ERRATA

This book was prepared after the repeat voting in Ukraine on December 4, 1994 especially for the Conference of the Association of Central and Eastern European Election Officials in Kyiv (December 15-17, 1994). The short term for publication led to some mistakes in this edition. In particular, on page 133 of this compendium, presidential candidates are in the wrong order. Leonid Kuchma, elected as President of Ukraine, should be in the first column (52.15%) and Leonid Kravchuk in the second (45.06%). We apologize for any technical mistakes which may have occurred and are now making all the necessary changes for the second edition of this book which will soon be available.

ПОВІДОМЛЕННЯ

Дана книжка була підготовлена після повторного голосування в Україні, що відбувалося 4 грудня 1994 року, спеціально для конференції Асоціації працівників виборчих органів Центральної та Східної Європи у Києві (15-17 грудня 1994). Короткий термін для її публікації призвів до деяких помилок у цьому виданні. Зокрема, на сторінці 140 нашого довідника кандидатів у Президенти подано в неправильному порядку. Леонід Кучма, обраний Президентом України, має бути у першій колонці (52.15%), а Леонід Кравчук у другій (45.06%). Вибачаємось за можливі всі технічні помилки, що можуть мати місце. Ми робимо всі необхідні зміни у другому виданні цієї книжки, яке ви зможете отримати незабаром.

ELECTIONS IN UKRAINE

1994

This publication summarizes the elections of Peoples' Deputies of Ukraine and the President of Ukraine that were held in 1994. The book begins with the summary of election results, results of run-off elections and repeat voting that took place in 1994:

- March 27,
- April 2, 3, 9 and 10,
- July 24,
- July 31, August 7,
- September 25,
- November 20,
- December 4.

The following information is also included: a list of elected Peoples' Deputies of Ukraine by each constituency and tables with the election results, as well as Oblast analysis and maps in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea, City of Kyiv, City of Sevastopol and in each of Ukraine's 24 Oblasts. In this analysis, party affiliation, education, profession, former position and residence of every elected deputy are included.

In the second part of the publication, the Presidential Elections of June 26 are reviewed, including repeat voting on July 10, 1994. At the end, the pre-election platform of Leonid Kuchma, elected President of Ukraine, is included.

The third part of this publication contains the election laws of Ukraine: Law of Ukraine "On Elections of Peoples' Deputies of Ukraine", Law of Ukraine "On Elections of President of Ukraine", Law of Ukraine "On the Election of Deputies and Chairpersons of Village, Township, District (Rayon), Municipal, City District (Rayon) and Regional (Oblast) Councils"

This publication is issued for the use of governmental and non-governmental institutions, Peoples' Deputies, diplomatic representatives, international organizations, international scientists, teachers and students, mass media and others involved in the electoral and political process in Ukraine.

COMPLETE PRE-ELECTION PROGRAM
TO PREVENT NATIONAL CATASTROPHE, THROUGH CIVIL ORDER AND DECENCY - TOWARDS CONSENT AND WELL-BEING

Ukraine is at a cross-road. Self-isolation and the absence of implementing reforms resulted in production decrease, impoverishment of people and the danger of losing integrity of the country.

How shall we live tomorrow?

Not a role of an intermediary in political games between European countries and Russia, but the role of the leader and solidifying element in the center of Eurasian region will place Ukraine amongst rich and civilized countries. To begin with we shall start making order in our own home.

To succeed in this we need to be headed by a President with strong executive power, capable of preventing collapse and lead to progress and prosperity of the people, feeling their trust and support.

Peaceful international policy of Ukraine shall assist us all through our way forward.

In case I am elected President, I will focus on the following tasks:

IN THE STATE POLICY

- the establishment of sovereign democratic Ukraine and preserving its integrity will be the key-point of state policy. Priority of human rights, rule of law, free development of all nationalities of all religions populating Ukraine, support of our inherited historical and spiritual values shall be a key for success in achieving these difficult goals;
- I will stand for immediate adoption of a new Constitution which shall serve as the basis for developing legal framework, forming civil society of national consent, as well as the establishment of authoritative executive power on the principles of competence, decency and responsibility;
- I will insist on immediate establishment of the Constitutional Court, conduct the policy of real division between legislative, executive and judicial powers, assist in conducting juridical reform;
- I will support more freedom for local administrative bodies in the regions and first of all in making the budget;
- I will ensure equal respect by the state of all religions and faiths and its non-interference with their activities;
- I stand the principle that the borders of Ukraine shall be inviolable and will pay thorough attention to the advanced improvement of the Ukrainian Armed Forces and to the strengthening of their capability to defend the country;

I will put all my presidential powers to do our best in fighting corruption, mafia and other crimes.

