance, on the ballot used in an election to determine whether a township should be annexed to a city, of the words "for municipal purposes only, but not for school purposes" invalidates the election.

2 App(2d) 45, 206 NE(2d) 431 (1965), State ex rel Huntington National Bank v Thomas. Construction of a government owned reservoir across a school district does not by operation of law effect a transfer of any part of the district to any other district, and an erroneous transfer thereof on the tax duplicate will be remedied by mandamus.

113 App 302, 178 NE(2d) 101 (1960), Bennett v Diefenbach; affirmed by 172 OS 185, 174 NE(2d) 259 (1961). Inclusion in a petition by freeholders for annexation of territory to a municipality of the phrase "for municipal purposes only" does not invalidate the proceedings of the board of county commissioners incident to the hearing and allowance of such petition by such board.

74 Abs 554, 142 NE(2d) 296 (CP, Franklin 1956), McClintock v Cain. The mere disarrangement of school districts in a township is no valid ground for refusing to annex territory within said township to a municipality, and no valid objection can be lodged against such annexation, because it will necessitate a rearrangement of school districts and the financial burdens of the rest of the township will be somewhat increased.

64 Abs 371, 108 NE(2d) 387 (CP, Hamilton 1952), Indian Hill Exempted Village School Dist Bd of Ed v Hamilton County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 62 Abs 545, 108 NE(2d) 225 (App, Hamilton 1952). This section applies when territory is annexed to villages and local school districts, as well as to city and exempted village school districts.

1964 OAG 1300. When the entire school district, in which is located a permanent branch of a school district library organized pursuant to RC 3375.15, is annexed by a city or village, title to the library vests in the board of education of the city or the school district of which the village is a part.

1956 OAG 6808. The amendment of RC 3311.06 effective September 29, 1955, did not affect annexation petitions pending when such amendment became effective.

1955 OAG 5955. Where a village occupies portions of two or more school districts, and territory located in one is annexed to the village, the annexed territory is not transferred from the district of which it is a part.

1955 OAG 4734. The board of education of a local school district has no right to expend funds in support of or in opposition to pending annexation proceedings which would change the limits of the district.

1940 OAG 2453. When territory which is no part of any municipality is annexed to a contiguous city or village and such territory thus automatically becomes a part of the city or village school district, duties and obligations as to furnishing of educational advantages for school children residing in the territory annexed, devolve upon the school district of which the annexed territory becomes a part.

1928 OAG 1946. When all the territory in a rural or village school district is annexed to a contiguous city or village school district, the rural or village school district thus annexed is extinguished, its board of education abolished, and the board of education of the city or village school district acquiring such territory becomes charged with all the obligations of the school district.

4. Contiguous territory

7 OS(2d) 41, 218 NE(2d) 180 (1966), State ex rel Pioneer Joint Vocational School Dist Bd of Ed v Schumann. Noncontiguous school districts may unite to form a joint vocational school district.

121 OS 213, 167 NE 872 (1929), Warren Twp Rural School Dist Bd of Ed v Warren City School Dist Bd of Ed. Territories connected by only two-foot strip are not contiguous.

62 App(3d) 308, 575 NE(2d) 503 (Franklin 1990), Garfield Heights City School Dist v State Bd of Ed. Where the proposed transfer of property from one school district to another will result in the boundary lines between a municipality and a school district being continguous, it is in compliance with the applicable statutes, despite an allegation that the lines will not be coterminous if the proposed transfer is implemented.

1962 OAG 3333. A joint vocational school district covers the territory of two or more school districts within a county, and there is no requirement that said school districts be contiguous.

1961 OAG 2049. Territory of a school district may not be transferred to another school district under RC 3311.06 if such transfer would leave the original school district with two noncontiguous territories; and the state board of education is without authority to approve such a transfer under that section.

1959 OAG 572. A school district may not be annexed to another district with which it is not contiguous.

1957 OAG 1308. In the course of municipal annexation proceedings involving an area located in a school district other than that of the city concerned, where the boundaries of the annexed area, and those of the two school districts involved, are such that in one such district the boundaries are not contiguous, and where contiguity as to both school districts can be attained by a transfer of such isolated annexed area to the school district of the city concerned, it becomes the duty of the state board of education to approve such transfer.

1951 OAG 796. Where it is sought to transfer territory from one local school district to another, the territory transferred must be contiguous to the district to which it is to be transferred; where territory to be transferred is separated from the district to which it is to be annexed by a privately owned lane fifteen and one-half feet in width, it is not "contiguous" to such district.

1927 OAG 756. Territory which is annexed to a city becomes a part of the city school district, and the legal title of the school property in such territory for school purposes becomes vested in the board of education of the city school district; any indebtedness on the school property of such annexed territory should be assumed by the city school district board of education, but if there is no school property included in the annexed territory, the city school district has no responsibility for any other indebtedness. (See also 1927 OAG 803, 1927 OAG 1127, 1928 OAG 1914.)

5. Appeal

51 OS(3d) 189, 555 NE(2d) 931 (1990), Union Title Co v State Bd of Ed. The act of the state board of education disapproving a transfer of territory request pursuant to RC 3311.06 is a quasi-judicial act and, as such, is appealable under RC 119.12, where the affected parties are provided with notice, a hearing, and the opportunity to present evidence pursuant to OAC Ch 3301-89.

66 OS(2d) 152, 420 NE(2d) 990 (1981), Marion City School Dist Bd of Ed v Elgin Local School Dist Bd of Ed. The act of the Ohio state board of education disapproving a transfer of territory pursuant to RC 3311.06 is a legislative act, and, as such, is not appealable pursuant to RC 119.12.

4 App(3d) 78, 4 OBR 130, 446 NE(2d) 493 (Franklin 1982), In re Transfer of Territory from Cleveland City School Dist. The act of the Ohio state board of education disapproving a transfer of territory pursuant to RC 3311.24 is similar to disapproval of a transfer pursuant to RC 3311.06 and, as such, is a legislative act, which is not appealable pursuant to RC 119.12.

110 App 527, 166 NE(2d) 253 (1959), State ex rel Columbus Bd of Ed v State Board of Education. State board of education, in making the determination required by RC 3311.06, is not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act; its action in such matter is final, and a school district board of education may not appeal therefrom.

110 App 329, 163 NE(2d) 694 (1959), State ex rel Columbus Bd of Ed v Dunn. Where, in a mandamus action by a local board of education against the county auditor to require the listing of certain real property for taxation within the local school district over which such board has jurisdiction and the certification to the county treasurer for collection of the levies of such local board on such real property, the trial court so orders and the county auditor complies with such order and does not appeal therefrom, the questions pending on an appeal from such order by the state board of education, an intervening respondent in the trial court, are, in the absence of a suspension or stay of such order or an application therefor, moot, and will not be determined by the court of appeals.

6. Segregation of pupils

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Before the boundaries of separate and autonomous school districts may be set aside by consolidating the separate units for remedial purposes or by imposing a cross-district remedy, it must be first shown that there has been a constitutional violation within one district that produces a significant segregative effect in another district. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Desegregation, in the sense of dismantling a dual school system, does not require any particular racial balance. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. A federal court may not impose a multi-district, areawide remedy for single-district de jure school segregation violations, where there is no finding that the other included school districts have failed to operate unitary school systems or have committed acts that effected segregation within the other districts, and there is no claim or finding that the school district boundary lines were established with the purpose of fostering racial segregation. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 28 LEd(2d) 554 (1971), Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed. The constitutional command to desegregate schools does not mean that every school in every community must always reflect the racial composition of the school system as a whole; while the existence of a small number of one-race, or virtually one-race, schools within a district is not in and of itself the mark of system which still practices segregation by law, such schools require close scrutiny by court. (Ed. note: North Carolina law construed in light of federal constitution.)

349 US 294, 75 SCt 753, 99 LEd 1083 (1955), Brown v Topeka Bd of Ed. The burden rests upon the board of education to establish that additional time is necessary to carry out the court's ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional, and that such time is consistent with good faith compliance at the earliest practicable date; to that end the courts may consider problems related to administration, the physical condition of the school, the school transportation system, personnel, and the revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving those problems. (See also Clemons v Hillsboro Bd of Ed, 228 F(2d) 853, 73 Abs 23 (6th Cir Ohio 1956).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. By statute enacted in 1887, the state of Ohio abolished the dual system of education. The district court, however, found the Dayton city school district to be in noncompliance with this statutory mandate and with the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Since the adopted "Dayton Plan" fails to eliminate the continuing effects of past segregation, it is constitutionally inadequate. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. The terms of the Equal Educational Opportunity Act of 1974 did not limit the nature or scope of the remedy in this case. (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Brinkman v Gilligan was remanded to the district court for proceedings to formulate a desegregation plan for the Dayton school system consistent with the remedial guidelines outlined in Keyes v School District No. 1, Denver, 413 US 189, 93 SCt 2686, 37 LEd(2d) 548 (1973) and Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed (N Car.), 402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 28 LEd(2d) 554 (1971) that all vestiges of state-imposed segregation must be eliminated. In formulating a desegregation plan, the district court will adhere to the guidelines enunciated by the Supreme Court in Milliken v Bradley, 418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974). Once the plaintiffs and appellants have shown that state-imposed segregation existed at the time of Brown v Board of Education, 347 US 483, 74 SCt 686, 98 LEd 873 (1954), (or any point thereafter), school authorities "automatically assume an affirmative duty . . . to eliminate from the public schools within their school system all vestiges of state-imposed school segregation." When such a showing has been made, "racially neutral plans which fail to counteract the continuing effects of past school segregation are inadequate" (Keyes). (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

228 F(2d) 853, 73 Abs 23 (6th Cir Ohio 1956), Clemons v Hillsboro Bd of Ed. The Hillsboro board of education abused its discretion and violated state and constitutional law in assigning colored children to segregated schools, and such segregation will be enjoined.

3311.21 Tax levy; notes; renewal levies

(A) In addition to the resolutions authorized by sections 5705.194, 5705.21, 5705.212, and 5705.213 of the Revised Code, the board of education of a joint vocational school district by a vote of two-thirds of its full membership may at any time adopt a resolution declaring the necessity to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation for a period not to exceed ten years to provide funds for any one or more of the following purposes, which may be stated in the following manner in such resolution, the ballot, and the notice of election: purchasing a site or enlargement thereof and for the erection and equipment of buildings; for the purpose of enlarging, improving, or rebuilding thereof; for the purpose of providing for the current expenses of the joint vocational school district; or for a continuing period for the purpose of providing for the current expenses of the joint vocational school district. The resolution shall specify the amount of the proposed rate and, if a renewal, whether the levy is to renew all, or a portion of, the existing levy, and shall specify the first year in which the levy will be imposed. If the levy provides for but is not limited to current expenses, the resolution shall apportion the annual rate of the levy between current expenses and the other purpose or purposes. Such apportionment may but need not be the same for each year of the levy, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied each year for current expenses and the other purpose or purposes shall be limited by such apportionment. The portion of the rate actually levied for current expenses shall be used in applying division (A) of section 3317.01 of the Revised Code, and the portion of the rate apportioned to the other purpose or purposes shall be used in applying division (B) of this section. On the adoption of such resolution the joint vocational school district board of education shall certify the resolution to the board of elections of the county containing the most populous portion of the joint vocational school district, which board shall receive resolutions for filing and send them to the boards of elections of each county in which territory of the joint vocational school district is located, furnish all ballots for the election as provided in section 3505.071 of the Revised Code, and prepare the election notice; and the board of elections of each county in which the territory of the district is located shall make the other necessary arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of the joint vocational school district at the next primary or general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution was received from the joint vocational school district board of education, or at a special election to be held at a time designated by the joint vocational school district board of education consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, which date shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of the resolution.

The board of elections of the county or counties in which territory of the joint vocational school district is located shall cause to be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in such district an advertisement of the proposed tax levy question together with a statement of the amount of the proposed levy once each week for three consecutive weeks, prior to the election at which the question is to appear on the ballot.

If a majority of the electors voting on the question of levying such tax vote in favor of the levy, the joint vocational school district board of education shall annually make the levy within the district at the rate specified in the resolution and ballot or at any lesser rate, and the county auditor of each affected county shall annually place the levy on the tax list and duplicate of each school district in his county participating in the joint vocational school district. The taxes realized from the levy shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes on the duplicate, and the taxes, when collected, shall be paid to the treasurer of the joint vocational school district and deposited by him to a special fund, which shall be established by the joint vocational school district board of education for all revenue derived from any tax levied pursuant to this section and for the proceeds of anticipation notes which shall be deposited in such fund. After the approval of the levy, the joint vocational school district board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and from time to time, during the life of the levy, but in any year prior to the time when the tax collection from the levy so anticipated can be made for that year, issue anticipation notes in an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected in each year up to a period of five years after the date of the issuance of the notes, less an amount equal to the proceeds of the levy obligated for each year by the issuance of anticipation notes, provided that the total amount maturing in any one year shall not exceed fifty per cent of the anticipated proceeds of the levy for that year. Each issue of notes shall be sold as provided in Chapter 133.[7] of the Revised Code, and shall, except for such limitation that the total amount of such notes maturing in any one year shall not exceed fifty per cent of the anticipated proceeds of the levy for that year, mature serially in substantially equal installments, during each year over a period not to exceed five years after their issuance.

(B) Prior to the application of section 319.301 of the Revised Code, the rate of a levy that is limited to, or to the extent that it is apportioned to, purposes other than current expenses shall be reduced in the same proportion in which the district's total valuation increases during the life of the levy because of additions to such valuation that have resulted from improvements added to the tax list and duplicate.

(C) The form of ballot cast at an election under division (A) of this section shall be as prescribed by section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

1. Constitutional issues

49 App(2d) 409, 361 NE(2d) 273 (1976), Mercure v Columbiana School Dist Bd of Ed. The creation of a joint vocational school district pursuant to RC 3311.18 and the levying of additional taxes pursuant to RC 3311.20, 3311.21 and O Const Art XII §2, which do not require approval of the majority of the electors of each school district that is a part of such joint vocational school district when the majority of the electors of the entire district approve such action is constitutionally valid.

2. In general

54 OS(2d) 384, 377 NE(2d) 758 (1978), State ex rel Vantage Joint Vocational School Dist Bd of Ed v Hoffman. Where there was no joinder as contemplated by RC 3311.213 permitting the spreading of the tax levies of a vocational district over the territory of any one or more of local school districts, and where there was no evidence of any joinder other than the involuntary limited joinder resulting from an assignment by the state board of education under RC 3313.90 and 3313.91, there was no clear legal duty on the part of the county treasurers and auditors involved to levy or collect taxes of the joint school district.

[7]Prior and current versions differ; although no amendment to this language was indicated in 1990 S 257, "Chapter 133." appeared as "this chapter" in 1990 S 218.

49 App(2d) 409, 361 NE(2d) 273 (1976), Mercure v Columbiana School Dist Bd of Ed. When a joint vocational school district is created pursuant to RC 3311.18, it is a separate governmental entity with the authority to impose additional taxes pursuant to RC 3311.20, 3311.21 and O Const Art XII §2.

OAG 76-021. RC 3311.20 and 3311.21 allow the board of education of a joint vocational school district to levy a tax in excess of the "ten mill limitation" and thus do not conflict with RC 5705.02.

OAG 76-021. O Const Art XII §2 allows the outstanding tax levies of a joint vocational school district to be applied in a school district which is added to the joint vocational school district after such tax levies have received proper approval.

OAG 65-167. A joint vocational school district is an entity in itself, separate and apart from any other school district.

OAG 65-167. When any school district proposes that bonds be submitted to popular vote in an amount which, after the issuance of such bonds, will make the net indebtedness of such school district no more than four per cent of the total value of all property in such school district, as listed and assessed for taxation, the consent of the department of taxation is not required; the question of whether the four per cent limit will be exceeded is to be determined by relation of the net indebtedness of the school district proposing the issuance of bonds to the total value, as listed and assessed for taxation, of all property in the school district proposing the issuance of bonds.

OAG 65-167. When any school district proposes that bonds be submitted to popular vote in an amount which, after the issuance of such bonds, will make the net indebtedness of such school district exceed four per cent of the total value of all property in such school district, as listed and assessed for taxation, the consent of the department of taxation is required, but such consent should not be withheld solely because the proposing school district is participating in a joint vocational school district, or is a joint vocational school district with participating school districts, the aggregate net indebtedness of which exceeds the limits applicable to each separately; however, in determining whether to grant or refuse such consent the effect of the aggregate net indebtedness should be given consideration in deciding whether the people of the proposing district will be unreasonably burdened.

1964 OAG 1523. The revenue received from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for current operating expenses may not lawfully be used to enlarge or improve existing buildings.

1964 OAG 1523. A board of education of a joint vocational school district may declare by resolution the necessity to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that there shall be a levy upon the duplicate of the current year; and the fact that such board of education did not come into legal existence until the fifteenth day of June does not prevent such levy upon the current duplicate.

1963 OAG 662. A bond issue or levy proposed for the use of a joint vocational school district must be submitted to the electors of all of the individual school districts which are at that time participating districts.

1962 OAG 3333. A joint vocational school district may issue notes for one-half of the anticipated revenue of a tax levy, voted for a specified period of years not exceeding ten, for the purpose of erecting or enlarging buildings and purchasing equipment.

3311.22 Transfer of territory within county district

A county board of education may propose, by resolution adopted by majority vote of its full membership, or qualified electors of the area affected equal in number to at least fifty-five per cent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election residing within that portion of a school district, or districts proposed to be transferred may propose, by petition, the transfer of a part or all of one or more local school districts to another local school district or districts within the county school district. Such transfers may be made only to local school districts adjoining the school district that is proposed to be transferred, unless the board of education of the district proposed to be transferred has entered into an agreement pursuant to section 3313.42 of the Revised Code, in which case such transfers may be made to any local school district within the county school district.

When a county board of education adopts a resolution proposing a transfer of school territory it shall forthwith file a copy of such resolution, together with an accurate map of the territory described in the resolution, with the board of education of each school district whose boundaries would be altered by such proposal. A county board of education proposing a transfer of territory under the provisions of this section shall at its next regular meeting that occurs not earlier than thirty days after the adoption by the county board of a resolution proposing such transfer, adopt a resolution making the transfer effective at any time prior to the next succeeding first day of July, unless, prior to the expiration of such thirty-day period, qualified electors residing in the area proposed to be transferred, equal in number to a majority of the qualified electors voting at the last general election, file a petition of referendum against such transfer.

Any petition of transfer or petition of referendum filed under the provisions of this section shall be filed at the office of the county superintendent of schools. The person presenting the petition shall be given a receipt containing thereon the time of day, the date, and the purpose of the petition.

The county superintendent shall cause the board of elections to check the sufficiency of signatures on any petition of transfer or petition of referendum filed under this section and, if found to be sufficient, he shall present the petition to the county board of education at a meeting of the board which shall occur not later than thirty days following the filing of the petition.

Upon presentation to the county board of education of a proposal to transfer territory as requested by petition of fifty-five per cent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election or a petition of referendum against a proposal of the county board to transfer territory, the county board shall promptly certify the proposal to the board of elections for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the ballot at the next general or primary election which occurs not less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification, or at a special election, the date of which shall be specified in the certification, which date shall not be less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification. Signatures on a petition of transfer or petition of referendum may be withdrawn up to and including the above mentioned meeting of the county board of education only by order of the board upon testimony of the petitioner concerned under oath before the board that his signature was obtained by fraud, duress, or misrepresentation.

If a petition is filed with the county board of education which proposes the transfer of a part or all of the territory included in a resolution of transfer previously adopted by the county board of education, no action shall be taken on such petition if within the thirty-day period after the adoption of the resolution of transfer a referendum petition is filed. After the election, if the proposed transfer fails to receive a majority vote, action on such petition shall then be processed under this section as though originally filed under the provisions hereof. If no referendum petition is filed within the thirty-day period after the adoption of the resolution of transfer, no action shall be taken on such petition.

If a petition is filed with the county board of education which proposes the transfer of a part or all of the territory included in a petition previously filed by electors no action shall be taken on such new petition.

Upon certification of a proposal to the board or boards of elections pursuant to this section, the board or boards of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such question to the electors of the county or counties qualified to vote thereon, and the election shall be conducted and canvassed and the results shall be certified in the same manner as in regular elections for the election of members of a board of education.

The persons qualified to vote upon a proposal are the electors residing in the district or districts containing territory that is proposed to be transferred. If the proposed transfer be approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the county board of education shall make such transfer at any time prior to the next succeeding first day of July. If the proposed transfer is not approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the question of transferring any property included in the territory covered by the proposal shall not be submitted to electors at any election prior to the first general election the date of which is at least two years after the date of the original election, or the first primary election held in an even-numbered year the date of which is at least two years after the date of the original election. A transfer shall be subject to the approval of the receiving board or boards of education, unless the proposal was initiated by the county board, in which case, if the transfer is opposed by the board of education offered the territory, the local board may, within thirty days, following the receipt of the notice of transfer, appeal to the state board of education which shall then either approve or disapprove the transfer.

Following an election upon a proposed transfer initiated by a petition the board of education that is offered territory shall, within thirty days following receipt of the proposal, either accept or reject the transfer.

When an entire school district is proposed to be transferred to two or more school districts and the offer is rejected by any one of the receiving boards of education, none of the territory included in the proposal shall be transferred.

Upon the acceptance of territory by the receiving board or boards of education the county board of education offering the territory shall file with the county auditor and with the state board of education an accurate map showing the boundaries of the territory transferred.

Upon the making of such transfer, the net indebtedness of the former district from which territory was transferred shall be apportioned between the acquiring school district and that portion of the former school district remaining after the transfer in the ratio which the assessed valuation of the territory transferred to the acquiring school district bears to the assessed valuation of the original school district as of the effective date of the transfer. As used in this section "net indebtedness" means the difference between the par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of the school district and the amount held in the sinking fund and other indebtedness retirement funds for their redemption.

If an entire district is transferred, any indebtedness of the former district incurred as a result of a loan made under section 3317.64 of the Revised Code is hereby canceled and such indebtedness shall not be apportioned among any districts acquiring the territory.

Upon the making of any transfer under this section, the funds of the district from which territory was transferred shall be divided equitably by the county board between the acquiring district and any part of the original district remaining after the transfer.

If an entire district is transferred the board of education of such district is thereby abolished or if a member of the board of education lives in that part of a school district transferred the member becomes a nonresident of the school district from which the territory was transferred and he ceases to be a member of the board of education of such district.

The legal title of all property of the board of education in the territory transferred shall become vested in the board of education of the school district to which such territory is transferred.

Subsequent to June 30, 1959, if an entire district is transferred, foundation program moneys accruing to a district accepting school territory under the provisions of this section or former section 3311.22 of the Revised Code, shall not be less, in any year during the next succeeding three years following the transfer, than the sum of the amounts received by the districts separately in the year in which the transfer was consummated.

1. General procedure

170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960), State ex rel Carmean v Bd of Ed of Hardin County. The general assembly, by inserting the phrase "notwithstanding sections 3311.22, 3311.23, and 3311.26 of the Revised Code," in RC 3311.261 clearly indicated its intent that proceedings under such section should take precedence over pending proceedings previously instituted under the other enumerated sections.

83 App 61, 72 NE(2d) 921 (1947), Smith v Ray; affirmed by 149 OS 394, 79 NE(2d) 116 (1948). All sections in the school code are in pari materia and must be construed together.

66 App 267, 31 NE(2d) 702 (1940), Berea Rural School Dist Bd of Ed v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. Failure of a county board of education to file a map with the state director of education conforming to a proposed consolidation of school districts adopted by resolution of such county board of education under former GC 4736 (RC 3311.22), did not warrant permanent injunction against such consolidation but prevents the consolidation until such map is filed or duty of the county board to prepare and file map has expired; filing of a map, subsequent to the adoption of the resolution, showing a plan of organization different from that proposed by the resolution, does not constitute abandonment of resolution.

1964 OAG 961. A county board of education may not accept a petition for transfer of territory or transfer territory of a local school district when such territory is a part of territory previously accepted by, but prior to the effective date of transfer to, an adjoining exempted village school district.

1962 OAG 3407. The words "area affected" as appearing in the first paragraph of RC 3311.22 and 3311.231 refer to the portion of the school district or districts proposed to be transferred.

1962 OAG 3336. Where the state board of education has proposed the creation of a new school district, and before the question is placed on the ballot for consideration by the electors concerned, a proposal is filed with a county superintendent of schools affecting any of the territory affected by the proposal of the state board, the proposal of the state board may not be placed on the ballot while the other proposal is subject to an election.

1939 OAG 1339. A transfer of school territory to a district where by vote of the people the schools have been centralized under GC 4726 will not cause a decentralization of the schools in the district to which the territory has been transferred. (See also 1939 OAG 960, 1938 OAG 3434.)

2. Petition

28 OS(2d) 1, 274 NE(2d) 459 (1971), State ex rel Dennis v Miller. Referendum petition which has been declared valid by board of elections is not rendered invalid by subsequent addition of another signature.

112 App 66, 175 NE(2d) 305 (1959), State ex rel Muter v Mercer County Bd of Ed. RC 3311.22, 3311.231 and 3311.261 are in pari materia and must be construed together; and the provisions of RC 3311.22 and 3311.231 relative to the right of a petition signer to withdraw his signature apply with equal force to a petition filed under RC 3311.261.

1962 OAG 3407. A petition filed under either RC 3311.22 or 3311.231 proposing the transfer of school district territory may contain only signatures of qualified electors of the area proposed to be transferred.

1962 OAG 3336. Where a petition of transfer of part of a school district is filed with the county superintendent of schools, and the petition is signed by one person, the petition is sufficient if the one signature is equal in number to at least fifty-five per cent of the qualified voters voting at the last general election within that portion of the school district proposed to be transferred.

1958 OAG 1918. If a county board of education has proposed a transfer of a part or all of one or more local school districts to an adjoining district or districts within the county school district, and such proposal has been filed with the county board of elections for submission to the electors and thereafter a petition signed by fifty-five per cent or more of the electors proposing a transfer on a different basis of part or all of the same territory is filed with the county board of education, such petition would be too late for consideration and the election already set in motion should proceed, but if such proposition has not been certified to the board, consideration should be given to it.

1958 OAG 1750. A petition for transfer of school district territory within a county school district filed prior to January 1, 1958, was a nonofficial act, did not initiate proceedings for a transfer, and was not a proceeding for transfer within the meaning of RC 1.20 or 3311.341.

1946 OAG 804. When, pursuant to GC 4831-13 (RC 3311.23), a petition is filed on or before February first in any even numbered year with county board of education, signed by seventy-five per cent or more of qualified electors praying for transfer of territory to an adjoining county school district, it is duty of board to include proposed transfer in forthcoming plan to be made and adopted by it on or before first Monday in February next following in an even numbered year.

3. Powers of boards; superintendent of public instruction

175 OS 114, 191 NE(2d) 723 (1963), State ex rel Hover v Wolven. Duties, as prescribed by statute, of membership on a local school district board of education and on a county board of education in the same county at the same time by one individual are such under the Ohio statutes as to render such dual membership incompatible.

167 OS 543, 150 NE(2d) 407 (1958), Marion Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Marion County Bd of Ed. A local board of education does not have the power to employ counsel and challenge in the courts the validity and propriety of a change in the boundaries of its district.

167 OS 543, 150 NE(2d) 407 (1958), Marion Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Marion County Bd of Ed. The provisions of RC Ch 3311 limit the right to protest the action of a county board exclusively to qualified electors, and give to local boards no voice in transfer proceedings and no right to protest the transfer of territory. The board has no legal interest in the action of the county boards and is not entitled to maintain the action.

149 OS 394, 79 NE(2d) 116 (1948), Smith v Ray. Under GC 4831 (RC 3311.22) et seq. (120 v 509), power of state superintendent of public instruction was limited to approval or modification of a plan submitted by a county board of education for territorial organization of school districts; where superintendent substituted a new and different plan of territorial organization for one proposed and submitted by a county board, he exceeded his authority.

137 OS 578, 31 NE(2d) 850 (1941), Anderson v Hancock County Bd of Ed. Under former school foundation law, county board of education had no power to modify or change a plan of organization previously adopted except in the same manner provided for its adoption.

120 App 258, 201 NE(2d) 909 (1962), Anderson v Logan County Bd of Ed. In an appeal on questions of law and fact from a judgment refusing to grant an injunction restraining a county board of education from certifying to the county board of elections a petition proposing the transfer of school territory, and to restrain the board of elections from submitting the proposal at an election, where it appears that, since the judgment denying the injunction was rendered, the certification, the board of education has made the certification, the election has been held and the transfer approved, but it is not clear that the board of education has completed its functions by transferring the territory, the issues involved, although moot as to the board of elections, are not moot as to the board of education, and a motion to dismiss the appeal on the ground that the issues involved have become moot will be overruled.

66 App 267, 31 NE(2d) 702 (1940), Berea Rural School Dist Bd of Ed v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. Power in county board of education to create new school districts was not limited or qualified by former School Foundation Act, GC 7600-1 et seq.

1959 OAG 104. Where the state board of education has initiated proceedings for consolidation of two or more local school districts located in different counties, the county board of education having supervision of one such local district is without power to receive and certify to the board of elections of its county, a petition by the electors for transfer of a portion of their district until such proceedings by the state board of education have been completed, and the consolidated district has been assigned to one of the several county districts.

1956 OAG 6356. The county board of education has the sole power and discretion to transfer part or all of the territory of a local school district within the county district to an adjoining local school district, and in the absence of proof of fraud or gross abuse by the county board, its discretion in ordering such transfer is limited only by the right of a majority of the electors residing in the territory proposed to be transferred to file a written remonstrance against such transfer; neither the board of education nor the electors in the district to which such transfer is proposed to be made have any right of protest or remonstrance.

1946 OAG 804. When a petition for transfer of territory of local school district is filed, praying for transfer of territory in a local school district of any county to another county district, no obligation rests upon board of education of county to which transfer is proposed to be made, to take any action looking to change in boundaries of its own districts.

1945 OAG 594. County board of education is authorized to include in a plan of territorial organization of the county school district, the transfer of part or all of a local district which operates no schools, to an adjoining county, city or exempted village school district.

1945 OAG 594. When a county board of education has provided, in a plan of territorial organization of local school districts under its supervision adopted on or before the first Monday in February, 1946, for transfer of part or all of territory of a local district operating no schools to another school district, and a protest against such transfer has been filed, said county board may, but is not required again to propose such transfer and include it in a plan which it may adopt in any following even numbered year.

1945 OAG 594. Superintendent of public instruction may approve, with such modifications as he deems proper, a plan of territorial organization submitted to him by a county board of education, but he may not inaugurate changes affecting any local district or districts, as to which changes protests have been filed.

1945 OAG 445. It became mandatory on October 12, 1945, for the board of education of a county school district having a local district in which no schools are operated, to adopt, prior to the first Monday in February, 1946, a new plan of territorial organization of school districts and to make provision in such plan of organization for the dissolution of such local school district.

1944 OAG 6703. Even though county board of education may not contemplate making changes in territorial organization of school districts upon adoption of its biannual plan of territorial organization, it is duty of board to carry out procedural steps for adoption and consummation of such plan.

1944 OAG 6703. When a plan of territorial organization is adopted by county board of education, proper procedural steps thereafter taken and plan is submitted to superintendent of public instruction and approved by him, and no protest is made to action of superintendent of public instruction, whereupon plan becomes final, so far as the procedure thus far taken is concerned, no changes involving transfers of territory may thereafter be made in said plan of organization without approval of superintendent of public instruction.

4. Transfer of territory; segregation of pupils

164 OS 293, 130 NE(2d) 361 (1955), Guthery v Marion County Bd of Ed. A county board of education has authority to transfer an uninhabited tract of land from one school district to another.

141 OS 128, 46 NE(2d) 861 (1943), State ex rel Schweinhagen v Underhill. Where schools were centralized, county board of education not required to transfer any part of such centralized district to another district.

83 App 61, 72 NE(2d) 921 (1947), Smith v Ray; affirmed by 149 OS 394, 79 NE(2d) 116 (1948). Legislative intent was that no plan of organization be approved and made final if objections are filed unless the boards and electors of the affected districts have been heard thereon.

349 US 294, 75 SCt 753, 99 LEd 1083 (1955), Brown v Topeka Bd of Ed. The burden rests upon the board of education to establish that additional time is necessary to carry out the court's ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional, and that such time is consistent with good faith compliance at the earliest practicable date; to that end the courts may consider problems related to administration, the physical condition of the school, the school transportation system, personnel, and the revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving those problems.

228 F(2d) 853, 73 Abs 23 (6th Cir Ohio 1956), Clemons v Hillsboro Bd of Ed. The Hillsboro board of education abused its discretion and violated state and constitutional law in assigning colored children to segregated schools, and such segregation will be enjoined.

1959 OAG 119. Where a public school library has been established by the board of education of a local school district which has subsequently been transferred to and become a part of another district, such library falls under the dominion and control of the district to which the transfer has been made, and members of the board of library trustees theretofore appointed will continue to hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, at which time their successors will be appointed by the board of education of the enlarged district.

1956 OAG 7420. Tax consequences and distribution of funds resulting from transfer of territory from one school district to another or creation of two districts from former district discussed.

1956 OAG 6356. Where a school district consolidation involves the union of two or more existing districts having in effect special tax levies at varying rates, and a question is involved of applying a uniform levy throughout the consolidated district at a rate higher than that voted in one or more of the constituent districts, such consolidation may more appropriately be effected under RC 3311.26 than under RC 3311.22.

1954 OAG 4145. RC 3311.22 and 3311.23 remain in force, but the authority granted therein to make transfers of territory is suspended pending final action on a plan of county wide reorganization filed under RC 3311.31.

1954 OAG 3732. Upon the dissolution of a school district which does not maintain public schools within its area, it is the duty of the county board of education to select the district or districts to which the territory of such dissolved district is to be joined, and the plan of distribution of territory so made is to be submitted to the electors of such dissolved district for their approval, the form of ballot being governed by RC 3505.08.

1951 OAG 225. Limited contracts made with teachers by boards of education in districts which afterwards merged are binding upon the board of education of the merged district, except when it comes necessary to reduce the number of teachers by reason of such merger.

1950 OAG 2592. The board of education of a school district newly created under this section is not required under GC 4842-14 (RC 3319.18) to recognize the validity of the contract of a teacher who is completing the second year of a five-year limited contract theretofore executed by the board of education which was abolished as an incident to the creation of such new district. (See also 1951 OAG 225.)

1944 OAG 6703. Where county board of education creates a new school district by combining into one district all the territory of two existing districts, one of which had an unexpired voted tax levy outside the ten-mill limitation, the taxing authority of the newly created district may lawfully spread the said voted levy over all the territory of consolidated district.

3311.231 Transfer of local district territory to city, exempted village or adjoining county district

A county board of education may propose, by resolution adopted by majority vote of its full membership, or qualified electors of the area affected equal in number to not less than fifty-five per cent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election residing within that portion of a school district proposed to be transferred may propose, by petition, the transfer of a part or all of one or more local school districts within the county to an adjoining county school district or to an adjoining city or exempted village school district.

A county board of education adopting a resolution proposing a transfer of school territory under this section shall file a copy of such resolution together with an accurate map of the territory described in the resolution, with the board of education of each school district whose boundaries would be altered by such proposal. Where a transfer of territory is proposed by a county board of education under this section, the county board shall, at its next regular meeting that occurs not earlier than the thirtieth day after the adoption by the county board of the resolution proposing such transfer, adopt a resolution making the transfer as originally proposed, effective at any time prior to the next succeeding first day of July, unless, prior to the expiration of such thirty-day period, qualified electors residing in the area proposed to be transferred, equal in number to a majority of the qualified electors voting at the last general election, file a petition of referendum against such transfer.

Any petition of transfer or petition of referendum under the provisions of this section shall be filed at the office of the county superintendent of schools. The person presenting the petition shall be given a receipt containing thereon the time of day, the date, and the purpose of the petition.

The county superintendent shall cause the board of elections to check the sufficiency of signatures on any such petition, and, if found to be sufficient, he shall present the petition to the county board of education at a meeting of said board which shall occur not later than thirty days following the filing of said petition.

The county board of education shall promptly certify the proposal to the board of elections of such counties in which school districts whose boundaries would be altered by such proposal are located for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the ballot at the next general or primary election which occurs not less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification or at a special election, the date of which shall be specified in the certification, which date shall not be less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification.

Signatures on a petition of transfer or petition of referendum may be withdrawn up to and including the above mentioned meeting of the county board of education only by order of the board upon testimony of the petitioner concerned under oath before the board that his signature was obtained by fraud, duress, or misrepresentation.

If a petition is filed with the county board of education which proposes the transfer of a part or all of the territory included either in a petition previously filed by electors or in a resolution of transfer previously adopted by the county board of education, no action shall be taken on such new petition as long as the previously initiated proposal is pending before the board or is subject to an election.

Upon certification of a proposal to the board or boards of elections pursuant to this section, the board or boards of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such question to the electors of the county or counties qualified to vote thereon, and the election shall be conducted and canvassed and the results shall be certified in the same manner as in regular elections for the election of members of a board of education.

The persons qualified to vote upon a proposal are the electors residing in the district or districts containing territory that is proposed to be transferred. If the proposed transfer is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the county board of education shall make such transfer at any time prior to the next succeeding first day of July, subject to the approval of the receiving board of education in case of a transfer to a city or exempted village school district, and subject to the approval of the county board of education of the receiving county, in case of a transfer to a county school district. If the proposed transfer is not approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the question of transferring any property included in the territory covered by the proposal shall not be submitted to electors at any election prior to the first general election the date of which is at least two years after the date of the original election, or the first primary election held in an even-numbered year the date of which is at least two years after the date of the original election.

Where a territory is transferred under this section to a city or exempted village school district, the board of education of such district shall, and where territory is transferred to a county school district the board of education of such county school district shall, within thirty days following receipt of the proposal, either accept or reject the transfer.

Where a county board of education adopts a resolution accepting territory transferred to the county school district under the provisions of sections 3311.231 and 3311.24 of the Revised Code, the county board shall, at the time of the adoption of the resolution accepting the territory, designate the school district to which the accepted territory shall be annexed.

When an entire school district is proposed to be transferred to two or more adjoining school districts and the offer is rejected by any one of the receiving boards of education, none of the territory included in the proposal shall be transferred.

Upon the acceptance of territory by the receiving board or boards of education the county board of education offering the territory shall file with the county auditor of each county affected by the transfer and with the state board of education an accurate map showing the boundaries of the territory transferred.

Upon the making of such transfer, the net indebtedness of the former district from which territory was transferred shall be apportioned between the acquiring school district and the portion of the former school district remaining after the transfer in the ratio which the assessed valuation of the territory transferred to the acquiring school district bears to the assessed valuation of the original school district as of the effective date of the transfer. As used in this section "net indebtedness" means the difference between the par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of the school district and the amount held in the sinking fund and other indebtedness retirement funds for their redemption.

If an entire district is transferred, any indebtedness of the former district incurred as a result of a loan made under section 3317.64 of the Revised Code is hereby canceled and such indebtedness shall not be apportioned among any districts acquiring the territory.

Upon the making of any transfer under this section, the funds of the district from which territory was transferred shall be divided equitably by the county board, between the acquiring district and any part of the original district remaining after the transfer.

If an entire district is transferred the board of education of such district is thereby abolished or if a member of the board of education lives in that part of a school district transferred the member becomes a nonresident of the school district from which the territory was transferred and he ceases to be a member of the board of education of such district.

The legal title of all property of the board of education in the territory transferred shall become vested in the board of education of the school district to which such territory is transferred.

If an entire district is transferred, foundation program moneys accruing to a district receiving school territory under the provisions of this section shall not be less, in any year during the next succeeding three years following the transfer, than the sum of the amounts received by the districts separately in the year in which the transfer was consummated.

1. Desegregation

443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979), Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman. Where it was held in an earlier case that a board of education was intentionally operating a dual school system in 1954, and was thereafter under a continuing duty to eradicate the effects of that system, the board's failure to fulfill its affirmative duty to eliminate the continuing systemwide effects of its prior discrimination can be traced back to the purposefully dual system of the 1950's in holding the board responsible for the current systemwide segregation, and in justifying a systemwide remedy.

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Before the boundaries of separate and autonomous school districts may be set aside by consolidating the separate units for remedial purposes or by imposing a cross-district remedy, it must be first shown that there has been a constitutional violation within one district that produces a significant segregative effect in another district. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. Desegregation, in the sense of dismantling a dual school system, does not require any particular racial balance. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974), Milliken v Bradley. A federal court may not impose a multi-district, areawide remedy for single-district de jure school segregation violations, where there is no finding that the other included school districts have failed to operate unitary school systems or have committed acts that effected segregation within the other districts, and there is no claim or finding that the school district boundary lines were established with the purpose of fostering racial segregation. (See also Milliken v Bradley, 433 US 267, 97 SCt 2749, 53 LEd(2d) 745 (1977).)

402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 28 LEd(2d) 554 (1971), Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed. The constitutional command to desegregate schools does not mean that every school in every community must always reflect the racial composition of the school system as a whole; while the existence of a small number of one-race, or virtually one-race, schools within a district is not in and of itself the mark of system which still practices segregation by law, such schools require close scrutiny by court. (Ed. note: North Carolina law construed in light of federal constitution.)

503 F(2d) 684 (6th Cir Ohio 1974), Brinkman v Gilligan. Brinkman v Gilligan was remanded to the district court for proceedings to formulate a desegregation plan for the Dayton school system consistent with the remedial guidelines outlined in Keyes v School District No. 1, Denver, 413 US 189, 93 SCt 2686, 37 LEd(2d) 548 (1973) and Swann v Charlotte-Mecklenburg Bd of Ed (N Car.), 402 US 1, 91 SCt 1267, 37 LEd(2d) 554 (1971) that all vestiges of state-imposed segregation must be eliminated. In formulating a desegregation plan, the district court will adhere to the guidelines enunciated by the Supreme Court in Milliken v Bradley, 418 US 717, 94 SCt 3112, 41 LEd(2d) 1069 (1974). Once the plaintiffs and appellants have shown that state-imposed segregation existed at the time of Brown v Board of Education, 347 US 483, 74 SCt 686, 98 LEd 873 (1954), (or any point thereafter), school authorities "automatically assume an affirmative duty ... to eliminate from the public schools within their school system all vestiges of state-imposed school segregation." When such a showing has been made, "racially neutral plans which fail to counteract the continuing effects of past school segregation are inadequate" (Keyes). (See also Dayton Bd of Ed v Brinkman, 443 US 526, 99 SCt 2971, 61 LEd(2d) 720 (1979).)

2. Transfer of territory generally

a. Constitutional issues

83 App 61, 72 NE(2d) 921 (1947), Smith v Ray; affirmed by 149 OS 394, 79 NE(2d) 116 (1948). Superintendent of public instruction in approving or modifying plan of territorial organization of local school districts, performs an administrative function; the powers conferred being administrative rather than legislative in character, former GC 4831-11 (Repealed) is constitutional.

b. In general

45 OS(2d) 210, 343 NE(2d) 110 (1976), State ex rel Summit County Bd of Ed v Medina County Bd of Ed. Pursuant to RC 5705.03, only the taxing authority of the taxing subdivision in which property is located on the date of the tax levy is authorized to levy real and personal property taxes thereon for the year.

7 OS(2d) 41, 218 NE(2d) 180 (1966), State ex rel Pioneer Joint Vocational School Dist Bd of Ed v Schumann. Noncontiguous school districts may unite to form a joint vocational school district.

171 OS 80, 167 NE(2d) 766 (1960), State ex rel Smith v Fairfield County Bd of Ed. There is no authority by law by which a county board of education can transfer the territory of a local school district in one county to a local school district in an adjoining county.

160 OS 175, 115 NE(2d) 157 (1953), State ex rel Core v Green. The general assembly has the power to provide for the creation of school districts, for changes and modifications thereof, and for the methods by which changes and modifications may be accomplished, and, where it has provided methods by which changes in school districts may be made, such provisions constitute remedial legislation and ordinarily may be abolished or modified, even with respect to elections already held, without impinging upon any constitutional rights.

149 OS 394, 79 NE(2d) 116 (1948), Smith v Ray. The state superintendent of public instruction exceeds the powers conferred upon him by statute and is chargeable with an abuse of discretion where he substitutes a new and different plan of territorial organization for the one proposed and submitted by a county board.

31 App(2d) 25, 285 NE(2d) 385 (1972), McKinney v Brown. After two school districts have been merged, an elector of one of the districts does not have capacity or standing to challenge previous action by county board of education.

7 App(2d) 116, 219 NE(2d) 50 (1966), Emmert v Hardin County Bd of Ed. Where a county board of education has adopted a resolution proposing a transfer of school district territory, purportedly under RC 3311.231 but, in such adoption, has placed qualifications or conditions upon its operation, and such qualifications or conditions have not been fulfilled, such resolution is void and of no effect and will not support a subsequent resolution purporting to make such transfer or any other subsequent transfer proceedings based thereon, and all such subsequent resolutions or proceedings are likewise void and of no effect.

7 App(2d) 116, 219 NE(2d) 50 (1966), Emmert v Hardin County Bd of Ed. It is not contemplated under RC 3311.231 that a county board of education in its adoption of a resolution proposing the transfer of school district territory may impose qualifications or conditions upon the operation of such resolution.

108 App 246, 161 NE(2d) 404 (1958), Wadsworth v Ottawa County Bd of Ed. An action for a declaratory judgment by an elector on behalf of himself and other electors similarly situated with a common interest in the construction of RC 3311.231 and 3311.261 is proper and authorized to secure a determination of the respective rights thereunder.

64 Abs 371, 108 NE(2d) 387 (CP, Hamilton 1952), Indian Hill Exempted Village School Dist Bd of Ed v Hamilton County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 62 Abs 545, 108 NE(2d) 225 (App, Hamilton 1952). This section authorizes transfers to and from local school districts, as well as to and from city school districts and exempted village school districts.

OAG 68-100. A local school district transferred to an adjoining county school district pursuant to RC 3311.231 may not be transferred as and remain an independent local school district but must be annexed to an existing local, city or exempted village school district.

OAG 68-100. There is no provision in RC 3311.231 for a referendum on the question of the choice of the school district to which such territory shall be annexed.

OAG 66-040. A school district to which another school district is to be transferred pursuant to RC 3311.231 may, subsequent to the election in the district to be transferred, approve said transfer, and prior to the effective date of said transfer, levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation imposed by O Const Art XII §2, and subsequent to the effective date of the transfer, levy said tax against the whole of the new taxing district.

1963 OAG 96. Territory which is the subject of a resolution or petition of transfer under RC 3311.321 does not pass or vest in the acquiring school district for any purpose until the effective date of the transfer.

1963 OAG 96. A county board of education may by resolution propose a prospective transfer of territory under RC 3311.231 where reasonable to an orderly transition from one school district to another.

1962 OAG 3407. The words "area affected" as appearing in the first paragraph of RC 3311.22 and 3311.231 refer to the portion of the school district or districts proposed to be transferred.

1960 OAG 1373. When one school district is transferred to another pursuant to RC 3311.231 the tax levy of the receiving district for school purposes inside the ten-mill limitation would apply to the entire newly consolidated district unless the application of such rate would force an infringement of the ten-mill limitation of O Const Art XII §2, when, if such were the result, the inside tax levy for the newly consolidated school district would be the maximum tax levy which would allow for inside levies of no more than ten mills throughout the entire consolidated school district.

1960 OAG 1303. RC 3311.231 sets forth an exception to the general rule in RC 3317.02 with respect to the maintenance of a ten-mill levy.

1960 OAG 1154. Where an entire local school district is transferred to another local school district, foundation moneys accruing to the receiving district are determined in accordance with RC 3317.02; and such moneys may not be less, in any year during the next succeeding three years following the transfer, than the sum of the amounts actually received by the two districts separately in the year in which the transfer was consummated.

1959 OAG 572. A school district may not be annexed to another district with which it is not contiguous.

1959 OAG 282. RC 3311.231 provides the method by which a local school district may be transferred to an adjoining city school district.

3. Petition

112 App 66, 175 NE(2d) 305 (1959), State ex rel Muter v Mercer County Bd of Ed. RC 3311.22, 3311.231 and 3311.261 are in pari materia and must be construed together; and the provisions of RC 3311.22 and RC 3311.231 relative to the right of a petition signer to withdraw his signature apply with equal force to a petition filed under RC 3311.261.

108 App 246, 161 NE(2d) 404 (1958), Wadsworth v Ottawa County Bd of Ed. In an action for a declaratory judgment, where the defendant county board of education has before it two petitions of electors under each of RC 3311.231 and 3311.261, the petitioners under the latter section would be legally affected and are necessary parties to the action, and failure to make such petitioners parties deprives the court of jurisdiction of the action.

93 Abs 447, 198 NE(2d) 775 (App, Columbiana 1962), State ex rel Johnson v Columbiana County Bd of Ed. Where a petition was filed proposing to transfer a township school district to an adjoining school district two days before a merger between such district and another district became effective, the sufficiency of the petition should be judged on the basis of whether the petition contained sufficient signatures within the district as constituted on the date the petition was filed, and the persons qualified to vote would be the electors residing in the district as merged.

OAG 71-036. Filing of referendum petition pursuant to RC 3301.161 against transfer of local school district suspends not only transfer order made by department of education, pending outcome of vote thereon, but also companion order of dissolution of such district.

OAG 69-088. The signers of the petition provided for in RC 3311.231 need not themselves have voted in the last general election but the number of qualified electors residing in the local school district affected who sign must be not less than fifty-five per cent of those who voted in that school district in the last general election.

OAG 68-074. A petition of transfer circulated pursuant to RC 3311.231 is invalid if it does not bear the affidavit of the circulator or circulators.

OAG 65-1. A referendum petition circulated pursuant to RC 3311.231 is invalid if it does not bear the affidavit of the circulator or circulators as prescribed by RC 3501.38.

1964 OAG 904. A petition for transfer filed by electors pursuant to RC 3311.231 takes precedence over a later resolution filed by a county board of education under authority of RC 3311.26.

1962 OAG 3407. A petition filed under either RC 3311.22 or 3311.231 proposing the transfer of school district territory may contain only signatures of qualified electors of the area proposed to be transferred.

1962 OAG 3336. Where a petition of transfer of part of a school district is filed with the county superintendent of schools, and the petition is signed by one person, the petition is sufficient if the one signature is equal in number to at least fifty-five per cent of the qualified voters voting at the last general election within that portion of the school district proposed to be transferred.

4. School district officers

1961 OAG 2468. A person may not simultaneously serve as executive head of a local school district and as superintendent of the county school district in which the local school district is located.

5. Election on transfer; ballot

17 OS(2d) 63, 245 NE(2d) 730 (1969), State ex rel Erwin v Jackson County School Dist Bd of Ed. Where a petition for the transfer of a portion of the territory in a proposed new school district is filed after the date upon which the resolution proposed to create the new district is adopted by the county board, and where no referendum against such proposed new district is filed within the required time as provided in RC 3311.26, then all the electors of the newly created district are eligible to vote upon the petition for transfer according to RC 3311.231.

177 OS 25, 201 NE(2d) 599 (1964), State ex rel Lavelle v Dailey. Once a petition for transfer of territory to another school district is found sufficient by the board of elections, the board of education has a mandatory duty to certify it to the boards of elections involved.

62 Abs 337, 107 NE(2d) 753 (App, Hamilton 1951), Terrace Park Bd of Ed v Guckenberger. "Local school districts" and "exempted village school districts" are included in this section, and the residents of a part of a village lying within a local school district which includes all of another village may initiate an election to transfer the territory to the school district of the village in which they reside.

OAG 65-1. In a referendum election held pursuant to RC 3311.231 all the resident electors of the district from which territory is proposed to be transferred are eligible to vote.

1963 OAG 17. A school board does not have a choice as to whether a proposed transfer of school territory shall be submitted to the voters at the next primary election or at the next general election after the expiration of the sixty-day waiting period required by RC 3311.231.

1963 OAG 17. A proposed transfer of school territory under authority of RC 3311.231 should not be submitted to the voters at primary election time where a primary election on questions set out in RC 3501.01(E) is not otherwise required to be held.

1962 OAG 3336. Where the state board of education has proposed the creation of a new school district, and before the question is placed on the ballot for consideration by the electors concerned, a proposal is filed with a county superintendent of schools affecting any of the territory affected by the proposal of the state board, the proposal of the state board may not be placed on the ballot while the other proposal is subject to an election.

1959 OAG 694. Although a county board of education may have acted illegally in certifying a proposal for consolidation of school territory to the board of elections, the illegality of such action can only be established by judicial decree, and the board of elections, in the absence of such decree, must submit the proposal as certified.

1959 OAG 694. A proposition for consolidation of school territory initiated by a county board of education and a proposal for transfer of a local school district to an exempted village or city district presented by petition of the electors of such district, cannot both be submitted to the electors at the same election; and if a proposal for consolidation has been certified to the board of elections for submission at the next general election, a subsequently certified proposal cannot be submitted at the same election, and it must be disregarded by the board of elections.

1959 OAG 694. Where a county board of education has proposed to consolidate two or more local school districts, and before such proposition has been certified to the board of elections for submission to the electors, a petition is filed by the electors in one of said districts praying for transfer of its territory to an adjoining exempted village or city district, the proposition of such petition, if found to be in regular order, should be certified to the board of elections and the proposal initiated by the board should be withheld.

1959 OAG 572. Where a county board of education has adopted a resolution proposing to create a new school district by consolidating two or more districts, and before such proposal has been certified to the board of elections for submission to the electors, more than fifty-five per cent of the electors residing in one of such districts file with said board a petition praying to be annexed to an adjoining exempted village district, it is the duty of said county board to certify the proposal of such petition to the board of elections and to disregard the original proposal of the board to create a new district.

3311.26 Creation of new local district

A county board of education may, by resolution adopted by majority vote of its full membership, propose the creation of a new local school district from one or more local school districts or parts thereof, including the creation of a local district with noncontiguous territory from one or more local school districts if one of those districts has entered into an agreement under section 3313.42 of the Revised Code. Such proposal shall include an accurate map showing the territory affected. After the adoption of the resolution, the county board shall file a copy of such proposal with the board of education of each school district whose boundaries would be altered by such proposal.

A county board of education proposing the creation of a new district under this section, shall at its next regular meeting that occurs not earlier than thirty days after the adoption by the county board of the resolution proposing such creation, adopt a resolution making the creation effective prior to the next succeeding first day of July, unless, prior to the expiration of such thirty-day period, qualified electors residing in the area included in such proposed new district, equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election, file a petition of referendum against the creation of the proposed new district.

A petition of referendum filed under this section shall be filed at the office of the county superintendent of schools. The person presenting the petition shall be given a receipt containing thereon the time of day, the date, and the purpose of the petition.

If a petition of referendum is filed, the county board of education shall, at the next regular meeting of the county board, certify the proposal to the board of elections for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the ballot at the next general or primary election which occurs not less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification, or at a special election, the date of which shall be specified in the certification, which date shall not be less than seventy-five days after the date of such certification.

Upon certification of a proposal to the board or boards of elections pursuant to this section, the board or boards of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such question to the electors of the county or counties qualified to vote thereon, and the election shall be conducted and canvassed and the results shall be certified in the same manner as in regular elections for the election of members of a board of education.

The persons qualified to vote upon a proposal are the electors residing in the proposed new districts.

If the proposed district be approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the proposal, the county board shall then create such new district prior to the next succeeding first day of July, and shall so notify the state board of education.

Upon the creation of such district, the indebtedness of each former district becoming in its entirety a part of the new district shall be assumed in full by the new district. Upon the creation of such district, that part of the net indebtedness of each former district becoming only in part a part of the new district shall be assumed by the new district which bears the same ratio to the entire net indebtedness of the former district as the assessed valuation of the part taken by the new district bears to the entire assessed valuation of the former district as fixed on the effective date of transfer. As used in this section, "net indebtedness" means the difference between the par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of the school district and the amount held in the sinking fund and other indebtedness retirement funds for their redemption. Upon the creation of such district, the funds of each former district becoming in its entirety a part of the new district shall be paid over in full to the new district. Upon the creation of such district, the funds of each former district becoming only in part a part of the new district shall be divided equitably by the county board between the new district and that part of the former district not included in the new district as such funds existed on the effective date of the creation of the new district.

The county board of education, shall, following the election, file with the county auditor of each county affected by the creation of a new district an accurate map showing the boundaries of such newly created district.

When a new local school district is so created within a county school district, a board of education for such newly created district shall be appointed by the county board of education. The members of such appointed board of education shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified. A board of education shall be elected for such newly created district at the next general election held in an odd numbered year occurring more than thirty days after the appointment of the board of education of such newly created district. At such election two members shall be elected for a term of two years and three members shall be elected for a term of four years, and, thereafter, their successors shall be elected in the same manner and for the same terms as members of the board of education of a local school district.

The legal title of all property of the board of education in the territory taken shall become vested in the board of education of the newly created school district.

Foundation program moneys accruing to a district created under the provisions of this section or previous section 3311.26 of the Revised Code, shall not be less, in any year during the next succeeding three years following the creation, than the sum of the amounts received by the districts separately in the year in which the creation of the district became effective.

Consolidations of school districts which include all of the schools of a county and which become effective on or after July 1, 1959, shall be governed and included under this section.

155 OS 287, 98 NE(2d) 827 (1951), Iddings v Jefferson County Bd of Ed. Former GC 4831-1 (RC 3311.26) held constitutional.

2. In general

175 OS 114, 191 NE(2d) 723 (1963), State ex rel Hover v Wolven. Duties, as prescribed by statute, of membership on a local school district board of education and on a county board of education in the same county at the same time by one individual are such under the Ohio statutes as to render such dual membership incompatible.

107 App 98, 152 NE(2d) 358 (1957), State ex rel Johnson v Butler County Bd of Ed. The power and the duty of determining whether two local school districts should be consolidated rests with the county board of education and is of a continuing nature, requiring the exercise of the sound discretion of the members of the board, and the fact that such board of education has taken one or more steps toward consolidation does not commit it to a nondiscretionary duty to complete such consolidation.

97 App 507, 127 NE(2d) 623 (1954), Smith v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. Constitutional and statutory requirements and procedures for consolidation of three local school districts into one discussed in detail.

79 App 323, 73 NE(2d) 524 (1946), Heid v Hartline. Provision that a plan of organization adopted by a county board of education "shall" include matters designated in the three following subdivisions of section, is mandatory.

90 Abs 496, 189 NE(2d) 726 (App, Columbiana 1959), Laughlin v Columbiana County Bd of Ed. On the evidence local school district had come into legal existence.

349 US 294, 75 SCt 753, 99 LEd 1083 (1955), Brown v Topeka Bd of Ed. The burden rests upon the board of education to establish that additional time is necessary to carry out the court's ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional, and that such time is consistent with good faith compliance at the earliest practicable date; to that end the courts may consider problems related to administration, the physical condition of the school, the school transportation system, personnel, and the revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving those problems.

228 F(2d) 853, 73 Abs 23 (6th Cir Ohio 1956), Clemons v Hillsboro Bd of Ed. The Hillsboro board of education abused its discretion and violated state and constitutional law in assigning colored children to segregated schools, and such segregation will be enjoined.

1962 OAG 3196. Where a board of education certifies a proposal to the board of elections, the board of elections has the duty to prepare the ballot to be submitted to the electors, and such ballot should be in accord with RC 3505.06. If more than one county is involved, the board of elections of the county containing the most populous portion of the proposed district should prepare and furnish all necessary ballots.

1962 OAG 3196. Where under RC 3311.26 a petition of referendum is filed against the creation of a new district, the county board of education should certify the proposal to the board of elections of each county in which the proposed district is to be located.

1962 OAG 3196. The duty of determining the sufficiency of the form, content and signatures of a petition or referendum filed under RC 3311.26 is invested in the county board of education.

1961 OAG 2120. Where a county board of education has adopted a resolution proposing the creation of a new local school district, the creation of the district is effective at the expiration of the thirtieth day after the adoption of the resolution, unless a petition of referendum has been filed within that period.

1960 OAG 1263. When several school districts are consolidated into one new school district the contracts of teachers employed by the former board of education become the obligations of the new consolidated board of education, and the salary schedule adopted by such consolidated board cannot operate to reduce the salary of any teacher on a continuing contract or of any teacher on a limited contract during its term unless such salary reduction is part of a uniform deduction.

1959 OAG 893. In an election pursuant to RC 3311.26 for the creation of a new local school district, where parts of the school districts involved are located in different counties, a separate certification of the proposal should be made by the county board of education to the board of elections in each county involved, and all electors residing in the area included in the proposed new districts are eligible to vote at such election.

1959 OAG 694. Although a county board of education may have acted illegally in certifying a proposal for consolidation of school territory to the board of elections, the illegality of such action can only be established by judicial decree, and the board of elections, in the absence of such decree, must submit the proposal as certified.

1959 OAG 694. A proposition for consolidation of school territory initiated by a county board of education and a proposal for transfer of a local school district to an exempted village or city district presented by petition of the electors of such district, cannot both be submitted to the electors at the same election; and if a proposal for consolidation has been certified to the board of elections for submission at the next general election, a subsequently certified proposal cannot be submitted at the same election, and it must be disregarded by the board of elections.

1959 OAG 694. Where a county board of education has proposed to consolidate two or more local school districts, and before such proposition has been certified to the board of elections for submission to the electors, a petition is filed by the electors in one of said districts praying for transfer of its territory to an adjoining exempted village or city district, the proposition of such petition, if found to be in regular order, should be certified to the board of elections and the proposal initiated by the board should be withheld.

1959 OAG 671. Where, at an election held in 1955, following the organization of a local school district, two members of a local board of education were elected for a period of two years and three for a period of four years, and no election was held in 1957 to fill the expiring terms of the two-year members, they will hold over until December 31, 1961; and at the election to be held in November 1959 only three members shall be elected for four-year terms to succeed those whose terms expire December 31, 1959.

1959 OAG 572. Where a county board of education has adopted a resolution proposing to create a new school district by consolidating two or more districts, and before such proposal has been certified to the board of elections for submission to the electors, more than fifty-five per cent of the electors residing in one of such districts file with said board a petition praying to be annexed to an adjoining exempted village district, it is the duty of said county board to certify the proposal of such petition to the board of elections and to disregard the original proposal of the board to create a new district.

1958 OAG 1857. The majority vote required to approve a proposal for the creation of a new local school district is a majority in the existing local school district, the boundaries of which are to be altered under the proposal.

1954 OAG 4585. In a reorganization of school districts, the boards of education of neither district has any duty to approve or power to override the vote of the electors provided for in RC 3311.31, and once the electors have approved such reorganization, the provisions of RC 3311.23, 3311.24 and 3311.26 are only to be resorted to for the purposes of: (1) an equitable division of funds and indebtedness of the districts involved, (2) the filing with the county auditor of a map of the territory transferred, and (3) the appointment by the county board of education of a board of education for the newly created district.

1951 OAG 225. Where limited contracts with teachers have been made by boards of education in districts which were thereafter merged, such contracts are binding upon the board of education of such merged district, except that in case it becomes necessary by reason of such merger to reduce the number of teachers, such reduction shall be made in the manner set forth in GC 4842-13 (RC 3319.17). (See also 1950 OAG 2592.)

3. Scope and limitation

170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed. The general assembly, by inserting the phrase "notwithstanding sections 3311.22, 3311.23, and 3311.26 of the Revised Code," in RC 3311.261 clearly indicated its intent that proceedings under such section should take precedence over pending proceedings previously instituted under the other enumerated sections.

167 OS 543, 150 NE(2d) 407 (1958), Marion Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Marion County Bd of Ed. The provisions of RC Ch 3311, relative to the transfer of territory of school districts and the creation of new school districts by a county board of education, limit the right to protest the action of a county board exclusively to qualified electors, and give to local boards no voice in transfer proceedings and no right to protest the transfer of territory.

161 OS 537, 119 NE(2d) 886 (1954), State ex rel Evendale Local School Dist Bd of Ed v Griffin. A writ of mandamus ordering the clerk of a local board of education, pursuant to a resolution passed by the board, to execute a promissory note obligating the local school district in a substantial amount in connection with a building program initiated by such board will not be issued where it appears that the legal existence of such local school district and its board is at least doubtful by reason of a prior resolution passed by the county board of education abolishing such local school district, which resolution of abolishment may or may not be effective depending largely on the final outcome of an action instituted in the court of common pleas challenging its efficacy and validity.

112 App 248, 176 NE(2d) 174 (1959), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960). The adoption of a resolution by a county board of education proposing the creation of a new local school district to include the area of four local school districts does not constitute such an assumption of jurisdiction over the transfer of the territory of one of such four local school districts as to prevent any transfer of such local school district other than that thereby proposed until jurisdiction over the same is exhausted, where the county board of education has not certified any proposal in respect to the creation of such new local school district to the board of elections for submission to the voters.

79 App 323, 73 NE(2d) 524 (1946), Heid v Hartline. Adoption by county board of education of a plan of territorial reorganization of subordinate school districts within county, which plan contains no matter responsive to requirements of this section concerning "pupils affected" is illegal and void and in such a case there can be no waiver thereafter of said requirements; reorganization plan may not subsequently be corrected by superintendent or by county board of education except in same manner provided for adoption of plan.

OAG 68-100. A local school district transferred to an adjoining county school district pursuant to RC 3311.231 may not be transferred as and remain an independent local school district but must be annexed to an existing local, city or exempted village school district.

1964 OAG 904. A petition for transfer filed by electors pursuant to RC 3311.231 takes precedence over a later resolution filed by a county board of education under authority of RC 3311.26.

1958 OAG 1857. A county board of education can divide a local school district into two new districts, provided that each district shall maintain a high school.

1956 OAG 6354. The board of education of a newly created school district has authority to submit the issuance of bonds for any authorized purpose to the electors at the following November election.

1956 OAG 6354. The boards of education of school districts combined into a new local school district are abolished and their powers terminated.

1955 OAG 5811. Where several new local school districts are created by division of a local school district, a school bus contract for the original district is binding on the several districts and the county board of education must consider the contract in dividing funds.

1952 OAG 1693. Where two or more local school districts have been consolidated and the members of the boards of education of such constituent districts have, prior thereto, provided by resolution for their own compensation the amount of such compensation remaining unpaid at the date of such consolidation constitutes an indebtedness of such local district which is assumed by the consolidated district and payment thereof should be provided for by the board of such consolidated district. However, where the members of the boards of education of such constituent districts have failed, prior to the date of such consolidation, to provide by resolution for their own compensation, the board of such consolidated district is without legal authority to make provision therefor.

1949 OAG 1070. When county board of education creates new local school district, old school district ceases to exist.

1949 OAG 1070. Candidates seeking election as members to a board of education of a newly created school district are entitled to have their names placed on the ballot if petitions are filed within the statutory period and are otherwise sufficient in law.

1949 OAG 1070. Nominating petitions filed by candidates seeking election as members to a board of education of a school district which has been abolished are invalid.

1949 OAG 1070. Appointed members to a board of education of a newly created local school district hold office until their successors are elected at the general election and upon qualification of the members elected thereby.

4. Remonstrance

17 OS(2d) 63, 245 NE(2d) 730 (1969), State ex rel Erwin v Jackson County Bd of Ed. Where a petition for the transfer of a portion of the territory in a proposed new school district is filed after the date upon which the resolution proposed to create the new district is adopted by the county board, and where no referendum against such proposed new district is filed within the required time as provided in RC 3311.26, then all the electors of the newly created district are eligible to vote upon the petition for transfer according to RC 3311.231.

17 OS(2d) 63, 245 NE(2d) 730 (1969), State ex rel Erwin v Jackson County Bd of Ed. After the date upon which a proposal for the creation of a new district has been properly adopted by a county board of education, a referendum may be filed pursuant to RC 3311.26 against the proposed new district within thirty days, and all the electors of the proposed new district are eligible to vote upon such referendum.

155 OS 287, 98 NE(2d) 827 (1951), Iddings v Jefferson County Bd of Ed. Where county board of education creates a new local school district, such action of the county board shall not take effect if a majority of the qualified electors residing in the territory included in the newly created district and voting at the last general election shall within thirty days from the time such action is taken file with the county board of education a written remonstrance against such action.

155 OS 287, 98 NE(2d) 827 (1951), Iddings v Jefferson County Bd of Ed. Remonstrance is not effective unless signed by a majority of the qualified electors residing in the territory included in such newly created district who actually voted at the last general election.

154 OS 281, 95 NE(2d) 691 (1950), State ex rel Willis v Large. In quo warranto brought by member of board of education of local district alleging that publication of notice of adoption of a resolution by the county board of education to consolidate certain local school districts set forth an erroneous date of adoption thereby reducing the time for objections thereto, demurrer to the petition will be sustained where petition contained no allegation of fact indicating relator had been prejudiced, that any electors had been deprived of the right to remonstrate, that the offices of members of the board of the consolidated school district had been unlawfully created and that there was a usurpation of such offices.

31 App(2d) 25, 285 NE(2d) 385 (1972), McKinney v Brown. After two school districts have been merged, an elector of one of the districts does not have capacity or standing to challenge previous action by county board of education.

99 App 65, 130 NE(2d) 857 (1955), Stilwell v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. Where written remonstrances are filed with a county board of education against the action proposed by such board's resolution of October 29, 1953, abolishing certain school districts and creating a new district in such territory, RC 3311.26 limits remonstrators to those residents of the territory who voted at the general election held on November 4, 1952, and it is not an abuse of discretion for such county board to disregard or ignore the fact that another general election would intervene during the thirty-day period in which remonstrances might be filed.

99 App 65, 130 NE(2d) 857 (1955), Stilwell v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. It is not unlawful for a county board of education, in determining the number of required remonstrants under RC 3311.26 to disregard deaths and removals of voters subsequent to the last general election.

99 App 65, 130 NE(2d) 857 (1955), Stilwell v Hamilton County Bd of Ed. In order to set aside or nullify a resolution of consolidation, the burden of proof rests upon the party complaining to show that the action of the county board of education was unreasonable and arbitrary, or that it, in some substantial way to the prejudice of the remonstrants, failed to follow the law.

67 Abs 528, 116 NE(2d) 610 (CP, Ashtabula 1953), Kerwin v Ashtabula County Bd of Ed. A resident and qualified elector of a school district has standing to challenge the action of a board of education in rejecting a remonstrance petition.

67 Abs 528, 116 NE(2d) 610 (CP, Ashtabula 1953), Kerwin v Ashtabula County Bd of Ed. It is not a ground for the rejection of a signature to a remonstrance petition that the signer did not read the petition and misunderstood its significance.

67 Abs 528, 116 NE(2d) 610 (CP, Ashtabula 1953), Kerwin v Ashtabula County Bd of Ed. A county board of education in determining the total eligible to sign a remonstrance petition on which the majority should be computed should first ascertain the persons who actually voted in the last general election, then subtract from that list all those persons who, either because of decease or departure, did not live in the territory involved on the thirtieth day; and finally subtract from the list anyone who voted in the last general election but who, on the 30th day, was no longer a qualified elector of the territory involved.

67 Abs 528, 116 NE(2d) 610 (CP, Ashtabula 1953), Kerwin v Ashtabula County Bd of Ed. Limitations upon the right to withdraw signatures from a remonstrance petition are invalid, but cancellation of the withdrawal by petition is valid.

OAG 68-100. There is no provision in RC 3311.231 for a referendum on the question of the choice of the school district to which such territory shall be annexed.

1957 OAG 1212. Where the taxing authority of a school district has initiated a proposal to levy a tax for current operating expenses and where the legal existence of such district is terminated by consolidation of such school district with another to form a new local school district prior to the date of the election at which such proposal is to be submitted to the electors, the submission of such proposal thereafter either to the electors of such constituent district, or of such consolidated district, is not authorized.

1956 OAG 6356. The county board of education has the sole power and discretion to transfer part or all of the territory of a local school district within the county district to an adjoining local school district, and in the absence of proof of fraud or gross abuse by the county board, its discretion in ordering such transfer is limited only by the right of a majority of the electors residing in the territory proposed to be transferred to file a written remonstrance against such transfer; neither the board of education nor the electors in the district to which such transfer is proposed to be made have any right of protest or remonstrance.

1953 OAG 3150. There is no process provided by the law whereby the electors of a local school district or of any portion thereof may require the division of such territory into smaller districts or the erection of a new district out of any portion of the existing district, but a county board of education may create one or more new local school districts from all or parts of an existing local school district unless a majority of the qualified electors residing in the territory included within such newly created district voting at the last general election shall within thirty days from the time such action is taken, file with said board a written remonstrance against such action.

1949 OAG 1211. The deletion of names on a remonstrance by means of a later petition reduces the number of signatures on said remonstrance. Signers to a remonstrance may delete their names by means of signing a later petition before and up to the end of period allowed for filing of the remonstrance.

1949 OAG 1211. A person becoming deceased or having moved from a newly created school district fails to meet the qualifications of an eligible signer.

1949 OAG 1211. In the absence of legislative direction, the board of education may adopt a reasonable method of ascertaining the total number of persons who satisfy all the qualifications as signers.

5. Tax

173 OS 201, 180 NE(2d) 834 (1962), Kellenberger v Ross County Bd of Ed. The additional levy voted outside the tax limitation in one school district is valid as to the combined district, where the district so voting is combined with another district not included in the former district at the time of the vote and which did not vote on such levy and was not a part of the taxing district at the time of such vote.

OAG 66-098. When a new local school district is created pursuant to RC 3311.26, by combining two local school districts, each of which was a participating member of separate joint vocational school districts, the newly created local school district does not automatically become a participating district of either joint vocational school district.

OAG 66-098. When a new local school district is created pursuant to RC 3311.26 there may be spread over the entire district so created the larger of any levies voted and authorized in the districts out of which said new local district was created, to the extent necessary to meet the obligations of the new district for which said levies were authorized, and the bonded indebtedness of the abolished districts, including their share of any indebtedness devolving upon them by reason of their past participation in a joint vocational school district, becomes an obligation of the new school district.

OAG 66-040. A school district to which another school district is to be transferred pursuant to RC 3311.231 may, subsequent to the election in the district to be transferred, approve said transfer, and prior to the effective date of said transfer, levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation imposed by O Const Art XII §2, and subsequent to the effective date of the transfer, levy said tax against the whole of the new taxing district.

OAG 65-111. Upon the consolidation of two local school districts the computation of the maximum limit on the authority to levy taxes of the board of education of the new school district should include all existing tax levies authorized by the electors of the former school districts.

1956 OAG 7420. Tax consequences and distribution of funds resulting from transfer of territory from one school district to another or creation of two districts from former district discussed.

1956 OAG 6356. Where a school district consolidation involves the union of two or more existing districts having in effect special tax levies at varying rates, and a question is involved of applying a uniform levy throughout the consolidated district at a rate higher than that voted in one or more of the constituent districts, such consolidation may more appropriately be effected under RC 3311.26 than under 3311.22.

1956 OAG 6354. Upon the creation of a new school district by the consolidation of two districts each of which had an unexpired voted tax levy in unequal amounts for operating expenses, the board of education of the newly created district is authorized to levy a tax upon the property of the entire new district in an amount not in excess of the higher of such voted levies.

1956 OAG 6354. A new local school district becomes effective and becomes a taxing district on the thirty-first day after the action of the county board, provided no remonstrance has been filed.

1956 OAG 6354. Upon the creation of a new local school district, its board of education must make an annual tax budget for it and there is no authority for making separate budgets for each of the districts from which it was formed.

3311.261 Consolidation of school districts

Notwithstanding sections 3311.22, 3311.23 and 3311.26 of the Revised Code, until January 1, 1959, a county board of education may consolidate a school district having only an elementary school or schools with one or more adjoining local, exempted village, or city school district or districts having a high school, upon receipt of a petition requesting such consolidation signed by qualified electors of the district equal in number to at least fifty-five percent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election residing within such elementary school district. If such petition is signed by qualified electors of the district equal in number to at least seventy-five percent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election residing within such elementary school district the county board of education shall make such transfer. Such transfer shall be subject to the approval of the board or boards of education to which the district is being transferred.

The receiving district board or boards of education shall immediately file with the county auditor of each county affected an accurate map showing the boundaries of the enlarged district.

As of the effective date of such transfer the net indebtedness of the transferred district shall be apportioned between the acquiring school districts, or if all the district is transferred the net indebtedness shall be assumed in full by the acquiring district. If the net indebtedness is apportioned it shall be so done in the ratio which the assessed valuation of the territory transferred to each acquiring school district bears to the assessed valuation of the original school district as of the effective date of the transfer. As used in this section "net indebtedness" means the difference between the par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of the school district and the amount held in the sinking fund and other indebtedness retirement funds for their redemption.

As of the effective date of such transfer, the funds of the transferred district shall be divided equitably by the county board, with the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, between the acquiring districts. If the district be transferred to only one district, the funds shall be transferred to said district.

As of the effective date of the transfer, legal title of all property of the transferred district shall become vested in the board of education of the school district or districts to which such territory is transferred.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed. The phrase, "last general election," as used in RC 3311.261 is an event which may be accurately described without pinpointing the exact date thereof, and, under such section, the insertion of an erroneous date in a petition was mere surplusage which did not invalidate the petition.

170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed. Whether the repeal of a statute is accomplished by the enactment of new legislation incident to the repeal or whether the effectiveness of a statute terminates as a result of an expiration date contained in the act itself, the ultimate result is the same, and proceedings properly commenced under such repealed or expired statute are subject to the saving provisions contained in RC 1.20 and 1.21.

170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed. The general assembly, by inserting the phrase "notwithstanding sections 3311.22, 3311.23, and 3311.26 of the Revised Code," in RC 3311.261 clearly indicated its intent that proceedings under such section should take precedence over pending proceedings previously instituted under the other enumerated sections.

112 App 248, 176 NE(2d) 174 (1959), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960). The words, "last general election," in RC 3311.261 refer to the last general election prior to the receipt by the county board of education of the petition referred to therein.

112 App 248, 176 NE(2d) 174 (1959), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960). In a petition presented to a county superintendent of schools on December 10, 1958, seeking the consolidation of certain school districts and alleging that the signers thereon "represented more than seventy-five percent of the number of votes cast in such district at the last general election November 5, 1957," the words, "at the last general election November 5, 1957," are mere surplusage, where the last general election prior to the filing of such petition was November 4, 1958, and their presence in the allegations of such petition does not make the petition either void or voidable.

112 App 248, 176 NE(2d) 174 (1959), State ex rel Carmean v Hardin County Bd of Ed; affirmed by 170 OS 415, 165 NE(2d) 918 (1960). A petition which requests a consolidation of a local school district with a city school district and is signed by individuals who are, in fact, "qualified electors of the district equal in number to at least seventy-five percent of the qualified electors voting at the last general election residing within such elementary school district" is legally sufficient without any allegations as to the qualifications of the signers.

112 App 66, 175 NE(2d) 305 (1959), State ex rel Muter v Mercer County Bd of Ed. A petition requesting the transfer of territory from a local school district is not legally before the county board of education, where such petition is filed directly with the county board of education and not at the office of the county superintendent of schools as required, and no check of the sufficiency of the signatures thereon is made by the board of elections as required but is made by the board of education; and subsequent acts taken in regard to such petition by the board of education are invalid.

112 App 66, 175 NE(2d) 305 (1959), State ex rel Muter v Mercer County Bd of Ed. RC 3311.22, 3311.231 and 3311.261 are in pari materia and must be construed together; and the provisions of RC 3311.22 and 3311.231 relative to the right of a petition signer to withdraw his signature apply with equal force to a petition filed under RC 3311.261.

108 App 246, 161 NE(2d) 404 (1958), Wadsworth v Ottawa County Bd of Ed. An action for a declaratory judgment by an elector on behalf of himself and other electors similarly situated with a common interest in the construction of RC 3311.231 and 3311.261 is proper and authorized to secure a determination of the respective rights thereunder.

108 App 246, 161 NE(2d) 404 (1958), Wadsworth v Ottawa County Bd of Ed. In an action for a declaratory judgment, where the defendant county board of education has before it two petitions of electors under each of RC 3311.231 and 3311.261, the petitioners under the latter section would be legally affected and are necessary parties to the action, and failure to make such petitioners parties deprives the court of jurisdiction of the action.

1959 OAG 532. Where, pursuant to a proper petition under RC 3311.261, a county school board has transferred territory in accord with such petition, the boards of education of each district receiving such territory must approve such transfer; if such approval by all of the districts so affected was not given before January 1, 1959, the entire proposal must be deemed to have failed.

1959 OAG 532. If a petition for consolidation of a school district is submitted by the voters in a school district having only an elementary school, invoking RC 3311.261, and the signatures obtained represent seventy-five per cent of such electors who voted at the last general election residing within such elementary school district, the county board of education shall transfer such territory as petitioned. A county board having thus acted on or before January 1, 1959, has completed its duty and a rescission by this board, at a special meeting, after January 1, 1959, is an unauthorized act and is without legal effect.

1958 OAG 2343. Where a county board of education divides a school district having only elementary schools, and consolidates such divided portions with two school districts which have high schools, the net indebtedness of the divided district must be apportioned to the acquiring districts in the ratio which the assessed valuation of the territory transferred to each bears to the assessed valuation of the original transferred district as of the effective date of the transfer, and the funds of the transferred district must be divided equitably by the county board, with the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, between the acquiring districts.

3311.50 County school financing districts; city, local, or exempted village school district joining or withdrawing from county school district

(A) As used in this section, "county school financing district" means a taxing district consisting of the following territory:

(1) The territory that constitutes the county school district on the date that the county board of education of that district adopts a resolution under division (B) of this section declaring that the county school district is a county school financing district, exclusive of any territory subsequently withdrawn from the district under division (D) of this section;

(2) Any territory that has been added to the county school financing district under this section.

A county school financing district may include the territory of a city, local, or exempted village school district whose territory also is included in the territory of one or more other county school financing districts.

(B) The board of education of any county school district may, by resolution, declare that the territory of the county school district is a county school financing district. The resolution shall state the purpose for which the county school financing district is created which may be for any one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To levy taxes for the provision of special education by the school districts that are a part of the district, including taxes for permanent improvements for special education;

(2) To levy taxes for the provision of specified educational programs and services by the school districts that are a part of the district, as identified in the resolution creating the district, including the levying of taxes for permanent improvements for those programs and services;

(3) To levy taxes for permanent improvements of school districts that are a part of the district.

The board of education of the county school district that creates a county school financing district shall serve as the taxing authority of the district and may use county school board employees to perform any of the functions necessary in the performance of its duties as a taxing authority. A county school financing district shall not employ any personnel.

With the approval of a majority of the members of the board of education of each school district within the territory of the county school financing district, the taxing authority of the financing district may amend the resolution creating the district to broaden or narrow the purposes for which it was created.

A county board of education may create more than one county school financing district. If a county board of education creates more than one such district, it shall clearly distinguish among the districts it creates by including a designation of each district's purpose in the district's name.

(C) A majority of the members of a board of education of a city, local, or exempted village school district may adopt a resolution requesting that its territory be joined with the territory of any county school financing district. Copies of the resolution shall be filed with the state board of education and the taxing authority of the county school financing district. Within sixty days of its receipt of such a resolution, the county school financing district's taxing authority shall vote on the question of whether to accept the school district's territory as part of the county school financing district. If a majority of the members of the taxing authority vote to accept the territory, the school district's territory shall thereupon become a part of the county school financing district unless the county school financing district has in effect a tax imposed under section 5705.215 of the Revised Code. If the county school financing district has such a tax in effect, the taxing authority shall certify a copy of its resolution accepting the school district's territory to the school district's board of education, which may then adopt a resolution, with the affirmative vote of a majority of its members, proposing the submission to the electors of the question of whether the district's territory shall become a part of the county school financing district and subject to the taxes imposed by the financing district. The resolution shall set forth the date on which the question shall be submitted to the electors, which shall be at a special election held on a date specified in the resolution, which shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of the resolution. A copy of the resolution shall immediately be certified to the board of elections of the proper county, which shall make arrangements for the submission of the proposal to the electors of the school district. The board of the joining district shall publish notice of the election in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for four consecutive weeks. The question appearing on the ballot shall read:

"Shall the territory within _____ (name of the school district proposing to join the county school financing district) _____ be added to _____ (name) _____ county school financing district, and a property tax for the purposes of _____ (here insert purposes) _____ at a rate of taxation not exceeding _____ (here insert the outstanding tax rate) _____ be in effect for _____ (here insert the number of years the tax is to be in effect or "a continuing period of time," as applicable) . . .?"

