This publication provides information to the public about the repeat elections of People's Deputies of Ukraine, scheduled on December 10, 1995, in 45 Ukrainian constituencies.

This Guidebook is divided into three sections. Section One contains the pre-election calendar, and profiles of the registered candidates by constituency, party affiliation, nomination, age and sex, nationality, education, profession, current position, profession and occupation, degree, and academic rank.

Section Two presents Oblast information including lists of Peoples' Deputies of Ukraine elected in 1994 by each of Ukraine's 24 Oblasts, the Autonomous Republic of Crimea, Kyiv City, and Sevastopol City. The following information is included for the December 10 repeat elections:

- addresses, phone numbers and election officials' names for all 45 constituency electoral commissions;
- the number of polling stations in each constituency;
- name, age, profession, position, and party affiliation of each candidate (as of November 14, 1995).

Section Three contains the Law of Ukraine "On Elections of Peoples' Deputies of Ukraine," which was enacted November 18, 1993, and which regulates the conduct of these elections. Although it is important to note that the Verkhovna Rada is considering a new election law draft as we go to print, any changes would not take effect until subsequent elections.

This publication is distributed to all 45 constituency commissions and 2,210 polling station commissions for repeat elections, December 10, 1995, as well by governmental and non-governmental organizations, international election observers, Peoples' Deputies, diplomatic representatives, international organizations, teachers and students, mass media, and others involved in the electoral and political process in Ukraine.

LAW OF UKRAINE "ON ELECTIONS OF PEOPLE'S DEPUTIES OF UKRAINE" .....	133

EDITORIAL NOTE

An unprecedented course of parliamentary elections, repeat elections and repeat voting, took place in 1994:

- March 27
- April 2, 3, 9 and 10
- July 24
- July 31, August 7
- September 25
- November 20
- December 4

On December, 1994, the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine voted to postpone the coming round of repeat elections of people's deputies. Forty-five (of 450) seats still remain unfilled because of two parliamentary election law requirements: Article 43 (§ 3) regarding the standard for the participation of "no less than 50% of the voters on the voting list," and Article 43 (§4) which determines that "a candidate for deputy shall be deemed elected if the candidate receives more than half of the votes of the voters who participated in the voting but no less than 25% of the total number of voters."

The Kyiv office of the International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) has published election guidebooks for all rounds of parliamentary and presidential elections in Ukraine in 1994. In December 1994 IFES produced the Election Compendium Elections in Ukraine, 1994 in Ukrainian and in English which included the election data of the elected people's deputies of Ukraine. IFES/Kyiv produced the second edition of this publication in September 1995 in order to meet the wide demand for it.

Upon the decision of Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, repeat elections are scheduled for December 10, 1995 in 45 constituencies. The Ukrainian parliament, based on Article 97 (§ 7, 19) of the Constitution of Ukraine and Article 17 (§ 1) of the Law of Ukraine "On State Power and Local Self-Government in Ukraine," adopted a Resolution on September 13,

1995, with the interpretation that elections on December 10, 1995 “have to be held pursuant to the provisions of the Law of Ukraine ‘On Elections of People’s Deputies of Ukraine,’ which regulates the procedure of repeat elections.”

As of November 14, 1995, the Central Election Commission of Ukraine registered 382 candidates for people’s deputy in 45 constituencies where repeat elections are to be held.

This publication, Guidebook for Repeat Elections of People’s Deputies of Ukraine, December 10 1995, is possible due to the considerable support of the Central Election Commission of Ukraine and personally of its Chairman, Ivan H. Yemets.