IN ECONOMIC POLICY

- I am in support of controlled transformation of the administrative economy into a market one, well-grounded methods of transformation of the state property and privatization of the state property and privatization, equality for all forms of ownership and their legal protection. As a consequence, the principles of state administration of the economy will be formed taking the aforementioned into account;
- I take it as top priority together with further development of proper relations with the countries of Western Europe and USA to renew mutually-beneficial economic ties with Russia and former FSU countries. I will offer for parliamentary consideration the issue of Ukraine to enter CIS economic union and will support making an agreement on currency control to be based on the principle of partnership;
- in agriculture policy I will undertake measures to bring economic effectiveness in production to a higher level and assist its industrialization. I will match conversion of military-industrial complex with the program that will allow bringing modern machines to the villages. Agriculture shall be developed not by way of declarative statements, but by way of real fulfillment of the set programmes;
- I will be cautious enough as to the property reforms in the rural areas. But I believe, that all non-arable land including those under the building shall be available for sale;
- I will support the policy of deep reforms in the structure of economy, where the state support is first of all offered to the enterprises that use high-technologies and know-how. Prior attention will be focused on how to bring energy consumption by industry down. Industries with fast capital flow and manufacturing of consumer goods will be regulated only by market stimuli;

- taking into account that the capacities of the Ukrainian coupon have already dried out I will support speed-up of monetary reform;
- in order to concentrate national capital I will initiate the establishment of industrial-financial groups, inter-sectional concerns and trusts, industrial-banking holding companies. It will enable Ukrainian companies to co-work on parity basis and to compete world-wide;
- I will advocate for the in-depth reform of our financial system, efficient cuts in budgetary spending, strengthening of the financial sufficiency of the enterprises. Taxes will be lowered and the banking system will be transformed into the two-level structure;
- I will stand for the principles of consecutive controlled liberalization of prices. Only limited list of resources, goods and products will still have fixed prices;
- I will ensure in-depth reform of wages and will stop their unjustified growth;
- I will insist that Ukrainian National Bank and the Parliament support parity of the gross national income, money in circulation, consumer fund and budgetary spendings;

 - 6) counts votes cast at the polling station;
 - 7) reviews requests and complaints connected with the preparation and organization of balloting and makes decisions on them;
 - 8) discharges other functions in accordance with this law and other acts of the Ukrainian legislature.
3. Political parties and election blocs which nominated a candidate for President of Ukraine may appoint one representative with the right to take the floor at polling station commission meetings.

The mandate of the polling station commission expires ten days after the CEC has published the results of the election of the President of Ukraine.

ARTICLE 16. Legal status of election commission members.

1. Any citizen with the right to vote may be appointed to an election commission.

Nominees for President, presidential candidates and other persons mentioned in Article 7, section 4, of this law may not be members of the election commission.

The secretary of the election commission must be fluent in the state language.

2. By the decision of the election commission, subject to approval by the respective constituency election commission or CEC, the chairman, deputy chairman, secretary and certain members of the election commission may be released for the time of the election campaign from their current employment while retaining their salary. The salary of the commission member is determined by averaging his indexed pay for the previous 3 months. The salary is paid at his main place of work with subsequent compensation to the enterprise, institution or organization from the state budget or through the bodies that created by the commission in question.
3. The chairman, deputy chairman, secretary or any commission member may be discharged from the commission upon their request or following a serious violation of the election law, by the body which appointed them.

ARTICLE 17. How to organize the work of the election commission.