If the proposal is approved by a majority of the electors voting on it, the joinder shall take effect on the first day of July following the date of the election, and the county board of elections shall notify the county auditor of each county in which the school district joining its territory to the county school financing district is located.

(D) The board of any city, local, or exempted village school district whose territory is part of a county school financing district may withdraw its territory from the county school financing district thirty days after submitting to the county board that is the taxing authority of the district and the state board a resolution proclaiming such withdrawal, adopted by a majority vote of its members, but any county school financing district tax levied in such territory on the effective date of the withdrawal shall remain in effect in such territory until such tax expires or is renewed. No board may adopt a resolution withdrawing from a county school financing district that would take effect during the forty-five days preceding the date of an election at which a levy proposed under section 5705.215 of the Revised Code is to be voted upon.

(E) A city, local, or exempted village school district does not lose its separate identity or legal existence by reason of joining its territory to a county school financing district under this section and a county school district does not lose its separate identity or legal existence by reason of creating a county school financing district that accepts or loses territory under this section.

1. In general

41 OS(2d) 147 (1975), Board of Education v Fulton County Budget Comm. Various statutes in RC Ch 5715 provide the board of tax appeals with a procedure to detect and correct noncompliance by county auditors with the board's uniform valuation rules.

41 OS(2d) 147 (1975), Board of Education v Fulton County Budget Comm. RC 5715.23 requires each county auditor annually to transmit to the board an abstract of the real property of each taxing district in his county.

106 OS 224, 140 NE 183 (1922), State ex rel Maxwell v Wilson. GC 4729, 4731, and 4748 et seq., providing for the organization of school districts, election of members thereof, and vacancies therein, are constitutional.

94 OS 420, 115 NE 37 (1915), Cline v Martin. GC 4729 (RC 3313.01) for election of county boards by presidents of village and rural districts, though a law of a general nature, has a uniform operation because its classification is based on substantial differences.

5 App 380, 116 NE 1087 (1916), Wogoman v Perry Twp Bd of Ed; affirmed by 95 OS 409, 116 NE 1085 (1916). The discretion of the county board, under GC 4728 (RC 3313.01) et seq., to transfer territory cannot be reviewed by the courts in the absence of fraud or gross abuse of discretion.

5 App 90 (1915), Cline v Martin; affirmed by 94 OS 420, 115 NE 37 (1915). Under O Const, Art VI, § 3, as amended in 1912, the legislature has full power to provide for the public school system and GC 4728 (RC 3313.01) et seq. is within the limits of that power.

OAG 71-015. A local school district is not entitled to representation on board of joint vocational school district.

1944 OAG 6703. A transfer of territory from one school district to another may not lawfully be made until it may be done in pursuance of plans for territorial organization of school districts as provided by this and following sections, which became effective September 16, 1943.

1930 OAG 1913. Members of boards of education in village school districts may not lawfully be compensated for their services as such officials.

1930 OAG p 1363. When a board of education, by acquiescence of a majority of the board, conducts its proceedings in a manner other than in strict accord with parliamentary law, it will be considered as having tacitly suspended such rules and its action will be construed as being regular and proper.

1930 OAG p 1363. A board of education may lawfully adopt a motion to rescind its former action without the intervention of a motion to reconsider, if done without objection and by a majority vote of the board, regardless of what the general rules of order adopted by the board or its standing rules may provide with respect thereto.

1926 OAG 3902. The board of education of a rural or village school district is without authority to pay items of traveling expense incurred by the clerk of said board.

1917 OAG p 1898. Although the territory of the newly created village district, together with the territory annexed to it for school purposes, may be the same as that which was originally a rural school district, yet there is a new school district and a new board of education should be elected.

1915 OAG p 1001. Board of education of a county school district has no authority in law to publish the report of the schools of said district for the school year.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a board of education who is a store owner from selling merchandise to the school district with which he serves, unless he is able to meet the exception of RC 2921.42(C).

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(3) prohibits a member of a board of education who is a store owner from profiting from the sale of merchandise when the sale was approved or authorized by him or by the board of education, and where the merchandise was not sold through competitive bidding, or where his was not the lowest and best bid.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(4) prohibits a member of a board of education from knowingly selling goods to a band parent boosters club when the goods will be purchased for the use of the school district with which he serves, unless he is able to meet the exception of RC 2921.42(C).

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 2921.42(A)(1) prohibits a member of a board of education from discussing, deliberating, voting, or otherwise using the authority or influence of his position as a school board member, either formally or informally, to secure the purchase from his store of merchandise by or for the use of the school district with which he serves.

Ethics Op 90-003. RC 102.03(D) prohibits a board of education member from using the authority or influence of his office over school personnel or students in the school district to secure business for his store.

Ethics Op 85-009. An officer and part owner of a private company that sells fund raising services to school principals and school activity groups is not, as such, forbidden by law to serve as a board of education member, but he is forbidden by RC 2921.42 to (1) authorize, vote, or otherwise use his office as a board member to secure approval of a contract with a principal or activity group in the district or (2) have an interest in the profits or benefits of such a contract.

2. Compatible offices

OAG 83-016. If it is physically possible for one person to hold both positions and if the holding of both positions is not prohibited by local law, the position of township trustee and member of a county board of education are compatible.

OAG 71-081. Individual who teaches in vocational school district which comprises more than one county, may file for election to county school board of one of those counties, although he could not be appointed as that county's representative on board of education of joint vocational school district.

1961 OAG 2480. The office of township clerk is not incompatible with the office of member of the board of education for the local school district in which the township is located.

1934 OAG 2155. The offices of mayor of an incorporated village and member of a rural board of education are compatible.

1932 OAG p 221. Since the language of GC 4728 (RC 3313.01) specifically provides that the offices of member of the village board of education and member of the county board of education may be held by the same person, the name of a candidate may appear upon the ballot submitted to the electors at an election for both offices.

1931 OAG 3272. Under GC 4728 (RC 3313.01) a vice-president of a board of education of a rural school district may be appointed as a member of the county board of education and occupy both positions concurrently.

1927 OAG p 881. There is no constitutional or statutory inhibition preventing a member of a county board of education from serving at the same time as a member of the general assembly.

1927 OAG p 16. The office of member of a county board of education may be held by a member of a village board of education.

3. Incompatible offices

OAG 88-011. The positions of member of a board of county commissioners and member of a board of education of a local school district located in whole or in part within the same county are incompatible.

OAG 86-060. The position of member of the board of health of the general health district of a county is incompatible with the position of member of the board of education of a local school district when part of the territory of the local school district and some of the facilities of the local school district are located within the general health district.

OAG 86-004. A judge of a municipal court is prohibited by O Const Art IV §6(b) and RC 1901.11 from holding the position of member of a board of education of a local school district.

OAG 84-003. The positions of teacher's aide in a local school district and member of the county board of education in the same county are imcompatible.

OAG 83-070. The positions of a member of a county board of education and administrator of a local school district within the same county are incompatible.

OAG 75-009. There is a conflict of interest when a member of a board of education becomes a land appraiser for the county auditor with the responsibility of assisting the auditor in determining the taxable value of real property within his own school district.

OAG 71-081. Individual who teaches in vocational school district which comprises more than one county, may file for election to county school board of one of those counties, although he could not be appointed as that county's representative on board of education of joint vocational school district.

OAG 66-060. The position of member of the board of education of a local school district and the position of township trustee of a township within that local school district are incompatible.

1961 OAG 2206. One person may not simultaneously serve as member of a county board of education and as an employee (sanitarian) of the board of health of the general health district of the county.

1960 OAG 1491. One person may not at the same time serve as a member of a county board of education and as a member of a local board of education in the same county.

1933 OAG 2055. A person may not at the same time hold the offices of member of the county board of education, township trustee and mayor of an incorporated village.

4. Election procedures and vacancies

106 OS 224, 140 NE 183 (1922), State ex rel Maxwell v Wilson. There is no vacancy in the office of a member of the board of education, where such member, who has been duly elected, takes the official oath at any time during the first day of the official term and "before entering" upon his official duties.

1959 OAG 671. Where, at an election held in 1955, following the organization of a local school district, two members of a local board of education were elected for a period of two years and three for a period of four years, and no election was held in 1957 to fill the expiring terms of the two-year members, they will hold over until December 31, 1961; and at the election to be held in November 1959 only three members shall be elected for four-year terms to succeed those whose terms expire December 31, 1959.

1934 OAG 2295. Where in an election for members of a rural board of education, the returns certified to the county board of elections by the precinct officials are such as to enable the board to determine which candidates are elected, it is the duty of the said county board of elections to canvass the vote and declare such persons elected, and there is no authority in the said board to withhold such declaration because of claimed irregularities in connection with the election.

1934 OAG 2295. There should be an election in each rural school district on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of Nov. of each odd numbered year, for the election of such a number of members of the board of education of said district as there are members of said board of education whose regular term expires on the first Monday of the following January. At such election no more than the said number can lawfully be elected.

1930 OAG p 1479. Vacancies in a county board of education shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of said board.

1928 OAG 1770. When the entire personnel of a board of education consists of persons who are holding over, after the expiration of the regular statutory period fixed by law, an entire new board consisting of five members should be elected at the regular time for electing township officers. Each member so elected shall be elected for a period of four years.

1928 OAG 1770. When members of a board of education hold over their term of office, their successors should be elected at the first regular time for the election of township officers which occurs during said hold-over period.

1927 OAG p 1354. When a village school district within a county school district becomes an exempted village school district, a member of the county board of education who resides within such village school district becomes a nonresident of the county school district and a vacancy is thereby created on the county board of education.

1927 OAG p 693. Nominations of candidates for member of the board of education in rural school districts shall be made by nominating papers duly signed by not less than twenty-five qualified electors of said rural district for each candidate to be nominated in such rural school district.

1917 OAG p 1898. In a newly created village school district a special election may be held for members of the board of education of such school district.

3313.02 Membership of boards in city school districts

In city school districts containing, according to the last federal census, a population of less than fifty thousand persons, the board of education shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members elected at large by the qualified electors of such district.

In city school districts containing, according to the last federal census, a population of fifty thousand or more, but less than one hundred fifty thousand persons, the board shall consist of not less than two nor more than seven members elected at large and not more than two members elected from subdistricts by the qualified electors of their respective subdistricts.

In city school districts containing, according to the last federal census, a population of one hundred fifty thousand persons or more, the board shall consist of not less than five nor more than seven members elected at large by the qualified electors of such district.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. Constitutional issues
2. In general

1. Constitutional issues

90 OS 243, 107 NE 537 (1914), State ex rel Ach v Evans. The Jung Small School Board Act, GC 4698 to GC 4707 (RC 3313.02), is constitutional. The classification of school districts by population is by a proper standard and reasonable; therefore, it is a general law of uniform operation. The referendum provision for a vote at an election not less than one hundred twenty days distant is reasonable and constitutional (O Const Art VI §3).

2. In general

OAG 90-083. The positions of city school district board of education member and trustee of a township located within such district are incompatible; a member of such board of education impliedly resigns from that position when he subsequently is elected and qualified as a trustee of a township located within such district.

OAG 86-016. One person may not serve simultaneously as superintendent of a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and member of a board of education of a city school district.

OAG 85-099. An individual may serve as county auditor even though his son is a member of a board of education of a city school district within the same county.

OAG 85-006. If a board of education determines that a member of the board has, after accepting his office as a member of the board, accepted a second office whose duties are incompatible with those of a member of the board of education, the board may determine that the member has, in effect, resigned from the board of education, may recognize a vacancy on the board, and may fill the vacancy pursuant to RC 3313.11.

OAG 85-006. The offices of member of the board of education of a local school district and trustee of a township which is located within the school district are incompatible.

OAG 85-006. If an individual simultaneously accepts the office of member of the board of education of a local school district and the office of trustee of a township which is located within the school district, the board of education may request that a prosecuting attorney or the attorney general bring an action in quo warranto under RC 2733.05 to determine the authority of the individual to continue to serve in both offices.

OAG 79-049; overruled by OAG 81-100. A person may serve concurrently as a member of a community board of mental health and mental retardation and as a member of a city board of education.

OAG 75-009. There is a conflict of interest when a member of a board of education becomes a land appraiser for the county auditor with the responsibility of assisting the auditor in determining the taxable value of real property within his own school district.

OAG 74-006. A member of a board of education may also serve as a member of a board of elections if he is not a candidate for an elective office other than those specifically excepted by RC 3501.15.

OAG 69-133. The positions of an assistant prosecuting attorney and a member of a board of education are not compatible and may not be concurrently held by the same individual.

1962 OAG 2746. A member of a board of education of a city school district may at the same time serve as clerk of a city council to which he is elected, provided the charter of the city does not contain a contrary provision in regard to such clerk, and provided it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of such offices.

1934 OAG 2598. Member of a city board of education may at the same time hold the office of mayor of a city, in the absence of a charter provision with respect thereto.

1934 OAG 2289. In the absence of a federal order to the contrary, an assistant United States district attorney may at the same time hold the office of member of a board of education of a city school district if it is physically possible to perform the duties of both positions.

1934 OAG 2289. The director of public welfare of the city of Toledo may at the same time hold the office of member of a board of education of a city school district if it is physically possible to perform the duties of both positions.

1930 OAG p 1338. When the board of education of a city school district having a population of less than 150,000 is composed in part of members elected from subdistricts, the terms of office of said subdistrict members automatically expire upon the attainment, in accordance with the federal census of 1930, of a population of 150,000 persons or more.

1921 OAG p 162. City board of education of seven members elected at large where census shows increase in population of city, status of board not changed.

1920 OAG p 879. In passing from one class or kind of city school district to a different one, when, after the official announcement of the census of the district, it becomes known that a change of status of the district has been produced by a change in population, city boards of education must conform to and apply the law found in GC 4698 (RC 3313.02), GC 4699 (RC 3313.03), GC 4701 (Repealed), and GC 4702 (RC 3313.08).

Ethics Op 85-009. An officer and part owner of a private company that sells fund raising services to school principals and school activity groups is not, as such, forbidden by law to serve as a board of education member, but he is forbidden by RC 2921.42 to (1) authorize, vote, or otherwise use his office as a board member to secure approval of a contract with a principal or activity group in the district or (2) have an interest in the profits or benefits of such a contract.

Ethics Op 74-001. A lawyer who is a member of a city school district board of education is not in violation of RC 102.04 when he represents clients before state administrative agencies.

3313.11 Vacancies in the board

A vacancy in any board of education may be caused by death, nonresidence, resignation, removal from office, failure of a person elected or appointed to qualify within ten days after the organization of the board or of his appointment or election, removal from the district, or absence from meetings of the board for a period of ninety days, if such absence is caused by reasons declared insufficient by a two-thirds vote of the remaining members of the board, which vote must be taken and entered upon the records of the board not less than thirty days after such absence. Any such vacancy shall be filled by the board at its next regular or special meeting, not earlier than ten days after such vacancy occurs. A majority vote of all the remaining members of the board may fill any such vacancy. Immediately after such a vote, the treasurer of the board of education shall give written notice to the board of elections responsible for conducting elections for that school district that a vacancy has been filled, and the name of the person appointed to fill the vacancy. Each person selected by the board or probate court to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the shorter of the following periods: until the completion of the unexpired term, or until the first day of January immediately following the next regular board of education election taking place more than ninety days after a person is selected by the board or probate court to fill the vacancy. At that election, a special election to fill the vacancy shall be held in accordance with laws controlling regular elections for board of education members, except that no such special election shall be held if the unexpired term ends on or before the first day of January immediately following that regular board of education election. The term of a person chosen at a special election under this section shall begin on the first day of January immediately following the election, and he shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term. Whenever the need for a special election under this section becomes known, the board of education shall immediately give written notice of this fact to the board of elections responsible for conducting the regular board of education election for that school district.

The term of a board of education member shall not be lengthened by his resignation and subsequent selection by the board or probate court under this section.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

175 OS 114, 191 NE(2d) 723 (1963), State ex rel Hover v Wolven. Duties, as prescribed by statute, of membership on a local school district board of education and on a county board of education in the same county at the same time by one individual are such under the Ohio statutes as to render such dual membership incompatible.

162 OS 254, 122 NE(2d) 780 (1954), State ex rel Paul v Russell. A county board of education member duly appointed to a vacancy may continue to serve for the unexpired term as a de facto member after the next regular election when doing so under color of authority and no successor is elected or appointed therefor.

134 OS 480, 17 NE(2d) 729 (1938), State ex rel Henry v Triplett. A vacancy in office of member of board of education in rural school district, which results from tie vote at general election under such circumstances that choice cannot be determined by lot due to fact that tie is found to exist by court in election contest (county board of elections having found contestee had more votes than contestor and having declared and certified contestee to have been elected), may be filled by board of education of the district, or, if such board fails to fill the vacancy within thirty days after it occurs, then by county board of education of county to which such district belongs.

134 OS 480, 17 NE(2d) 729 (1938), State ex rel Henry v Triplett. GC 4745 and 4748 (RC 3313.09 and 3313.11), which have been reenacted several times with minor changes in wording but with the intention of leaving both in force, must be harmonized and construed together, and that end can be accomplished only be giving full effect to GC 4748 (RC 3313.11).

126 OS 203, 184 NE 757 (1933), State ex rel Westcott v Ring. Nonresidence is one ground, that a separate and distinct ground is removal from the district, thus apparently indicating the legislative intent to distinguish between nonresidence, as such, and removal from the district, as two entirely separate and different things.

126 OS 203, 184 NE 757 (1933), State ex rel Westcott v Ring. The official acts of a member of a county board of education, duly elected, qualified and acting, are valid, in the absence of fraud or collusion, as the acts of a de facto officer, even though there is pending before a court of proper jurisdiction a proceeding to declare a vacancy in such position, the acts of such member being valid until the determination of such question by the court.

99 OS 32, 121 NE 823 (1918), State ex rel Leighley v Eikenberry. A removal from office of a school director for absence from meetings for ninety days is void if he was present at the October meeting and January meeting and missed those of November and December.

94 App 381, 115 NE(2d) 409 (1953), State ex rel Meyers v Baldwin. A vacancy on a board of education may be filled only by a majority vote of all the remaining members of the board; when the four remaining members of a board of education, the fifth member having resigned, attend a meeting of the board, and two of the members leave the meeting after the transaction of some matters of business, the two members who remain in attendance at the meeting may not fill such vacancy.

10 App 205 (1918), State ex rel Mittendorf v Hensing. The provision, that on resignation of a member of a school board the board shall fill the vacancy "at its next regular or special meeting," is directory, and the vacancy may be filled at the same meeting at which a member resigns, for the board could have adjourned and immediately reconvened in a special meeting.

6 Abs 651 (App, Adams 1928), Foster v State. This section provides the only authority for filling an unexpired term of a school board member by election.

OAG 85-006. If a board of education determines that a member of the board has, after accepting his office as a member of the board, accepted a second office whose duties are incompatible with those of a member of the board of education, the board may determine that the member has, in effect, resigned from the board of education, may recognize a vacancy on the board, and may fill the vacancy pursuant to RC 3313.11.

OAG 77-042. The provisions of 1976 H 1207 are prospective and do not affect vacancies in boards of education that were filled prior to August 31, 1976. Persons appointed prior to August 31, 1976 to boards of education shall fill such vacancies for the unexpired term as provided by RC 3313.11 prior to amendment by 1976 H 1207, eff. 8-31-76.

OAG 70-060. Where member of a school board failed to be re-elected at last general election and thereafter resigned from board, he is eligible and can be elected by school board to fill a vacancy for a two-year unexpired term on the board created by resignation of another member.

OAG 68-113. When the president of a county board of education resigns, the vice president automatically becomes president for the remainder of the term of such office, the board appoints a new member to the board and the board elects one of its members vice president for the remainder of the term of such office.

1963 OAG 103. The office of deputy clerk of the board of elections is compatible with the office of member of the board of education of a local school district, but no person shall serve as a deputy clerk of the board of elections who is a candidate for election to the office of member of a board of education of a local school district.

1963 OAG 24. Where a member of a county board of education submits his unconditional resignation to the board at a meeting thereof, a vacancy on the board exists and the resignation may not thereafter be withdrawn.

1961 OAG 2439. Vacancies occurring in a board of education are to be filled pursuant to RC 3313.11, which operates as a special exception to the general provisions of RC 3.02, which latter section does not apply to the filling of vacancies in boards of education.

1952 OAG 1250. The term "next regular municipal election" designates the odd numbered year next following the creation of a vacancy in any board of education as the time for the election of a person to fill such vacancy and is not limited to vacancies occurring in city boards of education.

1951 OAG 851. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the resignation of a public officer, whether or not accepted, creates a vacancy, at least to the extent of giving jurisdiction to appoint or elect a successor.

1950 OAG 1364. A special election is permitted to be held only when authorized by statute; there are no provisions for the holding of a special election for the offices of member of a board of education and township trustee; such elections under the provisions of GC 4785-4 (RC 3501.02) are to be held in odd numbered years.

1942 OAG 5609. When member of board of education is inducted into armed forces of United States, and by reason thereof, is absent from meetings for period of ninety days, remaining members may, in their discretion, declare by proper action duly taken, that the reasons for such absence are insufficient, and thereby cause a vacancy to exist in such board which may be filled as provided by law.

1932 OAG 4046. Where two persons are to be elected at large to membership on a board of education and one of the two successful candidates dies before he qualifies, neither of the incumbents whose term expires on the first Monday in January after said election has the right to hold over until the next general election at which members of boards of education are elected. In such event, at the commencement of the term in January following said election, a vacancy exists which the board is authorized to fill, by election, at its first regular or special meeting, or as soon thereafter as possible.

1931 OAG 3845. Upon the failure of a person elected as member of a board of education to qualify as required by law, a vacancy is created which the remaining members of the board are required to fill at its next regular or special meeting or as soon thereafter as possible.

1929 OAG p 1914. Where, in an election of members of a village board of education, the returns certified to the board of education by the precinct officials are such as to enable the board to determine which candidates are elected, it is the duty of the board of education to canvass the vote and declare such persons elected, and there is no authority in the board to withhold such declaration because of claimed irregularities in connection with the election.

1929 OAG p 1564. Electors of a village school district are given no authority by law to fill a vacancy in a board of education, but such vacancy must be filled for the unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board.

1929 OAG p 1327. A meeting of a board of education, after its having been duly convened, may be adjourned and continued at another location, upon the affirmative assent of a majority of the members present, and voting, providing a quorum exists.

1929 OAG p 1327. No business can regularly be entered upon by a board of education until a quorum is present; nor can any business be regularly proceeded with when it appears that the members present are reduced below that number.

1929 OAG p 1327. Three members of an exempted village, village or rural board of education constitute a quorum.

1929 OAG p 1327. The permanent removal of a member of a board of education from his school district creates a vacancy in the office. Temporary removal does not. The intention of the member, to be gathered from all the circumstances attendant upon his removal, is the controlling factor in determining whether a removal is temporary or permanent.

1929 OAG p 576. Resignations of members of a board of education take effect from the time of their presentation and need not be formally accepted.

1929 OAG p 576. When a person is elected to fill a vacancy occurring in the membership of a board of education, the person so elected is elected for the unexpired term of the person whose place had become vacant.

1929 OAG p 576. Where all the members of a board of education resign except one, the remaining one member is authorized to fill the vacancies created by the resignation of the other members.

3313.261 Duties of treasurer; notification to board of elections

The treasurer of a county, city, exempted village, or local board of education shall notify the board of elections of all changes in the boundaries of the school district. Such notification shall be made in writing and contain a plat clearly showing all boundary changes and shall be filed not later than ten days after the change of boundaries becomes effective with the board of election [sic] of the county or counties in which the school district is located.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

175 OS 114, 191 NE(2d) 723 (1963), State ex rel Hover v Wolven. Duties, as prescribed by statute, of membership on a local school district board of education and on a county board of education in the same county at the same time by one individual are such under the Ohio statutes as to render such dual membership incompatible.

162 OS 254, 122 NE(2d) 780 (1954), State ex rel Paul v Russell. The probate court is authorized to fill a vacancy on a county board of education existing more than thirty days, even though such thirty-day period occurred prior to the effective date of the statute.

127 OS 81, 186 NE 731 (1933), Rutherford v Port Homer Rural School Dist Bd of Ed. By statute when a county board of education is required to employ teachers for a county children's home, the approval of the superintendent of such home is unnecessary.

109 OS 133, 141 NE 851 (1923), State ex rel Masters v Beamer. The duty to provide school privileges including that of furnishing high school branches within four miles of a child's residence either by transportation or board and lodging under this section is mandatory.

109 OS 133, 141 NE 851 (1923), State ex rel Masters v Beamer. Mandamus lies to compel a county board of education to perform the acts necessary to provide high school branches or to make them accessible to all children of school age within the district, where the district board of education has failed to provide such facilities.

45 App 365, 187 NE 196 (1933), In re Whisner. A member of a board of education cannot be said to have willfully neglected to perform an official duty, within the meaning of GC 10-1 (RC 3.07), because he persistently voted to elect a particular teacher, with the result that the election had to be made by the county board.

19 App 18 (1923), Batavia Village Bd of Ed v Clermont County Bd of Ed. Transfer of funds from village school district to reimburse county board of education for money paid to parent for transportation charges will be enjoined, where the parent did not pursue his proper remedy either by compelling the village board to furnish transportation or having some action taken by the county board to secure transportation.

39 Misc 108, 315 NE(2d) 848 (CP, Cuyahoga 1974), Sorin v Warrensville Heights Bd of Ed. Where, in an inquiry conducted by a board of education with regard to the conduct of the superintendent of schools, a panel of such body investigates, prosecutes, appears as the primary witness, and renders judgment, such procedure denies to such person due process of law.

39 Misc 108, 315 NE(2d) 848 (CP, Cuyahoga 1974), Sorin v Warrensville Heights Bd of Ed. Where, in a proceeding conducted pursuant to 3319.16, a board of education exhibits definite bias and prejudice, and the charges put forth are specious and not in compliance with the statute, the subject of the inquiry may be awarded reasonable attorney fees.

1960 OAG 1845. It is impossible to lay down any comprehensive general rule for the guidance of boards of education in maintaining the schools of the district where there are insufficient funds to pay the cost thereof; each district presents its own problem.

1960 OAG 1845. There is no authority for a board of county commissioners to loan, grant or transfer money from the county general fund to the board of education of a local school district.

1960 OAG 1491. One person may not at the same time serve as a member of a county board of education and as a member of a local board of education in the same county.

1957 OAG 1145. Boards of education other than county boards may expend funds for the purchase and installation of warning systems in schools under their control.

1947 OAG 2039. Where all members of board of education of city school district resign at same time, this section imposes duty on probate court of county in which district is located to fill each of vacancies by appointment for unexpired terms of members resigning; when one or more vacancies occur in board and board fails to fill vacancy within thirty days after it occurs, probate court is required to fill vacancies as promptly as possible, and it is not authorized to act in place of board until the beginning of a new term or terms of persons elected to succeed former encumbents.

1935 OAG 3994. Where a board of education enters into a contract with the driver of a school bus to drive that bus over a certain designated route for the transportation of school children, at a specified salary, and it later becomes necessary, in order to transport children who do not reside upon the original route provided for, to increase the mileage to be covered as provided for in the original contract, the board may lawfully modify the said contract and pay to the said driver an additional sum in consideration of the additional services to be rendered in the carrying out of said contract as so modified.

1932 OAG p 858. Payments made to a de facto officer for services rendered may not be made the subject of a finding for recovery in the absence of fraud, collusion or excess payments for such services.

1931 OAG 3596. Even though there are no public funds immediately available to meet the cost thereof, the members of a board of education are not personally liable for the cost that may accumulate in connection with the operation of the public schools of its district provided they act in good faith and within the law directing the operation of the schools, unless they specifically assume personal responsibility for said expense.

1929 OAG 1335. Where a claim has been held up by litigation in court, which litigation has been dismissed without prejudice, the claim may now be paid in the same manner it might have been paid originally.

1928 OAG 1577. When a vacancy occurs in the board of education of a village or rural school district, said vacancy should be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members, by election for the unexpired term. If said board fails to fill such vacancy for a period of thirty days after the same occurs, it becomes the duty of the county board of education to fill such vacancy.

1927 OAG 1288. The position of principal or superintendent of the schools of a rural or village school district, or teacher in such schools, is incompatible with membership on the county board of education for the county school district to which such rural or village school district belongs.

3318.06 Resolution relative to tax levy in excess of ten-mill limitation; bond issue; submission to electors

After receipt of the conditional approval of the state board of education, the school district board by a majority of all of its members shall, if it desires to proceed with the project, declare all of the following by resolution:

(A) That with a net bonded indebtedness of within five thousand dollars of seven per cent of the total value of all property in the school district as listed and assessed for taxation on the tax duplicate, the district is unable to provide adequate classroom facilities without assistance from the state;

(B) That to qualify for such state assistance it is necessary to levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of paying the cost of the purchase of classroom facilities from the state;

(C) That the question of such tax levy shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at the next general or primary election, if there be a general or primary election not less than seventy-five and not more than ninety-five days after the day of the adoption of such resolution or, if not, at a special election to be held at a time specified in the resolution which shall be not less than seventy-five days after the day of the adoption of the resolution and which shall be in accordance with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code.

Such resolution shall also state, if such be the case, that the question of issuing bonds of the board shall be combined in a single proposal with the question of such tax levy. More than one election under this section may be held in any one calendar year. Such resolution shall specify that the rate which it is necessary to levy shall be at the rate of one-half mill for each one dollar of valuation except that in those years in which the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation is less than three and one-half mills, the rate shall be increased to that rate which is the difference between four mills and the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation, and that such tax shall be levied until the purchase price is paid but in no case longer than twenty-three years. A copy of such resolution shall after its passage and not less than seventy-five days prior to the date set therein for the election be certified to the county board of elections.

If the question of issuing bonds of the board is to be combined with the question of levying a tax for the purchase of classroom facilities from the state, the resolution of the school district board, in addition to meeting other applicable requirements of section 133.18 of the Revised Code, shall state that the amount of bonds to be issued will be whatever amount may be necessary to raise the net bonded indebtedness of the school district to within five thousand dollars of seven per cent of the total tax valuation of the school district for the year in which such resolution is adopted and state that the maximum maturity of the bonds which, notwithstanding section 133.20 of the Revised Code, may be any number of years not exceeding twenty-three as determined by the board. In estimating the amount of bonds to be issued, the board shall take into consideration the amount of moneys then in the bond retirement fund and the amount of moneys to be collected for and disbursed from the bond retirement fund during the remainder of the year in which the resolution of necessity is adopted.

Notice of the election shall include the fact that the tax levy shall be at the rate of one-half mill for each one dollar of valuation except that in those years in which the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation is less than three and one-half mills, the rate shall be increased to that rate which is the difference between four mills and the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation, and that the levy shall be made until the purchase price is paid but in no case longer than twenty-three years.

The form of the ballot to be used at such election shall be:

"A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

"Shall bonds be issued by the Board of Education of the _____ (here insert name of school district) for the purpose of _____ (here insert purpose of bond issue) in an amount sufficient to raise the net indebtedness of the school district to within five thousand dollars of seven per cent of the total value of all property in the school district as listed and assessed for taxation on the tax duplicate for the year _____ (here insert year in which the resolution declaring the necessity of the election was adopted) and a levy of taxes be made outside of the ten-mill limitation for a maximum period of _____ (here insert longest maturity) years to pay the principal and interest of such bonds, the amount of such bonds being estimated to be _____ (here insert estimated amount of bond issue) for which the levy of taxes is estimated by the county auditor to average _____ (here insert number of mills) mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ (here insert rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation?"

and

"Shall an additional levy of taxes be made for the benefit of the _____ (name of school district) for the purpose of paying the cost of the purchase of classroom facilities from the state at the rate of one-half mill for each one dollar of valuation except that in those years in which the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation is less than three and one-half mills, the rate shall be increased to that rate which is the difference between four mills and the tax rate for debt service outside the ten-mill limitation, until the purchase price is paid but in no case longer than twenty-three years?

	FOR THE BOND ISSUE AND TAX LEVY AGAINST THE BOND ISSUE AND TAX LEVY

Where it is not necessary to include the question of issuing bonds of the school district board with the question of levying a tax for the purchase of classroom facilities from the state, the first paragraph of the foregoing ballot form shall be omitted and the question to be voted on shall be "For the Tax Levy" and "Against the Tax Levy."

If a majority of those voting upon a proposition hereunder which includes the question of issuing bonds vote in favor thereof, and if the agreement provided for by section 3318.08 of the Revised Code has been entered into, the school district board may proceed under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, with the issuance of bonds or bond anticipation notes in accordance with the terms of the agreement.

3354.12 Levies for capital and operating expenses; sources of funds

(A) Upon the request by resolution approved by the board of trustees of a community college district, and upon certification to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days prior to the election, the boards of elections of the county or counties comprising such district shall place upon the ballot in their respective counties the question of levying a tax on all the taxable property in the community college district outside the ten-mill limitation, for a specified period of years or for a continuing period of time, to provide funds for any one or more of the following purposes: the acquisition of sites, the erection, furnishing, and equipment of buildings, the acquisition, construction, or improvement of any property which the board of trustees of a community college district is authorized to acquire, construct, or improve and which has an estimated life of usefulness of five years or more as certified by the fiscal officer, and the payment of operating costs. Not more than two special elections shall be held in any one calendar year. Levies for a continuing period of time adopted under this section may be reduced in accordance with section 5705.261 of the Revised Code.

If such proposal is to be or include the renewal of an existing levy at the expiration thereof, the ballot for such election shall state whether it is a renewal of a tax; a renewal of a stated number of mills and an increase of a stated number of mills, or a renewal of a part of an existing levy with a reduction of a stated number of mills; the year of the tax duplicate on which such renewal will first be made; and if earlier, the year of the tax duplicate on which such additional levy will first be made, which may include the tax duplicate for the current year unless the election is to be held after the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the current tax year. The ballot shall also state the period of years for such levy or that it is for a continuing period of time. If a levy for a continuing period of time provides for but is not limited to current expenses, the resolution of the board of trustees providing for the election on such levy shall apportion the annual rate of the levy between current expenses and the other purpose or purposes. Such apportionment need not be the same for each year of the levy, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied each year for current expenses and the other purpose or purposes shall be limited by such apportionment. The portion of the rate apportioned to the other purpose or purposes shall be reduced as provided in division (B) of this section.

If a majority of the electors in such district voting on such question approve thereof, the county auditor or auditors of the county or counties comprising such district shall annually, for the applicable years, place such levy on the tax duplicate in such district, in an amount determined by the board of trustees, but not to exceed the amount set forth in the proposition approved by the electors.

The boards of trustees of a community college district shall establish a special fund for all revenue derived from any tax levied pursuant to this section.

The boards of elections of the county or counties comprising the district shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each such county, an advertisement of the proposed tax levy question, once each week for three weeks immediately preceding the election at which the question is to appear on the ballot.

After the approval of such levy by vote the board of trustees of a community college district may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and from time to time issue anticipation notes having such maturity or maturities that the aggregate principal amount of all such notes maturing in any calendar year shall not exceed seventy-five per cent of the anticipated proceeds from such levy for such year, and that no note shall mature later than the thirty-first day of December of the tenth calendar year following the calendar year in which such note is issued. Each issue of notes shall be sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code.

The amount of bonds or anticipatory notes authorized pursuant to Chapter 3354. of the Revised Code, may include sums to repay moneys previously borrowed, advanced, or granted and expended for the purposes of such bond or anticipatory note issues, whether such moneys were advanced from the available funds of the community college district or by other persons, and the community college district may restore and repay to such funds or persons from the proceeds of such issues the moneys so borrowed, advanced or granted.

All operating costs of such community college may be paid out of any gift or grant from the state, pursuant to division (K) of section 3354.09 of the Revised Code; out of student fees and tuition collected pursuant to division (G) of section 3354.09 of the Revised Code; or out of unencumbered funds from any other source of the community college income not prohibited by law.

(B) Prior to the application of section 319.301 of the Revised Code, the rate of a levy that is limited to, or to the extent that it is apportioned to, purposes other than current expenses shall be reduced in the same proportion in which the district's total valuation increases during the life of the levy because of additions to such valuation that have resulted from improvements added to the tax list and duplicate.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 78-052. Employees of state community college districts created pursuant to RC Ch 3358 are employees in the service of the state for the purposes of RC Ch 124, regardless of whether such employees were in the service of a general and technical college prior to the November 4, 1977, effective date of 1977 S 229.

OAG 76-032. The proceeds of a tax levy, adopted by a community college district pursuant to RC 3354.12 for the payment of operating costs, may be used to support a sabbatical leave program.

OAG 76-032. When a tax levy is submitted to the voters pursuant to RC 3354.12 the ballot shall state the statutory purpose of the proposal, but need not state the specific anticipated use of the proceeds of the levy.

OAG 66-136. A university branch district created pursuant to RC Ch 3355 has no statutory authority to anticipate the proceeds of a levy approved in accordance with RC 3355.09, and therefore may not issue notes in anticipation of such proceeds, nor use the proceeds from such levy to repay loans either upon notes or notes and mortgages on district property since such use of these proceeds is not one of the purposes for such levy as specified in RC 3355.09.

1964 OAG 1305. The office of county treasurer is incompatible with the office of treasurer of a community college district created by and operating under RC Ch 3354, and the two positions may not be held by the same person at the same time.

3375.03 Referendum on proposed territory transfer

Unless the transfer of certain library territory pursuant to division (G) of section 3375.01 of the Revised Code has been agreed to by the affected boards of library trustees, a referendum petition against the transfer of the territory to another library district, signed by qualified electors of the territory to be transferred and equal in number to at least ten per cent of such electors who voted in the last gubernatorial election may be filed with the library board of the territory's current library district within sixty days after certified copies of the boundary change order have been filed in final form with the secretary of state, and the order shall not become effective until after the outcome of the referendum procedure prescribed in this section.

Each part of a petition filed pursuant to this section shall contain a full and correct title of the petition, a brief summary of its purpose, and a statement by the person soliciting signatures for the petition, made under penalty of election falsification, certifying that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, each signature contained in the petition is that of the person whose name it purports to be, that each such person is an elector residing in the territory subject to transfer entitled to sign the petition, and that each such person signed the petition with knowledge of its contents. The petition may contain additional information that shall fairly and accurately present the question to prospective petition signers.

The form of a petition calling for a referendum and the statement of the circulator shall be substantially as follows:

"PETITION FOR REFERENDUM ON LIBRARY DISTRICT TRANSFER

A petition against the transfer of territory currently located in the _____ library district and proposed for transfer by the state library board to the _____ library district.

THE PENALTY FOR ELECTION FALSIFICATION IS IMPRISONMENT FOR NOT MORE THAN SIX MONTHS, A FINE OF NOT MORE THAN ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, OR BOTH."

The person presenting a referendum petition under this section shall be given a receipt containing the time of day and the date on which the petition is filed with the library board and noting the purpose of and the number of signatures on the petition. The secretary of the library board shall cause the board of elections of the county or counties in which the territory to be transferred is located to check the sufficiency of signatures on such petition, and if these are found to be sufficient, he shall present the petition to the library board at a meeting of the board, which shall occur not later than thirty days following the filing of the petition with the board. The board shall promptly certify the question to the board of elections of the county or counties in which the territory to be transferred is located for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the ballot within such territory at the next general or primary election occurring not less than sixty days after the certification.

The form of the ballot to be used at the election on the question of the transfer shall be as follows:

"Shall the territory _____ (here insert its boundaries) which is currently within the _____ (here insert the name of the current library district) library district be transferred to the _____ (here insert the name of the library district to which the territory is proposed to be transferred) library district?

_____ For the transfer _____ Against the transfer"

The persons qualified to vote on the question are the electors residing in the territory proposed to be transferred. The costs of an election held under this section shall be paid by the board of library trustees of the current library district of the territory to be transferred. The board of elections shall certify the result of the election to the state library board and to the library boards of the affected library district.

If a majority of electors voting on the question vote in favor of the transfer, the transfer shall take effect on the date of the certification of the election to the state library board. If a majority of the voters voting on the question do not vote for the transfer, the transfer shall not take place.

HEALTH DISTRICTS

3709.29 Special levy for general health district

If the estimated amount of money necessary to meet the expenses of a general health district program will not be forthcoming to the board of health of such district out of the district health fund because the taxes within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient, the board of health shall certify the fact of such insufficiency to the board of county commissioners of the county in which such district is located. Such board of county commissioners is hereby ordained to be a special taxing authority for the purposes of this section only, and, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the board of county commissioners of any county in which a general health district is located is the taxing authority for such special levy outside the ten-mill limitation. The board of county commissioners shall thereupon, in the year preceding that in which such health program will be effective, by vote of two-thirds of all the members of that body, declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the necessary requirements of such district within the county, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation in order to provide the board of health with sufficient funds to carry out such health program. Such resolution shall be filed with the board of elections not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of election.

Such resolution shall specify the amount of increase in rate which it is necessary to levy and the number of years during which such increase shall be in effect, which shall not be for a longer period than ten years.

The resolution shall conform to section 5705.191 of the Revised Code and be certified and submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, provided that the proposal shall be placed on the ballot at the next primary or general election occurring more than seventy-five days after the resolution is filed with the board of elections.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 86-022. For purposes of calculating the compensation to be paid to a township trustee under RC 505.24 or to a township clerk under RC 507.09, proceeds derived from a special levy for a general health district adopted under RC 3709.29 are not included as part of the budget or total expenditures of the township.

OAG 74-032. The expense of moving the offices of a general health district from the courthouse to other quarters should be paid by the board of county commissioners out of the county general fund, and if there is no money available in that fund, the board of health of the general health district may, with the approval of the county budget commission under RC 3709.28, transfer funds from other items to meet the expense.

OAG 68-063. When a county budget commission has properly fixed the aggregate appropriation of a general health district pursuant to RC 3709.28 and a special health levy, authorized by RC 3709.29, has been approved by the voters, the county budget commission may not reduce the aggregate appropriation previously fixed by such commission.

1961 OAG 2545. Where the secretary of state has proclaimed the population of a municipal corporation, which had been classed as a village, to be five thousand or more, said municipal corporation is a part of the general health district of the county until the officers of the municipal corporation have been elected and qualified as city officers; where such a proclamation has been made but no election of city officers has been held, the electors of the municipal corporation should vote at the general election on the question of a levy for health purposes to meet expenses of the general health district, even though thirty days has elapsed since the issuance of the proclamation.

1958 OAG 2294. If the estimated expenses of a general health district are in excess of revenue available within the ten-mill limitation, a special levy may be made pursuant to the provisions of RC 3709.29, but such special levy would have no application to taxable real property situated in a city receiving public health service from the general health district by contract, and such special levy should be submitted to the electors of the general health district only, which district would not include cities furnished public health service on such contract basis.

1953 OAG 2569. The provision of this section for a special voted tax levy is for the purpose only of providing for a deficiency in the revenues of a general health district when the regular levy within the ten-mill tax limitation will not supply such district with sufficient funds for its operation, and such special levy is limited to an amount necessary to supply such insufficiency. The trustees of a general health district have no authority to surrender the funds available to it within the ten-mill limitation, and seek to obtain a special voted levy covering their entire operating budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

1952 OAG 1730. The offices of member of a board of health of a general health district and member of a county board of elections are not incompatible.

HORSE RACING PERMITS

3769.04 Application for permit

Any person, association, corporation, or trust desiring to hold or conduct a horse-racing meeting, wherein the parimutuel system of wagering is allowed, shall make application to the state racing commission for a permit to do so. Each such application, accompanied by a permit fee of ten dollars and a cash bond, certified check, or bank draft, shall be filed with the commission at least five days prior to the first day of each horse-racing meeting which such person, association, corporation, or trust proposes to hold or conduct. Such application, if made by an individual, shall be signed and verified under oath by such individual, and if made by individuals or a partnership shall be signed and verified under oath by one of such individuals or a member of such partnership. If made by an association, trust, or corporation, such application shall be signed by the president or vice-president thereof and attested by the secretary or assistant secretary under the seal of such association, trust, or corporation, if it has a seal, and shall also be verified under oath by one of the officers signing the same. The commission shall prescribe forms to be used in making such application. Such application shall specify the name of the person, association, trust, or corporation making such application, the post-office address of the applicant (if a corporation, the name of the state of its incorporation), the dates on which the applicant intends to conduct or hold such horse-racing meeting, which dates shall be successive days, including Sundays unless otherwise requested by the applicant and authorized by the commission, the hours of each racing day during which the applicant intends to hold or conduct horse racing at such meeting which shall be during the hours specified pursuant to section 3769.07 of the Revised Code, and the location of the place, track, or enclosure where it is proposed to hold or conduct such horse-racing meeting and such further information as the commission prescribes.

If the application requests a permit for a horse-racing meet at a location at which such a meet has not previously been conducted by permission of the commission, then, in addition to the other requirements for said application, there shall accompany the application a petition signed by at least fifty-one per cent of the qualified electors voting for governor at the next preceding general election in the townships in which the racing meet is proposed to be conducted, together with a certificate of the board of elections of the counties in which such townships are situated that the signatures on the petition are valid and comply with this section. No petition or certificate shall be required for a transfer made under section 3769.13 of the Revised Code if the transfer is to a county in which racing has previously been conducted pursuant to a permit issued under section 3769.06 of the Revised Code.

Such petition shall be in the following form:

"We, the undersigned, electors of _____ township, _____ county, Ohio request the granting of the application of _____ for a horse-racing meet to be conducted in whole or in part in _____ township, _____ county, Ohio in the year 19___"

Name	Address	Voting Precinct	Township

Such petition shall be sworn to in the manner provided in section 3513.27 of the Revised Code. This section does not apply to small horse-racing meets or horse shows which are not required to secure permits under section 3769.01 of the Revised Code, nor shall this section, other than the first paragraph, apply to county fair horse-racing meets.

LIQUOR CONTROL LAW

4301.01 Definitions

(A) As used in the Revised Code:

(1) "Intoxicating liquor" and "liquor" include all liquids and compounds, other than beer as defined in division (B)(2) of this section, containing one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by volume which are fit to use for beverage purposes, from whatever source and by whatever process produced, by whatever name called, and whether the same are medicated, proprietary, or patented. Such phrase includes wine, as defined in division (B)(3) of this section even if it contains less than four per cent of alcohol by volume, mixed beverages, as defined in division (B)(4) of this section even if they contain less than four per cent of alcohol by volume, alcohol, and all solids and confections which contain any alcohol.

(2) Except as used in sections 4301.01 to 4301.20, 4301.22 to 4301.52, 4301.56, 4301.70, 4301.72, and 4303.01 to 4303.36 of the Revised Code, "sale" and "sell" include exchange, barter, gift, offer for sale, sale, distribution and delivery of any kind, and the transfer of title or possession of beer and intoxicating liquor either by constructive or actual delivery by any means or devices whatever, including the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor by means of a controlled access alcohol and beverage cabinet pursuant to section 4301.21 of the Revised Code. Such terms do not include the mere solicitation of orders for beer or intoxicating liquor from the holders of permits issued by the department of liquor control authorizing the sale of the same, but no solicitor shall solicit any such orders until he has been registered with the department pursuant to section 4303.25 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Vehicle" includes all means of transportation by land, by water, or by air, and everything made use of in any way for such transportation.

(B) As used in sections 4301.01 to 4301.74 of the Revised Code:

(1) "Alcohol" means ethyl alcohol, whether rectified or diluted with water or not, whatever its origin may be, and includes synthetic ethyl alcohol. Such term excludes denatured alcohol and wood alcohol.

(2) "Beer," "malt liquor," or "malt beverages" includes all brewed or fermented malt products containing one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by volume but not more than six per cent of alcohol by weight.

(3) "Wine" includes all liquids fit to use for beverage purposes containing not less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume and not more than twenty-one per cent of alcohol by volume, which is made from the fermented juices of grapes, fruits, or other agricultural products.

(4) "Mixed beverages" such as bottled and prepared cordials, cocktails, and highballs are products obtained by mixing any type of whiskey, neutral spirits, brandy, gin, or other distilled spirits with, or over, carbonated or plain water, pure juices from flowers and plants, and other flavoring materials. The completed product shall contain not less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume and not more than twenty-one per cent of alcohol by volume.

(5) "Spirituous liquor" includes all intoxicating liquors containing more than twenty-one per cent of alcohol by volume.

(6) "Sealed container" means any container having a capacity of not more than one hundred twenty-eight fluid ounces, the opening of which is closed to prevent the entrance of air.

(7) "Person" includes firms and corporations.

(8) "Manufacture" includes all processes by which beer or intoxicating liquor is produced, whether by distillation, rectifying, fortifying, blending, fermentation, brewing, or in any other manner.

(9) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing beer or intoxicating liquor.

(10) "Wholesale distributor" and "distributor" means a person engaged in the business of selling to retail dealers for purposes of resale.

(11) "Hotel" has the meaning set forth in section 3731.01 of the Revised Code, subject to the exceptions mentioned in section 3731.03 of the Revised Code.

(12) "Restaurant" means a place located in a permanent building provided with space and accommodations wherein, in consideration of the payment of money, hot meals are habitually prepared, sold, and served at noon and evening, as the principal business of the place. Such meaning excludes drugstores, confectionery stores, lunch stands, night clubs, and filling stations.

(13) "Club" means a corporation or association of individuals organized in good faith for social, recreational, benevolent, charitable, fraternal, political, patriotic, or athletic purposes, which is the owner, lessor, or occupant of a permanent building or part thereof operated solely for such purposes, membership in which entails the prepayment of regular dues, and includes the place so operated.

(14) "Night club" means a place operated for profit, where food is served for consumption on the premises and one or more forms of amusement are provided or permitted for a consideration which may be in the form of a cover charge or may be included in the price of the food and beverages, or both, purchased by the patrons thereof.

(15) "At retail" means for use or consumption by the purchaser and not for resale.

(16) "Drugstore" means an establishment as defined in section 4729.27 of the Revised Code which is under the management or control of a legally registered pharmacist.

(17) "Enclosed shopping center" means a group of retail sales and service business establishments that face into an enclosed mall, share common ingress, egress, and parking facilities, and are situated on a tract of land that contains an area of not less than five hundred thousand square feet.

(18) "Controlled access alcohol and beverage cabinet" means a closed container, either refrigerated, in whole or in part, or nonrefrigerated, access to the interior of which is restricted by means of a device which requires the use of a key, magnetic card, or similar device and from which beer, intoxicating liquor, other beverages, or food may be sold.

(19) "Residence district" means two or more contiguous election precincts located within the same county and also located within the same municipal corporation or within the unincorporated area of the same township, as described by a petition authorized by section 4301.33, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

(20) "Convention center" means any convention, sports, or entertainment facility, or any combination of these, with a seating capacity of five thousand or more that is used by and accessible to the general public.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1991 H 200, § 7, eff. 7-8-91, reads: The amendments to division (B)(19) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code that were made by Am. Sub. H.B. 405 of the 118th General Assembly shall apply to any local option petition that is filed with a county board of elections on or after April 11, 1991, and to any local option petition that was filed with a county board of elections prior to that date and that had not been certified by the board, by that date, as being valid.

1986 H 428, § 27, eff. 12-23-86, reads, in part:

(B) The reenactment of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code, in addition to affirming the current text of such section, also does both of the following:

(1) Updates references, in division (A)(1) of such section, to the minimum percentage of alcohol in wine and mixed beverages, in order to bring such references into conformity with the minimum percentages of alcohol as prescribed in the definitions of "wine" and "mixed beverages" in such section;

(2) Inserts references to the manufacturing of beer into the definitions of "manufacture" and "manufacturer" in divisions (B)(8) and (9) of such section, in order to bring such definitions into conformity with the sections of the Liquor Control Law that contemplate the manufacturing of beer.

18 WRU Law Rev 414 (January 1967). The Rights and Remedies of Financing Creditors in Liquor Licenses, Philip Shuchman.

148 OS 188, 74 NE(2d) 82 (1947), State ex rel Williams v Glander. Whether the Liquor Control Act, creating the department of liquor control enacted pursuant to a proclamation of the governor, prescribed a wise plan is not for courts to decide; so long as an act of the general assembly is constitutional, a question of policy is solely for the legislative branch of our state government to determine; such act does provide the general assembly's plan for lawful taxation, regulation and control of liquor traffic. (See also Frankenstein v Leonard, 134 OS 251, 16 NE(2d) 424 (1938).)

134 OS 251, 16 NE(2d) 424 (1938), Frankenstein v Leonard. A statute which prohibits or limits the importation of intoxicating liquors or which levies a license fee or tax in excess of that imposed upon liquors manufactured in Ohio does not violate the Equal Protection Clause of the federal constitution or O Const Art I §2.

132 OS 308, 7 NE(2d) 652 (1937), State ex rel Superior Distributing Co v Davis. The Ohio Liquor Control Act is intended to regulate and control the traffic in beer and other intoxicating beverages and, to effectuate that purpose, it excludes from engaging in such traffic all persons except those to whom licenses are issued by the department of liquor control under the authority conferred by the law.

132 OS 308, 7 NE(2d) 652 (1937), State ex rel Superior Distributing Co v Davis. The state may either entirely prohibit importations of intoxicating liquors, or it may discourage or limit such importation by laying a heavy impost.

129 OS 185, 194 NE 372 (1935), State ex rel Wetterstroem v Liquor Control Dept. The Liquor Control Act, GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq., is a special, all-inclusive act controlling traffic in intoxicating liquors and was adopted at a period later than the pure food and drug law; insofar as they are incompatible the Liquor Control Act provisions govern.

3 App(2d) 339, 210 NE(2d) 726 (1964), City Club of Toledo, Inc v Liquor Control Bd. A profit derived from the operation of the business of a social club by its manager does not necessarily detract from or nullify the purposes for which such club was incorporated, so long as it continues to be an aggregation of individuals who engage in social activities.

OAG 77-005. No one may bring into Ohio for personal use, resale or gift any "malt beverage" or "malt liquor" as defined in RC 4301.01(B)(3) if such person does not possess a permit pursuant to RC Ch 4303 or have written consent of the department of liquor control pursuant to liquor control commission regulation OAC 4301:1-1-23.

2. Powers of liquor control department

142 OS 179, 50 NE(2d) 992 (1943), State ex rel Fisher v Ferguson. Broad powers are conferred upon department of liquor control by Liquor Control Act, GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq., for expressed purpose of enabling such department to establish and maintain state monopoly of distribution and sale of spirituous liquor in packages or containers.

OAG 77-005. Any person may transport "malt beverage" or "malt liquor" as defined in RC 4301.01(B)(3) through Ohio to a final destination outside Ohio; however the state of Ohio may impose restrictions on such transportation.

1953 OAG 2422. The board of liquor control may determine the date, time and place of each adjudication hearing required under the provisions of either the Administrative Procedure Act or the Liquor Control Act.

1935 OAG 4045. The enforcement of the Liquor Control Act and the laws of this state relating to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor is not limited to the persons deputized by the department of liquor control for such purpose. Any sheriff, marshal, police officer or peace officer has the power and authority to arrest persons for such violations.

3. Sunday sales

135 OS 65, 19 NE(2d) 279 (1939), Akron v Scalera. A municipal ordinance prohibiting sale of beer on Sunday is a valid local police regulation not in conflict with Liquor Control Act, GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq.

92 App 169, 109 NE(2d) 531 (1951), Kaufman v Paulding. A municipal corporation does not have the power to adopt a regulation prohibiting the sale of beer on Sunday, where such a regulation conflicts with a regulation of the liquor control board, but it may prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor on Sunday.

79 Abs 193, 155 NE(2d) 525 (CP, Franklin 1957), Klingbeil v Liquor Control Bd; affirmed by 79 Abs 194, 155 NE(2d) 527 (App, Franklin 1957). A permit holder is not allowed to serve intoxicating liquor on Sunday even if it is diluted to a point where it tests under 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight.

4. Definitions

62 OS(3d) 145 (1991), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A bill addressing matters pertaining to the judicial system, i.e., creation and expansion of courts, violates the "one-subject rule" where the bill also includes the unrelated subject of "residence districts" for the purpose of local option liquor control elections, as the two subjects have no rational relationship or common purpose; therefore, the unrelated portion of the Am Sub HB 200, the local option election sections, shall be severed from the bill and be of no effect.

127 OS 513, 189 NE 447 (1934), State ex rel Joseph R. Peebles Sons Co v Pharmacy Board. A wholesale distributor is a person engaged in the business of selling intoxicating liquors to retail dealers for the purpose of resale.

64 App(3d) 17 (Montgomery 1989), Rotellini v West Carrollton Bd of Zoning Appeals. A city zoning inspector's and board of zoning appeals' denial of a zoning permit on the grounds that the proposed use of the property for a drive-through carry out store constitutes a drive-in restaurant which is a prohibited use in a B-1 zoning district pursuant to the city's zoning code is unreasonable, arbitrary and contrary to law since the applicant does not propose serving or selling food prepared on the premises, but instead intends to sell packaged food and beverages to be consumed off the premises.

101 App 57, 135 NE(2d) 775 (1955), Abdoney v Liquor Control Bd. In a charge against a liquor permit holder for a violation of 4301.22, the word "sales" is to be given its usual statutory and commonly accepted legal definition, and not that set forth in 4301.01(2).

84 App 266, 85 NE(2d) 408 (1948), Mocilnikar v Liquor Control Bd. Under the provisions of GC 6064-15 (RC 4303.02), which defines a D-5 permit, and this section, which defines a "night club," a night club must be regularly and habitually in operation at the time a D-5 permit is applied for and issued.

88 Abs 395, 182 NE(2d) 646 (Muni, Cincinnati 1962), Cincinnati v McBrayer. The definition of intoxicating liquor set forth in RC 4301.01 is intended to apply to all sections of the code.

74 Abs 274, 140 NE(2d) 55 (App, Miami 1955), State v Hale. The definition of "intoxicating liquor" as found in RC 4301.01 is restricted to the Liquor Control Act and has no reference to or application to any other section of the code, civil or penal.

1937 OAG 715. GC 6064-1, 6064-15, 6064-41, 6064-41a, and 6064-42 (RC 4301.01, 4303.02, 4301.43, 4301.42, and 4301.44), as contained in Am HB 501 of the 92nd general assembly are "laws providing for tax levies" within the meaning of the term as used in O Const Art II §1d, and became effective May 20, 1937, when such act was signed by the governor.

1937 OAG 127. An assistant to the director of the department of liquor control, having no duties prescribed by statute and holding office at the will of the director, is not a "civil officer" within the meaning of O Const Art II §19, but is merely an employee.

5. Appeals

109 App 94, 161 NE(2d) 513 (1959), Neale v Liquor Control Bd. Facts admitted in the record even though not mentioned by the board of liquor control in its finding that the defendant was not the operator of a night club may be considered by the court in determining whether or not the appellant was the owner and operator of a night club.

6. Evidence; illegal sales

101 App 57, 135 NE(2d) 775 (1955), Abdoney v Liquor Control Bd. Where it appears that a person, seated alone at a bar, has a drink of intoxicating liquor immediately in front of him, which he consumes, a prima-facie case is made that the liquor was sold to him.

82 Abs 517, 163 NE(2d) 82 (County Ct, Lucas 1959), State v Mikola. Persons whose driving ability has been affected through the imbibing of beverages whose alcoholic content is less than 3.2 per cent by weight, regardless of the extent of such effect, may not be considered to be under the influence of intoxicating liquors and thus are immune from convictions under RC 4511.19.

81 Abs 425, 156 NE(2d) 344 (CP, Franklin 1957), Kempe v Liquor Control Bd. In a prosecution for selling intoxicating liquor to a minor, the court may assume that two bottles of what purported to be beer sold to the minor did contain beer.

21 Abs 453 (App, Hardin 1936), Hare v State. Where there is proof of illegal sale of whiskey, it is not necessary to also prove that whiskey contained more than 3.2 per cent of alcohol by weight and that it was fit for use for beverage purposes.

OAG 77-005. Any officer of the law may seize illegal "malt beverage" or "malt liquor" as defined in RC 4301.01(B)(3), hold it as evidence for trial of an accused, and then upon a conviction destroy such evidence pursuant to RC 4301.52 and 4301.45.

7. Liquor permit

1 App(2d) 113, 193 NE(2d) 398 (1963), American Veterans of World War II v Liquor Control Bd. A charge in an order of the director of liquor control that a D-4 "club" permittee applying for renewal of its permit failed to carry on the "subject business solely in the interest of dues paying membership as required by section 4303.17 of the Revised Code" is too general, fails to inform such applicant specifically of the charge it is to meet in the hearing before the board of liquor control, and does not meet the constitutional provision of due process of law.

94 App 550, 116 NE(2d) 750 (1953), A.E.F. Veterans Assn, 37th Div v Liquor Control Bd. A false statement in an application for a liquor permit that the permit holder was a nonprofit corporation, whereas it was actually a corporation, is material and is a ground for revoking the permit.

68 App 290, 39 NE(2d) 531 (1941), Spisak v Solon. Municipal ordinance requiring all those engaging in the retail liquor business within the corporate limits to obtain a permit from the municipality and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which such permits will be issued, is in conflict with the general laws contained in GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq., and is void.

74 Abs 94, 139 NE(2d) 106 (App, Franklin 1953), National Fraternal Order of Draftees v Liquor Control Bd. As used in GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01), "club" is not synonymous with "night club," nor is it requisite that an applicant be a club to secure a permit to operate a night club.

74 Abs 94, 139 NE(2d) 106 (App, Franklin 1953), National Fraternal Order of Draftees v Liquor Control Bd. The department of liquor control was justified in refusing to renew a D-5 permit where the evidence showed that the alleged fraternal organization was not actually a going organization, but rather a one-man organization.

69 Abs 465, 119 NE(2d) 137 (CP, Franklin 1954), Chateau Cafe, Inc v Liquor Control Dept. Where the evidence shows that a restaurant was temporarily unable to serve hot meals due to a breakdown in the refrigeration system, the board of liquor control is not justified in rejecting an application for a liquor permit upon the ground that the applicant is not the operator of a restaurant.

1963 OAG 112. A club which is the holder of a D-4 permit may be issued an additional class C or D permit at the same location, provided that it meets all the requirements independently for each permit, or at a different location, provided that it meets all the requirements for each permit independently at each location.

1959 OAG 536. A local option election on the question of the sale of malt liquors or malt beverages as defined in RC 4301.01 and included in the definition of "intoxicating liquor" found in that section, must be conducted as provided in RC 4301.35, such question to be resolved by the "yes" or "no" vote on question (A) as stated in that section; and a majority vote of "yes" on questions (A), (B), and (C) of such section would authorize the issuance of unrestricted D-2 permits within the district concerned.

1937 OAG 1132. There is nothing in GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq., or the regulations of the board of liquor control which prohibits the issuance of a second permit to the holder of an unexpired permit of the same class and for the same location.

1937 OAG 715. Permits issued under authority of the Ohio Liquor Control Act which have not expired before the effective date of GC 6064-1 (RC 4301.01) et seq., will remain in force until their expiration dates.

4301.32 Local option; distribution of instructions

The privilege of local option as to the sale of intoxicating liquors is hereby conferred upon the electors of an election precinct or residence district named by the petition authorized by section 4301.33 of the Revised Code.

Upon the request of an elector, a board of elections of a county that encompasses an election precinct or residence district shall furnish to the elector a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, with a certificate indicating the number of valid signatures that will be required upon a petition to hold a special election in that precinct or residence district on a question specified in section 4301.35 or 4301.351 of the Revised Code.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. Constitutional issues
2. In general

1. Constitutional issues

34 OS(2d) 129, 296 NE(2d) 676 (1973), Stewart v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. The term "residence district" is not unconstitutionally vague and ambiguous where the statute defines and circumscribes the phrase in terms of location, size, and form as well as rights of the residence district.

23 App(3d) 101, 23 OBR 166, 491 NE(2d) 388 (Greene 1985), Rickard v Liquor Control Dept. RC 4301.32 is unconstitutional to the extent that it fails to provide reasonable notice to existing liquor permit holders of an impending local option election.

2. In general

34 OS(2d) 129, 296 NE(2d) 676 (1973), Stewart v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. The privilege of local option for beer under RC 4305.14, and for intoxicating liquors under RC 4301.32, extends to any two or more contiguous precincts within a municipal corporation.

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. Annexation of township territory to a municipal corporation does not change the local option status of that territory as wet or dry.

29 App(3d) 133, 29 OBR 149, 504 NE(2d) 724 (Franklin 1986), Rickard v Liquor Control Dept. The termination of an existing business as a result of a local option election does not violate the Due Process Clause or the Equal Protection Clause even though notice of the election to a potentially affected permitholder is not required.

29 App(3d) 133, 29 OBR 149, 504 NE(2d) 724 (Franklin 1986), Rickard v Liquor Control Dept. A local option election constitutes legislative action by the voters of a district and, as such, a permitholder has no constitutional right to specific notice of an upcoming local option election.

No. 10230 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 6-18-87), Arena Food Service Inc v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Where a liquor permit holder has actual notice of a local option election scheduled in the precinct in which he is licensed, such permit holder lacks standing to challenge the constitutionality of local option election statutes on the basis that the statutes lack a provision for notice to current liquor permit holders.

41 Misc 151, 324 NE(2d) 798 (CP, Richland 1974), Keffalas, Inc v Liquor Control Comm. Where a valid election under RC 4301.351 is held in a residence district and pursuant to such election licenses are issued, such licenses remain valid until a future election is held involving that territory, or part of that territory, four or more years after the enabling election, and any election held prior to such time affects only that part of the residence district which did not vote in the prior election.

37 Misc 3, 305 NE(2d) 820 (CP, Hamilton 1973), Mann v Hamilton County Bd of Elections. Courts would not order board of elections to realign precincts merely because precincts using voting machines were permitted to include more than 400 electors.

86 Abs 302, 174 NE(2d) 558 (CP, Miami 1960), Marshall v Smith. Where premises were leased for the operation of a tavern only and thereafter the township voted dry, the parties are relieved from further liability under the terms of the lease.

OAG 71-064. Where local option election is held under RC 4301.351, respecting Sunday sales of intoxicating liquor in residence district of two or more election precincts, as defined in RC 4301.32, new residence district that includes one precinct of such earlier district may not be created for at least the four-year period, as provided in RC 4301.37, following election.

OAG 70-023. Local option election for township must include entire township, exclusive of any municipal corporation or part thereof located therein, and must be held at special election, ordered by appropriate board of elections, on same day as general election.

OAG 69-129. The phrase "residence district" as used in RC 4301.32 means any two or more contiguous election precincts within a municipal corporation.

1959 OAG 850. The term "residence district" as contained in RC 4301.32 should be reasonably interpreted to mean any district composed of two or more contiguous election precincts in which more than one-half of the area is devoted to residential use as opposed to industrial or commercial use.

1957 OAG 1153. Where a municipality is incorporated subsequent to November, 1933, the condition precedent to an election on the sole question of the sale of liquor by the glass in that municipality pursuant to RC 4303.29 is impossible of fulfillment.

1957 OAG 597. When a part of a "dry" township adjacent to a "wet" municipality is annexed to that municipality, the territory so annexed remains "dry."

1950 OAG 1882. Where township territory in which the sale of intoxicating liquor is not prohibited is annexed to a village which has voted to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor, that territory will remain wet after the annexation, until further action has been taken by the electorate.

1937 OAG 603. A local option election in a township under the provisions of this section does not include municipal corporations within the township; the existence of municipal corporations within such a township is a factual matter to be determined as of the time of the election.

4301.321 Local option election as to premises of permit holder who has been found within one year to have violated liquor laws

The electors of an election precinct may exercise the privilege of local option over the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor by the holder of a class C or D permit at a particular premises situated within the precinct, except for a particular premises located at a convention center, if the holder of the permit has been found by the liquor control commission to have violated any provision of this chapter or Chapter 4303. or 4399. of the Revised Code and has been assessed a penalty for such violation within one year prior to the local option election. The privilege conferred by this section is in addition to and shall not be construed to conflict with the privilege conferred on the electors of the precincts or districts specified in section 4301.32 or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

60 OS(3d) 44, 573 NE(2d) 596 (1991), State ex rel Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The period for appealing liquor control commission orders starts on the date the commission's order is mailed; the mailing date is the effective date when the commission both issues its decision and "finds" a violation; thus a local option election held within one year of the date that the commission mails its order finding a violation is valid.

60 OS(3d) 44, 573 NE(2d) 596 (1991), State ex rel Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The date by which a local option petition must be filed is one year from the date on which the liquor control commission finds that a violation has occurred, not the date that the commission issues its finding.

750 FSupp 856 (SD Ohio 1990), Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Brown. A local option election about the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor at a permit holder's premises scheduled to be held more than one year after the violation upon which the election is based is untimely, even though timely election petitions were filed at least seventy-five days before the date of the general election.

4301.322 Election as to certain restaurants

The electors of an election precinct may exercise the privilege of local option on the sale of beer and any intoxicating liquor at a particular location within the precinct, except for a particular location at a convention center, if the proposed use of the location is a restaurant as defined in division (B)(12) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code containing not less than ten thousand square feet of floor area, having a seating capacity to serve not less than two hundred persons full-course meals at tables at one time, and deriving at least fifty per cent of its gross revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages; a hotel or motel as described in division (A) of section 4303.181 of the Revised Code; or an enclosed shopping center as defined in division (B)(17) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code. The privilege conferred by this section is in addition to the privilege conferred on the electors of the districts specified in section 4301.32 or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

4301.33 Notice of petition; petition for local option election; protest against petition

The board of elections shall provide to a petitioner circulating a petition for an election for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in divisions (A) to (C) of section 4301.35 or section 4301.351 of the Revised Code, at the time he takes out the petition, the names of the streets and, if appropriate, the address numbers of residences and business establishments within the precinct or residence district in which the election is sought, and a form prescribed by the secretary of state for notifying affected permit holders of the circulation of a petition for an election for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in divisions (A) to (C) of section 4301.35 or section 4301.351 of the Revised Code. The petitioner shall, not less than forty-five days before the petition-filing deadline for the election, as provided in this section, file with the department of liquor control the information regarding names of streets and, if appropriate, address numbers of residences and business establishments provided to him by the board of elections, and specify to the department the precinct or residence district that is concerned and the filing deadline. The department shall, within a reasonable period of time and not later than fifteen days before the filing deadline, supply the petitioner with a list of the names and addresses of permit holders who would be affected by the election. The list shall contain a heading with the following words: "Liquor permit holders who would be affected by the question(s) set forth on petition for a local option election."

Within five days after a petitioner has received from the department the list of liquor permit holders who would be affected by the question or questions set forth on a petition for local option election, he shall, using the form provided to him by the board of elections, notify by certified mail each permit holder whose name appears on that list. The form for notifying affected permit holders shall require the petitioner to state his name and street address and shall contain a statement that a petition is being circulated for an election for the submission of the question or questions specified in divisions (A) to (C) of section 4301.35 or section 4301.351 of the Revised Code. The form shall require the petitioner to state the question or questions to be submitted as they appear on the petition.

The petitioner shall attach a copy of the list provided to him by the department to each petition paper. A part petition paper circulated at any time without the list of affected permit holders attached to it is invalid.

At the time he files the petition with the board of elections, the petitioner shall provide to the board the list supplied to him by the department and an affidavit certifying that he notified all affected permit holders on the list in the manner and within the time required in this section and that, at the time each signer of the petition affixed his signature to the petition, the petition paper contained a copy of the list of affected permit holders.

Within five days after receiving a petition calling for an election for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in divisions (A) to (C) of section 4301.35 or section 4301.351 of the Revised Code, the board shall give notice by certified mail that it has received the petition to all liquor permit holders whose names appear on the list of affected permit holders filed by the petitioner as furnished to him by the department. Failure of the petitioner to supply the affidavit required by this section and a complete and accurate list of liquor permit holders as furnished to him by the department of liquor control invalidates the entire petition. The board of elections shall provide to a permit holder who would be affected by a proposed local option election, on the permit holder's request, the names of the streets, and, if appropriate, the address numbers of residences and business establishments within the precinct or residence district in which the election is sought. The board may charge a reasonable fee for this information when provided to the petitioner and the permit holder.

Upon the presentation of a petition, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, to the board of elections of the county where the precinct or residence district is located, designating whether it is a petition for an election for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in section 4301.35 of the Revised Code, or a petition for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in section 4301.351 of the Revised Code, designating the particular question or questions specified in section 4301.35 or 4301.351 of the Revised Code that are to be submitted, and signed by the qualified electors of the precinct or residence district concerned, equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the precinct concerned for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office, in the case of an election within a single precinct, or equal in number to fifty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the residence district concerned for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office, in the case of an election within a residence district, the board shall submit the question or questions specified in the petition to the electors of the precinct or residence district concerned, on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first and shall proceed as follows:

(A) Such board shall, not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the election for which the question or questions on the petition would qualify for submission to the electors of the precinct or residence district, examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures and review, examine, and determine the validity of the petition and, in case of overlapping residence district petitions or overlapping precinct and residence district petitions presented within that period, determine which of the petitions shall govern the further proceedings of the board. In the case where the board determines that two or more overlapping petitions are valid, the earlier filed petition shall govern. The board shall certify the sufficiency and validity of any petition determined to be valid. The board shall determine the validity of the petition as of the time of certification as described in this division.

(B) If a petition is sufficient, and, in case of overlapping residence district petitions or overlapping precinct and residence district petitions, after the board has determined the governing petition, the board to which the petition has been presented shall order the holding of a special election in the precinct or residence district for the submission of whichever of the questions specified in section 4301.35 or 4301.351 of the Revised Code are designated in the petition, on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first.

All petitions filed with a board of elections under this section shall be open to public inspection under rules adopted by the board.

Protest against local option petitions may be filed by any elector eligible to vote on the question or questions described in the petitions or by a permit holder in the precinct or residence district as described in the petitions, not later than four p.m. of the sixty-fourth day before the day of the general or primary election for which the petition qualified. The protest shall be in writing and shall be filed with the election officials with whom the petition was filed. Upon filing of the protest, the election officials with whom it is filed shall promptly fix the time for hearing it, and shall mail notice of the filing of the protest and the time and place for hearing it to the person who filed the petition and to the person who filed the protest. At the time and place fixed, the election officials shall hear the protest and determine the validity of the petition.

62 OS(3d) 145 (1991), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A circulator of local option election petitions who is to receive remuneration upon the occurrence of a favorable outcome of the local option election has standing to challenge the noncertification of the petitions as he will be "benefitted" or "injured" as a result of the judgment.

62 OS(3d) 145 (1991), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A bill addressing matters pertaining to the judicial system, i.e., creation and expansion of courts, violates the "one-subject rule" where the bill also includes the unrelated subject of "residence districts" for the purpose of local option liquor control elections, as the two subjects have no rational relationship or common purpose; therefore, the unrelated portion of the Am Sub HB 200, the local option election sections, shall be severed from the bill and be of no effect.

47 OS(3d) 117, 548 NE(2d) 230 (1989), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A writ of mandamus ordering a board of elections to place local option questions on the November 7, 1989, election ballot that is sought by a complaint filed October 10, 1989, and arises from board invalidation of part petitions on or about September 12, 1989, is denied because of laches in light of the fact that absentee ballots had already been printed and mailed to electors who would be affected by the proposed questions.

37 OS(2d) 53, 307 NE(2d) 258 (1974), State ex rel Snyder v Wheatcraft. Where election board delayed decision on protest to local option petitions until a month after the election was held and then determined the petitions were invalid, mandamus will lie directing the board to count the ballots and declare the result of the election.

34 OS(2d) 259, 298 NE(2d) 134 (1973), State ex rel Waterloo Brown Derby Restaurant v Summit County Bd of Elections. The word "district," as used in RC 4301.37, must be held to include all precincts making up any residence district in which a local option election has been held pursuant to petitions filed in compliance with RC 4301.33 so as to prevent the holding of another such election more often than once in each four-year period in any part of that district.

Exercise of purported right to issue liquor permits allegedly resulting from election held in precincts not eligible to become liquor control districts under RC 4303.29 may be restrained by injunction, although no challenge by election contest was filed pursuant to RC 3515.08.

OAG 70-023. Local option election for township must include entire township, exclusive of any municipal corporation or part thereof located therein, and must be held at special election, ordered by appropriate board of elections, on same day as general election.

1959 OAG 850. The term "residence district" as contained in RC 4301.32 should be reasonably interpreted to mean any district composed of two or more contiguous election precincts in which more than one-half of the area is devoted to residential use as opposed to industrial or commercial use.

1958 OAG 2719. When a local option petition has been presented to a board of elections such board has the duty and exclusive jurisdiction to determine the sufficiency of such petition, except that under the conditions as specified in RC 3501.11 the question shall be submitted for determination to the secretary of state, whose decision shall be final.

1957 OAG 1196. One who has signed a petition for local option relative to the sale of intoxicating liquors in a district therein described may withdraw his signature from such petition at any time prior to the actions of the board of elections ordering an election on such petition.

4301.331 Procedures for election as to particular premises

The privilege of local option conferred by section 4301.321 of the Revised Code may be exercised if, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, a petition together with a copy of a finding, order, or decision of the liquor control commission indicating that the permit holder has violated any provision of this chapter or Chapter 4303. or 4399. of the Revised Code and has been assessed a penalty for such violation is presented to the board of elections of the county in which the precinct in which the particular premises at which the permit holder operates pursuant to the liquor permit that is the subject of such finding, order, or decision is situated.

The petition provided for in this section may consist of one or more separate petition papers. In addition to the requirements of this section, the petitions shall be governed by the rules set forth in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code.

The petitioner shall attach a copy of the finding, order, or decision of the commission to each petition paper he circulates. At the time he files the petition with the board of elections, the petitioner shall provide to the board of elections an affidavit certifying that at the time each signer affixed his signature to the petition, the petition paper contained a copy of the finding, order, or decision of the commission. A part petition paper circulated at any time without the finding, order, or decision of the commission attached to it is invalid. Failure of the petitioner to supply the affidavit required by this section invalidates the entire petition. The petition is valid only if the violation of a provision of this chapter or Chapter 4303. or 4399. of the Revised Code occurred within one year prior to the date of the election for which the petition is presented to the board of elections. The petition shall be signed by the electors of the precinct equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the precinct for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office and shall contain both of the following:

(A) A notice that the petition is for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.352 of the Revised Code;

(B) The name of a class C or D permit holder and the address of the permit holder's permit premises. If the business conducted by a class C or D permit holder at the permit premises has a name different from the permit holder's personal or corporate name, the name of the permit holder's business shall be stated along with the permit holder's personal or corporate name.

Not later than five days after a petition is filed under this section, the board shall give notice by certified mail that it has received the petition to the liquor permit holder whose permit would be affected by the results of the special election sought by the petition. Failure of the petitioner to supply a complete and accurate address of the liquor permit holder to the board of elections invalidates the petition. Not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, the board shall examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures on the petition and review, examine, and determine the validity of the petition. The board shall certify the sufficiency and validity of any petition determined to be valid. The board shall determine the validity of the petition as of the time of certification. If the board finds that the petition is valid, it shall order the holding of a special election in the precinct on the day of that general or primary election for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.352 of the Revised Code.

A petition filed with the board of elections under this section shall be open to public inspection under rules adopted by the board.

An elector who is eligible to vote on the question set forth in section 4301.352 of the Revised Code or the permit holder named on the petition may, not later than four p.m. of the sixty-fourth day before the day of the special election at which the question will be submitted to the electors, file a protest against a local option petition. The protest shall be in writing and shall be filed with the election officials with whom the petition was filed. Upon the filing of the protest, the election officials with whom it is filed shall promptly fix a time and place for hearing the protest, and shall mail notice of the time and place for hearing it to the person who filed the petition and to the person who filed the protest. At the time and place fixed, the election officials shall hear the protest and determine the validity of the petition.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

60 OS(3d) 44, 573 NE(2d) 596 (1991), State ex rel Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The period for appealing liquor control commission orders starts on the date the commission's order is mailed; the mailing date is the effective date when the commission both issues its decision and "finds" a violation; thus a local option election held within one year of the date that the commission mails its order finding a violation is valid.

60 OS(3d) 44, 573 NE(2d) 596 (1991), State ex rel Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The date by which a local option petition must be filed is one year from the date on which the liquor control commission finds that a violation has occurred, not the date that the commission issues its finding.

60 OS(3d) 44, 573 NE(2d) 596 (1991), State ex rel Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Canvassing and certifying election results, notifying appropriate authorities about these results, and physically picking up liquor permits do not involve hearings and do not require the liquor control department director or a local board of elections to settle controversies of any kind, therefore, a writ of prohibition is unavailable.

750 FSupp 856 (SD Ohio 1990), Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Brown. A local option election about the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor at a permit holder's premises scheduled to be held more than one year after the violation upon which the election is based is untimely, even though timely election petitions were filed at least seventy-five days before the date of the general election.

4301.332 Procedures for election as to certain restaurants

The privilege of local option conferred by section 4301.322 of the Revised Code may be exercised if, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, a petition is presented to the board of elections of the county in which the precinct is situated. The petition shall be signed by the electors of the precinct equal in number to at least thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the precinct for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office and shall contain all of the following:

(A) A notice that the petition is for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.353 of the Revised Code;

(B) The address and proposed use of the particular location within the election precinct to which the results of the question specified in section 4301.353 of the Revised Code shall apply. For the purposes of this division, "use" means use as a hotel or motel as described in division (A) of section 4303.181 of the Revised Code, enclosed shopping center as defined in division (B)(17) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code, or restaurant as defined in division (B)(12) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code containing not less than ten thousand square feet of floor area, having a seating capacity to serve not less than two hundred persons full-course meals at tables at one time, and deriving at least fifty per cent of its gross revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages.

(C) An affidavit stating that the proposed use of the location will meet the qualifications of one of the following:

(1) A hotel or motel as described in division (A) of section 4303.181 of the Revised Code;

(2) An enclosed shopping center as defined in division (B)(17) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code;

(3) A restaurant as defined in division (B)(12) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code containing not less than ten thousand square feet of floor area, having a seating capacity to serve not less than two hundred persons full-course meals at tables at one time, and deriving at least fifty per cent of its gross revenue from the sale of food and nonalcoholic beverages.

Not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, the board shall examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures on the petition. In case of overlapping petitions presented within that period, the board shall determine which of the petitions shall govern the further proceedings of the board. In the case where the board determines that two or more overlapping petitions are valid, the earlier filed petition shall govern. If the board finds that the petition is valid, and, in case of overlapping petitions after the board has determined the governing petition, it shall order the holding of a special election in the precinct or residence district on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.353 of the Revised Code.

A petition filed with the board of elections under this section shall be open to public inspection under rules adopted by the board.

An elector who is eligible to vote on the question set forth in section 4301.353 of the Revised Code may, not later than four p.m. of the sixty-fourth day before the day of the special election at which the question will be submitted to the electors, file a protest against a local option petition. The protest shall be in writing and shall be filed with the election officials with whom the petition was filed. Upon the filing of the protest, the election officials with whom it is filed shall promptly fix a time and place for hearing the protest, and shall mail notice of the time and place for hearing it to the person who filed the petition and to the person who filed the protest. At the time and place fixed, the election officials shall hear the protest and determine the validity of the petition.

4301.333 Procedure for election as to convention center; violation of liquor laws within one year

The privilege of local option conferred by section 4301.323 of the Revised Code may be exercised if, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, a petition together with a copy of a finding, order, or decision of the liquor control commission indicating that the permit holder named in the petition has violated any provision of this chapter or Chapter 4303. or 4399. of the Revised Code is presented to the board of elections of the county in which the convention center named in the petition is situated. Such a petition is valid only if the violation of a provision of this chapter or Chapter 4303. or 4399. of the Revised Code occurred within one year prior to the date on which the petition is presented to the board of elections. The petition shall be signed by electors of the county equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the county for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office and shall contain both of the following:

(A) A notice that the petition is for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.354 of the Revised Code;

(B) The name of the class C or D permit holder and the address of the permit holder's permit premises. If the business conducted by the class C or D permit holder at the permit premises has a name different from the permit holder's personal or corporate name, the name of the permit holder's business shall be stated along with the permit holder's personal or corporate name.