1. The election commission works mainly in meetings. The meeting is called by the commission's chairman, and in case of his absence by the deputy chairman or upon demand by no less than half the commission members with mandatory notification of all commission members of the time and location of the meeting.
2. Meetings are conducted by the chairman or his deputy. In case neither is able to preside, the commission appoints an ad hoc chairman for a particular meeting from amongst its members.
3. The decisions made during a meeting are binding if no less than 2/3 of the members are present. Decisions are made by open majority vote. If an equal number of votes is cast on both sides, the chairman's vote is deciding. The decisions of the election commission must be based upon and contain references to specific articles or sections in relevant acts of the legislature and the circumstances of the case. Commission members who disagree with the decision made may express their individual opinion in writing, this to be appended to the minutes of the session.
4. The commission may decide to deprive the persons mentioned in Article 7, section 4, of this law of the right of participation in a meeting, if they obstruct the work of the meeting.
5. The commission's decisions, if made within its authority, are binding for all electoral entities and bodies which ensure the conduct of elections.
6. State bodies, bodies of local self-government as well as state enterprises, institutions and organizations are to assist election commissions in discharging their functions.

ARTICLE 18. Appeal of decisions and actions of election commissions.

1. Decisions and actions of constituency election commissions or polling station commissions may be appealed by nominees for President, presidential candidates, their campaign agents or persons authorized by them, parties, election blocs as well as persons authorized by voter meetings which nominated a nominee for President and voters, in an appeal to a higher level election commission within ten days after such a decision or action, if not otherwise foreseen in this law.
2. Complaints about a polling station commission's refusal to correct errors in the voter list upon request are filed with the court having jurisdiction over the area where the commission is located. A decision on the case is to be made within three days.
3. Decisions and actions of the CEC may be appealed in cases provided for in this law in an appeal to the Supreme Court of Ukraine, which is to make a decision within 7 days.
4. Decisions of the courts are final.

ARTICLE 19. Voter lists.

1. The procedure for compilation of the voter lists, inclusion of citizens' names therein, as well as the procedure for introducing changes to the lists are determined according to Articles 20, 21, and 22 of the Law of Ukraine "On Elections of People's Deputies of Ukraine".

ARTICLE 20. Financial and material provision for the elections for President.

1. Expenses associated with the preparation and conduct of the presidential elections are paid from the single centralized fund for presidential elections created by the CEC. This money is part of the state budget. The size of this fund is approved by the Presidium of the Supreme Rada.
2. The Cabinet of Ministries of Ukraine ensures the financial and material provisions for the presidential elections.
3. Ukrainian citizens, their associations, legal entities registered in Ukraine with the exception of enterprises with foreign investments, as well as state bodies, enterprises, institutions and organizations supported from the state budget, may make contributions to the centralized fund for the presidential elections.
4. In addition to state financing, a presidential candidate may use money from his personal election fund, set up for the purpose of financing his election campaign in keeping with the procedures envisioned in this Law.

IV. NOMINATION AND REGISTRATION OF PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

ARTICLE 21. Registration of political parties (election blocs) for the elections for President.

1. Political parties (election blocs), which number no less than 1000 members, have the right to nominate a nominee for President after their registration with the CEC as participants in the presidential elections.
2. The CEC registers political parties within a week after the submission of an application by the political party's governing body signed by its authorized person. A registration certificate issued by the Ministry of Justice, as well as a document certifying the number of party members at the moment of submission, are to be attached to the application.
3. An election bloc may be formed by a group of political parties by a decision of their governing bodies as stated in Article 22 of this law. An agreement on formation of an interpartisan election bloc for the presidential elections signed by the contracting parties' authorized persons, as well as the registration certificate of those political parties issued by the Ministry of Justice confirming the number of party members at the moment of registration is to be appended to the application on behalf of the bloc signed by the leaders of the above-referenced political parties. The application constitutes grounds for registration of the said election bloc within a week's time.
4. A decision of the CEC refusing registration to a political party (election bloc) may be protested by this party's (election bloc's) authorized representative in an appeal to the Supreme Court of Ukraine within ten days after the decision has been made.

ARTICLE 22. The procedure for nomination of a presidential candidate by a party or election bloc.

1. Nomination of nominees for President begins ninety days before election day and ends sixty days prior to election day.
2. The nominee is nominated at a political party congress, conference, general meeting or any other gathering which is the political party's highest governing body according to its statute.
The procedure for holding a congress (conference, general meeting) is set forth in the political party's statute.
3. An election bloc nominates a candidate at an interparty conference attended by elected delegates from the said parties according to the standards of representation determined in the agreement on formation of the election bloc.
4. The conference may nominate a candidate if there are more than 2/3 of the elected delegates, but no less than 200 persons, in attendance.
5. Having nominated a candidate, a political party (election bloc) files a declaration with the CEC indicating the candidate's full name, date of birth, occupation, position, place of work, residence, confirmation of his residence in Ukraine for 10 years, including the last five years, his political party membership as well as the full name, address and the phone number of the party's (election bloc's) authorized persons.