Upon the request of a petitioner, a board of elections of a county shall furnish to him a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, a certificate indicating the number of valid signatures that will be required on a petition to hold an election in that county on the question specified in section 4301.354 of the Revised Code.

The board shall, within five days after receiving the petition, give notice by certified mail that it has received the petition to the permit holder named in the petition.

Not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, the board shall examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures on the petition. If the board finds that the petition is valid, it shall order the holding of an election in the county on the day of that general or primary election for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.354 of the Revised Code.

4301.334 Procedure for election as to convention center; proposed use

The privilege of local option conferred by section 4301.324 of the Revised Code may be exercised if, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, a petition is presented to the board of elections of the county in which the convention center or proposed location for a convention center named in the petition is situated. The petition shall be signed by electors of the county equal in number to at least thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the county for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office and shall contain all of the following:

(A) A notice that the petition is for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code;

(B) The address and use or proposed use of the particular location within the county to which the results of the question specified in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code shall apply. For purposes of this division, "use" means use as a convention center.

(C) An affidavit stating that the use of the location does meet or the proposed use of the location will meet the qualifications of a convention center.

Upon the request of a petitioner, a board of elections of a county shall furnish to him a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, a certificate indicating the number of valid signatures that will be required on a petition to hold an election in that county on the question specified in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code.

4301.335 Procedure for election as to convention center; generally

(A) The privilege of local option conferred by section 4301.325 of the Revised Code may be exercised if, not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, a petition and other information required by division (B) of this section are presented to the board of elections of the county in which the convention center named in the petition is located. The petition shall be signed by electors of the county equal in number to at least thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the county for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office and shall contain both of the following:

(1) A notice that the petition is for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code;

(2) The name and address of the convention center for which the local option election is sought.

(B) Upon the request of a petitioner, a board of elections of a county shall furnish to him a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, a certificate indicating the number of valid signatures that will be required on a petition to hold an election in that county on the question specified in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code.

The petitioner shall, not less than thirty days before the petition-filing deadline for an election on the question specified in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code, specify to the department of liquor control the name and address of the convention center for which the election is sought, the county in which the election is sought, and the filing deadline. The department shall, within a reasonable period of time and not later than ten days before the filing deadline, supply the petitioner with the name and address of the permit holder for the convention center.

The petitioner shall file the name and address of the permit holder who would be affected by the election at the time he files the petition with the board of elections. The board shall, within five days after receiving the petition, give notice by certified mail that it has received the petition to the permit holder for the convention center. Failure of the petitioner to supply the name and address of the permit holder for the convention center as furnished to him by the department of liquor control invalidates the petition.

(C) Not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, the board shall examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures on the petition. If the board finds that the petition is valid, it shall order the holding of an election in the county on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first, for the submission of the question set forth in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code.

(D) A petition filed with a board of elections under this section shall be open to public inspection under rules adopted by the board.

(E) An elector who is eligible to vote on the question set forth in section 4301.355 of the Revised Code or the permit holder for the convention center may, not later than four p.m. of the sixty-fourth day before the day of the election at which the question will be submitted to the electors, file a written protest against the local option petition with the board of elections with which the petition was filed. Upon the filing of the protest, the board shall promptly fix a time and place for hearing the protest, and shall mail notice of the time and place to the person who filed the petition and to the person who filed the protest. 4301.35 Choice of questions; expenses; form of ballots

If a petition is for submission of one or more of the questions specified under this section, a special election shall be held in the precinct or residence district at the time fixed as provided in section 4301.33 of the Revised Code. The expenses of holding the election shall be charged to the municipal corporation or township of which the precinct or residence district is a part.

At the election any one or more of the following questions, as designated in a valid petition, shall be submitted to the electors of the precinct:

(A) "Shall the sale of wine and mixed beverages by the package, under permits which authorize sale for off-premise consumption only, be permitted in _____?"

(B) "Shall the sale of wine and mixed beverages, under permits which authorize sale for on-premise consumption only, and under permits which authorize sale for both on-premise and off-premise consumption, be permitted in _____?"

(C) "Shall the sale of spirituous liquors by the glass be permitted in _____?"

(D) "Shall state liquor stores for the sale of spirituous liquor by the package, for consumption off the premises where sold, be permitted in _____?"

The board of elections to which a petition is presented shall furnish printed ballots at the election in accordance with section 3505.06 of the Revised Code, and separate ballots shall be used for the special election. All the questions designated in a valid petition shall be set forth on each ballot and the board shall insert in each question the name or an accurate description of the precinct or residence district in which the election is to be held. Votes shall be cast as provided in section 3505.06 of the Revised Code.

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. One may have a D permit for a particular location and yet be prohibited from selling intoxicating liquor at that location by reason of a valid local option election against such a sale in the territory including that location.

No. 10230 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 6-18-87), Arena Food Service Inc v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Where a liquor permit holder has actual notice of a local option election scheduled in the precinct in which he is licensed, such permit holder lacks standing to challenge the constitutionality of local option election statutes on the basis that the statutes lack a provision for notice to current liquor permit holders.

1959 OAG 536. A local option election on the question of the sale of malt liquors or malt beverages as defined in RC 4301.01 and included in the definition of "intoxicating liquor" found in that section, must be conducted as provided in RC 4301.35, such question to be resolved by the "yes" or "no" vote on question (A) as stated in that section; and a majority vote of "yes" on questions (A), (B), and (C) of such section would authorize the issuance of unrestricted D-2 permits within the district concerned.

1959 OAG 536. In any special election held pursuant to RC 4301.35, it is necessary to submit each and all of the questions set out in such section to the electors of the district involved.

1957 OAG 1153. Where a municipality is incorporated subsequent to November, 1933, the condition precedent to an election on the sole question of the sale of liquor by the glass in that municipality pursuant to RC 4303.29 is impossible of fulfillment.

1943 OAG 6457. Where privilege of local option is sought to be exercised by electors of township exclusive of any municipal corporation or part thereof therein located, in which majority of electors voting thereon at November, 1933 election, voted for repeal of O Const Art XV §9, it is necessary to submit to such electors all of questions set out in this section, and consequently board of elections of county wherein said district is located is without legal authority to submit to electors of such district at next general election sole question of whether sale of spirituous liquor by the glass shall be permitted therein, even though petition bearing required number of signatures is filed sixty days before such election.

4301.351 Sunday sale election; expenses; form of ballots

If a petition is for submission of the question of whether the sale of intoxicating liquor shall be permitted on Sunday, a special election shall be held in the precinct or residence district at the time fixed as provided in section 4301.33 of the Revised Code. The expenses of holding the election shall be charged to the municipal corporation or township of which the precinct or residence district is a part.

At the election one or more of the following questions, as designated in a valid petition, shall be submitted to the electors of the precinct or residence district:

(A) "Shall the sale of intoxicating liquor, of the same types as may be legally sold in this (precinct) (district) on other days of the week, be permitted in this _____ for consumption on the premises where sold, between the hours of one p.m. and midnight on Sunday?"

(B) "Shall the sale of intoxicating liquor, of the same types as may be legally sold in this (precinct) (district) on other days of the week, be permitted in this _____ for consumption on the premises where sold, between the hours of one p.m. and midnight on Sunday, at licensed premises where the sale of food and other goods and services exceeds fifty per cent of the total gross receipts of the permit holder at the premises?"

(C) "Shall the sale of wine and mixed beverages of the same types as may be legally sold in this (precinct) (district) on other days of the week, be permitted in this _____ for consumption off the premises where sold, between the hours of one p.m. and midnight on Sunday?"

No C or D permit holder who first applied for his permit after April 15, 1982, shall sell beer on Sunday unless the sale of intoxicating liquor is authorized in the precinct or residence district at an election on question (A), (B), or (C) of this section. No D-6 permit is required for the sale of beer on Sunday.

The board of elections to which the petition is presented shall furnish printed ballots at the election in accordance with section 3505.06 of the Revised Code, and separate ballots shall be used for the special election. One or more of the questions prescribed by this section, as designated in the petition, shall be set forth on each ballot and the board shall insert in each question the name or an accurate description of the precinct or residence district in which the election is to be held. Votes shall be cast as provided in section 3505.06 of the Revised Code.

34 OS(2d) 259, 298 NE(2d) 134 (1973), State ex rel Waterloo Brown Derby Restaurant v Summit County Bd of Elections. The word "district," as used in RC 4301.37, must be held to include all precincts making up any residence district in which a local option election has been held pursuant to petitions filed in compliance with RC 4301.33 so as to prevent the holding of another such election more often than once in each four-year period in any part of that district.

41 Misc 151, 324 NE(2d) 798 (CP, Richland 1974), Keffalas, Inc v Liquor Control Comm. Where a valid election under RC 4301.351 is held in a residence district and pursuant to such election licenses are issued, such licenses remain valid until a future election is held involving that territory, or part of that territory, four or more years after the enabling election, and any election held prior to such time affects only that part of the residence district which did not vote in the prior election.

OAG 87-006. Pursuant to the terms of 1986 H 39, § 3, eff. 2-21-87, the local option election questions specified in RC 4301.351 and 4305.14 may appear on the ballot at the primary election, to be held on May 5, 1987, in an election precinct to which the four-year prohibitions of RC 4301.37(A) and 4301.37(B) would otherwise apply.

OAG 71-064. Where local option election is held under RC 4301.351, respecting Sunday sales of intoxicating liquor in residence district of two or more election precincts, as defined in RC 4301.32, new residence district that includes one precinct of such earlier district may not be created for at least the four-year period, as provided in RC 4301.37, following election.

4301.352 Special election to be held

If a petition is filed under section 4301.331 of the Revised Code for the submission of the question set forth in this section, a special election shall be held in the precinct as ordered by the board of elections under that section. The expense of holding the special election shall be charged to the municipal corporation or township of which the precinct is a part. At the special election the following question shall be submitted to the electors of the precinct:

"Shall the sale of _____ (insert a brief categorical description of the appropriate beverage) _____ by _____ (insert the permit holder's personal or corporate name, and if it is different from the permit holder's personal or corporate name, the name of the permit holder's business) _____ at _____ (insert the address of the permit premises) _____ be permitted in this precinct?"

The board of elections shall furnish printed ballots at the special election as provided under section 3505.06 of the Revised Code, except that a separate ballot shall be used for the special election. The question set forth in this section shall be printed on each ballot and the board shall insert in the question appropriate words to complete the question. Votes shall be cast as provided under section 3505.06 of the Revised Code.

4301.353 Conduct of election as to certain restaurants

If a petition is filed under section 4301.332 of the Revised Code for the submission of the question set forth in this section, a special election shall be held in the precinct as ordered by the board of elections under that section. The expense of holding the special election shall be charged to the municipal corporation or township of which the precinct is a part.

At the election the following question and information shall be submitted to the electors of the precinct:

"Shall the sale of beer and any intoxicating liquor be permitted for consumption on the premises where sold for (a) (an) (insert "hotel," "motel," "enclosed shopping center," or "restaurant," as set forth in the petition) at (insert address of the particular location within the precinct as set forth in the petition) in this precinct?"

If the sale of beer and intoxicating liquor has been approved at a particular location within the precinct at a previous election held under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code, the ballot shall also include the following statement:

"At a previous election held under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code, the electors approved the sale of beer and intoxicating liquor at (insert business name and address of the particular location or locations within the precinct where such sale has been approved at a previous election under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code)."

The board of elections shall furnish printed ballots at the special election as provided under section 3505.06 of the Revised Code, except that a separate ballot shall be used for the special election. The question and, if applicable, the statement set forth in this section shall be printed on each ballot and the board shall insert in the question and statement appropriate words to complete each. Votes shall be cast as provided under section 3505.06 of the Revised Code.

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. One may have a D permit for a particular location and yet be prohibited from selling intoxicating liquor at that location by reason of a valid local option election against such a sale in the territory including that location.

20 Misc 148, 252 NE(2d) 661 (CP, Stark 1966), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc; affirmed by 16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968). When a part of a township which has voted dry under a local option election is annexed to a city in which the sale of intoxicating liquors is legal, such sale is not thereby made legal in the territory annexed, since RC 4301.37 prescribes the only method whereby the results of a local option election can be changed.

4301.361 Effect of Sunday sale election

If a majority of the electors voting on questions set forth in section 4301.351 of the Revised Code in a precinct or residence district vote "yes" on question (A), or, if both questions (A) and (B) are submitted, "yes" on both questions or "yes" on question (A) but "no" on question (B), sales of intoxicating liquor shall be allowed in the manner and under the conditions specified in question (A), under a D-6 permit, within the precinct or residence district concerned, during the period the election is in effect as defined in section 4301.37 of the Revised Code.

If only question (B) is submitted to the voters or if questions (B) and (C) are submitted and a majority of the electors voting in a precinct or residence district vote "yes" on question (B) as set forth in section 4301.351 of the Revised Code, sales of intoxicating liquor shall be allowed in the manner and under the conditions specified in question (B), under a D-6 permit, within the precinct or residence district concerned, during the period the election is in effect as defined in section 4301.37 of the Revised Code, even if question (A) was also submitted and a majority of the electors voting in the precinct or residence district voted "no."

If question (C) is submitted and a majority of electors voting on the question (C) set forth in section 4301.351 of the Revised Code in a precinct or residence district vote "yes," sales of wine and mixed beverages shall be allowed in the manner and under the conditions specified in question (C), under a D-6 permit, within the precinct or residence district concerned, during the period the election is in effect as defined in section 4301.37 of the Revised Code.

If questions (A), (B), and (C), as set forth in section 4301.351 of the Revised Code, are all submitted and a majority of the electors voting in such precinct or residence district vote "no" on all three questions, no sales of intoxicating liquor shall be made within the precinct or residence district concerned after two-thirty a.m. on Sunday, during the period the election is in effect as defined in section 4301.37 of the Revised Code.

750 FSupp 856 (SD Ohio 1990), Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Brown. A liquor permit holder has no property right in the permit, which is only a license; thus, the ending of a license as the result of a local option election cannot be a deprivation of property without due process of law; even if there were a property right conferred, the local option election is all the process that is due the holder.

750 FSupp 856 (SD Ohio 1990), Brookpark Entertainment, Inc v Brown. Ending a liquor permit holder's license by local option election is not a violation of equal protection of the law absent evidence that agents issued violations on which the election was based in a way singling out a particular permit holder while other offenders went unpunished; loss of the license is not a forbidden bill of attainder, either, where code sections did not single out the holder in an effort to punish him.

4301.37 Local option election effective for four years; exception

(A) When a local option election, other than an election under section 4301.351, 4301.352, or 4301.353 of the Revised Code, is held in any precinct or residence district, the result of the election shall be effective in the precinct or residence district until another election is called and held pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.36 of the Revised Code, but no such election shall be held in any precinct, residence district, or part of a residence district on the same question more than once in each four years.

(B) When a local option election under section 4301.351 of the Revised Code is held in any precinct or residence district, the result of the election shall be effective in the precinct or residence district until another election is called and held pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.361 of the Revised Code, but no such election shall be held in any precinct, residence district, or part of a residence district on the same question more than once in each four years.

(C) When a local option election is held in a precinct under section 4301.352 of the Revised Code, and a majority of the electors voting on the question vote "yes," no subsequent local option election shall be held in the precinct upon the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor by the class C or D permit holder at the specified premises for a period of at least four calendar years from the date of the local option election, except that this division shall not be construed to prohibit the holding or affect the results of a local option election under section 4301.35, 4301.351, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

(D) When a local option election is held in a precinct under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code, the results of the election shall be effective at the particular location designated in the petition until another election is held, but no such election shall be held regarding that particular location for a period of at least four calendar years from the date of the election. The results of a local option election held in a precinct under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code shall not prohibit the holding of, or be affected by the results of, a local option election held under section 4301.35, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

(E) When a local option election is held in a county under section 4301.354 of the Revised Code, no subsequent local option election shall be held in the county on the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor by the class C or D permit holder at the specified convention center for a period of at least four calendar years from the date of the local option election, except that this division shall not prohibit the holding of or affect or be affected by the results of a local option election under section 4301.35, 4301.351, 4301.352, 4301.353, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

(F) When a local option election is held in a county under section 4301.355 of the Revised Code, the results of the election shall be effective at the convention center that was the subject of the election until another such election is held regarding that convention center, but no such election shall be held for a period of at least four calendar years from the date of the election. The results of a local option election held in a county under section 4301.355 of the Revised Code shall not prohibit the holding of or affect or be affected by the results of a local option election held under section 4301.35, 4301.351, 4301.352, 4301.353, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

(G) If a convention center is located in an election precinct or residence district in which a previous local option election in the precinct or residence district resulted in approval of the sale of beer or intoxicating liquor in the precinct or residence district, the convention center shall sell beer or intoxicating liquor only to the extent permitted by the previous local option election until an election is held pursuant to section 4301.354 or 4301.355 of the Revised Code.

(H) A convention center shall not be affected by a local option election held on or after July 23, 1989, unless the election is held under section 4301.354 or 4301.355 of the Revised Code.

(I) When a local option election has been held under section 4301.35 or 4301.351 of the Revised Code prior to April 4, 1985, in a precinct or district, as defined in section 4301.32 of the Revised Code prior to April 4, 1985, the results of the election shall be effective in the district until another election is called and held pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.361 of the Revised Code, but no such election shall be held in any election precinct, residence district, or part of a residence district that is part of the precinct or district on a question contained in section 4301.35 or 4301.351 of the Revised Code until four years have passed since the date of the most recent election in that precinct or district on that question.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

34 OS(2d) 259, 298 NE(2d) 134 (1973), State ex rel Waterloo Brown Derby Restaurant v Summit County Bd of Elections. The word "district," as used in RC 4301.37, must be held to include all precincts making up any residence district in which a local option election has been held pursuant to petitions filed in compliance with RC 4301.33 so as to prevent the holding of another such election more often than once in each four-year period in any part of that district.

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. Annexation of township territory to a municipal corporation does not change the local option status of that territory as wet or dry.

41 Misc 151, 324 NE(2d) 798 (CP, Richland 1974), Keffalas, Inc v Liquor Control Comm. Where a valid election under RC 4301.351 is held in a residence district and pursuant to such election licenses are issued, such licenses remain valid until a future election is held involving that territory, or part of that territory, four or more years after the enabling election, and any election held prior to such time affects only that part of the residence district which did not vote in the prior election.

20 Misc 148, 252 NE(2d) 661 (CP, Stark 1966), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc; affirmed by 16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968). When a part of a township which has voted dry under a local option election is annexed to a city in which the sale of intoxicating liquors is legal, such sale is not thereby made legal in the territory annexed, since RC 4301.37 prescribes the only method whereby the results of a local option election can be changed.

12 Misc 38, 230 NE(2d) 457 (CP, Franklin 1965), Temple v Liquor Control Comm. The language of RC 4301.37 that "no such local option election shall be held in any district more than once in each four years" has reference to political or election years and not to a computation of 365 days multiplied by four plus one (leap year), beginning with the date of the last prior local option election.

OAG 87-006. Pursuant to the terms of 1986 H 39, § 3, eff. 2-21-87, the local option election questions specified in RC 4301.351 and 4305.14 may appear on the ballot at the primary election, to be held on May 5, 1987, in an election precinct to which the four-year prohibitions of RC 4301.37(A) and 4301.37(B) would otherwise apply.

OAG 71-064. Where local option election is held under RC 4301.351, respecting Sunday sales of intoxicating liquor in residence district of two or more election precincts, as defined in RC 4301.32, new residence district that includes one precinct of such earlier district may not be created for at least the four-year period, as provided in RC 4301.37, following election.

4301.39 Notification to department of liquor control when petition filed; reissuance of permit; permit in safekeeping

(A) When the board of elections of any county determines that a petition for a local option election, presented pursuant to section 4301.33, 4301.331, 4301.332, 4301.333, 4301.334, 4301.335, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code is sufficient, it shall forthwith, by mail, notify the department of liquor control of the fact that such a petition has been filed and approved by it. Upon the determination of the results of any such election, the board shall forthwith notify the department by mail of the result and, unless the election was held pursuant to section 4301.354 or 4301.355 of the Revised Code, shall forward with the notice a plat of the precinct or residence district in which the election was held.

(B) On the plat of a precinct or residence district, forwarded with the results of an election that was held under section 4301.35, 4301.351, or 4303.29 of the Revised Code, the board shall show and designate all of the streets and highways in the precinct or residence district.

(C) On the plat of a precinct or residence district, forwarded with the results of an election that was held under section 4301.352 of the Revised Code, the board shall show and designate all of the following:

(1) All of the streets and highways in the precinct or residence district;

(2) The permit premises designated in the petition that was filed under section 4301.331 of the Revised Code;

(3) A class C or D permit holder's personal or corporate name, and if it is different from his personal or corporate name, the name of the business conducted by the permit holder on the designated premises;

(4) The address of the designated premises.

(D) On the plat of a precinct or residence district, forwarded with the results of an election that was held under section 4301.353 of the Revised Code, the board shall show and designate both of the following:

(1) All of the streets and highways in the precinct or residence district;

(2) The particular location and proposed use designated in the petition that was filed under section 4301.332 of the Revised Code.

(E) With the results of an election that was held under section 4301.354 of the Revised Code, the board shall designate both of the following:

(1) The permit premises designated in the petition that was filed under section 4301.333 of the Revised Code;

(2) The class C or D permit holder's personal or corporate name and, if it is different from his personal or corporate name, the name of the business conducted by the permit holder on the designated premises.

(F) With the results of an election that was held under section 4301.355 of the Revised Code, the board shall designate the particular location and use or proposed use designated in the petition that was filed under section 4301.334 of the Revised Code or, if the petition seeking the election was filed under section 4301.335 of the Revised Code, the board shall designate both of the following:

(1) The permit premises designated in the petition;

(2) The class C or D permit holder's personal or corporate name and, if it is different from his personal or corporate name, the name of the business conducted by the permit holder on the designated premises.

(G) In the event an application for recount is filed with the board of elections pursuant to section 3515.02 of the Revised Code or if an election contest is commenced pursuant to section 3515.09 of the Revised Code, the board of elections shall send written notice of the recount or contest, by certified mail, to the director of liquor control within two days from the date of the filing of the application for recount or the commencement of an election contest. Upon the final determination of an election recount or contest, the board of elections shall send notice of the final determination, by certified mail, to the director of liquor control and the liquor control commission.

(H) If, as the result of a local option election, the use of a permit is made partially unlawful, the department shall, within thirty days after receipt of the final notice of the result of the election, pick up and amend the permit by inserting appropriate restrictions on the permit, and forthwith reissue the permit without charge or refund to the permit holder.

If, as the result of a local option election, except a local option election held pursuant to section 4301.352 or 4301.354 of the Revised Code, the use of a permit is made wholly unlawful, the permit holder may, within thirty days after the certification of such final result by the board of elections to the department, deliver his permit to the department for safekeeping as provided in section 4303.272 of the Revised Code.

(I) If a municipal corporation or township has been paid all the moneys due it from permit fees under section 4301.30 of the Revised Code, it shall refund to the department ninety per cent of the money attributed to the unexpired portion of all permits which are still in force at the time of a local option election that makes use of the permits unlawful, except that no refund shall be made for the unexpired portion of a license year that is less than thirty days. Failure of the municipal corporation or township to refund the amount due entitles the permit holders to operate under their permits until the refund has been made.

If a municipal corporation or township has been paid all the money due it from permit fees under section 4301.30 of the Revised Code, it shall refund to the department ninety per cent of the money attributable to the unexpired portion of a permit at the time a local option election under section 4301.352 of the Revised Code makes use of the permit unlawful, except that no refund shall be made for the unexpired portion of a license year that is less than thirty days. Failure of the municipal corporation or township to refund the amount due entitles the permit holder to operate under his permit until the refund has been made.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. One may have a D permit for a particular location and yet be prohibited from selling intoxicating liquor at that location by reason of a valid local option election against such a sale in the territory including that location.

11 App(3d) 75, 11 OBR 126, 462 NE(2d) 1386 (Franklin 1983), Scioto Trails Co v Liquor Control Dept. Neither the Due Process Clause nor the Equal Protection Clause of the US and Ohio Constitutions is violated by RC 4301.39 and 4301.391, which provide for business to terminate under an existing liquor license due to a local-option election.

11 App(3d) 75, 11 OBR 126, 462 NE(2d) 1386 (Franklin 1983), Scioto Trails Co v Liquor Control Dept. Where a local-option election causes an area to become dry, liquor permittees in the affected area may not operate a liquor business at the permit location, but the permit itself may be transferred to another location or person pursuant to RC 4303.272, or it may be placed in safekeeping pursuant to RC 4301.39.

41 Misc 151, 324 NE(2d) 798 (CP, Richland 1974), Keffalas, Inc v Liquor Control Comm. Where a valid election under RC 4301.351 is held in a residence district and pursuant to such election licenses are issued, such licenses remain valid until a future election is held involving that territory, or part of that territory, four or more years after the enabling election, and any election held prior to such time affects only that part of the residence district which did not vote in the prior election.

OAG 71-064. Where local option election is held under RC 4301.351, respecting Sunday sales of intoxicating liquor in residence district of two or more election precincts, as defined in RC 4301.32, new residence district that includes one precinct of such earlier district may not be created for at least the four-year period, as provided in RC 4301.37, following election.

4301.391 Enforcement of local option election

No permit premises shall remain in operation inconsistent with the results of a local option election after the thirty day period set forth in section 4301.39 of the Revised Code and no court other than in a recount or election contest shall suspend or hold in abeyance any restriction or cancellation brought about by a local option election pursuant to sections 4301.32 to 4301.41, inclusive, and 4305.14 of the Revised Code.

The location of a D permit issued to the board of trustees of a soldiers' memorial for a premises located at a soldiers' memorial shall not be transferred. A board of trustees of a soldiers' memorial applying for a D-1, D-2, D-3, D-4, or D-5 permit for such a soldiers' memorial is subject to section 4303.31 of the Revised Code.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the issuance of a permit for a premises located at a golf course owned by a municipal corporation, township, or county, owned by a park district created under Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code, or owned by the state. The location of such a permit issued on or after September 26, 1984, for a premises located at such a golf course shall not be transferred. Any application for such a permit is exempt from the population quota restrictions contained in this section and from the population quota restrictions contained in any rule of the liquor control commission. A municipal corporation, township, county, park district, or state agency applying for a D-1, D-2, D-3, D-4, or D-5 permit for such a golf course is subject to section 4303.31 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) As used in this division, "residence district" has the same meaning as in section 4301.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) No D-3, D-4, D-5, or D-5a permit shall be issued in any election precinct or residence district in any municipal corporation or in any election precinct or residence district in the unincorporated area of any township, in which at the November, 1933, election a majority of the electors voting thereon in the municipal corporation or in the unincorporated area of the township voted against the repeal of Section 9 of Article XV, Ohio Constitution, unless the sale of spirituous liquor by the glass is authorized by a majority vote of the electors voting on the question in the precinct or residence district at an election held pursuant to this section or by a majority vote of the electors of the precinct or residence district voting on question (C) at a special local option election held in the precinct or residence district pursuant to section 4301.35 of the Revised Code. Upon the request of an elector, the board of elections of the county that encompasses the precinct or the residence district shall furnish the elector with a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, a certificate of the number of signatures required for a valid petition under this section.

Upon the petition of thirty-five per cent of the total number of voters voting in any such precinct or residence district for the office of governor at the preceding general election, filed with the board of elections of the county in which such precinct or the residence district is located not later than seventy-five days before a general election, such board shall prepare ballots and hold an election at such general election upon the question of allowing spirituous liquor to be sold by the glass in such precinct or residence district. Such ballots shall be approved in form by the secretary of state. The results of such election shall be certified by the board to the secretary of state, who shall certify the same to the department.

(3) No holder of a class D-3 permit issued for a boat or vessel shall sell spirituous liquor in any precinct, in which the election provided for in this section may be held, unless the sale of such liquor by the drink has been authorized by vote of the electors as provided in this section or in section 4301.35 of the Revised Code.

(D) Any holder of a C or D permit whose permit premises were purchased in 1986 or 1987 by the state of Ohio or any state agency for highway purposes shall be issued the same permit at another location notwithstanding any quota restrictions contained in this chapter or in any rule of the liquor control commission.

3. Board action
4. Freeze regulations

1. Constitutional issues

69 Abs 556, 118 NE(2d) 713 (CP, Franklin 1954), Papatheodoro v Liquor Control Dept. The statutory provision that no person convicted of a felony may receive a liquor permit is constitutional.

2. Construction

16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. One may have a D permit for a particular location and yet be prohibited from selling intoxicating liquor at that location by reason of a valid local option election against such sale in the territory including that location.

158 OS 213, 107 NE(2d) 321 (1952), Abraham v Fioramonte. Permits issued by the department of liquor control are personal licenses and are not property which can be mortgaged or seized under execution or court order for the satisfaction of debt.

133 OS 50, 11 NE(2d) 245 (1937), State ex rel Cozart v Carran. A provision in a municipal ordinance, limiting licenses for the sale of spirituous liquor under permits D-3, D-3a and D-5 to one for every thirty-five hundred of the population, is in conflict with this section, and is therefore void under O Const Art XVIII §3, permitting municipalities to adopt local police regulations not in conflict with general laws.

129 OS 140, 194 NE 11 (1934), State ex rel Olympia Athletic Club v Liquor Control Dept. Where a township, exclusive of the territory of a municipal corporation situated therein, voted against the repeal of O Const Art XV §9, at the November, 1933 election, and at the same time one of the two township voting precincts therein voted for repeal, a class D-4 permit cannot lawfully be issued in the precinct so voting. In such case the township, exclusive of such municipal territory, and not the voting precinct, is the liquor control district.

70 App(2d) 219, 436 NE(2d) 543 (1980), Painesville Raceway, Inc v Liquor Control Dept. Whether the provisions of RC Ch 4303 preclude the department of liquor control from issuing more than one liquor permit to separate applicants for the same location is a question of interpretation of state statutes and rules and regulations of the liquor control commission, and is within the perimeters of the appellate jurisdiction of the court of appeals pursuant to RC 119.12.

70 App(2d) 219, 436 NE(2d) 543 (1980), Painesville Raceway, Inc v Liquor Control Dept. Where the holder of a liquor permit issued by the department of liquor control for a specific location does not have the legal right to exclusive, year-round possession of the premises at such location, the provisions of RC Ch 4303 do not prohibit the department of liquor control from issuing a second liquor permit for that location to another applicant for periods during the year when such applicant is entitled to exclusive possession of the same premises.

22 Misc 254, 255 NE(2d) 587 (CP, Franklin 1970), Whitt v Cook. RC 4303.29 authorizes holding of an election on question of sale of spirituous liquor by glass in only one of following two types of liquor control districts: (1) a municipal corporation or (2) a township, exclusive of any municipal corporation or part thereof, so that a part of a municipal corporation may not be created as a liquor control district.

22 Misc 254, 255 NE(2d) 587 (CP, Franklin 1970), Whitt v Cook. Since, under Ohio liquor statutes, citizen and elector of a precinct in which it is sought to authorize sale of liquor is member of a class expressly recognized as having a special interest in such action, such person has standing as plaintiff in action to enjoin unlawful attempt to exercise electoral process to that end.

22 Misc 254, 255 NE(2d) 587 (CP, Franklin 1970), Whitt v Cook. Exercise of purported right to issue liquor permits allegedly resulting from election held in precincts not eligible to become a liquor control district under RC 4303.29 may be restrained by injunction, although no challenge by election contest was filed pursuant to RC 3515.08.

7 Misc 292, 220 NE(2d) 151 (Muni, Canton 1966), Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc. Ohio has fully and completely covered the subject of the control and sale of all intoxicating beverages within the state, so a city ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor in a particular zoning district is invalid. (See also Canton v Imperial Bowling Lanes, Inc, 16 OS(2d) 47, 242 NE(2d) 566 (1968).)

91 Abs 596, 192 NE(2d) 801 (CP, Stark 1963), Allied Investment Credit Corp v Stardust Lounge, Inc. Liquor permits are not property such as can be validly covered by a mortgage.

69 Abs 556, 118 NE(2d) 713 (CP, Franklin 1954), Papatheodoro v Liquor Control Dept. A liquor license is not "property" within the meaning of O Const Art I §1.

60 Abs 345, 102 NE(2d) 266 (App, Franklin 1951), Mandalla v Liquor Control Bd. A regulation of the Ohio board of liquor control which attempts to fix the number of permits to be issued upon a variable basis without relation to the central purpose of the Liquor Control Act, that the number of permit holders be governed by considerations of public health, welfare and morality, is unreasonable and invalid.

OAG 70-095. "Population" for purposes of RC 4303.29 is to be determined by relevant and competent evidence, and preliminary or advanced census figures constitute such evidence.

OAG 70-095. Each application for a liquor permit stands on its own and availability of quota opening for such permit is to be determined by relevant and competent evidence; such quota opening must exist at time a permit is issued.

1963 OAG 112. A club which is the holder of a D-4 permit may be issued an additional class C or D permit at the same location, provided that it meets all the requirements independently for each permit, or at a different location, provided that it meets all the requirements for each permit independently at each location.

1957 OAG 1153. Where a municipality is incorporated subsequent to November, 1933, the condition precedent to an election on the sole question of the sale of liquor by the glass in that municipality pursuant to RC 4303.29 is impossible of fulfillment.

1957 OAG 658. Type D liquor permits issued for a ship sailing between Detroit and Cleveland are not permits issued "in any county or municipal corporation" nor "in any political subdivision within the meaning of the quota provisions of RC 4303.29 or regulation 64 of the department of liquor control, but type E or H permits for such a ship are deemed to have been issued in the municipal corporation or township in which the owner or operator of such vessel has his principal office or place of business in Ohio for purposes of distribution of fees under RC 4301.30.

1949 OAG 867. Provision prohibiting the issuance of any permit under the Liquor Control Act does not apply to a person convicted of a felony who has received a pardon from the president of the United States or the governor of any state having jurisdiction.

1943 OAG 6457. Where privilege of local option with respect to sale of spirituous liquor is sought to be exercised it is necessary to submit to electors each and all of questions set out in GC 6064-33 (RC 4301.35); board of elections of county wherein district is located cannot submit to electors of such district at next general election sole question of whether sale of spirituous liquor by glass shall be permitted therein, even though petition bearing number of signatures required by GC 6064-32 (RC 4301.33) is filed with it sixty days before such election.

1939 OAG 947. Under this section, population limits on issuance of permits discussed.

1935 OAG 4937. Prohibition on issuance by the department of liquor control of class D-3, class D-4, class D-5 permits in townships and municipalities wherein the electors at the November, 1933 election voted against the repeal of constitutional prohibition, does not prevent the department of liquor control from issuing the other classes of permits subject to the restrictions of this chapter.

3. Board action

98 App 500, 130 NE(2d) 380 (1954), Mastroianni v Liquor Control Bd. Where the enforcement of a rule of the board of liquor control would result in a gross injustice to an applicant for transfer of a liquor permit, the applicant may seek relief under RC 119.11.

74 Abs 225, 140 NE(2d) 77 (CP, Franklin 1954), Kleinman v Liquor Control Dept. The holder of two liquor permits cannot have a bona fide sale of his business and assets in connection with the transfer of one permit and still have business and assets to qualify his remaining permit.

72 Abs 334, 135 NE(2d) 82 (App, Franklin 1955), American Legion Clifton Post v Liquor Control Bd. Board of liquor control must be given wide discretion in determining facts and in resolving those facts for or against an applicant for a permit.

69 Abs 570, 121 NE(2d) 116 (CP, Franklin 1951), State v Sassler; affirmed by 67 Abs 353, 120 NE(2d) 332 (App, Franklin 1951). Evidence that a convicted felon showed patrons to their seats and saw that they were served, and was seen counting money from the cash register constitutes evidence that he was employed by a permit holder.

69 Abs 535, 119 NE(2d) 140 (CP, Franklin 1954), Morton v Liquor Control Bd. An individual convicted for violating the national Prohibition Act, and who subsequently served seven months in the army during World War II is not thereby pardoned so as to be entitled to a liquor permit.

69 Abs 431, 119 NE(2d) 147 (CP, Franklin 1954), Mastroianni v Liquor Control Bd; reversed by 98 App 500, 130 NE(2d) 380 (1954). The state is not estopped from refusing to transfer a liquor permit in violation of an existing regulation merely because the chief of the permit division erroneously advised the permit holder that he would be permitted to transfer such permit and such permit holder expended funds in reliance thereon.

68 Abs 361, 122 NE(2d) 420 (CP, Franklin 1954), American Legion Clifton Post No. 421 v Liquor Control Bd; reversed by 72 Abs 334, 135 NE(2d) 82 (App, Franklin 1955). The department of liquor control was not justified in refusing to issue a D-4 permit to an American legion post upon the ground that an investigator had purchased liquor there at a time when such post did not have any license.

68 Abs 326, 122 NE(2d) 425, 793 (CP, Franklin 1953), Kenwood Country Club v Liquor Control Bd. Board of liquor control acted unlawfully in rejecting application for D-4 permit where number outstanding in area was less than statutory census quota and less than regulation 64 quota.

67 Abs 375, 120 NE(2d) 329 (App, Franklin 1951), Liquor Control Bd v Jackson. The board of liquor control is justified in rejecting an application for a liquor permit where the evidence shows that the applicant's husband, a twice-convicted felon, was responsible for the management of the business and shared in the profits.

67 Abs 353, 120 NE(2d) 332 (App, Franklin 1951), Liquor Control Dept v Sassler. The board of liquor control is authorized in revoking a permit where the record establishes that a convicted felon was employed on the premises and that the permit holder prevented, hindered and obstructed agents in inspecting the premises.

62 Abs 346, 107 NE(2d) 412 (App, Franklin 1951), Smiley v Liquor Control Dept. Where in an application for a renewal of a liquor permit the applicant made false statements about his father's financial interest in the business and his previous conviction of a felony, and the father operated the business for long periods of time, the department was warranted in rejecting the application for renewal.

4. Freeze regulations

63 OS(2d) 201, 407 NE(2d) 507 (1980), C.K. & J.K., Inc v Fairview Shopping Center Corp. The general assembly did not intend to preclude private lease restrictions regarding the sale of alcohol when it enacted RC Ch 4303 which regulates the sale of alcohol by requiring permits to make such sales.

165 OS 96, 133 NE(2d) 325 (1956), Stouffer Corp v Liquor Control Bd. While the board of liquor control may reasonably regulate the number of permits of any class within any subdivisions and further limit certain classes where the general assembly has imposed a limitation, a seven-year freeze on permits adopted in 1949 was unreasonable in 1956.

99 App 139, 131 NE(2d) 844 (1955), Scharff v Liquor Control Bd. Where, subsequent to the filing of an application for a liquor permit, the department of liquor control adopts a regulation imposing a freeze on the number of permits, the law at the time of the passing on the application by the proper authorities must govern.

98 App 419, 129 NE(2d) 841 (1954), Haynay v Liquor Control Bd. The provision of regulation no. 14 of the board of liquor control, by which liquor permits may be transferred "from one location to another" does not operate to take the transfer of such permits out from the general "freeze" provisions of regulation no. 64 of the board of liquor control.

74 Abs 225, 140 NE(2d) 77 (CP, Franklin 1954), Kleinman v Liquor Control Dept. The limitation as to the number of liquor permits in a particular territory is not affected by changes of political boundaries of subdivisions of the state by incorporation or annexation proceedings.

OAG 85-027. If the department of liquor control denies an application for a liquor permit on the basis that the issuance of the permit would cause the number of that type of permit issued to exceed the quota set by statute or by administrative rule, the Ohio liquor control commission may not order the permit to be issued, unless the commission, in considering an appeal from such denial pursuant to RC 4301.28(A), finds that the department's denial is incorrect as a matter of fact or law.

1954 OAG 3794. Regulation 64 of the Ohio board of liquor control was amended by implication by RC 4303.291 so that the freeze on D-4 permits does not apply to the fraternal organizations designated therein. In the application of such regulation as amended (eliminating any question of the effect of the statutory quota provided by RC 4303.29), the number of permits which may currently be issued thereunder to applicants other than such fraternal organizations should be determined by reference to the number of permits issued and outstanding on April 11, 1949, to permittees other than such fraternal organizations, and not to the total number of permits issued and outstanding on such date.

BEER

4305.08 "Beer" defined

As used in sections 4305.11 and 4305.14 of the Revised Code, "beer" has the same meaning as given in division (B)(2) of section 4301.01 of the Revised Code.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

135 OS 369, 21 NE(2d) 108 (1939), Jolly v Deeds. In an election to determine whether the sale of beer should be permitted by holders of C and D permits in a village, four ballots, filed under the honest but mistaken belief that the precinct where a voter casts his ballot is unimportant so long as he does not vote elsewhere, are invalid, since they were cast in wrong precinct.

1957 OAG 7572. Sales of malt liquor are subject to the excise tax imposed as provided in RC 4305.01 et seq. and 4301.42 et seq., and are not subject to taxation under the provisions of RC 5739.02.

1951 OAG 2606. A-1 and B-1 permittees under the liquor control act may lawfully deliver beer and malt beverages as defined in this section for home use to individuals residing in a district which has been voted "dry" in a local option election.

4305.14 Local option on sale of beer; information provided to and by petitioner; procedure of board of elections; distribution of instructions

(A) As used in this section, "residence district" has the same meaning as in section 4301.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) The following questions regarding the sale of beer by holders of C or D permits may be presented to the qualified electors of an election precinct or residence district:

(1) "Shall the sale of beer as defined in section 4305.08 of the Revised Code under permits which authorize sale for off-premises consumption only be permitted within this (precinct) (district)?"

(2) "Shall the sale of beer as defined in section 4305.08 of the Revised Code under permits which authorize sale for on-premises consumption only, and under permits which authorize sale for both on-premises and off-premises consumption, be permitted in this (precinct) (district)?"

The exact wording of the question as submitted and form of ballot as printed shall be determined by the board of elections in the county wherein the election is held, subject to approval of the secretary of state.

Upon the request of an elector, a board of elections of a county that encompasses an election precinct or residence district shall furnish to the elector a copy of the instructions prepared by the secretary of state under division (P) of section 3501.05 of the Revised Code and, within fifteen days after the request, with a certificate indicating the number of valid signatures that will be required on a petition to hold a special election in that precinct or residence district on either or both of the questions specified in this section.

The board shall provide to a petitioner, at the time he takes out a petition, the names of the streets and, if appropriate, the address numbers of residences and business establishments within the precinct or residence district in which the election is sought, and a form prescribed by the secretary of state for notifying affected permit holders of the circulation of a petition for an election for the submission of one or more of the questions specified in division (B) of this section. The petitioner shall, not less than forty-five days before the petition-filing deadline for an election provided for in this section, file with the department of liquor control the information regarding names of streets and, if appropriate, address numbers of residences and business establishments provided to him by the board of elections, and specify to the department the precinct or residence district that is concerned and the filing deadline. The department shall, within a reasonable period of time and not later than fifteen days before the filing deadline, supply the petitioner with a list of the names and addresses of permit holders who would be affected by the election. The list shall contain a heading with the following words: "liquor permit holders who would be affected by the question(s) set forth on a petition for a local option election."

Within five days after a petitioner has received from the department the list of liquor permit holders who would be affected by the question or questions set forth on a petition for local option election, he shall, using the form provided to him by the board of elections, notify by certified mail each permit holder whose name appears on that list. The form for notifying affected permit holders shall require the petitioner to state his name and street address and shall contain a statement that a petition is being circulated for an election for the submission of the question or questions specified in division (B) of this section. The form shall require the petitioner to state the question or questions to be submitted as they appear on the petition.

The petitioner shall attach a copy of the list provided to him by the department to each petition paper. A part petition paper circulated at any time without the list of affected permit holders attached to it is invalid.

At the time he files the petition with the board of elections, the petitioner shall provide to the board of elections the list supplied to him by the department and an affidavit certifying that he notified all affected permit holders on the list in the manner and within the time required in this section and that, at the time each signer of the petition affixed his signature to the petition, the petition paper contained a copy of the list of affected permit holders.

Within five days after receiving a petition calling for an election for the submission of the question or questions set forth in this section, the board of elections shall give notice by certified mail that it has received the petition to all liquor permit holders whose names appear on the list of affected permit holders filed by the petitioner as furnished to him by the department. Failure of the petitioner to supply the affidavit required by this section and a complete and accurate list of liquor permit holders as furnished to him by the department of liquor control invalidates the entire petition. The board of elections shall provide to a permit holder who would be affected by a proposed local option election, on the permit holder's request, the names of the streets, and, if appropriate, the address numbers of residences and business establishments within the precinct or residence district in which the election is sought. The board may charge a reasonable fee for this information when provided to the petitioner and the permit holder.

Upon presentation not later than four p.m. of the seventy-fifth day before the day of a general or primary election, of a petition to the board of elections of the county wherein such election is sought to be held, requesting the holding of such election on either or both of the questions specified in this section, signed by qualified electors of the precinct or residence district concerned equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the precinct concerned for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office, in the case of an election within a single precinct, or equal in number to fifty-five per cent of the total number of votes cast in the residence district concerned for the office of governor at the preceding general election for that office, in the case of an election within a residence district, such board shall submit the question or questions specified in the petition to the electors of the precinct or residence district concerned, on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first.

(C) The board shall proceed as follows:

(1) Such board shall, not later than the sixty-sixth day before the day of the election for which the question or questions on the petition would qualify for submission to the electors of the precinct or residence district, examine and determine the sufficiency of the signatures and review, examine, and determine the validity of such petition and, in case of overlapping precinct petitions or overlapping residence district petitions or overlapping precinct and residence district petitions presented within that period, determine which of the petitions shall govern the further proceedings of the board. In the case where the board determines that two or more overlapping petitions are valid, the earlier petition shall govern. The board shall certify the sufficiency and validity of any petition determined to be valid. The board shall determine the validity of the petition as of the time of certification as described in division (B)(1) of this section.

(2) If the petition is valid, and, in case of overlapping precinct petitions or overlapping residence district petitions or overlapping precinct and residence district petitions, after the board has determined the governing petition, the board shall order the holding of a special election in the precinct or residence district for the submission of the question or questions specified in the petition, on the day of the next general or primary election, whichever occurs first.

All petitions filed with a board of elections under this section shall be open to public inspection under regulations adopted by the board.

(D) Protest against a local option petition may be filed by any qualified elector eligible to vote on the question or questions specified in the petition or by a permit holder in the precinct or residence district as described in the petition, not later than four p.m. of the sixty-fourth day before the day of such general or primary election. Such protest must be in writing and shall be filed with the election officials with whom the petition was filed. Upon filing of such protest the election officials with whom it is filed shall promptly fix the time for hearing the same, and shall forthwith mail notice of the filing of the protest and the time for hearing it to the person who filed the petition which is protested and to the person who filed the protest. At the time fixed, the election officials shall hear the protest and determine the validity of the petition.

(E) If a majority of the electors voting on the question in the precinct or residence district vote "yes" on question (1) or (2) as set forth in division (B) of this section, the sale of beer as specified in that question shall be permitted in the precinct or residence district.

If a majority of the electors voting on the question in the precinct or residence district vote "no" on question (1) or (2) as set forth in division (B) of this section, no C or D permit holder shall sell beer as specified in that question within the precinct or residence district during the period the election is in effect.

(F) No election shall be held under this section on the same question more often than once in each four years. No election shall be held on question (1) or (2) as set forth in division (B) of this section if an election was held in the same precinct or residence district within four years before the date of the election on question (1) or (2) on the question specified in this section before May 13, 1987.

When a local option election has been held under this section prior to April 4, 1985, in a district, as described in this section prior to April 4, 1985, the results of the election shall be effective in the district until another election is held pursuant to this section, but no such election shall be held in any election precinct that is part of the district until four years have passed since the date of the most recent election held under this section in that district.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

62 OS(3d) 145 (1991), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A circulator of local option election petitions who is to receive remuneration upon the occurrence of a favorable outcome of the local option election has standing to challenge the noncertification of the petitions as he will be "benefitted" or "injured" as a result of the judgment.

62 OS(3d) 145 (1991), State ex rel Hinkle v Franklin County Bd of Elections. A bill addressing matters pertaining to the judicial system, i.e., creation and expansion of courts, violates the "one-subject rule" where the bill also includes the unrelated subject of "residence districts" for the purpose of local option liquor control elections, as the two subjects have no rational relationship or common purpose; therefore, the unrelated portion of the Am Sub HB 200, the local option election sections, shall be severed from the bill and be of no effect.

22 OS(3d) 23, 22 OBR 19, 488 NE(2d) 202 (1986), In re Contested Election on Local Option on Sale of Beer in Clay Twp. A local option election dealing with the sale of beer need not be conducted with the beer issue on a ballot separate from ballots concerning other issues.

37 OS(2d) 53, 307 NE(2d) 258 (1974), State ex rel Snyder v Wheatcraft. Where election board delayed decision on protest to local option petitions until a month after the election was held and then determined the petitions were invalid, mandamus will lie directing the board to count the ballots and declare the result of the election.

34 OS(2d) 129, 296 NE(2d) 676 (1973), Stewart v Trumbull County Bd of Elections. The privilege of local option for beer under RC 4305.14, and for intoxicating liquors under RC 4301.32, extends to any two or more contiguous precincts within a municipal corporation.

135 OS 369, 21 NE(2d) 108 (1939), Jolly v Deeds. In election to determine whether beer as defined by GC 6212-63 (RC 4305.08) should be sold by C and D permit holders in a village, four ballots cast in the honest belief that precinct of voting is unimportant as long as voter does not vote elsewhere, are invalid when cast in the wrong precinct.

No. 10230 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 6-18-87), Arena Food Service Inc v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Where a liquor permit holder has actual notice of a local option election scheduled in the precinct in which he is licensed, such permit holder lacks standing to challenge the constitutionality of local option election statutes on the basis that the statutes lack a provision for notice to current liquor permit holders.

OAG 87-006. Pursuant to the terms of 1986 H 39, § 3, eff. 2-21-87, the local option election questions specified in RC 4301.351 and 4305.14 may appear on the ballot at the primary election, to be held on May 5, 1987, in an election precinct to which the four-year prohibitions of RC 4301.37(A) and 4301.37(B) would otherwise apply.

1959 OAG 536. The procedure for a local option election pertaining to the sale of "beer" under a D-1 permit is contained in RC 4305.14.

1959 OAG 536. A local option election on the question of the sale of malt liquors or malt beverages as defined in RC 4301.01 and included in the definition of "intoxicating liquor" found in that section, must be conducted as provided in RC 4301.35, such question to be resolved by the "yes" or "no" vote on question (A) as stated in that section; and a majority vote of "yes" on questions (A), (B), and (C) of such section would authorize the issuance of unrestricted D-2 permits within the district concerned.

1951 OAG 2606. A-1 and B-1 permittees under the Liquor Control Act may lawfully deliver beer and malt beverages for home use to individuals residing in a district which has been voted "dry" in a local option election.

1934 OAG 2381. In holding local option election as to sale of beer, question should be put on ballot "shall the sale of beer as defined in GC 6212-63 (RC 4305.08) be permitted within the district," etc.

1933 OAG 885. 3.2 beer may be manufactured and sold lawfully under permit by Ohio liquor control commission, regardless of local ordinances to the contrary.

1933 OAG 885. This method for prohibiting sale of 3.2 beer is exclusive; sale may be prohibited only by such election, local ordinances notwithstanding.

4305.15 Signatures on local option petition; affidavit of circulator

The petition provided for in section 4305.14 of the Revised Code may consist of one or more separate petition papers. Petitions shall be governed by the rules set forth in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code.

4503.032 Solicitation of political contributions from deputy registrars; award or termination of contract not to be affected by political contributions

(A) As used in this section, "candidate," "contribution," and "campaign committee" have the same meanings as in section 3517.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) No person shall knowingly solicit directly or indirectly, orally or by letter, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political party, for the governor or his campaign committee, or for any candidate for public office or his campaign committee from a person known by the solicitor to be a deputy registrar under contract with the registrar of motor vehicles.

(C) Neither the registrar nor any person shall award a deputy registrar contract to a person, or promise to do so, because that person pays an assessment or subscription to, or makes a contribution to, any political party, the governor or his campaign committee, or any candidate for public office or his campaign committee. Neither the registrar nor any person shall withhold a deputy registrar contract from a person, or threaten to do so, because that person fails to pay an assessment or subscription to, or fails to make a contribution to, any political party, the governor or his campaign committee, or any candidate for public office or his campaign committee. Neither the registrar nor any person shall terminate a deputy registrar contract awarded to a person, or threaten to do so, because that person fails to pay an assessment or subscription to, or fails to make a contribution to, any political party, the governor or his campaign committee, or any candidate for public office or his campaign committee.

4504.02 Levy; purpose; use; county commissioners' resolution

For the purpose of paying the costs of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; and for planning, constructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing public roads, highways, and streets; maintaining and repairing bridges and viaducts; paying the county's portion of the costs and expenses of cooperating with the department of transportation in the planning, improvement, and construction of state highways; paying the county's portion of the compensation, damages, cost, and expenses of planning, constructing, reconstructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing roads; paying any costs apportioned to the county under section 4907.47 of the Revised Code; paying debt service charges on notes or bonds of the county issued for such purposes; paying all or part of the costs and expenses of municipal corporations in planning, constructing, reconstructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing highways, roads, and streets designated as necessary or conducive to the orderly and efficient flow of traffic within and through the county pursuant to section 4504.03 of the Revised Code; purchasing, erecting, and maintaining street and traffic signs and markers; purchasing, erecting, and maintaining traffic lights and signals; and to supplement revenue already available for such purposes, any county by resolution adopted by its board of county commissioners may levy an annual license tax, in addition to the tax levied by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles on the public roads or highways. Such tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the district of registration of which, as defined in section 4503.10 of the Revised Code, is located in the county levying the tax and shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections 4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.173, 4503.41, and 4503.43, and 4503.46 of the Revised Code.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing.

No resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax shall become effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption, and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and shall state the reasons for such necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after such resolution is certified to the board; no such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 90-006. If a county permissive motor vehicle license tax is adopted as an emergency measure under RC 4504.02, 4504.15, or 4504.16 in April 1989 and the resolution levying the tax is certified to the motor vehicles registrar not later than July 1, 1989, the tax is subject to collection by the registrar and his deputies beginning on January 1, 1990. If such tax is repealed pursuant to RC 4504.021 in November 1989, there is no authority to collect that tax at any time.

OAG 90-006. As used in RC 4504.021, "the current year" means the registration (or calendar) year in which the repeal of a county permissive tax adopted as an emergency measure under RC 4504.02, 4504.15, or 4504.16 is approved by the electors and the result of the election is certified to the county commissioners.

OAG 77-079. The board of county commissioners may compensate and equip a deputy detailed to enforce RC Ch 5577 from either the annual license tax fund established by RC 4503.02 or the county motor vehicle license tax established by RC 4504.02.

OAG 77-052. A municipal corporation is not precluded from levying a municipal motor vehicle license tax pursuant to RC 4504.06 if the county in which it is located has previously levied such a tax but has failed to certify the resolution levying such a tax with the registrar of motor vehicles.

OAG 76-074. A county may, pursuant to RC 4504.02 and 5535.08, use the proceeds of a county motor vehicle license tax to help pay the cost of repairing township roads.

OAG 72-106. Pleasure trailers, regardless of their weight, are "motor vehicles" under RC 4504.02 and subject to the county motor vehicle tax of $5.00.

OAG 70-065. Proceeds of permissive county motor vehicle license tax may be used to improve streets which are located wholly within municipality if such streets are determined by county engineer to be necessary or conducive to the orderly and efficient flow of traffic within and through the county.

OAG 69-105. A resolution levying a motor vehicle license tax pursuant to RC 4504.02 is subject to referendum as provided for by RC 305.31 only for the thirty-day period immediately following its adoption.

OAG 69-105. A resolution levying a motor vehicle license tax pursuant to RC 4504.02 does not have to be adopted each year prior to collecting such tax each year.

OAG 69-074. Funds derived from RC 4504.02 may be used by both the county and municipalities for the removal of ice and snow, but municipalities are limited in their expenditures to streets designated on the map submitted pursuant to RC 4504.03.

OAG 69-074. A county may expend its portion of funds derived from the county motor vehicle tax levied pursuant to RC 4504.02 for purchase of right-of-way, but municipalities may not expend funds allocated by RC 4504.05 for the purchase of right-of-way.

OAG 69-074. Both the county and municipalities may expend funds derived from RC 4504.02 for the construction and/or maintenance of culverts, bridges and railroad separations.

OAG 69-074. Money received from RC 4504.02 may not be used to pay the salaries of employees of the county engineer's office for inspection work.

OAG 68-127. Nonresident servicemen are exempt from the five dollar permissive tax imposed by RC 4504.02.

OAG 68-084. Expenses incurred by the registrar of motor vehicles in the administration of the county motor vehicle tax should be considered a normal item of the budget, and such expenses cannot properly be assessed against a county.

4504.021 Election to repeal emergency permissive tax

The question of repeal of a county permissive tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 4504.02, 4504.15, or 4504.16 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election.

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the county at the next general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the time, and the place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the county commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy the tax.

4504.06 Municipal levy; when authorized; hearing and referendum requirements

For the purpose of paying the costs and expenses of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; and for planning, constructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing public roads, highways, and streets; maintaining and repairing bridges and viaducts; paying the municipal corporation's portion of the costs and expenses of cooperating with the department of transportation in the planning, improvement, and construction of state highways; paying the municipal corporation's portion of the compensation, damages, cost, and expenses of planning, constructing, reconstructing, improving, maintaining, and repairing roads and streets; paying any costs apportioned to the municipal corporation under section 4907.47 of the Revised Code; paying debt service charges on notes or bonds of the municipal corporation issued for such purposes; purchasing, erecting, and maintaining street and traffic signs and markers; purchasing, erecting and maintaining traffic lights and signals; and to supplement revenue already available for such purposes, the legislative authority of any municipal corporation may by proper legislation levy an annual license tax, in addition to the tax levied by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles on the public roads or highways. Such tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the district of registration of which, as defined in section 4503.10 of the Revised Code, is in the municipal corporation levying the tax and which are not subject to a county motor vehicle license tax levied by a resolution adopted pursuant to section 4504.02 of the Revised Code. Such tax shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections 4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.173, 4503.41, 4503.43, and 4503.46 of the Revised Code.

No municipal corporation shall enact any ordinance, resolution, or other measure levying a tax pursuant to this section on any motor vehicle registration which would be subject to a resolution previously adopted levying a county motor vehicle license tax where such resolution has not become effective solely because of the filing of a referendum petition pursuant to sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code or because the thirty-day period following adoption of the resolution has not expired.

No ordinance, resolution, or other measure levying a municipal motor vehicle license tax shall be enacted as an emergency measure under section 731.30 of the Revised Code or pursuant to the charter of any municipal corporation and each such ordinance, resolution, or other measure is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 731.29 to 731.41 of the Revised Code or by the charter of the municipal corporation.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 77-052. A municipal corporation is not precluded from levying a municipal motor vehicle license tax pursuant to RC 4504.06 if the county in which it is located has previously levied such a tax but has failed to certify the resolution levying such a tax with the registrar of motor vehicles.

OAG 74-010. A municipal corporation has no authority to exempt motorcycles, two-wheel recreational vehicles, and house or camping trailers from a permissive motor vehicle license tax, levied pursuant to RC 4504.06.

OAG 74-010. Where exemptions included in an ordinance levying a tax pursuant to RC 4504.06 are invalid for lack of authority, that part of the ordinance levying the tax is still operative and should be enforced.

4504.15 Additional county motor vehicle license tax; hearings; effective date

For the purpose of paying the costs of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; for the various purposes stated in section 4504.02 of the Revised Code; and to supplement revenue already available for those purposes, any county may, by resolution adopted by its board of county commissioners, levy an annual license tax, that shall be in addition to the tax levied by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles upon the public roads and highways. The tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the district of registration of which, as defined in section 4503.10 of the Revised Code, is located in the county levying the tax but is not located within any municipal corporation levying the tax authorized by section 4504.17 of the Revised Code, and shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections

4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.41, and 4503.43 of the Revised Code.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax under this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing.

No resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax under this section shall become effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption, and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. The emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners, and shall state the reasons for the necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board; no such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it. A county is not required to enact the tax authorized by section 4504.02 of the Revised Code in order to levy the tax authorized by this section, but no county may have in effect the tax authorized by this section if it repeals the tax authorized by section 4504.02 of the Revised Code after April 1, 1987.

4504.16 Additional motor vehicle license tax for counties currently levying tax authorized in R.C. 4504.15; hearings; effective date

For the purpose of paying the costs of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; for the various purposes stated in section 4504.02 of the Revised Code; and to supplement revenue already available for those purposes, any county that currently levies the tax authorized by section 4504.15 of the Revised Code may, by resolution adopted by its board of county commissioners, levy an annual license tax, that shall be in addition to the tax levied by that section and by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles upon the public roads and highways. The tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the district of registration of which, as defined in section 4503.10 of the Revised Code, is located in the county levying the tax but is not located within any municipal corporation levying the tax authorized by section 4504.171 of the Revised Code, and shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections 4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.41, and 4503.43 of the Revised Code.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax under this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing.

No resolution levying a county motor vehicle license tax under this section shall become effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption, and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. The emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners, and shall state the reasons for the necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board; no such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it.

Nothing in this section or in section 4504.15 of the Revised Code shall be interpreted as preventing a county from levying the county motor vehicle license taxes authorized by such sections in a single resolution.

OAG 90-006. If a county permissive motor vehicle license tax is adopted as an emergency measure under RC 4504.02, 4504.15, or 4504.16 in April 1989 and the resolution levying the tax is certified to the motor vehicles registrar not later than July 1, 1989, the tax is subject to collection by the registrar and his deputies beginning on January 1, 1990. If such tax is repealed pursuant to RC 4504.021 in November 1989, there is no authority to collect that tax at any time.

OAG 90-006. As used in RC 4504.021, "the current year" means the registration (or calendar) year in which the repeal of a county permissive tax adopted as an emergency measure under RC 4504.02, 4504.15, or 4504.16 is approved by the electors and the result of the election is certified to the county commissioners.

4504.17 Additional municipal motor vehicle license tax levied after April 1, 1989; emergency measure prohibited

For the purpose of paying the costs and expenses of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; to supplement revenue already available to municipal corporations under section 4504.04, 4504.06, 4504.171, or 4504.172 of the Revised Code, and to provide additional revenue for the purposes set forth in those sections, the legislative authority of any municipal corporation located in a county that is not levying the tax authorized by section 4504.15 of the Revised Code may, after the first day of April, 1989, and regardless of any tax being levied pursuant to section 4504.06 or received pursuant to section 4504.04 of the Revised Code, levy an annual license tax, that shall be in addition to the tax levied by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles on the public roads or highways. The tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the district of registration of which, as defined in section 4503.10 of the Revised Code, is in the municipal corporation levying the tax, and shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections 4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.41, and 4503.43 of the Revised Code.

No municipal corporation shall enact any ordinance, resolution, or other measure levying a tax pursuant to this section on any motor vehicle registration that would be subject to a resolution previously adopted levying a county motor vehicle license tax under section 4504.15 of the Revised Code where such resolution has not become effective solely because of the filing of a referendum petition pursuant to sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code or because the thirty-day period following adoption of the resolution has not expired.

No ordinance, resolution, or other measure levying a municipal motor vehicle license tax pursuant to this section shall be enacted as an emergency measure under section 731.30 of the Revised Code or pursuant to the charter of any municipal corporation and each such ordinance, resolution, or other measure is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 731.29 to 731.41 of the Revised Code or by the charter of the municipal corporation.

A municipal motor vehicle license tax levied under this section shall continue in effect until repealed.

4504.18 Township motor vehicle license tax for road construction and maintenance; hearings; effective date; referendum

For the purpose of paying the costs and expenses of enforcing and administering the tax provided for in this section; for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance, and repair of township roads, bridges, and culverts; for purchasing, erecting, and maintaining traffic signs, markers, lights, and signals; for purchasing road machinery and equipment, and planning, constructing, and maintaining suitable buildings to house such equipment; for paying any costs apportioned to the township under section 4907.47 of the Revised Code; and to supplement revenue already available for such purposes, the board of township trustees may levy an annual license tax, in addition to the tax levied by sections 4503.02, 4503.07, and 4503.18 of the Revised Code, upon the operation of motor vehicles on the public roads and highways in the unincorporated territory of the township. The tax shall be at the rate of five dollars per motor vehicle on all motor vehicles the owners of which reside in the unincorporated area of the township and shall be in addition to the taxes at the rates specified in sections 4503.04 and 4503.16 of the Revised Code, subject to reductions in the manner provided in section 4503.11 of the Revised Code and the exemptions provided in sections 4503.16, 4503.17, 4503.171, 4503.41, and 4503.43 of the Revised Code.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a township motor vehicle license tax under this section, the board of township trustees shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing.

No resolution levying a township motor vehicle license tax under this section shall become effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption, and such resolution is subject to a referendum in the same manner, except as to the form of the petition, as provided in division (H) of section 519.12 of the Revised Code for a proposed amendment to a township zoning resolution. In addition, a petition under this section shall be governed by the rules specified in section 3501.38 of the Revised Code. No resolution levying a tax under this section for which a referendum vote has been requested shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it.

A township license tax levied under this section shall continue in effect until repealed.

(A) Every application for a driver's license or motorcycle operator's license or endorsement, or duplicate of any such license or endorsement shall be made upon the approved form furnished by the registrar of motor vehicles and shall be signed by the applicant.

Every application shall state the following:

(1) The name, date of birth, social security number if such has been assigned, sex, general description, including height, weight, color of hair, and eyes, residence and business address, including county of residence, duration of residence in this state, country of citizenship, and occupation of the applicant;

(2) Whether the applicant previously has been licensed as an operator, chauffeur, driver, commercial driver, or motorcycle operator, and if so, when, and by what state, and whether such license is suspended or revoked at the present time, and if so, the date of and reason for the suspension or revocation;

(3) Whether the applicant is now or ever has been afflicted with epilepsy, or whether the applicant now is suffering from any physical or mental disability or disease, and if so, the nature and extent of the disability or disease, giving the names and addresses of physicians then or previously in attendance upon the applicant;

(4) Whether an applicant for a duplicate driver's license, or duplicate license containing a motorcycle operator endorsement has pending a citation for violation of any motor vehicle law or ordinance, a description of any such citation pending, and the date of the citation;

(5) Whether the applicant wishes to certify willingness to make an anatomical gift under section 2108.04 of the Revised Code, which shall be given no consideration in the issuance of a license or endorsement.

Every applicant for a driver's license shall be photographed in color at the time the application for the license is made. The application shall state any additional information that the registrar requires.

(B) The registrar or a deputy registrar, in accordance with section 3503.11 of the Revised Code, shall register as an elector any person who applies for a driver's license or motorcycle operator's license or endorsement under division (A) of this section, or for a renewal or duplicate of the license or endorsement, if the applicant is eligible and wishes to be registered as an elector.

(C) The registrar or a deputy registrar, in accordance with section 3503.11 of the Revised Code, shall offer the opportunity of completing a notice of change of residence to any applicant for a driver's license or endorsement under division (A) of this section, or for a renewal or duplicate of the license or endorsement, if the applicant is a registered elector who has changed his residence from one precinct to another within a county or from one county to another and has not filed such a notice.

MENTAL ILLNESS OR DISABILITY

5122.301 Rights of patients and former patients not affected

No person shall be deprived of any public or private employment solely because of having been admitted to a hospital or otherwise receiving services, voluntarily or involuntarily, for a mental illness or other mental disability.

Any person admitted to a hospital or otherwise taken into custody, voluntarily or involuntarily, under this chapter retains all civil rights not specifically denied in the Revised Code or removed by an adjudication of incompetence following a judicial proceeding other than a proceeding under sections 5122.11 to 5122.15 of the Revised Code.

As used in this section, "civil rights" includes, without limitation, the rights to contract, hold a professional, occupational, or motor vehicle driver's or commercial driver's license, marry or obtain a divorce, annulment, or dissolution of marriage, make a will, vote, and sue and be sued.

Note: An explanatory note from the Legislative Service Commission states: "While Am. Sub. H.B. 111 of the 118th G.A. purports to repeal the existing version of this section, it is nevertheless presented here as unaffected by H.B. 111. The repeal of 'existing sections' is intended only to be stated when conditional to their amendment and is a long-recognized means of complying with § 15(D) of Art. II, Ohio Constitution (which requires the existing version of sections amended to be repealed). See Cox v. Dept. of Transportation (1981), 67 OS(2d) 501, 508. This section is not, in fact, included for amendment in the body of H.B. 111. Nor does the title of the act indicate an intention to make an unconditional repeal of this section." 20 OS(2d) 135, 254 NE(2d) 357 (1969), Madden v Bower. The authority to make appropriations from the various funds of a county, within the limits prescribed by law, is lodged in the board of county commissioners, not in the county auditor, by virtue of RC 5705.01 et seq.

174 OS 163, 187 NE(2d) 42 (BTA 1962), Lancaster v Fairfield County Budget Comm. In allocating an undivided local government fund of a county the funds are to be distributed on the basis of need for a given period of time without reference to the special tax revenues and without deduction for balances acquired by the economical operation of these small governmental units, and to be apportioned on the actual cost of the operating needs during the period without consideration of present accumulated balances or funds arising from special tax levies.

147 OS 66, 68 NE(2d) 317 (1946), Kinsey v Bower. Uniform tax levy law, GC 5625-1 (RC 5705.01) et seq., does not supersede or repeal GC 5548-2 (RC 5713.11).

126 OS 163, 184 NE 530 (1933), Friedlander v Gorman. A tax on intangibles is invalid insofar as it provides that taxes collected in one county may be appropriated in another county to pay the purely local obligations of the second county's subdivisions.

62 App(3d) 498, 576 NE(2d) 814 (Montgomery 1990), State ex rel Emrick v Wasson. Although "tax" and "assessment" are similar concepts in that they are government-imposed financial burdens for a public or quasi-public purpose, Ohio maintains a functional distinction between the two; a tax is a burden levied on citizens for the general operation of the government, and by contrast, an assessment is a narrower burden levied on specific property owners to cover the cost of benefits bestowed on the property by public improvements.

44 App 14, 184 NE 248 (Hamilton 1932), Gorman v Friedlander; affirmed by 126 OS 163, 184 NE 530 (1933). Tax laws must operate uniformly and where a tax is arbitrary the arbitrariness must have uniformity in operation.

29 NP(NS) 467 (CP, Hamilton 1932), Gorman v Friedlander; modified by 44 App 14, 184 NE 248 (Hamilton 1932); 44 App 14 affirmed by 126 OS 163, 184 NE 530 (1933). Provisions in a statute for levy of a tax and provisions for distribution of money collected are distinct, and the levy may be valid while distribution provisions are unconstitutional.

29 NP(NS) 467 (CP, Hamilton 1932), Gorman v Friedlander; modified by 44 App 14, 184 NE 248 (Hamilton 1932); 44 App 14 affirmed by 126 OS 163, 184 NE 530 (1933). The intangibles tax law of Ohio, passed by the legislature in 1931 as SB 323, was a levy of taxes for local rather than for state purposes.

OAG 88-036. A township road district is a subdivision for purposes of RC Ch 5705, and the board of township trustees, as taxing authority for the district, may levy a tax, within the ten-mill limitation, upon the taxable property of the township road district; however, any tax imposed by a township road district is levied only upon property included in the district, and not upon property in a municipal corporation located in the township.

OAG 73-023. The term, "debt charges," as used in RC Ch 5705, is defined in RC 5705.01(G) as interest, sinking fund, and retirement charges on bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness.

OAG 69-055; overruled in part by OAG 88-036. Tax levies made under authority of RC 509.01, 5705.06(F), 5573.13 and 5573.21 are to be made upon all the taxable property within the township, including the taxable property within any municipal corporations within such township, and are subject to the ten-mill limitation prescribed by RC 5705.02.

1959 OAG 722. If the county commissioners so determine, the entire cost of the installation of a garbage and refuse disposal plant may be paid by the county at large, and the cost thereof may be provided by a tax authorized by electors of the county, but the cost of operation could not be included in a single bond issue covering the cost of construction.

1958 OAG 2341. Township trustees have authority to sell a water line constructed for fire protection upon a resolution that such water line is not needed; but such sale must be by auction, and pursuant to publication of notice; in the absence of any bond issue for such improvement, the proceeds of such sale should be paid into a special fund of such fire district for the construction or acquisition of permanent improvements.

1956 OAG 7413. RC 727.31 is in direct conflict with RC Ch 5705 to the extent that it conflicts with the procedure therein provided for the levy of taxes, and in this respect must be deemed repealed by implication.

1932 OAG 4. The notes issued by a board of trustees of a public library are legal investments for federal reserve banks under the provisions of Title 2, § 355, US Code.

2. Subdivision

44 OS(2d) 8, 335 NE(2d) 701 (BTA 1975), Russell Twp Bd of Trustees v Geauga County Budget Comm. Appellant as taxing authority of a subdivision did not by including erroneous statutory ground therefor deprive the board of tax appeals of jurisdiction to hear the appeal.

9 OS(2d) 108, 224 NE(2d) 120 (BTA 1967), Lake County Budget Comm v Willoughby Hills. The supreme court may disregard any question as to authority of the budget commission of a county to prosecute an appeal on behalf of the county from a decision of the board of tax appeals, prejudicing the interests of the county in the apportionment of the county undivided local government fund, where no question as to such authority has been raised by any party to the appeal.

174 OS 163, 187 NE(2d) 42 (BTA 1962), Lancaster v Fairfield County Budget Comm. The fact that a political subdivision has a balance at the close of a fiscal year in the fund which may lawfully be used for current operating expenses, or in a special levy fund out of which disbursements are made and which disbursements are properly payable from the general fund does not affect the amount needed for current operating expenses.

174 OS 163, 187 NE(2d) 42 (BTA 1962), Lancaster v Fairfield County Budget Comm. A political subdivision which votes and collects a levy outside the ten-mill limitation to provide for governmental operations is entitled to credit therefor in the allocation of an undivided local government fund of a county and should not be penalized for assuming an added tax burden to provide for a governmental activity, which would normally be paid out of current operating funds.

11 App(2d) 77, 228 NE(2d) 874 (BTA 1967), Cambridge City School Dist v Guernsey County Budget Comm; affirmed by 13 OS(2d) 77, 234 NE(2d) 512 (1968). A subdivision or taxing unit as defined by RC 5705.01 means such as now exists regardless of any annexations or detachments of territorial boundaries. (See also Cambridge City School Dist v Guernsey County Budget Comm, 13 Misc 258 (BTA 1967).)

OAG 91-072. A metropolitan housing authority is not a "subdivision" for purposes of RC Ch 5705.

OAG 88-036. If a township road district is created pursuant to RC 5573.21, the district is a subdivision for purposes of RC 5705.01, and the township trustees as taxing authorities of the district may levy taxes only upon the taxable property of the township road district, and not upon property within the limits of a municipal corporation located within the township.

OAG 82-056. Funds received by a board of public library trustees as a result of taxes levied pursuant to RC 5705.23 or 5707.04 are not funds derived from a subdivision within the meaning of RC 5705.01(I).

OAG 78-046. A joint county community mental health and retardation board may contract for and acquire by purchase real property in its own name, provided that the acquisition serves a purpose authorized by statute.

OAG 78-037. A county is authorized, pursuant to RC 5705.19(J), to place a tax levy on the ballot for funds to be used by a sheriff for the salaries of permanent sheriff's personnel performing police duties and equipment used directly by the sheriff in the performance of his duties.

OAG 75-089. A joint county mental health and retardation service district is a subdivision within RC 5705.01(A), and the district's mental health and retardation board is a taxing authority within RC 5705.01(C); therefore, pursuant to RC 5705.19 a joint county community mental health and retardation board is capable of placing a tax levy before the public without the approval of the county commissioners.

1957 OAG 638. A county school district is not a subdivision within the meaning of RC 3501.17, and there is no authority under the provisions of that section for the county auditor to withhold, from any moneys payable to such district in an ensuing tax settlement, an amount designed to meet the expense of conducting an election in the odd-numbered years at which members of the county board of education are elected.

1954 OAG 4224. The regional organization for civil defense is not a "subdivision," but it does constitute a "public office" and its accounts and records are subject to examination and audit by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices.

1952 OAG 1101. A fire district is a subdivision within the scope of the uniform tax levy law and the township trustees may submit to the voters a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation.

1928 OAG 1580. A "county home" is one of the activities of a "subdivision."

3. Taxing authority

37 OS(3d) 68, 523 NE(2d) 843 (BTA 1988), Warren County Park Dist v Warren County Budget Comm. A park district is not a taxing authority and, thus, lacks standing to appeal an allocation of the local government fund by the county budget commission.

OAG 77-057. Community boards of mental health and retardation established in RC Ch 340 do not have authority to purchase real property for a mental health or retardation facility; such power and authority lies with the board of county commissioners, who may appropriate private property for a mental health or retardation facility under RC 307.02.

OAG 75-089. A joint county mental health and retardation service district is a subdivision within RC 5705.01(A), and the district's mental health and retardation board is a taxing authority within RC 5705.01(C); therefore, pursuant to RC 5705.19 a joint county community mental health and retardation board is capable of placing a tax levy before the public without the approval of the county commissioners.

OAG 66-170; overruled in part by OAG 91-008. The soldiers relief commission on its own initiative has no authority to transfer funds from one item of the fund appropriated for operation and maintenance of the commission to another item in the same appropriation.

1956 OAG 6907. A board of trustees of a cemetery formed under RC 759.36 is not a taxing authority and a union cemetery created under RC 759.27 et seq. is not a taxing unit.

1956 OAG 6907. The legislative authorities of municipal corporations and boards of township trustees which have joined to provide a union cemetery have authority to levy taxes within their respective subdivisions for maintenance and operation of such cemetery, and the levy shall be made as provided in the tax levy law.

1943 OAG 6569. The city of Cleveland, having by amendment of its charter taken itself out from provisions of GC 5625-2 and 5625-24 (RC 5705.02 and 5705.32) in so far as they relate to limitation on its tax levies, is nevertheless subject to all remaining provisions of uniform tax and budgetary law including the annual general appropriation to be made by council as provided by GC 5625-29 (RC 5705.38).

BTA 81-D-584 and 82-D-1002 (1983), Holmes Park Dist v Holmes County Budget Comm. RC 5705.37 authorizes the "taxing authority" of any subdivision which is dissatisfied with any action of the county budget commission to appeal to the board of tax appeals; a park district is not a "taxing authority" for purposes of RC Ch 5705 and may not appeal an action of the county budget commission to the board of tax appeals.

4. Fiscal officer

63 App(2d) 94, 409 NE(2d) 1022 (1977), Atwood v Judge. A city auditor has the responsibility of certifying additional city revenues to the county budget commission for the purpose of obtaining an amended official certificate of estimated revenue showing such additional revenues.

OAG 69-076. RC 5705.41 requires that before any contract involving the expenditure of money is entered into by a county, the county auditor must certify that the amount required to meet the same has been lawfully appropriated for that purpose and is in the treasury or is in the process of collection to the credit of the appropriate fund free from any previous encumbrances.

OAG 68-093. The fiscal officer of a county board of mental retardation is the auditor of the county within which the county board of mental retardation is located.

1940 OAG 1781. It is the duty of the council to prepare and submit to the budget commission, on or before July 15th in each year, a tax budget for the next succeeding fiscal year, containing the information prescribed by GC 5625-13 (RC 5705.14), and it is the duty of the budget commission so to adjust the budgets submitted to it by a municipality and other various taxing subdivisions, as to bring the tax levies required therefor within the limitations prescribed by law, subject, however, to the limitations contained in GC 5625-23 (RC 5705.31).

1928 OAG 1580. The "fiscal officer" of a county board of education is its clerk; of the trustees of a district tuberculosis hospital, or of a board of trustees of a district children's home, is the accounting officer for such board, whether he be called clerk, secretary or otherwise; the auditor of a county, which constitutes all or a major portion of a general health district, is the fiscal officer for the board of health of the general health district; the auditor of a city, which constitutes a city health district, is the fiscal officer of the board of health for the city health district. The superintendent of a county children's home is the fiscal officer for the board of trustees of such home.

BTA 81-D-584 and 82-D-1002 (1983), Holmes Park Dist v Holmes County Budget Comm. The "fiscal officer" of a park district is the officer responsible for keeping the appropriation accounts and drawing warrants for the expenditures of money; this officer is the county auditor, not the fiscal officer of the park district.

5. Permanent improvements

95 Abs 311, 201 NE(2d) 816 (CP, Madison 1964), Roddy v Andrix. Funds arising from a special levy, "for the purpose of the maintenance and operation of schools for retarded children" may not be used for acquisition of real estate and construction of a school building.

1958 OAG 1746. The required tax levy of at least ten mills for current school operation for the current calendar year does not include any levies for the retirement of bonds which the school district may have issued for school construction or other permanent improvements.

1957 OAG 772. Proceeds of a tax levy for operating expenses of joint township hospital district may not be expended to pay the cost of construction of permanent improvements thereto.

1956 OAG 7477. Where a board of education is the owner of land which is improved with substantial farm buildings for housing cattle, hogs and farm machinery and storage of crops, together with a tenant house, the sale of such land would be the sale of a "permanent improvement" within the provision of RC 5705.10 and where no bonds or other evidences of indebtedness have been issued for the acquisition of such permanent improvement, the proceeds of such sale must be paid into a special fund for the acquisition of permanent improvements.

1951 OAG 455. Funds collected from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation pursuant to GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19) may properly be expended for the repairing of electric wiring in fixtures of a county children's home, but not for any "permanent improvement" or "improvement," as those terms are defined.

6. Current operating expenses

52 App 252, 3 NE(2d) 698 (1935), State ex rel Ohio Public Service Co v Alliance. In an action for a writ of mandamus seeking to compel a municipality to pay unsatisfied judgment rendered against it and in favor of relator, admitted to be legally due and owing, it is not defense that there are insufficient general funds to pay such judgments; judgments of this character are not "debt charges" but are "current operating expenses."

OAG 66-154. It is a question of fact whether an expenditure for the support of a county tuberculosis hospital should be classified as one for operation and maintenance or for improvements, a determination of which fact shall be resolved by application of the definitions in RC 5705.01.

1964 OAG 1523. The revenue received from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for current operating expenses may not lawfully be used to enlarge or improve existing buildings.

7. Taxing unit

OAG 66-040. A school district to which another school district is to be transferred pursuant to RC 3311.231 may, subsequent to the election in the district to be transferred, approve said transfer, and prior to the effective date of said transfer, levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation imposed by O Const Art XII §2, and subsequent to the effective date of the transfer, levy said tax against the whole of the new taxing district.

OAG 65-39. Funds raised by a township recreation levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(H) may not be used to operate a free public park under the control of park commissioners of a township park district.

1964 OAG 1584. There is no limitation on the power granted to a port authority created pursuant to RC 4582.02 to restrain it from planning, constructing, and developing port facilities within a municipal corporation within its boundaries which did not participate in creating the authority.

1964 OAG 1277; overruled by 1964 OAG 1584. When a county acts alone in the creation of a port authority the area of jurisdiction of the port authority for purposes of planning, improving and developing port facilities does not include the incorporated territory of those municipal corporations within the county which are empowered to act pursuant to RC 721.04 to 721.11.

1964 OAG 1255. When a township police district is created by a board of trustees and such district does not include all of the township territory, no portion of the expenses of the district in providing police protection may be paid out of general funds of the township, but those current expenses which the township trustees are authorized to incur by RC 505.49, 505.50 and 505.54 may be incurred on behalf of the township as distinguished from on behalf of the police district alone, and if so incurred they may properly be considered expenses of the township rather than expenses of the police district.

1962 OAG 2769. The term "taxing districts" as used in RC 6101.151 means a political subdivision or other governmental agency or district having authority to levy taxes on the property in such subdivision or district.

1959 OAG 888. A proposed township levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation must be submitted to the electors of the township residing both within and outside of a village located wholly within the boundaries of said township.

1956 OAG 7010. RC 505.27 does not authorize a board of township trustees to expend general township funds for the purpose of providing and maintaining waste disposal service in a waste disposal district, the board's expenditures for such purpose being limited to funds raised by levying a sufficient tax therefor upon the taxable property in such district or by charging rent as provided in RC 505.29.

1941 OAG 3712. Taxing units other than municipalities may only levy taxes when directly authorized by the general assembly in fields unrestricted by the Ohio constitution.

1931 OAG 3810. The amount which the Cleveland public library is entitled to receive from distribution of intangible taxes includes the money for sinking fund purposes, retirement of bonds, and payment of interest on its outstanding bonds.

1928 OAG 2195. A city planning commission created and operating under the provisions of GC 4366-1 (RC 713.01) et seq., is not a special appropriating authority.

1928 OAG 1580. A board of deputy state supervisors of elections is not a "special appropriating authority."

8. Incompatibility of offices

OAG 72-109. The positions of township clerk and county highway department employee are incompatible, whether the highway position is classified or unclassified.

OAG 66-060. The position of member of the board of education of a local school district and the position of township trustee of a township within that local school district are incompatible.

OAG 65-88. The offices of township trustee and member of the board of health of a general health district are incompatible.

1962 OAG 2746. A member of a board of education of a city school district may at the same time serve as clerk of a city council to which he is elected, provided the charter of the city does not contain a contrary provision in regard to such clerk, and provided it is physically possible for one person to perform the duties of such office.

1961 OAG 2480. The office of township clerk is not incompatible with the office of member of the board of education for the local school district in which the township is located.

1960 OAG 1650. A clerk of a township elected pursuant to RC 507.01 may not at the same time hold the position of deputy county auditor of the county in which such township is located.

1959 OAG 778. A person may at the same time serve as member of a school board and as mayor of a village encompassing the school district of such board.

1958 OAG 2202. The positions of township trustee and clerk of a local school board are incompatible.

1933 OAG 1354. Offices of member of a county board of education and village clerk are compatible if it is physically possible for one person to transact the duties of such offices simultaneously.

5705.02 Ten-mill limitation

The aggregate amount of taxes that may be levied on any taxable property in any subdivision or other taxing unit shall not in any one year exceed ten mills on each dollar of tax valuation of such subdivision or other taxing unit, except for taxes specifically authorized to be levied in excess thereof. The limitation provided by this section shall be known as the "ten-mill limitation," and wherever said term is used in the Revised Code, it refers to and includes both the limitation imposed by this section and the limitation imposed by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

50 OS(2d) 356, 364 NE(2d) 289 (1977), Towne Properties, Inc v Fairfield. RC Ch 5705, creating the general tax levy, contains neither an expressed statutory interdiction nor a justification for the implication of a legislative intention of pre-emption; therefore, a municipality has retained its authority to impose a tax upon new residential units and mobile homes or trailer pads in the city to provide the funds for the acquisition, development, maintenance and operation of needed public recreation sites or facilities.

160 OS 155, 113 NE(2d) 633 (1953), State ex rel Lewis v Scioto-Sandusky Conservancy Dist. The "preliminary tax" authorized by GC 6828-43 (RC 6101.45) is a tax and not an assessment and is subject to the ten-mill limitation, and public property is exempt therefrom.

130 OS 396, 199 NE 844 (1936), State ex rel Ohio Natl Bank v Parma. Where bonds were issued before ten-mill limitation was adopted, mandamus lies to compel payment or tax levy within fifteen-mill limitation existing at time bonds were issued.

53 App(2d) 109, 372 NE(2d) 628 (1977), Cincinnati v Dawson. The adoption of limits on current operating expenses in a city charter is within the meaning and intent of RC 5705.18 and O Const Art XII §2, and such action allows a municipality to authorize unvoted general obligation bonds requiring millage which, when added to millage required to service existing debts, exceeds the ten-mill limitation imposed by the Ohio Constitution.

11 App(2d) 77, 228 NE(2d) 874 (BTA 1967), Cambridge City School Dist v Guernsey County Budget Comm. Under RC 5705.31 there can be no decrease of tax levies within the ten-mill limitation to any subdivision or taxing unit, until each mandated minimum tax levy is approved without modification. (See also Cambridge City School Dist v Guernsey County Budget Comm, 13 Misc 258 (BTA 1967) and Cambridge City School Dist v Guernsey County Budget Comm, 13 OS(2d) 77, 234 NE(2d) 512 (1968).)

112 App 423, 160 NE(2d) 15 (Warren 1959), Franklin v Harrison; affirmed by 171 OS 329, 170 NE(2d) 739 (1960). A municipal excise tax of fifty per cent on water and sewer bills is invalid.

429 US 274, 97 SCt 568, 50 LEd(2d) 471 (1977), Mt. Healthy City School Dist Bd of Ed v Doyle. A local school board is more like a county or city than it is like an arm of the state and therefore is not entitled to assert any Eleventh Amendment immunity from suit in the federal court.

110 SCt 1651, 109 LEd(2d) 31 (1990), Missouri v Jenkins. A federal district court abuses its discretion by imposing a property tax increase to pay for school desegregation remedies that it had ordered but may use a minimally intrusive method to remedy the constitutional violation by authorizing the school district to submit a levy to state tax collection authorities and should enjoin the operation of state tax laws hindering the district from funding the remedy; the state's argument that federal courts cannot set aside state-imposed limits on local taxing power because this requires local governments to do more than exercise their rightful power is rejected.

OAG 91-035. The tax levied pursuant to RC 513.01 is within the ten-mill limitation imposed by O Const Art XII, §2 and RC 5705.02.

OAG 88-036. If a township road district is created pursuant to RC 5573.21, the district is a subdivision for purposes of RC 5705.01, and the township trustees, as taxing authority of the district, may levy taxes only upon the taxable property of the township road district, and not upon property within the limits of a municipal corporation located in the township.

OAG 77-082. Pursuant to RC 505.24, a township trustee is permitted to receive an increase in per diem compensation as the township budget increases, provided that his existing term in office commenced after the effective date of the most recent amendment of that statute.

OAG 77-057. Community boards of mental health and retardation established in RC Ch 340 do not have authority to purchase real property for a mental health or retardation facility; such power and authority lies with the board of county commissioners, who may appropriate private property for a mental health or retardation facility under RC 307.02.

OAG 76-021. RC 3311.20 and 3311.21 allow the board of education of a joint vocational school district to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and thus do not conflict with RC 5705.02.

OAG 69-101. Within the ten-mill limitation of RC 5705.02 township trustees may levy for cemetery purposes under RC 517.11 for cemeteries no longer in use but under the control of the township trustees.

OAG 69-101. Within the ten-mill limitation of RC 5705.02 township trustees may levy for cemetery purposes under RC 517.03 for a cemetery currently being used.

OAG 69-055; overruled in part by OAG 88-036. Tax levies made under authority of RC 509.01, 5705.06(F), 5573.13 and 5573.21 are to be made upon all the taxable property within the township, including the taxable property within any municipal corporations within such township, and are subject to the ten-mill limitation prescribed by RC 5705.02.

OAG 66-096. A local school district board of education may submit two separate levies in excess of the ten-mill limitation, one to renew an existing levy and the other an additional levy, for the same purpose, for the same period of time, and under the same code provision, RC 5705.21.

1962 OAG 3009. Where a board of county commissioners and the legislative authority of a city enter into a contract prior to the first day of July in any year under which the county becomes the local relief authority for poor relief administration within the city, the county may levy taxes within the city for poor relief administration without submitting the levy to the electors so long as the levy is within the ten-mill limitation.

1956 OAG 7421. When by a combination of taxing districts the minimum levies prescribed by RC 5705.31 exceed the ten-mill limitation, it becomes the duty of the budget commission to reduce these levies proportionately to bring the aggregate of them within the constitutional limitation.

1938 OAG 2389. Tax levy provided for in GC 4605 (RC 741.09) is within ten-mill limitation.

1934 OAG 3266. Mandamus will not lie to compel a board of education to levy taxes outside the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of paying a final judgment against the board, unless the said levy had first been authorized by a vote of the electors of the district.

1934 OAG 2749. Levies for interest and sinking fund and retirement of bonds which were issued during the period in which former GC 5649-2 (Repealed) was in effect, and which levies were outside of the statutory ten-mill limitation and subject to the statutory limitation of fifteen mills, are now subject to the one per cent limitation of O Const Art XII §2.

1927 OAG 1113. The supreme court in the case of State ex rel Turner v Bremen, 117 OS 186, 158 NE 6 (1927), did not order a tax levy to be made outside the fifteen-mill limitation to pay the judgment against such village concerned in said case.

5705.05 Purpose and intent of general levy for current expenses

The purpose and intent of the general levy for current expenses is to provide one general operating fund derived from taxation from which any expenditures for current expenses of any kind may be made, and the taxing authority of a political subdivision may include in such levy the amounts required for carrying into effect any of the general or special powers granted by law to such subdivision, including the acquisition or construction of permanent improvements and the payment of judgments, but excluding the construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, or repair of roads and bridges in counties and townships and the payment of debt charges. The power to include in the general levy for current expenses additional amounts for purposes for which a special tax is authorized shall not affect the right or obligation to levy such special tax. Without prejudice to the generality of the authority to levy a general tax for any current expense, such general levy shall include:

(A) The amounts certified to be necessary for the payment of final judgments;

(B) The amounts necessary for general, special, and primary elections;

(C) The amounts necessary for boards and commissioners of health, and other special or district appropriating authorities deriving their revenue in whole or part from the subdivision;

(D) In the case of municipal corporations, the amounts necessary for the maintenance, operation, and repair of public buildings, wharves, bridges, parks, and streets, for the prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, and for a sanitary fund;

(E) In the case of counties, the amounts necessary for the maintenance, operation, and repair of public buildings, for providing or maintaining senior citizens services or facilities, for the relief and support of the poor, for the relief of needy blind, for the support of mental health, mental retardation, or developmental disability services, for the relief of honorably discharged soldiers, indigent soldiers, sailors, and marines, for mothers' pension fund, support of soil and water conservation districts, watershed conservancy districts, and educational television, for the prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, and for the county's share of the compensation paid judges;

(F) In the case of a school district, the amounts necessary for tuition, the state teachers retirement system, and the maintenance, operation, and repair of schools;

(G) In the case of a township, the amounts necessary for the relief of the poor and for the prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution. This section does not require the inclusion within the general levy of amounts for any purpose for which a special levy is authorized by section 5705.06 of the Revised Code.

6 Cin L Rev 251 (May 1932). Personal Judgment May Not be Rendered in Ohio for Delinquent General Taxes and Special Assessments on Real Estate, Ansel B. Curtiss.

50 OS(2d) 356, 364 NE(2d) 289 (1977), Towne Properties, Inc v Fairfield. RC Ch 5705, creating the general tax levy, contains neither an expressed statutory interdiction nor a justification for the implication of a legislative intention of pre-emption; therefore, a municipality has retained its authority to impose a tax upon new residential units and mobile homes or trailer pads in the city to provide the funds for the acquisition, development, maintenance and operation of needed public recreation sites or facilities.

OAG 88-036. If a township road district is created pursuant to RC 5573.21, the district is a subdivision for purposes of RC 5705.01, and the township trustees, as taxing authority of the district, may levy taxes only upon the taxable property of the township road district, and not upon property within the limits of a municipal corporation located in the township.

OAG 69-055; overruled in part by OAG 88-036. Tax levies made under authority of RC 509.01, 5705.06(F), 5573.13 and 5573.21 are to be made upon all the taxable property within the township, including the taxable property within any municipal corporations within such township, and are subject to the ten-mill limitation prescribed by RC 5705.02.

1964 OAG 1611. The positions of county treasurer and that of member of the soldiers relief commission are not incompatible, unless it is physically impossible for one person to discharge the duties of both.

1962 OAG 2997. Revenue derived from a special tax levy pursuant to RC 5705.191 may not be paid into the general fund to reimburse such fund, but must be credited to a special fund for the purpose for which such levy was made; no transfer can be made from a special fund to the general fund except as authorized in RC 5705.14.

1957 OAG 1122. Proceeds of inheritance taxes payable to a township under RC 5731.53 may be used by the trustees to the extent they deem necessary, for road and bridge building and repair.

1950 OAG 1645. A part of the proceeds of the sale of notes issued by county commissioners may not be allocated to the soldiers relief commission of the county for the care of its applicants seeking relief.

1946 OAG 1211. GC 1261-40, 5625-5 and 5625-20 (RC 3709.28, RC 5705.05, and RC 5705.28) et seq., relating to annual budgets of health districts, are in pari materia and should be construed together in such manner as to give effect to each.

2. Boards of education

1934 OAG 3266. Real or personal property vested in a board of education for school purposes may not be levied upon or attached by judgment creditors nor may funds distributable to a board of education by way of tax settlements be so levied upon or attached. Mandamus will lie to compel a board of education to appropriate funds in its possession and available for the purpose, to the payment of final judgments rendered against the board, or to levy a tax within constitutional and statutory limitations to pay such judgments.

1930 OAG 1858. A board of education may construct a new school building with funds derived from a general levy of taxes made under this section even though the purpose of constructing such school building was not specifically mentioned among the purposes for which the levy was made, and this may be done although a special levy for school building construction purposes is not made.

1929 OAG 910. Surplus accumulated over a series of years in the general fund of a school district may lawfully be expended for the building of a school auditorium, even though such accumulated surplus may consist in part of the proceeds of special tax levies which inadvertently have been placed in the general fund and thus become impossible of identification.

3. Poor relief

OAG 91-035. RC 5705.05(G), which permits a township to use proceeds of the general levy for current expenses in "the amounts necessary for the relief of the poor," impliedly authorizes a township to enter into a contract with a private nonprofit hospital to provide hospital services to indigents.

OAG 91-035. A township is not required to enter into a contract with a private nonprofit hospital in order to pay the hospital for services it renders to indigents unless entering into such contract is the only reasonable manner of procuring necessary hospital services for indigents.

OAG 91-035. There must be a direct relationship between the amount of money paid by a township pursuant to RC 5705.05(G) to a hospital for services rendered to indigents and the services actually rendered to indigents by the hospital.

1934 OAG 2688. Trustees of a township have no authority to transfer any money from its general fund or gasoline tax fund to the county treasury to be used by the county commissioners for the purposes of poor relief.

1933 OAG 1599. Tax levies made by Marion township for the relief of the poor should be included in the township general levy for current expenses upon all taxable property lying within the township including that part of the city of Delphos which is within such township.

1931 OAG 3618. Funds derived from the general levy and funds derived for poor relief from a levy outside the fifteen-mill limitation, as authorized by a vote of the people, under GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19) may legally be expended for the relief of the poor.

1928 OAG 1516. Outdoor relief, that is partial and temporary relief, for the poor in cities should be furnished by the proper municipal officers, and provision therefor should be made by the proper authorities in the making of tax levies and the adjustment of budgets. (See also 1928 OAG 1561.)

1927 OAG 1041. Requirements that tax levies for the relief of the poor within the several townships of the state shall be included in the general levy for current expenses of the township and levied on all the taxable property in the township including the property within the municipalities in the township, are valid and constitutional.

4. Use of general fund

54 OS(2d) 412, 377 NE(2d) 505 (1978), State ex rel Waterbury Development Co v Witten. Water tap-in charge and charge levied for park development could not be justified.

20 OS(2d) 135, 254 NE(2d) 357 (1969), Madden v Bower. The proportionate cost of premiums for a county employees group health insurance plan paid on behalf of employees of a county engineer who are engaged directly in work on county roads and are compensated pursuant to RC 315.10, 4501.04, 5735.27 and 5555.92 is a part of the cost of services rendered by such employees in furtherance of the purposes for which those statutes were enacted and is payable from the funds established by those statutes.

OAG 88-096. A board of county commissioners may fund the programs of the county mental retardation and developmental disabilities board by special levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(L) and/or by treating the costs of such programs as current expenses of the county payable from the general fund pursuant to RC 5705.05(E).

OAG 86-053. A board of county commissioners has no authority to contribute county funds to a private, nonprofit organization formed for the purpose of coordinating health care and other support services for persons who are terminally ill but who are no longer in need of hospitalization.

OAG 81-035. County general fund moneys may be used for the construction of bridges in the county provided that the use of the particular funds for such purpose is not proscribed by law, and provided that the particular moneys have not been commingled with general fund moneys which may not be used for the construction of bridges.

OAG 81-035. Revenues derived from county sales and use taxes pursuant to RC 5739.211 and 5741.031 and deposited in the general fund may be used for bridge construction, provided that such revenues have not been commingled with general fund moneys which may not be used for such purposes.

OAG 74-083. A board of township trustees has implied power under RC 517.03 to construct a permanent building upon cemetery grounds when necessary for the care, supervision and improvement of the cemetery, and unencumbered general funds and federal revenue sharing funds may be used for the construction of such a building.

OAG 69-015. The monies received for the support of a county board of mental retardation may be paid into the general fund of the county to the account of the board, unless the county funds are provided by a special levy, in which case a separate fund must be established pursuant to RC 5705.10, and such monies are payable pursuant to vouchers approved by the county board of mental retardation.

OAG 65-88. The offices of township trustee and member of the board of health of a general health district are incompatible.

1964 OAG 1523. The revenue received from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for current operating expenses may not lawfully be used to enlarge or improve existing buildings.

1937 OAG 710. When a lawful claim is presented to a county treasurer for payment, and there is no designation, legal or factual, as to what fund should be charged with its payment, the rule of reason requires that such payment should be made from the general county fund.

1933 OAG 92. Telephone toll bills of the office of the prosecuting attorney are payable from the appropriation "supplies and facilities" appropriated from the general fund of the county.

5. General levy

OAG 91-035. RC 5705.05(G), which permits a township to use proceeds of the general levy for current expenses in "the amounts necessary for the relief of the poor," impliedly authorizes a township to enter into a contract with a private nonprofit hospital to provide hospital services to indigents.

OAG 83-032; overruled in part by OAG 91-008. RC 5901.11 imposes upon the board of county commissioners the mandatory duty of levying a tax to raise the funds certified as necessary by the soldiers' relief commission, up to five-tenths of a mill per dollar on the assessed value of the property of the county; pursuant to RC 5705.03 and 5705.05, such funds are raised as part of the general levy for current expenses, which need not be submitted to the electors for approval.

OAG 78-034. RC 3354.09 authorizes a board of trustees of a community college district to purchase or otherwise acquire real property for the purpose of drilling for natural gas or other energy resources necessary to the operation of district programs and facilities where such an acquisition enables the board to obtain such resources more cheaply than through a direct purchase.

OAG 65-71. There is no provision of law permitting the soldiers relief commission to make direct payments on a land contract or mortgage, but it may appoint a person to draw, receipt for and properly expend the allowance provided for by law; such person may expend funds for the payment of land contract or mortgage obligations of the needy person or family if making such payments is consistent with the actual housing need.

OAG 65-50. The county soldiers relief commission has no statutory authority to make payment from tax revenue for tuition and expenses to public or private schools for retraining or additional training to benefit the future employment opportunities of veterans, nor to employ and pay a salary to an administrator to handle retraining of veterans along with placement of veterans in employment.

1933 OAG 2015. It is mandatory to levy annually sufficient taxes to pay the interest on the bonds of a political subdivision and to provide a fund for their final redemption at maturity, even though by reason thereof such subdivision may not be able, on account of constitutional or statutory limitations, to levy a sufficient amount for other purposes.

1930 OAG 2114. County commissioners are required to include in the general levy, the amount which the soldiers' relief commission has certified to it as necessary for soldiers' relief, providing such amount does not require a levy in excess of one-half mill.

5705.06 Special levies without vote of the people within ten-mill limitation

The following special levies are hereby authorized without vote of the people:

(A) A levy for any specific permanent improvement which the subdivision is authorized by law to acquire, construct, or improve, or any class of such improvements which could be included in a single bond issue;

(B) A levy for the library purposes of the subdivision, in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Code authorizing levies for such purposes, but only to the extent so authorized;

(C) In the case of a municipal corporation, a levy for a municipal university under section 3349.13 of the Revised Code, but only to the extent authorized;

(D) In the case of a county, a levy for the construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and repair of roads and bridges, other than state roads and bridges;

(E) In the case of a county, a levy for paying the county's proportion of the cost of the construction, improvement, and maintenance of state highways;

(F) In the case of a township, a levy for the construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and repair of roads and bridges, excluding state roads and bridges, including the township's portion of the cost of the construction, improvement, maintenance, and repair of county roads and bridges;

(G) The levies prescribed by division (B) of sections 742.33 and 742.34 of the Revised Code.

Each such special levy shall be within the ten-mill limitation and shall be subject to the control of the county budget commission, as provided by sections 5705.01 to 5705.47 of the Revised Code.

Except for the special levies authorized in this section any authority granted by the Revised Code to levy a special tax within the ten-mill limitation for a current expense shall be construed as authority to provide for such expense by the general levy for current expenses.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 90-097. A county that agrees to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the roads of a township within the county pursuant to RC 5535.08 may use for such purpose revenues derived from a tax levied under RC 5705.06(D) for the repair of roads other than state roads or revenues derived from a tax levied under RC 5705.19(G) for the repair of roads in the county or townships.

OAG 88-036. If a township road district is created pursuant to RC 5573.21, the district is a subdivision for purposes of RC 5705.01, and the township trustees, as taxing authority of the district, may levy taxes only upon the taxable property of the township road district, and not upon property within the limits of a municipal corporation located in the township.

OAG 74-083. A board of township trustees has implied power under RC 517.03 to construct a permanent building upon cemetery grounds when necessary for the care, supervision and improvement of the cemetery, and unencumbered general funds and federal revenue sharing funds may be used for the construction of such a building.

1938 OAG 1972. Money that comes into the hands of county treasurer by special tax levy authorized under this section for municipal public library must be paid to village treasurer; village treasurer must establish a municipal public library fund and all disbursements against such fund must be directed by trustees of municipal public library and warrant drawn upon village treasurer.

1930 OAG 1580. Funds arising by reason of the levy provided for in paragraph (E) of this section may not be used to pay the county's portion of the cost of a grade separation made in pursuance of GC 6936-22 (Repealed), et seq.

1929 OAG 889. There is no authority for township trustees to levy a tax for road purposes except within limitation of this section.

5705.07 Levies in excess of ten-mill limitation

The taxing authority of any subdivision may make tax levies authorized in excess of the ten-mill limitation by a vote of the people under the law applicable thereto, irrespective of all limitations on the tax rate.

36 App 492, 173 NE 622 (1930), Hoffman v Pounds. Board of education possessing power to issue bonds to rebuild school, and issuing bonds within statutory limit, could levy tax outside fifteen-mill limitation to pay interest and retire bonds at maturity. It would seem also tax levy for payment of bonds issued to rebuild school might be made within fifteen-mill limitation.

OAG 72-028. A board of county commissioners may use tax monies obtained by special levy for road purposes under RC 5705.07 to purchase land and construct a highway garage thereon, pursuant to RC 5549.01.

OAG 66-096. A local school district board of education may submit two separate levies in excess of the ten-mill limitation, one to renew an existing levy and the other an additional levy, for the same purpose, for the same period of time, and under the same code provision, RC 5705.21.

1936 OAG 5077. The budget commission of a county may authorize a subdivision therein to levy in excess of the ten and inside the fifteen-mill limitation for debt service on bonds that have been issued subject only to the former fifteen-mill limitation where such subdivision's share of the ten-mill levy is not sufficient therefor and such levy may be in addition to the operating levy and debt levy of its overlapping subdivisions.

1936 OAG 5077. Where a subdivision has outstanding bonds which were issued subject only to the former fifteen-mill limitation, the property in that subdivision is subject to a levy of fifteen mills if necessary to meet such debt charges and such subdivision must be authorized to levy as much of the additional five mills in excess of the ten-mill limitation as is necessary for said purposes, provided that where there are two or more subdivisions which overlap each other, the debt charges of which exceed the amount such subdivisions are authorized to levy within the ten-mill limitation and the additional five mill levy is not sufficient therefor, then the budget commission must determine the fair proportionate share thereof to which each of said subdivisions is entitled.

1934 OAG 3266. No tax levy may be made by a board of education for any purpose outside the ten-mill limitation, except as the same may be authorized and approved by the electors of the district in accordance with law.

1934 OAG 2980. This section does not place outside of the ten-mill limitation any levies which were formerly within the fifteen-mill limitation as contained in O Const Art XII §2.

1933 OAG 2044. Where laws relating to taxation passed since January 1, 1931, have effected a reduction in the amount of taxable property available for levies by a school district for interest and sinking fund or retirement of bonds issued or authorized by it prior to such date within the statutory fifteen-mill limitation, such levies may be outside the fifteen-mill limitation now provided for in O Const Art XII §2, to the extent required to equalize such reduction.

1928 OAG 2638. When a taxing authority has been authorized to levy taxes outside of the fifteen-mill limitation imposed by GC 5625-2 (RC 5705.02), and it is desired to make additional levies for the same purpose, the resolution and the ballot should recite the entire number of mills to be levied in addition to the rate that may be levied without a vote of the people, which it is proposed by the submission of said question to levy and not merely the rate in addition to that already authorized.

EXCESS AND SPECIAL LEVIES; ANTICIPATION NOTES

5705.18 Charter prevails over ten-mill limitation; calculation of tax rate

Sections 5705.02 and 5705.32 of the Revised Code do not apply to the tax levies of any municipal corporation which, by its charter or amendment thereto, provides for a limitation of the total tax rate which may be levied without a vote of the people for all the purposes of the municipal corporation, or for the current operating expenses thereof. Said charter or charter amendment may also provide for the levying of taxes by said legislative authority in excess of said charter limitation upon approval by the majority of the electors of said municipal corporation voting thereon at a November election.

For the purpose of calculating the ten-mill limitation and the distribution of taxes under section 5705.32 of the Revised Code within such limitation to counties, boards of education, and townships, the tax rate in each such municipal corporation is deemed to be the same as the average rate allowed to such municipal corporation within such limitation, or the fifteen-mill limitation prescribed by law prior to January 1, 1934, for the three years next preceding the year in which a charter provision has originally taken effect, except that:

(A) For the purpose of computing such average rate the annual rate allowed in the year 1933 or in any year prior thereto for the purposes of the next succeeding year shall be taken to be two-thirds of the rate actually allowed in each such year for such purposes.

(B) If the rate actually levied by a municipal corporation for current operating expenses within the ten-mill limitation whether pursuant to the provisions of the Revised Code or pursuant to any provision of the charter of such municipal corporation or any ordinance enacted under authority of such a charter, whereby a part of the taxes levied by such corporation are apportioned to the ten-mill limitation is less than such average rate, then the rate actually levied within the ten-mill limitation shall be considered the rate of the municipal corporation for the purpose of calculating said limitation.

53 App(2d) 109, 372 NE(2d) 628 (1977), Cincinnati v Dawson. The adoption of limits on current operating expenses in a city charter is within the meaning and intent of RC 5705.18 and O Const Art XII §2, and such action allows a municipality to authorize unvoted general obligation bonds requiring millage which, when added to millage required to service existing debts, exceeds the ten-mill limitation imposed by O Const Art XII §2.

106 App 354, 151 NE(2d) 367 (1958), Sinclair v Lakewood; appeal dismissed by 168 OS 372, 154 NE(2d) 822 (1958). A municipal corporation may present to the electors of the city a proposed amendment to its charter authorizing the council by ordinance, without a vote of the people, to levy a tax on the taxable property in the city in addition to all taxes authorized by the charter and the ten-mill limitation of the Constitution, the proceeds to be used to provide needed monies for the relief and pension funds for members of the police and fire departments of said city.

49 App 436, 197 NE 376 (1934), State ex rel Thomas v Heuck. By GC 5649-10 (Repealed), and its successor section, GC 5625-14 (RC 5705.18), a charter city is exempted from the general tax limitations if a limitation is provided for in the charter, applying to taxes for all purposes or for current operating expenses.

1957 OAG 854. Where a charter municipality has provided for the power to levy an additional tax outside the charter limitation for the benefit of a municipal university, a tax levied thereunder is not subject to the limitations of RC 5705.19.

1952 OAG 1838. Where a municipal charter provision authorizes, upon the approval of the electors, the levy of taxes for specific purposes beyond a stated charter limitation, the rate of any such levy is subject to diminution in the event of reassessment, but where the charter authorizes the legislative authority of such municipality to levy taxes within such stated limitation for all municipal purposes without a vote of the people, the levies within such limitation are not subject to diminution.

1943 OAG 6569. The city of Cleveland, having taken itself out from provisions of GC 5625-2 and 5625-24 (RC 5705.02 and 5705.32), in so far as they relate to limitation on its tax levies, is nevertheless subject to all remaining provisions of uniform tax and budgetary law GC 5625-1 to 5625-39 (RC 5705.01 to 5705.47), including the annual general appropriation to be made by council as provided by GC 5625-29 (RC 5705.38).

5705.19 Resolution relative to tax levy in excess of ten-mill limitation in other than school districts

This section does not apply to school districts or county school financing districts.

The taxing authority of any subdivision at any time and in any year, by vote of two-thirds of all the members of the taxing authority, may declare by resolution and certify the resolution to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the election upon which it will be voted that the amount of taxes that may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide for the necessary requirements of the subdivision and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of that limitation for any of the following purposes:

(A) For current expenses of the subdivision, except that the total levy for current expenses of a detention home district or district organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code shall not exceed two mills and that the total levy for current expenses of a combined district organized under sections 2151.34 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code shall not exceed four mills;

(B) For the payment of debt charges on certain described bonds, notes, or certificates of indebtedness of the subdivision issued subsequent to January 1, 1925;

(C) For the debt charges on all bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness issued and authorized to be issued prior to January 1, 1925;

(D) For a public library of, or supported by, the subdivision under whatever law organized or authorized to be supported;

(E) For a municipal university, not to exceed two mills over the limitation of one mill prescribed in section 3349.13 of the Revised Code;

(F) For the construction or acquisition of any specific permanent improvement or class of improvements that the taxing authority of the subdivision may include in a single bond issue;

(G) For the general construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and repair of streets, roads, and bridges in municipal corporations, counties, or townships;

(H) For recreational purposes;

(I) For the purpose of providing and maintaining fire apparatus, appliances, buildings, or sites therefor, or sources of water supply and materials therefor, or the establishment and maintenance of lines of fire alarm telegraph, or the payment of permanent, part-time, or volunteer fire fighters or fire-fighting companies to operate the same, including the payment of the firemen employer's contribution required under section 742.34 of the Revised Code, or to purchase ambulance equipment, or to provide ambulance or emergency medical services operated by a fire department or fire-fighting company;

(J) For the purpose of providing and maintaining motor vehicles, communications, and other equipment used directly in the operation of a police department, or the payment of salaries of permanent police personnel, including the payment of the policemen employer's contribution required under section 742.33 of the Revised Code, or the payment of the costs incurred by townships as a result of contracts made with other political subdivisions in order to obtain police protection, or to provide ambulance or emergency medical services operated by a police department;

(K) For the maintenance and operation of a county home;

(L) For community mental retardation and developmental disabilities programs and services pursuant to Chapter 5126. of the Revised Code, except that the procedure for such levies shall be as provided in section 5705.222 of the Revised Code;

(M) For regional planning;

(N) For a county's share of the cost of maintaining and operating schools, district detention homes, forestry camps, or other facilities, or any combination thereof established under section 2151.34 or 2151.65 of the Revised Code or both of those sections;

(O) For providing for flood defense, providing and maintaining a flood wall or pumps, and other purposes to prevent floods;

(P) For maintaining and operating sewage disposal plants and facilities;

(Q) For the purpose of purchasing, acquiring, constructing, enlarging, improving, equipping, repairing, maintaining, or operating, or any combination of the foregoing, a county transit system pursuant to sections 306.01 to 306.13 of the Revised Code, or to make any payment to a county transit board pursuant to section 306.06 of the Revised Code;

(R) For the subdivision's share of the cost of acquiring or constructing any schools, forestry camps, detention homes, or other facilities, or any combination thereof under section 2151.34 or 2151.65 of the Revised Code or both of those sections;

(S) For the prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution;

(T) For maintaining and operating cemeteries;

(U) For providing ambulance service, emergency medical service, or both;

(V) For providing for the collection and disposal of garbage or refuse;

(W) For the payment of the policemen employer's contribution or the firemen employer's contribution required under sections 742.33 and 742.34 of the Revised Code;

(X) For the construction and maintenance of a drainage improvement pursuant to section 6131.52 of the Revised Code;

(Y) For providing or maintaining senior citizens services or facilities as authorized by section 307.694 or 307.85 of the Revised Code;

(Z) For the provision and maintenance of zoological park services and facilities as authorized under section 307.76 of the Revised Code;

(AA) For the maintenance and operation of a free public museum of art, science, or history;

(BB) For the establishment and operation of a 9-1-1 system, as defined in section 4931.40 of the Revised Code;

(CC) For the purpose of acquiring, rehabilitating, or developing rail property or rail service. As used in this division, "rail property" and "rail service" have the same meanings as in section 4981.01 of the Revised Code. This division applies only to a county, township, or municipal corporation.

(DD) For the purpose of acquiring property for, constructing, operating, and maintaining community centers as provided for in section 755.16 of the Revised Code;

(EE) For the creation and operation of an office or joint office of economic development, for any economic development purpose of the office, and to otherwise provide for the establishment and operation of a program of economic development pursuant to sections 307.07 and 307.64 of the Revised Code;

(FF) For the purpose of acquiring, establishing, constructing, improving, equipping, maintaining, or operating, or any combination of the foregoing, a township airport, landing field, or other air navigation facility pursuant to section 505.15 of the Revised Code;

(GG) For the payment of costs incurred by a township as a result of a contract made with a county pursuant to section 505.263 of the Revised Code in order to pay all or any part of the cost of constructing, maintaining, repairing, or operating a water supply improvement.

(HH) For a board of township trustees to acquire, other than by appropriation, an ownership interest in land, water, or wetlands, or to restore or maintain land, water, or wetlands in which the board has such an interest, not for purposes of recreation, but for the purposes of protecting and preserving the natural, scenic, open, or wooded condition of the land, water, or wetlands against modification or encroachment resulting from occupation, development, or other use;

(II) For the support by a county of a crime victim assistance program that is provided and maintained by a county agency or a private, nonprofit corporation or association under section 307.62 of the Revised Code.

The resolution shall be confined to the purpose or purposes described in one division of this section, for which the revenue derived therefrom shall be applied. The existence in any other division of this section of authority to levy a tax for any part or all of the same purpose or purposes does not preclude the use of such revenues for any part of the purpose or purposes of the division under which the resolution is adopted.

The resolution shall specify the amount of the increase in rate that it is necessary to levy, the purpose thereof, and the number of years during which the increase in rate shall be in effect, which may or may not include a levy upon the duplicate of the current year. The number of years may be any number not exceeding five, except as follows:

(1) When the additional rate is for the payment of debt charges, the increased rate shall be for the life of the indebtedness.

(2) When the additional rate is any of the following, the increased rate shall be for a continuing period of time:

(a) For the current expenses for a detention home district, a district organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or a combined district organized under sections 2151.34 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code;

(b) For providing a county's share of the cost of maintaining and operating schools, district detention homes, forestry camps, or other facilities, or any combination thereof, established under section 2151.34 or 2151.65 of the Revised Code or under both of those sections.

(3) When the additional rate is for any of the following, the increased rate may be for a continuing period of time:

(a) For the purposes set forth in divisions (I), (J), and (U) of this section;

(b) For the maintenance and operation of a joint recreation district;

(c) A levy imposed by a township for the purposes set forth in division (G) of this section.

(4) When the increase is for the purpose set forth in division (D) or (CC) of this section, the tax levy may be for any specified number of years or for a continuing period of time, as set forth in the resolution.

A levy for the purposes set forth in division (I), (J), or (U) of this section, and a levy imposed by a township for the purposes set forth in division (G) of this section, may be reduced pursuant to section 5705.261 or 5705.31 of the Revised Code. A levy for the purposes set forth in division (I), (J), or (U) of this section, and a levy imposed by a township for the purposes set forth in division (G) of this section, may also be terminated or permanently reduced by the taxing authority if it adopts a resolution stating that the continuance of the levy is unnecessary and the levy shall be terminated or that the millage is excessive and the levy shall be decreased by a designated amount.

A resolution of a detention home district, a district organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or a combined district organized under both sections 2151.34 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code may include both current expenses and other purposes, provided that the resolution shall apportion the annual rate of levy between the current expenses and other purpose or purposes. The apportionment need not be the same for each year of the levy, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied each year for the current expenses and the other purpose or purposes shall be limited by the apportionment.

Whenever a board of county commissioners, acting either as the taxing authority of its county or as the taxing authority of a sewer district or subdistrict created under Chapter 6117. of the Revised Code, by resolution declares it necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of constructing, improving, or extending sewage disposal plants or sewage systems, the tax may be in effect for any number of years not exceeding twenty, and the proceeds thereof, notwithstanding the general provisions of this section, may be used to pay debt charges on any obligations issued and outstanding on behalf of the subdivision for the purposes enumerated in this paragraph, provided that any such obligations have been specifically described in the resolution.

The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution is necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election.

When the electors of a subdivision have approved a tax levy under this section, the taxing authority of the subdivision may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in accordance with section 5705.191 or 5705.193 of the Revised Code.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1992 H 700, § 4, eff. 4-1-92, reads, in part: Notwithstanding sections 3501.02, 5705.19, 5705.191, and any other section of the Revised Code, in 1992 any local question or issue submitted to the electors at a special election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August 1992, shall be certified for placement upon the ballot to the board of elections not later than June 16, 1992.

1990 H 247, § 3, eff. 11-30-90, reads:

(A) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may adopt a resolution proposing to submit to the electors, at a special election held in accordance with division (C) of this section, the question of an additional tax levy, in excess of the ten-mill limitation, for the current expenses of the municipal corporation, if both of the following apply:

(1) A current expenses levy previously was approved by the voters at the November 1985, general election, was extended on the 1986, 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1990 tax lists, and, as a result of its expiration, cannot be extended on the 1991 tax lists.

(2) The municipal corporation failed to timely certify to the board of elections a resolution proposing to submit the question of a current expenses levy to the electors at the November 1990, general election.

(B) A resolution adopted pursuant to division (A) of this section shall state the rate at which the levy is proposed to be levied, which shall not exceed eight mills; state the date on which the election on the question of the levy will be held, which shall be in accordance with division (C) of this section; state the period of time for which the levy will be in effect; and shall otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of Chapter 5705. of the Revised Code. The resolution also shall specify that, if approved, the levy will first be extended for collection on the 1991 tax list and duplicate and will be treated like any other additional tax levy for purposes of collection. Upon its adoption, the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections.

(C) Upon receipt of a resolution that has been adopted and certified pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall take all actions necessary to submit the question of the levy to the electors of the municipal corporation at a special election to be held on the earliest possible date, as determined by the board of elections, but prior to January 1, 1991, notwithstanding division (D) of section 3501.01, section 5705.19, and division (A) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation once a week for each week prior to the election, not to exceed four weeks, notwithstanding division (A) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, but only if the resolution has been certified prior to one week before the date on which the election will be held. The form of the ballot to be used at the special election shall be that set forth in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code. If a majority of the electors voting on the question of the proposed levy votes in favor of the levy, the county auditor shall first extend the levy for collection on the 1991 tax list as if it had been submitted to and approved by the electors at the November 1990, general election.

(D) A levy approved under this section shall be certified to the Tax Commissioner and extended on the tax lists, as required under division (D) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

OAG 80-011. RC 5705.19, 5705.191 and 5705.25 do not allow for variable rate tax levies, and levies proposed by counties pursuant to these sections must be fixed rate levies. The only sections in RC Ch 5705 allowing for variable rate levies are RC 5705.194 et seq. which apply only to school districts meeting emergency requirements.

OAG 77-097. Where township voters pass a levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(J) for the stated purpose of "providing and maintaining motor vehicles, communications, and other equipment used directly in the operation" of the township police department, and there is located entirely within that township a chartered village which already has its own police force, the township trustees may not appropriate proceeds of that levy to the village for its police force, nor use such proceeds to fund its obligation under a contract for additional police protection for the township under RC 505.50 or 505.441.

OAG 76-027. RC 505.441 authorizes a township, where a police district has not been formed or has been dissolved, to enter into contracts for police protection; the expenses of such protection are properly met from township funds; RC 5705.19(J) does not authorize submission of a proposed tax levy where a police department is not in operation or in existence, and a township—where a police district is not in existence and operation—may not properly submit a levy under RC 5705.19(J) to meet the permanent expenses of providing police protection.

1964 OAG 1578. Where a taxing authority proceeds to declare that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that such tax shall be levied upon the duplicate for the current year, the tax shall, after approval by the electors, be levied on the current duplicate as directed by statute, and there is no requirement that the necessity for the additional taxation must have been included in the budget submitted to the county auditor by the taxing authority prior to the adoption of the resolution of necessity.

1963 OAG 718. A tax levy approved in accordance with RC 5705.21 at a special election held on December 10 or 12, 1963, may not be extended upon the tax list and duplicate for the current year.

1962 OAG 3472. A levy under RC 5705.21 passed in January 1963, may not be assessed and collected as 1962 taxes, but is included in the tax budget certified to the county budget commission in 1963 to be collected with other 1963 taxes.

1962 OAG 2962. A board of county commissioners may purchase a building deemed necessary to provide the public shelter given poor relief recipients under RC 5113.01, and where the county has available funds deriving from the general tax levy within the ten-mill limitation, such funds may be used for the purchase of such a building, but poor relief funds raised pursuant to a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation may be used to purchase such a building only if the purpose of such purchase was specified in the resolution of necessity required by that section; however, any poor relief funds available may be used for the maintenance of such a building.

1959 OAG 888. A proposed township levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation must be submitted to the electors of the township residing both within and outside of a village located wholly within the boundaries of said township.

1953 OAG 3061. There is no statutory requirement that a resolution proposing a vote on the issue of an additional levy for specific purposes should contain a statement of the total dollar amount proposed to be raised by such levy, or that the ballot to be used at the election at which such issue is submitted should contain such statement of the total dollar amount proposed to be raised by the levy.

1939 OAG 1175. Resolution of necessity for additional tax levies adopted by a taxing authority containing an expression of the proposed estimated average increased rate in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each dollar of valuation, is valid.

1937 OAG 692. In order to submit to the vote of the electors of a subdivision the question of a special levy for library purposes of a school district public library, it is mandatory that a resolution be adopted by the board of public library trustees requesting the board of education to submit the question of a special levy, and that the board of education, upon receipt of such resolution, take the necessary action for submitting to the vote of the electorsof the subdivision the question of the special levy. Where the board of public library trustees failed to pass a resolution requesting the board of education to submit the question of a special levy to the vote of the electors of the village school district and the council of the village passed a resolution requesting a one-mill levy for library purposes, and the levy was voted upon, such special levy for library purposes is illegal.

1936 OAG 5711. There is no authority for the submission to the electors of a subdivision at a primary or special election of the question of levying a tax outside the ten-mill limitation for any of the purposes mentioned in this section, for a longer period than two years. Where the taxing authority of a subdivision passed a resolution providing for the submission of such question to the electors thereof at the primary election for a period of three years, the election held upon the question of levying such tax is illegal.

1932 OAG 4579. The taxing authority of any subdivision may submit to the electors the question of a tax levy outside of the fifteen-mill limitation as provided in GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19) et seq., notwithstanding the fact that such authority may have illegally levied a tax in excess of such limitation.

1932 OAG 4044. The resolution declaring the necessity for the levy of a tax outside of the fifteen-mill limitation for the payment of debt charges on bonds issued and authorized to be issued prior to January 1, 1925, even though such bonds may have been issued at different times and mature in different years, is confined to a single purpose within the meaning of said section. In the case of bonds maturing serially, the rate set forth in such resolution should be the rate which will be required to pay the principal and interest obligations of such bonds for that year in which such obligations shall be the greatest. In setting forth the purpose of the levy in such resolution and upon the ballots, it is sufficient to follow the wording of the statute.

1927 OAG 1186. When the original resolution provided for in this section does not require that the additional tax levy therein authorized shall be placed upon the tax duplicate for the current year, said resolution may not be changed or amended after notice given as provided in GC 5625-17 (RC 5705.25) and within four weeks of the election, so as to provide that said additional tax levy shall be placed upon the tax duplicate for the current year.

1927 OAG 999. A $600,000 bond issue properly authorized by vote of the electors of a municipality at the August 1923, primary election, but never issued because of tax limitations, may now be issued, and the issuance thereof is a condition precedent to submitting the question of the exempting of a levy for the redemption of such bonds and for the interest from the fifteen-mill limitation at the November, 1927 election. The better procedure would be to submit the questions both of issuing the bonds and exempting the levy at the same election and on the same ballot.

BTA 81-D-33 (1981), McNamara v Kinney. In a situation where there exists and is pending a tax levy for an identical purpose, RC 5705.19 permits the taxing authorities to submit a proposal for a new and additional tax levy for the same purpose or to submit a proposal to renew the existing levy or renew such existing levy, with only a modification of the rate thereof.

2. Current operating expenses

126 OS 78, 184 NE 12 (1932), State ex rel Southard v Van Wert. If current expenses of a municipality cannot by provided for within the fifteen-mill limitation, and provision also be made for payment of bonds required to be issued in order to comply with the mandatory orders of the state department of health, then the current expenses must yield and the municipality take advantage of this section to secure funds for current expenses.

OAG 87-107. Money derived from a tax levied by a county pursuant to RC 5705.19(K) for "the maintenance and operation of a county home" may be used to pay for prescription medicines for residents of the county home.

OAG 85-002. Interest earned on moneys of a joint-county community mental health service district and held by a county treasurer as the designated custodian of the district's funds, including interest earned on the proceeds of a tax authorized by RC 5705.19(A), must be credited to the general fund of the county.

OAG 78-037. A county is authorized, pursuant to RC 5705.19(J), to place a tax levy on the ballot for funds to be used by a sheriff for the salaries of permanent sheriff's personnel performing police duties and equipment used directly by the sheriff in the performance of his duties.

OAG 78-029. Any fund or budget from which county employees are compensated for their services may be used under RC 305.171 to pay premiums on employees' group medical insurance.

OAG 76-027. A township police district may not obtain all police protection by contract with municipalities, other townships or county sheriffs, but may, pursuant to RC 505.50, obtain additional police protection under such a contract, after providing directly for basic police protection through the employment of a chief of police, necessary patrolmen and the acquisition of police equipment.

OAG 69-015. The monies received for the support of a county board of mental retardation may be paid into the general fund of the county to the account of the board; unless the county funds are provided by a special levy, in which case a separate fund must be established pursuant to RC 5705.10, and such monies are payable pursuant to vouchers approved by the county board of mental retardation.

OAG 68-140; overruled by OAG 78-029. The board of county commissioners has no authority to charge the cost of group medical insurance, procured and paid for under the authority of RC 305.171, against any fund other than the county general fund.

OAG 65-187. When a tax is proposed to be levied under RC 5705.19(A) the term "current expenses" must appear on the ballot, and additional words suggesting a limitation within the category of current expenses may not be added to the ballot.

1964 OAG 1417. RC 1711.15 does not authorize a special levy for current expenses of a county agricultural society when the expenditures required do not exceed $20,000.

1963 OAG 154. A levy under RC 5705.19 or 5705.191 to raise revenue for the general fund of a subdivision must be declared by resolution to be a levy "for current expenses" or "current operating expenses" of the subdivision.

1957 OAG 1123. County commissioners may submit the question of a tax levy, outside the ten-mill limitation, for current operating expenses, and if such levy is approved may use the proceeds thereof to meet the expenses of a county planning commission.

3. Municipal universities

1957 OAG 854. Where a charter municipality has provided for the power to levy an additional tax outside the charter limitation for the benefit of a municipal university, a tax levied thereunder is not subject to the limitations of RC 5705.19.

1954 OAG 4360. Agreements for the support of a municipal university, earmarking of funds thereunder, and vote required for bond issue for support thereof discussed.

1954 OAG 3574. A special levy for the support of a municipal university may be submitted to the voters of the special taxing district under the provisions of RC 5705.19 or 5705.191, but if submitted under the latter section it requires a fifty-five per cent majority and may not be for more than two years.

1939 OAG 1175. Rate of additional tax for a municipal university that may be submitted to the voters of a taxing subdivision for approval in pursuance of a resolution of necessity therefor adopted by the taxing authority of the subdivision may not exceed forty-five hundredths of a mill over and above the limitation of fifty-five hundredths of a mill as prescribed by GC 7908 (Repealed).

4. Permanent improvements

OAG 85-024. A board of township trustees may give financial aid to a community improvement corporation to help the corporation defray its administrative expenses, but may not contribute or loan township funds to a community improvement corporation for the purpose of acquiring a site for future industrial development or paying off a loan on an existing site owned by the corporation for future industrial development.

OAG 71-033. Funds from a voted tax levy under RC 5705.191 for "constructing and equipping a new children's home" may be expended to erect, on the same premises, a service building to house vehicles and maintenance equipment to be used in connection with such home.

OAG 67-056; overruled by OAG 85-024. A political subdivision may not appropriate monies derived from taxation to provide for the maintenance or operating expenses of a community improvement corporation.

OAG 66-173. Until a juvenile judge or juvenile judges advise and recommend the establishment of a county or a district detention home pursuant to RC 2151.34 there is no legal authority to levy a tax for that purpose nor for a tax levy in the alternative.

OAG 66-056. Where the board of trustees of the regional airport authority contracts with a board of county commissioners for the acquisition, construction, maintenance or operation of an airport or airport facility and provides that the costs thereof shall be an expense of the regional airport authority, the portion of such expense to be paid by the county is limited to the funds which it may appropriate annually from the general fund of the county; if, by agreement with the regional airport authority, the airport or airport facility is to be owned or owned and operated by the county, the costs of acquisition of land and facilities for the operation of the airport may be submitted by resolution as a tax levy in conformance with RC 5705.19.

1963 OAG 166. Legislation adopted by township trustees for issuance of notes under RC 505.37 must also provide for a tax levy and collection sufficient to pay interest and principal of the notes; the amount to be levied, however, is to be determined by taxing officials at the time the levy is made, after consideration of other funds available to retire the notes.

1962 OAG 3145; overruled by 1963 OAG 166. A board of township trustees may issue notes to cover deferred payments for the cost of remodeling the township firehouse, but the legislation authorizing the issuance of such notes must provide for a tax levy sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of such notes, and the proceeds of a tax levy previously adopted pursuant to RC 5705.19 may not be used for this purpose.

1962 OAG 2997. In order to use the proceeds of a special levy under RC 5705.191 for the purpose of constructing a permanent improvement, such purpose must be specified in the resolution of necessity required by such section.

1960 OAG 1697. In order to use the proceeds of a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation under RC 5705.19 for the purpose of constructing a permanent improvement, such purpose must be specified in the resolution of necessity required by such section.

1959 OAG 722. Where it has been determined by the county commissioners that the entire cost of a garbage and refuse disposal plant shall be borne by the county at large, all of the residents of the county are entitled to vote for a tax levy therefor and the taxes levied pursuant thereto must be levied on all the taxable property of the county.

1959 OAG 722. If the county commissioners so determine, the entire cost of the installation of a garbage and refuse disposal plant may be paid by the county at large, and the cost thereof may be provided by a tax authorized by electors of the county, but the cost of operation could not be included in a single bond issue covering the cost of construction.

1951 OAG 455. Funds collected from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation under this section, may properly be expended for the repairing of electric wiring in fixtures of a county children's home, but may not be expended for any "permanent improvement" or "improvement", as those terms are defined in GC 5625-1(e) (RC 5705.01).

1944 OAG 6717. Village owning a cemetery not connected in any way with the township or other cemetery association may levy a tax on the property of such village for cemetery purposes, and a proposal to levy such tax must be submitted at general election held in November.

1937 OAG 994. A municipality may properly submit to the electors the question of a levy outside the ten-mill limitation for the construction or acquisition of a gas plant and its incidental appurtenances.

5. Roads and bridges

OAG 90-097. A county that agrees to contribute to the repair and maintenance of the roads of a township within the county pursuant to RC 5535.08 may use for such purpose revenues derived from a tax levied under RC 5705.06(D) for the repair of roads other than state roads or revenues derived from a tax levied under RC 5705.19(G) for the repair of roads in the county or townships.

OAG 79-045. County commissioners may use the proceeds of a county-wide levy for general construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and repair of roads and bridges in counties or townships to make contributions to township trustees, based upon road mileage in each township, for the purpose of repair and maintenance of township roads. Absent express statutory authorization, county commissioners may not make contributions to, or share proceeds of a road levy with, township trustees for the purpose of any construction, improvement, or repair, of county roads.

OAG 67-107. Bridge funds levied pursuant to RC 5705.19(G) may not lawfully be used for the purpose of a regional master plan for sanitary sewer, water and storm drainage.

OAG 67-107. County funds derived from motor vehicle fuel taxes and motor vehicle license taxes may be lawfully expended to finance, in part, the development of a master plan for sanitary sewers, water and storm drainage for Greene, Miami, and Montgomery counties, in cooperation with the Miami Valley regional planning commission, but only to the extent that such expenditures are pursuant to an agreement entered into under RC 306.152, which agreement must limit such expenditures to planning related directly to the construction, reconstruction, improvement and repair of roads and bridges.

1932 OAG 4141. The expenses of the county surveyor and his office, in connection with the costs of the construction of a road improvement, are to be paid from county general funds and such cost cannot be proportioned and paid from the proceeds of a special road tax levy.

1931 OAG 3331. The proceeds of a tax levied for road purposes, generally, may lawfully be used by the county commissioners to pay their proportionate cost of the construction of a grade elimination project.

1928 OAG 2404, 2406. Township trustees are not authorized to submit to the electors of the township the question of making a tax levy over and above fifteen mills for the general construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and repair of roads; township trustees may submit to the electors of the township the question of levying a tax in excess of the fifteen-mill limitation for the purpose of constructing a specific road improvement if the estimated life of such improvement is five years or more.

6. Fire districts

No. 83-01-003 (12th Dist Ct App, Butler, 12-19-83), State ex rel Linkous v Tilton. Where a township board fails to adopt a resolution creating multiple fire districts within the township, the board lacks authority to levy a tax for fire protection upon a portion of the taxable township property.

OAG 89-010. Moneys derived from a township fire levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(I) and paid to a private fire company as reasonable compensation for fire and rescue services may be expended by the private fire company for any proper purpose of the company, including litigation relating to the construction and operation of the contract under which the moneys were paid to the fire company, except to the extent that the terms of the contract restrict the purposes for which the fire company may expend the moneys.

OAG 83-069. A board of township trustees may use funds derived from a tax levy adopted under RC 5705.19(I) to pay a private volunteer fire company to operate fire apparatus and appliances which are owned by the private volunteer fire company; such board of township trustees may not use funds derived from a levy adopted under RC 5705.19(I) to simply donate a fire station, fire equipment or apparatus, or maintenance services to a private volunteer fire company, but the board may contract with a private volunteer fire company for the provision of fire equipment, real estate, or services to the township upon any terms and conditions which the board, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, deems appropriate; such terms and conditions may make funds derived from a levy adopted under RC 5705.19(I) available for the purchase of property or maintenance services for the fire company.

OAG 82-037. Pursuant to 1978 S 491, § 3, eff. 7-13-78, if the voters of a township have approved a tax levy under RC 5705.19(I) prior to 7-13-78, and the board of township trustees has appropriated funds from such levy to a fire department or firefighting company to purchase ambulance equipment or to provide ambulance services, the board of township trustees may continue to use the funds for such purpose for the duration of the period of the levy.

OAG 73-023. A township may not pass a bond issue for fire protection in any amount exceeding $50,000, but it may pass a tax levy in an amount exceeding $50,000 under RC 5705.19(I) and 5705.191.

OAG 73-023. The passage of a bond issue for fire protection is restricted by RC 505.40, but the passage of a tax levy by the township for the same purpose under RC 5705.19(I) and 5705.191 is not.

OAG 69-123. A board of township trustees may utilize funds acquired under RC 505.39 and 5705.19(I) for the purpose of furnishing ambulance service to its citizens and such funds may be used when the service is furnished directly through the township fire department under RC 505.37 or indirectly by contract under RC 505.443.

OAG 66-144. A board of township trustees may not accumulate the proceeds of a voted levy for fire protection during the life of the levy, for expenditure at a later date.

1952 OAG 1101. A fire district is a subdivision within the scope of the uniform tax levy law and the township trustees may submit to the voters a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation.

1949 OAG 808. Township trustees may, by resolution, submit to the voters of the township or a fire district the question of taxation beyond the ten-mill limitation to provide and maintain fire apparatus and appliances and buildings and sites therefor for the use of a volunteer fire fighting company, but in no event to exceed $20,000.

7. Hospitals

OAG 86-053. A board of county commissioners has no authority to contribute county funds to a private, nonprofit organization formed for the purpose of coordinating health care and other support services for persons who are terminally ill but who are no longer in need of hospitalization.

OAG 81-023. A board of township trustees which has contracted with an adjoining municipality for the provision of ambulance or emergency medical services may establish reasonable charges pursuant to RC 505.84 for those persons who use the contracted service.

OAG 77-053; overruled by OAG 81-023. A board of township trustees may not recover the expenses of furnishing ambulance services, obtained by contract with a city pursuant to RC 505.443, by charging persons who use such service.

1955 OAG 5585. A county may include current expenses of a county general hospital in a general levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation, which must be approved by sixty per cent of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to the general fund.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.191 a two year levy for supplementing the general fund for various purposes including the support of general hospitals may be authorized by fifty-five per cent of the voters.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.22 a levy of not more than 65/100 of a mill for support of a county general hospital may be levied outside the ten-mill limitation if approved by a majority of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to a special fund.

1949 OAG 365. A county is not permitted to vote a special tax levy for maintenance of a county hospital outside of the ten-mill limitation; an additional tax for such purpose may be submitted to the electors.

1945 OAG 394. An additional tax may not be levied under GC 5625-15a (RC 5705.20), for the purpose of paying for the care, treatment and maintenance of tuberculosis patients at hospitals with which county commissioners have contracted. An additional tax for such purpose may be submitted to the electors under GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19), and related sections.

8. School levies

48 App 43, 192 NE 393 (1933), Myers v Dover Twp Rural School Dist Bd of Ed. Adoption of resolution by board of education and certification thereof to election board was not necessary for calling of election to authorize school district tax, outside fifteen-mill limitation, to enable district to participate in state educational equalization fund, but resolution was effective to establish existence of conditions precedent to holding of election.

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 5705.21, 5705.19(A), 5705.19(D), and 5705.19(F), the board of education of a school district may submit to the electors of the school district a tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for any one of the following purposes: (1) current expenses; (2) library purposes; or (3) permanent improvements.

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 3313.53, the board of education of a school district may expend funds derived from a tax levy for current expenses which is levied under RC 5705.21 and 5705.19(A) for the expenses "of directing, supervising, and coaching the pupil-activity programs in music, language, arts, speech, government, athletics, and any others directly related to the curriculum."

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 3315.062, the board of education of a school district may expend funds derived from a tax levy for current expenses which is levied under RC 5705.21 and 5705.19(A) for the operation of such student activity programs as are approved by the state board of education and included in the program of the school district as authorized by its board of education, provided that total expenditures by the board from its general revenue fund for the operation of such student activity programs may not exceed five-tenths of one per cent of the board's annual operating budget.

OAG 78-027. The authority to purchase or lease motor vehicles is so integrally related to the duty of the county board of mental retardation to provide transportation that it is a necessarily implied power under RC 5126.03(C); therefore, the authority to purchase, lease and hold title to motor vehicles to be used to meet transportation needs of a county board of mental retardation lies with that board and not with the board of county commissioners.

OAG 70-121; overruled by OAG 78-027. The power of the county board of mental retardation under RC 5126.03(D) to "provide" funds for its activities does not render the board a "taxing authority" within the meaning of RC 5705.19.

OAG 66-153. When an exempted school district proposes a five-mill tax levy outside the ten-mill limitation, pursuant to RC 5705.192, for current operating purposes, which is not necessary to meet the minimum requirements of RC Ch 3317, such levy may be for an indefinite period of time, so long as the total millage outside the ten-mill limitation levied for an indefinite period of time does not exceed ten mills; if any part of said proposed levy for an indefinite period of time causes the total millage levied for an indefinite period of time outside the ten-mill limitation to exceed ten mills, then RC 5705.192 limits the excess of the ten mills specified to a duration of no longer than ten years; a proposed levy outside the ten-mill limitation for current operating expenses of an exempted school district, which is not necessary to meet the minimum requirements of RC Ch 3317, and which is proposed under RC 5705.19, may be made for any number of years not exceeding five.

OAG 66-096. A local school district board of education may submit two separate levies in excess of the ten-mill limitation, one to renew an existing levy and the other an additional levy, for the same purpose, for the same period of time, and under the same code provision, RC 5705.21.

1964 OAG 1523. There is no legal authority for a participating school district to allocate and pay over any part of its tax or school foundation funds to a joint vocational school district.

1964 OAG 1523. A board of education of a joint vocational school district may declare by resolution the necessity to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that there shall be a levy upon the duplicate of the current year; and the fact that such board of education did not come into legal existence until the fifteenth day of June does not prevent such levy upon the current duplicate.

1964 OAG 1523. The revenue received from a special levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for current operating expenses may not lawfully be used to enlarge or improve existing buildings.

1961 OAG 2657. If a board of education of a school district resolves to submit the question of an additional tax levy for school district purposes to a vote of the electors and the resolution of the board specifies that such additional tax levy is to be placed upon the tax duplicate for the current year, then the levy, if it receives a favorable vote, must be extended on the current tax duplicate for collection, and after the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

1961 OAG 2479. A board of education of a city, exempted village, or local school district may expend money to improve its athletic field; and such a subdivision may submit to the electors of the subdivision the question of issuing any bonds and levying of any tax for the purpose of providing the necessary funds therefor.

1957 OAG 1212. Where the taxing authority of a school district has initiated a proposal to levy a tax for current operating expenses and where the legal existence of such district is terminated by consolidation of such school district with another to form a new local school district prior to the date of the election at which such proposal is to be submitted to the electors, the submission of such proposal thereafter either to the electors of such constituent district, or of such consolidated district, is not authorized.

1956 OAG 6908. A levy pursuant to RC 5705.19 for current operating revenues for a school district may be voted for any number of years not exceeding ten when the levy or any part of such levy is necessary to qualify the school district under RC Ch 3317, even though such levy will increase the total tax levy for current school operation to an amount in excess of the minimum required in RC Ch 3317.

1949 OAG 1009. If a school district votes an additional tax levy in the November 1949 election, and the board of education resolves to place the tax on the books for the current year, pursuant to GC 5625-17a (RC 5705.25), the county auditor is required to certify and the county treasurer to collect said tax in December 1949, despite GC 2584 (RC 319.29).

9. Mental health and retardation programs

95 Abs 311, 201 NE(2d) 816 (CP, Madison 1964), Roddy v Andrix. Funds arising from a special levy, "for the purpose of the maintenance and operation of schools for retarded children" may not be used for acquisition of real estate and construction of a school building.

OAG 91-042. When a special election for a tax levy for community mental retardation and developmental disabilities programs and services pursuant to RC Ch 5126 is held under RC 5705.19(L) on the primary election date in an odd-numbered year, the county is the "subdivision submitting the special election" for purposes of RC 3501.17. Accordingly, the board of county commissioners must pay costs relating to the special election as provided in RC 3501.17.

OAG 88-096. A board of county commissioners may fund the programs of the county mental retardation and developmental disabilities board by special levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(L) and/or by treating the costs of such programs as current expenses of the county payable from the general fund pursuant to RC 5705.05(E).

OAG 86-103. All revenue derived from a special tax levied pursuant to RC 5705.19(L), for the support of the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and its school, and for the construction and operation of a facility to house board programs, must, pursuant to RC 5705.10, be placed in a special fund established pursuant to RC 5705.09(D) for the purposes for which the tax was levied.

OAG 86-103. Where a tax is levied pursuant to RC 5705.19(L) for the purpose of supporting a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and its school, and for the construction and operation of a facility to house the county board's programs, the proceeds of the levy may be used for the current operating expenses of the board. To the extent the proceeds are not budgeted for operating expenses, the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities may, with the approval of the county board of commissioners, use the proceeds to construct a facility.

OAG 85-002. Interest earned on moneys of a joint-county community mental health service district and held by a county treasurer as the designated custodian of the district's funds, including interest earned on the proceeds of a tax authorized by RC 5705.19(A), must be credited to the general fund of the county.

OAG 84-089. Interest earned on moneys which are derived from a special tax levied pursuant to RC 5705.19(L) and which have been transferred to a permanent improvement fund established pursuant to RC 5705.12 must be credited to the general fund of the county.

OAG 84-065. Pursuant to RC 5705.19, a board of county commissioners may, in its resolution to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation for programs and services for the mentally retarded and developmentally disabled, provide for the increased tax rate to be for a specific number of years, not exceeding five, or for the increased tax rate to be for a continuing or indefinite period of time. A board of county commissioners has no authority to provide that such an increase be for a definite number of years exceeding five years.

OAG 82-018. A county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities lacks the authority to independently purchase real estate. Such purchases can be made by the board with the approval of the board of county commissioners pursuant to RC 5709.19(L) or by the board of county commissioners under RC 307.02.

OAG 82-013. A tax levy submitted for voter approval by a joint county mental health district pursuant to RC 5705.19(A) and 5705.25 may not be designated as a replacement levy.

OAG 75-089. A joint county mental health and retardation service district is a subdivision within RC 5705.01(A), and the district's mental health and retardation board is a taxing authority within RC 5705.01(C); therefore, pursuant to RC 5705.19 a joint county community mental health and retardation board is capable of placing a tax levy before the public without the approval of the county commissioners.

OAG 74-061. A board of county commissioners may certify to the board of elections a ten-year levy for a community mental health and retardation program, even though the amendment to RC 5705.221, permitting such ten-year levy, becomes effective after the date of certification but before the November election.

OAG 70-062. County board of mental retardation does not possess power or authority to purchase site for construction of permanent improvement for mentally retarded, nor to contract with an architect or engineer to assist in construction of such improvement.

OAG 69-113. A special tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for a county board of mental retardation should be submitted under RC 5705.19(L), rather than RC 5704.24; although funds from the levy proposed under RC 5705.19(L) may be used for substantially the same purposes as the current levy passed under RC 5705.24, the proposed levy will not be a "renewal" of the current levy.

OAG 68-015. Monies received from a tax levied pursuant to RC 5705.19(L) for the maintenance and operation of schools, training centers or workshops for mentally retarded persons must be appropriated to the use of the county board of mental retardation.

OAG 67-109. A county board of mental retardation may enter into a contract with the county child welfare board having real and personal property used exclusively in the training of mentally deficient persons, to provide the training center, workshop facilities and services authorized in RC 5127.01 upon such terms as may be agreeable.

OAG 67-088. The proceeds of a tax levied pursuant to the authorization contained in RC 5705.24 cannot be legally appropriated to or expended by a county board of mental retardation created under RC 5126.01.

OAG 65-221. RC 5705.19(L) is not applicable to a tax levy passed prior to October 25, 1965.

1962 OAG 2780. The board of county commissioners may not place a tax levy upon the ballot for the combined purposes of child welfare services and the mentally retarded program.

1961 OAG 2511. A levy for the maintenance and operation of schools, training centers, or workshops for mentally retarded persons provided for in RC 5705.19(L) does not come within the limitation of sixty-five one hundredths of a mill for the support of child welfare services provided for in RC 5705.24.

10. Emergency services

OAG 90-065. A township that has an emergency service levy under RC 5705.19 may also, pursuant to RC 505.84, to cover the costs of providing ambulance services within the township, charge nonresidents $125 per run for ambulance services and may charge residents a lesser fee, provided that the charges are reasonable and that the "authorized medicare reimbursement rate" established for the locality, as determined by the medicare carrier, is equal to or less than $125. The board of township trustees may at its discretion waive all or part of the charge for any resident.

OAG 79-072. Funds raised by a levy passed pursuant to RC 5705.19(I) may be used to purchase a rescue vehicle which provides ambulance or emergency medical services, whether or not such services are provided in connection with fire-related matters.

OAG 78-014. Levy funds raised pursuant to a fire levy under RC 5705.19(I) may not be used for the purpose of purchasing ambulance equipment or for providing ambulance or emergency medical service, and funds for such purposes must be raised under a separate levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(U).

11. Public recreation facilities

50 OS(2d) 356, 364 NE(2d) 289 (1977), Towne Properties, Inc v Fairfield. RC Ch 5705, creating the general tax levy, contains neither an expressed statutory interdiction nor a justification for the implication of a legislative intention of pre-emption; therefore, a municipality has retained its authority to impose a tax upon new residential units and mobile homes or trailer pads in the city to provide the funds for the acquisition, development, maintenance and operation of needed public recreation sites or facilities.

OAG 87-106. A township's purchase of a building to be used as a multipurpose senior center may be financed by a tax levy under RC 5705.19(F) or 5705.191, and in appropriate circumstances, the procedure set forth in RC 505.263 may be followed.

OAG 65-124. Township trustees of any township having within its limits a public park, public square, or grounds devoted to public uses for park purposes not under the control of a board of park commissioners do not have the authority to expend the proceeds of a tax levied pursuant to RC 511.33 for (1) establishing and maintaining recreational programs for youth in the township; (2) hiring supervisors and assistants or using township employees to establish and supervise recreational programs for youth in the township; or (3) purchasing supplies and/or equipment to establish and operate recreational programs for youth in the township, or to acquire, by rental agreement or lease, for the summer months, real estate having thereon recreational facilities to be used for park purposes.

OAG 65-39. Funds raised by a township recreation levy pursuant to RC 5705.19(H) may not be used to operate a free public park under the control of park commissioners of a township park district.

1963 OAG 157. A board of education cannot expend monies from recreational funds raised by a special tax levy pursuant to RC 5705.19 for the purchase of football equipment for students participating in extra-curricular football, whether it be interscholastic or intrascholastic practice and competition.

5705.191 Approval of excess levy; issuing notes; emergency medical services levy

The taxing authority of any subdivision, other than the board of education of a school district or the taxing authority of a county school financing district, by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the necessary requirements of the subdivision, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for any of the purposes in section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, or to supplement the general fund for the purpose of making appropriations for one or more of the following purposes: public assistance, human or social services, relief, welfare, hospitalization, health, and support of general or tuberculosis hospitals, and that the question of such additional tax levy shall be submitted to the electors of the subdivision at a general, primary, or special election to be held at a time therein specified. Such resolution shall not include a levy on the current tax list and duplicate unless such election is to be held at or prior to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the current tax year. Such resolution shall conform to the requirements of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, except that a levy to supplement the general fund for the purposes of public assistance, human or social services, relief, welfare, hospitalization, health, or the support of general or tuberculosis hospitals may not be for a longer period than ten years. All other levies under this section may not be for a longer period than five years unless a longer period is permitted by section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, and the resolution shall specify the date of holding such election, which shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of such resolution. The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage and no publication of the same is necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. A copy of such resolution shall, immediately after its passage, be certified to the board of elections of the proper county or counties in the manner provided by section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, and such section shall govern the arrangements for the submission of such question and other matters with respect to such election, to which section 5705.25 of the Revised Code refers, excepting that such election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution, which shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, provided that only one special election for the submission of such question may be held in any one calendar year and provided that a special election may be held upon the same day a primary election is held. Publication of notice of such election shall be made in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for four consecutive weeks.

If a majority of the electors voting on the question in an election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November or on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, or fifty-five per cent of those voting on the question at a special election held on any other day vote, in favor thereof, or, when the question is a levy proposed for purposes under division (L) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, if a majority of those voting on the question at a special election held on any other day vote in favor thereof, the taxing authority of the subdivision may make the necessary levy within such subdivision at the additional rate or at any lesser rate outside the ten-mill limitation on the tax list and duplicate for the purpose stated in the resolution. Such tax levy shall be included in the next annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

After the approval of such levy by vote and prior to the time when the first tax collection from such levy can be made, the taxing authority of the subdivision may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes. In the case of a continuing levy, notes may be issued in an amount not more than fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy for the first ten years. In the case of a levy for a fixed period, notes may be issued in an amount not more than fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy throughout its life. No anticipation notes that increase the net indebtedness of a county may be issued without the prior consent of the board of county commissioners of that county. The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not exceeding the life of the levy anticipated, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

"Taxing authority" and "subdivision" have the same meanings as in section 5705.01 of the Revised Code.

This section is supplemental to and not in derogation of sections 5705.20, 5705.21, and 5705.22 of the Revised Code.

1992 H 700, § 4: See Uncodified Law under 5705.19.

1991 H 207, § 9, eff. 9-17-91, reads:

The amendments and enactments in Section 1 of this act apply to any proceedings commenced after their effective date, and, so far as their provisions support the actions taken, also apply to any proceedings that on their effective date are pending, in progress, or, in the case of elections or otherwise, completed, and to the securities authorized or issued pursuant to those proceedings, notwithstanding the applicable law previously in effect or any provision to the contrary in a prior resolution, ordinance, order, advertisement, notice, or other proceeding. Any proceedings pending or in progress on the effective date of those amendments and enactments, and securities sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, pursuant to those proceedings, shall be deemed to have been taken, and authorized, sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, in conformity with those amendments and enactments.

The authority provided in Section 1 of this act provides additional and supplemental provisions for the subject matter that may also be the subject of other laws, and is supplemental to and not in derogation of any similar authority provided by, derived from, or implied by, the Constitution, or any other law, including laws amended by this act, or any charter, order, resolution, or ordinance, and no inference shall be drawn to negate the authority thereunder by reason of express provisions contained in Section 1.

The provisions of the Revised Code amended or repealed by this act shall be deemed to remain applicable to securities issued pursuant to or in reliance on them prior to the effective date of those amendments or repeals.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1. In general
2. Taxing authority
3. Enactment of levy
4. Nature of revenue
5. Issuance of anticipation notes

1. In general

OAG 91-035. There need not be a direct relationship between the amount of levy proceeds paid by a township to a hospital association pursuant to RC 513.01 or 5705.191 and the services rendered to indigents by the hospital.

OAG 91-035. The proceeds of a levy for the purpose of supplementing the general fund for the support of general hospitals pursuant to RC 5705.191 may be paid to a hospital association which meets the requirements of RC 513.01 and RC 513.02.

OAG 88-068. With the passage of a replacement levy pursuant to RC 5705.191, the levy that was replaced becomes ineffective and incapable of being renewed.

OAG 88-068. A replacement levy proposed pursuant to RC 5705.191 that does not win voter approval has no effect upon the levy that it seeks to replace; a resolution to renew the existing levy may be placed on the ballot pursuant to RC 5705.25 following the failure of a replacement levy to win voter approval.

OAG 87-106. A township's purchase of a building to be used as a multipurpose senior center may be financed by a tax levy under RC 5705.19(F) or 5705.191, and in appropriate circumstances, the procedure set forth in RC 505.263 may be followed.

OAG 80-011. RC 5705.19, 5705.191 and 5705.25 do not allow for variable rate tax levies, and levies proposed by counties pursuant to these sections must be fixed rate levies. The only sections in RC Ch 5705 allowing for variable rate levies are RC 5705.194 et seq. which apply only to school districts meeting emergency requirements.

OAG 73-023. The passage of a bond issue for fire protection is restricted by RC 505.40, but the passage of a tax levy by the township for the same purpose under RC 5705.19(I) and 5705.191 is not.

OAG 68-051. The renewal of a tax levy authorized by RC 5705.20 for the support of tuberculosis hospitals or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis or for the support of tuberculosis clinics may only by submitted to the electorate at the November election.

1961 OAG 2145. Where a tax levy is approved by the voters of a taxing district at a special election held in December pursuant to RC 5705.191 the county auditor is not required to extend such tax levy on the tax list and duplicate for the current year.

1937 OAG 1245. A board of county commissioners, in expending public funds for advertising an election upon a question of a tax levy outside of constitutional limitations, is limited to the publication of a notice of such election provided by this section, and public funds may not be expended to pay the cost of other advertisements showing the necessity of such levy.

2. Taxing authority

OAG 75-070. There is no express or necessarily implied authority under either RC 307.051 or 5705.191, for a county to enter into contracts for the provision of emergency medical services.

OAG 73-023. A township may not pass a bond issue for fire protection in any amount exceeding $50,000, but it may pass a tax levy in an amount exceeding $50,000 under RC 5705.19(I) and 5705.191.

OAG 69-089; overruled by OAG 91-035. A taxing subdivision, be it a municipality or township, may not pass a levy under RC 5705.191 for the support of a general hospital run by a private not-for-profit corporation.

3. Enactment of levy

27 OS(2d) 47, 271 NE(2d) 795 (1971), State ex rel Cooper v Warren. Fifty-five per cent majority was necessary to enact levy to provide bonds for jail and court house.

403 US 1, 91 SCt 1889, 29 LEd(2d) 273 (1971), Gordon v Lance. West Virginia's constitutional and statutory requirement that political subdivisions may not incur bonded indebtedness or increase tax rates beyond those established by the state constitution without the approval of sixty per cent of the voters in referendum election does not discriminate against or authorize discrimination against any identifiable class and does not violate the Equal Protection Clause or any other provision of the US Constitution.

OAG 88-068. With the passage of a replacement levy pursuant to RC 5705.191, the levy that was replaced becomes ineffective and incapable of being renewed.

1964 OAG 1417. RC 1711.15 does not authorize a special levy for current expenses of a county agricultural society when the expenditures required do not exceed $20,000.

1963 OAG 154. A levy under RC 5705.19 or 5705.191 to raise revenue for the general fund of a subdivision must be declared by resolution to be a levy "for current expenses" or "current operating expenses" of the subdivision.

1929 OAG 1043. Where, in submitting to the electors of the subdivision the question of a tax levy, the resolution of necessity of such levy is not filed with the election board prior to September 15th, but all other provisions governing such submission are followed, and the question carries at the election, it is unlikely that the courts would hold invalid the tax levy so authorized by reason of such noncompliance with the statute.

4. Nature of revenue

OAG 73-086. While county commissioners may not, by grant or by separate contract for emergency services, make payments from a special levy under RC 5705.191 to the lessee of a county general hospital to cover the costs of hiring additional doctors to staff the emergency room of the hospital, they may, however, pursuant to a provision in the lease agreement, entered under RC 339.09, make such payments from the proceeds of the levy submitted to the voters under RC 5705.191.

OAG 71-033. Funds from a voted tax levy under RC 5705.191 for "constructing and equipping a new children's home" may be expended to erect, on the same premises, a service building to house vehicles and maintenance equipment to be used in connection with such home.

1963 OAG 154. A levy under RC 5705.191 for "the purpose of supplementing the general fund for current expenses ... for the purpose of making an appropriation for child welfare services" is a special levy and all revenue derived therefrom shall be credited to a special fund for the purpose for which the levy was made, and may not be used for the construction of permanent improvements.

1962 OAG 2997. Revenue derived from a special tax levy pursuant to RC 5705.191 may not be paid into the general fund to reimburse such fund, but must be credited to a special fund for the purpose for which such levy was made; no transfer can be made from a special fund to the general fund except as authorized in RC 5705.14.

1962 OAG 2997. In order to use the proceeds of a special levy under RC 5705.191 for the purpose of constructing a permanent improvement, such purpose must be specified in the resolution of necessity required by such section.

1956 OAG 7001. County contributions in support of mental health clinics are health expenditures, and if the funds for health purposes are insufficient a levy may be made, funds from which may not be earmarked for any special health purpose but are available for all health expenditures.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.191 a two-year levy for supplementing the general fund for various purposes including the support of general hospitals may be authorized by fifty-five per cent of the voters.

1954 OAG 3574. A special levy for the support of a municipal university may be submitted to the voters of the special taxing district under the provisions of RC 5705.19 or 5705.191, but if submitted under the latter section it requires a fifty-five per cent majority and may not be for more than two years.

5. Issuance of anticipation notes

OAG 66-136. A university branch district created pursuant to RC Ch 3355 has no statutory authority to anticipate the proceeds of a levy approved in accordance with RC 3355.09, and therefore may not issue notes in anticipation of such proceeds, nor use the proceeds from such levy to repay loans either upon notes or notes and mortgages on district property since such use of these proceeds is not one of the purposes for such levy as specified in RC 3355.09.

5705.192 Replacement levies

A taxing authority may propose to replace all or a portion of an existing levy that is limited to any of the purposes specified in divisions (A) to (N) of this section. If the authority proposes to replace the levy, it shall be called a replacement levy and shall be so designated on the ballot. A replacement levy shall appear separately on the ballot from and not be conjoined with the renewal of any other existing levy. A resolution for a replacement levy shall specify the amount of the proposed rate, the first year in which the levy will be imposed, and whether the levy is to replace all, or a portion of, the existing levy.

A replacement levy may be proposed to replace all or a portion of a levy imposed for any of the following purposes:

(A) A levy under section 3311.21 of the Revised Code;

(B) A levy under section 5705.191 of the Revised Code limited to the purpose of providing emergency medical service;

(C) A general health district levy under section 3709.29 of the Revised Code;

(D) A levy for community mental retardation and developmental disabilities programs and services imposed under section 5705.19 or 5705.191 of the Revised Code;

(E) A levy under section 5705.221 of the Revised Code;

(F) A levy by the board of a joint-county alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district under section 5705.19 or 5705.191 of the Revised Code;

(G) A levy under section 5705.24 of the Revised Code;

(H) A levy under section 511.27 of the Revised Code;

(I) A levy under section 1545.21 of the Revised Code;

(J) A levy by a board of education under section 5705.21 of the Revised Code;

(K) A levy by a board of county commissioners for the provision and maintenance of zoological park services and facilities under division (Z) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code;

(L) A levy by a board of county commissioners under division (G) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code for the general construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and repair of streets, roads, and bridges in the county;

(M) A levy by a board of township trustees under division (G) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code for the general construction, reconstruction, resurfacing, and repair of streets and roads, but not bridges, in the township;

(N) A levy by a board of county commissioners under section 5705.191 of the Revised Code to supplement the general fund for the purpose of making appropriations for (1) health or (2) human or social services, or (3) both health and human or social services.

The taxing authority shall adopt the resolution for a replacement levy and file a certified copy of the resolution with the county board of elections in the manner prescribed by the section of the Revised Code that applies to the adoption and certification of the resolution.

Two existing levies, or any portion of those levies, may be combined into one replacement levy, so long as both of the existing levies are due to expire the same year and both are for the same purpose as specified in divisions (A) to (N) of this section. The question of combining all or portions of the two existing levies into the replacement levy shall appear as one ballot proposition before the electors. If the electors approve the ballot proposition, all or the stated portions of the two existing levies are replaced by one replacement levy.

5705.193 Tax anticipation notes on county tax levy for permanent improvements

When the electors of a county have approved a tax levy under section 5705.191 of the Revised Code for the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition or construction of a specific permanent improvement or class of permanent improvements for the county, the taxing authority of such county may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and from time to time, during the life of such levy, issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not to exceed seventy-five per cent of the estimated proceeds of such levy to be collected after the date of the issuance of such notes, less an amount equal to the proceeds of such levy previously obligated by the issuance of anticipation notes. No anticipation notes that increase the net indebtedness of a county may be issued without the prior consent of the board of county commissioners of that county.