Attached to the declaration are:

- 1) an extract from the minutes of the decision of the executive body of the political party (election bloc) on nominating a nominee;
 - 2) the nominee's statement confirming his agreement to run for presidency.
6. The CEC issues the political party's (election bloc's) authorized person with a certificate confirming receipt of the declaration no later than 2 days after its submission bearing the date and time of submission.

ARTICLE 23. Voter meetings.

1. A voter meeting, within the time limits set forth in Article 33, section 1, of this law, if attended by no less than 500 citizens of Ukraine with the right to vote, may nominate a nominee for President. A voter meeting may be held at one's place of residence, at enterprises, institutions, organizations.

Those initiating the meeting must notify the constituency election commission and the executive body of local self-government no less than 3 days before it is to take place. The constituency election commission may send its representative to ensure that the meeting is conducted in a lawful manner.

2. At the start of the meeting a list of participants, including their full names, dates of birth and addresses is to be drawn up. Every participant signs against his name. Minutes of the meeting are to be kept, this including information on the compilation of the list of participants at the meeting and their number, election of the presidium and its membership. The list of the participants at the meeting is to be appended to the minutes.

One and the same person may not participate in more than one voter meeting nominating a presidential nominee.

3. By the meeting's decision to be adopted by majority vote, one initiative group of voters numbering from 10 to 25 participants is to be approved. Its individual membership is to be noted in the minutes of the meeting.

ARTICLE 24. The procedure for nominating presidential nominees by voter meetings.

1. Voters may discuss one of several nominees for nomination at voter meetings. Every participant may propose any nominee, including himself. For a nominee to be nominated at a voter meeting, no less than 2/3 of participants must vote in favor thereof.
2. The voter group files an application for registration of the nominee and application for registration of the voter group with the constituency election commission.

In the application for registration, the data on the nominee required by Article 22, section 5, of this law is to be stated.

To be appended to the application are:

- 1) minutes of the meeting that nominated the nominee;
- 2) the list of participants at the meeting;
- 3) the nominee's statement confirming his agreement to run for President.

In the application for registration by the voter group the full name, address, and phone number of its authorized person is to be noted.

3. The constituency election commission issues the authorized person of the voter group with a certificate confirming receipt of the application for registration of the nominee. No later than on the fifth day after the application has been received, the constituency election commission draws up a protocol certifying conformity of the submitted documents with the law and makes a decision on registration of the voter group. The said protocol, together with other requisite documents, is immediately sent to the CEC, which makes a decision on registering the nominee. A copy of the protocol and a decision on registration of the voter group are handed over to the authorized person of the voter group.

A decision refusing registration to the voter group may be appealed by its authorized person in an appeal to the court having jurisdiction over the territory in which the constituency election commission is located.

4. The Central Election Commission reviews the minutes of the constituency election commission together with the submitted documents for registration of the nominee nominated by the voter meeting and makes a decision on registration of the nominee or refusal thereof no later than within a week's time after receipt of the protocol.

5. In the event one and the same person has been nominated by more than one voter meeting, the CEC registers the said nominee based on the minutes of the constituency election commission which arrived first. At the same time the CEC registers the voter group mentioned in those minutes as having nominated the nominee. In the case of duplicate nomination, the minutes and materials from the voters meetings for the nomination of the said contender are reviewed by the commission and then appended to the decision on registration. The decision will contain a listing of all the meetings that nominated the nominee. The voter groups indicated in the above-referenced minutes may form support groups of a given nominee from among their members.

ARTICLE 25. Registration of a nominee for candidate for President.