Such notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each remaining year of the life of the levy after the year of their issuance, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

5705.194 Resolution for emergency school levy; election; anticipation notes

The board of education of any city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district may at any time declare by resolution that the revenue that will be raised by all tax levies which the district is authorized to impose, when combined with state and federal revenues, will be insufficient to provide for the emergency requirements of the school district or to avoid an operating deficit, and that it is therefore necessary to levy an additional tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation. Such resolution shall be confined to a single purpose and shall specify the purpose thereof. If the levy is proposed to renew all or a portion of the proceeds derived from one or more existing levies imposed pursuant to this section, it shall be called a renewal levy and shall be so designated on the ballot. No two or more existing levies shall be included in a single renewal levy unless they expire in the same year. Notwithstanding the original purpose of any one or more existing levies that are to be in any single renewal levy, the purpose of such renewal levy may be either to avoid an operating deficit or to provide for the emergency requirements of the school district. The resolution shall further specify the amount of money it is necessary to raise for the specified purpose for each calendar year the millage is to be imposed; if a renewal levy, whether the levy is to renew all, or a portion of, the proceeds derived from one or more existing levies; and the number of years in which the millage is to be in effect, which may include a levy upon the current year's tax list. The number of years may be any number not exceeding five. The question shall be submitted at a special election on a date specified in the resolution. The date shall not be earlier than eighty days after the adoption and certification of such resolution to the county auditor and shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. A resolution for a renewal levy shall not be placed on the ballot unless the question is submitted on the date of the general or primary election held during the last year the levy or levies to be renewed may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held in the ensuing year.

The submission of questions to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. A copy of such resolution shall immediately after its passing be certified to the county auditor of the proper county. Section 5705.195 of the Revised Code shall govern the arrangements for the submission of such question and other matters concerning such election. Publication of notice of such election shall be made in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for three consecutive weeks. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of such levy, the board of education of the school district may forthwith make the additional levy necessary to raise the amount specified in the resolution for the purpose stated in the resolution. Such tax levy shall be included in the next tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

After the approval of the levy and prior to the time when the first tax collection from such levy can be made, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in an amount not exceeding the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy.

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed five years, and may have principal payment in the year of their issuance.

1991 H 104, § 4 and 5, eff. 11-1-91, read:

Section 4. Notwithstanding section 5705.194 of the Revised Code to the contrary, a board of education that levies two or more existing emergency levies under that section on the effective date of this act may propose the renewal of all or a portion of the proceeds of two or more of those levies as a single renewal emergency levy, provided that all of the levies proposed to be renewed expire in the same year and not later than December 31, 1992. Notwithstanding the original purposes as stated in the resolutions providing for the several levies proposed to be renewed under this section, the purpose of the single renewal levy may be either to avoid an operating deficit or to provide for the emergency requirements of the school district.

Other than as specifically provided to the contrary in this section, a board of education proposing to renew two or more emergency levies under this section shall propose the renewal in the manner prescribed by section 5705.194 of the Revised Code, and the form of the ballot shall be prescribed by section 5705.197 of the Revised Code, except:

(A) The resolution proposing the renewal levy shall clearly state that it proposes the renewal of two or more emergency levies as a single levy, and shall state the total amount of proceeds needed to be raised by the renewal levy;

(B) If the form of the ballot is modified in any of the manners provided in divisions (A), (B), or (C), of section 5705.197 of the Revised Code, the ballot shall reflect the number of levies to be renewed, whether the amount of any of the levies will be increased or decreased, and, for each such levy, the amount of any increase or decrease; and

(C) A board of education proposing the renewal of two or more emergency levies under this section shall submit the question of the renewal at a special election on the date of the 1992 general election.

Section 5. Section 4 of this act expires on December 31, 1992.

1991 H 207, § 9, eff. 9-17-91, reads:

The amendments and enactments in Section 1 of this act apply to any proceedings commenced after their effective date, and, so far as their provisions support the actions taken, also apply to any proceedings that on their effective date are pending, in progress, or, in the case of elections or otherwise, completed, and to the securities authorized or issued pursuant to those proceedings, notwithstanding the applicable law previously in effect or any provision to the contrary in a prior resolution, ordinance, order, advertisement, notice, or other proceeding. Any proceedings pending or in progress on the effective date of those amendments and enactments, and securities sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, pursuant to those proceedings, shall be deemed to have been taken, and authorized, sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, in conformity with those amendments and enactments.

The authority provided in Section 1 of this act provides additional and supplemental provisions for the subject matter that may also be the subject of other laws, and is supplemental to and not in derogation of any similar authority provided by, derived from, or implied by, the Constitution, or any other law, including laws amended by this act, or any charter, order, resolution, or ordinance, and no inference shall be drawn to negate the authority thereunder by reason of express provisions contained in Section 1.

The provisions of the Revised Code amended or repealed by this act shall be deemed to remain applicable to securities issued pursuant to or in reliance on them prior to the effective date of those amendments or repeals.

52 OS(2d) 199, 371 NE(2d) 536 (1977), State ex rel Daoust v Smith. Mandamus will lie to compel the clerk-treasurer of the school board to sign tax anticipation notes following adoption of a tax levy once the time limit for challenging the election authorizing such levy has passed.

OAG 80-011. RC 5705.19, 5705.191 and 5705.25 do not allow for variable rate tax levies, and levies proposed by counties pursuant to these sections must be fixed rate levies. The only sections in RC Ch 5705 allowing for variable rate levies are RC 5705.194 et seq. which apply only to school districts meeting emergency requirements.

OAG 79-024. A levy to satisfy emergency needs or to prevent school closings, passed under RC 5705.194, is a special levy and the proceeds must be paid into a special fund pursuant to RC 5705.10. Such proceeds may be used to pay salary increases for teachers and nonteaching employees only if the board of education has reason to believe, with due regard to the circumstances and interests of the district, that such increases constitute an emergency need or are necessary to prevent school closings.

OAG 79-024. A levy for current operating expenses, passed under RC 5705.194, is a general levy for current expense and may be paid into the school district's general fund pursuant to RC 5705.10. The proceeds of such a levy may be used to pay salary increases for teachers and nonteaching employees.

5705.195 Calculation of millage and years levy shall run

Within five days after the resolution is certified to the county auditor as provided by section 5705.194 of the Revised Code, the auditor shall calculate and certify to the taxing authority the annual levy, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation, throughout the life of the levy which will be required to produce the annual amount set forth in the resolution assuming that the amount of the tax list of such subdivision remains throughout the life of the levy the same as the amount of the tax list for the current year, and if this is not determined, the estimated amount submitted by the auditor to the county budget commission. Thereupon, if the taxing authority desires to proceed with the submission of the question it shall, not less than seventy-five days before the day of such election, certify its resolution, together with the amount of the average tax levy, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation, estimated by the auditor, and the number of years the levy is to run to the board of elections of the county which shall prepare the ballots and make other necessary arrangements for the submission of the question to the voters of the subdivision.

5705.197 Form of ballot; reference to renewal

The form of the ballot to be used at the election provided for in section 5705.195 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall a levy be imposed by the _____(here insert name of school district) for the purpose of _____(here insert purpose of levy) in the sum of _____(here insert annual amount the levy is to produce) and a levy of taxes to be made outside of the ten-mill limitation estimated by the county auditor to average _____(here insert number of mills) mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____(here insert rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a period of _____ (here insert the number of years the millage is to be imposed) years?

	For the Tax
	Against the Tax

The purpose for which the tax is to be levied shall be printed in the space indicated, in boldface type of at least twice the size of the type immediately surrounding it.

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew all or a portion of an existing levy, the form of the ballot specified in this section may be changed by adding the following at the beginning of the form, after the words "shall a levy":

(A) "Renewing an existing levy" in the case of a proposal to renew an existing levy in the same amount;

(B) "Renewing ___dollars and providing an increase of ___dollars" in the case of an increase;

(C) "Renewing part of an existing levy, being a reduction of ___ dollars" in the case of a renewal of only part of an existing levy.

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew all or a portion of more than one existing levy, the form of the ballot may be changed in any of the manners provided in division (A), (B), or (C) of this section, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, so long as the form of the ballot reflects the number of levies to be renewed, whether the amount of any of the levies will be increased or decreased, and, for each such levy, the amount of any such increase or decrease.

5705.20 Special levies for tuberculosis hospitals and clinics

The board of county commissioners of any county, in any year, after providing the normal and customary percentage of the total general fund appropriations for the support of tuberculosis hospitals, or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis at hospitals with which the board has contracted pursuant to section 339.20 of the Revised Code, or for the support of tuberculosis clinics established pursuant to section 339.36 or section 339.39 of the Revised Code, by vote of two-thirds of all the members of said board may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the support of tuberculosis hospitals, or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis at hospitals with which the board has contracted pursuant to such section, or for the support of tuberculosis clinics established pursuant to such sections, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation to supplement such general fund appropriations for such purpose, but the total levy for this purpose shall not exceed sixty-five one hundredths of a mill.

Such resolution shall conform to section 5705.19 of the Revised Code and be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the general election and submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

If the majority of electors voting on a levy to supplement general fund appropriations for the support of tuberculosis hospitals, or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis at hospitals with which the board has contracted pursuant to section 339.20 of the Revised Code, or for the support of tuberculosis clinics established pursuant to section 339.36 or 339.39 of the Revised Code, vote in favor thereof, the board of said county may levy a tax within such county at the additional rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation during the period and for the purpose stated in the resolution or at any less rate or for any of said years.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 88-101. When a tax is levied under RC 5705.20 for "the care, treatment and maintenance of residents of the County who are suffering from tuberculosis and related diseases (current expenses)," proceeds of the levy may not be expended for purposes that are not included within the stated purpose, such as providing educational grants to professionals and students for research concerning tuberculosis and related diseases or providing information concerning tuberculosis and related diseases to schools, nursing homes, child care centers, high-risk groups, and the general public.

OAG 73-013. Where a county tax levy has been passed to provide care for tuberculosis patients either in a hospital or in a clinic, the money may be used to obtain supplies and equipment for the clinic.

OAG 69-089; overruled by OAG 91-035. A taxing subdivision, be it a municipality or township, may not pass a levy under RC 5705.191 for the support of a general hospital run by a private not-for-profit corporation.

OAG 68-051. The renewal of a tax levy authorized by RC 5705.20 for the support of tuberculosis hospitals or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis or for the support of tuberculosis clinics may only by submitted to the electorate at the November election.

1961 OAG 2312. Revenues derived from a levy for the support of a tuberculosis hospital are not prohibited from being used for the care, treatment and maintenance of patients admitted to such hospital with illnesses other than tuberculosis.

1959 OAG 899. Surplus funds arising from a tax levied in excess of the ten-mill limitation under RC 5705.20 as it existed prior to July 28, 1959, cannot be used for the support of tuberculosis clinics established pursuant to RC 339.36 or RC 339.39, as authorized by the amendment of RC 5705.20 by 1959 H 146, eff. 7-28-59.

1954 OAG 4104. A board of county commissioners may employ a physician to treat tuberculous residents, but only the general funds may be expended for such purpose. The board may supply a local board of health with funds for drugs and medicines for treatment of tuberculous patients upon the prescription of such physician.

1954 OAG 3623. The proceeds of a special tax levy under RC 5705.20 may not be expended for the care, treatment and maintenance of patients who are not hospitalized at a tuberculosis institution.

1953 OAG 2911. Funds for use in meeting a county's apportioned share of the expense of improvements, repairs and additions to a district tuberculosis hospital may be raised by a levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation.

1945 OAG 394. An additional tax may not be levied under GC 5625-15a (RC 5705.20), for the purpose of paying for the care, treatment and maintenance of tuberculosis patients at hospitals with which county commissioners have contracted. An additional tax for such purpose may be submitted to the electors under GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19), and related sections.

5705.21 School district special levy; initial issuance of anticipation notes for all levies

(A) At any time the board of education of any city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district by a vote of two-thirds of all its members may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the necessary requirements of the school district, that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for one of the purposes specified in division (A), (D), (F), (H), or (DD) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code or for the purpose of operating a cultural center, and that the question of such additional tax levy shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at a special election on a day to be specified in the resolution.

As used in this section, "cultural center" means a free-standing building, separate from a public school building, that is open to the public for educational, musical, artistic, and cultural purposes.

The submission of questions to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

(B) Such resolution shall be confined to a single purpose and shall specify the amount of the increase in rate that it is necessary to levy, the purpose thereof, and the number of years during which the increase in rate shall be in effect. The number of years may be any number not exceeding five or, if the levy is for current expenses of the district, for a continuing period of time. The resolution shall specify the date of holding such election, which shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of such resolution and which shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. A copy of such resolution shall immediately after its passing be certified to the board of elections of the proper county in the manner provided by section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, and that section shall govern the arrangements for the submission of such question and other matters concerning such election, to which that section refers, except that such election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution. Publication of notice of such election shall be made in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for four consecutive weeks. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of such levy, the board of education may forthwith make the necessary levy within such school district at the additional rate, or at any lesser rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation on the tax list, for the purpose stated in the resolution. A levy for a continuing period of time may be reduced pursuant to section 5705.261 of the Revised Code. Such tax levy shall be included in the next tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

(C) After the approval of a levy on the current tax list and duplicate for current expenses, for recreational purposes, for community centers provided for in section 755.16 of the Revised Code, or for a public library of the district and prior to the time when the first tax collection from such levy can be made, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy.

After the approval of a levy for permanent improvements, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy remaining to be collected in each year over a period of five years after the issuance of such notes.

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed five years, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1991 H 207, § 5, eff. 9-17-91, reads: The amendment by this act of section 5705.21 of the Revised Code is intended to eliminate any substantive effect that may be claimed to have resulted from the amendment of that section by Substitute House Bill 230 of the 118th General Assembly, which amendment combined the third and fourth paragraphs following division (A)(2) of that section. Insofar as possible, section 5705.21 of the Revised Code shall be construed as though no substantive effects resulted from that portion of the amendments to the section by Sub. H.B. 230.

1991 H 207, § 9, eff. 9-17-91, reads:

The amendments and enactments in Section 1 of this act apply to any proceedings commenced after their effective date, and, so far as their provisions support the actions taken, also apply to any proceedings that on their effective date are pending, in progress, or, in the case of elections or otherwise, completed, and to the securities authorized or issued pursuant to those proceedings, notwithstanding the applicable law previously in effect or any provision to the contrary in a prior resolution, ordinance, order, advertisement, notice, or other proceeding. Any proceedings pending or in progress on the effective date of those amendments and enactments, and securities sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, pursuant to those proceedings, shall be deemed to have been taken, and authorized, sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, in conformity with those amendments and enactments.

The authority provided in Section 1 of this act provides additional and supplemental provisions for the subject matter that may also be the subject of other laws, and is supplemental to and not in derogation of any similar authority provided by, derived from, or implied by, the Constitution, or any other law, including laws amended by this act, or any charter, order, resolution, or ordinance, and no inference shall be drawn to negate the authority thereunder by reason of express provisions contained in Section 1.

The provisions of the Revised Code amended or repealed by this act shall be deemed to remain applicable to securities issued pursuant to or in reliance on them prior to the effective date of those amendments or repeals.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 86-021. Where a tax levy for current operating expenses of a city school district was passed in November of 1984 pursuant to a resolution stating that the levy would be placed on the tax lists of the current tax year, the levy was properly placed on the tax lists for 1984 and reflected on the 1984 tax bills prepared in December of 1984.

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 5705.21, 5705.19(A), 5705.19(D), and 5705.19(F), the board of education of a school district may submit to the electors of the school district a tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for any one of the following purposes: (1) current expenses; (2) library purposes; or (3) permanent improvements.

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 3313.53, the board of education of a school district may expend funds derived from a tax levy for current expenses which is levied under RC 5705.21 and 5705.19(A) for the expenses "of directing, supervising, and coaching the pupil-activity programs in music, language, arts, speech, government, athletics, and any others directly related to the curriculum."

OAG 84-083. Pursuant to RC 3315.062, the board of education of a school district may expend funds derived from a tax levy for current expenses which is levied under RC 5705.21 and 5705.19(A) for the operation of such student activity programs as are approved by the state board of education and included in the program of the school district as authorized by its board of education, provided that total expenditures by the board from its general revenue fund for the operation of such student activity programs may not exceed five-tenths of one per cent of the board's annual operating budget.

OAG 68-035. A board of education of a city school district may submit a tax levy for current operating expenses under RC 5705.21 at a special election, which levy would run for a continuing period of time.

OAG 66-096. A local school district board of education may submit two separate levies in excess of the ten-mill limitation, one to renew an existing levy and the other an additional levy, for the same purpose, for the same period of time, and under the same code provision, RC 5705.21.

1964 OAG 1578. Where a taxing authority proceeds to declare that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that such tax shall be levied upon the duplicate for the current year, the tax shall, after approval by the electors, be levied on the current duplicate as directed by statute, and there is no requirement that the necessity for the additional taxation must have been included in the budget submitted to the county auditor by the taxing authority prior to the adoption of the resolution of necessity.

1964 OAG 1523. A board of education of a joint vocational school district may declare by resolution the necessity to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that there shall be a levy upon the duplicate of the current year; and the fact that such board of education did not come into legal existence until the fifteenth day of June does not prevent such levy upon the current duplicate.

1964 OAG 761. The provision in RC 133.30 limiting the maturity of notes to a period of six months does not apply to notes issued under RC 5705.21.

1964 OAG 761. Anticipatory notes issued under RC 5705.21 are to mature serially in substantially equal amounts during each year of the life of the levy, rather than at the end of the levy.

1963 OAG 718. A tax levy approved in accordance with RC 5705.21 at a special election held on December 10 or December 12, 1963, may not be extended upon the tax list and duplicate for the current year.

1962 OAG 3472. Where a tax levy is submitted to the voters pursuant to RC 5705.21 the election thereon is a special election, only one of which may be held in any one calendar year, whether it be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, or on any other date selected by the board of education.

1962 OAG 3472. A levy under RC 5705.21 passed in January 1963, may not be assessed and collected as 1962 taxes, but is included in the tax budget certified to the county budget commission in 1963 to be collected with other 1963 taxes.

1962 OAG 3472. A board of education may, in 1962, pass a resolution to submit a levy at a special election to be held in January 1963, even though such a question was unsuccessfully submitted to the voters of the school district in 1962.

1962 OAG 3333. A joint vocational school district may issue notes for one-half of the anticipated revenue of a tax levy, voted for a specified period of years not exceeding ten, for the purpose of erecting or enlarging buildings and purchasing equipment.

1961 OAG 2657. If a board of education of a school district resolves to submit the question of an additional tax levy for school district purposes to a vote of the electors and the resolution of the board specifies that such additional tax levy is to be placed upon the tax duplicate for the current year, then the levy, if it receives a favorable vote, must be extended on the current tax duplicate for collection, and after the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

1960 OAG 1536. Submission to the voters by a board of education of a proposed additional tax levy for school purposes pursuant to RC 5705.21 is a special election, only one of which may be held in any one calendar year, whether it be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, or on any other date selected by the board of education.

5705.212 Additional original and incremental school district tax levies

(A)(1) The board of education of any school district, at any time and by a vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes that may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the present and future requirements of the school district, that it is necessary to levy not more than five taxes in excess of that limitation for current expenses, and that each of the proposed taxes first will be levied in a different year, over a specified period of time. The board shall identify the taxes proposed under this section as follows: the first tax to be levied shall be called the "original tax." Each tax subsequently levied shall be called an "incremental tax." The rate of each incremental tax shall be identical, but the rates of such incremental taxes need not be the same as the rate of the original tax. The resolution also shall state that the question of these additional taxes shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at a special election. The resolution shall specify separately for each tax proposed: the amount of the increase in rate that it is necessary to levy, expressed separately for the original tax and each incremental tax; that the purpose of the levy is for current expenses; the number of years during which the original tax shall be in effect; a specification that the last year in which the original tax is in effect shall also be the last year in which each incremental tax shall be in effect; and the year in which each tax first is proposed to be levied. The original tax may be levied for any number of years not exceeding ten, or for a continuing period of time. The resolution shall specify the date of holding the special election, which shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of the resolution and shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) The board of education, by a vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may adopt a resolution proposing to renew taxes levied other than for a continuing period of time under division (A)(1) of this section. Such a resolution shall provide for levying a tax and specify all of the following:

(a) That the tax shall be called and designated on the ballot as a renewal levy;

(b) The rate of the renewal tax, which shall be a single rate that combines the rate of the original tax and each incremental tax into a single rate. The rate of the renewal tax shall not exceed the aggregate rate of the original and incremental taxes.

(c) The number of years, not to exceed ten, that the renewal tax will be levied, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time;

(d) That the purpose of the renewal levy is for current expenses;

(e) Subject to the certification and notification requirements of section 5705.251 of the Revised Code, that the question of the renewal levy shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at the general election held during the last year the original tax may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate or at a special election held during the ensuing year.

(3) A resolution adopted under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall go into immediate effect upon its adoption and no publication of the resolution is necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. Immediately after its adoption, a copy of the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections of the proper county in the manner provided by division (A) of section 5705.251 of the Revised Code, and that division shall govern the arrangements for the submission of the question and other matters concerning the election to which that section refers. The election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of the taxes or a renewal tax, the board of education, if the original or a renewal tax is authorized to be levied for the current year, immediately may make the necessary levy within the school district at the authorized rate, or at any lesser rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation, for the purpose stated in the resolution. No tax shall be imposed prior to the year specified in the resolution as the year in which it is first proposed to be levied. The rate of the original tax and the rate of each incremental tax shall be cumulative, so that the aggregate rate levied in any year is the sum of the rates of both the original tax and all incremental taxes levied in or prior to that year under the same proposal. A tax levied for a continuing period of time under this section may be reduced pursuant to section 5705.261 of the Revised Code.

(4) The submission of questions to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding sections 133.30 and 133.301 of the Revised Code, after the approval of a tax to be levied in the current or the succeeding year and prior to the time when the first tax collection from that levy can be made, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in an amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy.

The notes shall be sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. If anticipation notes are issued, they shall mature serially and in substantially equal amounts during each year over a period not to exceed five years; and the amount necessary to pay the interest and principal as the anticipation notes mature shall be deemed appropriated for those purposes from the levy, and appropriations from the levy by the board of education shall be limited each fiscal year to the balance available in excess of that amount.

If the auditor of state has certified a deficit pursuant to section 3313.483 of the Revised Code, the notes authorized under this section may be sold in accordance with Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, except that the board may sell the notes after providing a reasonable opportunity for competitive bidding.

5705.213 Single additional school district tax levy

(A)(1) The board of education of any school district, at any time and by a vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes that may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the present and future requirements of the school district and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of that limitation for current expenses. The resolution also shall state that the question of the additional tax shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at a special election. The resolution shall specify, for each year the levy is in effect, the amount of money that the levy is proposed to raise, which may, for years after the first year the levy is made, be expressed in terms of a dollar or percentage increase over the prior year's amount. The resolution also shall specify that the purpose of the levy is for current expenses, the number of years during which the tax shall be in effect which may be for any number of years not exceeding ten, and the year in which the tax first is proposed to be levied. The resolution shall specify the date of holding the special election, which shall not be earlier than eighty days after the adoption and certification of the resolution to the county auditor and not earlier than seventy-five days after certification to the board of elections. The date of the election shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) The board of education, by a vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may adopt a resolution proposing to renew a tax levied under division (A)(1) of this section. Such a resolution shall provide for levying a tax and specify all of the following:

(a) That the tax shall be called and designated on the ballot as a renewal levy;

(b) The amount of the renewal tax, which shall be no more than the amount of tax levied during the last year the tax being renewed is authorized to be in effect;

(c) The number of years, not to exceed ten, that the renewal tax will be levied, or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time;

(d) That the purpose of the renewal levy is for current expenses;

(e) Subject to the certification and notification requirements of section 5705.251 of the Revised Code, that the question of the renewal levy shall be submitted to the electors of the school district at the general election held during the last year the tax being renewed may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate or at a special election held during the ensuing year.

(3) A resolution adopted under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall go into immediate effect upon its adoption and no publication of the resolution is necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. Immediately after its adoption, a copy of the resolution shall be certified to the county auditor of the proper county, who shall, within five days, calculate and certify to the board of education the estimated levy, for the first year, and for each subsequent year for which the tax is proposed to be in effect. The estimates shall be made both in mills for each dollar of valuation, and in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation. In making the estimates, the auditor shall assume that the amount of the tax list remains throughout the life of the levy, the same as the tax list for the current year. If the tax list for the current year is not determined, the auditor shall base his estimates on the estimated amount of the tax list for the current year as submitted to the county budget commission.

If the board desires to proceed with the submission of the question, it shall certify its resolution, with the estimated tax levy expressed in mills and dollars and cents per hundred dollars of valuation for each year that the tax is proposed to be in effect, to the board of elections of the proper county in the manner provided by division (A) of section 5705.251 of the Revised Code. Section 5705.251 of the Revised Code shall govern the arrangements for the submission of the question and other matters concerning the election to which that section refers. The election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of the tax, and if the tax is authorized to be levied for the current year, the board of education immediately may make the additional levy necessary to raise the amount specified in the resolution or a lesser amount for the purpose stated in the resolution.

(4) The submission of questions to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding sections 133.30 and 133.301 of the Revised Code, after the approval of a tax to be levied in the current or the succeeding year and prior to the time when the first tax collection from that levy can be made, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in an amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy. The notes shall be sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. If anticipation notes are issued, they shall mature serially and in substantially equal amounts during each year over a period not to exceed five years; and the amount necessary to pay the interest and principal as the anticipation notes mature shall be deemed appropriated for those purposes from the levy, and appropriations from the levy by the board of education shall be limited each fiscal year to the balance available in excess of that amount.

If the auditor of state has certified a deficit pursuant to section 3313.483 of the Revised Code, the notes authorized under this section may be sold in accordance with Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, except that the board may sell the notes after providing a reasonable opportunity for competitive bidding.

5705.215 County school district levy

(A) The board of education of a county school district that is the taxing authority of a county school financing district, upon receipt of identical resolutions adopted within a sixty-day period by a majority of the members of the board of education of each school district that is within the territory of the county school financing district, may submit a tax levy to the electors of the territory in the same manner as a school board may submit a levy under division (B) of section 5705.21 of the Revised Code, except that:

(1) The levy may be for a period not to exceed ten years, or, if the levy is solely for the purpose or purposes described in division (A)(2)(a) or (c) of this section, for a continuing period of time.

(2) The purpose of the levy shall be one or more of the following:

(a) For current expenses for the provision of special education and related services within the territory of the district;

(b) For permanent improvements within the territory of the district for special education and related services;

(c) For current expenses for specified educational programs within the territory of the district;

(d) For permanent improvements within the territory of the district for specified educational programs;

(e) For permanent improvements within the territory of the district.

(B) If the levy provides for but is not limited to current expenses, the resolutions shall apportion the annual rate of the levy between current expenses and the other purposes. The apportionment need not be the same for each year of the levy, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied each year for current expenses and the other purposes shall be limited by that apportionment.

(C) Prior to the application of section 319.301 of the Revised Code, the rate of a levy that is limited to, or to the extent that it is apportioned to, purposes other than current expenses shall be reduced in the same proportion in which the district's total valuation increases during the life of the levy because of additions to such valuation that have resulted from improvements added to the tax list and duplicate.

(D) After the approval of a levy under this division, the taxing authority may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and may from time to time during the life of such levy, but in any given year prior to the time when the tax collection from such levy can be made for that year, issue anticipation notes in an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected in each year up to a period of five years after the date of the issuance of such notes, less an amount equal to the proceeds of such levy obligated for each year by the issuance of anticipation notes, provided that the total amount maturing in any one year shall not exceed fifty per cent of the anticipated proceeds of the levy for that year. Each issue of notes shall be sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, and shall, except for such limitation that the total amount of such notes maturing in any one year shall not exceed fifty per cent of the anticipated proceeds of such levy for that year, mature serially in substantially equal installments during each year over a period not to exceed five years after their issuance.

5705.22 Additional levy for county hospitals

The board of county commissioners of any county, at any time and in any year, after providing the normal and customary percentages of the total general fund appropriations for the support of county hospitals, by vote of two-thirds of all members of said board, may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the support of county hospitals, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation to supplement such general fund appropriations for such purpose, but the total levy for this purpose shall not exceed sixty-five one hundredths of a mill.

Such resolution shall conform to the requirements of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, and shall be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the general election and submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

If the majority of electors voting on a levy to supplement the general fund appropriations for the support of county hospitals vote in favor of the levy, the board of said county may levy a tax within such county at the additional rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation during the period for the purpose stated in the resolution or at any less rate or for any of the said years.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 78-003. A county may budget funds for its community mental health and retardation board, which are raised pursuant to an approved levy under RC 5705.22, in the ensuing fiscal year even though a portion of those funds will be accumulated in the ensuing fiscal year and spent subsequently, provided that such funds are accumulated for specific programs involving matching funds for that board.

1958 OAG 1504. Funds derived from a tax levied pursuant to RC 5705.22 for the support of county hospitals, may not, by reason of O Const Art XII §5, be used for any purpose other than the support of such county hospitals, and any accumulated surplus of such tax revenue may not be transferred by a board of county hospital trustees to a board of county commissioners to be placed in the general fund of the county and used for current expenses of the county.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.22 a levy of not more than 65/100 of a mill for support of a county general hospital may be levied outside the ten-mill limitation if approved by a majority of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to a special fund.

1955 OAG 5585. A county may include current expenses of a county general hospital in a general levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation, which must be approved by sixty per cent of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to the general fund.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.191 a two-year levy for supplementing the general fund for various purposes including the support of general hospitals may be authorized by fifty-five per cent of the voters.

1953 OAG 3216. The county commissioners have no duty as to appropriation of funds to the support of a county hospital, except to appropriate from the general fund a sufficient amount to supplement the other income of the hospital, so as to provide for its proper maintenance and operation.

5705.221 Additional levy for alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services

(A) At any time, the board of county commissioners of any county by a majority vote of the full membership may declare by resolution and certify to the board of elections of the county that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide the necessary requirements of the county's alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district established pursuant to Chapter 340. of the Revised Code, or the county's contribution to a joint-county district of which the county is a part, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for the operation of alcohol and drug addiction programs and mental health programs and the acquisition, construction, renovation, financing, maintenance, and operation of alcohol and drug addiction facilities and mental health facilities.

Such resolution shall conform to section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, except that the increased rate may be in effect for any number of years not exceeding ten.

The resolution shall be certified and submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that it may be placed on the ballot in any election, and shall be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the election at which it will be voted upon.

If the majority of the electors voting on a levy to supplement general fund appropriations for the support of the comprehensive alcohol and drug addiction and mental health program vote in favor of the levy, the board may levy a tax within the county at the additional rate outside the ten-mill limitation during the specified or continuing period, for the purpose stated in the resolution.

(B) When electors have approved a tax levy under this section, the board of county commissioners may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and, from time to time, issue anticipation notes in accordance with section 5705.191 or 5705.193 of the Revised Code.

(C) The county auditor who is the fiscal officer of the alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district, upon receipt of a resolution from the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, shall establish for the district a capital improvements account or a reserve balance account, or both, as specified in the resolution. The capital improvements account shall be a contingency fund for the necessary acquisition, replacement, renovation, or construction of facilities and movable and fixed equipment. Upon the request of the board, funds not needed to pay for current expenses may be appropriated to the capital improvements account, in amounts such that the account does not exceed twenty-five per cent of the replacement value of all capital facilities and equipment currently used by the board for programs and services. Other funds which are available for current capital expenses from federal, state, or local sources may also be appropriated to this account.

The reserve balance account shall contain those funds that are not needed to pay for current operating expenses and not deposited in the capital improvements account but that will be needed to pay for operating expenses in the future. Upon the request of a board, such funds shall be appropriated to the reserve balance account. Payments from the capital improvements account and the reserve balance account shall be made by the county treasurer who is the custodian of funds for the district upon warrants issued by the county auditor who is the fiscal officer of the district pursuant to orders of the board.

The repeal of 'existing sections' is intended only to be stated when conditional to their amendment and is a long-recognized means of complying with § 15(D) of Art. NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 81-044. The constitution of Ohio does not prohibit one county of a joint-county mental health district from levying a tax pursuant to RC 5705.221 at a rate which is different from that imposed by the other counties of the same district.

OAG 77-057. Community boards of mental health and retardation established in RC Ch 340 do not have authority to purchase real property for a mental health or retardation facility; such power and authority lie with the board of county commissioners, who may appropriate private property for a mental health or retardation facility under RC 307.02.

OAG 75-089. A joint county mental health and retardation service district is a subdivision within RC 5705.01(A), and the district's mental health and retardation board is a taxing authority within RC 5705.01(C); therefore, pursuant to RC 5705.19 a joint county community mental health and retardation board is capable of placing a tax levy before the public without the approval of the county commissioners.

OAG 75-034. A community board of mental health and mental retardation or a joint county board of mental health and mental retardation may pay for membership in the Ohio community mental health and mental retardation association from funds made available to them from appropriations by the county commissioners, or from a voted levy pursuant to RC 5705.221.

OAG 75-016. Where it is desired to renew a .03 mill levy for mental health and retardation purposes, which has been reduced by the county budget commission to .01 mill under RC 5705.32, the form of the ballot under RC 5705.25 should show that the levy will consist of a renewal of the .03 mill levy rather than an increase of the .01 mill levy.

OAG 74-061. A board of county commissioners may certify to the board of elections a ten-year levy for a community mental health and retardation program, even though the amendment to RC 5705.221, permitting such ten-year levy, becomes effective after the date of certification but before the November election.

OAG 69-015. The monies received for the support of community mental health and retardation programs as authorized by RC Ch 340 would be paid into the designated county treasury to the credit of the community mental health and retardation fund pursuant to vouchers approved by the community board of mental health and retardation.

5705.222 Additional levy for mental retardation and developmental disabilities services

(A) At any time the board of county commissioners of any county by a majority vote of the full membership may declare by resolution and certify to the board of elections of the county that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide the necessary requirements of the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities established pursuant to Chapter 5126. of the Revised Code, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for the operation of programs and services by county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and for the acquisition, construction, renovation, financing, maintenance, and operation of mental retardation and developmental disabilities facilities.

Such resolution shall conform to section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, except that the increased rate may be in effect for any number of years not exceeding ten or for a continuing period of time.

The resolution shall be certified and submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that it may be placed on the ballot in any election, and shall be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the election at which it will be voted upon.

If the majority of the electors voting on a levy for the support of the programs and services of the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities vote in favor of the levy, the board of county commissioners may levy a tax within the county at the additional rate outside the ten-mill limitation during the specified or continuing period, for the purpose stated in the resolution. The county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, within its budget and with the approval of the board of county commissioners through annual appropriations, shall use the proceeds of a levy approved under this section solely for the purposes authorized by this section.

(B) When electors have approved a tax levy under this section, the county commissioners may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in accordance with section 5705.191 or 5705.193 of the Revised Code.

(C) The county auditor, upon receipt of a resolution from the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, shall establish a capital improvements account or a reserve balance account, or both, as specified in the resolution. The capital improvements account shall be a contingency account for the necessary acquisition, replacement, renovation, or construction of facilities and movable and fixed equipment. Upon the request of the board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, moneys not needed to pay for current expenses may be appropriated to this account, in amounts such that this account does not exceed twenty-five per cent of the replacement value of all capital facilities and equipment currently used by the board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for mental retardation and developmental disabilities programs and services. Other moneys available for current capital expenses from federal, state, or local sources may also be appropriated to this account.

The reserve balance account shall contain those moneys that are not needed to pay for current operating expenses and not deposited in the capital improvements account but that will be needed to pay for operating expenses in the future. Upon the request of a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, the board of county commissioners may appropriate moneys to the reserve balance account.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

1991 SERB 4-19 (CP, Stark, 4-1-91), Stark County Educator's Assn for the Training of Retarded Persons v SERB. The board of county commissioners is the "legislative body" responsible for reviewing and deciding whether to approve a union contract with a county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, since the budget of the retardation board is subject to the commissioners' approval pursuant to RC 5705.222; consequently, the retardation board does not commit an unfair labor practice by putting a signature line for the commissioners on the contract even if the commissioners were not the pertinent "legislative body," since nothing in the law prevents allowing outsiders to sign a collective bargaining agreement or construes a provision for such a signature as a failure to bargain.

5705.23 Special levy for library purposes; submission to electors

The board of library trustees of any county, municipal corporation, school district, or township public library by a vote of two-thirds of all its members may at any time declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the necessary requirements of the public library, that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for current expenses of the public library or for the construction of any specific permanent improvement or class of improvements which the board of library trustees is authorized to make or acquire and which could be included in a single issue of bonds, and that the question of such additional tax levy shall be submitted by the taxing authority of the political subdivision to whose jurisdiction the board is subject, to the electors of the subdivision or, if the resolution so states, to the electors residing within the boundaries of the library district as defined by the state library board pursuant to section 3375.01 of the Revised Code, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May or at an election on another day to be specified in the resolution. No more than two elections shall be held under authority of this section in any one calendar year. Such resolution shall conform to section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, except that the tax levy may be in effect for any specified number of years or for a continuing period of time, as set forth in the resolution, and the resolution shall specify the date of holding the election, which shall not be earlier than seventy-five days after the adoption and certification of the resolution to the taxing authority of the political subdivision to whose jurisdiction the board is subject, and which shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall not include a levy on the current tax list and duplicate unless the election is to be held at or prior to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the current tax year. Upon receipt of the resolution, the taxing authority of the political subdivision to whose jurisdiction the board is subject shall adopt a resolution providing for the submission of such additional tax levy to the electors of the subdivision or, if the resolution so states, to the electors residing within the boundaries of the library district as defined by the state library board pursuant to section 3375.01 of the Revised Code, on the date specified in the resolution of the board of library trustees. The resolution adopted by the taxing authority shall otherwise conform to the resolution certified to it by the board. The resolution of the taxing authority shall be certified to the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days before the date of such election. Such resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided in the notice of election. Section 5705.25 of the Revised Code shall govern the arrangements for the submission of such question and other matters concerning the election, to which that section refers, except that if the resolution so states, the question shall be submitted to the electors residing within the boundaries of the library district as defined by the state library board pursuant to section 3375.01 of the Revised Code and except that such election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of such levy, the taxing authority may forthwith make the necessary levy within the subdivision or within the boundaries of the library district as defined by the state library board pursuant to section 3375.01 of the Revised Code at the additional rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation on the tax list, for the purpose stated in such resolutions. Such tax levy shall be included in the next annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission. The proceeds of any library levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation shall be used for purposes of the board in accordance with the law applicable to the board.

After the approval of a levy on the current tax list and duplicate to provide an increase in current expenses, and prior to the time when the first tax collection from such levy can be made, the taxing authority at the request of the board of library trustees may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy.

After the approval of a levy to provide revenues for the construction or acquisition of any specific permanent improvement or class of improvements, the taxing authority at the request of the board of library trustees may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected in each year over a period of five years after the issuance of such notes.

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed five years, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

When a board of public library trustees of a county library district, appointed under section 3375.22 of the Revised Code, requests the submission of such special levy, the taxing authority shall submit the levy to the voters of the county library district only. For the purposes of this section, and of such board of library trustees only, the words "electors of the subdivision," as used in this section and in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, mean "electors of the county library district." Any levy approved by the electors of the county library district shall be made within the county library district only.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1991 H 207, § 9, eff. 9-17-91, reads:

The amendments and enactments in Section 1 of this act apply to any proceedings commenced after their effective date, and, so far as their provisions support the actions taken, also apply to any proceedings that on their effective date are pending, in progress, or, in the case of elections or otherwise, completed, and to the securities authorized or issued pursuant to those proceedings, notwithstanding the applicable law previously in effect or any provision to the contrary in a prior resolution, ordinance, order, advertisement, notice, or other proceeding. Any proceedings pending or in progress on the effective date of those amendments and enactments, and securities sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, pursuant to those proceedings, shall be deemed to have been taken, and authorized, sold, issued, and delivered, and validated, in conformity with those amendments and enactments.

The authority provided in Section 1 of this act provides additional and supplemental provisions for the subject matter that may also be the subject of other laws, and is supplemental to and not in derogation of any similar authority provided by, derived from, or implied by, the Constitution, or any other law, including laws amended by this act, or any charter, order, resolution, or ordinance, and no inference shall be drawn to negate the authority thereunder by reason of express provisions contained in Section 1.

The provisions of the Revised Code amended or repealed by this act shall be deemed to remain applicable to securities issued pursuant to or in reliance on them prior to the effective date of those amendments or repeals.

1990 S 257, § 8 to 10, eff. 9-26-90, read, in part:

Section 8. In any school library district in which the board of library trustees has submitted a resolution under section 3375.43 or 5705.23 of the Revised Code not later than sixty days prior to the last day by which the board of education is required to certify its resolution to the board of elections under section 3375.43 or 5705.23 of the Revised Code, and the board of education has not responded favorably to the board of library trustees' request within thirty days after submission of the board of library trustees' resolution, the electors of the library district may proceed under division (A) or (B) of this section, as applicable.

Electors residing within the boundaries of the school library district, as those boundaries are defined by the state library board pursuant to section 3375.01 of the Revised Code, may initiate the placement on the ballot of the question of a tax levy, as proposed in the resolution adopted by the board of library trustees of the library district under section 5705.23 of the Revised Code, by a petition signed by qualified electors of the library district equal in number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election held in the library district. An initiative petition under this section is in lieu of the submission of the question of such a tax levy by the board of education to whose jurisdiction the board of library trustees is subject.

The petition shall be filed with the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days prior to the date of the election at which the petition requests that the question be submitted. After determination by it that the petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the library district on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May or at an election on another day as specified in the resolution. The resolution of the board of library trustees shall conform in all respects to the requirements for resolutions specified in section 5705.23 of the Revised Code, except that it need not be certified to and adopted by the board of education to whose jurisdiction the board of library trustees is subject. Section 5705.25 of the Revised Code governs the arrangements for submission of the question and other matters concerning the election to which this section and section 5705.23 of the Revised Code refer, except that the question shall be submitted to the electors residing within the boundaries of the school library district as defined by the state library board and that the election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution.

If a majority of electors voting on the question vote in favor of the tax levy, the board of education to whose jurisdiction the board of library trustees is subject shall make the necessary levy within the boundaries of the school library district pursuant to section 5705.23 of the Revised Code, and shall issue anticipation notes in accordance with that section at the request of the board of library trustees, whether the levy is for current expenses or providing revenues for construction or acquisition of permanent improvements, subject to the limitations expressed in that section.

The levy shall be included in the next annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission. The proceeds of any levy approved under this section in excess of the ten-mill limitation shall be used for the purposes of the board of library trustees in accordance with the law applicable to the board.

Section 9. Notwithstanding Section 8 of this act, a petition to place the question of a tax levy or bond issue on the ballot at the November 6, 1990, general election under that section shall be filed with the board of elections not later than September 28, 1990.

Section 10. Section 8 and 9 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1992.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 88-013. When a library board of trustees complies with RC 3375.43 and 5705.23 and submits a resolution requesting the submission of the question of issuing bonds to the taxing authority of the political subdivision to whose jurisdiction the library board is subject, the taxing authority has a duty to submit the question to the electorate.

OAG 85-017. Pursuant to RC 5705.23, the board of library trustees of a city school district library whose boundaries have been defined by the state library board in accordance with RC 3375.01 to include territory lying in more than one school district may by resolution provide for its taxing authority to submit the question of an additional tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation to all electors residing within the boundaries of the library district; the board of library trustees has no authority to cause its taxing authority to submit such question only to the electors residing within the boundaries of the city school district.

OAG 85-017. For purposes of RC 5705.23, the taxing authority of a city school district library is the board of education of the school district by which the library has been established and is controlled.

OAG 85-017. RC 5705.23 requires the board of library trustees of a city school district to certify its resolution providing for the submission of the question of an additional tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation to the board of education of the school district by which the library has been established and is controlled. The board of library trustees is not required to certify such resolution to the board of education of every school district which has territory lying within the library district.

OAG 82-056. Funds received by a board of public library trustees as a result of taxes levied pursuant to RC 5705.23 or 5707.04 are not funds derived from a subdivision within the meaning of RC 5705.01(I).

5705.24 Tax levy for children services; anticipation notes

The board of county commissioners of any county, at any time and in any year, after providing the normal and customary percentage of the total general fund appropriations for the support of children services and the care and placement of children, by vote of two-thirds of all the members of said board may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which may be raised within the ten-mill limitation will be insufficient to provide an adequate amount for the support of such children services, and that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation to supplement such general fund appropriations for such purpose. Taxes collected from a levy imposed under this section may be expended for any operating or capital improvement expenditure necessary for the support of children services and the care and placement of children.

Such resolution shall conform to the requirements of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, except that the levy may be for any number of years not exceeding ten. The resolution shall be certified to the board of elections not less than seventy-five days before the general, primary, or special election upon which it will be voted, and be submitted in the manner provided in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that it may be placed on the ballot in any such election.

If the majority of the electors voting on a levy to supplement general fund appropriations for the support of children services and the care and placement of children vote in favor thereof, the board may levy a tax within such county at the additional rate outside the ten-mill limitation during the period and for the purpose stated in the resolution or at any less rate or for any of the said years.

After the approval of such levy and prior to the time when the first tax collection from such levy can be made, the board of county commissioners may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of such levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy throughout its life.

Such notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not exceeding the life of the levy, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

42 App 345, 182 NE 134 (1932), State ex rel Harshman v Lutz. Additional levy for poor relief held properly submitted to electors with proposal for additional levy for current expenses.

OAG 90-069. A county children services board may use moneys derived from a levy under RC 5705.24 to support a child assault prosecution unit within the county prosecutor's office if the board determines that such support is necessary for the support of children services and the care and placement of children and comes within the purposes set forth in the resolution and ballot language. It is not necessary for such particular use to appear on the ballot, although the presence of such language does not appear to be prohibited.

OAG 87-096. The funds generated by a children services levy, the purpose of which was to provide sufficient funds for the support of children and the care and placement of abused and neglected children may, pursuant to RC 5705.24 and 5153.35, be used by a subsequently established county children services board even though children services had been provided by the county human services department at the time the levy was passed.

OAG 69-113. A special tax levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation for a county board of mental retardation should be submitted under RC 5705.19(L), rather than RC 5705.24; although funds from the levy proposed under RC 5705.19(L) may be used for substantially the same purposes as the current levy passed under RC 5705.24, the proposed levy will not be a "renewal" of the current levy.

OAG 67-088. The proceeds of a tax levied pursuant to the authorization contained in RC 5705.24 cannot legally be appropriated to or expended by a county board of mental retardation created under RC 5126.01.

1962 OAG 2780. The board of county commissioners may not place a tax levy upon the ballot in excess of sixty-five one hundredths of a mill for child welfare services.

1961 OAG 2511. A levy for the maintenance and operation of schools, training centers, or workshops for mentally retarded persons provided for in RC 5705.19(L) does not come within the limitation of sixty-five one hundredths of a mill for the support of child welfare services provided for in RC 5705.24.

TAX LEVY ELECTIONS

5705.25 Submission of proposed levy; notice of election; form of ballot; certification

(A) A copy of any resolution adopted as provided in section 5705.19 of the Revised Code shall be certified by the taxing authority to the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year, and the board shall submit the proposal to the electors of the subdivision at the succeeding November election. Except as otherwise provided in this division, a resolution to renew or replace an existing levy, regardless of the section of the Revised Code under which the tax was imposed, shall not be placed on the ballot unless the question is submitted at the general election held during the last year the tax to be renewed or replaced may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held in the ensuing year. The limitation of the foregoing sentence does not apply to a resolution to renew and increase or to renew part of an existing levy that was imposed under section 5705.191 of the Revised Code to supplement the general fund for the purpose of making appropriations for one or more of the following purposes: for public assistance, human or social services, relief, welfare, hospitalization, health, and support of general or tuberculosis hospitals. The board shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such questions to the electors of such subdivision, and the election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in such subdivision for the election of county officers. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the subdivision once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the proposed increase in rate, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation, the number of years during which such increase will be in effect, and the time and place of the election.

(B) The form of the ballots cast at an election held pursuant to division (A) of this section shall be as follows:

"An additional tax for the benefit of (name of subdivision or public library) _____ for the purpose of (purpose stated in the resolution) _____ at a rate not exceeding ___ mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in dollars and cents) _____ for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for ___ (life of indebtedness or number of years the levy is to run)

	For the tax levy

(C) If the levy is to be in effect for a continuing period of time, the notice of election and the form of ballot shall so state instead of setting forth a specified number of years for the levy.

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew, replace, increase, or decrease an existing levy, the form of the ballot specified in division (B) of this section may be changed by substituting for the words "An additional" at the beginning of the form; the words "A renewal of a" in case of a proposal to renew an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A replacement of a" in the case of a proposal to replace an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A renewal of _____ mills and an increase of _____ mills to constitute a" or "A replacement of _____ mills and an increase of _____ mills to constitute a" in the case of an increase; the words "A renewal of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of _____ mills, to constitute a" in the case of a decrease in the proposed levy; or the words "A replacement of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of _____ mills, to constitute a" in the case of a replacement of only a part of an existing levy.

The question covered by such resolution shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers. More than one such question may be submitted at the same election.

(D) A levy voted in excess of the ten-mill limitation under this section shall be certified to the tax commissioner. In the first year of such levy, it shall be extended on the tax lists after the February settlement next succeeding such election. If such additional tax is to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, as specified in the resolution providing for its submission, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the taxing authority, who shall forthwith make the necessary levy and certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the tax list for collection. After the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1991 H 431, § 4, eff. 10-11-91, reads:

(A) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code to the contrary, the legislative authority of a municipal corporation, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all of its members, may adopt a resolution proposing to submit to the electors, at a special election held on November 5, 1991, the question of the renewal of an existing tax levy, in excess of the ten-mill limitation, for the current expenses of the municipal corporation, if both of the following apply:

(1) A current expenses levy previously was approved by the voters at the November 1986, general election, was extended on the 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, and 1991 tax lists, and, as a result of its expiration, cannot be extended on the 1992 tax lists.

(2) The municipal corporation failed to timely certify to the board of elections a resolution proposing to submit the question of renewing the current expenses levy to the electors at the November 1991, general election as required by division (A) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

(B) A resolution adopted pursuant to division (A) of this section shall state the rate at which the levy is proposed to be levied, which shall not exceed three mills; state the date on which the election on the question of the levy will be held, which shall be November 5, 1991; state the number of years for which the levy will be in effect; and shall otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of Chapter 5705. of the Revised Code. The resolution also shall specify that, if approved, the levy will first be extended for collection on the 1992 tax list and duplicate and will be treated like any other additional tax levy for purposes of collection. Upon its adoption, the resolution shall be certified immediately to the board of elections.

(C) Upon receipt of a resolution that has been adopted and certified pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall take all actions necessary to submit the question of the levy to the electors of the municipal corporation at a special election to be held on November 5, 1991. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation once a week for each week prior to the election, not to exceed four weeks, notwithstanding division (A) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, but only if the resolution has been certified prior to one week before the date on which the election will be held. The form of the ballot to be used at the special election shall be that set forth in section 5705.25 of the Revised Code for the renewal of an existing levy. If a majority of the electors voting on the question of the proposed levy votes in favor of the levy, the county auditor shall first extend the levy for collection on the 1992 tax list.

(D) A levy approved under this section shall be certified to the Tax Commissioner and extended on the tax lists, as required under division (D) of section 5705.25 of the Revised Code.

70 OS(2d) 63, 434 NE(2d) 1098 (BTA 1982), McNamara v Kinney. When applying RC 319.301 for tax reduction factor purposes, the intent of the electorate in approving a tax levy should be effectuated upon determining whether the levy consists entirely of millage levied for the first time or consists of a renewal of a levy in combination with an additional levy.

41 OS(2d) 103, 322 NE(2d) 885 (1975), Cuyahoga County Bd of Mental Retardation v Cuyahoga County Bd of Commrs. Where the electors of a county have approved a levy increase in excess of the ten-mill limitation, to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, the procedure called for in RC 5705.01 to 5705.47 for placing an additional tax upon the tax list of the current year is sufficient to satisfy the mandate of RC 5705.341 that no tax may be levied "unless such rate of taxation for the ensuing fiscal year is clearly required by a budget of the taxing district or political subdivision properly and lawfully advertised, adopted, and filed . . .."

36 OS(2d) 114, 304 NE(2d) 390 (BTA 1973), Wise v Summit County Budget Comm. The provision of RC 5705.341 that "nothing in this section or any section of the Revised Code shall permit or require the levying of any rate of taxation . . . unless such rate of taxation for the ensuing fiscal year is clearly required by a budget of the taxing district or political subdivision . . .," prohibits a county budget commission from certifying a tax levy which would produce revenue in excess of the revenue set out in the budget submitted by the municipality pursuant to RC 5705.30.

OAG 88-068. A replacement levy proposed pursuant to RC 5705.191 that does not win voter approval has no effect upon the levy that it seeks to replace; a resolution to renew the existing levy may be placed on the ballot pursuant to RC 5705.25 following the failure of a replacement levy to win voter approval.

OAG 82-013. A tax levy submitted for voter approval by a joint county mental health district pursuant to RC 5705.19(A) and 5705.25 may not be designated as a replacement levy.

OAG 80-011. RC 5705.19, 5705.191 and 5705.25 do not allow for variable rate tax levies, and levies proposed by counties pursuant to these sections must be fixed rate levies. The only sections in RC Ch 5705 allowing for variable rate levies are RC 5705.194 et seq. which apply only to school districts meeting emergency requirements.

OAG 76-027. RC 505.441 authorizes a township, where a police district has not been formed or has been dissolved, to enter into contracts for police protection; the expenses of such protection are properly met from township funds; RC 5705.19(J) does not authorize submission of a proposed tax levy where a police department is not in operation or in existence, and a township—where a police district is not in existence and operation—may not properly submit a levy under RC 5705.19(J) to meet the permanent expenses of providing police protection.

OAG 74-061. A board of county commissioners may certify to the board of elections a ten-year levy for a community mental health and retardation program, even though the amendment to RC 5705.221, permitting such ten-year levy, becomes effective after the date of certification but before the November election.

OAG 68-051. The renewal of a tax levy authorized by RC 5705.20 for the support of tuberculosis hospitals or for the care, treatment, and maintenance of residents of the county who are suffering from tuberculosis or for the support of tuberculosis clinics may only be submitted to the electorate at the November election.

OAG 67-020. Since New Boston city school district has a current tax levy for school operation for the year 1966 of at least ten mills, such district qualifies for foundation program payments as of July 1, 1966.

OAG 66-173. Until the juvenile judge or juvenile judges advise and recommend the establishment of a county or a district detention home pursuant to RC 2151.34, there is no legal authority to levy a tax for that purpose nor for a tax levy in the alternative.

OAG 66-096. A local school district board of education may submit two separate levies in excess of the ten-mill limitation, one to renew an existing levy and the other an additional levy, for the same purpose, for the same period of time, and under the same code provision, RC 5705.21.

1963 OAG 718. A tax levy approved in accordance with RC 5705.21 at a special election held on December 10 or December 12, 1963, may not be extended upon the tax list and duplicate for the current year.

1962 OAG 3472. A levy under RC 5705.21 passed in January 1963, may not be assessed and collected as 1962 taxes, but is included in the tax budget certified to the county budget commission in 1963 to be collected with other 1963 taxes.

1958 OAG 2332. In the absence of an authorizing provision in a charter duly adopted by a municipality, the council of such municipality is without authority to present to the board of elections for submission to the electors a proposed ordinance which is to become effective only upon their approval; and the board of elections is without authority to receive or submit such proposal to the electors of the municipality.

1939 OAG 862. Board of elections of a county is without authority to change percentages of number of electors necessary to carry a special tax levy as fixed by legislature and determine that a levy, to supplement general fund appropriation for support of a county hospital, may be approved by a mere majority vote in municipalities of a county.

1939 OAG 862. To carry a levy to supplement general fund appropriation for the support of a county tuberculosis hospital, not to exceed aggregate of one mill, fifty-five per centum of electors voting on question so submitted, that is, electors of the county, must vote in favor thereof.

2. Contents of ballot

OAG 75-016. Where it is desired to renew a .03 mill levy for mental health and retardation purposes, which has been reduced by the county budget commission to .01 mill under RC 5705.32, the form of the ballot under RC 5705.25 should show that the levy will consist of a renewal of the .03 mill levy rather than an increase of the .01 mill levy.

OAG 70-020. Each proposal printed upon the ballot, as prescribed by RC 5705.25, must conform to and be expressed in the wording specifically prescribed by said section.

OAG 70-020. If levy submitted is proposal to renew an existing levy either at same or with increase or decrease in rate thereof, RC 5705.25 permits certain changes in phraseology in form of proposal printed upon ballot.

OAG 70-020. RC 5705.25 does not authorize combining of two or more levies as a single proposal to be submitted as a separate proposition upon ballot.

OAG 65-176. When a one-mill levy has been reduced by the county auditor to .9 mill by reason of RC 5713.11 and it is proposed to "renew" the levy for another term at the original rate, the form of the ballot should show that the levy will consist of a renewal of .9 mill and an increase of .1 mill, to constitute a tax not exceeding one mill.

1960 OAG 1664. When the county auditor has reduced the rate of an additional levy pursuant to RC 5713.11, he has in effect reduced the "levy" as that term is used in RC 5705.25, and where the rate of such a levy has been reduced from 3 mills to 2.6 mills and it is proposed to "renew" the levy for another term at the original rate, the form of the ballots should show that the levy will consist of a renewal of 2.6 mills and an increase of .4 mills, to constitute a tax not exceeding 3 mills.

1953 OAG 3061. There is no statutory requirement that a resolution proposing a vote on the issue of an additional levy for specific purposes should contain a statement of the total dollar amount proposed to be raised by such levy, or that the ballot to be used at the election at which such issue is submitted should contain such statement of the total dollar amount proposed to be raised by the levy.

3. Persons entitled to vote

1959 OAG 888. A proposed township levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation must be submitted to the electors of the township residing both within and outside of a village located wholly within the boundaries of said township.

1958 OAG 2294. If the estimated expenses of a general health district are in excess of revenue available within the ten-mill limitation, a special levy may be made pursuant to the provisions of RC 3709.29, but such special levy would have no application to taxable real property situated in a city receiving public health service from the general health district by contract, and such special levy should be submitted to the electors of the general health district only, which district would not include cities furnished public health service on such contract basis.

4. Procedure after levy is passed

11 Misc 36, 225 NE(2d) 795 (CP, Jefferson 1967), State ex rel Steubenville City School Dist Bd of Ed v Hamrock. Where the board of education of a city school district adopted a tax budget for the following fiscal year, and thereafter adopted a resolution to levy a tax of eleven mills in excess of the ten-mill limitation for current expenses, to be levied during the current year if approved by the electorate, and the budget commission allowed only a ten-mill levy subject to the election, and the voters approved the eleven-mill levy, and the school board delivered a revised budget including the eleven-mill levy, but the budget commission refused to reconsider, mandamus will lie to compel the tax budget commission to revise such school board budget and the auditor to extend such levy.

1964 OAG 1578. Where a taxing authority proceeds to declare that it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation and that such tax shall be levied upon the duplicate for the current year, the tax shall, after approval by the electors, be levied on the current duplicate as directed by statute, and there is no requirement that the necessity for the additional taxation must have been included in the budget submitted to the county auditor by the taxing authority prior to the adoption of the resolution of necessity.

1961 OAG 2657. If a board of education of a school district resolves to submit the question of an additional tax levy for school district purposes to a vote of the electors and the resolution of the board specifies that such additional tax levy is to be placed upon the tax duplicate for the current year, then the levy, if it receives a favorable vote, must be extended on the current tax duplicate for collection, and after the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

1961 OAG 2145. Where a tax levy is approved by the voters at the November general election pursuant to RC 5705.25 and the taxing authority resolves to place the additional tax on the tax list for the current year pursuant to that section, the county auditor is required to extend such tax on the tax list and duplicate for the current year, provided, however, that in such case the board of county commissioners and the department of taxation may extend the time of payment beyond the December collection date.

1949 OAG 1009. If a school district votes an additional tax levy in the November 1949 election, pursuant to GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19), and the board of education resolves to place the tax on the books for the current year, pursuant to this section, the county auditor is required to certify and the county treasurer to collect said tax in December, 1949, despite GC 2584 (RC 319.29).

5705.251 Additional school district levies

(A) A copy of a resolution adopted under section 5705.212 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code shall be certified by the board of education to the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days before the date of the election specified in the resolution, and the board of elections shall submit the proposal to the electors of the school district at a special election to be held on that date. The board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question or questions to the electors of the school district, and the election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in the school district for the election of county officers. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the subdivision once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election.

(1) In the case of a resolution adopted under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code, the notice shall state separately, for each tax being proposed, the purpose; the proposed increase in rate, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation; the number of years during which the increase will be in effect; and the year in which the tax is first authorized to be levied. For an election on the question of a renewal levy, the notice shall state the purpose; the proposed rate, expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of valuation; and the number of years the tax will be in effect.

(2) In the case of a resolution adopted under section 5705.213 of the Revised Code, the notice shall state the purpose; the amount proposed to be raised by the tax in the first year it is levied; the estimated average additional tax rate for the first year it is proposed to be levied, expressed in mills for each one dollar of valuation and in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation; the number of years during which the increase will be in effect; and the year in which the tax is first authorized to be levied. The notice also shall state the amount by which the amount to be raised by the tax may be increased in each year after the first year. The amount of the allowable increase may be expressed in terms of a dollar increase over, or a percentage of, the amount raised by the tax in the immediately preceding year. For an election on the question of a renewal levy, the notice shall state the purpose; the amount proposed to be raised by the tax; the estimated tax rate, expressed in mills for each one dollar of valuation and in dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation; and the number of years the tax will be in effect.

In any case, the notice also shall state the time and place of the election.

(B) The form of the ballot in an election on taxes proposed under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall the _____ school district be authorized to levy taxes for current expenses, the aggregate rate of which may increase in _____ (number) increment(s) of not more than _____ mill(s) for each dollar of valuation, from an original rate of _____ mill(s) for each dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, to a maximum rate of _____ mill(s) for each dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation? The original tax is first proposed to be levied in _____ (the first year of the tax), and the incremental tax in _____ (the first year of the increment) (if more than one incremental tax is proposed in the resolution, the first year that each incremental tax is proposed to be levied shall be stated in the preceding format, and the increments shall be referred to as the first, second, third, or fourth increment, depending on their number). The aggregate rate of tax so authorized will _____ (insert either, "expire with the original rate of tax which shall be in effect for _____ years" or "be in effect for a continuing period of time").

		FOR THE TAX LEVIES
		AGAINST THE TAX LEVIES

The form of the ballot in an election on the question of a renewal levy under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall the _____ school district be authorized to renew a tax for current expenses at a rate not exceeding _____ mills for each dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for _____ (number of years the levy shall be in effect, or a continuing period of time)?

		FOR THE TAX LEVY

(C) The form of the ballot in an election on a tax proposed under section 5705.213 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall the _____ school district be authorized to levy the following tax for current expenses? The tax will first be levied in _____ (year) to raise _____ (dollars). In the _____ (number of years) following years, the tax will increase by not more than _____ (per cent or dollar amount of increase) each year, so that, during _____ (last year of the tax), the tax will raise approximately _____ (dollars). The county auditor estimates that the rate of the tax per dollar of valuation will be _____ mill(s), which amounts to $ _____ per $100 of valuation, both during _____ (first year of the tax) and _____ mill(s), which amounts to $ _____ per $100 of valuation, during _____ (last year of the tax). The tax will not be levied after _____ (year).

		FOR THE TAX LEVY

The form of the ballot in an election on the question of a renewal levy under section 5705.213 of the Revised Code shall be as follows:

"Shall the _____ school district be authorized to renew a tax for current expenses which will raise _____ (dollars), estimated by the county auditor to be _____ mills for each dollar of valuation, which amounts to _____ (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation? The tax shall be in effect for _____ (the number of years the levy shall be in effect, or a continuing period of time).

		FOR THE TAX LEVY

(D) The question covered by a resolution adopted under section 5705.212 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code shall be submitted as a separate question, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other question submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers. More than one question may be submitted at the same election.

(E) Taxes voted in excess of the ten-mill limitation under division (B) or (C) of this section shall be certified to the tax commissioner. If an additional tax is to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, as specified in the resolution providing for its submission, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of education. The board of education immediately shall make the necessary levy and certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the tax list for collection. After the first year, the levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

5705.26 Vote necessary for levies

Except as otherwise provided in section 5705.191 of the Revised Code, if the majority of the electors voting on a levy authorized by sections 5705.19 to 5705.25, inclusive, of the Revised Code vote in favor of such levy at such election, the taxing authority of the subdivision may levy a tax within such subdivision at the additional rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation during the period and for the purpose stated in the resolution, or at any less rate, or for any of said years or purposes; provided that levies for payment of debt charges shall not exceed the amount necessary for such charges on the indebtedness mentioned in the resolution. If such levy is for the payment of charges on debts incurred prior to January 1, 1935, in excess of the ten-mill limitation but within the fifteen-mill limitation, the taxing authority of said subdivision shall levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation such tax if a majority of the electors voting on the levy vote in favor thereof.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

46 OS(2d) 543, 350 NE(2d) 411 (BTA 1976), Waite Hill v Lake County Budget Comm. A county budget commission has a specific duty, under RC 5705.341, to refuse to certify a tax levy which is outside the ten-mill limitation, where such levy is not clearly required by the budget of a political subdivision, and where the outside millage has not been approved by the electors in the current year.

42 App 345, 182 NE 134 (1932), State ex rel Harshman v Lutz. Amendment increasing percentage of electors necessary to authorize additional levy of taxes, held inapplicable in respect to proceedings instituted prior to effective date.

42 App 345, 182 NE 134 (1932), State ex rel Harshman v Lutz. City attorney held entitled to mandamus to compel county auditor to place additional levy voted for poor relief on tax duplicates of county.

OAG 82-036. A board of county commissioners may not rescind a voter approved levy.

OAG 66-144. A board of township trustees may not accumulate the proceeds of a voted levy for fire protection during the life of the levy, for expenditure at a later date.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.22 a levy of not more than 65/100 of a mill for support of a county general hospital may be levied outside the ten-mill limitation if approved by a majority of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to a special fund.

1955 OAG 5585. A county may include current expenses of a county general hospital in a general levy in excess of the ten-mill limitation, which must be approved by sixty per cent of the voters, and the funds raised should be paid to the general fund.

1955 OAG 5585. Under RC 5705.191 a two-year levy for supplementing the general fund for various purposes including the support of general hospitals may be authorized by fifty-five per cent of the voters.

1954 OAG 4360. Agreements for the support of a municipal university, earmarking of funds thereunder, and vote required for bond issue for support thereof discussed.

1935 OAG 4583. This section relates only to levies for the payment of charges on debts which were incurred under GC 5649-2 (Repealed), prior to its repeal.

1934 OAG 3505. Where the question of a levy for the current expenses of a village outside the ten-mill limitation is submitted to a vote of the electors, and the number of electors voting on said question was 522, a favorable vote thereon of 339 is not sufficient to authorize such additional levy.

1931 OAG 3761. Where there was submitted to the electors of a taxing subdivision at the November 1931 election, the question of whether or not taxes should be levied and the vote on the said proposition was favorable thereto, the said levy may be made as voted for and may forthwith be extended on the tax duplicate for collection at the December 1931 collection of taxes, prior to its amendment.

1931 OAG 3761. When an election was ordered to be held at the regular election in November 1931, on the question of additional levies in a taxing subdivision, and the election was so held, and the majority of the voters voting thereon voted in favor thereof, the taxing authority of the subdivision may levy the proposed tax.

1927 OAG 1186. Unless the resolution authorized by this section provides that the additional tax levy authorized under GC 5625-15 (RC 5705.19), shall be placed on the tax duplicate for the current year said additional tax shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission in the succeeding year or years.

5705.261 Levy decrease by a subdivision

The question of decrease of an increased rate of levy approved for a continuing period of time by the voters of a subdivision may be initiated by the filing of a petition with the board of elections of the proper county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year requesting that an election be held on such question. Such petition shall state the amount of the proposed decrease in the rate of levy and shall be signed by at least ten per cent of the qualified electors residing in the subdivision and voting at the last general election. Only one such petition may be filed during each five-year period following the election at which the voters approved the increased rate for a continuing period of time.

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the district at the next succeeding general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in such subdivision for county offices. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the amount of the proposed decrease in rate and the time and place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other propositions submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of a decrease at such election approve the proposed decrease in rate, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the subdivision's taxing authority, which shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy such increased rate or levy such tax at such reduced rate upon the duplicate of the subdivision. If notes have been issued in anticipation of the collection of such levy, the taxing authority shall continue to levy and collect under authority of the election authorizing the original levy such amounts as will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such anticipation notes as the same fall due.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 86-021. Where the question of the decrease of a levy was approved by voters under RC 5705.261 in November of 1985, the decrease was effective beginning with the tax year following the tax year during which the voters' approval was obtained; thus, such decrease will first appear on the 1986 tax bills prepared in December of 1986.

OAG 68-035. A board of education of a city school district may submit a tax levy for current operating expenses under RC 5705.21 at a special election, which levy would run for a continuing period of time.

5705.71 Support of senior citizens services or facilities

(A) The electors of a county may initiate the question of a tax levy for support of senior citizens services or facilities by the filing of a petition with the board of elections of that county not less than seventy-five days before the date of any primary or general election requesting that an election be held on such question. The petition shall be signed by at least ten per cent of the qualified electors residing in the county and voting for the office of governor at the last general election.

(B) The petition shall state the purpose for which the senior citizens tax levy is being proposed, shall specify the amount of the proposed increase in rate, the period of time during which the increase is to be in effect, and whether the levy is to be imposed in the current year. The number of years may be any number not exceeding five, except that when the additional rate is for the payment of debt charges the increased rate shall be for the life of the indebtedness.

(C) After determination by it that such petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the county at the next succeeding primary or general election.

(D) The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in such county for county offices. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the amount of the proposed increase in rate, and the time and place of the election.

(E) The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other propositions submitted at the same election other than the election of officers.

(F) If a majority of electors voting on the question vote in favor of the levy, the board of county commissioners shall levy a tax, for the period and the purpose stated within the petition. If the tax is to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, as specified in the petition, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of county commissioners, which shall forthwith make the necessary levy and certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the tax list for collection. After the first year, the tax levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

COUNTY SALES TAX

5739.021 County levy of tax; purpose; rate; hearing and referendum requirement; effects of rejection or repeal by electors; reduction of rate

(A) For the purpose of providing additional general revenues for the county and paying the expenses of administering such levy, any county may levy a tax at the rate of not more than one per cent at any multiple of one-fourth of one per cent upon every retail sale made in the county, except sales of watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and sales of motor vehicles, and may increase the rate of an existing tax to not more than one per cent at any multiple of one-fourth of one per cent. The tax shall be levied and the rate increased pursuant to a resolution of the county commissioners. The resolution shall state the number of years for which the tax is to be levied or that it is for a continuing period of time. A certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the tax commissioner either personally or by certified mail not later than the sixtieth day prior to the date on which the tax is to become effective. Prior to the adoption of any resolution under this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings on the resolution, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. If a petition for a referendum is filed with the county auditor pursuant to sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, the auditor shall, within five days, notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the filing of the petition by certified mail. If the auditor declares the petition invalid, he shall, within five days, notify the board and the tax commissioner of his findings by certified mail. Where the auditor has declared the petition to be invalid the effective date of the tax or increased rate of tax levied by this section shall be the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days from the date the petition was declared invalid.

(B)(1) A resolution levying or increasing the rate of a sales tax pursuant to this section shall become effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not earlier than the first day of the month following the expiration of sixty days from the date of its adoption, subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into effect on the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice by the board of county commissioners to the tax commissioner of its adoption. The emergency shall receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners and shall state the reasons for such necessity.

(2)(a) A resolution that is not adopted as an emergency measure may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax or increasing the rate of tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after a certified copy of such resolution is transmitted to the board of elections. Upon transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. No resolution adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of this section shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it and not until the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice to the tax commissioner by the board of elections of the affirmative vote.

(b) A resolution that is adopted as an emergency measure shall go into effect as provided in division (B)(1) of this section but may direct the board of elections to submit the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at the next general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after a certified copy of the resolution is transmitted to the board of elections. Upon transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. The ballot question shall be the same as that prescribed in section 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately after the result has been declared. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax vote for repeal of the tax or repeal of the increase, the board of county commissioners, on the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days after the date it received notice of the result of the election, shall, in the case of a repeal of the tax, cease to levy the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase in the rate of the tax, cease to levy the increased rate and levy the tax at the rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to the increase in rate.

(C) If a resolution is rejected at a referendum or if a resolution adopted after January 1, 1982, as an emergency measure is repealed by the electors pursuant to division (B)(2)(b) of this section or section 5739.022 of the Revised Code, then for one year after the date of the election at which the resolution was rejected or repealed the board of county commissioners may not adopt any resolution authorized by this section as an emergency measure.

(D) The board of county commissioners, at any time while a tax levied under this section is in effect, may by resolution reduce the rate at which the tax is levied to a lower rate authorized by this section. Any reduction in the rate at which the tax is levied shall be made effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not sooner than the first day of the month next following the thirtieth day after the certification of the resolution to the tax commissioner.

(E) The tax on every retail sale subject to a tax levied pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.023 or 5739.026 of the Revised Code.

A county that levies a tax pursuant to this section shall levy a tax at the same rate pursuant to section 5741.021 of the Revised Code.

The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

Any tax levied pursuant to this section is subject to the exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing power of a county under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state.

(F) For purposes of this section, a copy of a resolution is "certified" when it contains a written statement attesting that the copy is a true and exact reproduction of the original resolution.

Insofar as the application of RC 5741.021 imposes a higher tax rate on property purchased out of state and used in a taxing county than on similarly used property purchased in the state, that statute discriminates against interstate commerce and violates the Commerce Clause of the US Constitution.

50 OS(3d) 81, 552 NE(2d) 640 (BTA 1990), Rotek, Inc v Limbach. The location of delivery of purchases under construction contracts determines the applicability of the county permissive tax.

36 OS(3d) 220, 522 NE(2d) 1074 (BTA 1988), Arga Co, Ohio Aviation Co Div v Limbach. Situs of a sale for purposes of county permissive sales taxes rests in the county where the sale occurred, and where a contract for the sale of goods specifies where the goods are to be delivered, the county in which the goods are delivered is considered the county in which the sale occurred and thus the situs of the sale.

27 OS(2d) 22, 272 NE(2d) 95 (BTA 1971), Cuyahoga County v Cuyahoga County Budget Comm. Where, upon appeal to the board of tax appeals, the record of the proceedings of a county budget commission allocating the local government fund is incomplete, a subdivision which does not adduce further proof of its relative actual needs to the board of tax appeals by direct testimony before the board, or by stipulation, deposition, or otherwise, is not in a position to complain that the allocation by the board, based upon that record, is unreasonable.

59 App(3d) 57, 572 NE(2d) 116 (Butler 1988), Armco, Inc v Limbach. Only retail sales whose situs is in a county can be subject to the county's permissive sales tax, and where a taxpayer telephones his acceptance of a price bid to a vendor the sale's situs is the taxpayer's county and not the vendor's.

OAG 88-018. A county has no authority to deposit revenues derived from county sales and use taxes pursuant to RC 5739.021, 5739.026, 5739.211, 5741.023, and 5741.031 into a revenue sharing fund from which moneys are to be distributed to townships and municipalities within the county according to a stated formula of entitlement and for such purposes as the recipients determine.

OAG 85-023. A resolution adopted pursuant to RC 5739.021 as an emergency measure may be submitted to a vote of the electors only pursuant to an initiative petition as provided for in RC 5739.022.

OAG 77-045. Where a board of county commissioners has by resolution enacted a county sales tax pursuant to RC 5739.021 and a county use tax pursuant to RC 5741.021, a referendum petition with respect to such resolutions must meet the requirements of RC 305.31 to 305.99 for a referendum petition as to both of the resolutions in question.

OAG 73-031. A board of county commissioners may repeal by resolution a tax which was enacted pursuant to RC 5739.021, and the failure to hold public hearings prior to the repeal of the tax does not invalidate that repeal.

OAG 70-092. County tax levied pursuant to RC 5741.021 shall not be applicable to any storage, use, or consumption in any county other than county in which original storage, use, or consumption of motor vehicle was made in this state, provided such tax has been paid or would have been paid had county in which original storage, use or consumption of the property was made in this state levied a tax pursuant to RC 5739.021 and 5741.021 on the property.

OAG 70-092. The nexus for county sales and use taxation pursuant to RC 5739.021 and 5741.021 is predicated and determined upon a "per transaction" basis and determination of whether one or more transactions are involved is to be made with reference to surrounding facts.

OAG 70-092. Term "acquired" within the phrase, "motor vehicles acquired," as used in RC 5741.021 refers to acquisition of title or possession, or both, of a motor vehicle resulting from and pursuant to retail sale transaction subject to the tax imposed by RC 5739.021, which would include acquisition of motor vehicle by transfer of possession via lease or rental agreements.

OAG 70-092. Term "sale" within the phrase, "sales of motor vehicles," as used in RC 5739.021, is defined by RC 5739.01(B), inter alia, to include all transactions by which title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property, is or is to be transferred, or a license to use or consume tangible personal property is or is to be granted, for a consideration in any manner, whether absolutely or conditionally, whether for a price or rental.

OAG 70-014. The general assembly has not authorized an initiative petition procedure for the purpose of effecting a repeal of a county-wide permissive sales and use tax adopted by a board of county commissioners pursuant to RC 5739.021 and 5741.021. (See also OAG 85-023.)

OAG 69-106. The county sales and use taxes authorized to be levied by RC 5739.021 and 5741.021, respectively, are in addition to the state sales and use taxes levied by RC 5739.02 and 5741.02, respectively.

BTA 88-D-799 (10-5-90), LDI Financial Services Corp v Limbach. A county's permissive tax shall be levied in the county where title and possession of tangible personal property is transferred.

BTA 87-E-44 (5-12-89), R.W. Davis Construction, Inc v Limbach. In order for a county permissive tax to apply to a retail sale, the seller must tender to the buyer the title to, and/or possession of, the tangible personal property within that county; thus, where purchases are made in West Virginia by an Ohio corporation, and the items are retained, stored, and used in West Virginia, no Ohio sales tax is applicable.

BTA 83-A-292 (6-23-86), Owens-Illinois, Inc v Limbach. RC 5739.021 provides that a direct pay permit granted by the commissioner continues to be valid until canceled for cause by the tax commissioner. If a taxpayer's organization changes business activities or accounting changes, it is required to give notice thereof to the tax commissioner when the taxpayer holds a direct pay permit under RC 5739.031.

BTA 82-B-1099 (9-12-85), Arcade City, Inc v Lindley. For purposes of county permissive taxes, sales take place in the county where tangible personal property is delivered, the consumer selects the property, and signs a contract to purchase it.

BTA 80-C-449 (3-15-84), Production Homes, Inc v Lindley. For purposes of assessment of the county permissive sales tax and county permissive regional transit authority tax, sales are made in the county in which the purchaser takes delivery of the purchased items.

5739.022 Election to repeal emergency permissive tax

(A) The question of repeal of either a county permissive tax or an increase in the rate of a county permissive tax that was adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.026 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county not less than seventy-five days before the general election in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on the question. The question of repealing an increase in the rate of the county permissive tax shall be submitted to the electors as a separate question from the repeal of the tax in effect prior to the increase in the rate. Any petition filed under this section shall be signed by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election.

After determination by it that the petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the county at the next general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for county offices in the county. The board of elections shall notify the tax commissioner, in writing, of the election upon determining that the petition is valid. Notice of the election shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the time, and the place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at the election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state; however, the ballot question shall read, "shall the tax (or, increase in the rate of the tax) be retained?

The question covered by the petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers.

(B) If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repeal of either a county permissive tax or an increase in the rate of a county permissive tax approve the repeal, the board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately after the result has been declared. The county commissioners shall, on the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days after the date it receives the notice, in the case of a repeal of a county permissive tax, cease to levy the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase in the rate of a county permissive tax, levy the tax at the rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to the increase in rate and cease to levy the increased rate.

A referendum petition for an election to repeal an emergency permissive tax pursuant to RC 5739.022 must, according to RC 305.32, contain the text of the resolution to be repealed, not the text of a resolution calling for repeal.

OAG 85-023. A resolution adopted pursuant to RC 5739.021 as an emergency measure may be submitted to a vote of the electors only pursuant to an initiative petition as provided for in RC 5739.022.

5739.023 Transit authority levy of tax; rates optional; limits

(A)(1) For the purpose of providing additional general revenues for a transit authority and paying the expenses of administering such levy, any transit authority as defined in division (U) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code may levy a tax upon every retail sale made in the territory of the transit authority, except sales of watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and sales of motor vehicles, at a rate of not more than one and one-half per cent at any multiple of one-fourth of one per cent and may increase the existing rate of tax to not more than one and one-half per cent at any multiple of one-fourth of one per cent. The tax shall be levied and the rate increased pursuant to a resolution of the legislative authority of the transit authority and a certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered by the fiscal officer to the board of elections as provided in section 3505.071 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall specify the number of years for which the tax is to be in effect or that the tax is for a continuing period of time, and the date of the election on the question of the tax pursuant to section 306.70 of the Revised Code.

(2) The tax levied by the resolution shall become effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not earlier than the first day of the month next following the sixtieth day following the certification of the results of the election on the question of the tax by the board of elections.

(B) The legislative authority may, at any time while the tax is in effect, by resolution fix the rate of the tax at any rate authorized by this section and not in excess of that approved by the voters pursuant to section 306.70 of the Revised Code. Any change in the rate of the tax shall be made effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not sooner than the first day of the month next following the sixtieth day following the certification of the resolution to the tax commissioner; provided, that in any case where bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, of a regional transit authority have been issued under section 306.40 of the Revised Code without a vote of the electors while the tax proposed to be reduced was in effect, the board of trustees of the regional transit authority shall continue to levy and collect under authority of the original election authorizing the tax a rate of tax which the board of trustees reasonably estimates will produce an amount in that year equal to the amount of principal of and interest on those bonds as is payable in that year.

(C) The tax on every retail sale subject to a tax levied pursuant to this section is in addition to the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.026 of the Revised Code.

(D) The additional tax levied by the transit authority shall be collected pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

(E) Any tax levied pursuant to this section is subject to the exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing power of a transit authority under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state.

5739.026 County sales tax levy for convention facilities authority, transit authority, county general fund, permanent improvements, or emergency telephone system

(A) A board of county commissioners may levy a tax of one-fourth or one-half of one per cent on every retail sale in the county, except sales of watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and sales of motor vehicles, and may increase an existing rate of one-fourth of one per cent to one-half of one per cent, to pay the expenses of administering the tax and, except as provided in division (A)(6) of this section, for any one or more of the following purposes:

(1) To provide additional revenues for the payment of bonds or notes issued in anticipation of bonds issued by a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code and to provide additional operating revenues for the convention facilities authority;

(2) To provide additional revenues for a transit authority operating in the county;

(3) To provide additional revenue for the county's general fund;

(4) To provide additional revenue for permanent improvements within the county to be distributed by the community improvements board in accordance with section 307.283 and to pay principal, interest, and premium on bonds issued under section 133.312 of the Revised Code;

(5) To provide additional revenue to a county with a population of one hundred seventy-five thousand or less as measured by the most recent census taken by the United States census bureau, for the acquisition, construction, equipping, or repair of any specific permanent improvement or any class or group of permanent improvements, which improvement or class or group of improvements shall be enumerated in the resolution required by division (D) of this section and to pay principal, interest, premium, and other costs associated with the issuance of bonds or notes in anticipation of bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code for the acquisition, construction, equipping, or repair of the specific permanent improvement or class or group of permanent improvements;

(6) To provide revenue for the implementation and operation of a 9-1-1 system in the county. If the tax is levied or the rate increased exclusively for such purpose, the tax shall not be levied or the rate increased for more than five years. At the end of the last year the tax is levied or the rate increased, any balance remaining in the special fund established for such purpose shall remain in that fund and be used exclusively for such purpose until the fund is completely expended, and, notwithstanding section 5705.16 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners shall not petition for the transfer of money from such special fund, and the tax commissioner shall not approve such a petition.