1. The nominee must conform to the requirements set forth in Article 2 of this Law.
2. The CEC decides on registration of the nominee within a week's time after the registration application has been submitted by the authorized person of the party (election bloc) or the protocol of the constituency election commission has arrived in accordance with section 4, Article 24 of this Law. Thereupon it issues the authorized person of the party (election bloc) or the initiative group of voters with a certificate confirming the registration of the nominee and a standard signature collection sheet.
3. The nominee may be registered as a candidate if his candidacy is supported by the signatures of no less than 100,000 Ukrainian citizens with the right to vote. The 100,000 must include no less than 1500 citizens in 2/3 of the total number of the constituencies.
4. The nominee, persons authorized by him, by the party or by the voter group have the right to receive signature sheets directly from the respective constituency election commission, this right to be confirmed by an appropriate certificate issued by the CEC. The CEC may also grant nominees the right to make copies of blank signature sheets themselves.

ARTICLE 26. The signature sheet.

1. The format of the signature sheet is approved by the CEC and must contain columns to be filled with the following data: the number of the signature, full name of the voter, his date of birth, permanent address, passport number or that of any other document verifying his identity, the voter's signature as well as any other data required by Article 2, section 1 of this law.

ARTICLE 27. Procedure for collecting voter signatures in support of the nominee for President.

1. Voters authorized to collect signatures in support of the nominee must indicate on the signature sheet the following data: full name of the nominee, his date of birth, profession, occupation, employment, permanent address, party affiliation as well as the collector's own full name, home address and phone number. Beside every signatory the signature-collector must enter the signatory's data, as provided for by Article 26 of this Law. The signature sheet is to be signed by the signature-collector.
2. An individual signature sheet should contain the signatures of residents of only one city (town, village).
3. A voter may support only one nominee with his signature.

Election commissions have the right to check the validity of signatures. If one and the same voter supported more than one nominee, all his signatures are considered invalid. Signatures that have been forged or collected under duress, are also invalid, the latter to be ascertained in a written complaint by the voter.

4. Signature sheets are submitted to the respective constituency election commission for registration no later than 50 days before election day. The constituency election commission may issue a certificate confirming registration of the signature sheets that have been submitted upon request.

Having ascertained that the signature sheets have been filled out in accordance with the requirements of this law, the constituency election commission is to draw up a protocol to this effect within 5 days and no later than the next day, send them together with the protocol to the CEC. The procedure for determining whether the signatures have been collected in a lawful manner is established by the CEC.

5. If it is determined that submitted signature sheets have not been filled out in conformity with the law, the constituency election commission notifies the persons who submitted them of its decision no later than within 3 days after their receipt. Corrected or additional signature sheets are to be submitted to the CEC not later than 45 days before election day.
6. The CEC draws up a separate protocol for each nominee, which reflects his support among the electorate as shown by the signatures collected, and makes it available to the nominee or the party's (election bloc's) authorized person, or the authorized person of the voter group within 2 days.

The constituency election commissions are to provide the nominee with information on the number of signatures received in his support upon his written request.

7. Only constituency election commission members have the right of access to the lists of voters supporting a particular nominee or in the event the case is brought to court, entities participating in the judicial process.

ARTICLE 28. Registration of presidential candidates.

1. Registration of candidates for President is granted by the CEC no later than 5 days after all the required documents have been submitted. The CEC decides on registration of presidential candidates if the following documents have been submitted:
 - 1) the application by the party's governing body which nominated the contender signed by the authorized person of this body (leaders of the parties making up the bloc) or an application by the voter group of electors registered with the CEC as stipulated in Article 24, section 5 of this law on registration of the presidential candidates;
 - 2) signature sheets with the required number of signatures in support of the contender;
 - 3) the CEC protocol on results of the signature collection by voters in support of their contender;
 - 4) a declaration by the nominee stating his agreement to run for presidency;
 - 5) the nominee's program;
 - 6) the nominee's income statement for the previous year drawn up in accordance with the requirements established by the Ministry of Finance.
2. The above-mentioned documents (with the exception of those covered by items 2 and 3) should be submitted to the CEC no later than 40 days before election day.
3. The person who submitted the required documents is issued no later than on the next day a CEC certificate bearing the date and time when the documents were received. If the documents do not conform to the requirements of this law, the CEC should notify the person who submitted them within 3 days. The corrected documents should be submitted to the CEC no later than 35 days before election day.
4. The CEC makes a decision on registration of a nominee as a candidate for President within a week's time upon submission of all the documents, including corrected ones, mentioned in section 2 of this Article.
Registration of candidates is to be completed no later than 30 days before election day.
5. Within 2 days after registration, the CEC issues the candidate with an appropriate certificate.
6. The names of the registered candidates are numbered by the CEC in the order in which the documents have been received. No later than on the 5th day after the registration process is over, the CEC publishes in the press and announces in the mass media the list of presidential candidates with the indication in the order of registration their full names, year of birth, occupation; party affiliation; place of work and residence, and the number of his banking account set up to receive contributions toward his personal election fund.
7. The CEC's refusal to register a nominee as a candidate for President may be appealed to the Supreme Court of Ukraine by entities which nominated him. The Supreme Court makes a decision on the case within 3 days. The Supreme Court's decision is final.
8. A decision on the registration of the presidential candidate may be revoked by the Supreme Court upon receipt of a request to do so from the CEC, the party's (election bloc's) authorized person or the initiative group of voters which nominated him.