If the tax is levied or the rate increased for such purpose for more than five years, the board of county commissioners also shall levy the tax or increase the rate of the tax for one or more of the purposes described in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of this section and shall prescribe the method for allocating the revenues from the tax each year in the manner required by division (C) of this section.

The tax shall be levied and the rate increased pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution to levy the tax or to increase the rate of tax exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings on the resolution, the second hearing to be no fewer than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being no fewer than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. The resolution shall become effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not earlier than the first day of the month following the expiration of sixty days from the date of its adoption, subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into effect on the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice by the board of county commissioners to the tax commissioner of its adoption. The emergency measure shall receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners and shall state the reasons for the necessity.

If the tax is for more than one of the purposes set forth in division (A) of this section or is exclusively for one of the purposes set forth in division (A)(1), (2), (4), (5), or (6) of this section, the resolution shall not go into effect unless it is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question of the tax.

(B) The board of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution under section 351.02 of the Revised Code creating the convention facilities authority, or under section 307.283 of the Revised Code creating the community improvements board before adopting a resolution levying a tax for the purpose of a convention facilities authority under division (A)(1) of this section or for the purpose of a community improvements board under division (A)(4) of this section.

(C)(1) If the tax is to be used for more than one of the purposes set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (6) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall establish the method that will be used to determine the amount or proportion of the tax revenue received by the county during each year that will be distributed for each of those purposes, including, if applicable, provisions governing the reallocation of a convention facilities authority's allocation if the authority is dissolved while the tax is in effect. The allocation method may provide that different proportions or amounts of the tax shall be distributed among the purposes in different years, but it shall clearly describe the method that will be used for each year. Except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) of this section, the allocation method established by the board is not subject to amendment during the life of the tax.

(2) Subsequent to holding a public hearing on the proposed amendment, the board of county commissioners may amend the allocation method established under division (C)(1) of this section for any year if the amendment is approved by the governing board of each entity whose allocation for the year would be reduced by the proposed amendment. In the case of a tax that is levied for a continuing period of time, the board may not so amend the allocation method for any year before the sixth year that the tax is in effect.

(a) If the additional revenues provided to the convention facilities authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of convention facilities authority revenue bonds for as long as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year except to the extent that the reduced authority allocation, when combined with the authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds.

(b) If the additional revenues provided to the county are pledged by the county for the payment of bonds or notes issued under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, for as long as such bonds or notes are outstanding, no reduction of the county's or the community improvements board's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year except to the extent that the reduced county or community improvements board allocation is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds or notes.

(c) If the additional revenues provided to the transit authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of revenue bonds issued under section 306.37 of the Revised Code, for as long as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's allocation of tax shall be made for any year except to the extent that the authority's reduced allocation, when combined with the authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds.

(D)(1) The resolution levying the tax or increasing the rate of tax shall state the rate of the tax or the rate of the increase; the purpose or purposes for which it is to be levied; the number of years for which it is to be levied or that it is for a continuing period of time; the allocation method required by division (C) of this section; and if required to be submitted to the electors of the county under division (A) of this section, the date of the election at which the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the county, which shall be not less than seventy-five days after the certification of a copy of the resolution to the board of elections. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. If approved by a majority of the electors, the tax shall become effective on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not earlier than the first day of the month next following the thirtieth day following the certification of the results of the election to the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner by the board of elections.

(2)(a) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section that is not adopted as an emergency measure may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax or increasing the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. No resolution adopted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it and not until the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not earlier than the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days from the date of the notice to the tax commissioner by the board of elections of the affirmative vote.

(b) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section that is adopted as an emergency measure shall become effective as provided in division (A) of this section but may direct the board of elections to submit the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at the next general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. The ballot question shall be the same as that prescribed in section 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately after the result has been declared. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax vote for repeal of the tax or repeal of the increase, the board of county commissioners, on the first day of the month following the expiration of thirty days after the date it received notice of the result of the election, shall, in the case of a repeal of the tax, cease to levy the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase in the rate of the tax, cease to levy the increased rate and levy the tax at the rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to the increase in rate.

(E) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.023 of the Revised Code.

A county that levies a tax pursuant to this section shall levy a tax at the same rate pursuant to section 5741.023 of the Revised Code.

The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

Any tax levied pursuant to this section is subject to the exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing power of a county under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state.

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

OAG 88-018. A county has no authority to deposit revenues derived from county sales and use taxes pursuant to RC 5739.021, 5739.026, 5739.211, 5741.023, and 5741.031 into a revenue sharing fund from which moneys are to be distributed to townships and municipalities within the county according to a stated formula of entitlement and for such purposes as the recipients determine.

5743.024 Additional sales tax for sports facility or permanent improvements

For the purposes of section 307.696 of the Revised Code, to pay the expenses of administering the tax, and to pay any or all of the charge the board of elections makes against the county to hold the election on the question of levying the tax, or for such purposes and to provide revenues to the county for permanent improvements, the board of county commissioners may levy a tax on sales of cigarettes sold for resale at retail in the county. The tax shall not exceed two and twenty-five hundredths of a mill per cigarette, and shall be computed on each cigarette sold. The tax may be levied for any number of years not exceeding twenty. Only one sale of the same article shall be used in computing the amount of tax due.

The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution of the county commissioners approved by a majority of the electors in the county voting on the question of levying the tax. The resolution shall specify the rate of the tax, the number of years the tax will be levied, and the purposes for which the tax is levied. Such election may be held on the date of a general or special election held not sooner than seventy-five days after the date the board certifies its resolution to the board of elections. If approved by the electors, the tax shall take effect on the first day of the month specified in the resolution but not sooner than the first day of the month that is at least sixty days after the certification of the election results by the board of elections. A copy of the resolution levying the tax shall be certified to the tax commissioner at least sixty days prior to the date on which the tax is to become effective.

A resolution under this section may be joined on the ballot as a single question with a resolution adopted under section 307.697 or 4301.421 of the Revised Code to levy a tax for the same purposes and for the purpose of paying the expenses of administering the tax. The form of the ballot in an election held pursuant to this section shall be as prescribed in section 307.697 of the Revised Code.

The treasurer of state shall credit all moneys arising from each county's taxes levied under this section and section 5743.323 of the Revised Code as follows:

(A) To the tax refund fund created by section 5703.052 of the Revised Code, amounts equal to the refunds from each tax levied under this section certified by the tax commissioner pursuant to section 5743.05 of the Revised Code;

(B) Following the crediting of amounts pursuant to division (A) of this section:

(1) To the permissive tax distribution fund created by division (B)(1) of section 4301.423 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to ninety-eight per cent of the remainder collected;

(2) To the local excise tax administrative fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury, an amount equal to two per cent of such remainder, for use by the tax commissioner in defraying costs he incurs in administering the tax.

On or before the second working day of each month, the treasurer of state shall certify to the tax commissioner the amount of each county's taxes levied under sections 5743.024 and 5743.323 and paid to the treasurer of state during the preceding month.

On or before the tenth day of each month, the tax commissioner shall distribute the amount credited to the permissive tax distribution fund during the preceding month by providing for payment of the appropriate amount to the county treasurer of each county levying the tax.

UNCODIFIED LAW

1991 H 298, § 178, eff. 7-26-91, reads:

Permissive Tax Distribution

Notwithstanding sections 4301.423 and 5743.024 of the Revised Code as amended by this act, the proceeds of taxes levied under sections 4301.421, 5743.024, and 5743.323 of the Revised Code deposited into the state treasury during the month of July 1991, shall be distributed as follows:

(A) On or before August 2, 1991, the Treasurer of State shall certify to the Tax Commissioner and to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of each county's taxes levied under sections 4301.421, 5743.024, and 5743.323 of the Revised Code and paid into the state treasury during July 1991, and remaining in the General Revenue Fund subsequent to any transfers required by sections 4301.423 and 5743.024 of the Revised Code.

(B) On or before August 5, 1991, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer the amounts certified by the Treasurer of State pursuant to division (A) of this section from the General Revenue Fund to the Permissive Tax Distribution Fund created in section 4301.423 of the Revised Code.

(C) On or before August 10, 1991, the Tax Commissioner shall distribute the amounts certified by the Treasurer of State pursuant to division (A) of this section from the Permissive Tax Distribution Fund to the county treasurer of each county levying the taxes specified in division (A) of this section.

SCHOOL DISTRICT INCOME TAX

5748.02 Resolution proposing levy of school district income tax; election

(A) The board of education of any school district, except a county or joint vocational school district, may declare, by resolution, the necessity of raising annually a specified amount of money for school district purposes. A copy of the resolution shall be certified to the tax commissioner no later than eighty-five days prior to the date of the election at which the board intends to propose a levy under this section. Upon receipt of the copy of the resolution, the tax commissioner shall estimate both of the following:

(1) The property tax rate that would have to be imposed in the current year by the district to produce an equivalent amount of money;

(2) The income tax rate that would have had to have been in effect for the current year to produce an equivalent amount of money from a school district income tax.

Within ten days of receiving the copy of the board's resolution, the commissioner shall prepare these estimates and certify them to the board. Upon receipt of the certification, the board may adopt a resolution proposing an income tax under division (B) of this section at the estimated rate contained in the certification rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one per cent. The commissioner's certification applies only to the board's proposal to levy an income tax at the election for which the board requested the certification. If the board intends to submit a proposal to levy an income tax at any other election, it shall request another certification for that election in the manner prescribed in this division.

(B) Upon the receipt of a certification from the tax commissioner under division (A) of this section, a majority of the members of a board of education may adopt a resolution proposing the levy of an annual tax for school district purposes on the school district income of individuals and of estates. The proposed levy may be for a continuing period of time or for a specified number of years. The resolution shall set forth the purpose for which the tax is to be imposed, the rate of the tax, which shall be the rate set forth in the commissioner's certification rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one per cent, the number of years the tax will be levied or that it will be levied for a continuing period of time, the date on which the tax shall take effect, which shall be the first day of January of any year following the year in which the question is submitted, and the date of the election at which the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the district, which shall be on the date of a primary, general, or special election the date of which is consistent with section 3501.01 of the Revised Code.

(C) A resolution adopted under division (B) of this section shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. Immediately after its adoption and at least seventy-five days prior to the election at which the question will appear on the ballot, a copy of the resolution shall be certified to the board of elections of the proper county, which shall submit the proposal to the electors on the date specified in the resolution. The form of the ballot shall be as provided in section 5748.03 of the Revised Code. Publication of notice of the election shall be made in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the county once a week for four consecutive weeks. The notice shall contain the time and place of the election and the question to be submitted to the electors. The question covered by the resolution shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers.

(D) No board of education shall submit the question of a tax on school district income to the electors of the district more than twice in any calendar year. If a board submits the question twice in any calendar year, one of the elections on the question shall be held on the date of the general election.

5748.04 Repeal may be initiated by petition

The question of the repeal of a school district income tax levied for more than five years may be initiated not more than once in any five-year period by filing with the board of elections of the appropriate counties not later than seventy-five days before the general election in any year after the year in which it is approved by the electors a petition requesting that an election be held on the question. The petition shall be signed by qualified electors residing in the school district levying the income tax equal in number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election.

The board of elections shall determine whether the petition is valid, and if it so determines, it shall submit the question to the electors of the district at the next general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the election, stating the purpose, the time, and the place of the election. The form of the ballot cast at the election shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. The question covered by the petition shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question vote in favor of it, the result shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of education of the school district and the tax commissioner, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy the tax except that if notes have been issued pursuant to section 5748.05 of the Revised Code the tax commissioner shall continue to levy and collect under authority of the election authorizing the levy an annual amount, rounded upward to the nearest one-fourth of one per cent, as will be sufficient to pay the debt charges on the notes as they fall due.

This section does not apply to school district income tax levies that are levied for five or fewer years.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: The 1802 Ohio Constitution was notable for the lop-sided power conferred on the General Assembly. In this respect Ohio was bowing to anti-Federalist sentiments and following the lead of the other states, most of whose early constitutions aggrandized the legislative power at the expense of executive and judicial powers. See Edward S. Corwin, The President: Office and Powers 5-7 (New York University Press 1957). Primacy of Congress was also built into the Articles of Confederation, Article IX, and the disastrous results led to adoption of the US Constitution, which redistributed legislative, executive, and judicial powers and functions among three separate branches in a pattern synthesized from the views of Locke, Montesquieu, and Blackstone on a balanced constitution. Id., at 7-16.

The almost plenary power of the General Assembly, and the near absence of controls on the exercise of the power, under the 1802 Constitution, permitted abuses which by 1849 had become gross enough that the press and public opinion were able to badger the General Assembly into placing the question of calling a constitutional convention on the ballot. The measure was approved by a large margin, and the convention was convened in May 1850. The major goals of the convention were defined by the agitation which had led to calling it: to curb the power of the General Assembly and reform the judiciary. The resulting 1851 Constitution accordingly took away the legislature's appointing authority, limited its power to enact private or special laws, and imposed severe restrictions on taxation and deficit spending, and restructured the judicial branch. See Isaac Franklin Patterson, The Constitutions of Ohio 17-19 (The Arthur H. Clark Co 1912); Carrington T. Marshall, I A History of the Courts and Lawyers of Ohio 103-07 (The American Historical Society, Inc 1934).

152 OS 308, 89 NE(2d) 641 (1949), State ex rel Duffy v Sweeney. Where proposed amendment to Ohio Constitution received favorable majority of votes cast on the issue of adoption, but not a majority of votes cast in the election, it was legally adopted and became effective 30 days after the election despite fact that the schedule to the proposed amendment specified that it would become effective immediately upon certification by the secretary of state that a majority of electors cast a favorable ballot and that the schedule twice stated that a majority of electors voting at the election was necessary for passage.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 134, 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. The filing of a petition signed by ten per cent of the electors proposing an amendment to the constitution, the full text of which shall have been set forth in such petition, as required by O Const Art II §1a, is jurisdictional and is a necessary prerequisite to the submission of the proposed amendment for the approval or rejection of the electors; when such a petition, signed and prepared in accordance with the constitutional requirement, has been filed with the secretary of state, he is required to submit to the electors the exact proposal set forth in the petition, and there is no authority for the submission of any other or different one.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 134, 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. The provisions of O Const Art II §1a et seq. for the filing of petitions for proposed amendments to the constitution, for copies, arguments, and explanations thereof, and for preparation of ballots so as to permit an affirmative or negative vote upon each law, section of law or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution are mandatory; a submission of a proposed amendment to the constitution without substantial compliance with the provisions of the sections of the constitution referred to is invalid.

2. Duties of secretary of state

63 OS(2d) 326, 410 NE(2d) 1249 (1980), State ex rel Carter v Celebrezze. If no initiative petition bearing the requisite number of electors' signatures is presented, the secretary of state has no duty to forward the petition to the county boards of election.

32 OS(2d) 4, 288 NE(2d) 821 (1972), State ex rel Schwartz v Brown. By virtue of the provisions of O Const Art II §1a and 1g, the terms of a proposed constitutional amendment are determined by reference to the text of such proposal as contained on the initiative petition and part-petitions signed by the requisite number of electors; and any discrepancy between such text and the text of the preliminary petition submitted to the attorney general and filed with the secretary of state, under RC 3519.01, does not affect the duty of the secretary of state, prescribed in O Const Art II §1a, to submit such a proposal to the vote of the electorate if such proposal has been signed by ten per cent of the electorate.

105 OS 570, 138 NE 881 (1922), State ex rel Marcolin v Smith. The secretary of state may not refuse to submit to the electors a proposed amendment to the state constitution on the ground that it would contravene some provision of the federal constitution or law of congress; and mandamus lies to compel him to submit the proposed amendment.

99 OS 10, 121 NE 816 (1918), Weinland v Fulton. In an action to enjoin the secretary of state from submitting for the approval or rejection of the voters a constitutional amendment proposed by petition pursuant to O Const Art II §1 and §1a, a court cannot consider or determine whether the proposed amendment violates the US Constitution.

OAG 72-082. As a matter of practice, the secretary of state may find, and give notice of insufficient signatures on an original petition, proposing a constitutional amendment under O Const Art II §1a and 1g, at any time reports from the counties are received by him and he is able to determine the insufficiency, but in no event may he make a general finding of insufficiency later than the fortieth day prior to the election, at which the issue is to appear on the ballot.

1949 OAG 753. Under Art II §1a, when a petition is filed with the secretary of state, proposing an amendment to the Ohio constitution, in less than ninety days before the next succeeding regular or general election the secretary of state may not submit such amendment to the electors in the year following that in which such petition is filed.

1939 OAG 1203. When a petition is filed with the secretary of state within ninety days after any law has been filed by the governor, it is the duty of the secretary of state to ascertain whether or not such petition contains the required number of signatures valid on the form thereof.

3. Initiative petition

47 OS(2d) 265, 354 NE(2d) 690 (1976), State ex rel O'Grady v Brown. A single initiative petition may contain more than one proposed constitutional amendment.

32 OS(2d) 4, 288 NE(2d) 821 (1972), State ex rel Schwartz v Brown. By virtue of the provisions of O Const Art II §1a and 1g, the terms of a proposed constitutional amendment are determined by reference to the text of such proposal as contained on the initiative petition and part-petitions signed by the requisite number of electors; and any discrepancy between such text and the text of the preliminary petition submitted to the attorney general and filed with the secretary of state, under RC 3519.01, does not affect the duty of the secretary of state, prescribed in O Const Art II §1a, to submit such a proposal to the vote of the electorate if such proposal has been signed by ten per cent of the electorate.

124 OS 24, 176 NE 664 (1931), State ex rel Hubbell v Bettman. A single initiative petition may contain more than one proposed constitutional amendment.

93 OS 264, 112 NE 1029 (1915), State ex rel Nolan v ClenDening. It is not misconduct in office for a public officer to circulate petitions, or to engage others to circulate petitions or to pay out of his own pocket the necessary expense of the same, in order to give the people of the state of Ohio the right to a referendum vote upon an act passed by the general assembly.

15 OO 322 (CP, Hamilton 1939), In re Initiative Petitions. The purpose of the statute requiring the residence, ward, and precinct of a signer to be set forth in a petition is to facilitate the functions of the board of elections; where the residence of the signer is clearly set forth on the petition and is the same as that appearing on the registration list and the board of elections has a permanent registration card to verify the signature, the board is not justified in holding invalid those signatures where through error the wrong ward number or wrong precinct number have been inserted in the petition.

4. Ninety-day period

106 OS 1, 138 NE 532 (1922), Thrailkill v Smith. When computing the ninety-day timeframe under O Const Art II §1a, where the act is to be done a fixed number of days after a specified day, the first is to be included and the last excluded.

1949 OAG 753. Art II §1a provides that when a petition is filed with the secretary of state proposing an amendment to the constitution of the state of Ohio the same shall be submitted at the next succeeding regular or general election in any year occurring subsequent to ninety days after the filing of such petition. In calculating such ninety day period the day of filing shall be included and election day excluded.

O Const II § 1b Initiative and referendum to enact laws

When at any time, not less than ten days prior to the commencement of any session of the general assembly, there shall have been filed with the secretary of state a petition signed by three per centum of the electors and verified as herein provided, proposing a law, the full text of which shall have been set forth in such petition, the secretary of state shall transmit the same to the general assembly as soon as it convenes. If said proposed law shall be passed by the general assembly, either as petitioned for or in an amended form, it shall be subject to the referendum. If it shall not be passed, or if it shall be passed in an amended form, or if no action shall be taken thereon within four months from the time it is received by the general assembly, it shall be submitted by the secretary of state to the electors for their approval or rejection at the next regular or general election, if such submission shall be demanded by supplementary petition verified as herein provided and signed by not less than three per centum of the electors in addition to those signing the original petition, which supplementary petition must be signed and filed with the secretary of state within ninety days after the proposed law shall have been rejected by the general assembly or after the expiration of such term of four months, if no action has been taken thereon, or after the law as passed by the general assembly shall have been filed by the governor in the office of the secretary of state. The proposed law shall be submitted in the form demanded by such supplementary petition, which form shall be either as first petitioned for or with any amendment or amendments which may have been incorporated therein by either branch or by both branches, of the general assembly. If a proposed law so submitted is approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, it shall be the law and shall go into effect as herein provided in lieu of any amended form of said law which may have been passed by the general assembly, and such amended law passed by the general assembly shall not go into effect until and unless the law proposed by supplementary petition shall have been rejected by the electors. All such initiative petitions, last above described, shall have printed across the top thereof, in case of proposed laws: "Law Proposed by Initiative Petition First to be Submitted to the General Assembly." Ballots shall be so printed as to permit an affirmative or negative vote upon each measure submitted to the electors. Any proposed law or amendment to the constitution submitted to the electors as provided in 1a and 1b, if approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, shall take effect thirty days after the election at which it was approved and shall be published by the secretary of state. If conflicting proposed laws or conflicting proposed amendments to the constitution shall be approved at the same election by a majority of the total number of votes cast for and against the same, the one receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall be the law, or in the case of amendments to the constitution shall be the amendment to the constitution. No law proposed by initiative petition and approved by the electors shall be subject to the veto of the governor.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: For comments on the initiative and referendum generally, see Commentary to §1, Article II. This section governs the use of the initiative and referendum to propose and enact a law—normally the sole province of the General Assembly. The section cannot be used to adopt any law which the legislature itself is forbidden to enact, or to adopt any law providing for non-uniform taxation. §1 and 1e, Article II. Note that this section secures to the General Assembly the right to review and modify a proposed law in an initiative petition, before the proposal is submitted to a referendum. At the same time, it prevents the General Assembly from thwarting the proposal, by providing for supplemental petitions to force a referendum on the original proposal if it is amended, rejected, or ignored by the legislature.

1. In general

58 OS(2d) 395, 390 NE(2d) 829 (1979), Cappelletti v Celebrezze. Secretary of state, upon receipt of initiative petitions containing signatures of more than three percent of voters, properly submitted part-petitions to county board of elections for verification of signatures.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 134, 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. Where two amendments to O Const Art XII §2 on the same subject were proposed and approved by an electoral majority, one of which originated with an initiative petition and the other with a resolution of the general assembly, 107 v 144, am. eff. 1-1-19, and where the general assembly's proposal received 140,000 more votes than the initiative proposal, the amendment proposed by the general assembly is the one that amends the constitution, inasmuch as O Const Art II §1b provides that the conflicting proposal receiving the most votes prevails.

91 OS 113, 110 NE 185 (1914), State ex rel Kautzman v Graves. O Const Art II §1b will not be construed to allow a writ of mandamus which would compel the secretary of state to recount the ballots of an election where fraud is alleged; to so hold would serve to usurp the powers and functions of the legislature.

29 App(2d) 133, 279 NE(2d) 624 (1971), Durell v Brown. If there are sufficient presumptively valid signatures in an initiative petition meeting the requirements of O Const Art II §1b, there is an absolute duty on the secretary of state to certify the petition to the general assembly irrespective of whether it can be proved that in some way some or all of the signatures contained in the initiative petition are invalid.

19 App 107, 3 Abs 603 (1925), Spahr v Brown. Where an initiated bill is indefinitely postponed by the house of representatives, and no further action by the house is had thereon, such action, under the rules of the house, amounts to a rejection of the bill, within the meaning of the constitution, and the ninety-day period for the filing of the supplemental petition begins to run from such date.

2. Petitions

63 App(2d) 125, 409 NE(2d) 1044 (Franklin 1979), State ex rel Durell v Celebrezze. Where the attorney general of Ohio determines that the summary of a second initiative petition qualifies for certification to the secretary of state under RC 3519.01 and submits such with a copy of the signatures obtained on the first petition, procedural error by the attorney general in so doing does not affect the validity of part-petitions which are thereafter circulated and filed with the secretary of state in reliance upon the attorney general's certification.

19 App 107, 3 Abs 603 (1925), Spahr v Brown. The 90-day limitation provided by the constitution for filing the supplementary petition upon an initiated bill is mandatory, the decision of the secretary of state thereon is not conclusive, and resort may be had to the courts for final decision.

1950 OAG 1419. A petition seeking to initiate a proposed law is required to have valid signatures totaling three per cent of the total vote for governor at the last preceding general election and in addition must include names from forty-four counties from each of which there must be valid signatures equal to or exceeding one and one-half per cent of the total vote for governor in each county at the last preceding general election; where such a petition contains a requisite total number of valid signatures for the state as a whole but contains the required totals in only forty-three counties of the state, and the number of signatures from the forty-fourth county is below the legal minimum, such petition is insufficient and the secretary of state is required by law to give notice of such insufficiency and the extent thereof to the committee charged with the circulation of the petition.

1927 OAG 235. Where a law is proposed by the initiative under O Const Art II §1b, and a synopsis of such proposed law is duly certified by the attorney general under the provision of GC 5175-29e (Repealed) and said proposed law is defeated by the general assembly of Ohio, and supplementary petitions circulated demanding the submission of said proposed law to the electors for their approval or rejection at the next or general election, said synopsis as certified by the attorney general on the filing of the original petitions with the secretary of state, is sufficient for the supplementary petitions as well.

1927 OAG 207. Under the provisions of O Const Art II §1b, where an initiated bill is defeated in the house of representatives on March 15, in order to hold a valid election thereon, it is necessary that the supplemental petitions must be filed within ninety days thereafter.

3. Action of General Assembly

88 OS 473, 104 NE 529 (1913), Pfeifer v Graves. Under O Const Art II §1b an initiated bill introduced in the house and then referred to committee and amended where such was agreed to by the house, but not further acted upon by it, may be submitted as amended to the electors of the state.

88 OS 473, 104 NE 529 (1913), Pfeifer v Graves. An initiated law introduced into the legislature under Art II §1b, of the constitution of 1912, where amendments were agreed to but no further action taken, may be submitted as thus amended to the electors after petition to the secretary of state for such election. Amendments thus agreed to are thereby incorporated.

19 App 107, 3 Abs 603 (1925), Spahr v Brown. Where an initiated bill is indefinitely postponed by the house of representatives, the time for filing a supplementary petition is not extended by a subsequent motion for reconsideration which is ruled out of order by the speaker, or by a motion to suspend the rules which is voted down by the house.

1933 OAG 903. When a bill is introduced into the legislature by initiative petition, the general assembly is not limited by O Const Art II §1b to a consideration of such bill during a four-month period after its introduction, but such legislative body has the jurisdiction after such four-month period to consider and adopt or reject such bill in the same manner and with like effect as it could consider a bill introduced in such body in any other manner.

1925 OAG 2280. Where a bill is certified to the legislature by the secretary of state in pursuance to an initiative petition, and the house takes such proceedings as to indefinitely postpone the bill, such proceedings constitute a rejection of such bill, in view of O Const Art II §1b, and the ninety-day period begins to run from the date of such action.

O Const II § 1c Referendum to challenge laws enacted by General Assembly

The second aforestated power reserved by the people is designated the referendum, and the signatures of six per centum of the electors shall be required upon a petition to order the submission to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, of any law, section of any law or any item in any law appropriating money passed by the general assembly. No law passed by the general assembly shall go into effect until ninety days after it shall have been filed by the governor in the office of the secretary of state, except as herein provided. When a petition, signed by six per centum of the electors of the state and verified as herein provided, shall have been filed with the secretary of state within ninety days after any law shall have been filed by the governor in the office of the secretary of state, ordering that such law, section of such law or any item in such law appropriating money be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, the secretary of state shall submit to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection such law, section or item, in the manner herein provided, at the next succeeding regular or general election in any year occurring subsequent to sixty days after the filing of such petition, and no such law, section or item shall go into effect until and unless approved by a majority of those voting upon the same. If, however, a referendum petition is filed against any such section or item, the remainder of the law shall not thereby be prevented or delayed from going into effect.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: For comments on the initiative and referendum generally, see Commentary to §1, Article II. This section spells out the right of the electorate to submit a law or part of a law passed by the General Assembly to the voters for approval or rejection.

With certain exceptions, all or any section of a law, and any item in an appropriations law, may be submitted to a referendum. The exceptions are laws providing for tax levies or appropriations for current expenses of the state, and emergency laws, which under §1d, Article II go into immediate effect and are not subject to the referendum. All other laws have a delayed effective date of 90 days (or longer, if the enactment so specifies), which is the time allowed to obtain and file referendum petitions with the necessary percentage of signatures, which then stays the effective date pending the referendum on it. State ex rel Herbert v Mitchell, 136 OS 1, 22 NE(2d) 907 (1939).

The fact that this section and §1d, Article II cannot be used to prevent a tax levy, appropriation for current expenses, or emergency law from going into effect, does not appear to prevent using the initiative and referendum under §1b, Article II to propose a new law which overturns the law passed by the General Assembly. See State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt, 155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951) (involving a municipal ordinance).

4. Petitions

1. In general

103 OS 286, 133 NE 556 (1921), Cincinnati v Hillenbrand. A court has no authority to pronounce a judgment or decree upon the question whether a proposed law or ordinance will be valid and constitutional if enacted by a legislative body or adopted by the electors. (See also Pfeifer v Graves, 88 OS 473, 104 NE 529 (1913).)

19 App 107, 3 Abs 603 (1925), Spahr v Brown. A taxpayer's action lies to enjoin expenditures arising out of the submission of a referendum where the referendum proceedings are vitally defective.

2. Laws subject or not subject to referendum

94 OS 382, 114 NE 1037 (1916), State ex rel Davies Mfg Co v Donahey. A state contract for auto license tags relates to current expenses of the government and therefore by O Const Art II §1c, is not subject to a referendum.

93 OS 79, 112 NE 209 (1915), State v Lathrop. Construing O Const Art II §1c with O Const Art II §16, insofar as both sections relate to the time from which an act of the general assembly shall operate, laws providing for tax levies, appropriations for current expenses of the state government and state institutions, and emergency laws, as defined in O Const Art II §1d, go into immediate effect when approved by the governor; all other acts go into effect ninety days after the same have been filed with the secretary of state, regardless of the date of approval by the governor.

90 OS 345, 107 NE 760 (1914), State ex rel Donahey v Roose. O Const Art II §1c expressly provides for a referendum not only upon any law but any section of a law; all sections of a law not subject to the referendum provisions of this section go into immediate effect when approved and signed by the governor.

90 OS 345, 107 NE 760 (1914), State ex rel Donahey v Roose. It is a valid and constitutional exercise of the authority of the general assembly to levy taxes for state purposes and it is not within the power of county budget commissioners to increase, diminish, or in any manner change the sum or sums levied by law for such purposes; O Const Art II §1d expressly exempts laws providing for tax levies from the referendum provisions of O Const Art II §1c.

26 App 265, 160 NE 241 (Cuyahoga 1927) State ex rel Hile v Cleveland. Where an ordinance was passed as an emergency measure in the manner provided for under the Ohio Constitution and no challenge was made to institute a referendum within the time allotted, such ordinance is effective immediately upon its passage and the question of its emergency character cannot be inquired into.

1927 OAG 605. Under the provisions of O Const Art II §1c, GC 5625-1 (RC 5705.01) not being an act which is self-executing in providing for a tax levy is subject to the referendum and does not become effective until ninety days after it was filed in the office of the secretary of state.

3. Effective date; time for filing petitions

51 OS(2d) 149, 365 NE(2d) 876 (1977), State ex rel Riffe v Brown. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of 1977 S 125 took immediate effect because the law contained an appropriation item.

35 OS(2d) 23, 298 NE(2d) 590 (BTA 1973), Grabler Mfg Co v Kosydar. A statute which repeals an exception to a tax levy law is included within the meaning of "laws providing for tax levies" and becomes effective upon the date it is approved and signed by the governor pursuant to O Const Art II §1d.

172 OS 217, 174 NE(2d) 541 (1961), State ex rel Pincombe v State Teachers Retirement System Bd. Emergency laws as defined in O Const Art II §1d, go into immediate effect when signed by the governor.

136 OS 1, 22 NE(2d) 907 (1939), State ex rel Herbert v Mitchell. Filing referendum petition on a particular act postpones the effective date of such act.

136 OS 1, 22 NE(2d) 907 (1939), State ex rel Herbert v Mitchell. An appointment under an act on which a referendum petition is filed, thereby postponing the effective date of such act, is void.

127 OS 247, 187 NE 869 (1933), Heuck v State ex rel Mack. The prescribed ninety day period during which a referendum petition may be filed embraces ninety full days, and such time should be computed by excluding the date upon which the law was filed in the office of the secretary of state.

90 OS 345, 107 NE 760 (1914), State ex rel Donahey v Roose. O Const Art II §1c expressly provides for a referendum not only upon any law but any section of a law; all sections of a law not subject to the referendum provisions of this section go into immediate effect when approved and signed by the governor.

36 App(3d) 111, 521 NE(2d) 517 (Hamilton 1987), Roberts Development Corp v Harris. 1985 H 492, eff. 5-21-85, did not violate the one-subject rule of O Const Art II §15(D), nor did it violate the ninety-day waiting period requirement of O Const Art II §1c.

14 Abs 237, 38 LR 33 (App, Hamilton 1933), State ex rel Mack v Heuck; affirmed by 127 OS 247, 187 NE 869 (1933). An act passed by the general assembly becomes effective within the terms of O Const Art II §1c, after the expiration of ninety days from the date of passage, i.e., on the ninety-first day.

14 Abs 237, 38 LR 33 (App, Hamilton 1933), State ex rel Mack v Heuck; affirmed by 127 OS 247, 187 NE 869 (1933). Although the constitution is not modified by statute, a constitutional provision is to be construed according to the custom existing at the time of its adoption and embodied in the statute; hence, O Const Art II §1c, giving petitioners ninety days in which to file a petition for a referendum, is construed in the light of the custom expressed in GC 10216 (RC 1.14), by which the last day of such period should be excluded if it be Sunday.

1961 OAG 2615. Except for the two items expressly disapproved by the governor in his message of August 14, 1961, to the house of representatives, H 1121 of the 104th general assembly became a law on August 15, 1961, and will go into effect on November 14, 1961; and the two items of H 1121 so disapproved by the governor are void unless repassed.

1956 OAG 6306. The appropriation of $250,000 for the Guernsey-Salt Fork Watershed Development, 126 v 1156, became law following its repassage over the governor's veto at the end of the 90 day referendum period provided in O Const Art II §1c.

1939 OAG 451. This section, as amended, is a law providing for tax levy and therefore under the provisions of O Const Art II §1d, became effective upon approval by the governor, on March 25, 1939.

1927 OAG 605. Under the provisions of O Const Art II §1c, GC 5625-1 (RC 5705.01) not being an act which is self-executing in providing for a tax levy is subject to the referendum and does not become effective until ninety days after it was filed in the office of the secretary of state.

4. Petitions

51 OS(2d) 169, 365 NE(2d) 887 (1977), State ex rel Barren v Brown. Mandamus would lie to compel attorney general to certify that summary of legislation in referendum petition was a fair and truthful statement of the measures to be referred; whether the matters in the petition are subject to referendum is irrelevant to the attorney general's certification of the summary.

127 OS 169, 187 NE 241 (1933), State ex rel Patton v Myers. Under O Const Art II §1c, a single referendum petition may not be filed attacking two or more separate and distinct laws passed by the general assembly.

127 OS 95, 186 NE 872 (1933), State ex rel Patton v Myers. Under O Const Art II §1c, a single referendum petition may not be filed attacking two or more separate and distinct laws passed by the general assembly. (See also State ex rel Hubbell v Bettman, 124 OS 24, 176 NE 664 (1931).)

90 OS 311, 107 NE 1018 (1914), State ex rel Gongwer v Graves. The secretary of state, when acting as state supervisor of elections, has the authority to hear and determine the efficiency and validity of all petitions filed under him pursuant to O Const Art II §1c and his decision thereon is final, unless such decision has been fraudulently or corruptly made or procured, or unless he has been guilty of an abuse of discretion; where any circulators of parts of a petition have been guilty of fraud in procuring names, the secretary of state may reject all parts of the petition procured by such circulators.

16 Misc 127, 241 NE(2d) 177 (CP, Erie 1968), Sartor v Huron. The Ohio Constitution does not limit the number of times that initiative petitions can be filed calling for the repeal of the same legislative act.

O Const II § 1d Laws taking immediate effect not subject to referendum

Laws providing for tax levies, appropriations for the current expenses of the state government and state institutions, and emergency laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency laws upon a yea and nay vote must receive the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch of the general assembly, and the reasons for such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the law, which section shall be passed only upon a yea and nay vote, upon a separate roll call thereon. The laws mentioned in this section shall not be subject to the referendum.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: For comments on the initiative and referendum generally, see Commentary to §1, Article II. This section limits the right of referendum by providing that laws providing for tax levies, appropriations for current state expenses, and emergency laws, go into immediate effect and are not subject to a referendum under §1c, Article II. Note, however, that while this section and §1c cannot be used to prevent a tax levy, appropriation for current expenses, or emergency law from taking effect, the initiative and referendum under §1b, Article II appears to be available to propose a new law which overturns the law passed by the General Assembly. See State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt, 155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951) (involving a municipal ordinance).

3. Appropriations for current expenses
4. Emergency laws

1. In general

18 OS(2d) 59, 247 NE(2d) 310 (1969), State ex rel Brunthaver v Bauman. RC 731.30 is constitutional.

93 OS 79, 112 NE 209 (1915), State v Lathrop. Construing O Const Art II §1c with O Const Art II §16, insofar as both sections relate to the time from which an act of the general assembly shall operate, laws providing for tax levies, appropriations for current expenses of the state government and state institutions, and emergency laws, as defined in O Const Art II §1d, go into immediate effect when approved by the governor; all other acts go into effect ninety days after the same have been filed with the secretary of state, regardless of the date of approval by the governor.

36 App(2d) 87, 302 NE(2d) 895 (1973), Okey v Walton. RC 322.01 and 322.02, with the exception of the words "at least twelve months" in RC 322.01(A), are constitutionally valid.

113 App 50, 177 NE(2d) 289 (1960), State v Corn. The issue whether a statute prohibiting certain acts and prescribing a penalty for violation thereof was properly adopted as an emergency measure cannot be raised in a criminal prosecution for the violation of such statute.

78 App 194, 69 NE(2d) 634 (1946), State ex rel Snyder v Lucas County Bd of Elections; appeal dismissed by 146 OS 556, 67 NE(2d) 322 (1946). O Const Art II §1d applies only to acts of general assembly and places no limitation on referendum powers reserved to people of municipality; provisions of a city charter, which provide for a referendum on all ordinances, including one levying a tax passed as an emergency measure, do not violate O Const Art II §1d.

2. Laws providing for tax levies

35 OS(2d) 23, 298 NE(2d) 590 (BTA 1973), Grabler Mfg Co v Kosydar. A statute which repeals an exception to a tax levy law is included within the meaning of "laws providing for tax levies" and becomes effective upon the date it is approved and signed by the governor pursuant to O Const Art II §1d.

32 OS(2d) 1, 288 NE(2d) 819 (1972), State ex rel Schwartz v Brown. Although an initiative petition involves a constitutional amendment pertaining to taxable income, it does not thereby become a referendum of a special tax levy.

24 OS(2d) 147, 265 NE(2d) 273 (1970), State ex rel Bramblette v Yordy. Pursuant to O Const Art II §1d, a provision of a municipal charter that revenue raising ordinances are not subject to referendum is constitutional as applied to an ordinance levying a municipal income tax; and where such a charter provision exists, there is no duty on the part of municipal officers to certify such income tax ordinance to a board of elections for referendum vote.

108 OS 463, 141 NE 16 (1923), State ex rel Keller v Forney. The express language, "laws providing for tax levies," used in this section, is limited to an actual self-executing levy of taxes, and is not synonymous with laws "relating" to tax levies, or "pertaining" to tax levies, or "concerning" tax levies, or any agency or method provided for a tax levy by any local subdivision or authority.

90 OS 345, 107 NE 760 (1914), State ex rel Donahey v Roose. It is a valid and constitutional exercise of the authority of the general assembly to levy taxes for state purposes and it is not within the power of county budget commissioners to increase, diminish, or in any manner change the sum or sums levied by law for such purposes; O Const Art II §1d expressly exempts laws providing for tax levies from the referendum provisions of O Const Art II §1c.

90 OS 345, 107 NE 760 (1914), State ex rel Donahey v Roose. GC 6859-1 (Repealed), for a state highway levy, is a law providing for a tax levy, and by O Const Art II §1d, is exempt from the referendum provision of the constitution, and hence, went into effect at once. O Const Art II §1c, authorizing a referendum upon any part of a law appropriating money, leaves such parts as are not subject to referendum to go into effect at once.

80 Abs 439, 154 NE(2d) 30 (Prob, Hamilton 1958), In re Estate of Neff. The 1957 amendment to RC 5731.09 exempting successions to religious organizations came into effect ninety days after being filed with the secretary of state rather than immediately upon passage.

OAG 72-067. 1971 H 475, pertaining to an increase in the cigarette tax, became effective at 1:30 p.m. on December 20, 1971.

1961 OAG 2385. 129 v H 330 dealing with certain exemptions from the excise tax levied by RC 5739.02 is not a law providing for a tax levy within the purview of O Const Art II §1d; and said law goes into effect ninety days after the date on which it was filed by the governor in the office of the secretary of state.

1943 OAG 6207. GC 1345-4 (RC 4141.23 to 4141.26), as enacted in S 202, is a law levying a tax and, therefore, such section became effective immediately upon being signed by the governor; it is within the exception specified in O Const Art II §1d; remaining sections of the statute amended and enacted in such senate bill are not statutes levying tax and, therefore, do not become effective immediately since such act contained no emergency clause.

1933 OAG 1933. Legislation providing for tax levies on the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, which legislation repeals the Crabbe and Miller Acts in order to effectuate the imposition of such levies and which legislation provides the machinery for the administration of such a revenue law, may be so drawn as to go into immediate effect as a law providing for tax levies under O Const Art II §1d notwithstanding the fact that such law may not be passed as an emergency measure.

3. Appropriations for current expenses

51 OS(2d) 149, 365 NE(2d) 876 (1977), State ex rel Riffe v Brown. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of 1977 S 125 took immediate effect because the law contained an appropriation item.

112 OS 590, 148 NE 95 (1925), State ex rel Janes v Brown. The phrase "current expenses" as used in O Const Art §1d, in addition to including the expenses incident to the officering and maintaining of the state government, includes the expense of keeping in repair and maintaining the property of the state government and, as applied to roads, includes the maintaining and repairing thereof as distinguished from new construction.

1959 OAG 631. 128 v 1241 including the subsidy item therein to pay criminal cost bills to the counties entitled thereto by reason of being an appropriation for the current expenses of the state became effective as law on May 19, 1959, upon approval by the governor on that date.

4. Emergency laws

1 Ohio St Student Bar Assn L J 40 (January 1935). "And to Declare an Emergency," Comment.

172 OS 217, 174 NE(2d) 541 (1961), State ex rel Pincombe v State Teachers Retirement System Bd. Emergency laws as defined in O Const Art II §1d, go into immediate effect when signed by the governor.

169 OS 439, 160 NE(2d) 10 (1959), State ex rel McElroy v Baron. Where the emergency section of a law failed to receive a separate roll call in the senate, but no petition for a referendum was filed thereon, the law is not subject to attack by reason of the failure of the emergency section, and where, within the 90-day period during which no referendum petition was filed, a city and a county take action pursuant to the provisions of RC Ch 4582 such action is not invalid by reason of the fact that the emergency section of the law failed of passage, it appearing that such action was subsequently ratified.

132 OS 510, 9 NE(2d) 278 (1937), State ex rel Schorr v Kennedy. The provisions of O Const Art II §1d, confer upon the legislative branch of the government the duty and responsibility of determining the emergency character of a proposed law. If such emergency law, upon a yea and nay vote, receives the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch of the general assembly and the reasons for the immediate necessity therefor are set forth in one section of the law, and it is also passed upon a yea and nay vote upon a separate roll call, such law shall not be subject to referendum, but shall go into immediate effect.

102 OS 591, 133 NE 457 (1921), State ex rel Durbin v Smith. A court cannot go outside of the provisions of the act and the facts which it judicially knows for the purpose of ascertaining whether the legislature had valid reasons for declaring an emergency law; such is a legislative and not judicial policy.

92 OS 215, 110 NE 726 (1915), Miami County v Dayton. The judgment of the general assembly as to the emergency character of an act under the constitutional amendment of 1912 is not conclusive, and its judgment on that issue may be challenged in a proper proceeding at any time within the ninety-day period, either as to the constitutional vote or the emergency character of the act.

92 OS 215, 110 NE 726 (1915), Miami County v Dayton. An act of the general assembly, which purports to be an emergency act but which fails to receive the two-thirds majority in one branch of the general assembly, as required by the Ohio Constitution for an emergency act, becomes at the end of the ninety-day referendum period a valid act of the general assembly if otherwise constitutional.

105 App 285, 148 NE(2d) 83 (1957), In re Application of Braden. RC 4507.40 was not validly enacted as an emergency measure, since in the enactment of emergency laws the general assembly is subject to the mandatory requirement of O Const Art II §1d, that "the reasons for such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the law, which section shall be passed only . . . upon a separate roll call thereon."

26 App 265, 160 NE 241 (Cuyahoga 1927) State ex rel Hile v Cleveland. Where an ordinance was passed as an emergency measure in the manner provided for under the Ohio Constitution and no challenge was made to institute a referendum within the time allotted, such ordinance is effective immediately upon its passage and the question of its emergency character cannot be inquired into.

7 App 390, 29 CD 219 (Licking 1916), Newark v Richter. When an emergency ordinance fails to receive the requisite two-thirds council vote, it does not become effective as a general ordinance after having been filed for thirty days with the mayor, but remains without force.

24 Abs 696 (App, Mahoning 1937), Goodman v Youngstown. O Const Art II §1d specifies that the reason for emergency laws necessary for the immediate preservation of peace, health, or safety must be set forth in one section of the law; a municipal ordinance pertaining to junk dealers that does not set forth the reasons for its emergency character is invalid.

13 OO 186 (CP, Hamilton 1938), Schultz v Cincinnati. The Ohio Constitution, Ohio statutes, and the charter of Cincinnati require the city council to set forth the reasons for the necessity of declaring that an ordinance is an emergency measure; once done, a court has no right to inquire as to the sufficiency of these reasons.

22 NP(NS) 255, 29 D 594 (CP, Hamilton 1919), Kearney v Cincinnati. The emergency feature of an ordinance cannot be attacked after the referendum period has lapsed.

19 NP(NS) 305, 27 D 435 (CP, Cuyahoga 1916), Heald v Cleveland. A resolution by a city council, declaring the necessity of issuing bonds in excess of a permissible amount for the construction of a public auditorium, is not an emergency resolution pursuant to the Ohio Constitution.

1934 OAG 2309. When the legislature has added an emergency clause to a law and adopted it in the manner prescribed by the constitution, the question of whether or not there was a necessity for making such law an emergency is not subject to judicial review.

O Const II § 1e Non-uniform tax laws cannot be adopted by initiative and referendum

The powers defined herein as the "initiative" and "referendum" shall not be used to pass a law authorizing any classification of property for the purpose of levying different rates of taxation thereon or of authorizing the levy of any single tax on land or land values or land sites at a higher rate or by a different rule than is or may be applied to improvements thereon or to personal property.

HISTORY: 1912 constitutional convention, adopted eff. 10-1-12

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section prohibits using the initiative and referendum to adopt laws providing for non-uniform taxation, either by means of property classifications for levying taxes at different rates, or by taxing land, improvements on land, and personal property at different rates. Note that the section applies to laws and not constitutional provisions; it does not prohibit using the initiative and referendum under §1a, Article II to propose constitutional amendments which provide for non-uniform taxation. Thrailkill v Smith, 106 OS 1, 138 NE 532 (1922). See §2 and 2a, Article XII, which provide for a homestead exemption for the elderly and for disabled persons, and for classification of property for taxation.

106 OS 1, 138 NE 532 (1922), Thrailkill v Smith. O Const Art II §1e was intended for purposes of emphasis, thus placing an additional injunction upon the people in that behalf and not resting merely upon the provisions written into the constitution.

106 OS 1, 138 NE 532 (1922), Thrailkill v Smith. This section does not forbid the employment of the initiative in proposing an amendment to the constitution which authorizes legislation providing for classification of property for the purpose of levying different rates of taxation thereon.

63 App(2d) 125, 409 NE(2d) 1044 (Franklin 1979), State ex rel Durell v Celebrezze. Where a petition is only before the general assembly and is somehow defective pursuant to O Const Art II §1e it is premature for any court to act thereon where the alleged infirmity can be corrected prior to any submission of the proposal to the electorate for passage.

63 App(2d) 125, 409 NE(2d) 1044 (Franklin 1979), State ex rel Durell v Celebrezze. Where the attorney general of Ohio determines that the summary of a second initiative petition qualifies for certification to the secretary of state under RC 3519.01 and submits such with a copy of the signatures obtained on the first petition, procedural error by the attorney general in so doing does not affect the validity of part-petitions which are thereafter circulated and filed with the secretary of state in reliance upon the attorney general's certification.

O Const II § 1f Initiative and referendum in municipalities

The initiative and referendum powers are hereby reserved to the people of each municipality on all questions which such municipalities may now or hereafter be authorized by law to control by legislative action; such powers shall be exercised in the manner now or hereafter provided by law.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: For comments on the initiative and referendum generally, see Commentary to §1, Article II. This section extends the right of initiative and referendum to the electorates of municipalities, as to all municipal questions. For other provisions on municipal referenda, see §2, 5, 8, and 9, Article XVIII.

28 Case WR L Rev 42 (Fall 1977). Eastlake and Arlington Heights: New Hurdles in Regulating Urban Land Use, L. Lynn Hogue.

140 OS 368, 44 NE(2d) 459 (1942), State ex rel Middletown v Middletown City Comm. Provisions of Ohio Constitution authorizing and providing manner of submission of municipal ordinances to referendum vote should be so construed as to permit rather than preclude exercise of right conferred; object clearly sought to be attained by such provisions should be promoted rather than prevented or obstructed.

138 OS 203, 34 NE(2d) 219 (1941), State ex rel Strain v Houston. Under state constitution all legislative power of the people is granted to the legislature, subject to initiative and referendum, unless such legislative power is expressly or by clear implication granted to municipalities or other governmental subdivisions as arms of the state government.

116 OS 469, 157 NE 318 (1927), State ex rel Smith v Fremont; overruled by 155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951), State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt. An ordinance of a municipality passed as an emergency measure by a two-thirds vote of the council is not subject to a referendum, nor may it be nullified by an ordinance proposed by an initiative petition before the adoption of the emergency ordinance by council and the subsequent adoption by popular vote of the initiated ordinance.

62 App(3d) 498, 576 NE(2d) 814 (Montgomery 1990), State ex rel Emrick v Wasson. A provision of a municipal ordinance that "this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Germantown, and for the reason that immediate action is required . . . and shall take effect immediately upon its passage . . ." is ineffective to constitute an emergency measure when the city council in passing the ordinance has not followed the provisions of its city charter and announced in clear and specific terms the nature of the emergency and the necessity of the action taken.

14 App 398 (Lawrence 1921), Ohio Valley Electric Railway Co v Hagerty. The power of a minority of the electors to force proposed legislation to a referendum includes the power to suspend the legislation until the next regular election once all referendum provisions have been met; the provision requiring that each part of a municipal referendum contains an affidavit as to the signer's knowledge of the contents therein is mandatory.

7 App 390, 29 CD 219 (Licking 1916), Newark v Richter. When an emergency ordinance fails to receive the requisite two-thirds council vote, it does not become effective as a general ordinance after having been filed for thirty days with the mayor, but remains without force.

389 NE(2d) 1141 (App, Summit 1979), State ex rel Brannan v Summit County Bd of Elections. A board of elections has no duty to place on the ballot a proposed zoning amendment adopted pursuant to an invalid ordinance.

2. Initiative

53 Cin L Rev 541 (1984). The Current Use of the Initiative and Referendum in Ohio and Other States, Comment.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. The provisions of RC 731.28 and 731.32 relative to the filing of an initiative petition with the city auditor or village clerk and to the certification of the ordinance or measure by such auditor or clerk to the board of elections do not apply to an initiative petition to amend a city charter, filed pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §9.

155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951), State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt. Where an ordinance relating to parking spaces and the installation and use of parking meters in connection therewith is passed by a municipal council, even though enacted as an emergency measure effective immediately and thereby not subject to the referendum, the electors of the municipality may initiate an ordinance for the repeal of such legislation, and where the initiative petition prepared and formulated for such purpose is in conformity with the provisions GC 4227-1 (RC 731.28) and is duly filed with the city auditor, that official is under the mandatory duty to certify such petition to the board of elections.

103 OS 286, 133 NE 556 (1921), Cincinnati v Hillenbrand. O Const Art II §1f especially reserves to the people of each municipality the initiative and referendum power on all questions which municipalities are authorized to control by legislative action and provides "such powers shall be exercised in the manner now or hereafter provided by law"; GC 4227-1 to 4227-12A (RC 731.28 to 731.41) prescribe the manner in which such powers shall be exercised.

90 OS 311, 107 NE 1018 (1914), State ex rel Gongwer v Graves. An affidavit intentionally and knowingly false, attached to any part of a petition, is not in compliance with the provisions of O Const Art II §1g, and that part which is false must be rejected entirely as well as the part it is attached to, regardless of whether it contains genuine names or not.

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. A so-called "initiative petition" which does not propose any text of any ordinance or other measure and proposes no enactment, but merely seeks to have a municipal council embark on a course of conduct and contains no detail or direction as to how the proposed conduct should be undertaken or form which could be construed as legislation, is ineffective and does not constitute any "question" proposed by such "petition."

25 Misc 13, 265 NE(2d) 803 (CP, Butler 1968), State ex rel Samuelson v Conrad; affirmed by Court of Appeals; appeal dismissed by Ohio Supreme Court. Two separate amendments to municipal charter may be submitted by single initiative proceeding.

60 Abs 555, 102 NE(2d) 481 (App, Cuyahoga 1951), Geiger v Kobie; appeal dismissed by 156 OS 189, 101 NE(2d) 501 (1951). The question of a municipal corporation determining to dispose of its light plant being a legislative matter, the right to initiate an ordinance authorizing the city to enter into a contract for such purpose is provided for by O Const Art II §1f and GC 4227-1 (RC 731.28).

1963 OAG 107. The village council of Sebring cannot, by passage of resolution, place the issue of fluoridation of drinking water on the ballot.

3. Referendum

53 Cin L Rev 541 (1984). The Current Use of the Initiative and Referendum in Ohio and Other States, Comment.

24 Clev St L Rev 635 (1975). Forest City Enterprises, Inc. v City of Eastlake: Zoning Referenda and Exclusionary Zoning, Note.

41 OS(2d) 187, 324 NE(2d) 740 (1975), Forest City Enterprises, Inc v Eastlake; reversed by 426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976); overruled by 48 OS(2d) 47, 356 NE(2d) 499 (1976). A municipal charter provision which requires that any ordinance changing land use be ratified by the voters in a city-wide election constitutes an unlawful delegation of legislative power in violation of US Const Am 14 Due Process Clause.

24 OS(2d) 147, 265 NE(2d) 273 (1970), State ex rel Bramblette v Yordy. Provision of charter of municipal corporation that ordinances providing "for raising revenue ... shall not be subject to referendum" is constitutional as applied to ordinance levying municipal income tax, and where such charter provision exists, there is no duty on part of municipal officers to certify such income tax ordinance to board of elections for referendum vote.

170 OS 1, 161 NE(2d) 488 (1959), State ex rel Mika v Lemon. Where a city does not have charter provisions fixing its own methods of initiative and referendum, a referendum petition may be filed as to an ordinance of measure, passed by the council of such city, within 30 days from the presentation of such ordinance to the mayor of the city.

164 OS 247, 129 NE(2d) 809 (1955), Dubyak v Kovach. RC 731.29 provides the sole method by which a referendum petition may be filed in a municipality without its own initiative and referendum provisions, and requires that a referendum petition be filed upon any ordinance or any measure passed by a city council within 30 days from the presentation of such ordinance or other measure to the mayor of the city and makes no provision for a later filing, even though the measure is vetoed by the mayor and passed over his veto.

103 OS 286, 133 NE 556 (1921), Cincinnati v Hillenbrand. O Const Art II §1f especially reserves to the people of each municipality the initiative and referendum power on all questions which municipalities are authorized to control by legislative action and provides "such powers shall be exercised in the manner now or hereafter provided by law"; GC 4227-1 to 4227-12A (RC 731.28 to 731.41) prescribe the manner in which such powers shall be exercised.

92 OS 375, 110 NE 937 (1915), Shryock v Zanesville. O Const Art II §1f grants to municipal legislative bodies the same power (but subject to the same limitations) of exempting certain classes of laws from the operation of the referendum; the referendum powers reserved to the people of municipalities is that power as defined and limited by the Ohio Constitution.

13 App(3d) 405, 13 OBR 491, 469 NE(2d) 533 (Cuyahoga 1983), State ex rel Kleem v Kafer. Where several ordinances are required to make and pay for a public improvement, RC 731.30 provides that the referendum procedure may be used only to challenge the first ordinance dealing with the improvement and not subsequent ones.

13 App(3d) 405, 13 OBR 491, 469 NE(2d) 533 (Cuyahoga 1983), State ex rel Kleem v Kafer. O Const Art II §1f and case law provide that only those activities of municipal governments which cities are authorized to control by legislative action are subject to referendum.

59 App(2d) 175, 392 NE(2d) 1302 (Summit 1978), State ex rel Watkins v Quirk. The fact that a referendum part petition has been circulated by a nonresident of the municipality does not invalidate that part petition.

13 App(2d) 46, 233 NE(2d) 600 (1967), Korn v Dunahue. No referendum is necessary to the validity of an ordinance for the sale of a municipally owned utility; any referendum that is held thereon is governed by the general provisions of O Const Art II §1f, and by RC 731.29; it is not subject to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §4, 5 and 8, which pertain to the purchase of a utility.

110 App 535, 164 NE(2d) 180 (Cuyahoga 1960), Hilltop Realty, Inc v South Euclid; appeal dismissed by 170 OS 585, 166 NE(2d) 924 (1960). An amended ordinance to reclassify land from a single-family use to a multi-family use is subject to a referendum; an ordinance amending a comprehensive ordinance is as clearly subject to a referendum as is the original ordinance.

110 App 535, 164 NE(2d) 180 (Cuyahoga 1960), Hilltop Realty, Inc v South Euclid; appeal dismissed by 170 OS 585, 166 NE(2d) 924 (1960). A zoning ordinance passed by the council of a municipal corporation that amends a comprehensive zoning ordinance is subject to referendum.

26 App 265, 160 NE 241 (Cuyahoga 1927) State ex rel Hile v Cleveland. Where an ordinance was passed as an emergency measure in the manner provided for under the Ohio Constitution and no challenge was made to institute a referendum within the time allotted, such ordinance is effective immediately upon its passage and the question of its emergency character cannot be inquired into.

14 App 398 (Lawrence 1921), Ohio Valley Electric Railway Co v Hagerty. The power of a minority of the electors to force proposed legislation to a referendum includes the power to suspend the legislation until the next regular election once all referendum provisions have been met; the provision requiring that each part of a municipal referendum contains an affidavit as to the signer's knowledge of the contents therein is mandatory.

30 Misc 49, 284 NE(2d) 210 (CP, Medina 1972), Tamele v Brinkman. It is contrary to the provisions of 709.10 and O Const Art II §1f, for municipality to preclude referendum vote on ordinance accepting annexation of territory to municipal corporation for the reason that said ordinance has been declared an emergency ordinance necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health or safety.

12 OO(3d) 194 (App, Allen 1979), State ex rel Lima v Hauenstein. There is no clear legal duty on a board of elections to submit a city referendum to the electors of that city unless the language of the ballot title is clear and concise.

426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976), Eastlake v Forest City Enterprises. City charter provision requiring voter approval in referendum for any changes in land use agreed to by city council is valid.

782 F(2d) 565 (6th Cir Ohio 1986), Arthur v Toledo. Where a city agrees by contract with a housing authority to provide sewers for subsidized single-family homes, and where the city council passes an ordinance to build the sewers only after HUD threatens to withhold tax money, a popular referendum by which the voters repeal the ordinance is not a breach of the city's agreement; a city cannot bind itself by contract to pass future legislation.

782 F(2d) 565 (6th Cir Ohio 1986), Arthur v Toledo. A claim that municipal voters discriminated illegally by overwhelmingly repealing a council ordinance assisting construction of taxpayer-subsidized single-family homes cannot be based on evidence that discrimination was the voters' motivation, unless the referendum discriminates on its face or had discrimination as its "only possible" goal; where other reasons such as expense and drainage problems may explain the voters' action, their "intent to discriminate" is unproven.

782 F(2d) 565 (6th Cir Ohio 1986), Arthur v Toledo. Unless highly unusual circumstances are shown, discriminatory effects of a popular referendum cannot establish a violation by the electorate of the Fair Housing Act, 42 USC 3601 et seq.

1963 OAG 408. There is no provision under which a referendum vote may be compelled on the subject of a fire regulation adopted by a board of township trustees under authority of RC 505.37.

4. Legislative action

41 OS(2d) 187, 324 NE(2d) 740 (1975), Forest City Enterprises, Inc v Eastlake; reversed by 426 US 668, 96 SCt 2358, 49 LEd(2d) 132 (1976); overruled by 48 OS(2d) 47, 356 NE(2d) 499 (1976). Under O Const Art II §1f, municipal referendum powers are limited to questions which municipalities are "authorized by law to control by legislative action."

27 OS(2d) 11, 271 NE(2d) 864 (1971), Myers v Schiering. Under O Const Art II §1f, municipal referendum powers are limited to questions which municipalities are "authorized by law to control by legislative action," so that the passage by a city council of a resolution granting a permit for the operation of a sanitary landfill, pursuant to an existing zoning regulation, is not subject to referendum proceedings because it constitutes administrative action.

12 OS(2d) 4, 230 NE(2d) 347 (1967), State ex rel Rhodes v Bd of Elections. A board of elections cannot be compelled to place on the ballot an initiative petition which does not contain any question which a municipality is authorized by law to control by legislative action.

155 OS 529, 99 NE(2d) 659 (1951), State ex rel Sharpe v Hitt. An ordinance passed by the council of an Ohio non charter municipality designating parking spaces for vehicles with the installation and use of mechanical parking meters in connection with such spaces is a legislative measure subject to the initiative and referendum within the contemplation of O Const Art II §1f.

110 App 535, 164 NE(2d) 180 (Cuyahoga 1960), Hilltop Realty, Inc v South Euclid; appeal dismissed by 170 OS 585, 166 NE(2d) 924 (1960). Amendment by a municipal council of a comprehensive zoning ordinance, changing a use-classification from single-family to multi-family, is a legislative act and is subject to referendum.

21 App 465, 153 NE 217 (1926), Goodman v Hamilton. Municipal ordinance initiated by petition authorizing and directing city officer to enter into contract with company to supply gas to city is a legislative act, and hence valid under O Const Art II §1f, reserving to municipalities right of initiative on questions that council may control by legislative action, and GC 4206 et seq. (RC 731.01), GC 4227-1 (RC 731.28), notwithstanding O Const Art XVIII §5, which is a mere limitation upon city council.

31 Misc 203, 281 NE(2d) 209 (CP, Cuyahoga 1971), State ex rel Barberis v Bay Village. In a chartered municipality, an administrative act of city council is not subject to referendum unless its city charter specifically reserves this right for the electorate.

5. Implementing legislation

117 OS 258, 158 NE 606 (1927), Dillon v Cleveland. O Const Art II §1f, has particular and exclusive reference to a municipal referendum, and is not self-executing, but imposes on the legislature the duty of providing its modus operandi, which duty has been performed by the enactment of GC 4227-1 to 4227-13 (RC 731.28 et seq.).

81 App 294, 79 NE(2d) 183 (1946), State ex rel Toledo v Lucas County Bd of Elections. Under O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7, and Art II §1f, a municipality may, by charter, provide when a referendum election shall be held upon an ordinance on which a vote has been duly demanded.

31 Misc 203, 281 NE(2d) 209 (CP, Cuyahoga 1971), State ex rel Barberis v Bay Village. In a chartered municipality, an administrative act of city council is not subject to referendum unless its city charter specifically reserves this right for the electorate.

25 Misc 13, 265 NE(2d) 803 (CP, Butler 1968), State ex rel Samuelson v Conrad; affirmed by Court of Appeals; appeal dismissed by Ohio Supreme Court. Claimed unconstitutionality of charter amendment proposed by initiative petition is not proper ground for village council to refuse to submit issue to electors, where invalidity of proposal is not unquestionable on its face.

6. Procedures

48 OS(2d) 29, 356 NE(2d) 716 (1976), State ex rel Evergreen Co v Franklin County Bd of Elections. Referendum petitions were invalid where the statement of the notary public thereon recited only that the petition was acknowledged, even though the circulator's affidavit asserted he was duly sworn.

170 OS 1, 161 NE(2d) 488 (1959), State ex rel Mika v Lemon. Where a city does not have charter provisions fixing its own methods of initiative and referendum, a referendum petition may be filed as to an ordinance of measure, passed by the council of such city, within 30 days from the presentation of such ordinance to the mayor of the city.

165 OS 564, 138 NE(2d) 302 (1956), State ex rel Conn v Noble. Where the charter of a municipality provides for a time beginning the period within which referendum petitions upon an ordinance must be filed, a court may not, by construction, substitute a different time merely to facilitate the filing of such a petition.

165 OS 495, 137 NE(2d) 749 (1956), State ex rel Lautz v Diefenbach. Where a city charter provides that the city council shall fix the compensation of all city employees, an ordinance fixing the working hours and compensation of the division of police is not properly submissible under initiative and referendum provisions.

66 App(3d) 286 (Erie 1990), State ex rel Citizens for a Responsive Government Committee v Widman. A writ of mandamus will not be issued to compel a city commission or its members to place an initiative petition which seeks a change in the form of municipal government on the next election ballot since as the petition alters only one out of eighty-five sections of the charter, it seeks to "amend" the charter and not to "abolish" it; therefore, RC 731.28 does not control and it has to be submitted to legislative authority for a determination of its validity pursuant to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9; the submission of a petition is not rendered unnecessary regardless of the number of voter's signatures on it, nor are amendments to charters seeking a change in the form of government guaranteed placement on the ballot by O Const Art I §2 and Art II §1f.

54 App(2d) 107, 375 NE(2d) 811 (1977), Walsh v Cincinnati City Council. A city council has no authority to declare an ordinance to be an emergency measure for reasons which are obviously illusory or tautological, and where an ordinance is passed as an emergency measure and, considering all the facts and circumstances, it is not to be effective within a reasonable time, it is invalid.

13 App(2d) 46, 233 NE(2d) 600 (1967), Korn v Dunahue. Where a referendum election has not been challenged directly by an election contest, its validity may not be collaterally attacked.

O Const II § 1g Requirements for initiative and referendum petitions

Any initiative, supplementary, or referendum petition may be presented in separate parts but each part shall contain a full and correct copy of the title, and text of the law, section or item thereof sought to be referred, or the proposed law or proposed amendment to the constitution. Each signer of any initiative, supplementary, or referendum petition must be an elector of the state and shall place on such petition after his name the date of signing and his place of residence. A signer residing outside of a municipality shall state the county and the rural route number, post office address, or township of his residence. A resident of a municipality shall state the street and number, if any, of his residence and the name of the municipality or the post office address. The names of all signers to such petitions shall be written in ink, each signer for himself. To each part of such petition shall be attached the statement of the circulator, as may be required by law, that he witnessed the affixing of every signature. The petition and signatures upon such petitions shall be presumed to be in all respects sufficient, unless not later than forty days before the election, it shall be otherwise proved and in such event ten additional days shall be allowed for the filing of additional signatures to such petition. No law or amendment to the constitution submitted to the electors by initiative and supplementary petition and receiving an affirmative majority of the votes cast thereon, shall be held unconstitutional or void on account of the insufficiency of the petitions by which such submission of the same was procured; nor shall the rejection of any law submitted by referendum petition be held invalid for such insufficiency. Upon all initiative, supplementary, and referendum petitions provided for in any of the sections of this article, it shall be necessary to file from each of one-half of the counties of the state, petitions bearing the signatures of not less than one-half of the designated percentage of the electors of such county. A true copy of all laws or proposed laws or proposed amendments to the constitution, together with an argument or explanation, or both, for, and also an argument or explanation, or both, against the same, shall be prepared. The person or persons who prepare the argument or explanation, or both, against any law, section, or item, submitted to the electors by referendum petition, may be named in such petition and the persons who prepare the argument or explanation, or both, for any proposed law or proposed amendment to the constitution may be named in the petition proposing the same. The person or persons who prepare the argument or explanation, or both, for the law, section, or item, submitted to the electors by referendum petition, or against any proposed law submitted by supplementary petition, shall be named by the general assembly, if in session, and if not in session then by the governor. The law, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution, together with the arguments and explanations, not exceeding a total of three hundred words for each, and also the arguments and explanations, not exceeding a total of three hundred words against each, shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks preceding the election, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county of the state, where a newspaper is published. The secretary of state shall cause to be placed upon the ballots, the ballot language for any such law, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution, to be submitted. The ballot language shall be prescribed by the Ohio ballot board in the same manner, and subject to the same terms and conditions, as apply to issues submitted by the general assembly pursuant to Section 1 of Article XVI of this constitution. The ballot language shall be so prescribed and the secretary of state shall cause the ballots so to be printed as to permit an affirmative or negative vote upon each law, section of law, or item in a law appropriating money, or proposed law, or proposed amendment to the constitution. The style of all laws submitted by initiative and supplementary petition shall be: "Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Ohio," and of all constitutional amendments: "Be it Resolved by the People of the State of Ohio." The basis upon which the required number of petitioners in any case shall be determined shall be the total number of votes cast for the office of governor at the last preceding election therefor. The foregoing provisions of this section shall be self-executing, except as herein otherwise provided. Laws may be passed to facilitate their operation, but in no way limiting or restricting either such provisions or the powers herein reserved.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: For comments on the initiative and referendum generally, see Commentary to §1, Article II. This section specifies in considerable detail the requirements for petitions to invoke the initiative and referendum under §1a to 1c, Article II, plus requirements for ballot language, preparing arguments pro and con, and related matters. Additional provisions on the exercise of the initiative and referendum generally are contained in RC Ch 3519 and, as to municipal questions, in RC 731.28 to 731.42.

1. In general

49 OS(3d) 102, 551 NE(2d) 150 (1990), In re Protest Filed with the Franklin County Elections Bd by Citizens for the Merit Selection of Judges, Inc on Behalf of Issue III, Merit Selection of Judges. The requirement of RC 3519.10 that a signer of an initiative petition place the address of the signer's voting residence on the petition is not in conflict with O Const Art II §1g.

63 OS(2d) 326, 410 NE(2d) 1249 (1980), State ex rel Carter v Celebrezze. Where two sets of part-petitions, proposing the same constitutional amendment, arise from the fact that one set omits part of the unaffected language of the provision, the two sets cannot be considered as one in order to meet the signature requirements.

136 OS 1, 22 NE(2d) 907 (1939), State ex rel Herbert v Mitchell. O Const Art II §1g expressly provides that all petitions and parts of petitions verified by proper affidavit shall be presumed to be sufficient unless proven to be otherwise.

106 OS 1, 138 NE 532 (1922), Thrailkill v Smith. A petition will not fail under O Const Art II §1g, which in part requires signatures in ink, if in fact the signatures are in indelible pencil; O Const Art II §1g also states that no law or amendment shall be found unconstitutional on account of the insufficiency of the petition.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. The constitutional provision provided in O Const Art II §1g cannot be lightly set aside in the performance of administrative duties, however innocently done.

97 OS 325, 120 NE 140 (1917), State ex rel Vail v Fulton. A mandamus petition challenging a petition under O Const Art II §1g is dismissed where the petition is not filed until the day before the last day allotted (the thirty-ninth day) and the issue is not joined and the course is not submitted to the court until the forty-day period expires.

120 App 338, 195 NE(2d) 371 (1963), State ex rel Beckstedt v Eyrich. A so-called "initiative petition" which does not propose any text of any ordinance or other measure and proposes no enactment, but merely seeks to have a municipal council embark on a course of conduct and contains no detail or direction as to how the proposed conduct should be undertaken or form which could be construed as legislation, is ineffective and does not constitute any "question" proposed by such "petition."

25 Misc 13, 265 NE(2d) 803 (CP, Butler 1968), State ex rel Samuelson v Conrad; affirmed by Court of Appeals; appeal dismissed by Ohio Supreme Court. Mandamus is available to require legislative authority of municipal corporation to enact an ordinance necessary for submission to electors of proposed charter amendment, where initiative petition is in conformity to statutory requirements and there is no sufficient showing of unconstitutionality to warrant injunction against such legislative action.

25 Misc 13, 265 NE(2d) 803 (CP, Butler 1968), State ex rel Samuelson v Conrad; affirmed by Court of Appeals; appeal dismissed by Ohio Supreme Court. Two separate amendments to municipal charter may be submitted by single initiative proceeding.

19 Misc 67, 250 NE(2d) 106 (CP, Trumbull 1968), Markus v Trumbull County Bd of Elections; affirmed by 22 OS(2d) 197, 259 NE(2d) 501 (1970). A board of elections will be permanently enjoined from placing on the ballot a referendum to a township zoning amendment where the petitions contained neither a copy nor summary of the proposed change, the circulator of the petitions did not state in his affidavit that each signer had knowledge of the proposed amendment, and the ballot contained no statement that only a portion of the landowners property was to be rezoned or that a buffer strip would be constructed between the adjacent zones.

18 NP(NS) 140, 26 D 11 (CP, Cuyahoga 1915), In re Referendum Petition. It is an absolute requirement that the signature of a referendum petition signer be his own, but the date and residence may be filled in by another; the date of signing and residence must be present and if they are not definitely ascertained, the petition is objectionable.

18 NP(NS) 140, 26 D 11 (CP, Cuyahoga 1915), In re Referendum Petition. The constitutional provision that the names of all signers of referendum petitions shall be in ink also includes the use of an indelible pencil.

1939 OAG 1203. When a petition is filed with the secretary of state within ninety days after any law has been filed by the governor, it is the duty of the secretary of state to ascertain whether or not such petition contains the required number of signatures valid on the form thereof.

2. Administrative procedures

58 OS(2d) 395, 390 NE(2d) 829 (1979), Cappelletti v Celebrezze. Secretary of state, upon receipt of initiative petitions containing signatures of more than three percent of voters, properly submitted part-petitions to county board of elections for verification of signatures.

40 OS(2d) 42, 319 NE(2d) 361 (1974), State ex rel Home Federal Savings & Loan Assn v Moser; vacated by 40 OS(2d) 94, 320 NE(2d) 672 (1974). Protest with respect to referendum petition submitted to board of elections thirty-two days before election was too late.

32 OS(2d) 4, 288 NE(2d) 821 (1972), State ex rel Schwartz v Brown. By the terms of O Const Art II §1g, any claim as to a legal deficiency in the initiative petition, including any claim that the "summary" contained therein is in conflict with the text, must be made more than forty days before the election at which such proposal is to be voted on by the electorate.

31 OS(2d) 188, 287 NE(2d) 630 (1972), State ex rel Tulley v Brown. There is no duty on the part of the secretary of state to transmit improperly verified part-petitions to boards of elections, and prohibition will not lie to prevent the boards from determining the validity of signatures of part-petitions.

136 OS 1, 22 NE(2d) 907 (1939), State ex rel Herbert v Mitchell. Secretary of state has authority to reject part of petition not verified as required by O Const Art II §1g.

127 OS 171, 187 NE 301 (1933), State ex rel Ilg v Myers. The preceding election referred to is the election immediately preceding the filing of the petition. The fact that another gubernatorial election intervenes at which time additional signatures were still being procured for filing in accordance with an order of the secretary of state does not require a recalculation by the secretary of state based on the vote cast in such election held subsequent to the filing of the petition.

127 OS 95, 186 NE 872 (1933), State ex rel Patton v Myers. Under O Const Art II §1g, a signer of any initiative, supplementary or referendum petition must personally sign his own name to such petition in ink, but some other person, under the authority and direction of the signer, may write on the petition, after the signer's name, the date of signing and the signer's place of residence, as required by that section.

108 OS 454, 141 NE 69 (1923), State ex rel McCrehen v Brown. After the decision of State ex rel Gongwer v Graves, 90 OS 311, 107 NE 1018 in 1914, the legislature, in 1915, repealed GC 5175-29j, GC 5175-29l and amended GC 5175-29i (Repealed), since which time the secretary of state has been without power to determine the sufficiency of a referendum petition or of any of its parts at the time such petition is filed with him, and a writ of prohibition accordingly lies to restrain him from exercising such jurisdiction.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. When a petition is signed and prepared in accordance with the constitutional requirements and has been filed with the secretary of state, he is required to submit to the electors the exact proposal as set forth in the petition and there is no authority for the submission of any different one.

93 OS 1, 112 NE 138 (1915), State ex rel Hunt v Hildebrant; affirmed sub nom Ohio ex rel Davis v Hildebrant, 241 US 565, 36 SCt 708, 60 LEd 1172 (1916). O Const Art II §1g, ordering the secretary of state to print and disseminate an argument against any proposed amendment, and that this section "shall be self-executing," binds all courts and officers, and the secretary of state has no right to declare it not self-executing. He must obey it, though no law specifies how to select persons to prepare such agreement. GC 5018-1 (Repealed) for the distribution of publicity pamphlets does not facilitate the carrying out of the above constitutional requirement.

29 App(2d) 133, 279 NE(2d) 624 (1971), Durell v Brown. If there are sufficient presumptively valid signatures in an initiative petition meeting the requirements of O Const Art II §1, there is an absolute duty on the secretary of state to certify the petition to the general assembly irrespective of whether it can be proved that in some way some or all of the signatures contained in the initiative petition are invalid.

OAG 72-082. The filing of additional signatures, after an initial finding and notification of insufficient signatures by the secretary of state, does not cause the postponement of the issue to a later election.

OAG 72-082. As a matter of practice, the secretary of state may find, and give notice of insufficient signatures on an original petition, proposing a constitutional amendment under O Const Art II §1a and 1g, at any time reports from the counties are received by him and he is able to determine the insufficiency, but in no event may he make a general finding of insufficiency later than the fortieth day prior to the election, at which the issue is to appear on the ballot.

1927 OAG 1073. It is the mandatory duty of the secretary of state to obey this constitutional command regardless of the fact that neither the constitution nor the laws of the state specifically provide in detail the manner and method of so doing.

3. Judicial remedies

52 OS(2d) 13, 368 NE(2d) 838 (1977), State ex rel Williams v Brown. Neither mandamus nor prohibition will lie to prevent the secretary of state from placing an initiative measure on the ballot on the basis of alleged errors in the ballot where such errors do not lead to misleading, deceiving, or defrauding the voters.

52 OS(2d) 7, 368 NE(2d) 837 (1977), State ex rel Glass v Brown. Prohibition will not lie to prohibit the secretary of state from placing a proposed constitutional amendment on the ballot.

48 OS(2d) 17, 356 NE(2d) 296 (1976), State ex rel O'Grady v Brown. The placing of issues on ballots and tabulating the votes cast thereon do not constitute the exercise of quasi-judicial power by the secretary of state, and therefore prohibition will not lie to prevent such action.

31 OS(2d) 188, 287 NE(2d) 630 (1972), State ex rel Tulley v Brown. There is no duty on the part of the secretary of state to transmit improperly verified part-petitions to boards of elections, and prohibition will not lie to prevent the boards from determining the validity of signatures of part-petitions.

29 OS(2d) 235, 281 NE(2d) 187 (1972), State ex rel Tulley v Brown. Where attorney general has advised proponents of constitutional amendment that he finds the summary of proposed amendment to be sufficient, mandamus will lie to compel attorney general so to certify it.

138 OS 574, 37 NE(2d) 584 (1941), Bigelow v Brumley. Whether persons officially appointed by governor or general assembly, under O Const Art II §1g, and GC 4785-180a (RC 3519.03) and GC 4785-180b (RC 3519.19), to prepare official argument to be distributed by secretary of state to electors of state, in opposition to proposed "Bigelow Amendments" to Ohio Constitution, be absolutely privileged against liability for defamation for statement made in argument, and pertinent to occasion of privilege, that sponsor of proposed amendments was "paid lobbyist for Single Tax Movement," such absolute privilege does not extend to person who enjoys no such official capacity, but is only alleged to have conspired with official appointees to defame plaintiff by combining with official appointees in preparation of argument published over names of appointees.

108 OS 454, 141 NE 69 (1923), State ex rel McCrehen v Brown. After the decision of State ex rel Gongwer v Graves, 90 OS 311, 107 NE 1018 in 1914, the legislature, in 1915, repealed GC 5175-29j, GC 5175-29l and amended GC 5175-29i (Repealed), since which time the secretary of state has been without power to determine the sufficiency of a referendum petition or of any of its parts at the time such petition is filed with him, and a writ of prohibition accordingly lies to restrain him from exercising such jurisdiction.

97 OS 325, 120 NE 140 (1917), State ex rel Vail v Fulton. A mandamus petition challenging a petition under O Const Art II §1g is dismissed where the petition is not filed until the day before the last day allotted (the thirty-ninth day) and the issue is not joined and the course is not submitted to the court until the forty-day period expires.

4. Contents of petitions

63 OS(2d) 326, 410 NE(2d) 1249 (1980), State ex rel Carter v Celebrezze. Where two sets of part-petitions, proposing the same constitutional amendment, arise from the fact that one set omits part of the unaffected language of the provision, the two sets cannot be considered as one in order to meet the signature requirements.

63 OS(2d) 326, 410 NE(2d) 1249 (1980), State ex rel Carter v Celebrezze. If no initiative petition bearing the requisite number of electors' signatures is presented, the secretary of state has no duty to forward the petition to the county boards of election.

63 OS(2d) 326, 410 NE(2d) 1249 (1980), State ex rel Carter v Celebrezze. Initiative petitions for constitutional amendment rejected where one sentence of existing language was inadvertently omitted from the text of the proposed amendment which accompanied some of the petitions.

terms of a proposed constitutional amendment are determined by reference to the text of such proposal as contained on the initiative petition and part-petitions signed by the requisite number of electors; and any discrepancy between such text and the text of the preliminary petition submitted to the attorney general and filed with the secretary of state, under RC 3519.01, does not affect the duty of the secretary of state, prescribed in O Const Art II §1a, to submit such a proposal to the vote of the electorate if such proposal has been signed by ten per cent of the electorate.

32 OS(2d) 4, 288 NE(2d) 821 (1972), State ex rel Schwartz v Brown. By the terms of O Const Art II §1g, any claim as to a legal deficiency in the initiative petition, including any claim that the "summary" contained therein is in conflict with the text, must be made more than forty days before the election at which such proposal is to be voted on by the electorate.

O Const II § 2 Election of state legislators

Representatives shall be elected biennially by the electors of the respective house of representatives districts; their term of office shall commence on the first day of January next thereafter and continue two years.

Senators shall be elected by the electors of the respective senate districts; their terms of office shall commence on the first day of January next after their election. All terms of senators which commence on the first day of January, 1969 shall be four years, and all terms which commence on the first day of January, 1971 shall be four years. Thereafter, except for the filling of vacancies for unexpired terms, senators shall be elected to and hold office for terms of four years.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section provides that all Representatives are elected for two-year terms and all Senators for four-year terms, with one-half of the Senators standing for election every two years. The section has undergone several metamorphoses, the latest change being a return to the federal model in which staggered Senate terms which are longer than House terms provide a measure of continuity from one Congress to another. Under the 1802 Ohio Constitution, Article I, §3 and 5, Representatives were elected for one year and Senators for two years, so that sessions were annual. As originally adopted, §2, Article II of the 1851 Constitution provided that both Senators and Representatives were to be elected for two-year terms. Longer terms for Senators were reintroduced in 1956, and the section in its present form dates from 1967.