ARTICLE 29. Income statement of a presidential candidate.

1. The income statement of a candidate for President is completed according to the standard established by the Ministry of Finance. The candidate completes the statement and is responsible for the accuracy of the information given.
2. The CEC may request appropriate state bodies to review the income statement. If they find it contains any deliberately falsified information or anything deemed to be a grave violation of relevant laws, this is grounds to refuse registration of the nominee as presidential candidate. In case such facts are discovered after registration is granted, the CEC may appeal to the Supreme Court to invalidate the registration of the candidate in question in keeping with the procedure set forth in Article 28 of this Law.

3. Voters have the right of access to the income statements of the candidates for President. By the decision of the CEC income statements of all candidates are published in the newspaper "Holos Ukrainy".

ARTICLE 30. Withdrawal of presidential candidates from the ballot

1. A presidential candidate may withdraw his candidacy any time, having filed an appropriate written declaration with the CEC. In this case his name is crossed out from the list of candidates by the CEC.
2. In case of a candidate's death the CEC considers him to have withdrawn from the election, and his name is crossed out from the list of presidential candidates.
3. In case a presidential candidate violates relevant election laws, the CEC may appeal to the Supreme Court to invalidate registration of the candidate in question. If the Supreme Court of Ukraine decides to invalidate a registration, that candidacy shall be removed from the list of candidates for President of Ukraine and the candidate is regarded as having been removed from the balloting.
4. The CEC conveys information on the candidate's withdrawal to constituency election commissions, publishes it in the press and announces it via other mass media within 5 days after the decision has been made, but no later than 1 day before the elections.

V. CAMPAIGNING

ARTICLE 31. Conduct of pre-election campaign publicity by the candidates for President.

1. The person receiving the candidate's registration certificate has the right to conduct the candidate's election campaign.
2. The rules for campaigning are set forth in Article 32 of the Law of the Ukraine "On Election of People's Deputies of Ukraine".
3. The CEC, acting through constituency election commissions, ensures the production of campaign posters of presidential candidates for each candidate no later than 20 days prior to the election. The number of copies is to exceed the number of polling stations within a given constituency by 8000. The production expenses are paid from the centralized fund for presidential elections. The above-referenced posters may be manufactured in a greater number at the expense of the candidate's personal election fund and from the materials provided by him if he makes an appropriate request.

To ensure the timely manufacture of campaign posters, a candidate's photos of the approved standard, his platform (program), an autobiography running for 4 pages of a printed one-and-a-half-spaced text are to be submitted to the CEC together with the candidate's registration documents, no later than on the second day after registration to the constituency election commissions. These materials may not contain information which contains secrets protected by the law, false information, instigation of violence or commercial advertising. The CEC and constituency election commissions review the submitted materials, and if they conform with this law, agree with the candidate on the text of his campaign poster and ensure its printing.

4. Each candidate can produce other campaign materials at his own expense and within the limits of his personal election fund at his own discretion. Information provided in the above-referenced materials should conform with this law, and their texts before printing must be approved by the respective constituency election commission.
5. Local executive state bodies and bodies of local self-government set out campaign-advertising areas and boards in public places, ensure that appropriate materials manufactured by respective constituency election commissions are posted on them as well as announcements published by them pertaining to the campaigning and presidential candidates as envisioned by this law. They may forbid to place such materials on certain buildings which are architectural monuments or for reasons of traffic safety.
6. Restrictions with regard to campaigning are set forth in Article 35 of the Law of Ukraine "On Elections of People's Deputies of Ukraine" with the exception of section 3 of that article.

ARTICLE 32. Using state mass media for the purposes of campaigning.