173 OS 361, 182 NE(2d) 564 (1962), State ex rel Lehman v DiSalle. There is no clear legal duty upon the governor, the auditor, and the secretary of state in making a new apportionment of the general assembly to determine that an incumbent senator in a district which has been annexed to another district to form a combined senatorial district shall represent all the electors of the combined district in the first legislative session of the decennial period instead of determining that a senator shall be elected by the electors of the combined district to represent them in the first session of the decennial period.

173 OS 361, 182 NE(2d) 564 (1962), State ex rel Lehman v DiSalle. COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section prohibits dualism in office and a species of conflict of interest for members of the General Assembly, and in its present form is the result of a 1973 amendment. The first paragraph is substantially similar to the entire section as adopted in 1851, and the second paragraph (added in 1973) is substantially similar to former §19, Article II. The statutes expand on this section, particularly the conflict of interest portion. RC 101.26 lists a variety of positions closed to members of the General Assembly. See, also, RC Ch 102, which deals generally with governmental ethics, including conflicts of interest. The predecessors of the section were §20 and 26, Article I, 1802 Ohio Constitution, and the comparable federal provision is the second paragraph of §6, Article I, US Constitution.

Prior to the 1973 amendment, the phrase "civil office" was used instead of the present "public office." Cases construing this section yield confusing results in the interpretation of what constitutes a public office or civil office for purposes of the prohibition against dualism. For example, it has been opined that a deputy director of a state department is not an officer for purposes of this section. OAG 83-004; but, compare OAG 83-004 with 1964 OAG 879. Also, compare 1955 OAG 6102 with 1955 OAG 6060. Positions on special commissions have been construed not to be civil offices for purposes of the conflict of interest provision. State ex rel Herbert v Ferguson, 142 OS 496, 52 NE(2d) 980 (1944); 1939 OAG 134. See RC 101.26, which prohibits a member of the General Assembly from serving on any such body for compensation other than actual and necessary expenses. A member of the General Assembly which created the position of division chief within a state department is disabled from appointment to the office for one year after his term. 1950 OAG 1787.

1. In general

66 OS(2d) 379, 423 NE(2d) 60 (1981), State ex rel Meshel v Keip. Due to the limitations set forth in RC 127.17, the general assembly's delegation of authority to the controlling board to transfer funds from one fiscal year to another, pursuant to RC 127.14(B), is constitutional.

32 OS(2d) 23, 289 NE(2d) 349 (1972), State ex rel Fisher v Brown. O Const Art II §4, does not specify that the disqualifications enumerated therein for holding the office of member of the general assembly also prevent a person from being a candidate for such office.

34 App(3d) 260, 518 NE(2d) 25 (Lorain 1986), Bennett v Celebrezze. Legislative bodies may impose certain basic qualifications upon those seeking public office, so long as the legislative classification is clear, rests on reasonable grounds, and affects all persons in the class equally.

111 SCt 2395, 115 LEd(2d) 410 (1991), Gregory v Ashcroft. It is obviously essential to the independence of the states that their power to prescribe the qualifications of their own officers should be exclusive and free from external interference, except so far as plainly provided by the constitution; congressional interference with the decision of the people of a state defining their constitutional officers would upset the constitutional balance of federal and state powers and the federal courts must be certain of congress' intent before finding a federal law overrides this balance.

1960 OAG 1861. Where a person who is a member of the state board of education is elected to the office of representative in congress, and accepts and qualifies for that office, he vacates the position of member of the board upon such election, acceptance and qualification.

2. What constitutes public office

61 OS 62, 55 NE 167 (1899), State ex rel Allen v Mason. A clerk in the US pension agency, serving by appointment for a period not exceeding three months and compensated with money of the US appropriated for that purpose by congress, having no duties defined by law nor discretion to act independently of the direction of the pension agent, is not "holding an office under the authority of the U.S." within the meaning of O Const Art II §4, which renders persons so holding office ineligible to membership in the general assembly.

OAG 83-004. A deputy director of a state department, appointed pursuant to RC 3.06 and 121.05, is not an officer for purposes of O Const Art II §4.

1939 OAG 134. Person chosen by a commission created by the general assembly to carry into execution the policies and plans of such commission is an employee and not a public officer.

3. Compatible and incompatible offices

112 OS 534, 148 NE 86 (1925), State ex rel Gettles v Gillen. The mayor of a municipality does not forfeit his office as mayor by reason of his election to, and service as a member of, the general assembly.

OAG 69-039. One who is a state senator in Ohio may also hold the office of village solicitor whether the village be in his senate district or outside of the district.

1964 OAG 879. A department head of a municipality whose office requires him to make administrative decisions is ineligible to serve as a member of the general assembly.

1964 OAG 879. A member of the general assembly is ineligible to serve as deputy for a county officer.

1964 OAG 879. A member of the general assembly is ineligible to serve as an assistant county prosecutor.

1964 OAG 879. An appointive officer of a charter city is ineligible to serve as a member of the general assembly during such appointment.

1964 OAG 879. A clerk or one who performs clerical duties within a department of a municipality who is in the unclassified service may also serve as an elected member of the general assembly; no opinion is rendered as to such clerk who is in the classified service of a municipality.

1955 OAG 6102. Acceptance by a member of the general assembly of employment by a local school district as a school bus driver vacates such individual's legislative office.

1955 OAG 6060. The offices of member of the general assembly and member of a city board of education are not incompatible.

1927 OAG 850. Under the holding of the authorities that an employment is not an "office," a member of the present general assembly may be appointed as special institutional examiner in the office of the auditor of state, providing said member upon, or prior to, the acceptance of the appointment resigns as member of the general assembly. In case such an appointment be made and the member of the general assembly does not resign, such officer's seat in the general assembly shall be vacant.

1917 OAG vol 2 p 1087. Pursuant to O Const Art II §4, if a member of the general assembly were to accept an office either in the civil or military service of the United States, he would thereby forfeit his office as a member of the general assembly; however, if he accepts a mere employment in either the civil or military service, he would not forfeit his office as a member of the general assembly.

1915 OAG p 327. Pursuant to O Const Art II §4, a member of the Ohio general assembly cannot serve as a clerk of the village board of education of which he is a member and receive a salary for such position.

4. Office created or compensation increased during term

142 OS 496, 52 NE(2d) 980 (1944), State ex rel Herbert v Ferguson. Where members of the post-war program commission in the performance of their duties do not exercise sovereign powers, creating such commission and placing thereon a specific number of members of the general assembly, does not have an unconstitutional operation under O Const Art II §19, which prohibits the appointment of members of the general assembly to any civil office created during their terms of office.

OAG 83-004. A member of the general assembly, who served a term during which the pay ranges in schedule C of RC 124.15(A) were increased, may constitutionally be appointed as the director of a state department pursuant to RC 121.03 within one year of that term, provided that individual does not, as director, receive compensation in excess of the maximum amount of compensation which was authorized for a schedule C position immediately prior to the term of the legislator during which 1981 H 694, eff. 11-15-81, which amended RC 124.15(A), was enacted.

1950 OAG 1787. A member of the legislature which created the offices of chief of divisions of water, geological survey, forestry or wildlife cannot be appointed to such office by reason of O Const Art II §19.

1939 OAG 134. Member of the 92nd general assembly, which body enacted law, providing for the creation of the New York world's fair commission and for the choosing of a director therefor may, within one year after the expiration of his term as a member of the 92nd general assembly, be chosen as director of said New York world's fair commission and the salary and expenses of such director so chosen may be legally paid by auditor of state.

O Const II § 5 Persons barred from seat in General Assembly; embezzlement or failure to account for public funds

No person hereafter convicted of an embezzlement of the public funds, shall hold any office in this State; nor shall any person, holding public money for disbursement, or otherwise, have a seat in the General Assembly, until he shall have accounted for, and paid such money into the treasury.

HISTORY: 1851 constitutional convention, adopted eff. 9-1-1851

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section is somewhat loosely based on §28, Article I, and §4, Article IV, 1802 Ohio Constitution. Its basic thrust is to insure the integrity of public officials vis 'a vis the public money.

The meaning of "office in this state" has been narrowly construed. See, e.g., 1942 OAG 5487. But, even though the constitutional disqualification-for-embezzlement provision may have limited application, a statutory provision has much broader scope. See RC 2921.41, which defines the offense of theft in office, and provides that any person convicted of the offense is permanently disqualified from any public office, employment, or position of trust.

Standards and requirements for accounting for public money and property and auditing public accounts are contained in RC Ch 115 and 117, uniform systems of accounting and financial reporting by public offices (other than municipal offices) are prescribed under RC 117.05, 117.051, and 117.06, and various requirements for municipal offices are contained in RC Ch 733. These provisions may or may not control in determining if a person holding public money has properly accounted for it before taking a seat in the General Assembly, since under §6, Article II, each House is the sole judge of its members' qualifications.

99 OS 429, 124 NE 241 (1919), Patterson Foundry & Machine Co v Ohio River Power Co. Under O Const Art II §16 (now O Const Art II §15), the Public Utilities Act was passed on June 14, 1911, and any contract for service entered into by a public utility and its patron subsequent to that date is subject to the supervision of the public utilities commission and is not binding and enforceable insofar as it conflicts with the rates established by the commission. (Annotation from former O Const Art II §16.)

69 Abs 556, 118 NE(2d) 713 (CP, Franklin 1954), Papatheodoro v Liquor Control Dept. The statutory provision that no person convicted of a felony may receive a liquor permit is constitutional.

111 SCt 2395, 115 LEd(2d) 410 (1991), Gregory v Ashcroft. It is obviously essential to the independence of the states that their power to prescribe the qualifications of their own officers should be exclusive and free from external interference, except so far as plainly provided by the constitution; congressional interference with the decision of the people of a state defining their constitutional officers would upset the constitutional balance of federal and state powers and the federal courts must be certain of congress' intent before finding a federal law overrides this balance.

1942 OAG 5487. Position of deputy sheriff is not an office in this state, within scope of term "office" as used in O Const Art II §5.

O Const II § 11 Filling vacancy in house or senate seat

A vacancy in the Senate or in the House of Representatives for any cause, including the failure of a member-elect to qualify for office, shall be filled by election by the members of the Senate or the members of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, who are affiliated with the same political party as the person last elected by the electors to the seat which has become vacant. A vacancy occurring before or during the first twenty months of a Senatorial term shall be filled temporarily by election as provided in this section, for only that portion of the term which will expire on the thirty-first day of December following the next general election occurring in an even-numbered year after the vacancy occurs, at which election the seat shall be filled by the electors as provided by law for the remaining, unexpired portion of the term, the member-elect so chosen to take office on the first day in January next following such election. No person shall be elected to fill a vacancy in the Senate or House of Representatives, as the case may be, unless he meets the qualifications set forth in this Constitution and the laws of this state for the seat in which the vacancy occurs. An election to fill a vacancy shall be accomplished, notwithstanding the provisions of section 27, Article II of this Constitution, by the adoption of a resolution, while the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, is in session, with the taking of the yeas and nays of the members of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, affiliated with the same political party as the person last elected to the seat in which the vacancy occurs. The adoption of such resolution shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members elected to the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, entitled to vote thereon. Such vote shall be spread upon the journal of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, and certified to the Secretary of State by the clerk thereof. The Secretary of State shall, upon receipt of such certification, issue a certificate of election to the person so elected and upon presentation of such certificate to the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, the person so elected shall take the oath of office and become a member of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, for the term for which he was so elected.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: Other than providing for filling vacancies in the House or Senate, this section bears little resemblance to the original 1851 section or to its predecessor, §12, Article I, 1802 Ohio Constitution. The 1802 version directed the Governor to "issue writs of election" to fill vacancies in the General Assembly. As adopted in 1851 the section required simply that vacancies be filled for the unexpired term "by election, as directed by law." In its present form, the section is designed to preserve the political status quo in the House or Senate by giving the Representatives or Senators who are members of the former incumbent's political party the power to appoint his successor. An appointment to fill a vacancy in the House is for the unexpired term. An appointment to fill a vacancy in the Senate is for the unexpired term if the vacancy occurred more than twenty months into the original term. If the vacancy in a Senate term occurs within the first twenty months of the term, the appointed successor serves only until a successor is elected for the unexpired term at the next general election in an even-numbered year.

O Const IV § 13 Filling vacancy in judicial office

In case the office of any judge shall become vacant, before the expiration of the regular term for which he was elected, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor, until a successor is elected and has qualified; and such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term, at the first general election for the office which is vacant that occurs more than forty days after the vacancy shall have occurred; provided, however, that when the unexpired term ends within one year immediately following the date of such general election, an election to fill such unexpired term shall not be held and the appointment shall be for such unexpired term.

1990: The first clause of this section is almost identical to the section as adopted in 1851, and requires the Governor to fill a vacancy in a judicial seat by appointing a successor pending election of a new judge for the unexpired term. The second clause, added by a 1942 amendment, provides that the Governor's appointment is to be for the unexpired term if the term ends within one year after the election at which the successor would normally be elected to complete the term. The principle that, depending on how much of the term remains when a vacancy occurs, the vacancy is filled either for the unexpired term or else temporarily pending election of a successor, is repeated in other sections of the Constitution. See §11, Article II; §17 and 18, Article III. The first Constitution conferred the power to appoint judges on the General Assembly but did not specifically provide for filling vacancies. §8, Article III, 1802 Ohio Constitution.

RC 2301.02, which gives the general assembly power to pass laws increasing or decreasing the number of common pleas judges in any county, is in direct conflict with O Const Art IV §13 and is therefore unconstitutional.

170 OS 273, 164 NE(2d) 407 (1960), State ex rel Gusweiler v Hamilton County Bd of Elections. The last paragraph of RC 2301.02 is in direct conflict with O Const Art IV §13, and is therefore unconstitutional.

15 App(3d) 101, 15 OBR 191, 472 NE(2d) 1134 (Summit 1984), State ex rel Morgan v Arshinkoff. Neither the 1968 nor the 1973 amendments to O Const Art IV §6, repealed O Const Art IV §13, by implication.

76 App 228, 62 NE(2d) 589 (Montgomery 1945), Blanton v Littrell. GC 1579-85 is not in derogation of O Const Art IV §10 and 13.

1939 OAG 138. A law which provides that a vacancy for a period of less than one year in the office of a judge be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term is in conflict with O Const Art XVII §2, and 13 and therefore is unconstitutional.

2. Vacancy

OAG 73-074. A vacancy was created on the Hamilton county court of common pleas, division of domestic relations, by the indefinite suspension from the practice of law and resultant disqualification of an incumbent judge of that court, which the governor may fill by appointment pursuant to O Const Art IV §13.

1958 OAG 1540. Where a person elected to the office of county judge fails and refuses to take the oath of office as required by RC 1907.09 the office is, under the provision of RC 3.30, to be considered as vacant, and such vacancy shall be filled by the governor as provided in O Const Art IV §13.

3. Election or appointment

161 OS 346, 119 NE(2d) 277 (1954), State ex rel Davis v Brown. Where an unexpired term of the office of judge ends within one year following the date of a general election, the appointment to fill the vacancy is for the unexpired term.

160 OS 184, 115 NE(2d) 1 (1953), State ex rel Easton v Brown. Neither the statutory nor the charter provisions relating to the election of judges of the municipal court of Cleveland establish a method for the formal nomination of candidates by petition for an unexpired term when the vacancy occurs after the final date fixed for filing nominating petitions, so that mandamus will not issue to compel the acceptance of a relator's nominating petition and the placing of his name on the ballot.

113 App 55, 177 NE(2d) 300 (1960), State ex rel Lynch v Chesney. RC 3513.31 provides the only method for selection of a candidate for the unexpired term of an incumbent judge of the court of appeals who dies after the primary election but more than forty days before the day of the next general election.

7 NP 435, 5 D 210 (CP, Lucas 1900), Brown v Toledo. Pursuant to O Const Art IV §13, an acting police judge appointed by the mayor to act during the absence of the police judge is, at least, a de facto judge.

OAG 66-176. A candidate for the office of county judge cannot qualify himself after August 8, 1966, and have his name placed on the ballot at the election to be held in November 1966.

1964 OAG 1017. An additional judge may be designated for a municipal court when the volume of pending cases in the municipal court necessitates an additional judge.

1961 OAG 2035. A person who has been elected to serve an unexpired term in the court of common pleas must present a legal certificate of his election, and receive a governor's commission to fill such office, and take the required oath of office before he is entitled to serve in such capacity and receive the salary provided therefor.

1959 OAG 691. If an incumbent judge holding an unexpired term dies after forty days prior to an election, at which his successor could have been chosen had he died earlier, O Const Art IV §13 applies and the governor fills the vacancy by appointment until a successor can be elected at the first general election for such position held more than forty days after such vacancy shall have occurred, provided that if the unexpired term ends within one year immediately following the date of such general election, no election shall be held and the appointment shall be for the entire unexpired term.

1959 OAG 691. If an incumbent judge holding an unexpired term dies subsequent to the one hundredth day prior to the primary election and prior to the fortieth day before the election at which successor could be elected, election must be held to fill such vacancy and the appropriate committee of each political party may select such party's candidate in the next general election.

1958 OAG 2276. Procedure for nominating and electing probate judge where incumbent resigns subsequent to the one hundredth day before the primary election and prior to the fortieth day before the general election discussed.

4. Term

OAG 66-176. The person appointed by the governor to a vacancy in the office of county judge shall hold office until his successor is elected and has qualified.

1945 OAG 246. Where a vacancy in the office of municipal judge is filled by appointment, the appointee shall, if the unexpired term for such office ends within one year immediately following the date of the first general election after the vacancy occurs, hold office for the full unexpired term.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: The US Constitution, Article I, §1 and the Seventeenth Amendment provide that US Representatives and Senators are to be chosen by the people of each state, whose electors are to have the same qualifications as those "requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature." Ohio's first Constitution conferred the franchise only on white males age twenty-one or older, who had resided in the state one year (citizenship per se was not mentioned), and who had either paid (or been charged with) a state or county tax or performed labor on the roads. §1 and 4, Article IV, 1802 Ohio Constitution. These sections on suffrage reflected the times. Limiting the franchise to white males twenty-one or older was typical, and many states imposed property, income, or taxpayer qualifications—the phrase "free, white and twenty-one" was a byword because of these requirements.

A provision giving the right of suffrage to black male citizens very nearly became a part of the first Ohio Constitution. The measure was actually adopted by the Convention—an astonishing step in 1802—but was later stricken on reconsideration when the President of the Convention cast the deciding vote to break a tie. See Journal of the 1802 Ohio Constitutional Convention, November 22 and 26, 1802.

The Constitution of 1851 as adopted continued to limit the franchise to white males age twenty-one or older, but added a requirement for United States citizenship and deleted the taxpayer-road worker qualification. Non-whites were enfranchised by the Fifteenth Amendment to the US Constitution (1870), but the word "white" was not dropped from §1, Article V of the Ohio Constitution until many years later. Proposals to give women the vote in Ohio failed in 1912 and 1914, but just a few years later women were given the right of suffrage by the Nineteenth Amendment to the US Constitution (1920). The words "white male" were finally stricken from this section in 1923. The age of majority for voting purposes was lowered to eighteen by the Twenty-Sixth Amendment to the US Constitution (1971).

Article V, §1 in its present form reflects the requirements of the federal Constitution. Voter qualifications, including age and residence requirements, registration, and related matters are covered in RC Ch 3503.

37 Misc 45 (CP, Cuyahoga 1973), Gilbert v Cleveland. Where candidate placing second in Cleveland mayoralty primary withdrew after said primary but before the general election, members of his committee may name a replacement candidate, and if they fail to do so, ballot should be submitted with only name of leading candidate on it.

A municipal board that helps make a city's budget and controls its powers to regulate land use, enter contracts, and grant franchises cannot be made up of the mayor, two members elected by the whole municipal electorate, and the elected presidents of five boroughs that have widely disparate populations where this method of selection results in a deviation of seventy-eight per cent from the ideal of one vote for each individual. (Ed. note: New York City charter construed in light of federal constitution.)

2. Right to vote

107 OS 117, 141 NE 27 (1923), Reutener v Cleveland. O Const Art V §1, stating that each elector is entitled to vote in all elections, is not violated where an elector, under the Hare System of Proportional Representation outlined in a Cleveland home rule charter amendment, votes a first choice for only one officer when there are from five to nine to be elected in the district.

71 OS 151, 72 NE 900 (1904), Gentsch v State ex rel McGorray. RS 2926(O) does not violate either O Const Art II §26 or O Const Art V §1 where it facilitates rather than impedes the exercise of the right of suffrage, is reasonable, uniform, and impartial, and applies uniformly throughout the state.

17 OS 665 (1867), Monroe v Collins. The legislature has no power to deny or abridge the constitutional right of citizens to vote or unnecessarily to impede its exercise, and laws passed professedly to regulate its exercise or prevent its abuse must be reasonable, uniform, and impartial.

16 App(2d) 140, 242 NE(2d) 672 (1968), State ex rel May v Jones. RC 3503.05 cannot disfranchise a student or wife of a student who satisfies the qualifications of O Const Art V §1, 4 and 6, and RC 3503.01; otherwise it would be unconstitutional in its application to such cases.

20 Misc 222, 250 NE(2d) 104 (CP, Fulton 1969), In re Special Election for Seven-Mill Operating Levy for Gorham-Fayette Local School Dist. An election, at which there were an insufficient number of ballots available for all electors who sought to vote, violates the rights of those denied their franchise assured by O Const Art V §1, and will be declared void upon a petition filed by certain of such electors.

90 Abs 257, 185 NE(2d) 809 (CP, Putnam 1962), In re Sugar Creek Local School Dist. A federal parolee is entitled to vote in an Ohio election.

3. Elector qualifications

a. In general

1962 OAG 3383. Every person who has the qualifications of an elector under the provisions of O Const Art V §1, and RC 3503.01, is a qualified elector within the purview of O Const Art X §4, and such person is eligible to sign a county charter commission petition under said §4, and RC 3503.06, requiring that in registration precincts only registered electors may sign certain petitions, does not apply to the signers of such a petition.

b. Residence; citizenship

36 OS(2d) 17, 303 NE(2d) 77 (1973), Kyser v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections; appeal dismissed by 415 US 970, 94 SCt 1547, 39 LEd(2d) 863 (1974). A post office box number cannot be used to fulfill the requirement of "residence" in RC 3503.01 by a person attempting to register to vote.

22 CC(NS) 314, 28 CD 481 (Cuyahoga 1908), State ex rel Weber v Hathaway. The residence which RS 1536-613 requires is the same required to qualify a person as an elector; thus, residence is that place in which a person's habitation is fixed, without any present intent of removing therefrom and to which, whenever absent, the person has an intention of returning.

12 CC(NS) 433, 20 CD 765 (Delaware 1902), Wickham v Coyner. The word residence as used in the Ohio Constitution has substantially the same meaning of habitation, domicile, or place of abode, and for anyone, including a student, to acquire a new residence, when under no disability to choose, two things must occur: (1) the fact of removal and (2) an intention to remain.

6 CC(NS) 33, 17 CD 529 (Cuyahoga 1905), State ex rel Keeler v Collister. Where at the time of parties' election to office or at the time they assume to enter on the duties of their offices, neither is a United States citizen, as required by O Const Art XV §4 and Art V §1, both must be ousted from their elected offices.

332 FSupp 1195 (SD Ohio 1971), Anderson v Brown. The statutes applying residence as a test to most voters and residence plus the establishment of a home for permanent residence for students violate the equal protection clause and are unconstitutional.

319 FSupp 862, 30 Misc 19 (ND Ohio 1970), Howe v Brown. The one-year residency requirement for voting in Ohio is valid.

1960 OAG 1187. A member of the military service who is stationed at a military base within this state but who lives off the premises of such base is not prohibited by O Const Art V §5 from being considered a resident of this state for voting purposes if he otherwise meets the requirements of RC 3503.01. (Annotation from former O Const Art V §5.)

c. Age

1941 OAG 4013. In considering O Const Art XV §4 and Art V §1, a person otherwise qualified who will attain the age of twenty-one years on or before the date of the next general election may be a candidate in the party primary for that election.

1916 OAG 1988. If a person is otherwise qualified to vote, then voting is permissible at an election held the day before the person reaches majority.

4. Voter registration

43 OS 548, 3 NE 538 (1885), Daggett v Hudson. A voter registration regulation which requires a voter to register during a specific seven-day period or lose his right to vote, which does not allow persons absent from a ward during the time allotted to register either before or after the allotted time, is an abridgement and impairment of the right to vote under the guise of regulation, violates O Const Art V §1, and is void.

114 App 497, 177 NE(2d) 616 (1961), State ex rel Krupansky v Green. Where a woman arranges by antenuptial written contract to retain her maiden name and so notifies the board of elections which notes on her registration card that she "is married" and "will retain her single name," and where, after her marriage, she uses only her single name in all her activities, is known only by such name, and votes thereunder in three elections, a declaration of candidacy and nominating petition filed by such woman under and using her single name is not for such reason invalid.

72 Abs 465, 135 NE(2d) 789 (App, Franklin 1956), State v Roche. An elector whose name is removed from the registration rolls for failure to vote is not thereby ineligible to serve as a juror, and service by such a juror does not constitute prejudicial error. (See also State v Roche, 72 Abs 462, 135 NE(2d) 789 (App, Franklin 1955).)

1958 OAG 2399. In providing a place of registration a board of elections may not locate such registration facility on the grounds of an organization or agency which charges a fee for admission to such grounds.

O Const V § 2 By ballot

All elections shall be by ballot.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section is identical to §2, Article IV, 1802 Ohio Constitution. The federal Constitution mentions voting by ballot only in connection with the Electoral College. §1, Article II and the Twelfth Amendment, US Constitution. When the original Ohio section was adopted in 1802, "ballot" had come to mean a paper ballot (rather than white or black balls, from which the word is derived). When voting machines were introduced their use was challenged, but the requirement for voting by ballot was construed as mandating any method which would protect secrecy in voting, as contrasted with a voice vote or show of hands. State ex rel Automatic Registering Co v Green, 121 OS 301, 168 NE 131 (1929).

NOTES ON DECISIONS AND OPINIONS

121 OS 301, 168 NE 131 (1929), State ex rel Automatic Registering Machine Co v Green. This constitutional requirement does not invalidate use of voting machines. The term "ballot" designates a method of conducting elections which will insure secrecy as distinguished from open or viva voce voting.

87 OS 12, 99 NE 1078 (1912), State ex rel Weinberger v Miller. The constitutional requirement (O Const Art V §2) that all elections shall be by ballot (using the singular number) is not violated by the act requiring judges to be elected by separate ballot, thus requiring plural ballots.

55 OS 224, 45 NE 195 (1896), State ex rel Batemen v Bode. The general assembly has the power to legislate that the name of a candidate for office shall appear only once on a ticket or ballot prepared by the board of elections since no form of ballot is prescribed by the Ohio Constitution and where the form of the ballot or ticket adopted is clearly a ballot under O Const Art V §2.

90 Abs 257, 185 NE(2d) 809 (CP, Putnam 1962), In re Sugar Creek Local School Dist. As applied to legal voters, that provision of RC 3515.12 which provides that any witness who voted at an election may be required to answer touching his qualifications as a voter and for whom he voted is unconstitutional.

77 Abs 570, 143 NE(2d) 879 (CP, Montgomery 1957), Dayton v Horstman. Where a city charter expressly prohibits write-in votes on a ballot for city commissioners, the court will not order a municipal primary to be held solely for the purpose of permitting write-in votes.

O Const V § 2a Office type ballot; laws to provide for reasonable equal position of names on ballot

The names of all candidates for an office at any election shall be arranged in a group under the title of that office. The general assembly shall provide by law the means by which ballots shall give each candidate's name reasonably equal position by rotation or other comparable methods to the extent practical and appropriate to the voting procedure used. At any election in which a candidate's party designation appears on the ballot, the name or designation of each candidate's party, if any, shall be printed under or after each candidate's name in less prominent type face than that in which the candidate's name is printed. An elector may vote for candidates (other than candidates for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and other than candidates for governor and lieutenant governor) only and in no other way than by indicating his vote for each candidate separately from the indication of his vote for any other candidate.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This section mandates use of the "office type" ballot, so-called because it requires that the office for which candidates are running be emphasized, and that all candidates for the office be grouped under it. It also requires de- emphasizing party designations, and compels a fair rotation of names on the ballot. The exception as to ballots for voting for presidential electors is designed to avoid the problem of the "bedsheet" ballot, i.e., the large, unwieldy ballot which would result if all individual candidates for presidential elector are listed.

The office-type ballot is designed to promote intelligent choices by the voters, and to prevent certain practices whereby an election can be unduly influenced by imaginative structuring of the ballot, such as "voting the straight ticket" with a single "X" or placing a certain candidate's name first on every ballot.

The requirements for ballots, including voting machines and similar equipment and absentee ballots, are governed by RC Ch 3504 to 3511. Ballot forms generally are covered in RC 3505.01 to 3505.17. Specifications for office type ballots are given in RC 3505.03.

39 OS(2d) 130, 314 NE(2d) 172 (1974), State ex rel Roof v Hardin County Bd of Commrs. The provision of O Const Art V §2a, with respect to the rotation of names of candidates is self-executing.

170 OS 30, 162 NE(2d) 118 (1959), State ex rel Wesselman v Hamilton County Elections Bd; overruled by 7 OS(2d) 85, 218 NE(2d) 428 (1966), State ex rel Sibarco Corp v Berea. The provisions of the first sentence of O Const Art V, § 2a are self-executing.

156 OS 147, 101 NE(2d) 289 (1951), State ex rel Russell v Bliss. The provision of O Const Art V §2a, that "the names of all candidates for an office at any general election shall be arranged in a group under the title of that office, and shall be so alternated that each name shall appear (in so far as may be reasonably possible) substantially an equal number of times at the beginning, at the end, and in each intermediate place, if any, of the group in which such name belongs", is self-executing.

155 OS 607, 99 NE(2d) 779 (1951), State ex rel Sherrill v Brown. The provisions of the Cincinnati charter relative to the election of municipal officers are neither inconsistent with nor in conflict with O Const Art V §2a.

152 OS 308, 89 NE(2d) 641 (1949), State ex rel Duffy v Sweeney. Initiated proposal to adopt O Const Art V §2a became effective thirty days after approval by majority of electors voting thereon.

2. Name placement and rotation

39 OS(2d) 130, 314 NE(2d) 172 (1974), State ex rel Roof v Hardin County Bd of Commrs. When voting machines are used in a general election and there is no rotation of the names of candidates for an office on the voting machines within each precinct for each succeeding voter, but only rotation of the names of candidates on the voting machines precinct by precinct, such precinct-by-precinct rotation does not comply with the requirement of Ohio Constitution, and such rotational procedure is therefore, unconstitutional (satisfactory rotational procedure suggested in opinion).

170 OS 30, 162 NE(2d) 118 (1959), State ex rel Wesselman v Hamilton County Elections Bd; overruled by 7 OS(2d) 85, 218 NE(2d) 428 (1966), State ex rel Sibarco Corp v Berea. The amendment to RC 3507.07 effective October 15, 1959, with respect to rotating names on ballots is unconstitutional.

87 Abs 137, 174 NE(2d) 637 (CP, Montgomery 1960), Schell v Studebaker; appeal dismissed by 171 OS 565, 173 NE(2d) 107 (1961). That plaintiff's name appeared in the first position in 88 precincts while the names of the other candidates appeared in that position in 133 precincts did not justify setting aside the results of the election.

66 Abs 130, 116 NE(2d) 317 (CP, Mahoning 1953), Bees v Gilronan; appeal dismissed by 159 OS 186, 111 NE(2d) 395 (1953). Irregularity in failing to print ballot forms for voting machines to secure an alternation in regular sequence so that each candidate's name would appear a substantially equal number of times in each position due to lack of official supervision of the printer's work is not a matter of substance requiring setting aside an election.

66 Abs 130, 116 NE(2d) 317 (CP, Mahoning 1953), Bees v Gilronan; appeal dismissed by 159 OS 186, 111 NE(2d) 395 (1953). The term "under" as used in O Const Art V §2a means "inferior" or subordinate, rather than "below in position."

3. Voting machines

39 OS(2d) 130, 314 NE(2d) 172 (1974), State ex rel Roof v Hardin County Bd of Commrs. O Const Art V §2a, does not absolutely prohibit the use of voting machines.

39 OS(2d) 130, 314 NE(2d) 172 (1974), State ex rel Roof v Hardin County Bd of Commrs. When voting machines are used in a general election and there is no rotation of the names of candidates for an office on the voting machines within each precinct for each succeeding voter, but only rotation of the names of candidates on the voting machines precinct by precinct, such precinct-by-precinct rotation does not comply with the requirement of Ohio Constitution, and such rotational procedure is therefore, unconstitutional (satisfactory rotational procedure suggested in opinion).

66 Abs 130, 116 NE(2d) 317 (CP, Mahoning 1953), Bees v Gilronan; appeal dismissed by 159 OS 186, 111 NE(2d) 395 (1953). Irregularity in failing to print ballot forms for voting machines to secure an alternation in regular sequence so that each candidate's name would appear a substantially equal number of times in each position due to lack of official supervision of the printer's work is not a matter of substance requiring setting aside an election.

1957 OAG 984. Under the Sandusky city charter the general laws of the state relative to the use of voting machines in municipal elections are applicable, and may be used in the election of a city commissioner.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: Forfeiture of various rights upon conviction of felony is almost universal among the states, and §4, Article V is a typical measure. "Felony" is defined in RC 2901.02(C), (D), and (E). Under RC 2961.01, a person convicted of a felony under Ohio law or the law of another state or the United States "is incompetent to be an elector or juror, or to hold an office of honor, trust, or profit." Probation, parole, or a conditional pardon stays these disqualifications until final discharge removes them, and a full pardon restores all rights. RC 3503.18 requires the Clerk of Courts to file monthly reports with the Board of Elections listing persons disenfranchised by conviction, and requires the Board to cancel the voter registration of such persons.

1927 OAG 242. Since there is no federal statute depriving a person convicted of a felony denounced by the federal penal code of his United States citizenship, with a consequential forfeiture of citizenship in Ohio, and since there is no Ohio statute making provision for the forfeiture of citizenship of a person so convicted, a person who has served a term of imprisonment in the federal prison at Atlanta for the commission of a felony under the laws of the United States is still a citizen of the United States and of the state of Ohio.

O Const V § 7 Direct primary elections

All nominations for elective state, district, county and municipal offices shall be made at direct primary elections or by petition as provided by law, and provision shall be made by law for a preferential vote for United States senator; but direct primaries shall not be held for the nomination of township officers or for the officers of municipalities of less than two thousand population, unless petitioned for by a majority of the electors of such township or municipality. All delegates from this state to the national conventions of political parties shall be chosen by direct vote of the electors in a manner provided by law. Each candidate for such delegate shall state his first and second choices for the presidency, but the name of no candidate for the presidency shall be so used without his written authority.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: Direct primary elections, required by this section, were among the reform measures advocated by the Progressive Movement of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. For a discussion of the movement, see Commentary to §33, Article II. Formerly, candidates were usually nominated in party conventions, and the de facto choices often were made through bargains struck by a few party leaders in "smoke-filled rooms."

A political party formed pursuant to RC 3517.01 must have a state convention to nominate its presidential electors pursuant to RC 3513.11, and a national convention to nominate its presidential candidate pursuant to RC 3513.12, in order for its candidate to have a place on the presidential ballot.

2. Primary election

1940 OAG 1696. Candidates for offices in newly incorporated village having a population of two thousand or more may be chosen either in a primary election or by nominating petitions.

1939 OAG 745. 3. Nomination by petition

106 OS 516, 140 NE 878 (1922), State ex rel Conner v Noctor. GC 4996 provides for nomination by petition for state, district, and county officers, but clearly has no application to municipal or ward officers.

118 App 161, 193 NE(2d) 540 (1963), State ex rel Rose v Ryan. The provisions of the charter of the city of Columbus establishing deadlines or cut-off dates for the filing of petitions for election to municipal offices are not an unreasonable limitation and are constitutional.

1964 OAG 1512. Members of a commission selected to frame a municipal charter as provided by O Const Art XVIII §8, are not municipal officers, and candidates for election to such commission are not candidates for nomination for an elective municipal office within the meaning of O Const Art V §7 and there is no requirement in law that such candidates file petitions in accordance with RC 3513.251 and 3513.252.

1940 OAG 1696. Candidates for offices in newly incorporated village having a population of two thousand or more may be chosen either in a primary election or by nominating petitions.

4. Vacancy

175 OS 238, 193 NE(2d) 270 (1963), State ex rel Gottlieb v Sulligan. A person selected as a party candidate for an office in a primary election who withdraws his candidacy for that office is eligible for selection as a party candidate by the party committee to fill a vacancy in the nomination for another office created by the withdrawal of the candidate originally nominated.

113 App 55, 177 NE(2d) 300 (1960), State ex rel Lynch v Chesney. RC 3513.31 provides the only method for selection of a candidate for the unexpired term of an incumbent judge of the court of appeals who dies after the primary election but more than forty days before the day of the next general election.

1960 OAG 1787. A person who seeks a party nomination for an office or position at a primary election by declaration of candidacy is not eligible to be certified as the candidate of a political party at the following general election to fill the unexpired term of a person who holds an elective office and who dies subsequently to the one-hundredth day before the day of a primary election and prior to the fortieth day before the day of the next general election.

Article X

COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATIONS

O Const X § 4 County charter commission; selection; duties

The Legislative authority (which includes the Board of County Commissioners) of any county may by a two-thirds vote of its members, or upon petition of eight per cent of the electors of the county as certified by the election authorities of the county shall forthwith, by resolution submit to the electors of the county the question, "Shall a county charter commission be chosen?" The question shall be voted upon at the next general election, occurring not sooner than ninety-five days after certification of the resolution to the election authorities. The ballot containing the question shall bear no party designation. Provision shall be made thereon for the election to such commission from the county at large of fifteen electors if a majority of the electors voting on the question have voted in the affirmative.

Candidates for such commission shall be nominated by petition of one per cent of the electors of the county. The petition shall be filed with the election authorities not less than seventy-five days prior to such election. Candidates shall be declared elected in the order of the number of votes received, beginning with the candidate receiving the largest number; but not more than seven candidates residing in the same city or village may be elected. The holding of a public office does not preclude any person from seeking or holding membership on a county charter commission nor does membership on a county charter commission preclude any such member from seeking or holding other public office, but not more than four officeholders may be elected to a county charter commission at the same time. The legislative authority shall appropriate sufficient sums to enable the charter commission to perform its duties and to pay all reasonable expenses thereof.

The commission shall frame a charter for the county or amendments to the existing charter, and shall, by vote of a majority of the authorized number of members of the commission, submit the same to the electors of the county, to be voted upon at the next general election next following the election of the commission. The commission shall certify the proposed charter or amendments to the election authorities not later than seventy-five days prior to such election. Amendments to a county charter or the question of the repeal thereof may also be submitted to the electors of the county in the manner provided in this section for the submission of the question whether a charter commission shall be chosen, to be voted upon at the first general election occurring not sooner than sixty days after their submission. The legislative authority or charter commission submitting any charter or amendment shall, not later than thirty days prior to the election on such charter or amendment, mail or otherwise distribute a copy thereof to each of the electors of the county as far as may be reasonably possible, except that, as provided by law, notice of proposed amendments may be given by newspaper advertising. Except as provided in Section 3 of this Article, every charter or amendment shall become effective if it has been approved by the majority of the electors voting thereon. It shall take effect on the thirtieth day after such approval unless another date be fixed therein. When more than one amendment, which shall relate to only one subject but may affect or include more than one section or part of a charter, is submitted at the same time, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each separately. In case more than one charter is submitted at the same time or in case of conflict between the provisions of two or more amendments submitted at the same time, that charter or provision shall prevail which received the highest affirmative vote, not less than a majority. If a charter or amendment submitted by a charter commission is not approved by the electors of the county, the charter commission may resubmit the same one time, in its original form or as revised by the charter commission, to the electors of the county at the next succeeding general election or at any other election held throughout the county prior thereto, in the manner provided for the original submission thereof.

The legislative authority of any county, upon petition of ten per cent of the electors of the county, shall forthwith, by resolution, submit to the electors of the county, in the manner provided in this section for the submission of the question whether a charter commission shall be chosen, the question of the adoption of a charter in the form attached to such petition.

Laws may be passed to provide for the organization and procedures of county charter commissions, including the filling of any vacancy which may occur, and otherwise to facilitate the operation of this section. The basis upon which the required number of petitioners in any case provided for in this section shall be determined, shall be the total number of votes cast in the county for the office of Governor at the last preceding general election therefor.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall be self-executing except as herein otherwise provided.

Every person who has the qualifications of an elector under the provisions of O Const Art V §1, and RC 3503.01, is a qualified elector within the purview of O Const Art X §4, and such person is eligible to sign a county charter commission petition under said §4, and RC 3503.06, requiring that in registration precincts only registered electors may sign certain petitions, does not apply to the signers of such a petition.

1959 OAG 767. Distribution of copies of a proposed county charter or an amendment thereto to each elector of a registration precinct who registered for the last general election and to each elector of a nonregistration precinct who signed the poll book in the last general election is in compliance with O Const Art X §4, but mailing a copy to the occupant of each of a list of house members obtained from a direct mail organization or publication in a newspaper is not.

1. In general

171 OS 295, 170 NE(2d) 428 (1960), State ex rel Jeffers v Bowers. Vacancy on the ballot caused by death of a duly nominated candidate for the office of county engineer may be filled by the selection of a person who is a registered professional engineer and a registered surveyor licensed to practice in this state, and who is a resident and elector of this state, but it is not necessary for him to be a resident and elector of the county in which he is selected.

94 OS 403, 115 NE 29 (1916), State ex rel McNamara v Campbell. Under O Const Art XVI §1, that an amendment if adopted shall become part of the constitution, means as soon as adopted, and a clause in a proposed amendment, postponing its operation until a later date is unauthorized unless the postponement as well as the amendment was submitted to the electors. Hence the amendment to O Const Art XV §4, making women eligible to certain offices was in force when adopted and when relator was appointed.

23 App 21, 155 NE 147 (1926), State ex rel Durczynski v Meyer. Petition for mandamus to compel township trustees to approve official bond of justice of the peace is held demurrable for failure to allege that relator was a duly qualified elector of the township for which he was elected.

491 US 95, 109 SCt 2324, 105 LEd(2d) 74 (1989), Quinn v Millsap. A provision of a state constitution requiring real property ownership by a person serving on a board of freeholders that considers proposals for reorganizing city and county governments violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment on its face; membership on the board of freeholders is a form of public service, even if the board only recommends a proposal to the electorate and does not enact laws directly, and the Equal Protection Clause protects a non-property owner's right to be considered for appointment without the burden of invidiously discriminatory disqualifications. (Ed. note: Missouri Constitution construed in light of federal constitution.)

111 SCt 2395, 115 LEd(2d) 410 (1991), Gregory v Ashcroft. It is obviously essential to the independence of the states that their power to prescribe the qualifications of their own officers should be exclusive and free from external interference, except so far as plainly provided by the constitution; congressional interference with the decision of the people of a state defining their constitutional officers would upset the constitutional balance of federal and state powers and the federal courts must be certain of congress' intent before finding a federal law overrides this balance.

1944 OAG 6635. A declaration of candidacy for office of county engineer and an accompanying petition presented by or on behalf of person in army of United States may not legally be rejected for filing merely because an order of secretary of war prohibits a person in army of United States from becoming candidate for public office.

2. Office defined

57 OS 415, 49 NE 404 (1898), State ex rel Attorney General v Jennings. Firemen are not public officers but are employed by a city as laborers.

29 OS 102 (1876), State ex rel Attorney General v Covington. A statute which imposes disqualifications on an individual attempting to join a police force is not in conflict with O Const Art XV §4, which prescribes qualifications for public office.

55 Abs 490, 89 NE(2d) 706 (CP, Mahoning 1948), La Polla ex rel Youngstown v Davis; appeal dismissed by 151 OS 550, 86 NE(2d) 615 (1949). A city charter which provides that a mayor may appoint a chief of police, a position which is under the unclassified civil service, does not make the chief of police an occupant of public office under O Const XV §4 and a person appointed to that position is eligible to appointment despite his residence out of state until the date before his appointment.

13 NP(NS) 73, 23 D 77 (CP, Franklin 1912), Parkinson v Crawford. An officer is one who exercises in an independent capacity a public function in the interest of the people by virtue of law on whom the performance of independent statutory duties is devolved, which to a certain extent involve the exercise of part of state sovereignty, and an elector is one who meets the qualifications of O Const Art V §1.

8 NP 148, 10 D 577 (CP, Cuyahoga 1900), State ex rel Vail v Craig. Deputy state supervisors of elections are not officers within the legal definition of that term.

3. Qualifications of elector

94 OS 403, 115 NE 29 (1916), State ex rel McNamara v Campbell. Under O Const Art XVI §1, that an amendment if adopted shall become part of the constitution, means as soon as adopted, and a clause in a proposed amendment, postponing its operation until a later date is unauthorized unless the postponement as well as the amendment was submitted to the electors. Hence the amendment to O Const Art XV §4, making women eligible to certain offices was in force when adopted and when relator was appointed.

6 CC(NS) 33, 17 CD 529 (Cuyahoga 1905), State ex rel Keeler v Collister. Where parties are not at the time of their election to office or at the time they assumed to enter the duties of their offices citizens of the US under O Const Art V §1 as required by O Const Art XV §4, both must be ousted from their elected offices.

1954 OAG 3999. A minor may serve as a deputy of the clerk of common pleas or probate court and administer oaths in all instances in which a deputy clerk is authorized to do so.

1941 OAG 4013. In considering O Const Art XV §4 and Art V §1, a person otherwise qualified who will attain the age of twenty-one years on or before the date of the next general election may be a candidate in the party primary for that election.

4. Residence

OAG 92-008. Pursuant to O Const Art XV §4, a person must be a resident of the state of Ohio in order to be elected or appointed to a public office.

OAG 92-008. If the governor appoints a nonresident of the state to an office, as that term is used in O Const Art XV §4, as a board or commission member, the appointment is a nullity.

OAG 75-067. A candidate seeking the office of municipal court judge must, pursuant to O Const Art XV §4, and RC 3503.01, be a resident of this state, of the involved county and of the involved precinct for thirty days immediately preceding the election.

1942 OAG 4775. Board of education of rural school district may elect as its clerk, a person who is not an elector of such school district or township in which such school district is situated.

AMENDMENTS

O Const XVI § 1 Constitutional amendment proposed by joint resolution of General Assembly; procedure

Either branch of the general assembly may propose amendments to this constitution; and, if the same shall be agreed to by three-fifths of the members elected to each house, such proposed amendments shall be entered on the journals, with the yeas and nays, and shall be filed with the secretary of state at least ninety days before the date of the election at which they are to be submitted to the electors, for their approval or rejection. They shall be submitted on a separate ballot without party designation of any kind, at either a special or a general election as the general assemby may prescribe.

The ballot language for such proposed amendments shall be prescribed by a majority of the Ohio ballot board, consisting of the secretary of state and four other members, who shall be designated in a manner prescribed by law and not more than two of whom shall be members of the same political party. The ballot language shall properly identify the substance of the proposal to be voted upon. The ballot need not contain the full text nor a condensed text of the proposal. The board shall also prepare an explanation of the proposal, which may include its purpose and effects, and shall certify the ballot language and the explanation to the secretary of state not later than seventy-five days before the election. The ballot language and the explanation shall be available for public inspection in the office of the secretary of state.

The supreme court shall have exclusive, original jurisdiction in all cases challenging the adoption or submission of a proposed constitutional amendment to the electors. No such case challenging the ballot language, the explanation, or the actions or procedures of the general assembly in adopting and submitting a constitutional amendment shall be filed later than sixty-four days before the election. The ballot language shall not be held invalid unless it is such as to mislead, deceive, or defraud the voters.

Unless the general assembly otherwise provides by law for the preparation of arguments for and, if any, against a proposed amendment, the board may prepare such arguments.

Such proposed amendments, the ballot language, the explanations, and the arguments, if any, shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks preceding such election, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county of the state, where a newspaper is published. The general assembly shall provide by law for other dissemination of information in order to inform the electors concerning proposed amendments. An election on a proposed constitutional amendment submitted by the general assembly shall not be enjoined nor invalidated because the explanation, arguments, or other information is faulty in any way. If the majority of the electors voting on the same shall adopt such amendments the same shall become a part of the constitution. When more than one amendment shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each amendment, separately.

1. Scope and construction

67 OS(2d) 516, 426 NE(2d) 493 (1981), State ex rel Bailey v Celebrezze. Proposed ballot language describing proposed amendment to O Const Art II §35, is invalid.

10 OS(2d) 139, 226 NE(2d) 116 (1967), State ex rel Foreman v Brown. O Const Art I §1, empowers the general assembly to provide for submission of a constitutional amendment, proposed by the general assembly pursuant to that section, at a special election on a certain day; and the general assembly may authorize such election by a joint resolution without enacting a statute.

167 OS 71, 146 NE(2d) 287 (1957), State ex rel Sinking Fund Commrs v Brown. Reference, in text of capital improvements bond issue amendment on ballot, to cigarette tax as source of revenue for payment did not invalidate amendment merely because other funds might also be used as source of revenue.

99 OS 168, 124 NE 134, 172 (1919), State ex rel Greenlund v Fulton. Where two amendments to O Const Art XII §2 on the same subject were proposed and approved by an electoral majority, one of which originated with an initiative petition and the other with a resolution of the general assembly, 107 v 144, am. eff. 1-1-19, and where the general assembly's proposal received 140,000 more votes than the initiative proposal, the amendment proposed by the general assembly is the one that amends the constitution, inasmuch as O Const Art II §1b provides that the conflicting proposal receiving the most votes prevails.

218 FSupp 953 (SD Ohio 1963), Nolan v Rhodes; reversed by 378 US 556, 84 SCt 1906, 12 LEd(2d) 1034 (1964). Apportionment of the Ohio house of representatives is constitutional. (See also Nolan v Rhodes, 251 FSupp 584, 7 Misc 1 (SD Ohio 1965); affirmed by 383 US 104, 86 SCt 716, 15 LEd(2d) 616 (1966).)

1961 OAG 2008. The 1959 amendments to O Const Art XVIII §6 are valid.

1936 OAG 5091. A joint resolution authorizing submitting a constitutional amendment to the electors in accordance with O Const Art XVI §1 is not business within the meaning of the term as used in O Const Art III §8 and the general assembly in a special session has no authority to pass a joint resolution submitting a constitutional amendment in accordance with O Const Art XVI §1 unless such action is authorized by the proclamation of the governor calling the general assembly in special session or in a subsequent public proclamation or message issued by the governor to the general assembly during such special session, as provided by O Const Art III §8.

2. Separate amendments

10 OS(2d) 139, 226 NE(2d) 116 (1967), State ex rel Foreman v Brown. The single general object of the proposed Ohio bond commission amendment is the creation of a bond commission to raise funds by issuing bonds; and the fact that the proposal limits the authority of the commission by specifying the purposes for which money may be raised and used does not turn the proposal into a proposal for more than one amendment.

7 OS(2d) 34, 218 NE(2d) 446 (1966), State ex rel Burton v Greater Portsmouth Growth Corp. The fact that a proposed amendment may affect other provisions of the constitution does not necessarily constitute such amendment more than one amendment within the meaning of O Const Art XVI §1.

69 OS 1, 68 NE 574 (1903), State ex rel Sheets v Laylin. The whole scope of O Const Art XVI §1 is that a majority of people can amend the constitution, and, of all the people voting at an election when an amendment to the constitution is submitted, only those should be counted for the amendment who expressly so vote; thus, an act which enables an elector to vote with or against his party, on each or all of any amendments, or to vote separately on each and every proposed amendment, or to not vote at all if he so desires, does not conflict with the Ohio Constitution.

34 App(2d) 27, 295 NE(2d) 434 (1973), State ex rel Slemmer v Brown. O Const Art XVI §1, requiring that electors be enabled to vote separately on each of several proposed amendments to such constitution, places no limitation upon the general assembly with respect to proposing more than one amendment in a single joint resolution.

44 App 501, 185 NE 212 (1932), State ex rel Lampson v Cook. Constitutional provision that separate amendments to constitution should be submitted separately held mandatory.

20 Misc 257, 251 NE(2d) 5 (CP, Hamilton 1969), State v Foster; superseded by 25 App(2d) 21, 266 NE(2d) 259 (1970). Under O Const Art XVI §1, a proposal consists of only one amendment to the constitution so long as each of its subjects bears some reasonable relationship to a single general purpose or object.

20 Misc 257, 251 NE(2d) 5 (CP, Hamilton 1969), State v Foster; superseded by 25 App(2d) 21, 266 NE(2d) 259 (1970). All of the subjects of the "modern courts amendment" to O Const Art IV, effective May 7, 1968, had a reasonable relationship to the general object of improving the administration of courts.

3. Failure to comply with procedures

7 OS(3d) 5, 7 OBR 317, 454 NE(2d) 1321 (1983), State ex rel Cramer v Brown. The sixty-four day requirement in O Const Art XVI §1, applies to initiatives proposed by the electorate.

64 OS(2d) 1, 411 NE(2d) 193 (1980), State ex rel Cappelletti v Celebrezze. The sixty-four-day time limitation in O Const Art XVI §1 is a "term and condition" incorporated into O Const Art II §1g and, therefore, applicable to initiative petitions.

30 OS(2d) 82, 282 NE(2d) 584 (1972), State ex rel Roahrig v Brown. Where method of submission of proposed constitutional amendment did not meet requirements of O Const Art XVI §1, the proposal should be stricken from ballot.

30 OS(2d) 75, 283 NE(2d) 131 (1972), State ex rel Minus v Brown. Where, in a mandamus action instituted in the supreme court, substantial constitutional question involving state-wide special election on a proposed constitutional amendment is presented, and where relator has acted timely and in good faith, and where court finds because of delay by general assembly in adopting resolution proposing constitutional amendment it is impossible for secretary of state to substantially comply with provisions of RC 3505.01, and where court finds further that because of such delay it is impossible for county boards of elections to substantially comply with RC 3509.01; then, upon such findings by court, it becomes the clear legal duty of secretary of state to strike such proposed constitutional amendment from the ballot, and the court will exercise its jurisdiction.

170 OS 25, 161 NE(2d) 899 (1959), Wichterman v Brown. Where the text of a proposed constitutional amendment was not entered in the house and senate journals until after adjournment, its proposal by the legislature is ineffective and it will be stricken from the ballot.

167 OS 1, 145 NE(2d) 525 (1957), Leach v Brown. Where the senate adopts a resolution submitting a constitutional amendment to the voters, but the resolution as spread on the senate journal does not include amendments approved by a senate committee, and the resolution as passed by the house does include the amendments proposed by the senate committee, an injunction will issue to prohibit placing the amendment on the ballot.

109 App 508, 163 NE(2d) 770 (1959), Wichterman v Brown; affirmed by 170 OS 25, 161 NE(2d) 899 (1959). Where the complete text of a proposed constitutional amendment is not entered on the journals of the general assembly prior to its adjournment, there is no compliance with the provisions of O Const Art XVI §1 that proposed constitutional amendments "shall be entered on the journals;" and such proposed constitutional amendment may not be submitted to the voters.

4. Effective date of amendments

15 OS(2d) 65, 238 NE(2d) 790 (1968), Euclid v Heaton. A majority of the electors voting on the proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution submitted at the election held May 7, 1968, having voted in favor of its adoption and the secretary of state having certified to that fact, the amendment is effective as of the date of said election by virtue of O Const Art XVI §1, the proposition contained in said resolutions to postpone the effective date of part of said amendment until January 10, 1970, not having been included in the condensed text of the proposed amendment which appeared on the ballot.

15 OS(2d) 65, 238 NE(2d) 790 (1968), Euclid v Heaton. A provision in a joint resolution of the general assembly submitting to the electors a proposed amendment to the constitution that the same shall not go into effect until a time later than that fixed by O Const Art XVI §1, is inoperative and void unless the proposition to postpone the taking effect of such proposed amendment beyond the time named in the constitution is also submitted to the electors of the state and adopted by a majority of those voting on the proposition.

OAG 68-110. A judge who is currently holding office and who otherwise would be eligible for re-election is not disqualified from running for re-election in November, 1968, for the reason that he would have attained the age of seventy years by the time he would assume the office for the term to which he was re-elected.

1961 OAG 2716. While the amendment to O Const Art III, relating to senate confirmation of appointments by the governor, became a part of the constitution as of the date of its approval by the voters, November 7, 1961, the governor was not required to report appointments made between November 7, 1961 to November 21, 1961, to the November session of the senate as the canvassing of the abstracts of vote and the declaration of the secretary of state that the amendment had been approved was not made until December 1, 1961; however, to comply with the spirit of Art II §21, such appointments should be reported to the next session of the senate.

1961 OAG 2716. Since Art III §21 became a part of the constitution on November 7, 1961, appointments requiring senate approval made from November 21, 1961 to December 1, 1961, should be reported to the next session of the senate; and all appointments made after December 1, 1961 should be made in accord with that constitutional provision.

5. Publication of amendments

OAG 91-059. For purposes of O Const Art XVI §1, a newspaper is published in a county when it is issued or circulated to the public therein, regardless of where the newspaper is actually printed.

OAG 91-059. For purposes of selecting a newspaper for advertisement of constitutional amendments pursuant to O Const Art XVI §1, the provision of RC 7.12 governing instances where there are "less than two newspapers published in" a county applies when only one newspaper is actually printed in a county.

OAG 91-059. For purposes of selecting a newspaper for advertisement of constitutional amendments pursuant to O Const Art XVI §1, when only one newspaper is actually printed in a county RC 7.12 authorizes selection of a newspaper printed out of the county if, in addition to being a newspaper of "general circulation," it is also "a newspaper regularly issued at stated intervals from a known office of publication located within" the county.

1931 OAG 3625. The cost of publishing in the various counties amendments to the constitution proposed by the general assembly, as provided in O Const Art XVI §1, heretofore borne by the state, must, in view of the repeal of the law providing for such payment by the state and the enactment of the new election code, be paid by the counties in which such amendments are published.

1925 OAG 2548. The purpose of printing notices required in O Const Art XVI §1 is to inform the public so that fact must be kept in mind when selecting a publication in which to place a notice of a proposed constitutional amendment. However, it is a question of fact as to what exactly constitutes a newspaper and as to what circulation is sufficient to designate a publication as a newspaper. These factual issues must be determined in each particular case with reference to the location in which publication is required.

ELECTIONS

Editor's Comment

1990: Despite its title, this article contains only minimal election provisions. Section 1 governs election days—the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November was originally established as general election day under an 1885 amendment to former §2, Article II, and §1, Article III. Previously, election day was the first Tuesday in October. The section also provides for terms, and staggers election years so that elections for state and county officers are in even-numbered years and elections for municipal officers are held in odd-numbered years. Section 2 of Article XVII provides for filling vacancies in elective offices where not otherwise provided for in the Constitution.

See Article V for various provisions affecting the subject of voting and elections, including the right of suffrage, voting by ballot, requirements for ballots, disenfranchisement of convicts and mentally incompetent persons, and the requirement for direct primaries. Detailed statutes regulating elections are found in RC Title 35. For other provisions on filling vacancies in office, see §11 and 27, Article II, §15, 17, and 18, Article III, and §13, Article IV.

O Const XVII § 1 Times for holding elections; terms of office

Elections for state and county officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in even numbered years; and all elections for all other elective officers shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the odd numbered years.

The term of office of all elective county, township, municipal, and school officers shall be such even number of years not exceeding four as may be prescribed by law or such even number of years as may be provided in municipal or county charters.

The term of office of all judges shall be as provided in Article IV of this constitution or, if not so provided, an even number of years not exceeding six as provided by law.

The general assembly may extend existing terms of office as to effect the purpose of this section.

142 OS 216, 51 NE(2d) 636 (1943), State ex rel Columbus Blank Book Mfg Co v Ayres. Under mandatory provisions of O Const Art X §2 and Art XVII §1, and statutes passed pursuant thereto, all matters pertaining to conduct of elections are state functions.

137 OS 311, 29 NE(2d) 214 (1940), State ex rel Higley v Shale. Under O Const Art XVII §1 elections for only state and county officers shall be held in even-numbered years, and since a municipal judge is neither a state nor a county officer, the board of elections will not be required by a writ of mandamus to place the name of the judge on the ballot.

2. State and county elections

2 OS(2d) 235, 208 NE(2d) 129 (1965), State ex rel Ferguson v Brown. The phrase "first general election," in relation to state offices, means the general election which occurs in the even-numbered years.

137 OS 311, 29 NE(2d) 214 (1940), State ex rel Higley v Shale. Under O Const Art XVII §1 elections for only state and county officers shall be held in even-numbered years, and since a municipal judge is neither a state nor a county officer, the board of elections will not be required by a writ of mandamus to place the name of the judge on the ballot.

107 OS 1, 140 NE 737 (1923), State ex rel Eavey v Smith. GC 2395 (RC 305.01) providing for election of county commissioners is not inconsistent with this section and is constitutional.

83 OS 412, 94 NE 831 (1911), State ex rel Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Co v Creamer. The express provisions of the constitution of the state establish such relation between the election of state officers and the convening of the general assembly that since the seventeenth article, adopted in 1905, has expressly changed the date of the election from November of the odd-numbered years to the same month of the even-numbered years, the provision for the convening of the regular session of the general assembly then elected must be regarded as changed by implication from the first Monday of January in the even-numbered years to the first Monday of the same month in the odd-numbered years.

OAG 65-9. There can be no election in 1965 for the unexpired term of Roger W. Tracy, deceased, the elected auditor of state.

1956 OAG 6361. Elections for justice of the peace may be held only in November in the odd-numbered years.

1956 OAG 6256. Elections for justice of the peace cannot be set under RC 1907.02 prior to the November 1957, election.

3. Elections in charter municipalities

164 OS 231, 129 NE(2d) 814 (1955), State ex rel Gamble v Duffy. Section 10 of the Cleveland city charter providing that if a candidate at a primary election shall receive the majority of votes cast he shall be the candidate for office at the regular municipal election is valid.

124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932), Jones v Cleveland. A municipality may determine in its charter the manner of filling a vacancy occurring in any municipal office; such a provision in the charter is not in conflict with O Const Art XVII §1.

102 App 297, 114 NE(2d) 922 (1953), State ex rel Pecyk v Greene. Section 10 of the charter of the city of Cleveland, as amended October 3, 1953, which provides that "if any candidate at a primary election shall have received a majority of all of the votes cast for such office at the primary election he shall be the candidate for such office at the regular municipal election," is not in conflict with O Const Art XVII §1, which provides the time for holding elections.

29 NP(NS) 118 (CP, Cuyahoga 1931), Jones v Board of Elections; affirmed sub nom Jones v Cleveland, 124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932). The provision of the charter law of the city of Cleveland, fixing the time for holding a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of mayor being on a date different from that named in the state constitution, does not render such an election invalid, and a court holding such an election regular is not open to the charge of permitting a chartered city to do an unconstitutional act.

OAG 72-001. Those portions of village charter which provide for regular election of members of council in odd-numbered years, but which provide for transition from old form of government to new charter form by a special election of members of council in an even-numbered year, are not inconsistent with O Const Art XVII §1, and are valid.

OAG 72-001. Those portions of village charter which provide for election of village mayor in even-numbered years are inconsistent with O Const Art XVII §1, and are invalid.

4. Vacancies in office

168 OS 461, 156 NE(2d) 131 (1959), State ex rel Devine v Hoermle. The portion of RC 731.43 authorizing the mayor of a municipal corporation to fill by appointment a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative authority of such municipal corporation, conflicts with the Section 5 of the Columbus city charter providing that "vacancies in council shall be filled by the council for the remainder of the unexpired term." (See also State ex rel Allison v Jones, 170 OS 323, 164 NE(2d) 417 (1960).)

149 OS 173, 78 NE(2d) 38 (1948), State ex rel Grace v Franklin County Bd of Elections. Where, by reason of death of an incumbent, a vacancy occurs in office of county sheriff and is filled by an appointee of board of county commissioners, such appointee shall hold office until a successor is elected at first election held on first Tuesday after first Monday in November in an even-numbered year and occurring more than thirty days after occurrence of such vacancy.

124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932), Jones v Cleveland. The requirement of O Const Art XVII §1 as to the time of election in odd-numbered years can have no reference whatever to any election for the purpose of filling a vacancy, for it is specifically provided that vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided by law under O Const Art XVII §2; thus, O Const Art XVII §2 prescribes the method of filling vacancies in state elective offices.

124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932), Jones v Cleveland. A municipality may determine in its charter the manner of filling a vacancy occurring in any municipal office; such a provision in the charter is not in conflict with O Const Art XVII §1.

29 NP(NS) 118 (CP, Cuyahoga 1931), Jones v Board of Elections; affirmed sub nom Jones v Cleveland, 124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932). The provision of the charter law of the city of Cleveland, fixing the time for holding a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of mayor being on a date different from that named in the state constitution, does not render such an election invalid, and a court holding such an election regular is not open to the charge of permitting a chartered city to do an unconstitutional act.

OAG 65-9. There can be no election in 1965 for the unexpired term of Roger W. Tracy, deceased, the elected auditor of state.

1957 OAG 200. Where an incumbent of the office of county engineer has been elected at the general election in November of 1956 for a four-year term, commencing on the first Monday in January, 1957, and where such incumbent resigns effective January 31, 1957, the individual thereafter appointed by the board of county commissioners to fill such vacancy will hold such office until the election and qualification of his successor; and such successor should be elected for the unexpired term at the general election in November, 1958.

O Const XVII § 2 Filling vacancies in certain elective offices

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective state office created by Article II or III or created by or pursuant to Article IV of this constitution shall be filled only if and as provided in such articles. Any vacancy which may occur in any elective state office not so created, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor until the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term of the vacant office at the first general election in an even numbered year that occurs more than forty days after the vacancy has occurred; provided, that when the unexpired term ends within one year immediately following the date of such general election, an election to fill such unexpired term shall not be held and the appointment shall be for such unexpired term. All vacancies in other elective offices shall be filled for the unexpired term in such manner as may be prescribed by this constitution or by law.

1. In general

2 OS(2d) 235, 208 NE(2d) 129 (1965), State ex rel Ferguson v Brown. The phrase, "first general election," in relation to state offices, means the general election which occurs in the even-numbered years.

107 OS 1, 140 NE 737 (1923), State ex rel Eavey v Smith. GC 2395 (RC 305.01) providing for election of county commissioners is not inconsistent with this section and is constitutional.

2. Manner of filling vacancy

124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932), Jones v Cleveland. The requirement of O Const Art XVII §1 as to the time of election in odd-numbered years can have no reference whatever to any election for the purpose of filling a vacancy, for it is specifically provided that vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided by law under O Const Art XVII §2; thus, O Const Art XVII §2 prescribes the method of filling vacancies in state elective offices.

124 OS 544, 179 NE 741 (1932), Jones v Cleveland. A municipality may determine in its charter the manner of filling a vacancy occurring in any municipal office; such a provision in the charter is not in conflict with O Const Art XVII §1.

OAG 69-052. When a reelected county treasurer dies more than fifteen days before the end of his term of office, the vacancy shall be filled pursuant to RC 305.02(A) for the reason that there is no provision made in the law to permit an appointment to be made for the purpose of filling vacancies in the office of county treasurer spanning more than part of one term, the county central committee shall appoint someone to fill such second vacancy if it occurs because of death before the term began, pursuant to RC 305.02(A) and 305.02(B).

OAG 65-9. There can be no election in 1965 for the unexpired term of Roger W. Tracy, deceased, the elected auditor of state.

1939 OAG 138. A law which provides that a vacancy for a period of less than one year in the office of a judge be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term is in conflict with O Const Art XVII §2, and 13, and therefore is unconstitutional.

3. Term of office

161 OS 346, 119 NE(2d) 277 (1954), State ex rel Davis v Brown. Where an unexpired term of the office of judge ends within one year following the date of a general election, the appointment to fill the vacancy is for the unexpired term.

128 OS 273, 191 NE 115 (1934), Franklin County Bd of Elections v State ex rel Schneider. GC 2750-1 (Repealed) extending the present existing terms of county recorders to the first Monday of January, 1937, is unconstitutional in that it destroys the elective character of the office of county recorder and violates O Const Art XVII.

47 App 526, 192 NE 178 (1934), State ex rel Tharp v Scott. Justice of peace could not hold over beyond term and at expiration thereof vacancy existed which could be filled by township trustees.

1956 OAG 6361. The terms of justices of the peace beginning on and after January 1, 1956, are for two years.

1933 OAG 909. The general assembly is without constitutional power to extend the term of office of incumbents of elective county offices from two to four years.

COMMENTARY

Editor's Comment

1990: This is another key section in the Home Rule Amendment, and empowers cities and villages to prescribe the form and organization of their respective municipal governments by means of a charter.

Adoption of a charter is not a prerequisite to the exercise by a municipality of powers of local self-government. These are granted by §3, Article XVIII regardless of whether a charter has been adopted. Perrysburg v Ridgway, 108 OS 245, 140 NE 595 (1923). But, absent adoption of a charter, the form and organization of municipal government is controlled by general law. RC Ch 705 provides a choice of three plans of government: the commission plan (RC 705.41 to 705.48); the city manager plan (RC 705.51 to 705.60); and the federal plan (RC 705.71 to 705.86). The commission plan provides for elected commissioners who function both as legislators and heads of administrative departments. The city manager plan provides for an elected council, with an appointed city manager who functions as the administrative head of the municipal government. The federal plan calls for an elected mayor and council.

For provisions governing the framing, adoption, and amendment of a municipal charter, see §8 and 9, Article XVIII. The question of whether to frame a charter, adoption of the proposed charter, and subsequent amendment of the charter must all be submitted to referendum under these sections.

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The dual capacity of the municipality continues notwithstanding constitutional home rule provisions; therefore, where a city acts for itself it exercises the powers of local self-government within imposed limitations and where it acts for the state it has no right or authority to put into its charter or to enact by ordinance any local regulation—police, sanitary, or other—which conflicts with the general laws of the state.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. A charter adopted by the people of a municipality pursuant to the constitution and subject to such limitations as may be provided therein governs, controls, and limits council very much the same as the constitution governs, controls, and limits the general assembly.

273 F 202 (6th Cir Ohio 1921), Silvey v Montgomery County Commrs. The home rule provisions of the Ohio Constitution authorize governmental and not contractual action, and the powers conferred upon chartered cities by the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7 are not only purely local and municipal but purely governmental, and the home rule doctrine does not apply to the creation of a conservancy district, since the state cannot bargain with or deprive itself of the right to exercise its police power for the immediate preservation of public health and safety.

1954 OAG 4244. The power given the general assembly in O Const Art XVIII §2 to enact laws for the government of municipalities is transferred by O Const Art XVIII §7 to the electors of a municipality, to be exercised by them after they adopt a charter.

1928 OAG 2195. The home rule provisions of O Const Art XVIII, do not confer any extraterritorial authority.

2. Powers of local self-government

165 OS 441, 136 NE(2d) 43 (1956), State ex rel Bindas v Andrish. Although the Ohio Constitution limits the authority of municipalities to adopt and enforce "police, sanitary and other similar regulations" to such regulations "as are not in conflict with general laws," there is no such limitation with respect to the "authority to exercise all [other] powers of local self-government."

49 App(3d) 125, 550 NE(2d) 982 (Summit 1989), Harrison v Judge. A municipal charter enacted under the power of local self-government prevails over state statutes, and only regulations enacted under a city's police power are subject to the general laws of the state.

49 App(3d) 125, 550 NE(2d) 982 (Summit 1989), Harrison v Judge. Under home rule powers granted by O Const Art XVIII §7 and as anticipated by RC 3709.05, a city may create a health district board differing in structure from that set forth in RC 3709.05, provided the board is established and maintained under authority of the city's charter; the charter provision as to the board concerns a matter with no extraterritorial effect and is not an exercise of police power but is instead enacted under the power of local self-government.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. In the absence of a specifically enumerated power in its charter a municipality may exercise an unenumerated or reserve power directly under O Const Art XVIII §3, subject however, with respect to the adoption and enforcement within its limits of local police, sanitary, and other similar regulations, to the limitation that the same shall not be in conflict with general laws.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. The powers of a municipality must be exercised in the manner prescribed by the Constitution, by its charter or by applicable general laws, and in the absence thereof may be exercised in the manner prescribed by ordinance.

1984-86 SERB 420 (CP, Franklin, 3-8-85), Columbus v SERB. An area of governance traditionally within the preserve of local authorities may become a subject for state police regulation that is exempt from local control by virtue of the "magnitude of the statewide concern." (See also In re Columbus, SERB 85-004 (2-6-85).)

1927 OAG p 678. The powers of local self-government granted by O Const Art XVIII §7 are not without limitation; instead, this provision is to be construed together with O Const Art XVIII §3, 6, and 13.

3. Conflict with general law

43 OS(3d) 1, 1989 SERB 4-41, 539 NE(2d) 103 (1989), Rocky River v SERB. Municipalities are held to have no authority to exercise any "powers of local self-government" any time that exercise conflicts with general state laws; in other words, the grants to municipalities under O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7 of "authority to exercise all powers of local self-government" and of home rule are held to be inferior to the state legislature's power to enact general laws, in the same way that municipal police, sanitary, and similar regulations are subject to be overridden by conflicting general state laws.

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The words, "as are not in conflict with general laws" found in O Const Art XVIII §3 modify only the words "local police, sanitary and other similar regulations" and not the words "powers of local self- government" found in that section and O Const Art XVIII §7, and the mere fact that the exercise of a power of local self-government may happen to relate to the police department does not make it a police regulation within the meaning of the words in O Const Art XVIII §3. (See also Choura v Cleveland, 44 Misc 39, 336 NE(2d) 467 (CP, Cuyahoga 1975).)

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The mere concern of the state which may justify the state in providing a state police department will not justify the state's interference with the operation of a municipal police department.

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The appointment of officers in the police force of a city represents the exercise of a power of local self-government within the meaning of those words as used in O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

167 OS 369, 148 NE(2d) 921 (1958), Beachwood v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. The detachment of territory from a municipality does not fall within the sphere of local self-government but is a subject which requires the establishment of a uniform procedure throughout the state and is exclusively within the control of the general assembly.

165 OS 441, 136 NE(2d) 43 (1956), State ex rel Bindas v Andrish. Although the Ohio Constitution limits the authority of municipalities to adopt and enforce "police, sanitary and other similar regulations" to such regulations "as are not in conflict with general laws," there is no such limitation with respect to the "authority to exercise all [other] powers of local self-government."

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. In general, matters relating to police and fire protection are of statewide concern and under the control of state sovereignty.

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. In matters of statewide concern the state is supreme over its municipalities and may in the exercise of its sovereignty impose duties and responsibilities upon them as arms or agencies of the state.

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The dual capacity of the municipality continues notwithstanding constitutional home rule provisions; therefore, where a city acts for itself it exercises the powers of local self-government within imposed limitations and where it acts for the state it has no right or authority to put into its charter or to enact by ordinance any local regulation—police, sanitary, or other—which conflicts with the general laws of the state.

119 OS 596, 165 NE 298 (1929), State ex rel Ramey v Davis. The sovereignty of Ohio, as to its courts extends over all the state, including charter municipalities as well as those governed by general laws.

62 App(3d) 301, 575 NE(2d) 499 (Clark 1990), Springfield Command Officers Assn v Springfield City Comm. A conflict between a home-rule charter provision and a civil service statute is distinguishable from a conflict between a home-rule charter provision and the Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Act; home-rule charter provisions supersede civil service statutory provisions.

49 App(3d) 125, 550 NE(2d) 982 (Summit 1989), Harrison v Judge. A municipal charter enacted under the power of local self-government prevails over state statutes, and only regulations enacted under a city's police power are subject to the general laws of the state.

107 App 71, 152 NE(2d) 311 (1958), State ex rel Hauck v Bachrach; affirmed by 168 OS 268, 153 NE(2d) 671 (1958). The provisions of RC 755.01 et seq. relating to municipal boards of park commissioners, are operative in noncharter municipalities and in such charter cities as have made them operative therein, and where valid enactments of a charter municipality are in conflict therewith such statutes, and not the municipal enactments, must yield.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. In the absence of a specifically enumerated power in its charter a municipality may exercise an unenumerated or reserve power directly under O Const Art XVIII §3, subject however, with respect to the adoption and enforcement within its limits of local police, sanitary, and other similar regulations, to the limitation that the same shall not be in conflict with general laws.

(See also In re Columbus, SERB 85-004 (2-6-85).)

1984-86 SERB 420 (CP, Franklin, 3-8-85), Columbus v SERB. Prevention of police strikes and maintenance of order in the state of Ohio are matters of "statewide concern" in light of the fact that police enforce state laws as well as municipal ordinances; as a consequence, the binding arbitration provisions of RC Ch 4117 do not violate the home rule provisions of O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7. (See also In re Columbus, SERB 85-004 (2-6-85).)

1984-86 SERB 418 (CP, Montgomery, 12-21-84), Kettering v SERB; affirmed by 26 OS(3d) 50, 26 OBR 42, 496 NE(2d) 983 (1986). The "labor unrest" addressed by RC Ch 4117 is not restricted to one municipality but affects the entire state and is a "matter of statewide concern," so that the statute is a general law prevailing over local ordinances such as one classifying police sergeants, lieutenants, and captains as "supervisors" who cannot be included in a collective bargaining unit.

1984-86 SERB 399 (2d Dist Ct App, Montgomery, 7-8-85), Kettering v SERB. A general law exercising the state's police power prevails over all local powers of self-government, not just over local regulations under the police power.

487 FSupp 135 (SD Ohio 1978), United States v Blue Ash; affirmed by 621 F(2d) 227 (6th Cir Ohio 1980). A city ordinance is invalid under the federal preemption doctrine where it is passed for the express purpose of air traffic noise control and it dictates aircraft flight in a given course in a defined navigable airspace.

4. Powers of charter and non-charter municipalities

a. In general

142 OS 574, 53 NE(2d) 501 (1944), State ex rel Arey v Sherrill; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. A city or village which adopts a charter for its government pursuant to permissive authority granted by constitution or general code does not thereby become an independent sovereignty and such municipality has no greater power to exercise local self-government than a noncharter municipality.

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. By virtue of O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7, a municipality, irrespective of whether it has adopted a charter, has powers of local self-government and may adopt and enforce within its limits such local police, sanitary and other similar regulations as are not in conflict with general law.

108 OS 245, 140 NE 595 (1923), Perrysburg v Ridgway. The exercise of "all powers of local self-government," as provided in O Const Art XVIII §3, is not in any way dependent upon or conditioned by O Const Art XVIII §7, which provides that "a municipality may adopt a charter," etc.

23 Abs 334, 5 OSupp 402 (CP, Hamilton 1937), Mayer v Ames; affirmed by 58 App 295, 16 NE(2d) 498 (Hamilton 1937); affirmed by 133 OS 458, 14 NE(2d) 617 (1938). O Const Art XVIII §7 allows charter cities to pass such special legislation as their needs require without compelling them to be subject to the old law that municipalities can only operate under laws which have a uniform operation throughout the state.

b. Classification for purposes of general law

157 OS 515, 106 NE(2d) 286 (1952), Sanzere v Cincinnati. The general assembly may recognize and apply the classification between charter and noncharter municipalities.

117 OS 258, 158 NE 606 (1927), Dillon v Cleveland. O Const Art XVIII §7, authorizes a classification of municipalities into charter and noncharter municipalities.

179 NE(2d) 182 (CP, Montgomery 1961), State ex rel Jackson v Horstman. The classification of municipalities into charter cities and cities without charters by RC 1901.07 is not beyond the power of the general assembly in light of O Const Art XVIII, since that article itself creates the distinction.

c. Charter municipalities

92 OS 478, 111 NE 155 (1915), Billings v Cleveland Railway Co. It was contemplated by the framers of the amendment of the Ohio Constitution which adopted O Const Art XVIII that the provisions in a charter adopted by a city would differ from the general laws of the state, within the limits defined by the constitution, and it was the object of the amendment to permit such differences and to make them effective.

53 App(3d) 68, 558 NE(2d) 79 (Montgomery 1988), Horton v Dayton. The power granted charter municipalities under O Const Art XVIII §7 does not include power to amend legislation adopted by the general assembly by redefining its terms.

107 App 71, 152 NE(2d) 311 (1958), State ex rel Hauck v Bachrach; affirmed by 168 OS 268, 153 NE(2d) 671 (1958). The provisions of RC 755.01 et seq. relating to municipal boards of park commissioners, are operative in noncharter municipalities and in such charter cities as have made them operative therein, and where valid enactments of a charter municipality are in conflict therewith such statutes, and not the municipal enactments, must yield.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. In the absence of a specifically enumerated power in its charter a municipality may exercise an unenumerated or reserve power directly under O Const Art XVIII §3, subject however, with respect to the adoption and enforcement within its limits of local police, sanitary, and other similar regulations, to the limitation that the same shall not be in conflict with general laws.

No. L-83-258 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 4-13-84), Phillips v Perkins. A charter or ordinance regulating local self-government renders a statute ineffective only if there is a direct conflict between the two. A statutory sixty-day time limit is effective and does not conflict with a "reasonable time" limit of a municipal charter.

221 F(2d) 412, 73 Abs 334 (ND Ohio 1955), Valley View Village, Inc v Proffett. Home rule amendment of Ohio Constitution is self-executing, and does not require a municipality to adopt charter as prerequisite to exercise of home rule powers.

d. Non-charter municipalities

61 OS(2d) 375, 402 NE(2d) 519 (1980), Northern Ohio Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn v Parma. An Ohio municipality which has not adopted a charter for its government, as authorized by O Const Art XVIII §7, must, in the passage of legislation, follow the procedure prescribed by statutes enacted pursuant to the mandate of O Const Art XVIII §2.

35 OS(2d) 148, 299 NE(2d) 269 (1973), Wintersville v Argo Sales Co. An Ohio municipality which has not adopted a charter for its government, as authorized by O Const Art XVIII §7, must, in the passage of legislation, follow the procedure prescribed by statutes enacted pursuant to the mandate of O Const Art XVIII §2.

107 App 71, 152 NE(2d) 311 (1958), State ex rel Hauck v Bachrach; affirmed by 168 OS 268, 153 NE(2d) 671 (1958). The provisions of RC 755.01 et seq. relating to municipal boards of park commissioners, are operative in noncharter municipalities and in such charter cities as have made them operative therein, and where valid enactments of a charter municipality are in conflict therewith such statutes, and not the municipal enactments, must yield.

OAG 67-078. A noncharter city operating under a general plan of municipal government may not create a department, other than those departments already authorized by the Revised Code, to handle matters such as income tax and ambulance service.

1962 OAG 3103. In the absence of the establishment by charter of a framework through which a municipality may exercise the powers of local self-government, the general laws of the state governing the framework through which such powers may be exercised must prevail.

1962 OAG 3103. A municipality which has adopted one of the plans of government set forth in RC Ch 705 may, in accordance with the provisions of said chapter applicable to the plan of government which such municipality has established, combine the police and fire departments.

1961 OAG 2171. A village operating without a charter may as part of the compensation to its employees pursuant to proper action of its legislative body provide hospitalization for its employees and pay the premium for such coverage from village funds.

1952 OAG p 832. A municipality, which has not adopted a special charter under O Const Art XVIII §7, must exercise its powers of local self-government by and through officers provided in the general laws authorized by O Const Art XVIII §2.

1950 OAG 1604. If a city has not adopted one of the optional plans of government and framed a charter or exercised its powers of local self-government pursuant to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §7, the provisions of GC 4323 (RC 735.01) to 4334 (RC 735.09), inclusive, as they pertain to the powers and duties of the director of public service in the operation and maintenance of all municipally-owned utilities, must be followed.