1. Presidential candidates are granted the right to use state mass media free of charge by providing them with equal and commensurable time on the air on the state radio and TV and local mass media within a given constituency.

The extent and time of radio and TV programs allotted for the campaigning purposes of presidential candidates is set at a national level by the CEC and on the constituency level by constituency election commissions acting in agreement with the managers of local mass media.

2. Presidential candidates have a right to place the text of their program of no more than 2 pages in print mass media founded by state bodies of authority.
3. Election commissions pay for the campaign time on state radio and TV, the printing of election posters and publication of programs (platforms) of presidential candidates in print mass media founded by local bodies of state authority and self-government from the finances allocated for the elections from the centralized fund for presidential elections.
4. Spending for the campaign in other print mass media (newspapers) and non-state mass media is limited to the size of the candidate's personal fund, the terms of payment being equal for all candidates.

ARTICLE 33. The presidential candidate's personal fund.

1. Each candidate for President may have a personal fund. The personal fund is formed from the candidate's personal resources, finances of political parties, contributions from Ukrainian citizens, legal persons registered in Ukraine with the exception of state enterprises, state bodies, institutions and organizations, bodies of local self-government as well as foreign citizens and legal persons and enterprises with foreign investments. Any agreements or contracts between a contributor and a candidate, party (election bloc) with regard to money to be credited to the candidate's personal fund, are invalid.
2. The size of the candidate's personal fund may not exceed 10,000 minimal salaries.
The size of contributions from one legal or physical person may not exceed 100 minimal salaries.
3. Following written request from the presidential candidate, the Bank of Ukraine in the area of the CEC must open an account in his name under the heading "The election fund".
4. Election commissions, financial institutions and banks with which the account was opened control the contributions to and expenditures from the presidential candidate's personal election fund. Upon the candidate's request, the bank gives him full information on the size and sources of contributions to his personal election fund.
5. When the contributions to the candidate's personal fund reach the maximum set by the law, the CEC notifies voters thereof via mass media within 3 days.
6. The candidate, as well as his entrusted and authorized persons are prohibited from obtaining or spending their own money for campaigning purposes outside the candidate's personal fund.
7. Citizens' participation in the election campaign is not considered as paid employment even if it involves the expenditure of personal finances or work on a civic basis in the time free from principal employment.
8. If contributions are made to the candidate's personal election fund by a physical or legal person who in accordance with this law does not have the right to make such contributions and also in cases of anonymous contributions made through other persons, or if the contributor's address is absent, these contributions are credited to the centralized fund for the presidential elections.
9. Money or that part of it which was contributed to the candidate's fund beyond the limits imposed by this law, is to be returned to the contributor.
10. Money remaining in the candidate's personal fund after his election as President of Ukraine or withdrawing from the election are credited to the centralized fund for presidential elections.
11. If a candidate who was not elected at the presidential election and if the elections were determined invalid or as such that had not take place is registered as a presidential candidate for repeat elections, he has the right to dispose of the funds remaining in his personal election fund on condition that the grounds on which the elections were invalidated are not attributable to the candidate's actions or those of his campaign agents or authorized persons.
12. A candidate may refuse to accept the money that came from a contributor. In such a case, he files a declaration to this effect with the institution where the account for his personal election fund was opened. This money is then returned by the above-referenced institution to the contributor at his expense and is not counted towards the maximal permissible size of the candidate's personal election fund.
13. In the event that a presidential candidate violates the requirements of this law with the regard to financial or material support, he may be removed from the ballot as stipulated by this law.

VI. GUARANTEES FOR THE ACTIVITY OF PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES AND OTHER PARTICIPANTS IN THE ELECTIONS

ARTICLE 34. The presidential candidate's rights in the conduct of the election campaign.

1. Presidential candidates, from the time of their registration by the CEC, take part in the election campaign on an equal basis and have equal rights to the use of state mass media on the territory of Ukraine.
2. All registered candidates for President are provided with equal opportunities regarding material and financial provision of their participation in the elections.
3. Registered candidates for President, during the time of the election campaign, have the right to be released from their current employment. Their compensation equals their average salary at their place of work, this to be paid from the funds allocated for the elections.
4. Presidential candidates have the right to travel using all means of public transportation free of charge on the territory of Ukraine with the exception of taxi.