5. Framing, adopting, and amending charter

39 OS(3d) 19, 528 NE(2d) 1254 (1988), Fox v Lakewood. Adoption of an amendment to a city charter by the electors of the city cures the city council's failure to open to the public its deliberations regarding the amendment, as required by the city's charter.

150 OS 203, 80 NE(2d) 769 (1948), State ex rel Hackley v Edmonds. Wisdom or desirability of provisions of a municipal charter, adopted pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7, so far as such provisions are of a strictly local nature and are not in conflict with general laws of state, is not a subject for judicial inquiry.

107 OS 144, 141 NE 35 (1923), Hile v Cleveland; appeal dismissed by 266 US 582, 45 SCt 97, 69 LEd 452 (1924). The enactment of charter amendments by a home-rule city is not a suspension of law, and neither does it constitute an exercise of the legislative power of the state nor, since it applies to the city only, does it constitute an enactment of law of a general nature; consequently, such amendments do not violate any constitutional provisions regarding passage of laws by the general assembly.

100 OS 339, 126 NE 309 (1919), State ex rel Frankenstein v Hillenbrand. City officers elected at an election at which a city charter is adopted are not elected under the charter, since it is not yet in force, nor under state law, since it is superseded by the charter; but where the proposed city charter designates the person who shall fill a purely municipal office, the adoption of the charter is effective to designate such person as that officer, even though the election is ineffective for all but that purpose. (See also State ex rel Schmidter v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 534, 127 NE 926 (1919); State ex rel Calvert v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 536, 127 NE 926 (1919).)

21 App(3d) 165, 21 OBR 176, 486 NE(2d) 1160 (Summit 1984), Hayslip v Akron. General principles of statutory construction are to be applied in interpreting a city charter, with the guidance of reason and common sense; the goal of interpretation is to give effect to the intention behind each provision.

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. Call of a special election was valid although funds for mailing the copy of a proposed charter were not appropriated prior to such mailing, although only fifty-five days intervened between the submission of the charter to the voters and the special election, and although the proofs of the ballots were not posted nor sureties furnished on the printing contract.

1956 OAG 6809. The provisions of RC 705.03 regarding mailing copies of a proposed plan of government to the electors do not apply to the issue of adopting a charter.

6. Exercising powers of local self-government through charter

a. In general

103 OS 306, 133 NE 552 (1921), Switzer v State ex rel Silvey. GC 3515-1, which purports to provide optional forms of municipal government expressly under O Const Art XVIII §2, and providing for the adoption of any one of them by referendum vote, has no application to municipalities that have adopted a charter form of government under O Const Art XVIII §7.

88 OS 338, 103 NE 512 (1913), Fitzgerald v Cleveland. O Const Art XVIII §7, as adopted in 1912, authorizing a city or village to adopt a charter, is not confined to providing a form of government without prescribing its functions, but they may determine what officers they will have, which shall be appointed and which elected, provide for nomination by petition in a prescribed way, the elections, however, being conducted under the general laws.

49 App(3d) 125, 550 NE(2d) 982 (Summit 1989), Harrison v Judge. A municipal charter enacted under the power of local self-government prevails over state statutes, and only regulations enacted under a city's police power are subject to the general laws of the state.

21 App(3d) 165, 21 OBR 176, 486 NE(2d) 1160 (Summit 1984), Hayslip v Akron. A municipal charter provision is self-executing where it includes the rules which carry it into effect such that no further legislation is needed to apply it.

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. A charter adopted by the people of a municipality pursuant to the constitution and subject to such limitations as may be provided therein governs, controls, and limits council very much the same as the constitution governs, controls, and limits the general assembly.

1954 OAG 4244. The power given the general assembly in O Const Art XVIII §2 to enact laws for the government of municipalities is transferred by O Const Art XVIII §7 to the electors of a municipality, to be exercised by them after they adopt a charter.

b. Municipal officers

58 OS(3d) 1, 567 NE(2d) 987 (1991), Cuyahoga Falls v Robart. When a city charter provides for representation of the city by its law director in all lawsuits, the city has no authority to provide for the hiring of outside counsel in place of the law director to act on behalf of the city in particular litigation, unless the law director is ill, absent, or otherwise disqualified from acting.

54 OS(3d) 91, 561 NE(2d) 909 (1990), State ex rel Vana v Maple Heights City Council. A provision in a city charter that prohibits an elected official from simultaneously holding other public office or other public employment does not violate the Equal Protection Clauses of the Ohio and United States Constitutions.

45 OS(2d) 292, 345 NE(2d) 71 (1976), State ex rel Lockhart v Boberek. The provisions of RC 705.92, permitting recall of the elective officers of a municipal corporation, go into effect only to the extent that they have been adopted by the voters as part of a home rule charter.

168 OS 461, 156 NE(2d) 131 (1959), State ex rel Devine v Hoermle. The portion of RC 731.43 authorizing the mayor of a municipal corporation to fill by appointment a vacancy in the office of a member of the legislative authority of such municipal corporation conflicts with Section 5 of the Columbus city charter providing that "vacancies in council shall be filled by the council for the remainder of the unexpired term." (See also State ex rel Allison v Jones, 170 OS 323, 164 NE(2d) 417 (1960).)

165 OS 441, 136 NE(2d) 43 (1956), State ex rel Bindas v Andrish. A charter municipality can determine upon qualifications for its councilmen which may be different from those provided by statute, and where the charter specifies certain qualifications for a councilman, the requirements of RC 731.02 will not apply in the absence of their adoption by other provisions of the charter.

150 OS 203, 80 NE(2d) 769 (1948), State ex rel Hackley v Edmonds. O Const Art XVIII §7, vests in municipality adopting a charter pursuant thereto the power to prescribe manner of selecting members of its council, to fix terms of such members, and to so restrict tenure of office of such members as to make such tenure dependent upon will of electors.

127 OS 204, 187 NE 733 (1933), State ex rel Stanley v Bernon. Municipalities have authority to provide by charter for the nomination of their elective officers.

100 OS 339, 126 NE 309 (1919), State ex rel Frankenstein v Hillenbrand. In a city adopting a charter the manner of selecting purely municipal officers is a subject of "local self-government," and the provisions of the charter must therefore supplant GC 4249; under O Const Art XVIII §7, municipalities are authorized to determine what officers shall administer their government, which shall be appointed, and which shall be elected.

100 OS 339, 126 NE 309 (1919), State ex rel Frankenstein v Hillenbrand. City officers elected at an election at which a city charter is adopted are not elected under the charter, since it is not yet in force, nor under state law, since it is superseded by the charter; but where the proposed city charter designates the person who shall fill a purely municipal office, the adoption of the charter is effective to designate such person as that officer, even though the election is ineffective for all but that purpose. (See also State ex rel Schmidter v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 534, 127 NE 926 (1919); State ex rel Calvert v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 536, 127 NE 926 (1919).)

96 OS 172, 117 NE 173 (1917), State ex rel Taylor v French. The charter of a city, by which a part of the sovereign governmental power may be exercised under the sanction of the constitution itself, which confers the right to vote for municipal elective officers and to be elected to and hold municipal offices, not created by the constitution but by the charter itself, is valid.

88 OS 338, 103 NE 512 (1913), Fitzgerald v Cleveland. O Const Art XVIII §7, as adopted in 1912, authorizing a city or village to adopt a charter, is not confined to providing a form of government without prescribing its functions, but they may determine what officers they will have, which shall be appointed and which elected, provide for nomination by petition in a prescribed way, the elections, however, being conducted under the general laws.

3 App(3d) 40, 3 OBR 43, 443 NE(2d) 1034 (1982), State ex rel Corrigan v Barnes. RC 2961.01 does not conflict with the home rule provisions of the Ohio Constitution because such statute does not solely establish the qualifications for the office of city councilman and involves a statewide concern, i.e. the punishment of felony offenders.

120 App 415, 193 NE(2d) 710 (1963), Loux v Lakewood; appeal dismissed by 176 OS 154, 198 NE(2d) 447 (1964). A municipal ordinance increasing the salaries of members of city council during their existing terms of office is valid.

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. The number of councilmen may be set by the charter of a municipality.

27 NP(NS) 185 (CP, Cuyahoga 1928), Hinslea v Lakewood City Council. The provisions of a city charter adopted under the so-called home rule section of the O Const Art XVIII §7, providing for the recall and removal of its city officials, are ineffective, unless they provide for such recall and removal upon complaint and hearing as required by the constitution.

c. Elections; referenda

4 OS(3d) 174, 4 OBR 453, 447 NE(2d) 1299 (1983), Hitt v Tressler. O Const Art II §21, empowers the general assembly to determine before what authority and in what manner election contests shall be had.

45 OS(2d) 292, 345 NE(2d) 71 (1976), State ex rel Lockhart v Boberek. The provisions of RC 705.92, permitting recall of the elective officers of a municipal corporation, go into effect only to the extent that they have been adopted by the voters as part of a home rule charter.

12 OS(2d) 116, 233 NE(2d) 129 (1967), State ex rel Hunter v Erickson; reversed by 393 US 385, 89 SCt 557, 21 LEd(2d) 616 (1969). The charter of a municipal corporation may lawfully be amended to provide that any ordinance which regulates the use, sale, advertisement, transfer, listing, assignment, lease, sublease or financing of real property on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, must first be approved by the electors of such municipality, and that any such ordinance in effect at the time of adoption of such a charter amendment shall cease to be effective until approved by such electors even though such voter approval is not required with respect to other kinds of ordinances.

160 OS 189, 115 NE(2d) 154 (1953), State ex rel Haffner v Green. Where a city charter fixes a final day by which nominating petitions must be filed with the board of elections but sets no hour deadline on that day, a candidate is entitled to file his nominating petition at any time until midnight of the final day for filing.

127 OS 204, 187 NE 733 (1933), State ex rel Stanley v Bernon. Municipalities have authority to provide by charter for the nomination of their elective officers.

100 OS 339, 126 NE 309 (1919), State ex rel Frankenstein v Hillenbrand. City officers elected at an election at which a city charter is adopted are not elected under the charter, since it is not yet in force, nor under state law, since it is superseded by the charter; but where the proposed city charter designates the person who shall fill a purely municipal office, the adoption of the charter is effective to designate such person as that officer, even though the election is ineffective for all but that purpose. (See also State ex rel Schmidter v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 534, 127 NE 926 (1919); State ex rel Calvert v Hillenbrand, 100 OS 536, 127 NE 926 (1919).)

96 OS 172, 117 NE 173 (1917), State ex rel Taylor v French. The charter of a city, by which a part of the sovereign governmental power may be exercised under the sanction of the constitution itself, which confers the right to vote for municipal elective officers and to be elected to and hold municipal offices, not created by the constitution but by the charter itself, is valid.

88 OS 338, 103 NE 512 (1913), Fitzgerald v Cleveland. O Const Art XVIII §7, as adopted in 1912, authorizing a city or village to adopt a charter, is not confined to providing a form of government without prescribing its functions, but they may determine what officers they will have, which shall be appointed and which elected, provide for nomination by petition in a prescribed way, the elections, however, being conducted under the general laws.

88 OS 338, 103 NE 512 (1913), Fitzgerald v Cleveland. The system or plan to be followed in the nomination and election of the officials of any city is only of interest and concern to the people within the limits of the city, and when governmental powers have been conferred upon a city by its charter adopted under O Const Art XVIII §7, it acts within its authority when it adopts its own plan provided it violates no constitutional requirement; therefore, the general law providing for the conduct of elections cannot supersede the provisions adopted by the city of Cleveland in its charter in compliance with the fundamental law. (See also State ex rel Taylor v French, 96 OS 172, 117 NE 173 (1917).)

65 App(2d) 23, 413 NE(2d) 854 (1979), State ex rel Froelich v Montgomery County Bd of Elections. Charter cities have the power to regulate municipal elections.

40 App(2d) 299, 318 NE(2d) 889 (1974), State ex rel Cleveland City Council v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Cleveland city council has authority to enact legislation but it does not have authority to pass an ordinance to be submitted to the voters for approval or disapproval.

102 App 425, 128 NE(2d) 865 (Cuyahoga 1955), State ex rel Horvath v Haber. Cleveland has power to provide for a nonpartisan primary election for the nomination of elective officers.

102 App 425, 128 NE(2d) 865 (Cuyahoga 1955), State ex rel Horvath v Haber. For purposes of closing registration of nonpartisan municipal primary election is a primary election and not a special election.

102 App 297, 114 NE(2d) 922 (1953), State ex rel Pecyk v Greene. Cleveland charter amendment providing that candidate receiving a majority vote in the primary election shall be the only candidate to appear on the ballot in the general election is valid and in effect for the primary election at which it was enacted.

97 App 91, 114 NE(2d) 513 (1953), State ex rel Haffner v Green; affirmed by 160 OS 189, 115 NE(2d) 154 (1953). Where under a city charter the time within which candidates for councilman must file nominating petitions is fixed as the fortieth day prior to the primary election, without fixing an hour or time of day of the fortieth day within which such petitions must be filed, a candidate has until midnight of the fortieth day within which to file his nominating petitions.

81 App 294, 79 NE(2d) 183 (1946), State ex rel Toledo v Lucas County Bd of Elections. Under O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7, and Art II §1f, a municipality may, by charter, provide when a referendum election shall be held upon an ordinance on which a vote has been duly demanded.

77 Abs 570, 143 NE(2d) 879 (CP, Montgomery 1957), Dayton v Horstman. Where a city charter expressly prohibits write-in votes on a ballot for city commissioners, the court will not order a municipal primary to be held solely for the purpose of permitting write-in votes.

27 NP(NS) 185 (CP, Cuyahoga 1928), Hinslea v Lakewood City Council. The provisions of a city charter adopted under the so-called home rule section of the O Const Art XVIII §7, providing for the recall and removal of its city officials, are ineffective, unless they provide for such recall and removal upon complaint and hearing as required by the constitution.

1958 OAG 2332. In the absence of an authorizing provision in a charter duly adopted by a municipality, the council of such municipality is without authority to present to the board of elections for submission to the electors a proposed ordinance which is to become effective only upon their approval; and the board of elections is without authority to receive or submit such proposal to the electors of the municipality.

d. Legislative procedures

40 OS(3d) 149, 532 NE(2d) 719 (1988), State ex rel Craft v Schisler. A city charter provision requiring all council and committee meetings to be public effectively prohibits any meeting, regardless of its purpose, from being private and supersedes RC 121.22(G) which allows members of a public body to hold private executive sessions to discuss matters relating to personnel, official appointment, purchasing property, litigation, and labor negotiations.

39 OS(3d) 19, 528 NE(2d) 1254 (1988), Fox v Lakewood. Adoption of an amendment to a city charter by the electors of the city cures the city council's failure to open to the public its deliberations regarding the amendment, as required by the city's charter.

38 OS(3d) 165, 527 NE(2d) 807 (1988), State ex rel Plain Dealer Publishing Co v Barnes. Where a city charter provision requires that "all meetings of council or committees thereof shall be public," the word "meetings" encompasses any assemblage of the city council or its committees where a majority of the members constituting the body are in attendance and the gathering is arranged for the purpose of discussing public business.

3 OS(2d) 191, 209 NE(2d) 399 (1965), Beacon Journal Publishing Co v Akron. At any session of a municipal board or commission subject to RC 121.22 or to a similar municipal code provision, where any action is taken which is required by law, rule or regulation to be recorded in the minutes, the journal or any other official record of the board or commission, such session is a meeting which must be open to the public. (Also discussed is the question of which boards are subject to state statutes, which to municipal ordinances, and which to neither).

145 OS 144, 60 NE(2d) 919 (1945), Cleveland v Piskura. By virtue of provisions of O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7, the municipalities of this state are granted limited legislative power. However, the legislative bodies of such municipalities may not abdicate or transfer to others the essential legislative functions with which they are invested.

135 OS 580, 22 NE(2d) 84 (1939), State ex rel Bateman v Zachritz. In adopting a charter a municipality may make any one or more of its boards the repository of legislative power.

135 OS 580, 22 NE(2d) 84 (1939), State ex rel Bateman v Zachritz. Cincinnati city charter, Art VII §5, which gives to the city planning commission power to approve all plans of the city and makes it possible to overrule the commission only by a two-thirds vote of city council, is not unconstitutional on the ground that it delegates legislative power to the planning commission.

40 App(2d) 299, 318 NE(2d) 889 (1974), State ex rel Cleveland City Council v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. Cleveland city council has authority to enact legislation but it does not have authority to pass an ordinance to be submitted to the voters for approval or disapproval.

115 App 541, 186 NE(2d) 94 (1962), Avon Lake v Burke. The doctrine of separation of powers does not apply to charter cities; and a municipal charter may invest more than one municipal body with both legislative and executive powers and duties.

No. 52354 (8th Dist Ct App, Cuyahoga, 6-11-87), Fox v Lakewood. The home rule provisions of the Ohio Constitution exempt a municipal corporation from the mandates of the "sunshine law," RC 121.22, where such law is not adopted in the municipal corporation's charter; thus, an amendment authorized by an ordinance passed by council at an open meeting after discussing it at a closed meeting and approved by the voters is not voidable.

67 Abs 170, 117 NE(2d) 227 (CP, Montgomery 1953), Hammond v Young. A city commission, as the legislative authority of the city, has exclusive power to establish and change the number and boundaries of wards within the city even though all members of its legislative body are elected at large under the city charter.

22 NP(NS) 533, 31 D 335 (CP, Summit 1920), Akron v Zeisloft; affirmed by Court of Appeals. This section confers upon the council of a charter city legislative power as to matters of local self-government to the same extent as the legislature possesses such power for the state at large; and the validity of a contract for a local improvement, undertaken by a charter city, is not dependent upon statutory law relating to municipalities, but upon the provisions of its charter and the acts of the council thereunder.

1954 OAG 4244. A charter municipality may prescribe the procedure for passage and publication of its ordinances and resolutions, which provisions will prevail over the statutes relative thereto, or it may authorize the municipal council to prescribe such procedure with like effect.

1951 OAG 654. Charter provisions adopted pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7, relating to matters of local self-government, including the manner of publication of ordinances, will prevail over conflicting and different provisions of the general laws of the state.

e. Taxation and finance

2 OS(2d) 292, 208 NE(2d) 747 (1965), Thompson v Cincinnati. A resident of one municipal corporation who receives wages as a result of work and labor performed within another municipal corporation may be lawfully taxed on such wages by both municipal corporations.

172 OS 95, 173 NE(2d) 760 (1961), McConnell v Columbus. Columbus may levy an income tax on compensation earned by a nonresident of the city for services paid for by Ohio state university and performed for it within that portion of the property of Ohio state university located within the boundaries of Columbus.

104 OS 607, 136 NE 824 (1922), Berry v Columbus. O Const Art XVIII §7, was not repealed by the adoption of Art XVIII §13, or any other home rule provisions therein, and city charter provisions as to street assessments must yield to the state laws. (See also State ex rel Osborne v Williams, 111 OS 400, 145 NE 542 (1924).)

97 OS 86, 119 NE 253 (1917), State ex rel Toledo v Cooper. O Const Art XIII §6 authorizes the general assembly to restrict the power of cities to levy taxes and incure debts for local purposes, and therefore a city cannot confer upon itself in its charter the power to levy taxes in excess of the limitation imposed by statute. (See also State ex rel Doerfler v Otis, 98 OS 83, 120 NE 313 (1918); and State ex rel Dayton v Bish, 104 OS 206, 135 NE 816 (1922).)

OAG 76-016. RC 718.01 does not prohibit a municipality from levying an income tax at specified but varying rates for definite terms under the municipality's power to levy income taxes as conferred by O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

1917 OAG vol 1 p 973. A municipality, operating under a charter, may lawfully provide in its charter that surplus revenues arising from the operation of a municipally owned waterworks plant may be used for general municipal purposes.

f. Administration and operation

6 OS(3d) 344, 6 OBR 399, 453 NE(2d) 644 (1983), State ex rel Lemaitre v Clyde. An ordinance granting power to city manager to adjust water and sewage rates could not be passed as an emergency measure.

64 OS(2d) 43, 413 NE(2d) 784 (1980), Novak v Perk. City charter could place exclusive control of allocation of fire companies in the executive branch of city government and preclude the city council from enacting an ordinance regarding fire company allocation.

33 OS(2d) 75, 294 NE(2d) 891 (1973), Williams v Columbus. The defense of sovereign immunity is a valid defense in an action against a municipal corporation to recover damages for alleged negligence proximately causing injuries to a workhouse inmate in connection with the operation of the city workhouse, because the operation of a workhouse by a municipality is a governmental function.

49 App(3d) 125, 550 NE(2d) 982 (Summit 1989), Harrison v Judge. Under home rule powers granted by O Const Art XVIII §7 and as anticipated by RC 3709.05, a city may create a health district board differing in structure from that set forth in RC 3709.05, provided the board is established and maintained under authority of the city's charter; the charter provision as to the board concerns a matter with no extraterritorial effect and is not an exercise of police power but is instead enacted under the power of local self-government.

33 App(3d) 187, 515 NE(2d) 8 (Butler 1986), Singleton v Hamilton. A municipal charter provision stating "the city shall, through such officers as may be provided by ordinance, enforce all laws and ordinances relating to health, and such officer or officers shall perform all duties and may exercise all powers relative to the public health provided by general law to be performed and exercised in municipalities by health officers," is not self-executing since it requires some additional expression, legislative or otherwise, to make it enforceable, and thus a duty to regulate hazardous waste does not arise from such general city charter provision.

33 App(3d) 187, 515 NE(2d) 8 (Butler 1986), Singleton v Hamilton. A municipal corporation's determination concerning whether or not it will exercise its decisionmaking function, and in turn its sovereign authority, to pursue an alleged nuisance falls within the grant of sovereign immunity for executive and legislative decisions involving the application of a high degree of official judgment or discretion.

115 App 541, 186 NE(2d) 94 (1962), Avon Lake v Burke. The doctrine of separation of powers does not apply to charter cities; and a municipal charter may invest more than one municipal body with both legislative and executive powers and duties.

115 App 541, 186 NE(2d) 94 (1962), Avon Lake v Burke. A municipal corporation is empowered to adopt a charter and to provide therein for the creation of a board empowered to manage and control public utilities owned by the municipality, and to adopt bylaws and regulations for the protection of such public utilities that have "the same validity as municipal ordinances," including provision for the criminal prosecution of one who violates a regulation adopted for the protection of the public utility property.

1962 OAG 3103. Where a city has adopted a charter which does not provide for a combined fire and police department, and which does not grant authority to some officer or agency of the city government established pursuant to said charter to determine whether the police and fire departments should be combined, the police and fire departments of such city may not be combined.

g. Personnel—qualifications; appointment; duties

40 OS(3d) 222, 533 NE(2d) 282 (1988), State ex rel East Cleveland Firefighters Assn Local 500 v East Cleveland. The requirements for filling vacancies in a city fire department set forth in RC 124.46 do not apply to a chartered municipality which has enacted its own ordinances governing vacancies in the fire department.

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The mere concern of the state which may justify the state in providing a state police department will not justify the state's interference with the operation of a municipal police department.

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. The appointment of officers in the police force of a city represents the exercise of a power of local self-government within the meaning of those words as used in O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

164 OS 437, 132 NE(2d) 118 (1956), State ex rel Lynch v Cleveland. A municipality is authorized to choose its own method of selecting its own chief of police other than from a civil service eligible list.

160 OS 36, 113 NE(2d) 86 (1953), Harsney v Allen. The chief of police of a home rule city (Youngstown) has exclusive control of the stationing and transfer of all patrolmen and other officers and employees constituting the police force, and where, without impairing the status and emoluments of a police radio operator who is a member of the police force, such chief assigns to such operator the duties and functions of a patrolman, injunction will not lie to restrain such chief in so exercising such control.

100 OS 339, 126 NE 309 (1919), State ex rel Frankenstein v Hillenbrand. In a city adopting a charter the manner of selecting purely municipal officers is a subject of "local self-government," and the provisions of the charter must therefore supplant GC 4249; under O Const Art XVIII §7, municipalities are authorized to determine what officers shall administer their government, which shall be appointed, and which shall be elected.

58 App(3d) 88, 568 NE(2d) 745 (Butler 1989), Taylor v Middletown. The appointment and promotion of city employees are exercises of self-government; therefore, a chartered city has power over civil service and public employee matters and is unrestricted by state law.

59 App(2d) 305, 394 NE(2d) 1018 (1978), Chylik v Cleveland. Under the charter of the city of Cleveland, the power to enact a broad city employee residency requirement is reserved to the people; Cleveland city ordinances RC 171.47 and 171.48 are unconstitutional because the city council does not have the power to require city residence as a condition of employment.

57 App(2d) 24, 384 NE(2d) 712 (1978), Beyer v Donaldson. Where the charter of a city obligates the city manager to make all appointments and removals in the administrative and executive service of the city, provided they are in consonance with state laws respecting civil service, such supersedes the provision of a statute relating to the suspension of police officers by a chief of police.

No. L-83-258 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 4-13-84), Phillips v Perkins. Appointment of police officers is within the local self-government powers of a charter municipality, but civil service statutes that do not directly conflict with ordinances or the charter are effective.

90 Abs 505, 187 NE(2d) 653 (CP, Scioto 1962), Hickman v Portsmouth. RC 731.08 has no operative effect upon a charter municipality.

OAG 65-177. A plainclothes officer, subject to call at all times, may only carry a concealed weapon as provided in RC 2923.01 when on duty; the determination of when a plainclothes officer is on duty is to be made by the legislative authority of a political subdivision or a public officer having the power to make such a determination.

1964 OAG 879. An appointive officer of a charter city is ineligible to serve as a member of the general assembly during such appointment.

1963 OAG 162. Municipalities operating under a charter form of government have the right to proceed under the terms of their charter and the municipal legislation enacted pursuant thereto with respect to augmentation of police departments by the appointment of special police officers on a temporary basis.

1958 OAG p 430. The provisions of a city charter, which limit the political activities of appointive officers and employees of city government, have no application to the office of bailiff of a municipal court having county-wide jurisdiction under RC 1901.32.

h. Personnel—compensation; fringe benefits

64 OS(2d) 158, 413 NE(2d) 837 (1980), United Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers, Local Union No. 377 v Youngstown. A municipality which incorporates the provisions of the Revised Code relating to municipal civil service in its charter does not, in view of RC 124.14(B), divest city council of its authority to determine wages of city employees, nor does it empower the municipal civil service commission to order standardization of wages of the employees of the municipality.

20 App(3d) 282, 20 OBR 374, 485 NE(2d) 775 (Summit 1984), Civil Service Personnel Assn, Inc v Akron. Because the granting of sick leave credits is a matter of local self-government, a municipality which has adopted a charter pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7 need not comply with the requirements for transfer of sick leave credits contained in RC 124.38.

30 App(2d) 237, 285 NE(2d) 80 (1972), Fuldauer v Cleveland; affirmed by 32 OS(2d) 114, 290 NE(2d) 546 (1972). Charter amendment in Cleveland providing policemen and firemen should be paid three percent more than the highest amount paid in any Ohio city over 50,000 in population is valid.

106 App 354, 151 NE(2d) 367 (1958), Sinclair v Lakewood; appeal dismissed by 168 OS 372, 154 NE(2d) 822 (1958). While the state law requires a municipal corporation to organize, finance and administer firemen's and police relief and pension funds, the collection of the funds necessary to meet the obligations thereof is a local matter.

OAG 90-104. In a charter municipality not subject to a collective bargaining agreement under RC Ch 4117, if the charter does not specifically provide for a deferral of the anniversary date of prior service or for the crediting of prior service in excess of the minimums required by RC 9.44, deferral or additional benefits may be established by ordinance or regulation, if such ordinance or regulation is within the scope of authority granted by applicable general language in the charter and is enacted in the manner required by the charter.

OAG 90-104. If neither the charter, nor the ordinances or regulations authorized thereunder, of a charter municipality not subject to a collective bargaining agreement under RC Ch 4117 specifically provide for the deferral of the anniversary date of prior service or for the crediting of prior service in excess of the minimums required by RC 9.44, such municipality is governed by the provisions of RC 9.44.

1964 OAG 780. A municipal corporation may enact legislation to operate retroactively to increase the compensation of employees of the municipal corporation.

1963 OAG 737. Payment of "longevity compensation" and a "uniform allowance" to policemen and firemen by a charter municipal corporation is a valid exercise of the powers of local self-government conferred by O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

1963 OAG 500. RC 143.29 establishes the sick leave benefits for all fulltime employees of all municipal corporations which have not provided otherwise by or pursuant to a charter adopted under authority of O Const Art XVIII §7.

1954 OAG 4322. Statutory provisions fixing the salaries of municipal officers and employees or prescribing limits within which salary changes may be made are controlling in noncharter municipal corporations.

1931 OAG 3383. A municipal corporation, having adopted a charter in which it expressed a purpose to assume all powers of local self-government granted to municipalities by the constitution of Ohio, may, in the absence of charter provisions prohibiting or limiting such action, through its legislative authority, enter into an agreement with an insurance company whereby the insurance company agrees to pay pensions to employees of the municipality after such employees have reached a certain age, or have become incapacitated, in such amounts and upon such terms as may be determined by the said legislative authority.

1931 OAG 3383. A municipal corporation, which, by force of its charter adopted by authority of O Const Art XVIII §7, possesses all powers of local self-government granted to it by the constitution of Ohio, may provide group life or indemnity insurance for its officers or employees and pay the premium for such insurance, either in whole or in part, from the public funds of the municipality, unless it is prohibited from so doing by the provisions of its charter.

1927 OAG p 48. Unless forbidden by its charter, a municipal corporation may, as part of compensation to its employees, authorize group insurance on behalf of any or all municipal employees.

i. Personnel—civil service

37 OS(3d) 106, 524 NE(2d) 447 (1988), State ex rel Bardo v Lyndhurst. Where a municipal charter does not contain a clear and express exercise of home rule powers specifically authorizing the civil service commission to adopt rules with regard to certification of names from promotion lists, neither the commission's rules nor the charter supersede the requirements of RC 124.44 as to certification of candidates from eligibility lists, and where a vacancy in a position arises, the highest-ranked employee on the current eligibility list is entitled to a writ of mandamus compelling the city to appoint him to the vacancy.

28 OS(3d) 214, 28 OBR 298, 503 NE(2d) 518 (1986), State Personnel Bd of Review v Bay Village Civil Service Comm. The state personnel board of review does not have investigative or removal authority over charter municipalities' civil service commissions when the municipalities' charters establish their own removal procedures.

170 OS 144, 163 NE(2d) 384 (1959), Cupps v Toledo. The jurisdiction of the court of common pleas to hear an appeal from an order of a municipal civil service commission suspending, demoting or removing a member of the police or fire department of a city cannot be impaired or restricted by a provision of a municipal charter or ordinance.

168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. Provisions of a city charter, for appointment to a position in the competitive classified service of the city from among the three candidates highest on the eligible list, authorize appointment as a deputy inspector of police of the candidate second highest on such list, notwithstanding that RC 143.34 requires, with respect to a vacancy in a position above the rank of patrolman in a police department, that the candidate highest on the eligible list be appointed.

164 OS 437, 132 NE(2d) 118 (1956), State ex rel Lynch v Cleveland. A municipality is authorized to choose its own method of selecting its own chief of police other than from a civil service eligible list.

147 OS 313, 71 NE(2d) 246 (1947), Hagerman v Dayton. Municipal ordinance which provides for or authorizes check-off of wages or salary of civil service appointees is police regulation and is in conflict with GC 6346-13 (RC 1321-32).

92 OS 344, 110 NE 951 (1915), State ex rel Bailey v George. It was the legislature's purpose to confer upon a mayor of a city the right and duty to appoint the municipal civil service commission in keeping with the home rule provided for in O Const Art XVIII, and the sixty-day provision for such appointment is not a limitation upon the power of the mayor, but rather a limitation upon the time in which he should exercise the power; it is directory only, and the failure of the state civil service commission to act upon such appointments leaves the power still in the hands of the mayor after the sixty-day period.

70 App(3d) 163 (Cuyahoga 1990), Jacomin v Cleveland. A municipal civil service commission has jurisdiction to review the dismissal of any classified employee where the municipal charter grants the commission jurisdiction to review dismissals of "any person in the classified service of the City."

44 App(3d) 15, 541 NE(2d) 741 (Cuyahoga 1988), Hudak v Cleveland Civil Service Comm. Where a city charter provision prohibits civil service employees from participating in political campaigns, a civil service employee's candidacy in a nonpartisan city council election is prohibited and is grounds for discharge.

20 App(3d) 282, 20 OBR 374, 485 NE(2d) 775 (Summit 1984), Civil Service Personnel Assn, Inc v Akron. Because the granting of sick leave credits is a matter of local self-government, a municipality which has adopted a charter pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7 need not comply with the requirements for transfer of sick leave credits contained in RC 124.38.

20 App(3d) 178, 20 OBR 222, 485 NE(2d) 722 (Montgomery 1984), State ex rel Willcox v Kettering. A rule pertaining to police appointment which is promulgated by a municipal civil service commission under authority conferred by the municipal charter supercedes a conflicting statute.

16 App(3d) 464, 16 OBR 546, 476 NE(2d) 689 (Cuyahoga 1984), Northern Ohio Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn v North Olmsted. A municipal charter which provides that its civil service commission shall "act in accordance with the provisions of the general law" incorporates state civil service laws into the charter, and renders invalid rules of the municipal civil service commission which conflict with state law.

14 App(3d) 174, 14 OBR 193, 470 NE(2d) 445 (Lake 1984), Lynch v Tiffenbach. A charter city is authorized by the home-rule provisions of the Ohio Constitution to vary its civil service regulations from state law, as long as they are otherwise constitutional.

57 App(2d) 24, 384 NE(2d) 712 (1978), Beyer v Donaldson. Where the charter of a city obligates the city manager to make all appointments and removals in the administrative and executive service of the city, provided they are in consonance with state laws respecting civil service, such supersedes the provision of a statute relating to the suspension of police officers by a chief of police.

47 App(2d) 125, 352 NE(2d) 606 (1975), Gannon v Perk; modified by 46 OS(2d) 301, 348 NE(2d) 342 (1976). A declaratory judgment action brought under RC Ch 2721, seeking a declaration regarding the legality of layoffs by the city of Cleveland of policemen and firemen, is a legal action and may be maintained even though the parties bringing the action have the alternative, but not exclusive, remedy of appeal to the civil service commission and to the courts under RC Ch 2506.

44 App(2d) 236, 337 NE(2d) 646 (Montgomery 1975), Spencer v Dayton. Provisions of a city charter regarding civil service employees which require consideration of records of efficiency and conduct as well as seniority for promotion and which have not been modified or repealed are binding on the city; there is no power to take any action inconsistent with such laws, rules, or regulations, and the action of a civil service board eliminating credit for seniority and efficiency without a rule change and without approval by the city commission is a nullity because it violates the city charter.

44 App(2d) 236, 337 NE(2d) 646 (Montgomery 1975), Spencer v Dayton. The provisions of a city charter and the rules of a municipal civil service commission requiring merit, efficiency and service as conditions for promotion may not be ignored.

12 App(2d) 59, 231 NE(2d) 85 (1967), State ex rel Prentice v Middleburg Heights. Where a municipality, following its transition from the status of a village to that of a city, adopts a charter for its government and such charter provides that the chief of police is placed in the unclassified service, the charter is controlling, so that a chief of police, appointed as such by the mayor of such village, continues to serve in such capacity after the adoption of the new charter and acquires no civil service status and has no appeal from the civil service commission to the court of common pleas.

102 App 269, 131 NE(2d) 611 (1956), Sullivan v Civil Service Comm of Euclid. The mayor of a city does not have power to try a police officer upon charges and to take disciplinary action against him.

No. 54818 (8th Dist Ct App, Cuyahoga, 12-22-88), Burk v Cleveland. Pursuant to the constitutional home rule powers of municipalities in Ohio, municipal charters prevail over statutory civil service provisions, and an action based on the termination of a public employee is governed by the four-year limitations period in RC 2305.09, not the six-year limitations period for actions based on statute in RC 2305.07.

No. L-83-258 (6th Dist Ct App, Lucas, 4-13-84), Phillips v Perkins. Appointment of police officers is within the local self-government powers of a charter municipality, but civil service statutes that do not directly conflict with ordinances or the charter are effective.

j. Personnel—labor relations

61 OS(3d) 658, 1991 SERB 4-87 (1991), Cincinnati v Ohio Council 8, AFSCME. The provisions of a collective bargaining agreement entered into pursuant to RC Ch 4117 prevail over conflicting laws, including municipal home-rule charters enacted pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §7, except for those laws specifically exempted by RC 4117.10(A).

53 OS(3d) 13, 557 NE(2d) 1206 (1990), State ex rel Canfield v Frost. A charter municipality's civil service commission rule that an employee may appeal to it within ten days of demotion, suspension, or removal is a valid exercise of home rule and a court errs in applying RC 124.27 to an employee covered by the rule.

53 OS(3d) 13, 557 NE(2d) 1206 (1990), State ex rel Canfield v Frost. Under RC 4117.10, provisions of a collective bargaining agreement prevail over conflicting provisions in RC 124.27 or charter municipality civil service commission rules.

43 OS(3d) 1, 1989 SERB 4-41, 539 NE(2d) 103 (1989), Rocky River v SERB. The Ohio Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Act, RC Ch 4117, and specifically RC 4117.14(I), are constitutional as they fall within the general assembly's authority to enact employee welfare legislation pursuant to O Const Art II §34; O Const Art XVIII §3 may not be interposed to impair, limit, or negate the Act.

43 OS(3d) 1, 1989 SERB 4-41, 539 NE(2d) 103 (1989), Rocky River v SERB. RC Ch 4117 is a general law and as such prevails over conflicting municipal enactments.

39 OS(3d) 196, 1988 SERB 4-87, 530 NE(2d) 1 (1988), Rocky River v SERB; vacated by 43 OS(3d) 1, 1989 SERB 4-41, 539 NE(2d) 103 (1989). RC 4117.14(I) is unconstitutional to the extent it violates a municipality's right to exercise its powers of local self-government under O Const Art XVIII §3 and O Const Art XVIII §7, because it interferes with a municipality's power to determine municipal safety employee compensation. (See Rocky River v SERB, 41 OS(3d) 602, 535 NE(2d) 657 (1989).)

26 OS(3d) 50, 26 OBR 42, 1984-86 SERB 382, 496 NE(2d) 983 (1986), Kettering v SERB. The general assembly was exercising its police power to promote the general safety and welfare when it enacted the Public Employees Collective Bargaining Act, RC Ch 4117, and the subject of this Act is a matter of sufficient "statewide concern" to prevail over a city's contrary ordinance defining police command officers as "supervisors" who cannot engage in collective bargaining.

24 App(3d) 16, 24 OBR 38, 1984-86 SERB 393, 492 NE(2d) 861 (Cuyahoga 1985), Cleveland Police Patrolmen's Assn v Cleveland. An ordinance providing for binding arbitration of disputes over compensation between a city and its employees is not an unlawful delegation of legislative authority where the ordinance establishes standards to which the arbitration panel must conform, and the arbitration award is reviewable under RC 2711.13.

27 App(2d) 35, 272 NE(2d) 169 (1970), Foltz v Dayton. Agreement made between municipality and union whereby city is obligated, upon complaint of union, to discharge its employees if they fail to pay union dues or to pay service charge to union in amount of such dues is a police regulation in conflict with provisions of RC 9.41 and Ch 143.

No. 85 CA 131 (7th Dist Ct App, Mahoning, 1-27-87), State ex rel Darvanan v Youngstown. A home rule charter adopting all Revised Code provisions concerning municipal civil service thereby adopts RC Ch 4117 and empowers the municipality to bargain with respect to promotions, since these are a "term or condition" of employment subject to bargaining under RC Ch 4117.

44 Misc 39, 336 NE(2d) 467 (CP, Cuyahoga 1975), Choura v Cleveland. An ordinance that regulates the tenure of the members of the police and fire departments in the civil classified service of a charter city, is an exercise of the power of local self-government authorized by O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

10 Misc 254, 227 NE(2d) 424 (CP, Cuyahoga 1967), State ex rel Brownlee v Broadview Heights. Even though a charter, municipal ordinance, or rule of a civil service commission may conflict with the provisions of the state statutes pertaining to the eligibility of persons entitled to take promotional examinations given by a municipal civil service commission, the charter, ordinance or rule will prevail over the state statute.

1984-86 SERB 437 (CP, Summit, 1-17-86), Twinsburg v SERB. Because RC Ch 4117 was enacted pursuant to the state's police power and relates to a matter of "statewide concern," it prevails over conflicting ordinances of a charter city, notwithstanding the home rule guarantees of O Const Art XVIII §7 and 3.

1984-86 SERB 420 (CP, Franklin, 3-8-85), Columbus v SERB. Prevention of police strikes and maintenance of order in the state of Ohio are matters of "statewide concern" in light of the fact that police enforce state laws as well as municipal ordinances; as a consequence, the binding arbitration provisions of RC Ch 4117 do not violate the home rule provisions of O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7. (See also In re Columbus, SERB 85-004 (2-6-85).)

1984-86 SERB 418 (CP, Montgomery, 12-21-84), Kettering v SERB; affirmed by 26 OS(3d) 50, 26 OBR 42, 496 NE(2d) 983 (1986). The "labor unrest" addressed by RC Ch 4117 is not restricted to one municipality but affects the entire state and is a "matter of statewide concern," so that the statute is a general law prevailing over local ordinances such as one classifying police sergeants, lieutenants, and captains as "supervisors" who cannot be included in a collective bargaining unit.

1984-86 SERB 407 (9th Dist Ct App, Summit, 10-1-86), Twinsburg v SERB. Because RC Ch 4117 was enacted pursuant to the state's police power and relates to a matter of "statewide concern," it prevails over conflicting provisions of a city charter.

1988 SERB 4-64 (CP, Montgomery, 4-7-88), Crenshaw v Dayton. A conflict between a city charter and a collective bargaining agreement as to commencement of the probationary period for police will be resolved in favor of the bargaining agreement provision.

82 Abs 305, 165 NE(2d) 246 (CP, Cuyahoga 1959), Klucar v Hull. A provision in a municipal charter that decisions of the municipal civil service commission on suspension of police officers shall be final is invalid.

SERB 89-007 (3-15-89), In re St. Bernard. Notwithstanding RC 4117.10(A), stating that laws "pertaining to ... residency requirements ... prevail over conflicting provisions of agreements," the state employment relations board holds a city commits an unfair labor practice when its council enacts a residency requirement after city negotiators refused to bargain about imposing a residency rule; adoption of the ordinance without bargaining is held a continuation of the unfair practice of refusal to bargain.

k. Municipal property; contracts

62 OS(2d) 322, 405 NE(2d) 1026 (1980), Dies Electric Co v Akron. A charter municipality, in the exercise of its powers of local self-government under O Const Art XVIII §3, may, pursuant to its charter, enact retainage provisions for a contract for improvements to municipal property which differ from the retainage provisions prescribed in RC 153.13.

31 Misc 75, 286 NE(2d) 483 (CP, Montgomery 1971), Dalton v Kunde. An ordinance requiring that an affirmative action assurance plan be submitted with bids for municipal contracts and requiring that such plan be given consideration in selecting the lowest and best bid is valid.

22 NP(NS) 533, 31 D 335 (CP, Summit 1920), Akron v Zeisloft; affirmed by Court of Appeals. This section confers upon the council of a charter city legislative power as to matters of local self-government to the same extent as the legislature possesses such power for the state at large; and the validity of a contract for a local improvement, undertaken by a charter city, is not dependent upon statutory law relating to municipalities, but upon the provisions of its charter and the acts of the council thereunder.

l. Municipal services—in general

64 OS(2d) 43, 413 NE(2d) 784 (1980), Novak v Perk. City charter could place exclusive control of allocation of fire companies in the executive branch of city government and preclude the city council from enacting an ordinance regarding fire company allocation.

44 OS(2d) 151, 339 NE(2d) 663 (1975), State ex rel Grandview Heights City School Dist Bd of Ed v Morton. City solicitor of charter municipality was obligated to provide legal services to city school district.

138 OS 220, 34 NE(2d) 226 (1941), Cincinnati v Gamble; overruled by 168 OS 191, 151 NE(2d) 722 (1958), State ex rel Canada v Phillips. In general, matters relating to police and fire protection are of statewide concern and under the control of state sovereignty.

129 OS 604, 196 NE 416 (1935), State ex rel Brickell v Frank. Where a municipal home rule charter provides for a free public library and creates a board of trustees, but contains nothing to prevent the extension of library services to all inhabitants of the county except those of subdivisions maintaining a public library participating in the proceeds of classified property taxes, the trustees may make such an extension of services and participate in the proceeds of classified property taxes.

654 F(2d) 1187 (6th Cir Ohio 1981), Hybud Equipment Corp v Akron; vacated by 455 US 931, 102 SCt 1416, 71 LEd(2d) 640 (1982); cert denied 471 US 1004, 105 SCt 1866, 85 LEd(2d) 160 (1985). Akron could validly adopt ordinance providing for garbage collecting monopoly, thus eliminating any competition in the market for recyclable wastes.

m. Municipal services—utilities

37 OS(3d) 50, 524 NE(2d) 441 (1988), Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co v Cleveland. A municipality may not support a municipally-owned public utility with monies derived from tax-generated revenue where the city charter provides that such utilities are to be "non-tax supported."

37 OS(3d) 50, 524 NE(2d) 441 (1988), Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co v Cleveland. Where a city charter declares that municipally-owned public utilities are to be "non-tax supported," that prohibition extends to advancements from a tax-generated fund to such public utilities where there is no expectation of prompt and complete repayment.

25 OS(3d) 117, 25 OBR 164, 495 NE(2d) 374 (1986), Vernon v Warner Amex Cable Communications, Inc. A municipality with a home rule charter may permit a community television antenna company to use the public right-of-way in streets for its electrical equipment, and may classify the company as a public utility for such purpose, even though the company is not a public utility as that term is used in RC Ch 5727 and Ch 4905.

6 OS(3d) 344, 6 OBR 399, 453 NE(2d) 644 (1983), State ex rel Lemaitre v Clyde. An ordinance granting power to city manager to adjust water and sewage rates could not be passed as an emergency measure.

92 OS 478, 111 NE 155 (1915), Billings v Cleveland Railway Co. The special provision of O Const Art XVIII §4 demonstrates that the framers of that amendment regarded the matter of acquiring, constructing, and operating public utilities as a municipal affair of the particular locality, and therefore the granting of permission and the making of a contract to construct and operate a street railway in the streets of a city or village may be provided for in a charter adopted by the municipality under that section.

64 App(2d) 228, 414 NE(2d) 430 (1979), Shipman v Lorain County Bd of Health. A municipal ordinance requiring annexation prior to use of municipal utilities is not per se unreasonable and arbitrary.

115 App 541, 186 NE(2d) 94 (1962), Avon Lake v Burke. A municipal corporation is empowered to adopt a charter and to provide therein for the creation of a board empowered to manage and control public utilities owned by the municipality, and to adopt bylaws and regulations for the protection of such public utilities that have "the same validity as municipal ordinances," including provision for the criminal prosecution of one who violates a regulation adopted for the protection of the public utility property.

7 Misc 159, 215 NE(2d) 631 (Prob, Hamilton 1964), Cincinnati & Suburban Bell Telephone Co v Cincinnati. A municipal corporation may not require a telephone company to construct its lines underground. (See also Cincinnati & Suburban Bell Telephone Co v Cincinnati, 215 NE(2d) 629 (Prob, Hamilton 1965).)

n. Streets and highways; parks and recreation

53 OS(2d) 253, 374 NE(2d) 154 (1978), Columbus v Teater. RC 1501.17 is not facially violative of O Const Art XVIII §3, 4, 5, 6, or 7.

13 OS(2d) 63, 233 NE(2d) 864 (1968), Bazell v Cincinnati; appeal dismissed sub nom Fosdick v Hamilton County, 391 US 601, 88 SCt 1865, 20 LEd(2d) 845 (1968). A charter municipality may construct a stadium that is designed to accommodate large crowds at athletic and other exhibitions and may rent that stadium to private persons who will provide such exhibitions, and such municipality may do so even though such private persons will derive profits from providing those exhibitions; and, in connection with the construction and operation of such a stadium, such municipality may acquire land and devote it to automobile parking and derive a profit from doing so; and, as an incident to the construction and operation of such stadium, such municipality may construct and maintain a scoreboard and derive revenue from the sale of advertising space thereon.

99 OS 376, 124 NE 212 (1919), Froelich v Cleveland. When a city has adopted a charter under which it is authorized to exercise "all powers of local self-government" under O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7, it derives this authority by express authority from the people of the state, and the power to locate, establish, and protect the streets within its limits resides in the municipality, and it may adopt and enforce such reasonable regulations for their proper and economic use, such as regulations on the weight of loads and the width of tires of vehicles passing over its streets.

107 App 71, 152 NE(2d) 311 (1958), State ex rel Hauck v Bachrach; affirmed by 168 OS 268, 153 NE(2d) 671 (1958). The provisions of RC 755.01 et seq. relating to municipal boards of park commissioners, are operative in noncharter municipalities and in such charter cities as have made them operative therein, and where valid enactments of a charter municipality are in conflict therewith such statutes, and not the municipal enactments, must yield.

100 App 334, 124 NE(2d) 846 (1955), Cleveland v Antonio. A municipal ordinance which in effect prohibits a trucking company from driving its trucks to its garage between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. by restricting truck traffic on all access streets is invalid.

o. Property use regulation; zoning

1991 Code News 49 (May/June 1991). Zoning Ordinances: Constitutionality and Effect on Contractors, Robert J. Andrews.

32 OS(3d) 316, 513 NE(2d) 324 (1987), Northern Ohio Sign Contractors Assn v Lakewood. Pursuant to the municipal police power granted by O Const Art XVIII §3 and O Const Art XVIII §7, an ordinance may constitutionally be applied to regulate preexisting, nonconforming commerical signs which have been declared a public nuisance by a municipal government.

69 OS(2d) 492, 433 NE(2d) 165 (1982), Negin v Mentor Bd of Building & Zoning Appeals. The requirement of a municipal ordinance that a landowner purchase additional property before he is permitted to improve a substandard lot which was platted and held in single and separate ownership prior to the enactment of the ordinance renders that lot useless for any practical purpose and is invalid.

12 OS(2d) 116, 233 NE(2d) 129 (1967), State ex rel Hunter v Erickson; reversed by 393 US 385, 89 SCt 557, 21 LEd(2d) 616 (1969). The charter of a municipal corporation may lawfully be amended to provide that any ordinance which regulates the use, sale, advertisement, transfer, listing, assignment, lease, sublease or financing of real property on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, must first be approved by the electors of such municipality, and that any such ordinance in effect at the time of adoption of such a charter amendment shall cease to be effective until approved by such electors even though such voter approval is not required with respect to other kinds of ordinances.

175 OS 337, 194 NE(2d) 859 (1963), State ex rel Davis Investment Co v Columbus. The legislative body of a charter municipality may enact an emergency ordinance which will operate effectively to prevent the municipal board of zoning adjustment from granting a variance which would permit the construction of a shopping center in municipal territory zoned as a suburban residential district.

162 OS 447, 123 NE(2d) 419 (1954), Morris v Roseman. A noncharter municipality cannot adopt an emergency zoning ordinance effective immediately.

49 App(2d) 253, 360 NE(2d) 728 (1975), Ellet Hills Mall, Inc v Ballard. A city council is without authority to approve an application for a zoning change granted as an administrative act, without mayoral concurrence, where a provision of the city charter requires that every ordinance or resolution "shall, before it goes into effect, be presented to the mayor for approval."

89 App 1, 100 NE(2d) 689 (1950), State ex rel Gulf Refining Co v DeFrance. In the absence of an enumerated power in its charter to enact zoning regulation such regulations may be adopted by the council of a charter city pursuant to general law.

22 NP(NS) 549, 31 D 197 (CP, Cuyahoga 1920), State ex rel Morris v Osborn. This section authorizes the council of a charter municipality to adopt a zoning ordinance, restricting certain localities against the erection of apartment houses, so long as the classifications of property into different zones are not arbitrary, unreasonable, or discriminatory.

221 F(2d) 412, 73 Abs 334 (ND Ohio 1955), Valley View Village, Inc v Proffett. An incorporated noncharter village has power to establish entire area of village into single residential use district.

p. Building and housing regulations

1991 Code News 45 (May/June 1991). City of Springdale: No Home-Rule for Certified Building Departments.

58 App(2d) 17, 387 NE(2d) 1380 (1977), State ex rel Waterbury Development Co v Witten; affirmed by 54 OS(2d) 412, 377 NE(2d) 505 (1978). Where a village requires the payment of a fee before a building permit can be issued, and the purpose behind the requirement is to acquire money for a park development fund, such act is invalid.

58 App(2d) 17, 387 NE(2d) 1380 (1977), State ex rel Waterbury Development Co v Witten; affirmed by 54 OS(2d) 412, 377 NE(2d) 505 (1978). Where a village requires the payment of a water tap-in charge before a building permit can be issued and such charge bears no relationship to the present or future cost of providing water, such act is invalid.

q. Nuisances

32 OS(3d) 316, 513 NE(2d) 324 (1987), Northern Ohio Sign Contractors Assn v Lakewood. When a municipal government exercises its police power by adopting an ordinance to abate a nuisance, an amortization clause in the ordinance becomes an element to consider in evaluating whether the ordinance is unreasonable or arbitrary.

32 OS(3d) 316, 513 NE(2d) 324 (1987), Northern Ohio Sign Contractors Assn v Lakewood. RC 713.15 does not prevent a city from exercising its police power to abate a preexisting use which has become a nuisance.

7 OS(2d) 16, 218 NE(2d) 463 (1966), Solly v Toledo. A charter city may enact legislation, not in conflict with general laws, authorizing the summary abatement of public nuisances and the destruction of property used in maintaining such nuisances when reasonably necessary to effectuate their abatement.

33 App(3d) 187, 515 NE(2d) 8 (Butler 1986), Singleton v Hamilton. A municipal corporation's determination concerning whether or not it will exercise its decisionmaking function, and in turn its sovereign authority, to pursue an alleged nuisance falls within the grant of sovereign immunity for executive and legislative decisions involving the application of a high degree of official judgment or discretion.

r. Health, safety, morals, and general welfare

173 OS 81, 180 NE(2d) 158 (1962), Columbus v DeLong. Section 2343.18 of the ordinances of the city of Columbus making it an offense, punishable by imprisonment, for a prostitute merely to wander about the streets is too indefinite, restrictive and liberty depriving to represent a proper and authorized exercise of the police power and is invalid in such respect.

33 App(3d) 187, 515 NE(2d) 8 (Butler 1986), Singleton v Hamilton. A municipal charter provision stating "the city shall, through such officers as may be provided by ordinance, enforce all laws and ordinances relating to health, and such officer or officers shall perform all duties and may exercise all powers relative to the public health provided by general law to be performed and exercised in municipalities by health officers," is not self-executing since it requires some additional expression, legislative or otherwise, to make it enforceable, and thus a duty to regulate hazardous waste does not arise from such general city charter provision.

40 App(2d) 389, 320 NE(2d) 727 (1974), Fifth Urban, Inc v Cleveland Bd of Building Standards. The authority of a municipal corporation to enact ordinances requiring repair and rehabilitation or demolition of buildings classified as "unsafe structures" or "nuisances" is within its police powers under O Const Art XVIII §3 and 7.

42 Misc(2d) 1, 536 NE(2d) 67 (Muni, Wadsworth 1987), Wadsworth v Owens. A municipal ordinance which, without exception, prohibits minors from being abroad on the city's streets, sidewalks, or other public places after a certain hour unless accompanied by specified adults, is unconstitutionally overbroad.

487 FSupp 135 (SD Ohio 1978), United States v Blue Ash; affirmed by 621 F(2d) 227 (6th Cir Ohio 1980). A city ordinance is invalid under the federal preemption doctrine where it is passed for the express purpose of air traffic noise control and it dictates aircraft flight in a given course in a defined navigable airspace.

s. Miscellaneous

95 OS 224, 116 NE 450 (1917), Ide v State. A charter adopted under this section may provide for continuing in force the general laws of the state conferring judicial functions upon mayors of cities and villages, to be exercised by the president of a city commission, who is elected a member of the commission by popular vote.

26 Misc 115, 267 NE(2d) 328 (Muni, Dayton 1971), Dayton v Stearns. Sections 655 to 662 of general ordinances of city of Dayton regulating licensing of second-hand automobile dealers and salesmen are police regulations in conflict with general law of state on same subject and are unconstitutional and invalid.

OAG 74-048. A municipality, whether charter or statutory, may use public funds to pay a reward for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of suspected felons if its legislative authority determines that such payments serve a public municipal purpose.

OAG 65-205. A village may expend funds to retain counsel to represent public officers if the litigation is the result of a good faith attempt by the officer to discharge his official duties thereby giving the village an official interest in the adjudication of the charges; the decision to retain counsel being in the discretion of the legislative authority of a village; and the time of filing the suit has no bearing on the authority to retain legal counsel.

1963 OAG 268. No municipality, including a charter city, has authority to employ a private corporation to conduct a survey or engage in a program of industrial and economic development for which public funds are to be expended.

1958 OAG p 430. The provisions of a city charter, which limit the political activities of appointive officers and employees of city government, have no application to the office of bailiff of a municipal court having county-wide jurisdiction under RC 1901.32.

1954 OAG 3644. The city solicitor of a city partly or wholly within the boundaries of a city school district is legal adviser to the board of education in noncharter cities, but not in charter cities unless such duty is directly or indirectly imposed by the charter.

1938 OAG p 691. A charter city, unless prevented by its charter, has plenary power to appropriate and spend a reasonable sum of money to participate in the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Ordinance of 1787 and settlement of the Northwest Territory, since such expenditure is for a general, public, and educational purpose.

1927 OAG p 678. Under O Const Art XVIII §7, the council of a charter city may appropriate money for the purpose of paying the cost of a municipal exhibit in an industrial exhibition to be held for the purpose of promoting the welfare and prosperity of the city.

O Const XVIII § 8 Referenda on whether to frame charter and on adoption of proposed charter

The legislative authority of any city or village may by a two-thirds vote of its members, and upon petition of ten per centum of the electors shall forthwith, provide by ordinance for the submission to the electors, of the question, "Shall a commission be chosen to frame a charter." The ordinance providing for the submission of such question shall require that it be submitted to the electors at the next regular municipal election if one shall occur not less than sixty nor more than one hundred and twenty days after its passage; otherwise it shall provide for the submission of the question at a special election to be called and held within the time aforesaid. The ballot containing such question shall bear no party designation, and provision shall be made thereon for the election from the municipality at large of fifteen electors who shall constitute a commission to frame a charter; provided that a majority of the electors voting on such question shall have voted in the affirmative. Any charter so framed shall be submitted to the electors of the municipality at an election to be held at a time fixed by the charter commission and within one year from the date of its election, provision for which shall be made by the legislative authority of the municipality in so far as not prescribed by general law. Not less than thirty days prior to such election the clerk of the municipality shall mail a copy of the proposed charter to each elector whose name appears upon the poll or registration books of the last regular or general election held therein. If such proposed charter is approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon it shall become the charter of such municipality at the time fixed therein.

1. Submission of question to frame charter

a. Vote of council

103 OS 345, 132 NE 729 (1921), State ex rel McCormick v Fouts. Since it is provided in GC 4224 that the requirement for adopting an ordinance upon a yea and nay vote properly recorded does not apply to the ordering of an election, in passing an ordinance for the submission of the question of a charter, it is only necessary that it clearly appears by the minutes of the council that the ordinance received a two-thirds vote of all the members.

103 OS 345, 132 NE 729 (1921), State ex rel McCormick v Fouts. In order that an ordinance for the submission of the question of a charter to the electors may become effective in time to hold the election, it is only necessary that it should be passed not less than sixty days before the election.

1964 OAG 1512. The ordinance adopted by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation under the authority of O Const Art XVIII §8, may prescribe the method of selection of candidates to be elected to the commission to frame a charter.

1951 OAG 409. Under the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §8, the legislative authority of either a city or village may submit to the electors the question of choosing a commission to frame a charter for said municipality.

b. Petition of voters

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. An ordinance for submitting a charter upon petition of ten percent of the electors need not be read three times.

1953 OAG 2407. Where a petition of ten per cent of the electors of a city has been filed, requesting the council thereof to provide by ordinance for the submission to the electors of the question of choosing a commission to frame a charter, it is the duty of the council to so provide and there is no requirement that such ordinance be passed by two-thirds vote of the members of council.

1951 OAG 409. Under the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §8, the legislative authority of either a city or village may submit to the electors the question of choosing a commission to frame a charter for said municipality.

c. Election

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). A mandamus action requesting a special election should not be dismissed solely because the relator has asked that the election be called and held on a specific date.

18 Abs 356 (App, Auglaize 1934), State ex rel Frame v Council of Wapakoneta. If time for election fixed by ordinance of submission is within competent constitutional period, discretion of legislative authority in selecting such date was not abused, hence mandamus does not lie.

15 Abs 314 (App, Summit 1933), Baldwin v Akron. Requirements of this section that an election be held not less than sixty days to frame a charter, after its passage, and § 136 of the Akron charter requiring that an amendment to said charter be passed upon at an election to be held not less than sixty days after its passage are mandatory and not directory.

1964 OAG 1512. Members of a commission selected to frame a municipal charter as provided by O Const Art XVIII §8, are not municipal officers, and candidates for election to such commission are not candidates for nomination for an elective municipal office within the meaning of O Const Art V §7, and there is no requirement in law that such candidates file petitions in accordance with RC 3513.251 and 3513.252.

1960 OAG 1170. The term "year," as used in O Const Art XVIII §8 must be construed to mean 365 days and, during a year which includes a leap year February, 366 days.

1929 OAG 1021. Candidates for commissioners to frame a charter under O Const Art XVIII §8, should be nominated as provided by general law, for the nomination of other municipal officers.

1927 OAG 380. The words "regular municipal election," as used in O Const Art XVIII §8, refer to and mean the next general election, held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the odd-numbered years.

2. Charter commission

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. The charter commission of a city is the sole authority for fixing the date for the submission of the question of a proposed charter to the voters, and this they may do even at the additional cost of a special election.

OAG 71-017. Member of city council governed by RC 731.02 may not serve as member of municipal charter commission created under O Const Art XVIII §8.

OAG 71-017. In the absence of any specific constitutional or statutory prohibition, municipal officer of the types listed in RC 733.01 may serve as member of a municipal charter commission created under O Const Art XVIII §8.

1964 OAG 1512. The ordinance adopted by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation under the authority of O Const Art XVIII §8, may prescribe the method of selection of candidates to be elected to the commission to frame a charter.

1964 OAG 1512. Members of a commission selected to frame a municipal charter as provided by O Const Art XVIII §8, are not municipal officers, and candidates for election to such commission are not candidates for nomination for an elective municipal office within the meaning of O Const Art V §7, and there is no requirement in law that such candidates file petitions in accordance with RC 3513.251 and 3513.252.

1929 OAG 1021. Candidates for commissioners to frame a charter under O Const Art XVIII §8, should be nominated as provided by general law, for the nomination of other municipal officers.

3. Submission of proposed charter to voters

a. Mailing copies to voters

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. Call of a special election was valid although funds for mailing the copy of a proposed charter were not appropriated prior to such mailing, although only fifty-five days intervened between the submission of the charter to the voters and the special election, and although the proofs of the ballot were not posted nor sureties furnished on the printing contract.

1956 OAG 6809. The provisions of RC 705.03 regarding mailing copies of a proposed plan of government to the electors do not apply to the issue of adopting a charter.

b. Election

171 OS 221, 168 NE(2d) 544 (1960), State ex rel Graham v Pestrak. Mandamus will not issue to compel a mayor and city council to submit a proposed city charter to the electorate where a year has elapsed since the election of the members of the charter commission.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). A mandamus action requesting a special election should not be dismissed solely because the relator has asked that the election be called and held on a specific date.

69 Abs 421, 117 NE(2d) 629 (CP, Jefferson 1953), Merryman v Gorman. The charter commission of a city is the sole authority for fixing the date for the submission of the question of a proposed charter to the voters, and this they may do even at the additional cost of a special election.

1960 OAG 1170. The term "year," as used in O Const Art XVIII §8 must be construed to mean 365 days and, during a year which includes a leap year February, 366 days.

1952 OAG 1286. A charter commission has the sole right to fix the time for an election for approval or disapproval of a proposed municipal charter, and where proceedings are instituted for adoption or amendment of a charter, it is the duty of the legislative body to appropriate the necessary funds for the election.

1951 OAG 409. When the electors of a municipality have voted to choose a commission to frame a charter pursuant to the provision of O Const Art XVIII §8, and prior to the time the charter so framed is submitted to the electors the classification of the municipality is changed from a village to a city as the result of a federal census, the charter shall be submitted to the electors at the time provided by said § 8, and the fixing of such time will not be altered by such change in classification.

1927 OAG 380. The words "regular municipal election," as used in O Const Art XVIII §8, refer to and mean the next general election, held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in the odd-numbered years.

4. Amendment of charter

61 OS(3d) 49, 572 NE(2d) 649 (1991), State ex rel Citizens for a Better Portsmouth v Sydnor. A city council may not refuse to place a charter amendment, offered by initiative petition, on the ballot due to content dispute where the petition's form is proper.

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. The requirement of O Const Art XVIII §8 that an ordinance proposing a charter amendment not submitted to the electors at a regular municipal election shall be submitted at a special election called is mandatory, and the failure of the legislative authority of a city to establish a specific date for the election prohibits the effective submission of the proposed amendment to the electors.

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. The mayor of a charter municipality has no authority to veto an ordinance submitting a proposed amendment of the charter to the electors.

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. Pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9, in order to submit proposed amendment of charter of municipality to electors at special election, legislative authority of municipality must establish date for the election.

153 OS 325, 91 NE(2d) 473 (1950), State ex rel Werner v Koontz. A writ of mandamus will not issue to compel a city council to certify a proposed ordinance to the board of elections for submission to the electors where the proposal's provisions are contrary to provisions of the city charter regarding proposed ordinances, as the proposal is really a proposed amendment to the charter, and the steps taken under the initiative and referendum sections of the charter are not appropriate for the submission of a charter amendment to the electors.

1 App(3d) 44, 1 OBR 25, 439 NE(2d) 440 (Hamilton 1981), Oppenheimer v Madeira. O Const Art XVIII §8 is incorporated into the amendment provisions of the charter of a municipal corporation by a provision that "copies of . . . amendments [to the charter] shall be mailed to the electors as required in the case of this original charter," and the charter and constitution require that the copies of the proposed amendment to the charter be addressed by name, by the clerk of the municipality, to the electors appearing on the poll or registration books of the last regular or general election held in the municipality, and not to "resident."

15 Abs 314 (App, Summit 1933), Baldwin v Akron. Requirements of this section that an election be held not less than sixty days to frame a charter, after its passage, and § 136 of the Akron charter requiring that an amendment to said charter be passed upon at an election to be held not less than sixty days after its passage are mandatory and not directory.

OAG 82-057. Municipal elections on charter amendments must be held in accordance with the requirements of O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9. If there is no constitutional provision which is applicable to a particular election matter, charter requirements prevail over conflicting statutes.

OAG 65-112. Where a municipality has fully complied with the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9, with regard to a proposal for amending its charter, and provided that the limiting time provisions of §8 are applicable, it is mandatory for a board of elections to conduct a special election.

5. Referendum on ordinance

a. In general

48 OS(2d) 49, 356 NE(2d) 720 (1976), State ex rel Sheldon Gas Co v Hancock County Bd of Elections. Where referendum petitioners, city council, and board of elections had failed to comply with the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §5 and 8, in respect to a referendum on an ordinance fixing gas rates, prohibition would lie to prohibit submitting the issue to the voters.

16 OS(2d) 63, 242 NE(2d) 576 (1968), State ex rel Janik v Lorain County Bd of Elections. A referendum on an ordinance fixing natural gas prices for a city is controlled exclusively by the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §5 and 8, which are self-executing.

153 OS 325, 91 NE(2d) 473 (1950), State ex rel Werner v Koontz. A writ of mandamus will not issue to compel a city council to certify a proposed ordinance to the board of elections for submission to the electors where the proposal's provisions are contrary to provisions of the city charter regarding proposed ordinances, as the proposal is really a proposed amendment to the charter, and the steps taken under the initiative and referendum sections of the charter are not appropriate for the submission of a charter amendment to the electors.

134 OS 113, 16 NE(2d) 214 (1938), State ex rel Portmann v Massillon City Council. While submission of referendum on a municipal contract authorizing the purchase of public utility products or service is had under the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §8, the circulation and filing of referendum petitions are governed by the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §5.

127 OS 195, 187 NE 715 (1933), Youngstown v Craver. A charter city is not required to adopt initiative and referendum provision for its own ordinances and other legislative measures. It may adopt the Code provisions for such purpose, and when it does so it is governed by GC 4227-1 (RC 731.28) to 4227-13.

119 OS 210, 162 NE 807 (1928), State ex rel Diehl v Abele; overruled by 131 OS 356, 2 NE(2d) 862 (1936), State ex rel Didelius v City Comm of Sandusky. Under O Const Art XVIII §4, 5, 8, when a municipality proceeds to construct a public utility, not only the initial ordinance authorizing such construction, but every other ordinance in furtherance of such construction, is subject to referendum under O Const Art XVIII §8.

13 App(2d) 46, 233 NE(2d) 600 (1967), Korn v Dunahue. No referendum is necessary to the validity of an ordinance for the sale of a municipally-owned utility; any referendum that is held thereon is governed by the general provisions of O Const Art II §1f, and by RC 731.29; it is not subject to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §4, 5, and 8, which pertain to the purchase of a utility.

b. Petitions

61 OS(3d) 55, 572 NE(2d) 653 (1991), State ex rel Van de Kerkhoff v Dowling. Where circulator affidavits are required by law for signatures on an initiative petition, the use of forms suggested by the board of elections not containing circulator affidavits, but only statements, invalidates the petitions, and estoppel may not be asserted against the board of elections.

39 OS(2d) 150, 314 NE(2d) 167 (1974), State ex rel Stanley v Avon City Council. With respect to a referendum petition there is no language in either the Avon charter or the Ohio constitution which justifies a disqualification of signatures of registered voters simply because they had not voted in the last municipal election.

138 OS 93, 32 NE(2d) 839 (1941), State ex rel Wehr v Bellevue City Council. Council, not having before it referendum petitions bearing signatures of ten per cent of the electors, was not authorized to submit franchise ordinances to a referendum.

103 OS 345, 132 NE 729 (1921), State ex rel McCormick v Fouts. Although petitions filed by citizens with the city council asking for the passage of an ordinance to submit the question of a charter to the people are not sufficient, where the council passes such an ordinance voluntarily and without reference to the petitions by more than a two-thirds vote, the court may not inquire into the motive which induced the adoption of the ordinance which was thereafter properly authenticated and filed with the board of elections.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). No signature to an initiative petition can be rejected without a finding of its invalidity, and a finding means that there must be some final determination, after examination, that the signature is infected with some plausible legal defect.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). A failure to comply with the requirements of 731.32 that a copy of a petition be filed with the city auditor (or finance director) before the petition is circulated for signatures does not invalidate the petition.

27 NP(NS) 221 (CP, Hamilton 1927), Kuertz v Union Gas & Electric Co. The duty of determining the sufficiency and validity of a referendum petition filed under O Const Art XVIII §4, 5, 8 is upon the city council and its failure to submit the referendum petition to the electors within the time prescribed by O Const Art XVIII §8 and ordering the company's acceptance of the rate ordinance filed is a determination by council that the referendum petition is insufficient and invalid.

1933 OAG 420. Where a referendum petition to an ordinance granting a public utility company a franchise for furnishing its product and service to a municipality and its inhabitants, was filed with a village clerk who certified the same to the board of elections, and an election was had thereon one hundred and ninety days after the passage of the ordinance, the council never having taken any action thereon, the failure to file such referendum petition with the legislative authority of the village, and the failure of the council thereof to submit the ordinance to the electors within the time required by O Const Art XVIII §8 rendered such election invalid.

c. Election

15 Abs 314 (App, Summit 1933), Baldwin v Akron. The provisions of O Const Art XVIII §8 requiring an election to be held not less than sixty days after the passage of the ordinance by council are mandatory rather than directory.

O Const XVIII § 9 Amendment of charter; referendum

Amendments to any charter framed and adopted as herein provided may be submitted to the electors of a municipality by a two-thirds vote of the legislative authority thereof, and upon petitions signed by ten per centum of the electors of the municipality setting forth any such proposed amendment, shall be submitted by such legislative authority. The submission of proposed amendments to the electors shall be governed by the requirements of section 8 as to the submission of the question of choosing a charter commission; and copies of proposed amendments may be mailed to the electors as hereinbefore provided for copies of a proposed charter, or, pursuant to laws passed by the General Assembly, notice of proposed amendments may be given by newspaper advertising. If any such amendment is approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, it shall become a part of the charter of the municipality. A copy of said charter or any amendment thereto shall be certified to the secretary of state, within thirty days after adoption by a referendum vote.

1. In general

107 OS 117, 141 NE 27 (1923), Reutener v Cleveland. The power given by this section to amend a municipal charter includes the power to repeal or to strike out provisions.

103 OS 306, 133 NE 552 (1921), Switzer v State ex rel Silvey. O Const Art XVIII §9 provides that the only mode of changing a city's charter legally adopted is by amendment, and these provisions are not only mandatory, but also exclusive and controlling as against any statutory enactment; the abandonment change of plan can only be exercised every five years, in this form of government, and therefore a charter city may not proceed under the statutory abandonment of plan provisions under GC 3515-69.

32 App 189, 166 NE 907 (1928), Payne v State ex rel Guitteau. City charter cannot enlarge O Const Art XVIII §9, with reference to amendment of such charter.

1937 OAG 86. O Const Art XVIII §9 is the only provision by means of which a charter city can amend its charter.

2. Submission of amendment

a. Vote of council

62 OS(3d) 17 (1991), State ex rel Bedford v Cuyahoga County Bd of Elections. A municipality may submit proposed charter amendments to the voters in an advisory election where the advisory election is not a substitute for a vote on the actual charter change but merely seeks to gauge approval for such a change.

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. The mayor of a charter municipality has no authority to veto an ordinance submitting a proposed amendment of the charter to the electors.

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. Pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9, in order to submit proposed amendment of charter of municipality to electors at special election, legislative authority of municipality must establish date for the election.

138 OS 497, 37 NE(2d) 41 (1941), State ex rel Kittel v Bigelow. Even though the preamble of an ordinance submitting a proposed charter amendment to the electorate recites that the legislative authority is acting in response to a petition signed by ten per cent of the electors, where the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by a vote of two-thirds or more of its members, any defects in the filing or signing become immaterial, since the council has the unquestioned power to enact the legislation by a two-thirds vote without any petitions.

32 App 189, 166 NE 907 (1928), Payne v State ex rel Guitteau. Mayor cannot veto ordinance submitting amendment and his approval thereof is not necessary.

1940 OAG 2275. Under provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9, and section 129 of charter of Lima a proposed amendment to said charter may be submitted to the electors of said city by a two-thirds vote of the members of the city council and shall be submitted to said electors by the city council upon filing of a petition signed by ten per cent of the electors of the city setting forth the proposed amendment.

b. Petition of voters

61 OS(3d) 49, 572 NE(2d) 649 (1991), State ex rel Citizens for a Better Portsmouth v Sydnor. A city council may not refuse to place a charter amendment, offered by initiative petition, on the ballot due to content dispute where the petition's form is proper.

33 OS(2d) 7, 292 NE(2d) 883 (1973), State ex rel Polcyn v Burkhart. The question of determining what substantive errors in an initiative petition are grave enough to warrant the withdrawal of the entire issue from the electorate, regardless of whether they appear on the face of the petitions, is judicial and may not be determined by a city council.

175 OS 257, 193 NE(2d) 517 (1963), State ex rel Abrams v Bachrach. Omission from the affidavit of the circulator of an initiative petition of the statement that the signers signed with knowledge of the contents thereof invalidates the petition.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. Once a petition for a charter amendment containing sufficient valid signatures is filed with the city council, the only body or person thereafter charged with any duty of submitting the question to the electors is the city council, and the provisions of RC 731.28 and 731.32, which call for an initiative petition to be filed with the city auditor or village clerk, do not apply to an initiative petition to amend a city charter under O Const Art XVIII §9.

166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach. The provisions of RC 731.28 and 731.32 relative to the filing of an initiative petition with the city auditor or village clerk and to the certification of the ordinance or measure by such auditor or clerk to the board of elections do not apply to an initiative petition to amend a city charter, filed pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §9.

138 OS 497, 37 NE(2d) 41 (1941), State ex rel Kittel v Bigelow. Even though the preamble of an ordinance submitting a proposed charter amendment to the electorate recites that the legislative authority is acting in response to a petition signed by ten per cent of the electors, where the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by a vote of two-thirds or more of its members, any defects in the filing or signing become immaterial, since the council has the unquestioned power to enact the legislation by a two-thirds vote without any petitions.

116 OS 390, 156 NE 455 (1927), State ex rel Hinchliffe v Gibbons. Section 182 of the Cleveland charter is inoperative to the extent that it is in conflict with O Const Art XVIII §9, and initiative petitions to submit proposed amendments to the charter must be filed with the city council, which alone has authority to determine their sufficiency.

66 App(3d) 286 (Erie 1990), State ex rel Citizens for a Responsive Government Committee v Widman. A writ of mandamus will not be issued to compel a city commission or its members to place an initiative petition which seeks a change in the form of municipal government on the next election ballot since as the petition alters only one out of eighty-five sections of the charter, it seeks to "amend" the charter and not to "abolish" it; therefore, RC 731.28 does not control and it has to be submitted to legislative authority for a determination of its validity pursuant to the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9; the submission of a petition is not rendered unnecessary regardless of the number of voter's signatures on it, nor are amendments to charters seeking a change in the form of government guaranteed placement on the ballot by O Const Art I §2 and Art II §1f.

59 App(2d) 175, 392 NE(2d) 1302 (Summit 1978), State ex rel Watkins v Quirk. The power of a municipal clerk of council to ascertain the sufficiency of a referendum petition is not co-extensive with that of a board of elections under RC 3501.11(K), and he possesses no judicial or quasi-judicial power in this regard, but is limited to an examination of the face of the petition.

15 App(2d) 222, 240 NE(2d) 871 (1968), Cloud v Clark County Bd of Elections. Where a petition has been filed with the legislative authority of a municipality requesting the passage of an ordinance submitting a proposed charter amendment to the electorate, and the legislative authority in fact passes an ordinance of submission by unanimous vote of its members, no inquiry may thereafter be made into the form, substance or sufficiency of such petition.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). No signature to an initiative petition can be rejected without a finding of its invalidity, and a finding means that there must be some final determination, after examination, that the signature is infected with some plausible legal defect.

1940 OAG 2275. Under provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9, and section 129 of charter of Lima a proposed amendment to said charter may be submitted to the electors of said city by a two-thirds vote of the members of the city council and shall be submitted to said electors by the city council upon filing of a petition signed by ten per cent of the electors of the city setting forth the proposed amendment.

3. Notice of proposed amendment

22 App 282, 153 NE 897 (1926), State ex rel Vrooman v Kauffman. Where, under O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9 and charter of a city, clerk was required to mail electors copy of proposed charter amendment not less than eighty days prior to election, petition for mandamus filed October 7, to compel mailing of copies for vote on November 2, will not be granted.

4. Election; ballot

25 OS(2d) 140, 267 NE(2d) 410 (1971), Billington v Cotner. Pursuant to O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9, in order to submit proposed amendment of charter of municipality to electors at special election, legislative authority of municipality must establish date for the election.

107 OS 117, 141 NE 27 (1923), Reutener v Cleveland. The Ohio constitution does not require that the full text of amendments to a city charter to be submitted to the electors shall be printed on the ballot; and the printing on the ballot of a digest of the amendment which digest substantially expresses the purpose and terms of the amendment is sufficient.

107 OS 117, 141 NE 27 (1923), Reutener v Cleveland. This section does not require each amendment to a municipal charter to be submitted separately to the electors, and an amendment may be submitted which establishes the city manager plan of government and the system of voting by proportional representation, although it repeals or modifies numerous sections of the existing charter.

73 Abs 204, 135 NE(2d) 92 (CP, Hamilton 1956), State ex rel Blackwell v Bachrach; affirmed by 166 OS 301, 143 NE(2d) 127 (1957). A mandamus action requesting a special election should not be dismissed solely because the relator has asked that the election be called and held on a specific date.

OAG 82-057. Municipal elections on charter amendments must be held in accordance with the requirements of O Const Art XVIII §8 and 9. If there is no constitutional provision which is applicable to a particular election matter, charter requirements prevail over conflicting statutes.

OAG 65-112. Where a municipality has fully complied with the provisions of O Const Art XVIII §9, with regard to a proposal for amending its charter, and provided that the limiting time provisions of §8 are applicable, it is mandatory for a board of elections to conduct a special election.

1952 OAG 1286. A charter commission has the sole right to fix the time for an election for approval or disapproval of a proposed municipal charter, and where proceedings are instituted for adoption or amendment of a charter, it is the duty of the legislative body to appropriate the necessary funds for the election.

1931 OAG 3626. In the event there are to be submitted to the electors of a municipality which has adopted a charter plan of government under O Const Art XVIII §7, 8, two conflicting amendments to that charter both of which are approved at the same election by a majority of the total number of votes cast for and against the same, the one receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall be the amendment to the charter in the absence of a charter provision to the contrary. A voter may vote in the affirmative for each such conflicting amendment and his vote should be counted in each case.

5. Approval; effective date; certification

44 App 461, 185 NE 59 (Allen 1933), State ex rel Keville v Faurot; appeal dismissed by 126 OS 437, 185 NE 881 (1933); affirmed by 126 OS 646, 186 NE 718 (1933). City commission was not required to certify copy of results of election on charter to secretary of state, such duty being on board of elections.

27 Abs 164, 31 NE(2d) 256 (App, Summit 1938), State ex rel Rodocker v Schroy; appeal dismissed by 134 OS 96, 15 NE(2d) 780 (1938). An amendment to a city charter becomes effective on the day of the election at which it is adopted by the electors unless the proposition to postpone the amendment's effect is submitted to and adopted by the voters.

1931 OAG 3626. In the event there are to be submitted to the electors of a municipality which has adopted a charter plan of government under O Const Art XVIII §7, 8, two conflicting amendments to that charter both of which are approved at the same election by a majority of the total number of votes cast for and against the same, the one receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall be the amendment to the charter in the absence of a charter provision to the contrary. A voter may vote in the affirmative for each such conflicting amendment and his vote should be counted in each case.

6. Particular amendments

107 OS 144, 141 NE 35 (1923), Hile v Cleveland; appeal dismissed by 266 US 582, 45 SCt 97, 69 LEd 452 (1924). The amendment to the home rule charter of the city of Cleveland, adopted in 1921, and establishing the manager plan of government and the system of voting by proportional representation is valid.

106 App 354, 151 NE(2d) 367 (1958), Sinclair v Lakewood; appeal dismissed by 168 OS 372, 154 NE(2d) 822 (1958). A municipal corporation may present to the electors of the city a proposed amendment to its charter authorizing the council by ordinance, without a vote of the people, to levy a tax on the taxable property in the city in addition to all taxes authorized by the charter and the ten-mill limitation of the constitution, the proceeds to be used to provide needed monies for the relief and pension funds for members of the police and fire departments of said city.

102 App 297, 114 NE(2d) 922 (1953), State ex rel Pecyk v Greene. Cleveland charter amendment providing that candidate receiving a majority vote in the primary election shall be the only candidate to appear on the ballot in the general election is valid and in effect for the primary election at which it was enacted.

O Const XVIII § 14 Municipal elections

All elections and submissions of questions provided for in this article shall be conducted by the election authorities prescribed by general law. The percentage of electors required to sign any petition provided for herein shall be based upon the total vote cast at the last preceding general municipal election.
